DRAFT ORDINANCES.

MINUTE.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information:—

An Ordinance to suppress Intermeddlers with Suitors in Courts of Justice.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide against the mischiefs caused by touts and vagrants meddling with parties who seek redress in courts of justice: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Interpretation clause.

1 In this Ordinance, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context—

“Legal practitioner.”

“Legal practitioner” means an advocate or proctor or any person authorized by any law for the time being to practise in any court of this island.

“Registered clerk.”

“Registered clerk” means the clerk of any legal practitioner registered in any court as a clerk authorized to submit pleadings, affidavits, or other documents to the secretary, chief clerk, or other subordinate officers of such court.

Soliciting or receiving a gratification in consideration of procuring or having procured employment.

2 Any person who—

(a) solicits or receives from any legal practitioner any gratification in consideration of procuring or having procured his employment in a legal business;

Retaining gratification out of remuneration paid or agreed to be paid.

Soliciting or receiving gratification, &c., while not being authorized to practise.

Legal practitioner tendering, giving, or consenting to retention of gratification for procuring or having procured employment.

Legal practitioner convicted under this Ordinance to be removed from office.

Unauthorized persons habitually frequenting courts or court precincts. Persons persistently, without lawful excuse, accosting or addressing by words or signs suitors or other persons.

Accused may give evidence on his own behalf.

Jurisdiction given to police courts.

(b) retains any gratification, or withholds without just cause a portion, out of remuneration paid to be delivered to any legal practitioner for such employment ;

(c) not being authorized under any law to practise in any court, solicits or receives from any person any gratification in consideration of procuring or having procured the employment of a legal practitioner in any legal business ;

(d) being a legal practitioner, tenders, gives, or consents to the retention of any gratification for procuring or having procured the employment in any legal business of himself or any other legal practitioners— shall be guilty of an offence, and shall on conviction be punished with a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

3 Any legal practitioner who shall be convicted of any offence under this Ordinance shall be liable to be removed or suspended from office by the Judges of the Supreme Court, on the motion of the attorney-general or solicitor-general.

4 Any person not being a court officer, or the peon or messenger of any judge or legal practitioner, or the registered clerk of any legal practitioner, who habitually frequents without any ostensible object the Supreme Court or any district court, court of requests, police court, or municipal magistrate's court, or the precincts of any such court ; or who, without lawful excuse, accosts or attempts by words or signs to meddle with any suitor or other person having business in such court, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to be punished with a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

5 Any person charged with any offence under this Ordinance may, if he thinks fit, tender himself to be examined on his own behalf, and thereupon may give evidence in the same manner and with the like effect and consequences as any other witness.

6 Police courts are hereby empowered to deal summarily with all cases instituted under this Ordinance and to impose the full penalties herein prescribed, anything in the Criminal Procedure Code or in any other Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

By His Excellency's command,

E. NOEL WALKER,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, August 13, 1894.

Colonial Secretary.
