Message from Chief Guest

I am proud and privileged to be asked to write a short message as the chief guest at the inaugural BTSA football tournament.

Hopefully this is the beginning of an event which will become a fixture in the Tamil sporting calendar for years to come. I humbly recollect my own experience of the first time I played competitively- which was some years ago now. Since then there have been many changes in the world but some important things still remain from my day. The levels of interest, facilities and opportunities have changed but the spirit of taking part seems to reflect more constant qualities. I am thinking of competitiveness within a framework that develops team spirit and mutual respect. It is a blessing to see the universal appeal of football and the shared enthusiasm of the players from different countries and cultures. We play the game but also adapt to the changing circumstances around us and become stronger for it.

Participation and competing in the right spirit is key to self enrichment. It is all very well standing on the sidelines and supporting others but still this is no real replacement for taking part. I wish all the competitors the best of luck and hope they do their best win, lose or draw.

I would also like to wish to thank on behalf of all guests, the organising committee particularly Edwin Gunaratnam and Thavarajasingam Uthayanan for making this event possible.

Mylvaganam (Myla)
