PREFACE.

I WAS instructed by the Hon. C. P. LAYARD, Attorney-General, to prepare the present Revised Edition of the Ceylon Ordinances on the 13th October, 1893, and by the 13th November the first volume was already in the hands of the Government Printer.

In the actual revision of the Ordinances I received great assistance from the Attorney-General, as also from Mr. H. L. CRAWFORD, C.C.S., and Mr. H. WHITE, C.C.S., who were specially appointed to assist me in the revision; whilst many valuable suggestions were made by Mr. G. J. A. SKEEN, the Government Printer, and Mr. H. C. COTTLE, Assistant Government Printer, in the course of the printing.

In accordance with my instructions I have, whenever practicable, where an Ordinance has been amended by a later Ordinance or later Ordinances, collated the Ordinance with the amendments so as to enable the reader to peruse in one volume the whole of our written law on any one subject. This collation has been carried down to the end of the year 1893.

There are a few of the Ordinances which I have not attempted to collate with their amendments. This has occurred whenever a so-called amending Ordinance is, in fact, substantially a new and distinct enactment—(e.g., Ordinance No. 6 of 1888 has not been collated with the other Ordinances relating to Joint Stock Companies)—or whenever the subject-matters contained in an Ordinance and the amending Ordinances have become so mixed as to make collation an impossibility—(e.g., the several Ordinances which relate to the registration of Marriages, Births, and Deaths, or one or more of those subjects).

Whenever two or more Ordinances have been collated the amendments appear either in italics or in smaller type, and a reference has been made in each case in the margin to the enactment containing the amendment. As a rule, these amendments are given verbatim as they appear in the amending Ordinance, though occasionally I have made the amendment read as though it formed part of the principal Ordinance, by omitting the reference to the "principal Ordinance" or some other similar reference contained in the amending Ordinance. All the amending Ordinances are, however, printed in full in their proper place, so that reference can be made to them in their entirety, should the reader so desire.

In the present edition I have restored the repealing sections which were omitted throughout the 1870 edition, and I have omitted all Ordinances of a purely personal character, such as the several Naturalization Ordinances prior to Ordinance No. 21 of 1890, Ordinances which relate to Supply, and the like ; and Ordinances which have expired by time.

A list of the unpublished Ordinances other than those relating to Supply will be given in the Appendix to Volume III., in which will also be found the Thésavałamai, the Charter of 1833, and the Capitulation of Colombo by the Dutch to the English of 15th February, 1796.

J. H. TEMPLER,
Acting Solicitor-General.

ORDINANCES
OF THE
GOVERNMENT OF CEYLON.

VOLUME I.

A REVISED EDITION OF THE ORDINANCES
OF THE
GOVERNMENT OF CEYLON.

VOLUME I.

Proclamation of 23rd September, 1799.

WHEREAS it is His Majesty's gracious command that, for the present and during His Majesty's will and pleasure, the temporary administration of justice and police in the settlements of the island of Ceylon, now in His Majesty's dominion, and in the territories and dependencies thereof, should, as nearly as circumstances will permit, be exercised by us in conformity to the laws and institutions that subsisted under the ancient government of the United Provinces, subject to such deviations in consequence of sudden and unforeseen emergencies, or to such expedients and useful alterations, as may render a departure therefrom either absolutely necessary and unavoidable or evidently beneficial and desirable :

2 We therefore, in obedience to His Majesty's commands, do hereby publish and declare, that the administration of justice and police in the said settlements and territories in the island of Ceylon, with their dependencies, shall be henceforth and during His Majesty's pleasure exercised by all courts of judicature, civil and criminal, magistrates, and ministerial officers, according to the laws and institutions that subsisted under the ancient government of the United Provinces, subject to such deviations and alterations by any of the respective powers and authorities hereinbefore mentioned, and to such other deviations and alterations as we shall by these presents, or by any future proclamation, and in pursuance of the authorities confined to us, deem it proper and beneficial for the purposes of justice to ordain and publish, or which shall or may hereafter be by lawful authority ordained and published.

The institutions which subsisted under the late Dutch Government to continue in force, subject to such alterations, &c.

Administration of Justice.

Torture and barbarous modes of punishment
existed.

3 And whereas it having been represented to His Majesty that the practice of proceeding by torture against persons suspected of crimes, and of punishment after conviction in many capital cases by breaking upon the wheel and other barbarous modes of execution, had prevailed in the said settlements on the island of Ceylon, it was His Majesty's will and pleasure that we should wholly abolish those forms of trial and punishment, which humanity condemns and experience has shown to be less efficacious in the prevention of crimes than more lenient and equitable proceedings.

Practice of
barbarous modes of
abolished.

4 We therefore do hereby abolish throughout all and every the said settlements and territories and their dependencies within our government, the practice of proceeding by torture against any person or persons suspected of any crime or crimes, and we do hereby also abolish the practice of inflicting punishment on any person or persons convicted, or who shall or may be convicted of any crime or crimes, by breaking on the wheel, mutilation, or other barbarous modes of punishment and execution; and the same are hereby abolished accordingly. And we do ordain and appoint that all capital punishment shall be inflicted by hanging the offender by the neck until he be dead, and not in any other manner whatsoever.

Offenders to be hanged.

The practice of procuring confession by
abolished.

8 And whereas, by the criminal law as administered under the Government of the United States, no sentence of death could be legally pronounced against any offender, however conclusive the evidence given against him might be, unless he confessed his guilt, for the purpose of obtaining which confession it was the practice to pronounce a sentence of torture against the prisoner, and as on the one hand neither the influence of promises nor the dread or menace of torture will hereafter be employed to obtain from offenders a confession of their guilt, so on the other hand public justice requires that the laws shall be duly maintained and carried into execution without being impeded by want of the confession of the offender, and it is therefore expedient that the necessity of obtaining such confession should be removed: we do therefore direct and ordain that in all criminal cases the court shall in future proceed to pronounce sentence according to law and in the evidence given, and in manner and form prescribed by these presents, without requiring the confession of the prisoner, any law of the United States, provincial or other statute, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Liberty of conscience and the free exercise of religious worship allowed.

25 And we do hereby allow liberty of conscience and the free exercise of religious worship to all persons who inhabit and frequent the said settlements of the island of Ceylon, provided always that they quietly and peaceably enjoy the same without offence or scandal to Government.

Mahomedan Law.

Extract from the Minutes of a Council held at Colombo this 5th day of August, 1806.

(See Ordinance No. 8 of 1886.)

Present :

His Excellency the Governor.
The Honourable Alexander Johnston, Esq.
Robert Arbuthnot, Esq.

THE Chief Justice submits to the Governor in Council the code of Mahomedan laws observed by the Moors in the province of Colombo, and acknowledged by the head Moormen of the district to be adapted to the present usages of the caste.

Resolved on the motion of the Chief Justice that the same be published, and that they be observed throughout the whole of the province of Colombo.

SPECIAL LAWS CONCERNING MAURS OR MAHOMEDANS.

FIRST TITLE.

Relating to Matters of Succession, Right of Inheritances, and other Incidents occasioned by Death.

WHEN either husband or wife dies, either leaving or not having children, the survivor shall in the first place separate and take away from the estate the dowry brought in marriage by him or her, the same not being in common.

Mahomedan Law
of Inheritance.
&c.

2 A husband dying leaving a wife but no children or relations, the estate shall, after deducting the burial charges and other legacies, be divided in four shares, viz. :

One-fourth to the wife and the other three-fourths to the poor.

3 The husband dying and leaving a wife and one or more sons, then the estate is divided as follows, viz. :

One eighth part to the wife, and to the son or sons seven eighth parts.

4 The husband dying leaving a wife and a daughter :
The wife is entitled to one eighth part.

The daughter to the just half, and the poor to the remaining three eighth parts.

5 The husband dying leaving his wife and two daughters, then is due :

To the wife, one eighth part.

Two-thirds to both the daughters, and five twenty-fourth parts to the poor.

6 When the husband dies leaving his wife and three daughters :

Mahomedan Law.

One eighth part goes to the wife, three-fourths to the three daughters, and one eighth part to the poor ; and should there even be more daughters they shall not inherit more than three fourth parts.

7 The husband dying leaving his wife and a son and one daughter :

The wife is entitled to one eighth part.

The son to seven-twelfths and the daughter to seven twenty-fourth parts.

8 Should there be more than one son and one daughter, then the division is fixed as follows :

One eighth part to the wife, and

The son or sons twice as much as the daughters get.

9 The wife dying leaving alone her husband :

The husband is entitled to the half and the poor to the other half.

10 The wife dying leaving the husband and one son, the estate is divided as follows :

One fourth part to the husband and three fourth parts to the son ; should there be even more sons they will get no more than three fourth parts.

11 The wife dying leaving a husband and one daughter :

The husband is entitled to one fourth part of the estate.

The daughter to the just half and the poor to one fourth part.

12 The wife dying leaving a husband and two daughters :

The husband is entitled to one fourth part. The two daughters to two-thirds and the poor to one-twelfth.

13 The wife dying leaving a husband and three daughters, the estate must be divided into thirty-three parts, viz. :

Three sixteenth parts to the husband. Three fourth parts to the three daughters, and one sixteenth part to the poor. And in this manner the estate shall be divided even if there are more daughters.

14 The wife dying leaving a husband, one son, and one daughter, the estate shall be divided as follows, viz. :

To the husband one fourth part, to the son the just half, and to the daughter one fourth part.

15 The wife dying leaving her husband, one son, and two daughters, the following is allotted :

One fourth part to the husband, three eighth parts to the son, and three eighth parts to the daughters. This manner of dividing the estate shall take place even if there be more sons and daughters.

16 Should the husband or wife die leaving a father and mother :

The father gets two-thirds and the mother one-third.

Mahomedan Law.

17 Anyone dying leaving a father and mother and one son:
The father is entitled to one sixth part, the mother to one-sixth, and the son to two-thirds.

18 Anybody dying leaving a father and mother and one son and one daughter :

The father is entitled to one-sixth, the mother to one-sixth, the son to four-ninths, and the daughter to two ninth parts.

19 A person dying leaving a father and mother and one daughter :

The father is entitled to one-third, the mother to one-sixth, and the daughter to the just half.

20 A person dying leaving a father and mother and two daughters :

The mother gets one-sixth, the mother one-sixth, and the two daughters two-thirds, and although there be more daughters they shall have no more than two-thirds.

21 A man dying leaving a daughter and a son's daughter, or granddaughter, they are entitled to the following :

The daughter to one-half of the estate, the granddaughter to one-sixth, and the poor to one-third.

22 Should even the husband leave besides his aforesaid daughter two or more granddaughters, their share shall, however, not surpass what is stated here above.

23 A grandfather or grandmother and father or mother dying, and a granddaughter surviving them :

The one-half of the estate shall go to the granddaughter and the other half to the poor.

24 But in case two granddaughters have been left ; then, Two-thirds go to the two granddaughters and one-third to the poor.

25 If a person has only a grandson he succeeds to the whole property.

26 A person dying leaving a grandson and a granddaughter, the estate is divided as follows :

To the grandson two-thirds and to the granddaughter one-third ; and although there be more grandsons and granddaughters the divisions shall take place in the same manner.

27 Should any person die leaving a daughter and a son's son, or grandson, one-third of the estate devolves to the daughter and two-thirds to the grandson.

28 But in case two daughters and one grandson are left each of them is entitled to an equal share of the estate.

29 But should there be a daughter, a grandson, and a granddaughter, the estate is then divided as follows :

The half to the daughter, one third to the grandson, and one-sixth to the granddaughter.

Mahomedan Law.

30 Should, however, there be two daughters, one grandson, and one granddaughter, the estate shall be divided as follows :
To the two daughters two-thirds.

To the grandson two-ninths, and to the granddaughter one-ninth.

31 Should there be one daughter, two granddaughters, and one daughter's son, the estate is to be divided as follows :
To the daughter the half, to the two granddaughters one-fourth, and to the grandson one-fourth.

32 Should there be two daughters, two granddaughters, and one daughter's son or grandson :

The two daughters are to have two-thirds, the two granddaughters three-eighteenths, and the grandson one-eighteenth.

33 Should anybody die leaving one daughter and a sister, although he and the sister be of two mothers and the same father :

The half of the estate shall go to the daughter and the other half to the sister.

34 Should the deceased leave one daughter and two sisters :
The daughter must have the half and the two sisters the other half.

35 Should he have left two daughters and two sisters :
The two daughters shall have two-thirds and the two sisters one-third ; the same division shall take place even if there be more daughters and sisters.

36 The husband dying leaving his wife with one daughter and a son's daughter, and leaving also a mother and one sister, the estate shall be divided as follows :

The wife shall have one-eighth.

The daughter the half.

The granddaughter one-sixth.

The mother one-sixth, and

The sister one twenty-fourth part.

37 But should, as in the above case, the husband survive his wife, and remain with the above persons, then the estate is divided as follows :

To the husband three-thirteenths.

To the daughter six-thirteenths.

To the granddaughters two-thirteenths, and to the mother two-thirteenths, and the brothers and sisters are, in this case, not to share in the inheritance.

38 The deceased leaving one brother and one step-brother from the side of another father or mother :

The full brother is entitled to five-sixths and the step-brother to one-sixth.

39 A person dying leaving two brothers or sisters of one mother and two fathers :

The two brothers or sisters are to have one-third and the poor two-thirds.

Mahomedan Law.

40 The deceased leaving two half brothers or sisters of one mother and another father, and one full brother and one full sister, the estate is divided in the following manner :

One-third goes to the two half brothers or sisters, four-ninths to the full brother, and two-ninths to the full sister.

41 The wife dying leaving her husband and her grandfather, each of them is entitled to one half of the estate.

42 The husband dying leaving his wife and his grandfather, one-fourth of the estate devolves to the wife and three-fourths to the grandfather.

43 Should the deceased leave a daughter and grandfather, each of them shall be entitled to an equal share of the estate.

44 Should the deceased leave two daughters and a grandfather, each of them shall be entitled to one-third of the estate.

45 Should there be a grandfather of the father or mother's side, and a son and a daughter :

The grandfather shall be entitled to one-sixth, the son to five-ninths, and the daughter to five eighteenth parts.

46 Should the wife die leaving her husband, grandfather or grandmother, and a son :

The husband shall be entitled to one-fourth, the grandfather or grandmother to one-sixth, the son to seven twelfth parts.

47 Should there be two sons, then the husband is entitled to one-fourth.

The grandfather or grandmother to one-sixth, and the two sons to seven twelfth parts.

48 Should there be also a son and a daughter :

The husband is entitled to one-fourth, the son seven-eighteenths, the grandfather or grandmother to one-sixth, and the daughter to seven thirty-sixth parts.

49 Should the deceased leave a grandfather and grandmother of the father's side :

The grandfather is entitled to five-sixths and the grandmother to one sixth part.

50 Should the deceased have left a grandfather and grandmother of the father's side, and a grandmother of the mother's side, then :

The grandfather of the father's side is entitled to two-thirds, the grandmother of the father's side to one-sixth, and the grandmother of the mother's side to one-sixth.

51 The wife dying leaving her husband, father, and a son, then :

The husband is to have one-fourth.

The father one-sixth, the son seven-twelfths.

Mahomedan Law.

52 The husband dying leaving his wife, mother, and a daughter :

The wife is to have one-eighth.

The mother one-sixth.

The daughter the half of the estate and the poor five twenty-fourths.

53 The husband dying leaving two wives and a son, then :

The two wives are to have one-eighth, and the son seven-eighths, and should there be more wives the division shall take place in the same manner.

54 A grandfather or grandmother dying leaving a son's daughter or granddaughter :

The granddaughter is to have one half of the estate and the poor the other half.

55 A person dying leaving two granddaughters of his son's side and a brother, each of them is entitled to one-third.

56 If the deceased has left a sister she is entitled to the half, and the poor to the other half.

57 The wife dying leaving her husband and two sisters :

The husband is entitled to three-sevenths, and the two sisters to four-sevenths.

58 If the wife has left two full sisters and an uncle of her father's side, then each of these persons shall be entitled to one third part.

59 An emancipated female slave dying leaving her husband and one daughter, together with her late master or mistress, then :

The husband is entitled to one-fourth.

The daughter to one-half, and the master or mistress to the other one-fourth.

60 An emancipated male slave dying leaving his wife, daughter, and his master or mistress, then :

The wife is entitled to one-eighth.

The daughter to one-half, and the master or mistress to three-eighths.

61 An emancipated female slave dying leaving her husband and two daughters, together with her late master or mistress, then the property is divided as follows :

One-fourth to the husband, two-thirds to the two daughters, and one-twelfth to the late master or mistress.

62 If such an emancipated male slave dies :

The wife will be entitled to one-eighth.

The two daughters to two-thirds, and the master or mistress to five twenty-fourth parts.

63 Lastly, agreeable to the same rule, all descendants are entitled to their respective shares of inheritances according to the persons they represent in the same manner as—

Mahomedan Law.

A wife or her descendants, a full brother or his descendants, paternal uncle and full uncles and aunts and their children, and their descendants if there be no nearest kin, fathers' brothers' and mothers' sisters' children are entitled to the same shares as sons and daughters.

SECOND TITLE.

Concerning Matrimonial Affairs.

(See Ordinance No. 8 of 1886.)

