MESSAGE OF WELCOME

On behalf of the Sri Lanka Branch of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association, I am happy to extend a cordial welcome to all Delegates, Spouses, and Observers who have arrived in our country to participate in the 58th Commonwealth Parliamentary Conference.

This is the third time that our Branch is hosting the Commonwealth Conference. We hosted the first in 1974 and then in 1995.

For several decades, our Parliamentarians have been exchanging information and maintaining extensive contacts. That has enabled us to understand various approaches to parliamentary democracy. We have learned a great deal from one another in the past. Now, once again, we need to pool our creativity. At this Conference, we are scheduled to exchange our views on a variety of topics that are relevant to the welfare of the people that we represent. It is also very pertinent that we take the opportunity at the 58th Conference to review and reassess for greater recognition of the role of Parliaments through the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association to make the Commonwealth more influential globally.

We represent more than one third of the world's population and our countries contribute a substantial share of the world's wealth. We, as Members of the Commonwealth, should be united whenever humanity and human dignity are threatened.

Ours is a beautiful country and I hope that amidst your deliberations, you will be able to see something of its natural beauty, its past and its culture. I sincerely hope that your stay with us will be enjoyable and that when you go back to your countries, you will take away with you many pleasant memories.
