PROCLAMATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR.

IN the Name of Her Majesty VICTORIA, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency the Right Honourable Sir J. WEST RIDGEWAY, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Commander of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Island of Ceylon, with the Dependencies thereof.

WEST RIDGEWAY.

WHEREAS by section 8 of "The Police Ordinance, 1865," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to establish a Police Force in any place other than large towns, though such Force be not maintained in the manner prescribed by the said Ordinance, and to declare that certain of the provisions of the said Ordinance shall come into operation at such place, specifying the limits thereof:

And whereas it is expedient to establish a Police Force at Minuwangoda, in the Western Province, under the provisions of the said 8th section of the said Ordinance, and to declare that certain of the provisions of the said Ordinance shall come into operation therein within the limits hereinafter specified:

Now know Ye that We, the said Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, do by this Our Proclamation, as from and after the 1st day of May, 1897, establish a Police Force at Minuwangoda aforesaid, under the provisions of section 8 aforesaid of the said Ordinance, and declare that the following sections of the said Ordinance, save where they or any of them shall have been by any subsequent Ordinance in anywise amended or in part repealed, shall, from and after the said 1st day of May, 1897, come into operation thereon within the limits specified in the schedule hereto, viz., sections 51, 53, 54, 55, 57, 58, 59, 61, 62, 63, 65, 67, 69, 70, 72, 73, 74, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 85, 86, 87, 90, 91, 94, 95, and 98.

Given at Colombo, in the said Island of Ceylon, this Third day of April, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Ninety-seven.

By His Excellency's command,

E. NOEL WALKER,
Colonial Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

SCHEDULE.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, April 27, 1897.

By His Excellency's command,
E. NOEL WALKER,
Colonial Secretary.

RULES to be observed by Village Committees for the trial of breaches of Rules under the Ordinance No. 34 of 1884 in the Southern Province.

1.—Form and Manner of Proceedings.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| Chairman to keep journal.  | 1. The chairman of the village committee shall keep a journal of proceedings, copy of which shall be forwarded weekly to the kachcheri of the sub-division to which such village committee belongs.   |
| To whom complaint to be made.                                    | 2. Complaints with respect to breaches of rules may be made, verbally or in writing, to the chairman of the village committee, who shall thereupon enter them in his journal (Form A).  |
| By whom complaint to be made.                                    | 3. Complaint with respect to breaches of rules may be made either by a private party or by a local headman.   |
| Summary inquiry in certain cases.                                | 4. When a complaint is made, if the attendance of the defendant can be easily procured, the chairman shall forthwith inquire into and decide the matter summarily, provided the complainant and defendant both consent to abide by such decision of the chairman, and provided that no fine is imposed on such summary inquiry.   |
| When complaint absent.   | 5. If on the day appointed for hearing the complainant is absent, the case may be struck off.   |
| Mode of hearing, and decision.                                   | 6. The chairman and village committee shall endeavour, by all lawful means, to settle the matter complained of amicably. If the parties do not agree to such settlement, the chairman and the village committee shall proceed to hear evidence on both sides and decide the matter. The chairman shall then take down in writing the defence, if any, made by the defendant in answer to the complaint, and short minutes of the evidence given by the witnesses. The opinion of the majority of the committee shall be the judgment, but in case of equality of votes among the members of the committee, the chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his vote as a member of the committee. |
| Language of proceedings.   | 7. The journal of proceedings, forms of process, and minutes of evidence shall be written either in the English or the Sinhalese language, as the chairman and committee may deem best.   |
| Procedure for interrupting conduct of business before committee. | 8. No person shall behave in a disorderly or unseemly manner before a village committee so as to interrupt the regular and peaceable conduct of business before such committee. The chairman shall warn the offender to behave in a proper manner; and if he or she shall fail to attend to the warning, he or she may be proceeded against for breach of this rule.  |

II.—Processes to be issued.

- |                               |  |
|-------------------------------|--|
| Issue of summons.             | 9. When the attendance of the defendant cannot be secured as set forth in rule 4, the chairman shall issue a summons addressed to the village headman, who shall thereupon cause the same to be served, and report such service to the chairman (Form B). The chairman may likewise issue a summons addressed to the village headman, in order to secure the attendance of the complainant or of any witnesses (Form C).                                       |
| Ex parte hearing and warrant. | 10. If the defendant contumaciously refuse to attend, the chairman and village committee may hear and decide the case in his absence, or such chairman may issue a warrant, upon which it shall be lawful for the village headman to cause the defendant to be arrested and brought before the village committee (Form D).The chairman shall have like power to issue a warrant against a complainant or witness failing to attend when summoned (Form E). |

Register of fines to be kept by chairman.