64 A person wishing to marry, application must be made to the bride's father and mother for their consent.

65 Should the parents of such bride be dead, the man must make his intentions known to the relations of the bride, and endeavour to obtain their consent.

66 And after consent having been obtained it is the custom that the bride and bridegroom interchange some presents, which, however, are reciprocally restored if the marriage does not take place.

67 The parents or nearest relations of the bride shall then with the knowledge of the bride enter upon an agreement with the bridegroom concerning the marriage gift, called maskawien.

68 The matter being settled, the bridegroom is obliged to pay to the bride immediately what has been agreed upon.

69 But should the bridegroom not be able to pay such marriage gift immediately, it is, with special consent of the bride, however, carried to a separate account.

70 The bridegroom is obliged to inform the commandant, or the headman under whose orders he stands, of his intended marriage.

71 The commandant will then by means of the native commissioners apply to His Excellency the Governor for his consent.

72 The maskawien or magger being paid or remained owing, the priest or lebbe shall be informed thereof.

73 The priest and commandant are then obliged to record all such transactions, and to permit the marriage ceremonies to be performed.

74 Should, before the consummation of the marriage, it be discovered that the bridegroom laboured under any bad complaints, such as leprosy, insanity, or any other disorder, so that he is unable to perform the matrimonial duties, in which case a divorce is permitted.

75 The bride wishing to be divorced is obliged to inform the priest thereof, who after having deliberated with the commandants on both sides in the presence of the native commissioners accedes to the divorce, which they are obliged to record; should the parties, however, not wish to abide by the decision they shall be at liberty according to custom to lay their case before the competent judge.

Mahomedan Law.

76 The bride is in such case obliged to restore to the bridegroom the maskawien or magger.

77 But should the disorder be discovered after the cohabitation a divorce may take place, and the wife may in that case keep the maskawien or magger.

78 And although such complaint should be discovered by the bride either before or after the consummation of the marriage, the husband is entitled to the maskawien or magger if discovered before the cohabitation, but the wife is entitled to the same if discovered after.

79 Married persons, whether they can allege any reasons or not, being with mutual consent divorced, the husband is obliged to allow his wife the moettelaak or ready money proportioned to the marriage gift for the support of the house.

80 Should the husband and wife disagree, and live in continued dissensions with one another and wishing to be divorced.

81 In that case the priest and the commandants on both sides are obliged to inquire into the matter and endeavour if possible to reconcile parties.

82 But should the wife oppose a reconciliation, and the husband being inclined to a divorce, in that case they shall be separately kept by their own relations.

83 After which a meeting of the priests and the officers of the company shall be appointed.

84 And the matter in dispute shall be investigated for a second time, and endeavours made to bring the parties if possible to a reconciliation.

85 And if the parties cannot come to a reconciliation before the said assembly the matter in question must be brought before the sitting magistrate.

86 And if the wife should oppose the reconciliation she shall be held to restore to the husband twice the value of the maskawien.

87 The husband being desirous to divorce his wife, he shall be obliged to give her the tollok or letters of divorce, which is repeated a second time at the expiration of fourteen days, and at the end of one month she receives the third tollok, during which time the husband is obliged to maintain the wife and to furnish her with all necessaries.

Mahomedan Law.

88 Before the third tollok is issued a reconciliation between the parties may take place, and it is not necessary that they should disclose to anybody the causes of their differences.

89 But should the third tollok have been issued they must divorce, and it is in use, that should the husband be determined to divorce his wife without any further consideration, to issue three tolloks or letters of divorce at once, but in that case he is obliged to furnish the wife with a dwelling place for the space of three months, and she shall not be allowed to marry before she has had three times her menses.

90 The husband is held to give notice to the commandant on both sides of such divorce, which shall be recorded by them, and nobody else shall meddle themselves therewith.

91 No wife is obliged to receive from the husband any interest money for her maintenance, but such maintenance must according to the Mahomedan law be the product of some trade or manual work of the husband.

92 A married man decaying into poverty, so as to be unable to maintain his wife, such wife, if she should be possessed of any wealth which she is unwilling to share with her husband, may obtain a divorce, should she wish it, under the same provision as stated in the 76 Article.

93 The husband leaving his wife in order to repair to some place or other on business, he must without giving occasion to divorce provide for the maintenance of his wife in the presence of his relations.

94 A married woman disobeying her husband shall suffer herself to be reprimanded by him for the first time with kindness in order to bring her back to her duty.

95 Should the wife, however, fail in her due obedience for the second time, the husband is then permitted to inflict on her some gentle correction, but by no means to treat her in a rough manner so as to occasion any marks either in her face or other parts of her body, much less is he permitted to beat her on any dangerous place of the body so that blood appears.

96 A divorced wife being pregnant is entitled to be maintained till she be delivered by her husband, who is also obliged to pay the expense of her lying-in.

97 The wife in the above case is obliged to nourish her child during three days without being at liberty to ask or receive anything.

98 But the husband is after the expiration of that time obliged to fix a certain amount for the maintenance of the child if the wife requires it.

Security of Property.

99 Should the wife be unwilling to keep the child longer than three days the husband is obliged to receive it.

100 A man is according to the law of Mahomet permitted to marry four wives, that is to say, only such men as are uncommonly addicted to the fair sex, who have abilities enough to acquit themselves of their duty, and who are possessed of wealth enough to maintain the same properly.

101 Such men are also permitted to keep under their protection besides their lawful wives so many concubines as they are able to maintain.

102 The husband and wife being divorced, and the third tollok having been issued, are not permitted to reconcile and live as husband and wife, unless the wife has been married to another husband and obtained from him also letters of divorce.

The shares allotted to the poor by several of the foregoing articles are not for the poor, but must go to the asewatoekares, aroegamoedeweigel, and people of the fathers' and mothers' side who are entitled to the same.

Heirs who claim such inheritances make the same known to the headman of the Maurs, the arbitrators, the priests, who then at the entrance of the gate of the temple inquire and decide the case, and cause the shares to which each is entitled to be given to them; and as according to the Mahomedan custom the women may not go out, it is therefore the custom that their cases are inquired into and settled in an amicable manner, but not being contented therewith both such cases and the criminal ones are brought before the governor.

In this manner we the marcair, arbitrators, priests, and inhabitants have, according to our knowledge, and having consulted with the learned high priests, have stated the foregoing articles as agreeable to the laws and customs for to be observed, and have confirmed the same with our signatures, at Colombo, the 1st of August, 1806.

Regulation No. 18 of 1806.

A Regulation for the Security of Property and the Establishment of a due Police in the district of Jaffnapatam and its dependencies.

14 THE Thase Walema, or customs of the Malabar inhabitants of the province of Jaffna, as collected by order of Governor Simons, in 1706, shall be considered to be in full force.

15 All questions between Malabar inhabitants of the said province, or wherein a Malabar inhabitant is defendant, shall be decided according to the said customs.

Pearl Banks.Kandy (Invasion).

16 All questions that relate to those rights and privileges which subsist in the said province between the higher castes, particularly the Vellales on the one hand, and the lower castes, particularly the Covias, Nalluas, and Palluas, on the other, shall be decided according to the said customs and the ancient usages of the province.

9th December, 1806.

Regulation No. 3 of 1811.For the Protection of His Majesty's Pearl Banks of Ceylon.

WHEREAS there is reason to suspect that depredations are committed in the pearl banks of this island by boats and other vessels frequenting those places in the calm season without any necessity or lawful cause for being in that situation :

If any boat or other vessel shall hereafter, between the 10th of January and the end of April, or between the 1st of October and the end of November, in any year, be found within the limits of the pearl banks, as described in the schedule hereunto annexed, anchoring or hovering and not proceeding to her proper destination, as wind and weather may permit, it shall be lawful for any person or persons holding a commission or warrant from His Excellency the Governor for the purposes of this Regulation to enter and seize such boat or other vessel and carry the same to some convenient port or place in this island for prosecution. And every such boat or other vessel is hereby declared liable to forfeiture by sentence of any court having revenue jurisdiction of sufficient amount, and shall be condemned accordingly, two-thirds thereof to the use of His Majesty and one-third to the persons seizing or prosecuting, unless such boat or other vessel shall have been forced into the situation aforesaid by accident or other necessary cause, the proof whereof to be on the party alleging such defence.

Penalty if vessels found within the limits of the pearl banks.

SCHEDULE.

Vessels navigating the inner or along shore passage are not to hover or anchor in deeper than four fathoms water.

Vessels navigating the outer passage are not to hover or anchor within twelve fathoms of water.

9th March, 1811.

Proclamation of 11th February, 1815.

WHEREAS the armies of His Majesty the King of Great Britain have occupied and entered into complete possession of the Kandyan provinces, denominated the Four Korles, the Saffragam Korle, and the Three Korles, and the chiefs and people of those provinces have fully and freely surrendered the same and submitted themselves without reserve to His Majesty's Government :

The said provinces of the Four Korles, the Saffragam Korle, and the Three Korles, with all their royal rights and dependencies, are become, and they are hereby declared to be, integral parts of the British possessions in the island of Ceylon, and are henceforth received under the sovereignty and protection of His Majesty the King of Great Britain.

Official Bulletin of 2nd March, 1815.

THIS day a solemn conference was held in the audience hall of the Palace of Kandy, between His Excellency the Governor and Commander of the Forces on behalf of His Majesty and of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent on the one part, and the adikars, dessaves, and other principal chiefs of the Kandyan provinces on the other part, on behalf of the people, and in presence of the mohottales, coraals, vidaans, and other subordinate headmen from the different provinces, and a great concourse of inhabitants.

A public instrument of treaty, prepared in conformity to conditions previously agreed on, for establishing His Majesty's government in the Kandyan provinces, was produced and publicly read in English and Cingalese, and unanimously assented to.

The British flag was then for the first time hoisted and the establishment of the British dominion in the interior was announced by a royal salute from the cannon of the city.

All the troops present in this garrison were under arms on the occasion of this important event.

OFFICIAL DECLARATION OF THE SETTLEMENT OF THE KANDYAN PROVINCES.

LED by the invitation of the chiefs, and welcomed by the acclamations of the people, the forces of His Britannic Majesty have entered the Kandyan territory and penetrated to the capital—Divine Providence has blessed their efforts with uniform and complete success—the ruler of the interior provinces has fallen into their hands, and the government remains at the disposal of His Majesty's representative.

In this sacred charge it is his earnest prayer that the Power which has vouchsafed thus far to favour the undertaking may guide his councils to a happy issue, in the welfare and prosperity of the people, and the honour of the British empire.

Under circumstances far different from any which exist in the present cases it would be a duty, and a pleasing one, to favour the re-establishment of a fallen prince, if his dominion could be fixed on any principles of external relation compatible with the rights of the neighbouring government, or his internal rule in any reasonable degree reconciled to the safety of his subjects.

But the horrible transactions of the fatal year 1803, forced upon the recollection by many local circumstances and by details unknown before—the massacre of 150 sick soldiers lying helpless in the hospital of Kandy, left under the pledge of public faith, and the no less treacherous murder of the whole British garrison commanded by Major Davie, which had surrendered on a promise of safety, impress upon the Governor's mind an act of perfidy unparalleled in civilized warfare, and an awful lesson recorded in characters of blood against the momentary admission of future confidence—while the obstinate rejection of all friendly overtures, repeatedly made during the intermission of hostilities, has served to evince an implacable animosity destructive of the hope of a sincere reconciliation.

Of this animosity a daring instance was exhibited in the unprovoked and barbarous mutilation of ten innocent subjects of the British Government, by which seven of the number lost their lives—a measure of defiance calculated, and apparently intended, to put a final negative to every probability of friendly intercourse.

If, therefore, in the present reverse of his fortunes and condition, it may be presumed the king would be found more accessible to negotiation than in former times—what value could be set on a consent at variance with the known principles of his reign?—or what dependence placed on his observance of conditions which he has hitherto so perseveringly repelled?

Still less could the hope for a moment be entertained that any conditions of safety were capable of being established on behalf of the inhabitants, who had appealed to His Majesty's Government for protection, and yet more hopeless the attempt to obtain pardon or safeguard for the chiefs, who had deemed it a duty paramount to every other obligation to become the medium of that appeal.

How far their complaints have been groundless, and their opposition licentious, or on the contrary their grievances bitterly and intolerably real, may now be judged by facts of unquestionable authenticity.

The wanton destruction of human life comprises or implies the existence of general oppression,—in conjunction with that no other proofs of the exercise of tyranny require to be specified,—and one single instance, of no distant date, will be acknowledged to include everything which is barbarous and unprincipled in public rule, and to pourtray the last stage of individual depravity and wickedness, the obliteration of every trace of conscience, and the complete extinction of human feeling.

In the deplorable fate of the wife and children of Eheylapola Adikar these assertions are fully substantiated, in which was exhibited the savage scene of four infant children—the youngest torn from the mother's breast—cruelly butchered, and their heads bruised in a mortar by the hands of their parent, succeeded by the execution of the woman herself and three females more,—whose limbs being bound, and a heavy stone tied round the neck of each, they were thrown into a lake and drowned.

It is not, however, that under an absolute government unproved suspicion must usurp the place of fair trial, and the fiat of the ruler stand instead of the decision of justice; it is not that a rash, violent, or unjust decree, or a revolting mode of execution, is here brought to view, nor the innocent suffering under the groundless imputation of guilt; but a bold contempt of every principle of justice, setting at nought all known grounds of punishment, dispensing with the necessity of accusation, and choosing for its victims helpless females uncharged with any offence and infants incapable of a crime.

Contemplating these atrocities, the impossibility of establishing with such a man any civilized relations, either of peace or war, ceases to be a subject of regret, since His Majesty's arms, hitherto employed in the generous purpose of relieving the oppressed, would be tarnished and disgraced by being instrumental to the restoration of a dominion exercised in a perpetual outrage to everything which is sacred in the constitution or functions of a legitimate government.

On these grounds His Excellency the Governor has acceded to the wishes of the chiefs and people of the Kandyan provinces, and a convention has in consequence been held, the result of which the following public Act is destined to record and proclaim.

PROCLAMATION OF 2ND MARCH, 1815.

AT a Convention held on the second day of March, in the year of Christ 1815, and the Cingalese year 1736, at the Palace in the city of Kandy, between His Excellency Lieut.-General Robert Brownrigg, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the British settlements and territories in the island of Ceylon, acting in the name and on behalf of His Majesty George the Third, King, and His Royal Highness George, Prince of Wales, Regent, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on the one part, and the adigars, dessaves, and other principal chiefs of the Kandyan provinces on behalf of the inhabitants, and in presence of the mohottales, coraals, vidaans, and other subordinate headmen from the several provinces, and of the people then and there assembled, on the other part, it is agreed and established as follows:

1 That the cruelties and oppressions of the Malabar ruler, in the arbitrary and unjust infliction of bodily tortures and the pains of death without trial, and sometimes without an accusation or the possibility of a crime, and in the general contempt and contravention of all civil rights, have become flagrant, enormous, and intolerable, the acts and maxims of his government being equally and entirely devoid of that justice which should secure the safety of his subjects, and of that good faith which might obtain a beneficial intercourse with the neighbouring settlements.

2 That the Rajah Sri Wikreme Rajah Sinha, by the habitual violation of the chief and most sacred duties of a Sovereign, has forfeited all claims to that title or the powers annexed to the same, and is declared fallen and deposed from the office of king ; his family and relatives, whether in the ascending, descending, or collateral line, and whether by affinity or blood, are also for ever excluded from the throne, and all claim and title of the Malabar race to the dominion of the Kandyan provinces is abolished and extinguished.

3 That all male persons being or pretending to be relations of the late Rajah Sri Wikreme Rajah Sinha, either by affinity or blood, and whether in the ascending, descending, or collateral line, are hereby declared enemies to the government of the Kandyan provinces, and excluded and prohibited from entering those provinces on any pretence whatever, without a written permission for that purpose by the authority of the British Government, under the pains and penalties of martial law, which is hereby declared to be in force for that purpose ; and all male persons of the Malabar caste now expelled from the said provinces are, under the same penalties, prohibited from returning, except with the permission before mentioned.

4 The dominion of the Kandyan provinces is vested in the Sovereign of the British Empire, and to be exercised through the Governors or Lieutenant-Governors of Ceylon for the time being, and their accredited agents, saving to the adigars, dessaves, mohottales, coraals, vidaans, and all other chief and subordinate native headmen, lawfully appointed by authority of the British Government, the rights, privileges, and powers of their respective offices, and to all classes of the people the safety of their persons and property, with their civil rights and immunities, according to the laws, institutions, and customs established and in force amongst them.

5 The religion of Boodho, professed by the chiefs and inhabitants of these provinces, is declared inviolable, and its rites, ministers, and places of worship are to be maintained and protected.

6 Every species of bodily torture, and all mutilation of limb, member, or organ, are prohibited and abolished.

10 Provided always that the operation of the several preceding clauses shall not be contravened by the provisions of any temporary or partial proclamation published during the advance of the army; which provisions, in so far as incompatible with the said preceding articles, are hereby repealed.

11 The royal dues and revenues of the Kandyan provinces are to be managed and collected for His Majesty's use and the support of the provincial establishment, according to lawful custom, and under the direction and superintendence of the accredited agent or agents of the British Government.

