W HEREAS by the Ordinance No. 14 of 1873, intituled "An Ordinance relating to the Afinual Pilgrimage to Kataragama," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time, by notification in the Government Gazette, to make orders for any of the following purposes, and to appoint officers to enforce the observance of such orders, viz.:—

1. To restrict the number of persons who shall be allowed to proceed in such pilgrimage from the different parts of this Island, and the period of their stay at Kataragama.

2. To regulate the collection of people at the different starting and halting-places, and their march to and from Kataragama.

3. To impose such conditions and restrictions as may be necessary to promote cleanliness, and to check the breaking out and spread of infections diseases.

The following orders made by His Excellency, with the advice of the Executive Council, under the Ordinance aforesaid, are published for general information:—

1. The number of pilgrims for the pilgrimage of the year 1896 is restricted to 300, viz., 50 pilgrims for the Colombo band, 50 for the Kandy band, 50 for the Galle band, 50 for the Kurunégala band, 50 for the Batticaloa band, and 50 for the Badulla band,

A 1*

No person shall take part in the pilgrimage of the year 1896 without having first obtained a ticket from the Government Agent of the Western Province for the Colombo band, or from the Government Agent of the Central Province for the Kandy band, or from the Government Agent of the Southern Province for the Galle band, or from the Government Agent of the North-Western Province for the Kurunégala band, or from the Government Agent of the Eastern Province for the Batticaloa band, or from the Government Agent for the Province of Uva for the Badulla band.

3. Every pilgrim shall show his ticket when required to do so by any officer of police, or by any officer appointed to enforce the observance of orders under the Ordinance aforesaid.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, June 24, 1896.

W. T. TAYLOR, Acting Colonial Secretary.

THE following rules and orders made by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council under Ordinance No. 14 of 1873, entitled "An Ordinance relating to the Annual Pilgrimage to Kataragama," for the conduct of the Kataragama pilgrimage and festival, are re-published for general information.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, Colombo, June 24, 1896.

W. T. TAYLOR, Acting Colonial Secretary.

Rules.

- 1. For sanitary reasons the duration of the Kataragama festival and of the stay of pilgrims at Kataragama shall be, and it is hereby limited henceforward to four days, one (being the third before full moon day) for arrival, two (being the day of the full moon and the previous day) for worship, and the fourth (being that immediately following full moon day) for departure from Kataragama. Pilgrims arriving before the day first named, or staying beyond the period here prescribed, shall be guilty of an offence. The route granted by the Police authorities to the leaders of the bands shall distinctly specify the above-named periods.
- 3. It shall be lawful for the Police authorities or any Police Magistrate at any place on the line of march to prohibit from proceeding all persons who, by reason of disease, infirmity, weakness, advanced age, youth, want of supplies, or other sufficient cause are considered unfit to undertake the journey, or who appear likely to fall ill and endanger the health of others; and to require such persons to find security to ensure their obedience to the orders so given. In default of such security being found, it shall be lawful for the said Police authorities or Police Magistrate to detain such persons in custody for a period not exceeding three days.

4. In the event of cholera or other serious epidemic disease prevailing in Ceylon or Southern India about the period of the festival, it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to prohibit all pilgrims from proceeding to the festival at Kataragama for that year.

5. In the event of an epidemic breaking out at Kataragama during the festival, it shall be lawful for the officers appointed to enforce the observance of orders, to declare the festival at an end, and to direct pilgrims at once to leave the village and proceed to their homes, and to prescribe the roads they have to travel.

The officers appointed to enforce the observance of orders shall have power on the line of march to and from Kataragama and at Kataragama-

> (a) To appoint particular places to be exclusively used by the pilgrims for washing and bathing, for drawing water and drinking, and for natural offices;

(b) To appoint places for the occupation of each class of pilgrims; (c) To prescribe routes for the journey of any body of pilgrims; (d) To regulate the distribution of all food given to pilgrims;

(e) To fix separate places of abode for pilgrims who fall ill, to prohibit communication with them, and to detain them if unfit to travel.

Any person disobeying an order given by the appointed officers shall be guilty of an offence.

7. The Chief Officer of Police shall have power to require persons making the pilgrimage to join the main body of pilgrims, and pilgrims refusing or neglecting to join the main body after being so required shall be deemed guilty of an offence.

8. Any pilgrim committing a nuisance while on the march, within 100 yards of the line of march, or while halting at any place other than that assigned for the purpose by the Police, or omitting to cover the deposit with earth or sand, shall be deemed guilty of an offence.

9. The Police are empowered and required to seize and destroy all food condemned as unwholesome on the march or in camp by the Medical Officer, or, if there be none, by the Chief Officer of Police, and any person resisting or obstructing the Police in the discharge of this or of any other duty prescribed by these rules shall be deemed guilty of an offence.

10. Any pilgrim tethering or keeping cattle in any place other than that assigned by the Police shall be deemed guilty of an offence.

11. Any person selling meat in camp in any other place than that assigned for the purpose by the officer in charge of the camp, and any other person selling food condemned as wholesome by the Medical Officer, or in his absence by the Chief Officer of Police, shall be deemed guilty of an offence.

12. Any pilgrim who shall, during the occupation of the camp, use any other place for offices of nature than that provided for the purpose by Government, or failing to cover the deposit with earth or sand, and any person who shall during the same period bathe in or enter the river above the spot appointed by the officer in charge of the camp, shall be deemed guilty of an offence.

13. Any person gambling, or being found drunk and disorderly in the camp, or in or about the adjacent jungle, shall be deemed guilty of an offence.

14. Any person suffering from an infectious or a contagious disease, and not reporting the same to the Medical Officer, or in his absence to the Chief Officer of Police, and any person abetting or assisting in the concealment of such disease, shall be deemed guilty of an offence.

15. All pilgrims shall take up the quarters assigned to them by the Chief Officer of Police at the halting places and in the camp, and any pilgrim declining or neglecting to do so shall be deemed guilty of an offence.