11. A register of fines imposed shall be kept by the chairman of the village committee (Form G), a duplicate copy of which shall be forwarded monthly to the kachcheri together with the fines recovered.

II.—Appeals.

Application for relief.

12. Application for relief shall be addressed to the Government Agent in the first instance, who shall then call for the record of the case. Failing relief from the Government Agent, the party aggrieved may apply by petition to the Governor.

Chairman to carry out the judgment of the Government Agent or of the Governor

13. It shall be the duty of the chairman of the village committee to see that the judgment of the Government Agent or of the Governor, as ultimately pronounced, is duly carried out.

Communication of appeal decisions.

14. The chairman shall on being informed of the decision in appeal of any case disposed of by the committee, notice the appellants to appear before him at the earliest sitting of the committee and read the decision publicly and within the hearing of the appellants.

Penalty for disobeying summons.

15. When a summons shall have been issued under rule 9, and the person named in such summons shall, after due service thereof, neglect to attend in obedience to such summons, it shall be lawful for the village committee to impose on such person a fine not exceeding Rs. 2, in addition to the issue of a warrant as provided for in rule 10.

Bail in case of arrest.

16. When a person is arrested on a warrant issued under rule 10 such person shall be forthwith taken before the chairman who issued the warrant, and the chairman may in his discretion admit him to bail to appear before the village committee at its next sitting. Such bail may be with or without security, but the amount thereof shall not exceed Rs. 50.

Detention when no bail.

17. When no bail is ordered, or the party apprehended is unable to give bail, he shall not be detained in custody for a longer period than forty-eight hours.

Procedure on forfeiture of bonds.

18. Whenever it is proved to the satisfaction of the committee that any bond taken by the committee under the provisions of rule 16 has been forfeited, the committee shall record the grounds of such proof, and may call upon any person bound by such bond to pay the penalty thereof, or to show cause why it should not be paid. If sufficient cause is not shown, and the penalty is not paid, the committee may proceed to recover the same by issuing a warrant under the hand of the chairman for the attachment and sale of the movable or immovable property belonging to such person. Such warrant may be executed within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the committee which issued it, and it shall authorize the distress and sale of any movable or immovable property belonging to such person without such limits, when endorsed by the Government Agent or the chairman of the committee within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such property is found.

The committee may in its discretion remit any portion of the penalty mentioned, and enforce payment in part only.

Re-institution of cases.

19. No case which has been struck off, and no case which has been decided in favour of the defendant, shall be re-instituted before any village committee without leave of the chairman having been first obtained.

Applicants for relief to give security.

20. Whenever an application shall be made under the 9th section of "The Village Communities' Ordinance Amendment Ordinance, 1884," to the Government Agent for relief against the judgment of a village committee, such application shall not stay the execution of the judgment of the village committee unless the party applying shall give security in an amount not exceeding Rs. 20 to satisfy the judgment of the committee if it should ultimately be affirmed.

Postponement of cases.

21. No case when summons has been ordered shall be postponed more than once, and no inquiry shall be delayed more than eight days from the date of institution of the case, unless there be special reasons for doing so.

Commitment in default of payment of fine.

22. When the chairman of a village committee has passed sentence of fine only, in pursuance of the powers in him vested by the Ordinance No. 34 of 1884, the party accused shall pay such fine forthwith, and in default of his making such payment the chairman may issue his warrant of commitment in the Form H in the schedule herewith.

Sale of Rights to collect Minor Forest Produce and to Pasture Cattle.

THE Assistant Conservator of Forests, Eastern Province, will sell by auction at his office in the Forest Department Depot, Batticaloa, at 2 P.M. on Wednesday, May 19 next, the following rights to be exercised during the present year within the Forest Department reserves of the Batticaloa District of the Eastern Province, extending over 1,740 square miles:—

- (a) To collect honey and wax.
- (b) To collect edible birds'-nests.
- (c) To collect gallnuts (kadukai).
- (d) To collect lily bulbs (kodaikilanku).
- (e) To cut canes.
- (f) To collect palai fruit.
- (g) To collect mora fruit.
- (h) To pasture cattle at Rugam tank.