12 His Excellency the Governor will adopt provisionally, and recommend to the confirmation of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, such dispositions in favour of the trade of these provinces as may facilitate the export of their products, and improve the returns, whether in money or in salt, cloths, or other commodities useful and desirable to the inhabitants of the Kandyan country.

Proclamation of 21st November, 1818.

(See Ordinance No. 4 of 1892.)

THE chiefs and people of the Kandyan nation, no longer able to endure the cruelties and oppressions which the late king Sri Wikreme Rajah Sinha tyrannically practised towards them, prayed the assistance of the British Government for their relief, and by a solemn act declared the late king deposed, and himself and all persons descending from or in any manner related to his family incapable of claiming or exercising royal authority within the Kandyan provinces, which were by the same solemn act ceded to the dominion of the British Sovereign.

2 The exercise of power by the representatives of His Britannic Majesty from the date of that convention, the 2nd March, 1815, till the hour that insurrection broke out in the month of October, 1817, was marked by the greatest mildness and forbearance towards all classes, the strictest attention to the protection and maintenance of the rites, ministers, and places of worship of the religion of Budhoo, and a general deference to the opinions of the chiefs, who were considered as the persons best able from their rank and knowledge to aid the Government in ensuring the happiness of the mass of its new subjects—in exacting either taxes or services for the State an extraordinary and unprecedented laxity was allowed to take place, in order that the country might with more ease recover from any evil effects sustained by the contrary practice of the late king: In assessing punishments for offences, even where a plot to subvert the Government was proved, the spirit which always characterizes the British rule was strongly to be contrasted with the ancient and frequent recurrence of capital executions, preceded by the most cruel and barbarous tortures.

Insurrection (Kandy).

3 Under this mild administration on the part of the British Government the country appeared to rest in peace ; cultivation was increased, and Divine Providence blessed the exertions of the labourers and rewarded them by plenteous crops ; yet all this time there were factious and intriguing spirits at work, seeking for an opportunity to subvert the Government, for no purpose but to assume to themselves absolute power over the lives and properties of the general mass of subjects, which by the equal justice of British authority were protected from their avarice or malicious cruelty.

4 These plotters against the State were found among the very persons who had been restored to honours and security by the sole intervention of British power, and the opportunity of raising disturbance was chosen when, relying on the merited gratitude of all orders of the Kandyan nation, the Government had diminished the number of troops ; and the insurgent leaders, unconscious or forgetful of the extensive resources of the British empire, thought, in setting up the standard of rebellion, as easily to effect their purpose of expelling the English from the country, as the people had been deluded to prostrate before the phantom whose pretensions they espoused merely to cover their own ambitious views of subjecting the nation to their arbitrary will.

5 After more than a year of conflict, which has created misery and brought destruction on many, the efforts of the British Government and the bravery of His Majesty's troops have made manifest to the Kandyans the folly of resistance, and that in the Government alone resides the power of protecting them in the enjoyment of happiness ; the flimsy veil which the rebel chiefs threw over their ambitious designs was torn aside by themselves, and the pageant whom the people were called to recognize as the descendant of the gods exposed as the offspring of a poor Cingalese empiric.

6 After such a display to the public of depraved artifice and injurious and unfeeling deception, the Government might reasonably hope that a sense of the misery brought on them by delusion should prevent the great body of the people from listening to any one who should attempt in future to seduce them into rebellion against its beneficent rule ; but it is also incumbent on it, from a consideration of the circumstances which have passed, and the evil consequences which have ensued on the blind obedience which the people have thought due to their chiefs instead of to the Sovereign of the country, to reform, by its inherent right, such parts of the practice of administration as, by occasioning the subject to lose sight of the majesty of the Royal Government, made him feel wholly dependent on the power of the various chiefs, which to be legal could only be derived to them by delegation from the sovereign authority of the country.

Insurrection (Kandy).

Declaration of British
supremacy.

7 His Excellency the Governor therefore now calls to the mind of every person and of every class within these settlements that the sovereign majesty of the King of Great Britain and Ireland, exercised by his representative the Governor of Ceylon and his agents in the Kandyan provinces, is alone the source from which all power emanates, and to which obedience is due; that no chief who is not vested with authority or rank from this sovereign source is entitled to obedience or respect; and that without powers derived from Government no one can exercise jurisdiction of any kind, or inflict the slightest punishment; and finally, that every Kandyan, be he of the highest or lowest class, is secured in his life, liberty, and property from encroachment of any kind or by any person, and is only subject to the laws, which will be administered according to the ancient and established usages of the country, and in such manner and by such authorities and persons as in the name and on behalf of His Majesty is hereinafter declared.

Equal rights of every Kandyan
subject.

Form of
office.

10 No person shall be considered entitled to execute office, either of the higher or lower class of headmen, unless thereto appointed by a written instrument signed, in respect to superior chiefs by His Excellency the Governor, and for inferior headmen by the honourable the resident, or provisionally by any agent of Government thereto duly authorized, excepting in certain villages or departments which will be allotted for personal services to the dessaves, in which the dessave shall as before have the sole privilege of making appointments.

Religion.

16 As well the priest as all the ceremonies and processions of the Budhoo religion shall receive the respect which in former times was shown them; at the same time it is in nowise to be understood that the protection of Government is to be denied to the peaceable exercise by all other persons of the religion which they respectively profess, or to the erection under due license from His Excellency of places of worship in proper situations.

Erection of
worship.

Temple lands exempted from taxation.

Reservation of gratuitous service from certain
temple villages.

21 The Governor, desirous of showing the adherence of Government to its stipulation in favour of the religion of the people, exempts all lands which now are the property of temples from all taxation whatever; but as certain inhabitants of those villages are liable to perform fixed gratuitous services also to the Crown, this obligation is to continue unaffected.

Lands belonging to certain loyal chiefs exempted from tax.

22 All lands also now belonging to the following chiefs, whose loyalty and adherence to the lawful Government merits favour, viz.,

Mollegodde Maha Nileme,
Mollegodde Nileme,
Ratwatte Nileme,
Kadoogamoone Nileme, Dehigamme Nileme,

shall be free of duty during their lives, and that their heirs shall enjoy the same free of duty, excepting with regard to such as paid pingo duty, which shall now and hereafter pay one-tenth to the Government of the annual produce, unless when exempted under the next clause.

23 All lands belonging to chiefs holding offices either of the superior or inferior class, and of inferior headmen, shall during the time they are in office be free of duty.

Lands of chiefs holding office exempted.

26 All presents to the Governor or other British authorities are strictly prohibited. In travelling, every officer, civil or military, chiefs, detachment of troops, or other servants of Government, on notice being given of their intended march or movement, are to be supplied with the provisions of the country in reasonable quantity and on payment being made for the same at the current price.

All presents prohibited.
 Provisions to British officers, troops, or other servants of Government travelling, to be furnished for payment.

28 The services of the adigars, dessaves, and other superior chiefs to Government shall be compensated by fixed monthly salaries in addition to the exemption of their lands from taxation.

Remuneration for service of superior chiefs.

29 The services of the inferior chiefs shall be compensated as above by exemption from taxation, and that they also receive one twentieth part of the revenue paddy which they shall collect from the people under them, to be allotted in such portion as the Board of Commissioners shall under the authority of Government regulate.

Remuneration to inferior chiefs.

56 In all matters not provided for by this Proclamation or other Proclamations heretofore promulgated by the authority of the British Government, His Excellency reserves to himself and his successors the power of reforming abuses and making such provision as is necessary, beneficial, or desirable; he also reserves full power to alter the present provisions as may appear hereafter necessary and expedient, and he requires in His Majesty's name all officers, civil and military, all adigars, dessaves, and other chiefs, and all other His Majesty's subjects to be obedient, aiding and assisting in the execution of these or other his orders, as they shall answer the contrary at their peril.

Reservation of powers of making further provisions.

General obedience enjoined.

*Lands (Temple).Proclamation of 18th September, 1819.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by our Proclamation bearing date the 21st day of November, 1818, we did declare that all lands which then were the property of temples should be exempted from all taxation whatever, save and except that such of the inhabitants of those villages as were liable to perform fixed gratuitous services also to the Crown should still be liable thereto : And whereas it is necessary for the security of His Majesty's revenue that the extent of the lands herein above referred to, as the same stood at the date of the said Proclamation, should be correctly ascertained and registered, and that all subsequent donations or bequests to the temples of every description should only be made as was heretofore customary by and with the previous consent and license of the sovereign authority in these provinces.

Temple lands to be registered.

The persons having the charge of the revenues of every temple, whether wihare, dewale, or under any other denomination, and whether such persons be the priest, dewe-nileme, basnaike-nileme, kapurale, or by what other description they may be called, shall, and they are hereby required, to deliver in to the revenue commissioner, the agent of Government in the several provinces and districts, or according as the lands are situated in reference to the schedule hereto annexed, a list of all lands of all descriptions which did belong to the said temples, under their respective charge, at the date of the said Proclamation, with the extent thereof, and the mode whereby the same was acquired, within twelve months from this date ; whereupon the said lands shall be registered by the revenue commissioner or agent of Government, if he is satisfied that such lands are the property of the said temple, as such temple property, and entitled to the exemption from taxation in and by the said Proclamation granted ; and a certificate of such enregistration shall be granted by such revenue commissioner or agent of Government, the production of which shall alone be considered sufficient proof that such land is exempted from taxation.

Provided always that if the revenue commissioner or agent of Government is not satisfied that any land was the property of such temple by which it is claimed at the date of the said Proclamation, he shall refer the question to the consideration of the Board of Commissioners, who shall direct a proper course of inquiry into the validity of the claim, and report the same to us for our decision how the said land is to be considered.

It has not been, nor shall be hereafter lawful, to any inhabitant of these provinces to make either a donation or a bequest of any land whatsoever to or for the use of any temple, whether wihare, dewale, or otherwise called, without having first signified to us, through the honourable the resident, or through any resident agent of Government, his or her desire to make such bequest or donation, and having received a license in writing to give or bequeath the same : And any land given or bequeathed contrary to this order shall not be considered as the property of a temple, but shall be given to the nearest heir of the person who has disobeyed the law by attempting to give and bequeath such land, provided he sues for the same before the judicial commissioner or agent of Government within twelve months from this date, or from the date of such gift or bequest, or from the time the possession has been taken for any temple ; or else the land shall become forfeited to the Crown.

Proclamation of 14th July, 1821.

HAVING taken into our consideration the expediency of settling the rights of purchasers of land in the Kandyan provinces on a footing which shall give them an immediate and permanent interest in their property, and induce them to improve the same, which the practice that has obtained in some of the said provinces of allowing the seller to repurchase the land at any time in his life is evidently calculated to prevent, do therefore proclaim and enact, that from and after the publication of these presents all sales of land made in writing according to the provisions of our Proclamation of the Twenty-eighth day of October, One thousand Eight hundred and Twenty, in the Kandyan provinces shall be final and conclusive, and neither the seller nor his or her heirs shall have any peculiar right to repurchase the same, unless an express stipulation reserving such privilege shall be inserted in the deed of sale.

Sales of land to be final unless otherwise stipulated.

Such reservation when made in the deed of sale shall not be valid for any longer period than three years from the date of the said deed ; and that the person who wished to exercise this right of repurchase shall pay to the person to whom he or she sold the land not only the original consideration but also all expenses incurred for increasing the value of the property, the amount of which will, in case of any dispute, be ascertained by appraisement on application to and under the sanction of the court in whose jurisdiction the land lies.

Expenses of purchaser to be paid.

And in respect to sales of land of a date prior to these presents, we do hereby order that no privilege of purchase shall in any part of these provinces be considered to attach to the seller unless he or she shall record his or her claim to the same in the court of the nearest agent of Government within six months from this date, and such privilege shall then only be competent to such seller within the term of three years from this date, and upon the conditions in the preceding clause contained.

Redemption of land sold prior to this date.

And no right of repurchase shall be considered to vest in the heirs of the seller, but the privilege is confined to him or herself personally.

No right of repurchase vests in the seller's heirs.

*Lands (Temple).Proclamation of 21st May, 1822.

Preamble.

HAVING received information that doubts have been entertained as to the construction of the Proclamation of the Eighteenth day of September, One thousand Eight hundred and Nineteen, commanding the enregistration of lands which were on the Twenty-first day of November, One thousand Eight hundred and Eighteen, the property of temples in the Kandyan provinces; and that by some persons it has been imagined that although the registration should not have been effected within the period of twelve months by the said Proclamation prescribed, yet at a future period the said lands might be enregistered, and on such enregistration become exempt from taxes as temple property, and that therefore several persons having the superintendence and charge of lands rightly belonging to several temples in the Kandyan provinces have erroneously omitted to have the same registered: Do hereby proclaim and declare that we will permit applications to be made by any person having the superintendence or charge of wihares, dewales, or other temples in the Kandyan provinces to the agent of Government to whom the registry of temple lands of each division of the Kandyan provinces was entrusted by the said Proclamation of the Eighteenth day of September, One thousand Eight hundred and Nineteen, for permission to register any lands alleged to have belonged to the temple of which such person had the superintendence or charge on the Twenty-first day of November, One thousand Eight hundred and Eighteen, and which may have been hitherto omitted to be enregistered, provided such application be given in, in writing, on or before the first day of September next, and do contain a specification of the land, and the mode in which the temple acquired it, and the reason why the same was not before enregistered: And on such application being received the agent shall examine into the validity of the title to the land, and of the reason alleged for the application not having been before made, and shall report thereon, through the Board of Commissioners, to us for our decision if the land shall be allowed to be enregistered.

Application to register temple lands will be received if given in before 1st September, 1822.

No land will be exempted from taxation as temple land not registered.

And we do further declare, that no land shall be exempted from duty as temple property which shall not either have been registered under the Proclamation of the Eighteenth day of September, One thousand Eight hundred and Nineteen, or be allowed to be registered under the provisions of this Proclamation.

Regulation No. 15 of 1823.

(See Ordinance No. 17 of 1887.)

For making a general provision in respect to Property found.

WHEREAS it is necessary to make the provision enacted in respect to property found, by several of the regulations for the police of the different parts of this island, one of general regulation throughout the maritime districts :

2 Any person throughout the maritime districts of this island who may find any money or goods, of whatsoever description the same may be, do and shall bring the same forthwith to the constable or the police vidahn of the division or village in which the same may be found, which said constable or police vidahn shall forthwith report the circumstance to the nearest sitting magistrate, who shall cause public notice to be given of the same: And the finder shall, if no fraud appear to have been by him committed in the matter, receive from the person who may substantiate, within six months, a right to the property so found, one-tenth of the value thereof; and if no claimant shall appear or prove his right to the property within the period of six months, then the magistrate shall cause the same to be sold, if the same be not money, and shall pay one-half of the proceeds, or of the money, to the finder, and the remainder into the public treasury for the use of His Majesty.

3 Any person who shall be convicted of a breach of this Regulation shall be subject to punishment by fine or imprisonment, either with or without being employed at hard labour, at the discretion and according to the powers of the court or magistrate before whom such conviction may take place.

Proclamation of 14th January, 1826.

WE having received information that in many instances fictitious transfers of land have been made to persons in official employ for the purpose of evading the payment of taxes and duties upon such land, which practice is highly injurious to His Majesty's revenue, and being desirous to establish some fixed rules by the due observance of which the interests of the revenue may be protected, and the exemption of land really and truly belonging to chiefs and headmen from the payment of taxes and duties may be secured to such chiefs and headmen during their continuance in office, do hereby proclaim, command, and enact as follows :

1 From and after the first day of May next no exemption from the payment of any tax or duty shall be allowed to any chief or headman in official employ in respect to any land belonging to any such chief or headman unless the same shall have been possessed by him for the full term of twelve months.

2 Every chief or headman in official employ claiming exemption from the payment of any tax or duty in respect to any land belonging to him, which shall have been possessed by him for the full term of twelve months, shall forthwith and from time to time as often as occasion may require apply to the cutcherry of the province in which such land is situate to have the same registered, and if he shall satisfy the revenue commissioner, if the land be in the provinces under the immediate control of the Board of Commissioners, or, if the land be in any other province, the agent of Government intrusted with the collection of the revenue in such province, by the production of the title-deed if the land has been acquired by transfer, or by such other evidence as may be required if the land has been acquired by inheritance, that such land is in truth and in fact absolutely and irrevocably the property of such chief or headman, and that he has possessed the same for the full term of twelve months, then, and in every such case, every such revenue commissioner and agent of Government is hereby authorized and required thereupon to register the same, and to grant to such chief or headman a certificate of such registration, which certificate shall exempt such chief or headman during his official employ from the payment of all taxes and duties upon all lands so registered.

3 And from and after the first day of May next no exemption from the payment of any tax or duty in respect to any land whatsoever shall be allowed to any chief or headman who shall not have obtained a certificate according to the provisions of this Proclamation that such land has been duly registered in the cutcherry of the province in which the same is situate.

4 And from and after the first day of May next, if any person or persons shall be concerned in any fictitious transfer of any land to any chief or headman for the purpose of evading the payment of any tax or duty upon such land, such persons shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and upon conviction thereof before any competent jurisdiction the land belonging to such persons so fictitiously transferred shall be confiscated for the use of His Majesty, and the chief or headman so convicted of being concerned in taking such land upon such fictitious transfer shall be liable to a fine not exceeding four times the amount of tax or duty due upon such land, and to imprisonment till such fine be paid.

Tenure by Service.

