PREFACE.

In presenting the new edition of the Catalogue to the members of the Colombo Library, some explanation regarding its arrangement is necessary to guide the members in finding any book they may require. The Catalogue has been divided into five classes, as follows:—

CLASS A.—Works of Reference.

CLASS B.—Foreign Literature.

CLASS C.—Bound Magazines and Periodicals.

CLASS D.—General Literature.

CLASS E.—Fiction (Adventures, Novels, Romances, &c.)

It has been thought advisable that Classes A, B, C, and E should be classed quite distinct from each other, and also from Class D, which contains books on a variety of subjects including biographies, histories, travels, &c., so as to facilitate the finding of any particular work required.

Class A has been compiled only as a title index, though in a few instances it has been deemed advisable to insert the authors' name as well, as in the case of "Webster's Dictionary", where "Webster" alone would suffice as a title to the work in question.

Class B is an index of authors, and the works are arranged alphabetically under each name as far as practicable.

Class C is only a title index.

Class D, which contains by far the greater portion of the reading matter in the Library, is an author and title index, while in most cases books have been catalogued according to the subject-matter.

The Ceylon section, which is so frequently referred to, more particularly by visitors passing through Ceylon, in order to familiarise themselves with the ancient and modern history, topography, &c., of the Island, is included in this class, and every effort has been made to procure as many as possible of the works relating to Ceylon, before the Catalogue was completed.

Class E is an author index.

The Catalogue has been revised and brought up to date. Lists of books received after this date will be published from time to time, as occasion arises, and issued as supplements to the Catalogue.

The Librarian will be glad to receive any suggestions with regard to the Catalogue for future editions.
