SEASON REPORT FOR THE MONTH ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 1895.

NORTHERN PROVINCE.

MANNAR DISTRICT.

Paddy fields and beds of tanks on the mainland are being manured and fenced for next maha paddy cultivation. Jungles are being cleared and burnt both on the mainland and in Mannar island for dry grain cultivation. Paddy sells at Re. 1.62 per bushel; kurakkan sells at Re. 1.50 per bushel. Health of people: fair. Health of cattle: cattle generally suffer greatly for want of water and pasture. Losses from murrain have been very heavy among buffaloes, and cattle for ploughing will be difficult to procure. Sea-fishing: poor, south-west wind being still very strong. Rainfall: .09 in. The drought has been unprecedented.

NOTICES CALLING FOR TENDERS.

SEALED Tenders (in duplicate), marked on the envelopes "Tender for Dieting Agricultural Students," will be received at the Colonial Secretary's Office up to noon on Saturday, November 2, 1895, from persons willing to contract for dieting the students of the Colombo School of Agriculture from January 1 to December 31, 1896.

The tenders are to be made on forms which will be supplied upon application at the Office of the Director of Public Instruction, and no tender will be considered unless it is furnished on the recognized form.

A deposit of Rs. 20 will be required before any form of tender is issued; and should any person decline to enter into the contract and bond after he has tendered, or fail to furnish approved security, such deposit will be forfeited to the Crown. All other deposits will be returned upon signature of a contract.

Sufficient sureties will be required to join in a bond for the due fulfilment of each contract. The amount of such bond, and all other necessary information, can be ascertained upon application at the Office of the Director of Public Instruction.

The Government reserves to itself the right, without question, of rejecting any or all tenders, and the right of accepting any portion of a tender.

Samples of rice must be deposited at the Office of the Director of Public Instruction, in sealed packets or bottles, labelled with the tenderer's name, before the date on which the tenders are to be opened.

Persons whose tenders have been accepted by Government will be required to bear the expenses of having security bonds prepared for the due performance of their contracts, which bonds will be subject to the approval of the Attorney-General, whose fees should be paid by the contractor, but may be drawn by the tenderers' own lawyers.

On bonds which have been drawn by the tenderers' own lawyer, the name and stamp of the Proctor who drafted the bond should be affixed, in order to facilitate the work of the Crown Counsel.

Every alteration in the tender should bear the initials of the tenderer. All alterations in tenders not bearing the tenderers' initials will be treated as informal and rejected.

H. L. CRAWFORD,
for Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, September 9, 1895.

Tenders for Coal and Firewood, 1896.

SEALED Tenders, marked on the envelopes "Tender for ——— to the Colombo Harbour Works during 1896," will be received by the Resident Engineer at his office up to 12 noon on November 15, 1895.

A deposit of Rs. 50, to be made at this office, is required before any form of tender is issued; and should any person decline to enter into the contract and bond after he has tendered, or fail to furnish approved security, such deposit will be forfeited. All other deposits will be returned on signature of contract.

No tender will be considered unless it is on a form to be obtained at this office, and unless accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, whose addresses must be given, engaging to become sureties for the due fulfilment of the contract.

The amount of security to be given, and all other necessary information, can be ascertained on application at this office.

The security bond must be furnished before December 31, 1895. All alterations or erasures should bear the initials of the tenderers, otherwise the tenders will be treated as informal and rejected.

The Resident Engineer reserves to himself the right, without question, of rejecting any or all tenders.

Harbour Works Office,
October 11, 1895.

J. H. BOSTROCK,
Resident Engineer.

SEALED Tenders (in duplicate), marked on the envelopes "Tender for supply of Rice in the Eastern Province," will be received at the Colonial Secretary's Office up to 12 o'clock noon on Monday, November 25, 1895, from persons willing to contract to supply best kallunda and country rice for the use of the Public Works Department, Eastern Province, at the different places named below, during the period from January 1, 1896, to June 30, 1896:—

- (1) Batticaloa Public Works Department yard.
- (2) Any station on the Coast road.
- (3) Any station on the Badulla, Batticaloa road.
- (4) Any station on the Kalkuda road.

1. Tenders are to be made on forms which will be supplied upon application at the Office of the Government Agent, Batticaloa, and no tender will be considered unless it is furnished on the recognized form.

2. A deposit of Rs. 50 will be required before any form of tender is issued; and should any person decline to enter into the contract and bond after he has tendered, or fail to furnish approved security, such deposit shall be forfeited to the Crown. All other deposits will be returned after the contract has been signed.

3. Sufficient cash security will be required to join in a bond for the due fulfilment of the contract.

The amount of the bond and all other necessary information in respect of the contract can be ascertained upon application at the Office of the Provincial Engineer, Batticaloa.

4. The Government reserves to itself the right, without question, of rejecting any or all tenders, and the right of accepting any portion of a tender.

5. Samples of rice to be deposited with the Provincial Engineer, Batticaloa, in sealed bags, not less than quarter bushel, labelled with the name of the tenderer, on or before November 25, 1895.

6. The person whose tender has been accepted by Government will be required to bear the expense of having security bonds prepared for the due performance of his contract, which bonds will be subject to the approval of the Attorney-General, but may be drawn by the tenderer's own lawyers, in which case the name or stamp of the Proctor who drafted the bond should be affixed to the document. But if a contractor submits a security bond which does not bear the name or stamp of the lawyer who drafted it, he will be required to pay a fee of Rs. 10.50 to the Attorney-General for approving each bond.

7. All alterations should bear the initials of the tenderers, and all tenders containing alterations not bearing the tenderers' initials will be treated as informal and rejected.