Order in Council of 12th April, 1832.

At the COURT OF SAINT JAMES'S, the 12th day of APRIL, 1832.

Present :

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

Lord Chancellor.	Viscount Palmerston.
Lord President.	Viscount Melbourne.
Lord Privy Seal.	Viscount Goderich.
Duke of Richmond.	Viscount Althorp.
Lord Steward.	Lord Holland.
Marquis of Winchester.	Mr. Grant.
Earl of Carlisle.	Sir James Graham, Bt.
Lord John Russell.	Mr. Stanley.

WHEREAS by the ancient laws and customs of the island of Ceylon, the native and Indian inhabitants thereof are bound to render various services to the Government in respect of the tenure of their land, or in respect of their caste or otherwise :

And whereas by the second clause of a Proclamation dated at Colombo the 3rd day of September, in the year 1801, the Governor of the said island recited, so far as regarded the maritime provinces of the said island, that he had seen by experience the absolute necessity of abolishing tenure by service and substituting a less oppressive and irregular mode of contribution to the service of the State :

And whereas by the fourth clause of the said Proclamation the said Governor of the said island proclaimed, so far as regarded the maritime provinces of the said island, that persons of whatever caste and condition should from that day continue subject to serve only on the especial order of the said Governor and his successors, governors or lieutenant-governors of the said island, only according to their respective castes, and that on the receipt of adequate pay for such service :

And whereas by the 21st clause of a Proclamation dated at Kandy the 21st day of November, 1818, it was proclaimed amongst other things by the Governor of the said island, so far as regarded the Kandyan provinces of the said island, that the obligation of certain inhabitants of temple villages to perform fixed gratuitous services to the Crown was to continue unaffected :

And whereas by the 30th clause of the said last-mentioned Proclamation it was declared amongst other things by the Governor of the said island, so far as regarded the Kandyan provinces of the said island, that all persons should be liable to service for Government on the requisition of the Board of Commissioners and agents of Government according to their former customs and families or tenures of their lands, on payment being made for their labour, it being well understood that the Board of Commissioners under the Governor's authority might commute such description of service as under their present circumstances was not usefully applicable to the public good to such other as might be beneficial; and provided further that the holding of lands duty free should be considered the payment for the service of the katepurule and atepattoo departments, and persons allotted to the dessaves' service, and also for the service to Government of certain persons of the temple villages, and in part for those which cut cinnamon, and also that the duty of clearing and making roads and putting up and repairing bridges should be considered a general gratuitous service falling on the districts through which the roads pass or wherein the bridges lie :

And whereas His late Majesty King George the Fourth, by a commission under the great seal of this United Kingdom, was pleased to authorize and appoint certain commissioners therein named to repair to the said island, there to examine into all the laws, regulations, and usages of the settlements in the said island, and into every other matter or thing in any way connected with the administration of the civil government thereof : And whereas the said commissioners have in pursuance of the said commission reported to His Majesty that various representations had been made to them by the aforesaid native and Indian inhabitants of the said island, complaining of the evils which they have suffered from the enforcement of the services aforesaid, and requesting relief : And whereas the native and Indian inhabitants as well of the said maritime provinces as of the said Kandyan provinces of the said island will be able to follow their own occupations with more profit to themselves, and to render their services to His Majesty more effectually and beneficially, if such services are rendered freely and for such remuneration as may be agreed upon between His Majesty's officers in the said island and the said inhabitants, instead of being enforced by punishment without remuneration, or with such remuneration only as may be fixed by His Majesty's officers in the said island without the consent of the said inhabitants : And whereas it hath been made to appear to His Majesty that the Governor of the said island and the Council of Government thereof are unanimously of opinion that the said system of forced labour ought not to be continued :

Now therefore His Majesty is pleased, with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said fourth clause of the said Proclamation dated at Colombo the 3rd day of September, in the year 1801, and also so much of the said 21st and 30th clauses of the said Proclamation dated at Kandy the 21st day of November, 1818, as is hereinbefore recited, shall be repealed, abrogated, and annulled, and the same are hereby repealed, abrogated, and annulled accordingly.

Tenure by Service.

And for the removal of all doubts respecting the future exemption of the said native and Indian inhabitants of the said island from the obligation to render the said services to His Majesty, it is hereby ordered and declared, that none of His Majesty's native or Indian subjects within the said island shall be or are liable to render any service to His Majesty in respect to the tenure of their land, or in respect of their caste, or otherwise, to which His Majesty's subjects of European birth or descent are not liable, any law, custom, or regulation to the contrary notwithstanding :

Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the services which the tenants of any lands in any royal villages in the said Kandyan provinces of the said island are bound to render to His Majesty so long as they continue tenants of such lands upon such tenures, or the services which the tenants of any lands in any temple villages in the said Kandyan provinces of the said island may be bound to render to any temple so long as they continue tenants of such lands, or the service which the tenants of lands in any other villages in the said Kandyan provinces of the said island may be bound to render to the proprietors of such villages so long as they continue tenants of such lands.

And whereas by the fourth clause of a Regulation of Government, dated at Colombo the 21st day of September, 1829, entitled "A Regulation of Government No. 4 of 1829," it was enacted, so far as regarded the maritime provinces of the said island, by the Governor of the said island in Council, that, with a view to the encouragement of agricultural speculations, all labourers, of whatever nation, caste, or description, who should be bonâ fide employed in any plantation of coffee, cotton, sugar, indigo, opium, or silk, or in the manufacture of the produce thereof, should be exempt from being called out in the public service during the period for which they should be so bonâ fide employed, excepting during actual war and for the purpose of repelling invasion or during internal commotion :

And whereas the exemption from public service which is conferred by the said fourth clause of the said last-mentioned Regulation of Government upon persons employed in such manner as is therein mentioned, is, by the provisions of this present order secured to such persons in common with all other His Majesty's subjects within the said island : Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, with the advice of his Privy Council, to order the said fourth clause of the said last-mentioned Regulation of Government shall be repealed, abrogated, and annulled, and the same is hereby repealed, abrogated, and annulled :

And whereas by the third clause of a Regulation of Government, dated the 25th day of November, 1825, entitled "Regulation of Government No. 10 of 1825," it was enacted by the Governor of the said island in Council, that if it should appear to any such collector as was specified in the second clause of the said last-mentioned Regulation on or after the 1st day of July then next ensuing, that any person liable to a certain tax imposed by the first clause of the said last-mentioned Regulation upon every male inhabitant of the districts of Jaffnapatam, Mannar, and Trincomalie, and the Wanny provinces, which said districts and provinces are part of the said maritime provinces of the said island, had not complied with the exigencies of that Regulation, such person should be liable to be called on by such collector to work gratuitously at any public work which might be selected for a period not exceeding fourteen days, and that if any person should abscond from or evade being employed in such work he should be then liable to be committed by such collector to imprisonment and to be employed at hard labour for the said period of fourteen days, or such portion thereof as might remain after reckoning the days he might have voluntarily worked under the previous order of such collector :

And whereas it is expedient to repeal the said third clause of the said last-mentioned Regulation of Government : Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said third clause of the said last-mentioned Regulation of Government shall be repealed, abrogated, and annulled, and the same is hereby repealed, abrogated, and annulled accordingly ; and it is hereby ordered, that when any portion of the said tax so by the said first clause of the said last-mentioned Regulation imposed shall be in arrear and unpaid, the same shall be recovered from the person liable to pay the same in the same manner and by the same process as is used for the recovery of other debts due to His Majesty in the said maritime provinces of the said island.

And whereas by the first clause of a Regulation of Government, bearing date at Colombo the 1st day of May, in the year 1827, entitled "A Regulation No. 3 of 1827," in the preamble of which said last-mentioned Regulation of Government it was recited that evil-disposed persons had been from time to time employed to seduce and entice away Chalias from the settlements of His Majesty in the said island, all such Chalias being bound by their caste to serve His Majesty in the cultivation and preparation of cinnamon, it was amongst other things enacted by the Governor of the said island in Council, so far as regarded the said maritime provinces of the said island, that any person who should contract with, entice, persuade, or endeavour to seduce or encourage any Chalia to go away from the said island beyond seas, every person so offending should, upon conviction thereof before the Honourable the Supreme Court of Judicature, be sentenced by such court to transportation, or to fine or imprisonment at hard labour, according to the nature and circumstances of the offence and the condition of the offender, as the said Supreme Court should in its discretion think fit :

And whereas it is expedient to repeal so much of the said first clause of the said last-mentioned Regulation of Government as is hereinbefore recited: Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said first clause of the said last-mentioned Regulation of Government as is hereinbefore recited shall be repealed, abrogated, and annulled, and the same is hereby repealed, abrogated, and annulled.

shall deliver the same to such party, taking reasonable security for his returning it, and all copies so delivered as aforesaid shall be evidence against every printer, publisher, and proprietor of every such newspaper in all proceedings, civil or criminal, to be commenced or carried on as well touching such newspapers as any matter or thing therein contained, and touching any other newspaper, and any matter or thing therein contained, which shall be of the same title, purport, or effect with such copy so delivered as aforesaid, although such copy may vary in some instances or particulars, either as to title, purport, or effect; and every printer, publisher, or proprietor of any copy so delivered as aforesaid shall to all intents and purposes be deemed to be the printer, publisher, or proprietor respectively of all newspapers which shall be of the same title, purport, or effect with such copies or impressions so delivered as aforesaid, notwithstanding such variance as aforesaid, unless such printer, publisher, or proprietor respectively shall prove that such newspapers were not printed or published by him, nor by nor with his knowledge or privity.

7 Whenever in this Ordinance the word "newspaper" is used, such word shall be understood and construed to include any paper containing public news, intelligence, or occurrences printed in this colony, in whatever way or form the same may be printed or published; and whenever in this Ordinance any word or words used in this Ordinance is or are used importing the singular number or the masculine gender only, yet such word or words shall be understood and construed to include several persons as well as one person, females as well as males, and several matters or things as well as one matter or thing, unless it be otherwise specially provided, or there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

8 Provided always that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall extend to the Government Gazette, or to any proclamation, notice, or other public paper printed and published by authority of Government, or to any papers containing only lists of prices current, or the state of the markets, or accounts of the arrival, sailing, or other circumstances relating to merchant ships or vessels, or advertisements of a commercial or like nature, or advertisements previously published in the Government Gazette.

Government Gazette and papers published by authority of Government exempted.

And it is further enacted that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect upon and from the First day of February, One thousand Eight hundred and Forty.

*Transport.No. 4 of 1840.*For the Supply of Bullock Carts and other means of Transport required for Her Majesty's Forces and their Baggage on Marches in this Colony.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make regular provision for the supply of bullock carts and other means of transport required for Her Majesty's forces and their baggage on marches in this colony :

Supply of bullock carts
and bullocks.Mode of proceeding and rate.

1 All district courts within their respective jurisdictions, upon production of a requisition for that purpose signed by the Governor or the senior officer of Her Majesty's forces, or other person duly authorized on that behalf, shall issue a warrant to any constable, police vidahn, or peace officer, requiring him to provide the number of bullock carts, bullocks, and drivers mentioned in such requisition, and allowing sufficient time to do the same, and specifying the weights which such bullock carts or bullocks shall carry, the places from and to which the said bullock carts, bullocks, and drivers shall travel, and the distance between the places, and also the rate of hire or payment which shall be demanded for the same ; and such distance and rate shall be according to the distance and rate of hire for which bullock carts or bullocks are usually let out on private hire at the place where the same are impressed, together with such extra compensation as the district court shall, under the circumstances, consider to be reasonable, but making no allowance for dues or tolls on roads, bridges, or ferries, which are herein declared not to be demandable for the same while employed on such service, or returning therefrom ; and the said constable, police vidahn, or peace officer shall, on receiving such warrant, order persons having bullock carts or bullocks to furnish the requisite supply, who are hereby required to furnish the same accordingly, together with proper drivers ; and when it shall appear by a certificate of any district judge that sufficient bullock carts or bullocks cannot be procured within his district, any adjoining district court shall within its jurisdiction by a like course of proceeding supply the deficiency.

Bullock carts
plying for common hire liable to be impressed before private carts.

2 All bullock carts plying for hire or the conveyance of goods shall be liable to be impressed under the provisions of this Ordinance before any carts kept by individuals exclusively for private use, and not let out for common hire. [Rest repealed.]

Half of rate to
loading.

7 The owners or drivers of any bullock carts or bullocks impressed under this Ordinance shall be entitled to be paid one-half of the hire thereof, according to the rate allowed by and specified in the warrant of the district court, before his bullock cart or bullocks shall be loaded ; and no bullock cart or bullocks shall be liable to carry a greater weight than shall be specified in the warrant of the district court, and the loading of such bullock cart or bullock shall be first weighed, if required, at the expense of the party in fault, provided that the same can be done in a reasonable time without hindrance to Her Majesty's service; and whenever it shall be necessary to impress bullock carts or bullocks for a march under this Ordinance, at least twenty-four hours' notice shall be given, and in case of emergency as long notice as the case will admit shall be given to the constable, police vidahn, or peace officer who shall have to order the requisite supply; and the owner or owners of every bullock cart or bullock which shall be detained and employed under this Ordinance shall, upon the discharge of such bullock cart or bullocks, be entitled to a certificate of such service or employment; and no owner of any bullock cart or bullock shall be liable to have the same detained and employed under this Ordinance against his or her will, oftener than once in each year, except in case of pressing emergency.

Twenty-four hours' notice to constables for providing carts.

Certificate of employment to be given, and carts not liable to be impressed oftener than once a year.

8 It shall be lawful for the Governor by his warrant, distinctly stating that a case of emergency doth exist, to authorize any officer commanding Her Majesty's troops in any district or place, or any commissariat officer or agent for the supply of military stores and provisions, to make a requisition in writing under his hand to any district court within its jurisdiction to issue its warrant for the provision, not only of bullock carts and bullocks kept by or belonging to any person and for any use whatsoever, but also of horses, carriages, hackeries, waggons, and vehicles, and also of boats, barges, and other vessels used for the transport of any commodities whatsoever upon any canal or navigable river, as shall be mentioned in the said requisition, therein specifying the place and distance to which such carriages, horses, or vessels shall go; and on the production of the said requisition to any district court, such court shall, within its jurisdiction, take all the same proceedings in regard to such additional supply so required on the said emergencies as the said courts are by this Ordinance required to take for the ordinary provision of bullock carts or bullocks; and all provisions whatsoever of this Ordinance, as regards the procuring of the ordinary supply of bullock carts and bullocks, and the duties of the constables or other officers and owners of bullock carts and bullocks in that behalf, shall be to all intents applicable for the providing and payment according to the rate of hire usually paid for such other description of carriages or vessels so required on emergency, according to the length of the journey or voyage in such case; and it shall be lawful to convey thereon, not only the baggage, provisions, and military stores of any regiment or detachment, but also the officers, soldiers, servants, women, children, and other persons of or belonging to the same.

Supply of carriages, &c., in cases of emergency.

9 If any constable, police vidahn, or other peace officer shall wilfully neglect or refuse to execute any warrant aforesaid of the district court which shall be directed to him for providing bullock carts or bullocks, horses, carriages, or vessels, or if any person appointed by such constable to provide bullock carts or bullocks, horses, carriages, or vessels, shall refuse or neglect to supply the same, or do any act or thing by which the execution of such warrant shall be hindered, such constable, police vidahn, peace officer, or other person shall forfeit for every such offence, neglect, or refusal any sum not exceeding five pounds nor less than two pounds, and the register or license of every bullock cart for which default shall be made shall be thereupon forfeited, and the plate thereof accordingly ordered to be removed from such cart.

license of bullock cart.

Penalties upon the military so offending.

10 If any military officer, non-commissioned officer, or soldier shall, except on emergency, constrain any bullock cart, or carriage, or vessel to proceed beyond the distance specified in the warrant of the district court, or shall compel the owners or driver to take up any soldier or servant (except such as are sick), or shall otherwise, contrary to the will of the owner or driver, cause or permit any greater load to be put upon any carriage than is directed by this Ordinance, such officer, non-commissioned officer, or soldier shall, upon conviction, forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding five pounds nor less than two pounds.

Fines to be
distress.

11 All fines or penalties imposed by this Ordinance shall, on failure of immediate payment, be levied by summary warrant of distress and sale of the goods, property, and effects of the offender or offenders, and in default of payment the offender or offenders shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding three calendar months, and it shall also be lawful for any court before whom any such offender may be convicted to order at its discretion the whole or any part of such fine or penalty when recovered to be paid over or applied to the use and benefit of the person who shall first have given information against or been active in the apprehending of such offender, or shall appear otherwise deserving of reward in the matter.

Informer's
share.

Construction of terms.

12 Whenever the words "bullock carts" or "bullocks" are used in this Ordinance, such words shall be respectively understood and construed to include buffalo carts as well as bullock carts, and buffaloes as well as bullocks, and that whenever any word or words is or are used in this Ordinance importing the singular number or the masculine gender only, yet such word or words shall be understood and construed to include several persons as well as one person, females as well as males, and several matters or things as well as one matter or thing, unless it be otherwise specially provided, or there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

Commencement
of Ordinance.

13 And it is further enacted that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect upon and after the First day of March, One thousand Eight hundred and Forty.

13th January, 1840.

