DRAFT ORDINANCES.

The following Draft of a proposed Ordinance is published for general information :—

An Ordinance to amend the Law relating to the Registration of Births and Deaths in this Island.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain respects the Ordinance No. 1 of 1895, intituled "The Births and Deaths Registration Ordinance, 1895," and hereinafter referred to as "the principal Ordinance:" Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance and the principal Ordinance shall be read together as one Ordinance, and this Ordinance may be cited as "The Births and Deaths Registration Amendment Ordinance, 1900."

Amendment of section 6, as to registration divisions.

2 In section 6 of the principal Ordinance after the words "and such divisions" and before the words "at any time" there shall be inserted the words "or any of them."

Amendment of proviso to section 7, as to appointment of registrars.

3 For the proviso to section 7 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following proviso :

Provided that in case of the death, sudden illness, or incapacity of the registrar of a division, or in case of other emergency, it shall be lawful for the Registrar-General, provincial registrar, or assistant provincial registrar, by writing under his hand, to appoint a person to act as registrar for such division for any period not exceeding thirty days at any one time. Such acting appointment shall be forthwith entered by the officer making the appointment in a book to be kept for the purpose, and shall be notified in the Government Gazette.

Amendment of section 10 (2), as to office and station of registrar.

4 In sub-section (2) of section 10 of the principal Ordinance after the words "appointed by the" and before the words "provincial registrar" there shall be inserted the words "Registrar-General or," and after the word "Registrar-General" and before the words "to be placed" there shall be inserted the words "or provincial registrar."

Amendment of section 11 (3), as to transmission of duplicates by registrars.

5 In sub-section (3) of section 11 of the principal Ordinance after the words "to the assistant provincial registrar" wherever they occur there shall be inserted the words "of the district."

Amendment of section 20, as to registration of past births.

6 For section 20 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following section :

(1) After the expiration of three months next after the birth of any child, a registrar shall not register such birth except as in this section provided ; that is to say :

(a) In case the birth of any child has not been registered, the registrar may, after three and not later than twelve months next after such birth, by notice in writing, require any person required by this Ordinance to give information concerning the birth, to attend personally at the office of the Registrar-General, provincial registrar, or assistant provincial registrar, within such time (not less than seven days after the receipt of the notice, and not more than twelve months after the date of the birth) as may be specified in the notice, and make before such officer a declaration of the particulars required to be registered concerning the birth, according to the best of the declarant's knowledge and belief, in the form E in the second schedule hereto, on a paper bearing a stamp of the value of one rupee, which stamp shall be supplied by the party making the declaration ; and upon the said person making such a declaration as aforesaid, whether in pursuance of a requisition or not, it shall be lawful for the officer before whom the declaration shall have been made to order the registrar of the division within which the birth shall have taken place to register the birth according to the information given in the declaration aforesaid, and the registrar shall thereupon make and sign the entry of birth, attaching thereto the order of the Registrar-General, the provincial registrar, or assistant provincial registrar. The entry so made shall, for the purposes of the principal Ordinance and of this Ordinance, be deemed to have been signed by the person who made the declaration.

- (b) After the expiration of twelve months, and not more than seven years after the birth of any child, the birth shall not be registered except with the written authority of the Registrar-General, who shall have power, upon the application of any party interested, and on a declaration made by him in the form E in the second schedule hereto before the Registrar-General or any provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar, on paper bearing a stamp of the value of five rupees (which stamp shall be supplied by the party making the declaration), and after due inquiry, to issue an order to the registrar to register the birth; and the registrar shall thereupon make and sign the entry of birth, attaching thereto the order of the Registrar-General, and the entry so made shall, for the purposes of the principal Ordinance and of this Ordinance, be deemed to have been signed by the party who made the declaration.
- (c) If any person shall desire to have any birth registered which took place not earlier than the first day of January, 1868, and not later than the commencement of this Ordinance, and which has not yet been duly registered, or regarding which it is doubtful whether it has been duly registered, and the registration of which is not provided for by the preceding sub-sections, it shall be competent for such person to make an application to the Registrar-General, accompanied by a declaration made in the form E in the second schedule hereto before the Registrar-General or any provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar, on paper bearing a stamp of the value of ten rupees, which stamp shall be supplied by the declarant, and it shall be lawful for the Registrar-General, after due inquiry, to register the birth in a book to be kept by him in the form F in the second schedule hereto, and called the "Register of Past Births."
- (d) Where any person is prosecuted for not giving to the registrar due information touching the birth of any child, the magistrate trying such person shall upon the conclusion of the trial send to the provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar of the province or district within which such birth took place a certificate under his hand in the form V in the second schedule hereto giving information of the several particulars by this Ordinance required to be known and registered touching such birth, and thereupon the provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar shall cause the birth, if not previously registered, to be registered by the proper registrar in the prescribed form and manner. If the birth has been previously registered, the provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar shall cause the entry to be verified with the magistrate's certificate, and a record made by the registrar of such particulars, if any, as may be at variance with the original entry without any alteration in the original entry, and a note made that the entry has been so verified.

(2) Every person who registers or causes to be registered the birth of any child after the expiration of three months from the day of such birth, otherwise than in accordance with this section, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

(3) The inquiries prescribed by sub-sections 1 (b) and (c) shall be held by the Registrar-General or by the provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar, and it shall be lawful for the officer making such inquiry to cite and examine witnesses upon oath or affirmation, and to call for the production of any document material to the inquiry from the person who has the custody of such document.

