CO-OPERATIVE CONFERENCE

MOVEMENTS EXTENDING TO BACKWARD AREAS

A REVIEW OF THE WORK

A conference of Co-operative Societies of the Nor hern and Eastern Provinces was held at the Regal Theatre, Jaffna. Nearly three hundred delegates were present. Mr. M. Prasad, Government Agent, Jaffna, presided.

Mr. V. Veerasingham, president of the Northern Division Co-operative Federation, Ltd, welcoming Mr Prasad, said that only the co-operative movement was capable of ushering in an era of real peace and prosperity to the whole of humanity.

Mr. Prasad, referring to the Jaffna war plane fund, said that even before the subscription lists had been sent out he had received donations amounting to Rs. 4,000. He hoped that co-operative societies would help to make that fund a success on the agenda, Mr. Prasad said that to his mind the most important was the one in which the had offered the post to Mr. establishment of an All-Ceylon Co-operative Federa ion

Reviewing the work of the various societies, he said that the Jaffoa Malayalam Tobacco Sales ment. Society, which had been established when the tobacco industry was in difficulty, had greatly helped the industry and he trusted that it would continue its efforts in the direction of securing the withdrawal of the additional duty imposed by the Travancore Government.

Honour for All

The Juffna-Islands Motor Boat Service had solved the transport problem betweeu Jaffna and the islands and now there were two boats plying between Jaffna and Pungudutivu.

Another new venture was the Union Hospital which he believed the first of its kind in the field of administration if I allowed the co-operation.

Mr. G. de Soyza, Registrar of Co-operative Societies, said that the honour conferred on Mr. C. Arulampalam, Secretary of the Federation, by the Governor, was really an honour conferred on the co-operative movement. Arulampalam had been an inspiring example of the quiet service whice every co-operator should give his country.

Bank on its good work, Mr. de Soyza said that the turnover of action taken accordingly and kulla was soon alongside her, and the bank had exceeded one and a half million rupees and there had been very happy co-operation between the members of the societies Chairman and have placed me in and the bank.