*Frauds and Perjuries.No. 7 of 1840.To provide more effectually for the Prevention of Frauds and Perjuries.(See No. 17 of 1852 and No. 21 of 1887.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the Ordinance No. 7 of 1834, entitled an "Ordinance to assimilate, amend, and consolidate the laws now in force in the different parts of this island for the prevention of Frauds and Perjuries," and to provide more effectually for the prevention of frauds and perjuries :

Preamble.

1 It is therefore hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the said Ordinance No. 7 of 1834 shall be and the same is hereby repealed except as to any offences already committed, or any fines, penalties, or liabilities incurred thereunder, or the repeal of the previous Regulations and Proclamation thereby repealed.

Repeal of Ordinance No. 7 of 1834.

2 No sale, purchase, transfer, assignment, or mortgage of land or other immovable property, and no promise, bargain, contract, or agreement for effecting any such object, or for establishing any security, interest, or incumbrance affecting land or other immovable property (other than a lease at will, or for any period not exceeding one month), nor any contract or agreement for the future sale or purchase of any land or other immovable property, shall be of force or avail in law unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the party making the same, or by some person lawfully authorized by him or her in the presence of a licensed notary public and two or more witnesses present at the same time, and unless the execution of such writing, deed, or instrument be duly attested by such notary and witnesses.

Deeds affecting immovable property to be executed before a notary and witnesses.

3 No will, testament, or codicil containing any devise of land or other immovable property, or any bequest of movable property, or for any other purpose whatsoever, shall be valid unless it shall be in writing and executed in manner hereinafter mentioned ; (that is to say) it shall be signed at the foot or end thereof by the testator, or by some other person in his presence and by his direction, and such signature shall be made or acknowledged by the testator in the presence of a licensed notary public and two or more witnesses, who shall be present at the same time and duly attest such execution, or if no notary shall be present, then such signature shall be made or acknowledged by the testator in presence of five or more witnesses present at the same time, and such witnesses shall subscribe the will in the presence of the testator, but no form of attestation shall be necessary.

Every will shall be in writing, and signed by the testator in the presence of two witnesses at one time.

4 No appointment made by will, testament, or codicil in exercise of any power shall be valid unless the same be executed in manner hereinbefore required ; and every will,

Appointments by will to be executed like other wills, and to be valid although other required solemnities are not observed.

testament, or codicil executed in manner hereinbefore required shall, so far as respects the execution and attestation thereof, be a valid execution of a power of appointment by will, testament, or codicil, notwithstanding that it shall have been expressly required that a will, testament, or codicil, made in exercise of such power, should be executed with some additional or other form of execution or solemnity.

No will to be revoked but by another will or codicil, or by a writing executed like a will, or by destruction.

5 No will, testament, or codicil, or any part thereof, shall be revoked otherwise than by the marriage of the testator or testatrix, or by another will, testament, or codicil executed in manner hereinbefore required, or by some writing declaring an intention to revoke the same, and executed in the manner in which a will, testament, or codicil is hereinbefore required to be executed, or by the burning, tearing, or otherwise destroying the same by the testator or testatrix, or by some person in his or her presence, and by his or her direction, with the intention of revoking the same.

No alteration in a will shall have any effect unless executed as a will.

6 No obliteration, interlineation, or other alteration made in any will, testament, or codicil after the execution thereof shall be valid or have any effect, except so far as the words or effect of the will, testament, or codicil before such alteration shall not be apparent, unless such alteration shall be executed in like manner as hereinbefore is required for the execution of the will, but the will, testament, or codicil, with such alteration as part thereof, shall be deemed to be duly executed if the signature of the testator or testatrix, and the subscription of the witnesses be made in the margin or some other part of the will, testament, or codicil opposite or near to such alteration, or at the foot or end of or opposite or near to such alteration, or at the foot or end of or opposite to a memorandum referring to such alteration, and written at the end or some other part of the will, testament, or codicil.

No will revoked to be revived otherwise than by re-execution, or a codicil to revive it.

7 No will, testament, or codicil, or any part thereof, which shall be in any manner revoked shall be revived otherwise than by the re-execution thereof, or by a codicil executed in manner hereinbefore required, and showing an intention to revive the same; and when any will, testament, or codicil which shall be partly revoked and afterwards wholly revoked shall be revived, such revival shall not extend to so much thereof as shall have been revoked before the revocation of the whole thereof, unless an intention to the contrary be shown.

Publication not to be requisite.

8 Every will, testament, or codicil executed in manner hereinbefore required shall be valid without any other publication thereof; provided always that every such will, testament, or codicil shall, after the decease of the testator or testatrix, be duly proved and recorded in the district court empowered by the charter to grant probate or administration in such case, according to such general rules of practice as may now or hereafter be made by the judges of the Supreme Court.

Frauds and Perjuries.

9 If any person who shall attest the execution of any will, testament, or codicil shall at the time of the execution thereof, or at any time afterwards, be incompetent to be admitted a witness to prove the execution thereof, such will, testament, or codicil shall not on that account be invalid.

Will not to be void on account of incompetency of attesting witness.

10 If any person shall attest the execution of any will, testament, or codicil to whom or to whose wife or husband any beneficial devise, legacy, estate, interest, gift, disposition, or appointment of or affecting any immovable or movable property (other than and except charges and directions for the payment of any debt or debts) shall be thereby given or made, such devise, legacy, estate, interest, gift, disposition, or appointment shall, so far only as concerns such person attesting the execution of such will, testament, or codicil, or the wife or husband of such person, or any person claiming under such person or wife or husband, be utterly null and void, and such person so attesting shall be admitted as witness to prove the execution, or to prove the validity or invalidity thereof, notwithstanding such devise, legacy, estate, interest, gift, disposition, or appointment mentioned in such will, testament, or codicil.

Gifts to an attesting witness to be void.

11 In case by any will, testament, or codicil any immovable or movable property shall be charged with any debt or debts, and any creditor, or the wife or husband of any creditor whose debt is so charged, shall attest the execution of such will, testament, or codicil, such creditor, notwithstanding such charge, shall be admitted a witness to prove the execution of such will, testament, or codicil, or to prove the validity or invalidity thereof.

Creditor attesting to be admitted a witness.

12 That no person shall, on account of his or her being an executor or executrix of a will, testament, or codicil, be incompetent to be admitted a witness to prove the execution of such will, testament, or codicil, or a witness to prove the validity or invalidity thereof; nor shall any executor or executrix, by reason of his or her attesting such will, forfeit the recompense or commission for his or her trouble payable by law, custom, or practice.

Executor to be admitted a witness.

13 Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance contained, any soldier being in actual military service, or any mariner or seaman being at sea, may dispose of his personal estate as he might have done before the making of this Ordinance.

Soldiers' and mariners' wills excepted.

14 No writing, deed, or instrument for the purposes aforesaid, and no will, testament, or codicil which shall have been made prior to the passing of this Ordinance, shall be deemed or taken to be invalid by reason alone of the same not having been executed and acknowledged before or attested by a notary licensed to practise within the district wherein the land or property devised or to be affected by such writing, deed, or instrument, will, testament, or codicil, is situated, any provision in the hereinbefore repealed Ordinance No. 7 of 1834 to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always that every such writing, deed, or instrument, will, testament, or codicil shall have been at the time of the date thereof duly executed, acknowledged before, or attested by a notary licensed to practise in some other district.

15 Every deed or other instrument, except any will, testament, or codicil required by this Ordinance to be executed or acknowledged before or to be attested by a notary, shall be executed, acknowledged, or attested in duplicate. [Rest repealed.]

Ordinance not to affect sales by Government, &c.

20 None of the foregoing provisions in this Ordinance shall be taken as applying to any grants, sales, or other conveyances of land or other immovable property from or to Government, or to any mortgage of land or other immovable property made to Government, or to any deed or instrument touching land or other immovable property to which Government shall be a party, or to any certificates of sales granted by fiscals of land or other immovable property sold under writs of execution.

No promise, &c., to be in force unless in writing and signed.

21 No promise, contract, bargain, or agreement, unless it be in writing and signed by the party making the same, or by some person thereto lawfully authorized by him or her, shall be of force or avail in law for any of the following purposes :

- (1) For charging any person with the debt, default, or miscarriage of another.
- (2) For pledging movable property, unless the same shall have been actually delivered to the person to whom it is alleged to have been pledged.
- (3) For the purchase or sale of any movable property, unless such property or part thereof shall have been delivered to the purchaser, or the price or a part thereof have been paid by the purchaser.
- (4) For establishing a partnership where the capital exceeds one hundred pounds : Provided that this shall not be construed to prevent third parties from suing partners, or persons acting as such, and offering in evidence circumstances to prove a partnership existing between such persons, or to exclude parol testimony concerning transactions by or the settlement of any account between partners.

Proviso.

22 Provided always that nothing in the preceding clause shall be construed to exempt any deed or instrument in any manner affecting land or other immovable property from being required for that purpose to be executed and attested in manner declared by the second clause of this Ordinance.

Commencement of Ordinance.

And it is further enacted that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect upon and from the First day of February, One thousand Eight hundred and Forty.

18th January, 1840.

*Crown Lands.No. 12 of 1840.To prevent Encroachments upon Crown Lands.(See No. 9 of 1841.)

WHEREAS divers persons, without any probable claim or pretence of title, have taken possession of lands in this colony belonging to Her Majesty, and it is necessary that provision be made for the prevention of such encroachments :

Preamble.

1 It shall and may be lawful for the district court, upon information supported by affidavit charging any person or persons with having, without probable claim or pretence of title, entered upon or taken possession of any land which belongs to Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, to issue its summons for the appearance before it of the party or parties alleged to have so illegally entered upon or taken possession of such land, and of any other person or persons whom it may be necessary or proper to examine as a witness or witnesses, on the hearing of any such information ; and the said district court shall proceed in a summary way in the presence of the parties, or in case of wilful absence of any person against whom any such information shall have been laid, then in his absence to hear and determine such information ; and in case on the hearing thereof it shall be made to appear by the examination of the said party or parties, or other sufficient evidence, to the satisfaction of such district court, that the said party or parties against whom such information shall have been laid hath or have entered upon or taken possession of the land mentioned or referred to in such information without any probable claim or pretence of title, and that such party or parties hath or have not cultivated, planted, or otherwise improved and held uninterrupted possession of such land for the period of *five years or upwards, then, and not otherwise, such district court is hereby authorized and required to make an order directing such party or parties to deliver up to Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, peaceable possession of such land, together with all crops growing thereon, and all buildings and other immovable property upon and affixed to the said land, and to pay the costs of such information ; and in case the party or parties against whom any such order shall have been made shall not, within fourteen days after service thereof, deliver up possession of the said land and premises, pursuant to the said order, or shall afterwards make or cause to be made any further encroachments upon the said land or premises, contrary to such order or in evasion thereof, then and in such case it shall be lawful for such district court to adjudge such party or parties to pay a fine not exceeding five pounds, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding fourteen days, and to make a further order for the immediate delivery over of the possession of such land and premises to Her Majesty, her heirs or successors ; and the district court shall thereupon cause possession thereof to be delivered to Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, accordingly.

Subsequent proceeding by ordinary course of law.

2 Any person against whom any such order as aforesaid may have been made may, notwithstanding such order, proceed by the ordinary course of law to recover possession of such lands, in case he shall be able to establish a title thereto ; and may also in such case recover a reasonable compensation for the damage he may have sustained by reason of his having been compelled to deliver up possession of the said premises, and in like manner, in case of the dismissal of any such information, the party having preferred the same may proceed according to the ordinary course of law, as if no such information had been preferred.

Court may order payment of costs.

3 Provided always that in case any such information shall be dismissed, it shall be lawful for the said district court, if it shall think fit, to order payment by Government to the party or parties against whom the same may have been preferred of such sum as the said court may consider to be the amount of costs fairly incurred by such party or parties by reason of such information so dismissed.

Proceedings subject to rules of court.

4 The forms of the proceedings to be observed on lodging complaints, in issuing summonses, in the examination of the party or parties, in the citation of witnesses, in the making orders, and generally for the complete carrying into execution the powers hereby vested in the said district court, shall be according to such general rules of practice as the judges of the Supreme Court may now or hereafter frame thereon.

Cinnamon lands, when the property of the Crown.

5 All cinnamon lands which shall have been uninterruptedly possessed by Government for a period of thirty years and upwards, by peeling the cinnamon growing thereon, shall be held and deemed to be the property of the Crown.

Waste lands to be deemed the property of the Crown.

6 All forest, waste, unoccupied, or uncultivated lands shall be presumed to be the property of the Crown until the contrary thereof be proved, and all chenas and other lands which can be only cultivated after intervals of several years shall, if the same be situate within the districts formerly comprised in the Kandian provinces (wherein no thombo registers have been heretofore established), be deemed to belong to the Crown and not to be the property of any private person claiming the same against the Crown, except upon proof only by such person of a sannas or grant for the same, together with satisfactory evidence as to the limits and boundaries thereof, or of such customary taxes, dues, or services having been rendered within twenty years for the same as have been rendered within such period for similar lands being the property of private proprietors in the same districts ; and in all other districts in this colony such chena and other lands which can only be cultivated after intervals of several years shall be deemed to be forest or waste lands within the meaning of this clause.

Crown Lands.

7 It shall be lawful for any person in the possession of land to make application in writing to the government agent of the province in which such land is situate for a certificate of the Crown having no claim to such land, which application shall contain a full description of the property, together with a survey thereof made by or under the authority of the Surveyor-General, and shall contain a declaration by the applicant, stating the nature of his right, or the manner in which he acquired possession; and if the government agent shall, upon investigation, be satisfied that the Crown has no claim to such land, he shall, with the consent of the Governor, grant a certificate to that effect to such applicant, and a copy of such certificate shall be previously entered in a book to be kept in the office of the government agent for that purpose, and such certificate, or any copy from such entry thereof, attested by the government agent, shall be received by any court as a good and valid title to such land against any right, title, or claim of the Crown thereto existing at the date of such certificate.

Government agent when to grant certificate against the right of the Crown.

8 Whenever any person shall have, without any grant or title from Government, taken possession of and cultivated, planted, or otherwise improved any land belonging to Government, and shall have held uninterrupted possession thereof for not less than ten nor more than thirty years, such person shall be entitled to a grant from Government of such land, on payment by him or her of half the improved value of the said land, unless Government shall require the same for public purposes, or for the use of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, when such person shall be liable only to be ejected from such land on being paid by Government the half of the improved value thereof, and the full value of any buildings that may have been erected thereon.

If party ten years in uninterrupted possession of Government land.

[See § 2, 9 of 1841]

10 All and every encroachment on any public road, street, or highway, by building or other erection, or by enclosure, planting, or otherwise, shall, on information thereof, be immediately abated and removed by judgment, order, or decree of the district court thereon, and the party or parties offending found liable in damages besides the costs of suit.

Encroachment on road, &c.

11 Any principal or other headman who shall wilfully or knowingly refuse or neglect to give every information within his knowledge or power immediately to the government agent of his province, or some assistant agent thereof, of any encroachment made by any person or persons upon any land belonging to Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, and situated in the district or village of such headman, shall be liable for every such offence to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

Crown Lands.

Order in Council of 11th August, 1841.

At the COURT at WINDSOR, the 11th of AUGUST, 1841.

Present :

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

His Royal Highness Prince Albert. Marquis of Normanby. Viscount Melbourne.	Lord Chamberlain. Viscount Duncannon. Viscount Palmerston. Mr. Stanley.
---	--

Order in Council,
 11th August,
 1841.

WHEREAS on the 27th day of October, 1840, an Ordinance was enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, intituled "Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, to prevent Encroachments upon Crown Lands" :

Now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, hath been pleased to confirm and allow the said Ordinance, subject to the amendments hereinafter mentioned, and the said Ordinance is hereby, subject to these amendments, confirmed and allowed accordingly :

And whereas the period of thirty years or upwards of uninterrupted possession, which by the said recited Ordinance is limited as the period after which an order for delivering up possession of land may not be made, is unreasonably long, Her Majesty is, with the advice aforesaid, pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said recited Ordinance shall be and the same is hereby amended by the substitution of the period of five years for the before-mentioned period of thirty years.

And the Right Honourable Lord John Russell, one of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. GREVILLE.

*Vagrants.No. 4 of 1841.To amend the Laws relating to Vagrants.(See No. 7 of 1839.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the laws relating to vagrants :

Preamble.

1 It is therefore hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the fifth and sixteenth clauses of the Ordinance No. 3 of 1834, entitled "For improving the Police within the town, fort, and four gravets and port of Colombo, and for consolidating and amending the laws relating to the same," and the Ordinance No. 3 of 1840, entitled "For the suppression of Vagrancy and the punishment of idle and disorderly persons and rogues and vagabonds," shall be and the same are hereby repealed, except in so far as they repeal other Regulations, Ordinances, and Proclamations.

Former provisions repealed.

2 Every person behaving in a riotous or disorderly manner in any public street or highway shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten shillings ; provided nevertheless that every person convicted four times of such conduct shall, for every subsequent offence, be punishable in the manner declared in the following clause respecting idle and disorderly persons.

Punishment of persons behaving riotously or disorderly in the public streets.

3 Every person committing any of the offences herein-after mentioned in this clause shall be deemed an idle and disorderly person within the true intent and meaning of this Ordinance, and shall be liable upon the first conviction to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding fourteen days, or to a fine not exceeding twenty shillings :

Persons committing offences herein mentioned to be deemed idle and disorderly persons.

