MINUTES BY THE GOVERNOR.

UNDER instructions from the Most Hon. the Secretary of State, His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to order the following addition to the Pension Minute of December 11, 1892:—

An Officer seconded from a pensionable appointment in the Public Service to temporary employment on the Harbour, Railway Construction, or other similar works under the Government control, may be allowed to count the period of his temporary employment for pension purposes, provided always—

- (1) That he retires under circumstances which would otherwise entitle him to pension.
- (2) That if he should be superannuated from seconded service, or within three years full service after leaving such seconded service, his retiring allowance shall be based on the pensionable emolument of the last pensionable appointment or appointments held by him prior to retirement.
- (3) That the fact of his being seconded with claim to pension shall be notified at the time in the Government Gazette.
- (4) That the seconding for such other temporary employment shall have been authorized by the Governor.

GOVERNMENT NOTIFICATIONS.

WHEREAS by the 10th section of the Ordinance No. 8 of 1866, intituled “An Ordinance to provide against the spread of Contagious Diseases in this Island,” it is provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time to make such regulations or orders as may be necessary and expedient to prevent the introduction or spread of infectious diseases in the Colony :

And whereas a case of suspected cholera is reported to have occurred at Vankalai in the District of Mannár, whereby it has become necessary that precautionary measures should be taken for securing the public health of the Districts of Jaffna and Mannár ;

The following regulations made by His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, in pursuance of the power and authority vested in him under and by virtue of the said Ordinance No. 8 of 1866, and in pursuance of every other power and authority vested in him in this behalf, are published for general information : and such regulations shall have effect and operation from the date hereof.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 15, 1895.

E. NOEL WALKER,
Colonial Secretary.

REGULATIONS made by His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, in pursuance of the provisions of the 10th section of the Ordinance No. 8 of 1866, intituled “An Ordinance to provide against the spread of Contagious Diseases in this Island.”

1. The following officers shall be deemed “authorized persons” under and for the purposes of carrying out these regulations within the District of Jaffna :—

- The Government Agent of the Province.
- The Police Magistrate.
- The Assistant Superintendent of Police.
- The Chairman of the Board of Health (if any), or, in his absence, the Secretary of the Board of Health (if any).
- The Colonial Surgeon of the Province.
- Any Medical Officer of the District.

2. It shall be lawful for any authorized person to cause persons infected with cholera, smallpox, chickenpox, or other infectious or contagious disease in any house or place hereunder described to be removed to some public hospital or other place provided by Government :—

- (1) In any house or place in which goods are exposed for sale.
- (2) In any house or place of public resort.
- (3) In any building in which there are no means of isolating the patients from the other inmates, or in any building where the retention of the patient is likely to prove a source of danger to others.

Provided that it shall be competent for any such authorized person as aforesaid, in case the removal of any person so infected in any house or place in which goods are exposed for sale is objected to, and the house or place is not otherwise open to objection, to allow the patient to be retained, on condition, however, that the sale of goods shall not be carried on in such house or place during such time as any person shall remain so infected in such house or place.

Provided further, that it shall be lawful for any such authorized person as aforesaid to allow any patient to be removed to any locality which such patient or his or her friends may choose, and to which the medical authorities of the town or place, if any, do not object, instead of to the public hospital or place provided by Government.

3. Except as provided by these regulations, and except as provided by the said Ordinance No. 8 of 1866, it shall not be lawful for any person to remove or assist in removing any person suffering from cholera, smallpox, chickenpox, or other infectious or contagious disease from the house or place in which such person shall be to any other house or place, without the sanction in writing of some duly authorized person.

4. It shall be lawful for any authorized person to prohibit the removal from any house or place in which goods are exposed for sale or from any house or place of public resort, or from any building in which cholera, smallpox, chickenpox, or other infectious or contagious disease may have occurred, of any articles of merchandise or trade, or goods of any kind, until such time as such building or place is declared to be free from infection by the medical authorities of the town or place in which such building is situated.

Provided that it shall be lawful for such authorized person, acting as aforesaid, to permit any goods from an infected house or place in which goods are exposed for sale, or from any house or place of public resort, or from any building in which cholera, smallpox, chickenpox, or other infectious or contagious disease may have occurred, to be removed to any other locality which the owner or occupier of such building may choose, and to which removal the medical authorities of the town or place do not object.