Amendment of section 21, as to insertion or alteration of a name in a birth register.

7 For section 21 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following section :

When the birth of any child has been registered, and the name, if any, by which it was registered is altered or added to, or if it was registered without a name, when a name is given to it, it shall be competent for the parent or guardian of such child to make an application to the Registrar-General, provincial registrar, or assistant provincial registrar for the insertion or alteration of the name, and such application shall be accompanied by a declaration made before a justice of the peace and on paper bearing a stamp, which shall be supplied by the party making the declaration, and which shall be of the value of one rupee if not more than two years have elapsed from the date of registration of the birth, and of the value of five rupees if more than two years have elapsed ; and it shall thereupon be lawful for the Registrar-General, provincial registrar, or assistant provincial registrar, after due inquiry, to cause the entry of birth to be amended, but without any erasure of the original entry, and the amendment shall be signed by the Registrar-General or by the provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar. The declaration required by this section shall be substantially in the form G (1) or G (2) in the second schedule hereto, as the case may require.

Forms.

8 The forms G (1) and G (2) in the schedule hereto shall be substituted for the form G in the second schedule to the principal Ordinance, and the forms V and W in the schedule hereto shall be added to the said second schedule.

Amendment of section 26, as to requisition concerning death.

9 In section 26 of the principal Ordinance for the word "twelve" wherever the same may occur there shall be substituted the word "three."

Amendment of section 27, as to duty of registrar to register deaths.

10 In section 27 of the principal Ordinance the word "personally" shall be omitted.

Insertion of section 29 (a).

11 Immediately after section 29 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be inserted and numbered 29 (a) :

Registration of deaths after prosecution.

Whenever any person is prosecuted for not giving to the registrar due information of the death of any person or of the finding of any dead body, the magistrate trying such person shall upon the conclusion of the trial send to the Registrar-General a certificate under his hand in the form W in the second schedule hereto giving information of the several particulars by this Ordinance required to be known and registered touching such death, and thereupon the Registrar-General shall cause the death, if not previously registered, to be registered by the proper registrar in the prescribed form and manner. If the death has been previously registered, the Registrar-General shall cause the entry to be verified with the magistrate's certificate, and a record made by the registrar of such particulars, if any, as may be at variance with the original entry without any alteration in the original entry, and a note made that the entry has been so verified.

Amendment of section 32, as to burial of bodies in proclaimed places.

Removal and disposal of bodies.

12 In sub-section (3) of section 32 of the principal Ordinance for the words "shall be produced" there shall be substituted the words "shall before the dead body is buried, cremated, or otherwise disposed of be produced."

13 After section 32 of the principal Ordinance the following section shall be inserted and numbered 32*a*, namely :

(1) In any town, district, or place proclaimed under the provisions of section 31 no dead body shall be buried, cremated, or otherwise disposed of except in a cemetery or burial ground duly established or registered for such place under the provisions of "The Cemeteries and Burials Ordinance, 1899."

(2) No dead body shall be removed outside such town, district, or place for burial, cremation, or other disposal in any place other than a cemetery or burial ground duly established or registered for such town, district, or place, except with the written permission of the proper authority under the last-mentioned Ordinance and after the registration of the death by the proper registrar.

(3) Every person who, contrary to the provisions of this section, shall bury, cremate, or otherwise dispose of a dead body, or remove it for such burial, cremation, or disposal, or cause, permit, suffer, or assist in such burial, cremation, disposal, or removal, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding three hundred rupees, or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding one month.

14 In section 34 of the principal Ordinance after the word "registrar" there shall be inserted the words "of births and deaths."

15 In section 35 of the principal Ordinance the words "during the absence from the division or incapacity of such registrar" are hereby repealed.

16 For sub-section (3) of section 37 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following sub-section :

(a) The Registrar-General may cause an error of fact or substance in any such register to be corrected by entry in the margin thereof (without any alteration of the original entry) upon the production, by the person applying for the correction of such error, of the declaration hereinafter mentioned, and of such other evidence as the Registrar-General may require.

(b) The declaration shall bear a stamp of one rupee, and shall set forth the nature of the error and the true facts of the case, and shall be made before the Registrar-General, provincial registrar, or assistant provincial registrar by the person on whose information the birth or death was registered, or in default of such person by any credible person having knowledge of the truth of the case.

17 For sub-section (4) of section 37 of the principal Ordinance there shall be substituted the following sub-section :

Where an error of fact or substance (other than an error relating to the cause of death) occurs in the certificate furnished by an inquirer into deaths in terms of section 30, the inquirer, if satisfied by evidence on oath or affirmation that such error exists, may certify under his hand to the Registrar-General, provincial registrar, or assistant provincial registrar (as the case may be), the nature of the error and the true facts of the case as ascertained by him, and the Registrar-General, provincial registrar, or assistant provincial registrar may thereupon cause the error to be corrected in the register by entering in the margin thereof (without any alteration of the original entry) the facts as so certified by the inquirer; and the correction shall be signed by the Registrar-General, provincial registrar, or assistant provincial registrar.

Amendment of section 34, as to qualifications of registrars in proclaimed places.

Amendment of section 35, as to appointment of deputy registrar.

Amendment of section 37 (3), as to correction of error in register.