- (1) Every person being able to maintain himself by work or other means, but who shall wilfully refuse or neglect so to do, and shall wander abroad or place himself in any public place, street, highway, court, or passage, to beg or gather alms, or cause, or procure, or encourage any of his family so to do, excepting priests and pilgrims in performance of their religious vows, not being mendicants of the description mentioned in the second section of the following clause.
- (3) Every common prostitute wandering in the public street or highway, or in any place of public resort, and behaving in a riotous or indecent manner.
- (4) Every person wandering abroad or lodging in any verandah, outhouse, shed, or unoccupied building, or in any cart, vehicle, or other receptacle, without leave of the owner thereof, and not having any visible means of subsistence, and not giving a good account of himself.
- (5) Every person, without leave of the owner, defacing the side of any house or building or wall by fixing any placard or notice, or by any indecent or insulting writing or drawing thereon.

Vagrants.

Interpretation of "idle and disorderly person" extended.

[§ 1, 7 of 1889]

Police officer may arrest without a warrant.

[§ 2, 7 of 1889]

Idle and disorderly persons on second conviction, or resisting constables, and persons committing offences herein mentioned, to be deemed rogues and vagabonds.

(6) Whoever in or upon any wharf, jetty, street, road, walk, passage, verandah, or other place used by, or accessible to, the public, persistently and without lawful excuse follows, accosts, or addresses by words or signs any person against his will and to his annoyance, shall be deemed to be an idle and disorderly person within the meaning of the Ordinance No. 4 of 1841, intituled "An Ordinance to amend the Laws relating to Vagrants," and shall, on conviction, be liable to the several pains and penalties provided in the said Ordinance.

(7) A police officer may arrest without a warrant every such idle and disorderly person.

4 Every person convicted a second time of being idle and disorderly, and every idle and disorderly person resisting any constable or police officer apprehending him, and every person committing any of the offences hereinafter mentioned in this clause, shall be deemed a rogue and vagabond within the true intent and meaning of this Ordinance, and shall be liable to be imprisoned with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding one month, or to a fine not exceeding two pounds :

(1) Every person wilfully exposing his person in an indecent manner, or exhibiting any obscene print, picture, or other indecent exhibition, in any street, road, highway, or public place or elsewhere, to the annoyance and disgust of others.

(2) Every person wandering abroad, or placing himself in any public place, street, highway, court, or passage, and endeavouring by the exposure of any wounds, deformities, leprosy, or loathsome diseases, to obtain or gather alms.

(3) Every person going about as a gatherer or collector of alms, or endeavouring to procure charitable contributions for himself or others, of any nature or kind, under any false or fraudulent pretences.

5 Every person convicted a third time or more often of being idle and disorderly, or a second time or more often of being a rogue and vagabond, and every person escaping out of any place of legal confinement before the expiration of the term for which he shall have been committed under this Ordinance, shall be deemed to be an incorrigible rogue within the true intent and meaning of this Ordinance, and shall be liable to imprisonment at hard labour for any period not exceeding four months, and to corporal punishment not exceeding twenty-five lashes.

6 Every person convicted as an incorrigible rogue may, in addition to any punishment imposed by the preceding clause, be required also to give security for his good behaviour for one year after his discharge, and in default of such security shall be liable to additional imprisonment at hard labour not exceeding four months.

Persons convicted a third time of being idle and disorderly, or a second time of being rogues and vagabonds, and persons escaping from place of confinement, to be deemed incorrigible rogues.

Incorrigible rogue may be required to give security for his good behaviour.

Vagrants.

11 In case any principal or other headman, constable, or other peace officer aforesaid shall neglect his duty in anything required of him by this Ordinance, he shall be liable for every such offence to a fine not exceeding five pounds, or to imprisonment not exceeding two calendar months, with or without hard labour, at the discretion of the court.

Officers neglecting their duty.

21 All fines or penalties imposed by this Ordinance shall, on failure of immediate payment, be levied by summary warrant of distress and sale of the goods, property, and effects of the offender, and in default of payment every such offender shall be imprisoned at hard labour for the space of one month for every pound of such fine which shall remain unsatisfied, and in like proportion for every lesser sum, provided that such imprisonment on any one conviction shall never exceed the term of twelve months, and it shall also be lawful for any court before whom any such offender may be convicted to order, at its discretion, the whole or any part of such fine or penalty, when recovered, to be paid over or applied to the use and benefit of the persons who shall first have given information against or been active in the apprehending of such offender, or shall appear otherwise deserving of reward in the matter.

Fines to be levied by distress.

Informer's share.

22 No prosecution shall be instituted against any person for offences under the provisions of this Ordinance after the expiration of one calendar month next subsequent to the date of the offence.

No prosecution to be instituted after one month.

23 Whenever in this Ordinance any word or words used in this Ordinance is or are used importing the singular number or the masculine gender only, yet such word or words shall be understood and construed to include several persons as well as one person, females as well as males, and several matters or things as well as one matter or thing, unless it be otherwise specially provided, or there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

Construction of terms.

24 And it is further enacted that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect upon and from the First day of January, One thousand Eight hundred and Forty-two.

Ordinance when to take effect.

6th September, 1841.

Crown Lands. Lands (Northern Province).

No. 9 of 1841.

To repeal the ninth clause of the Ordinance No. 12 of 1840, and to re-enact certain of its provisions.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the ninth clause of the Ordinance No. 12 of 1840, entitled "To prevent encroachments upon Crown Lands" :

Clause 9 of Ordinance No. 12 of 1840 repealed.

1 It is therefore hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the ninth clause of the Ordinance No. 12 of 1840, entitled "To prevent encroachments upon Crown Lands," shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Eighth clause and part of the first clause of Ordinance No. 12 of 1840 not to extend to any land referred to in the sixth clause thereof.

2 None of the provisions contained in the eighth clause, nor the provision touching prescription contained in the first clause of the said Ordinance No. 12 of 1840, shall extend to any land referred to in the sixth clause thereof, nor to any public road, street, or highway, nor to any land known or held as toonhawul land.

12th October, 1841.

No. 1 of 1842.

To make certain Regulations respecting the granting of Schedules on occasion of the Execution of Deeds affecting Land in the Northern Province.

Preamble.

WHEREAS a custom exists in some parts of the Northern Province for the headmen, upon application to them, to give certain certificates and extracts from the thombos, commonly called schedules, on occasion of the intended execution of any deed affecting land, for which they receive certain fees : And whereas there is much vexatious delay on the part of the headmen in performing what by this custom is required of them, and many attempts are made to exact exorbitant fees, and it is necessary to make provision for the prevention of these delays and undue exactions :

Fee payable to headman on granting of schedule.

1 Every headman shall be entitled to receive for every such schedule which he shall grant to any party applying for the same a fee of two per cent. on the value of the land for which it is granted ; provided always that such fee shall never be less than one shilling and sixpence nor more than five pounds, and that it shall not be considered due until after the schedule has been delivered, and until after every such act in relation thereto which by custom the headman is bound to perform has been performed.

Lands (Northern Province).

2 It shall be lawful for a headman to refuse to grant a schedule to any party applying for the same whom he shall have reasonable grounds for believing not to be entitled thereto; provided always that he shall forthwith give to such party a statement in writing of the ground of such refusal.

Headman refusing to grant schedule to give reasons in writing for such refusal.

3 Any headman who shall neglect or delay to attend to any proper application that shall be made to him for a schedule, or who shall unnecessarily protract the granting of it, or the performance of any act in relation thereto which by custom he is bound to perform, and any headman who shall unnecessarily delay the giving of the statement required by the second clause to be given, under the circumstances therein stated, to the applicant for a schedule, and any headman who shall demand or receive a greater fee for granting a schedule than is by this Ordinance allowed, shall be liable to a fine according to the discretion of the court not exceeding five pounds, to be recovered from him by distress, and in default of payment to imprisonment not exceeding one month.

Penalties on headman for negligence or misconduct.

4 And it is further enacted that this Ordinance shall come into operation from and after the First day of January, One thousand Eight hundred and Forty-three.

Ordinance when to come into operation.

1st August, 1842.

*Oaths and Affirmations.No. 3 of 1842.*For the substitution of Solemn Affirmations in lieu of Oaths in certain cases.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to substitute a solemn affirmation in lieu of every oath hitherto required to be taken by persons professing other than the Christian religion, and by Quakers, Moravians, and Jews: And whereas the provisions of the Ordinance No. 6 of 1841 are not sufficiently extensive for that purpose :

Ordinance No. 6 of 1841 repealed.

1 It is therefore hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the Ordinance No. 6 of 1841, entitled "To require persons professing other than the Christian Religion to make Solemn Affirmations in lieu of Oaths," shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Solemn affirmations to be substituted for oaths.

2 Every individual not professing the Christian faith, and every Quaker, Moravian, or Jew, shall, on all occasions whatsoever where an oath is required by the existing or by any other law hereafter to be made, make a solemn affirmation or declaration in lieu thereof, and every such affirmation or declaration shall be of the same force and effect as an oath taken in the usual form, anything in the Ordinance No. 6 of 1834, entitled an "Ordinance declaring English rules of evidence to be in force in this island unless in cases otherwise expressly provided for by law; and prescribing the course by which evidence is to be obtained in certain cases," to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always that every such affirmation or declaration shall commence with the following words, or words to that effect, "I, A. B., do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm."

Form of affirmation.

*Kandy Church.No. 11 of 1842.*An Ordinance to provide for a Church in Kandy.

WHEREAS several persons have, with the concurrence of the Lord Bishop of the diocese, subscribed certain sums of money for the purpose of erecting a church at Kandy, for the celebration of Divine worship according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, and by some minister thereof duly appointed by Government : And whereas the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, has consented to grant from the public chest a sum equal to the amount of subscriptions paid up, provided that such sum shall not exceed the sum of £1,500 : And whereas it is expedient to provide for the immediate appointment and continual succession of trustees for the direction of the building of the said church, according to such plan and specification as shall be agreed upon between His Excellency the Governor of this colony and the trustees :

Preamble.

1 It shall be lawful for the Governor by warrant under his hand to authorize the issue from the treasury of this colony of any sum or sums not exceeding in all £1,500, to be applied, under the direction of trustees to be appointed as hereinafter provided, to the building of a church in Kandy ; provided that no such issue shall be made until a moiety of the estimated costs thereof shall have been raised by subscription and lodged in the general treasury.

Governor empowered to issue £1,500 towards building the church.

Proviso.

2 Before any sum or sums of money shall be issued as aforesaid, the parties subscribing shall, by plurality of votes, elect from among themselves three persons to act as trustees ; and such election shall take place at a meeting of the subscribers, of the time and place of holding which meeting fourteen days' notice shall have been previously published in the Government Gazette ; and upon intimation being given to the Governor of the election of such three persons as aforesaid, the said Governor shall thereupon nominate three other persons to act as trustees ; and the real estate in the said church, and in all lands and hereditaments thereunto belonging, shall be thereupon conveyed to the said trustees so elected and nominated and their successors for ever, duly elected and nominated as hereinafter provided, in trust for the purposes of the said church.

Three trustees to be elected by subscribers and three nominated by Governor.

3 And whereas a provisional committee of management for the purposes of the said church was appointed at a certain general meeting of the subscribers to the said church held at the Kandy Library on the 27th January, 1841 ; it is therefore enacted that upon the election and nomination of trustees as aforesaid the said provisional committee shall deliver over to the said trustees all deeds, books, plans, papers, and vouchers relating to the said church in their custody or power, and all and any sums of money, donations, or subscriptions given or subscribed for the purpose aforesaid, in their possession or control, and the said committee of management, and the office and duties thereof, shall thereupon cease and determine.

Trustees to be elected annually.

4 The said trustees so elected and nominated as aforesaid shall continue to be and to act as trustees until the last Monday in the month of January, One thousand Eight hundred and Forty-four; and upon such day such trustees shall cease to have any power or authority so to act; and three persons shall be elected at a general meeting to be held on that day, and three other persons shall be nominated by the Governor as soon as convenient thereafter, to be the trustees of the said church for the year immediately ensuing; and a fresh election and nomination of trustees shall in like manner take place upon every last Monday of the month of January thereafter, and copies of the minutes of every election or nomination of a trustee which shall take place under the provisions of any clause in this Ordinance shall be transmitted without delay to the Colonial Secretary and the registrar of the Bishop of the diocese: Provided always that no person shall be elected a trustee at any general meeting before the completion of the said church who shall not have paid up a subscription thereto of at least five pounds, or after its completion who shall not be a renter of at least three sittings therein; nor any person who shall not be a member of the United Church of England and Ireland.

Proviso.

Colonial chaplain to be ex-officio chairman of trustees.

5 The colonial chaplain for the time being duly appointed to the said church, or during his absence the clergyman duly appointed to officiate for him, shall at all times be ex-officio chairman of the trustees, but shall not have the power of voting by reason of being such chairman, except in cases where the votes of the trustees present shall be equal.

Vacancies occasioned by death, resignation, or removal of trustees, how to be filled.

6 Whenever any trustee shall die, or shall resign, or shall leave the colony, then, in case such trustee shall have been originally elected at a general meeting, his vacancy shall be filled by some other person duly qualified in like manner as such trustee, to be elected at a general meeting to be called for that purpose as soon as may be convenient by the continuing trustees, or the major part of them; and in case such trustee shall have been originally nominated by the Governor, his vacancy shall be filled as soon as may be convenient by some other person duly qualified, to be nominated in like manner: Provided always that if such general meeting shall not be called within one month after the death, resignation, or departure of such trustee from the colony, it shall be lawful for the Governor to nominate some person duly qualified as aforesaid to be a trustee.

Proviso.

Sittings in church how to be appropriated.

7 The trustees for the time being duly nominated and elected as aforesaid, or the major part of them, are hereby authorized and required to set apart, as soon as conveniently may be after the completion of the said church, one sixth part of the whole number of sittings therein, to be appropriated, free of any charge whatever, to the use and accommodation of the poorer classes of the population; and also one pew, containing not more than six sittings nor less than four, for the use and occupation, free from all charges, of the clergyman licensed to officiate in the said church; and the remaining sittings, after due provision shall have been made for the accommodation of the Governor and of the military, shall be assigned to the trustees for the time being and their successors for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

8 It shall and may be lawful for the trustees for the time being, or the major part of them, and they are hereby required so soon as such partition of the church shall have taken place as in the preceding clause mentioned, to assess and fix a rent or rate for each pew or sitting therein, with the exception of such pews or sittings as shall have been set apart and reserved as aforesaid, and to make agreements and contracts with any person desirous to engage the same, according to such assessment; and such rate or rent shall be in force for one year from the time of the assessment thereof, and at the expiration of such year the trustees for the time being shall assess and fix a fresh rate or rent for the year immediately following; and a fresh assessment shall in like manner be made annually and every year; and the trustees for the time being shall be at all times empowered to make agreements and contracts in respect of any pew or sitting which shall be vacant: Provided always that if it shall at any time appear to the trustees, or the major part of them, that such annual assessment will be insufficient to defray the several charges and costs necessary for effecting and providing all things required by this Ordinance, it shall and may be lawful for such trustees, or the major part of them, by ten days' previous notice in writing affixed in some conspicuous place in the said church, to call a general meeting for the purpose of taking into consideration the expediency of amending and increasing such assessment; and if it shall appear to the majority of such meeting, not being fewer in number than twenty, that such assessment will not be sufficient to provide for all such necessary costs and charges, it shall and may be lawful for the said majority to substitute such higher assessment as by them shall be deemed sufficient to meet such costs and charges, and such higher rate shall thereupon become due and payable and shall continue to be charged and collected for the same period that the rate for which it is so substituted would otherwise have been in force.

Trustees to fix the rent of sittings annually.

Proviso.

9 Every subscriber towards the building of the said church to the amount of not less than five pounds shall have a right in the first instance to become a renter of a pew or sitting in preference to any other person who shall not have so subscribed, and such subscribers shall, amongst themselves, have priority in the choice of pews or sittings, not exceeding

Auditors to be elected annually.

15 One person, not being a trustee, shall be elected at a general meeting to be called by the trustees immediately after the completion of the building of the said church, to be an auditor of the accounts rendered by the trustees of the said building; and one other person, not being a trustee, shall be nominated by the Governor to be an auditor for the same purpose; and one person shall thereafter be elected at a general meeting on the second Monday in every January to be an auditor of the yearly accounts of the said trustees, and one other person, not being a trustee, shall be thereupon nominated by the Governor to be an auditor for the same purpose and during the same period.

Trustees to keep annual accounts, and to submit them, with auditors' report, at a general meeting every year.

16 The trustees shall keep an account wherein they shall enter all moneys received and paid by them under and by virtue of the provisions of this Ordinance, which account the auditors, or either of them, may inspect at all reasonable times; and the said account, together with any report of the auditors or either of them thereon, shall be laid before the general annual meetings to be held on the last Monday of the month of January, and the said accounts shall be thereupon published in the Government Gazette.

Trustees to call a general meeting upon receiving a requisition signed by twenty subscribers or renters of sittings.

17 It shall be lawful for the trustees for the time being, or the major part of them, and they are hereby required, to call a general meeting of the subscribers or renters of sittings, as the case may be, within twelve days after receiving any requisition in writing to that effect, signed by not less than twenty of such subscribers or renters; and ten days' notice of the time and place of holding such general meeting shall be affixed in some conspicuous part of the said church, when completed, or until its completion in some conspicuous place or places within the town of Kandy.

