BENGAL.-No. 201.

Africa—North-East Coast—Red Sea—Western Shore— Shoal reported North-West of Difnein Island.

The British Admiralty has given notice (No. 448 of 1892) that information has been received from H. B. M. Consulat Jidda that Mr. Baldwin, commanding the British Akbar, reports that, when approaching North Massawa channel from the northward on July 1, 1892, the ship, drawing nearly 20 ft. water, touched slightly at the snip, crawing nearly 20 it. water, southed signey as 8 r.m. on a shoal (probably composed of coral) lying with Difficin island bearing about S.E. 4 E., distant 12 miles. A sounding of 5 fathoms was obtained near the spot, and soon after the ship was anchored in 22 fathoms. The weather at the time was hazy, and there was a slight swell from the southward.

Position as given to be considered very doubtful: lat. 16° 47' N., long. 39° 12' E.

Caution.—There being many indications of shoal patches northward of Difnein, and the area being but imperfectly examined, caution is necessary in approaching that island. A note to this effect has been placed on admiralty chart