5. It shall be lawful for any authorized person to prohibit the removal for interment of the corpses of persons who have died of any contagious disease along any particular thoroughfare, and to prescribe the thoroughfares leading to the place of interment along which such corpses shall be carried. Information of such prohibition shall be given by notice in writing under the hand of some authorized person, which shall be posted in two or more conspicuous places in the prohibited thoroughfare, and by publication in such other way as may be deemed necessary by such authorized person.

6. These regulations shall come into operation on this date, and shall continue in force until June 30, 1895, or to such other time as the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall extend the same.

SEASON REPORT FOR THE MONTH ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1894.

NORTHERN PROVINCE.

MANNAR DISTRICT.

In the villages in Mantai division where paddy (maha) was cultivated, the crops are generally good.

In most of the villages in Muchali and Nanaddan pattus the fields have not been sown for want of water in the tanks, but in the villages where paddy was cultivated the crop is very poor.

Dry grain cultivation in Mannar island and on the main land is fair.

Paddy sells at Rs. 2 per bushel; kurakkan sells at Re. 1 per bushel.

Rainfall in December, 3.68 in.

1. Tenders are to be made upon forms which will be supplied upon application at the Office of the Government Agent, Batticaloa, and no tender will be considered unless it is furnished on the recognized form.

2. A deposit of Rs. 20 will be required before any form of tender is issued; and should any person decline to enter into the contract and bond after he has tendered, or fail to furnish approved security, such deposit will be forfeited to the Crown. All other deposits will be returned after the contract has been signed.

3. Sufficient sureties will be required to join in a bond for the due fulfilment of the contract. The amount of the bond and all necessary information in respect of the contract can be ascertained upon application at the Office of the Provincial Engineer, Batticaloa.

4. The Government reserves to itself the right, without question, of rejecting any or all tenders, and the right of accepting any portion of a tender.

5. Samples of articles marked thus (*) to be deposited with the Provincial Engineer, Batticaloa, in sealed packets or bottles, labelled with the name of the tenderer, on or before January 21, 1895.

6. Persons whose tenders are accepted by Government will be required to bear the expenses of having security bonds prepared for the due performance of their contracts, which bonds will be subject to the approval of the Attorney-General, but may be drawn by the tenderer's own lawyers.

7. When bonds have been drawn by the tenderer's own lawyers, the name or stamp of the Proctor who drafted the bond should be affixed to the document.

8. Every alteration should bear the initials of the tenderers, and all tenders containing alterations not bearing the tenderers' initials will be treated as informal and rejected.

H. L. CRAWFORD,
for Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, January 11, 1895.

SEALED Tenders (in duplicate) from persons willing to contract for the supply of Cocoanut oil for the use of Government at Trincomalee during 1895, will be received by the Hon. the Colonial Secretary at his office.

To be marked on the envelopes "Tender for Cocoanut oil, Colonial Store, for use at Trincomalee," receivable up to 12 o'clock on Monday, February 11, 1895.

The above to be delivered in such quantities as may be required from time to time.

Deposit for tender forms, Rs. 25.

2. A deposit, as noted above, will be required before any form of tender is issued; and should any person decline to enter into the contract and bond after he has tendered, or fail to furnish approved security, such deposit will be forfeited to the Crown. All other deposits will be returned upon signature of contract.

3. The deposit must be made at the Treasury or Kachcheri, and the deposit receipt must be produced to the officer issuing the form of tender as his authority for making the issue.

4. No tender will be considered unless it is on such printed forms—to be obtained at the Office of the Colonial Storekeeper—and unless accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, whose addresses must be given, engaging to become sureties for the due fulfilment of the contract.

5. The person whose tender is accepted must deposit samples with the Colonial Storekeeper before the date on which the tenders are considered, of which due notice will be given. No tender will be considered if the sample is not so deposited.

6. The amount of security to be given, and all other necessary information, can be ascertained on application at the Colonial Storekeeper's office.

7. The person whose tender has been accepted by Government will be required to bear the expense of having security bonds prepared for the due performance of his contract, which bonds will be subject to the approval of the Attorney-General, but may be drawn by the tenderer's own lawyers, in which case the name or stamp of the Proctor who drafted the bond should be affixed to the document. But if a contractor submits a security bond which does not bear the name or stamp of the lawyer who drafted it, he will be required to pay a fee of Rs. 10-50 to the Attorney-General for approving each bond.

8. The security bond should be furnished immediately on acceptance of tender being notified.

9. All alterations or erasures in tenders should bear the initials of the tenderers, otherwise the tenders will be treated as informal and rejected.

10. The Government reserves to itself the right, without question, of rejecting any or all tenders, and the right of accepting any portion of a tender.