Who to vote at general meetings.

18 The right of voting at every general meeting, until the said church shall have been reported by the proper authority to be completed and fit for use, shall be vested in subscribers who have paid up their subscriptions previous to the date of the notice to convene such general meeting, and that from and after such time as the said church shall have been so reported to be completed and fit for use the right of voting shall be vested in renters of sittings in the said church who shall have duly paid up their rent: Provided always that no such subscriber or renter of sittings shall on any occasion be allowed to give more than one vote.

*Lands (Boundaries).No. 1 of 1844.

To make provision for the more easily ascertaining the Boundaries of the several Landed Estates possessed by Her Majesty's Subjects within this Colony.

WHEREAS much inconvenience is experienced from the want of any defined boundaries or landmarks of the several estates possessed by Her Majesty's subjects within this colony, and it is expedient to provide a remedy for the same: And whereas by the seventh clause of the Ordinance No. 12 of 1840 it is enacted that the government agent of any province may, with the consent of the Governor, grant to any person possessing land within the province a certificate of the Crown having no claim to such land, and it appears that the provision to that effect may conveniently be extended:

Preamble.

1 It shall at any time be lawful for the government agent of the province to demand in writing of any person claiming to be the owner of any land within the same the production of every deed, document, and instrument upon which such person founds such claim: and if the occupier or person having the superintendence or management of any such land, not being himself the alleged owner thereof, shall refuse to give full information respecting the name and residence of such alleged owner, upon being requested so to do by the government agent, or if such alleged owner shall refuse to produce to the government agent, within ten days after being requested so to do, every deed, document, and instrument upon which he founds his claim to the said land, and which shall be in his possession, or if any such deed, document, or instrument shall not be in his possession, shall refuse fully to inform the government agent, upon application, in whose possession they are, or if any person having in his possession any such deed, document, or instrument, shall refuse to produce the same within ten days after having been requested so to do in writing by the government agent, every such occupier, superintendent or manager, alleged owner, and person so refusing shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to any fine not exceeding five pounds.

Government agent may demand production of title deeds.

Penalty on refusal.

2 If it shall appear that the person claiming to be the owner of any land is not in possession of any deed, document, or instrument in support of such claim, or if there shall not be attached or belonging to such deed, document, or instrument a correct and authenticated survey of the land claimed by virtue of such deed, document, or instrument, it shall be lawful for the government agent of the province, if he shall see fit so to do, wherein such land shall be situated, to cause a survey thereof to be made, and to recover the costs thereof from such claimant, and such government agent shall forthwith proceed to grant to such claimant a in the manner provided by the said clause at the time of making such erroneous grant, and if the party to whom such erroneous grant shall have been made shall have entered upon such land and clearly defined the boundaries thereof, and shall have cultivated or improved the same, but shall not have remained in undisturbed possession thereof for the space of three years subsequent to the passing of this Ordinance, then the first grantee or proprietor shall not be entitled to enter upon and take possession of the land so cultivated or improved except upon payment to the cultivator or improver thereof of three-fourths of the improved value of such land, less the value of such land in its uncultivated state, such last-mentioned value to be taken to be the same as that of similar land adjoining; and such questions of value shall be determined by arbitration in manner hereinafter provided; and the party having so cultivated or improved the same shall be entitled to recover from the Crown the amount paid to the Crown by such party in respect of such erroneous grant: Provided always that if the first grantee or proprietor of such land shall decline to enter into possession of the land so cultivated or improved, he shall be entitled to recover from the cultivator or improver thereof the value of the land and one-fourth of the value of the cultivation or improvements thereupon, such value to be determined by arbitration in manner hereinafter provided; and upon payment of such amount the said first grantee or proprietor shall, upon application by and at the cost of the party having cultivated or improved such land, execute a good and valid transfer thereof to such party and his heirs; and the said last-mentioned party shall be entitled to recover from the Crown the amount paid to the Crown in respect of such erroneous grant: And provided further, that if it shall appear that the party having claim to such land under such first grant from the Crown, or under any other good and valid title, had full knowledge of such land being so cultivated or improved, and wilfully, fraudulently, or negligently abstained from giving notice to the party cultivating or improving the same that such land was the property of the party having such claim as aforesaid, then the party so having cultivated or improved the same shall be entitled to retain possession of such land upon the same terms and in such and the like manner as is declared in the preceding clause of this Ordinance in respect of parties who shall have cultivated or improved land erroneously granted to them by the Crown and shall have remained in undisturbed possession of the same for the space of three years subsequent to the passing of this Ordinance.

Proviso.

6 If any person shall without fraud and in perfect good faith enter upon any uncultivated land which shall be the property of any of Her Majesty's subjects, the boundaries of which shall not be clearly defined as aforesaid, and shall cultivate or improve the same, and shall remain in undisturbed possession thereof for any period not less than two nor more than five years, the proprietor of such land so

Where more than five years.

Proviso.

7 If any person shall without fraud and in perfect good faith enter upon any uncultivated land which be the property of any of Her Majesty's subjects, the boundaries of which shall not be clearly defined as aforesaid, and shall cultivate or improve the same, and shall remain in undisturbed possession thereof for upwards of five years, the proprietor of such land shall not be entitled to enter upon and take possession of such land so cultivated or improved, unless upon payment to the party having cultivated or improved the same of the full improved value thereof, less the value of the land in its uncultivated state, which last-mentioned value shall be deemed and taken to be the same as that of similar land in the neighbourhood; and such questions of value shall be determined, if necessary, by arbitration in manner hereinafter provided: Provided nevertheless, that such proprietor shall, if he elect so to do, have full power and authority to claim and recover from the party having cultivated or improved such land the value of such land in its uncultivated state, such value to be taken to be the same as that of similar land in the neighbourhood at the time of valuation, and to be determined, if necessary, by arbitration in manner hereinafter provided; and upon payment of such amount to such proprietor, and in consideration thereof, such proprietor is hereby required to execute a good and valid transfer thereof to the party having cultivated or improved the same, and his heirs, the costs of such transfer to be borne by such party: and provided further, that if it shall appear that the proprietor of such land had, at any time within such five years, full knowledge of such land being so cultivated or improved, and wilfully, fraudulently, or negligently abstained from giving notice to the party cultivating or improving the same that such land was his property, then it shall be competent to such party, upon payment to such proprietor of the value of such land when first entered upon by such party (such value to be determined if necessary by arbitration in manner hereinafter provided), to call upon such proprietor, and such proprietor is hereby required to execute a good and valid transfer thereof to such party and his heirs, at the cost of such party.

8 It shall be lawful for any subject of the Crown possessed of land in manner provided by the third clause of this Ordinance, the boundaries of which shall not be clearly defined as aforesaid, or any agent on his behalf, to call upon the proprietor or occupant of any land adjoining thereunto, not being Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, or upon his agent, by notice in writing under the hand of such possessor, to be served personally on such last-mentioned proprietor, occupant, or agent, or in the event of their absence from the colony, or of their not being known, by affixing the same for the space of one month on some conspicuous place in every cutcherry and court house within the district in which such land shall be situated, and upon the land itself, to cause one-half of such boundary to be made or renewed as shall require to be made or renewed, except where the liability of making or renewing such boundary or any part thereof shall by any law, custom, or agreement be otherwise determined; and if the making or renewal of such boundary shall not be commenced within thirty days after the service of such notice, and be diligently proceeded with, such first-mentioned possessor shall be entitled to cause such half of such boundary to be made or renewed, and to recover twice the amount of the costs necessarily incurred therein from the party failing to make or renew his share of such boundary: Provided always that where the land of any of Her Majesty's subjects shall adjoin land belonging to Her Majesty, it shall be competent for the government agent or any assistant government agent of the province in which such lands so adjoin, to call upon such subject, by notice to be served in manner provided in respect of the notice hereinbefore mentioned, to make or renew the whole of such boundary, or such part thereof as shall require to be made or renewed; and if the making or renewal of such boundary shall not be commenced within thirty days after the service of such notice, and diligently proceeded with, the said government agent or assistant government agent shall be entitled to cause such boundary to be made or renewed, and to recover from such subject twice the amount of the costs necessarily incurred therein.

Proprietors of adjoining lands may call upon each other to define boundaries.

Lands (Boundaries).

Where boundaries have been made and adjoining lands subsequently purchased.

9 If any subject of the Crown possessed of land in manner provided by the third clause of this Ordinance shall, after the passing of this Ordinance, clearly define the boundaries of his land as aforesaid before the lands immediately adjoining thereunto shall have been duly granted by the Crown, or otherwise held as private property, the owner of the land the boundaries of which shall have been so made shall be authorized to claim and recover from the person or persons who shall afterwards become the proprietor or proprietors of such adjoining lands one-half of the actual value of the boundaries then existing between the said adjoining lands, and such value shall be determined, if necessary, by arbitration in manner hereinafter provided as soon as is practicable after such adjoining land shall have been granted by the Crown, or otherwise held as private property as aforesaid.

Disputes to be referred to arbitration.

10 Wherever any question shall be left under the provisions of this Ordinance to be determined by arbitration, such arbitration shall be referred to two persons, one of whom shall be nominated by each of the parties, and the amount which shall be awarded under such arbitration shall, upon due proof and verification of such award before any competent court, be recovered in the same manner that such amount would have been recoverable if it had been decreed to be due by the judgment of such court: Provided always that in case such two persons so nominated as aforesaid shall not agree in the amount of the sum to be paid within the space of one calendar month next after such reference shall be made to them, then and in such case the same shall be referred to the determination of such indifferent person as the said arbitrators by any writing under their hands shall nominate and appoint as umpire in the case, and the decision of such umpire shall be conclusive, and the amount awarded by him shall be recoverable in like manner as is hereinbefore provided in respect to the amount awarded by the original referees: Provided also, that in case either of the parties in difference shall neglect or refuse, for the space of one calendar month after notice in writing given by the other party for that purpose, to join in the appointment of such arbitrators as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the arbitrator to be chosen by the party giving such notice to nominate another arbitrator to act with him, and the award of such arbitrators, or if they shall not agree in an award, then the award of the umpire, whom they are hereby required to nominate in like manner as hereinbefore provided in respect of the umpire to be nominated by the original referees, shall be binding and conclusive, and the amount awarded under it be recoverable in like manner as if the party so neglecting or refusing had chosen an arbitrator who had actually joined and made an award therein.

*Lotteries.No. 8 of 1844.*An Ordinance for the Suppression of Lotteries.

Preamble.

WHEREAS great mischief has been found to result from the existence of lotteries :

Lotteries declared nuisances.

1 All lotteries and all undertakings in the nature of lotteries, under whatsoever denomination or pretence they shall be set up, carried on, or kept, shall be deemed and are hereby declared to be common nuisances and against law.

Person drawing ticket in lottery.

3 If any person shall draw, or cause to be drawn, any ticket, lot, chance, share, number, or figure in any such lottery, or undertaking in the nature of a lottery, or shall by playing, throwing, or in any other way whatsoever, endeavour to win or obtain any prize in, or to derive any benefit for himself or for any other person from any such lottery or undertaking, every such person shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of five pounds.

Person selling or buying ticket.

4 If any person shall, within this island and its dependencies, sell, deliver, or dispose of, purchase, or wilfully receive any ticket, receipt, chance, share, or number, or anything in the nature or having the effect of a ticket, receipt, chance, share, or number in any lottery, or undertaking in the nature of a lottery, set up, carried on, or kept, or to be set up, carried on, or kept in any place, either within or beyond this island and its dependencies, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of five pounds.

Persons assisting in setting up lottery.

5 If any person shall, under any pretence, device, or description whatsoever, agree to pay any sum, or deliver any goods, or to do or forbear doing anything for the benefit of any person, whether with or without consideration, on any event or contingency relative or applicable to the drawing, winning, or obtaining of any ticket, lot, chance, share, number, or figure in any such lottery, or undertaking in the nature of a lottery, or shall make, print, or publish any proposal, under any denomination, name, or title whatever, for any of the purposes aforesaid, every such person shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of five pounds.

Search for lottery.

6 It shall be lawful for any person holding a warrant in that behalf under the hand of any competent justice of the peace, who is hereby empowered to grant the same upon complaint or information on oath of the commission of any offence specified in this clause, or for any superintendent or officer of police, or any peace officer whatsoever, upon reasonable grounds of suspicion that any such lottery, or undertaking in the nature thereof, is set up, kept, or carried on in any house, premises, or place, or that anything has lately been done, or is then in the course of being done, in any house, premises, or place in furtherance of any such lottery or undertaking, to break open or otherwise forcibly

enter any such house, premises, or place, after having given sufficient intimation of his object and not having obtained admission, and to seize and apprehend all persons whom he shall find therein doing or assisting in the doing of anything respecting any such lottery or undertaking which shall be declared punishable by this Ordinance, and to seize all papers, instruments, and things employed in or about such lottery or undertaking, and to take such persons and things before some competent justice of the peace or court to be dealt with according to law ; and every person obstructing, opposing, molesting, or hindering, and every person aiding in or inciting to the opposing, molesting, or hindering any such superintendent or officer of police, or peace officer, or any person acting under the authority of such warrant as aforesaid, in the due entering into any such house or premises or place, or in the seizing, detaining, or conveying any such offenders, or any such papers, instruments, or things before such justice or court, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of five pounds.

7 It shall not be competent for any court within this island to try any person for any offence or alleged offence against this Ordinance, unless the prosecution of such person for such offence shall have been expressly authorized by the Queen's Advocate.

No prosecution but by authority of Queen's Advocate.

8 One half of all fines recovered under the provisions of this Ordinance shall go to our Lady the Queen, and the other half to the informers ; and if any person upon whom any fine shall be imposed under the provisions of this Ordinance shall fail to pay the same, the informer shall be entitled to receive from the government agent the amount of the share of such fine to which he would have been entitled if the same had been paid ; provided that the said government agent shall not be bound to pay in respect of any one such share any sum exceeding the sum of seven pounds and ten shillings.

share of fines.

9 No person shall be deemed incompetent to give evidence at the trial of any party for any offence created by this Ordinance by reason of any reward or share to which he would be entitled under the provisions of the preceding clause upon the conviction of such party, anything in the Ordinance No. 6 of 1834, entitled "Ordinance declaring English rules of evidence to be in force in this island, unless in cases otherwise expressly provided for by law ; and prescribing the course by which evidence is to be obtained in certain cases," to the contrary notwithstanding.

Arrack, Rum, and Toddy.No. 10 of 1844.As amended by No. 13 of 1891.An Ordinance to amend the Law relative to the Distillation and Sale of Arrack, Rum, and Toddy within these Settlements.(See No. 9 of 1892.°)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relative to the distillation and sale of arrack, rum, and toddy within these settlements :

Ordinances No. 5 of 1834 and No. 13 of 1840 repealed.

1 It is therefore hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the Ordinance No. 5 of 1834, entitled "For consolidating and amending the Laws now in force for securing the revenue derived from the duty imposed upon Stills used for the distillation of Arrack and the retail sale of Arrack and Toddy," and the Ordinance No. 13 of 1840, entitled "To amend the Law relative to Toddy," shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save and except as to the repeal of any former enactments therein contained, and except as to any arrears of duties or penalties thereby imposed which may remain unpaid, or as to any offences which may have been committed against the same.

[Interpretation,
§ 3, 13 of 1891]

1 (1) In this Ordinance "district" means any one of the sub-divisions into which a government agent shall from time to time divide a province for the purpose of selling or assigning to any person the monopoly of retailing arrack and toddy, or either of them, within such sub-division.

"Licensed retail dealer" means the person who may have purchased the monopoly of retailing arrack and toddy, or either of them, in any district.

Distiller to have license.

2 It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to have or keep any still whatever for the purpose of making, distilling, rectifying, or compounding spirits without having first obtained a license for that purpose under the provisions of this Ordinance, signed by the government agent of the province in which such still is intended to be had or kept : Provided always that persons in partnership carrying on any one such trade or business in one house or place only shall not be obliged to take out more than one such license in any one year ; and that no one license which shall be granted by virtue of this Ordinance shall authorize or empower any person or persons to whom the same shall be granted to have, keep, or make use of any still, or to distil, rectify, or compound any spirits in any other house or premises than the house or premises mentioned in such license.

Restriction of distillation.

3 No license shall be granted for the distillation of spirit from any other substance than the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane.

* "An Ordinance for imposing a Duty on Tavern Licenses within Municipalities."

Arrack, Rum, and Toddy.

4 Before any license shall be granted for distilling, rectifying, or compounding spirits, the person applying for the same shall furnish the government agent with a description of the still, setting forth its shape, dimensions, and proportions, and also a description of the premises in which it is intended to erect the same.

Description of still and premises to be furnished.

5 Before any license shall be granted for distilling, rectifying, or compounding spirits, the person applying for the same shall furnish the government agent with a declaration in writing setting forth the name or names and residence or residences of himself and of the principal person or persons under whose actual management or superintendence the said trade or business is intended to be carried on ; and further that such applicant is the owner of the still for the use of which he shall have applied for a license, or that he is duly authorized by the actual owner thereof to make such application ; and if the party making such declaration shall cease to be the owner or the authorized agent of the owner thereof, or if any other person shall be intrusted with the actual management or superintendence of such trade or business, further declaration thereof shall be forthwith made to the government agent, and every such declaration shall be signed by the party making the same, and shall be registered by the government agent in a register to be by him kept for that purpose ; and if any such declaration shall be false, the party making the same shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of twenty pounds.