2. Each of the above rights will be sold separately.

3. The right to collect honey and wax, also palai and mora fruit, will be sold subject to the right of villagers living within the reserves to collect such for their own consumption, but not for sale.

4. The right to collect edible birds'-nests will be sold subject to the condition that the nests are not collected during the breeding season, and that no young birds are killed.

5. The right to collect aralu nuts (kadukai), also palai and mora fruit, will be subject to the condition that no damage whatever is done to the trees by felling them or lopping off branches to facilitate the collection.

The Forest Department will make every effort to protect the rights sold to purchasers, by prosecuting any persons charged by right-holders, on good evidence, with having illicitly collected minor forest produce or pastured cattle.

Twenty-five per cent. of the purchase money must be paid on the day of sale, and the balance within one month.

Further information, especially with regard to the boundaries of the reserves, may be obtained on application to the Assistant Conservator of Forest, Batticaloa.

ALFRED CLARK,
Assistant Conservator of Forests,
Eastern Province.

Batticaloa, April 10, 1897.

NOTICES CALLING FOR TENDERS.

SEALED Tenders, marked on the envelopes "Tender for provisioning Hospitals," will be received up to 12 o'clock noon on Monday, May 3, 1897, from persons willing to contract for supplies for the use of the undermentioned Government Hospitals commencing from date of acceptance of tender to December 31, 1897 :—

	Security in Cash. Rs.
Civil Hospital, Nuwara Eliya ...	300
Baker Ward, Nuwara Eliya ...	200
Field Hospital, Nikaweratiya, including infectious wards ...	150

2. Tenders should be submitted in duplicate, the original being forwarded to the Principal Civil Medical Officer and the duplicate direct to the Hon. the Auditor-General, both being required to be forwarded at the same time.

3. The tenders are to be made upon forms which will be supplied upon application to the Principal Civil Medical Officer and Inspector-General of Hospitals or to the Medical Officer in charge of the respective hospitals, and no tender will be considered unless it is furnished on the recognized form. Each tender should be for provisioning one hospital only.

4. Every tenderer will be required to make a deposit
(on applying for forms) of half the amount of security;
and should any person decline to enter into the contract and bond after he has tendered, or fail to furnish approved security, such deposit will be forfeited to the Crown. All other deposits will be returned after the contract has been signed. The deposit must be made at the Treasury or Kachcheri, and the deposit receipt must be produced to the officer issuing the form as his authority for making the issue. In stations where there are no kachcheries the deposit must be made to the Medical Officer in charge of the hospital.

5. Provisions should be of the best quality, approvable by the Medical Officer of the hospital.

6. When required samples must be deposited.

7. The successful tenderers will be required to give cash security as given opposite the name of each station, and to sign the bond given in the tender for the due fulfilment of each contract within a fortnight from date of notification of acceptance of the tenders. The amount deposited for tender forms will form part of the cash security. It is left to the option of the successful tenderer to substitute at any time thereafter for cash deposited by him approved title deeds and to enter into a fresh security bond at his expense.

8. In case any person makes any alterations in his tender before forwarding it, such alteration should invariably bear his initials, otherwise the tender will be treated as informal and rejected.

9. Any further information can be obtained on application to the Principal Civil Medical Officer and Inspector-General of Hospitals.

10. The Government reserves to itself the right, without question, of rejecting any or all tenders, and the right of accepting any portion of a tender.

W. R. KYNSEY,
Principal Civil Medical Officer and
Inspector-General of Hospitals.

Principal Civil Medical Office,

6. When required, samples must be deposited.

7. The successful tenderers will be required to give cash security as given opposite the name of the station, and to sign the bond given in the tender for the due fulfilment of the contract within a fortnight from date of notification of acceptance of the tender. The amount deposited for tender forms will form part of the cash security. It is left to the option of the successful tenderer to substitute at any time thereafter for cash deposited by him approved title deeds and to enter into a fresh security bond at his expense.

8. In case any person makes any alterations in his tender before forwarding it, such alteration should invariably bear his initials, otherwise the tender will be treated as informal and rejected.

9. Any further information can be obtained on application to the Principal Civil Medical Officer and Inspector-General of Hospitals.

10. The Government reserves to itself the right, without question, of rejecting any or all tenders, and the right of accepting any portion of a tender.

W. R. KYNSEY,
Principal Civil Medical Officer and
Inspector-General of Hospitals.

Principal Civil Medical Office,
Colombo, April 24, 1897.