Distiller to make declaration of name and residence.

6 No license shall be granted for the use of any still for the purpose of distilling, rectifying, or compounding spirits unless the premises within which such business is intended to be carried on shall be secured to the satisfaction of the government agent by a wall or otherwise.

Premises to be duly secured.

7 There shall be constructed upon the premises mentioned in the preceding clauses one or more safe and secure houses or stores, a particular description whereof shall be furnished to and registered by the government agent, and that all spirits when distilled shall be deposited therein ; and any spirits which may be found in any part of the premises of any distiller, rectifier, or compounder, except in such houses or stores, shall be forfeited, unless the same shall be lawfully possessed by him under any of the provisions of this Ordinance ; and every person in the actual management or superintendence of the trade or business of any licensed distiller, rectifier, or compounder, on whose premises such spirits shall be found, shall, whether he be himself the licensed distiller, rectifier, or compounder, or only the manager or superintendent, be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding five shillings for every gallon of spirits so found.

Distiller to have store.

Spirits found out of store.

8 No tree, plant, or shrub shall be permitted to grow or remain within twenty feet of the buildings used by any distiller, rectifier, or compounder for the purpose of distilling, rectifying, compounding, or storing spirits, and any distiller,

Arrack, Rum, and Toddy.

rectifier, or compounder, or his manager or superintendent, knowingly permitting any tree, plant, or shrub to grow or remain contrary to the provisions of this clause shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of five pounds.

Issue of license.

9 The license hereinbefore required shall be issued by the government agent to the party applying for the same within ten days from the receipt of the application of such party: Provided always that it shall and may be lawful for any government agent to refuse to issue a license for the use of any still, or for distilling, rectifying, or compounding any spirits, provided that such refusal, and the reasons thereof, shall with all convenient despatch be reported to the Governor, by whom such refusal shall and may be confirmed or reversed.

Agent may refuse license.

Government agent may withdraw distiller's license.

[§ 4, 13 of 1891]

9 (1) If a licensed distiller, rectifier, or compounder shall be convicted of any offence mentioned in schedule II. hereto, or if any person be convicted of having committed any offence mentioned in schedule III. hereto in any building or premises used by any such distiller, rectifier, or compounder for distilling, rectifying, compounding, or storing spirits, it shall be lawful for the government agent, if he shall see fit so to do, to require the licensee by notice in writing to give up the license which shall have been issued to him, and upon such notice being personally served on such licensee or affixed to any part of the premises to which such license applies, such license shall be deemed and taken to be withdrawn, and shall be of no further force and effect.

(2) It shall be open to any person whose license shall be withdrawn by a government agent to apply to the Governor, who may confirm or reverse such withdrawal as to him, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall seem fit.

No still to contain less than 150 gallons.

10 No license shall be issued by any government agent which shall authorize any person to have, keep, or make use of any still for making, distilling, rectifying, or compounding spirits the body of which, without the head thereof, shall be of less capacity or content than one hundred and fifty gallons, unless such still shall be of such peculiar construction as shall, in the opinion of the government agent, render it unnecessary to require its body to be of so large a capacity as aforesaid.

As to license for distillation of spirits.

[§ 5, 13 of 1891]

11 (1) Every license for the distillation of spirits which shall be granted under this Ordinance shall be as near as is material in the form A in schedule IV. hereto, and shall be in force for the period specified therein, and shall bear a stamp, to be furnished by the licensee to the government agent before the issue of any such license, of one hundred rupees for each year or portion of a year during which such license is to run.

(2) Every such license shall ordinarily be issued for the period not exceeding twelve months specified therein, but it shall be in the discretion of the government agent to issue a license under this section for a period to be specified in the license exceeding twelve months but not exceeding five years.

Unless required for medical purposes.

12 It shall be lawful for any government agent to grant free of all charges, to any apothecary, chemist, or druggist applying for the same, a license (which shall remain in force for such time as to such government agent may appear expedient and which shall be stated in such license) to keep on his premises a still, the body of which, exclusive of the head thereof, shall not contain more than eight gallons, and to use the same for the distillation of spirit from any substance, anything in the 3rd clause of this Ordinance contained to the contrary notwithstanding, for the purposes of his trade only ; and any apothecary, chemist, or druggist who shall have or keep any still, vessel, or utensil adapted for the purpose of distillation without such license, or who shall use or permit the use of any such still, vessel, or utensil except for the preparation of medicines or other articles required bonâ fide for medical purposes, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of fifty pounds ; and every such still, vessel, and utensil, and all spirits distilled by such apothecary, chemist, or druggist, shall be forfeited.

13 Any person who shall distil any spirit from any other substance than the produce of the cocoonut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, unless under the provisions of the preceding clause of this Ordinance, or who shall, without obtaining a license as hereinbefore required, unless he be acting for and by the authority and for the benefit of and in conformity with the license granted to any licensed distiller, rectifier, or compounder, have or keep any still, vessel, or utensil adapted for the purpose of distilling, rectifying, or compounding spirits, or distil, rectify, or compound any spirits, or who, after the thirty-first day of December next after the date of any such license, and until such person shall have obtained a new license, for that purpose, shall continue to have or keep any still, vessel, or utensil as aforesaid, or to distil, rectify, or compound any spirits, or any licensed distiller, rectifier, or compounder, or manager or superintendent, who shall erect, place, or use any still, vessel, or utensil adapted for the purpose of distilling, rectifying, or compounding spirits upon any premises other than those mentioned in the license granted to such distiller, rectifier, or compounder, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of one hundred pounds, or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for six months, and to a further fine of five shillings for every gallon of spirits which may be proved to have been so distilled, rectified, or compounded ; and every person knowingly procuring or inciting to or aiding or abetting in the commission of any such offence shall be equally guilty with the principal offender, and shall be punishable in like manner ; and every such still, vessel, and utensil, and all such spirits, shall be forfeited.

Penalty on
distillation.

14 (1) Every licensed distiller, rectifier, or compounder, and every person in the management or superintendence of the trade or business of any licensed distiller, rectifier, or compounder, who shall sell or dispose of, or knowingly cause or permit to be sold or disposed of on his account, any spirits in a less quantity than thirty-five gallons at any one time, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall upon a first conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and upon every subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or to simple or rigorous imprisonment not exceeding six months, or to both.

Distiller not to sell less than thirty-five gallons of spirits.
[§ 6, 13 of 1891]

Arrack, Rum, and Toddy.

(2) If the offender is a licensed distiller, rectifier, or compounder, the court before which he is convicted a second time shall, in addition to awarding any penalty or penalties authorized by this section, declare and adjudge any still, vessel, or utensil, together with any spirit or toddy found at the date of the offence on the premises in which he carried on his business, to be forfeited. All forfeitures may be sold or otherwise disposed of in such manner as the court may direct.

Certificates of wholesale dealers void.

16 All certificates of registry which may have been heretofore granted to wholesale dealers in arrack shall be and the same are hereby declared to be void and of no effect.

Wholesale sale of spirits.

17 No sale of spirits distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, shall be considered wholesale, unless the quantity sold amounts to or exceeds thirty-five gallons; and any wholesale dealer who shall sell or dispose of, or knowingly cause or permit to be sold or disposed of on his account, any such spirits in any less quantity than thirty-five gallons shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of five pounds.

Wholesale dealer in spirits to have license.

18 It shall not be lawful for any person, other than a licensed distiller, rectifier, or compounder, with respect to the spirit lawfully distilled, rectified, or compounded by him, to deal by wholesale in spirits distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, unless he shall first have obtained a license to that effect, as hereinafter mentioned, from the government agent of the province within which such wholesale dealing is intended to be carried on; and any person, except such licensed distiller, rectifier, or compounder as aforesaid, selling or disposing of such spirits by wholesale, or knowingly causing or permitting such spirits to be sold or disposed of by wholesale on his account, without such license as aforesaid, unless he be acting for and by the authority and for the benefit of and in conformity with the license granted to such wholesale dealer, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, and to a further fine of five shillings for every gallon of spirits which shall be proved to have been so sold by him.

Penalty.

And a secure storehouse.

19 It shall not be lawful for any person to deal by wholesale in spirits distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, unless he shall have one or more safe and secure storehouses, which shall in no case be within any part of the dwelling house of such person or of any other person, for the purpose of depositing and keeping any such spirits which he may have in his possession; and any such spirits which may be found belonging to or in the possession of or in or upon any part of the premises of any wholesale dealer, and not within such storehouse as aforesaid, unless during the actual removal of such spirits to or from such storehouse, or unless the same shall be lawfully possessed by him under any of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be forfeited.

20 (1) Every person who desires to obtain a license to deal by wholesale in spirits distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm or sugarcane shall make an application in writing to that effect to the government agent of the province within which such wholesale dealing is to be carried on, containing a true and full description of the name and residence of the person making the same, and of the place in which his storehouse or storehouses shall be situate.

As to license to deal wholesale in spirits.

(2) Such government agent shall within ten days after the receipt of such application, and of the stamp to be furnished by the licensee as hereinafter mentioned, issue to the applicant a license to deal in such spirits by wholesale as near as is material according to the form B in schedule IV. hereto. Provided that if any government agent shall have any just and reasonable grounds for so doing, it shall be lawful for him to refuse to issue such license. Every such refusal, together with the government agent's reasons therefor, shall be reported forthwith to the Governor, by whom such refusal shall and may be confirmed or reversed.

(3) Every license issued under the provisions of this section shall be in force for the period specified therein, and shall bear a stamp, to be furnished by the licensee to the government agent before the issue of any such license, of one hundred rupees for each year or portion of a year during which such license is to run, and shall entitle the licensee to have in his possession any quantity of such spirits lawfully purchased or distilled either for exportation or for sale by wholesale.

(4) Every such license shall ordinarily be issued for the period not exceeding twelve months specified therein, but it shall be in the discretion of the government agent to issue a license under this section for a period to be specified in the license exceeding twelve months but not exceeding five years.

21 It shall not be lawful for any wholesale dealer in spirits distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, to sell or dispose of such spirits at any other place than at the storehouse or storehouses mentioned in the license which shall have been granted to such dealer, and any wholesale dealer selling or disposing of or causing or permitting to be sold or disposed of on his account any such spirits, contrary to the provisions of this clause, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of fifty pounds.

Wholesale dealer to sell at store.

22 It shall be lawful for the government agent, if he shall see fit so to do, to place or cause to be placed one or more locks upon each of the doors of the storehouse or storehouses of any licensed distiller, rectifier, compounder, or wholesale dealer in spirits distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, and to intrust the keys thereof to any person that he may think fit; provided always that such distiller, rectifier, compounder, or wholesale dealer shall at all times during the day have free access to such storehouse, and that on his application the person intrusted with the keys thereof shall within a reasonable time attend with the keys for the purpose of opening the same; and if any such distiller, rectifier, compounder, or wholesale dealer or any other person shall remove or cause to be removed any lock so placed upon his storehouse, or shall open or enter into the same, or permit any person so to do, without application to or previous to the attendance of the person intrusted with the keys as aforesaid, he shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of fifty pounds.

Storehouse to be kept clear of jungle.

23 No tree, plant, or shrub shall be permitted to grow or remain within twenty feet of any storehouse of any licensed wholesale dealer, and any licensed wholesale dealer knowingly permitting any tree, plant, or shrub to grow or remain, contrary to the provisions of this clause, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of five pounds.

Search by authority of government agent.

24 It shall and may be lawful for any person authorized in that behalf in writing under the hand of the government agent, at all times, as well by night as by day, to enter into any house, outhouse, or place whatsoever made use of by or on account of any licensed distiller, rectifier, or compounder of or wholesale dealer in spirits distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, for the purpose of his trade or business, and to measure and take an account of all such spirits, and of every still and utensil of any kind kept therein; provided that such person shall, if required so to do, produce to the person in charge of such premises the authority which may have been granted to him as aforesaid; and if any party shall in any way molest, obstruct, or hinder such person in the execution of the powers vested in him as aforesaid, such party shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, not exceeding six months.

As to retail of arrack and rum.

26 (1) No person shall sell or dispose of by retail, that is to say in less quantity at any one time than thirty-five gallons, any spirit distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, without having first obtained a license as near as is material according to the form C in schedule IV. hereto for that purpose from the government agent of the province in which such sale by retail is intended to be carried on, or unless he be acting for and by the authority and for the benefit of, and in conformity with the license granted to, such licensed retail dealer.

(2) It shall be lawful for the government agent of the province in which a license has been issued under the preceding sub-section, if he shall see fit so to do, to require the licensee, by notice in writing, to give up the license which shall have been issued to him, and upon such notice being personally served on such licensee, or affixed to the tavern in respect of which the license was granted, such license shall be deemed and taken to be withdrawn, and shall be of no further force or effect.

Arrack, Rum, and Toddy.

(3) Every person who shall sell or dispose of, or cause or permit to be sold or disposed of, on his account, by retail any such spirits without such license, or contrary to the tenor thereof, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, and to rigorous or simple imprisonment not exceeding three months, or to either of such punishments at the discretion of the court before which such offender is convicted.

27 Every person licensed to sell spirits under the provisions of the preceding clause shall at all times during the day be and he is hereby required during the continuance of his license to sell spirits not exceeding two quarts, immediately on application for the same, and any licensed retail dealer neglecting, refusing, or wilfully delaying to sell such quantity of such spirits shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of one pound.

Retailer to sell two quarts.

28 Whenever any licensed retail dealer or person acting in his behalf shall sell spirits exceeding in quantity two quarts, he shall grant a certificate of such sale to the purchaser, which certificate shall be signed by such licensed retail dealer or person acting on his behalf, and shall specify the date thereof, the quantity purchased, the name of the purchaser, the period within which it is to be removed, and the places from and to which it is to be removed, and both which places must be within the district in which such person shall be licensed to sell the same, and which certificate such licensed retail dealer or person acting on his behalf is hereby required to give upon receipt of the value of the spirits so sold, and any licensed retail dealer or person acting on his behalf neglecting, refusing, or wilfully delaying to grant such certificate accordingly shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of five pounds; provided always that in every instance in which spirits exceeding three gallons shall be sold by any licensed retail dealer, no certificate shall continue in force or shall be held to legalize the possession of any such spirits exceeding in quantity three gallons for a longer period than forty-eight hours, unless such purchaser shall have also obtained a special license from the government agent for such longer period as may be therein specified.

Certificate to purchaser.

31 If any licensed wholesale or retail dealer in spirits or toddy shall be convicted of an offence against any of the provisions of this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the government agent, if he shall see fit so to do, to call upon such wholesale or retail dealer in writing to give up the license which shall have been issued to him, and such license shall thereupon be deemed and taken to be withdrawn and shall be of no further force or effect.

Agent may withdraw license of wholesale or retail dealer.

32 The possession by any person of any spirit distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, shall be unlawful, except under the following circumstances, that is to say :

Possession of arrack and rum.

Arrack, Rum, and Toddy.

Except such spirit shall be in the possession of any licensed distiller or wholesale or retail dealer, in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance;

Or except such spirit shall be in the possession of any person legally empowered to remove the same;

Or except such spirit shall be possessed by the authority of the government agent of the province within which it shall be possessed;

Or except such spirit shall have been legally sold to the persons in whose possession it shall be found, provided, if the quantity be less than thirty-five gallons, it shall have been purchased from the licensed retail dealer of the district within which it shall be possessed; and provided further, that the possessor of any such spirit shall, when necessary, have taken out the certificate or certificates required by the twenty-eighth clause of this Ordinance;

And any person possessing any such spirit under any circumstances not specified in some one or more of the above-mentioned exceptions shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of five pounds, and to a further fine of five shillings for every gallon of such spirits so illegally possessed, and all such spirits shall be forfeited.

As to removal of arrack.

[§ 10, 13 of 1891]

33 No spirit distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, in any quantity exceeding two quarts, shall be removed from any place within a district to any other place within the same district, and no such spirit in any quantity exceeding an imperial pint shall be removed from any place within a district to any place outside such district without a permit accompanying the same as near as is material in the form D in schedule IV. hereto, which permit shall specify the date thereof, the names of the person removing such spirit and of the person on whose behalf it is removed, the quantity to be removed, the period within which it is to be removed, the places from and to which it is to be removed, and the mode in which it is to be removed. And such permits shall be granted by the government agent of the province or by any other person duly authorized in writing under the hand of the government agent. Provided that if the quantity of such spirit shall not exceed thirty-five gallons, such permit may be issued by any licensed retail dealer for the removal of the same only within the limits of his district.

demand permit.

34 It shall be lawful for any person authorized in that behalf in writing under the hand of the government agent at all times, as well by night as by day, to stop any person removing what there may be reasonable ground to suppose to be spirit distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, and to demand the production of the permit granted for the removal of the same; provided that such first-mentioned person shall produce to the person removing any such spirit the authority which shall have been granted to him as aforesaid.

Arrack, Rum, and Toddy.

35 It shall be lawful for any person authorized under the provisions of the preceding clause to satisfy himself that the removal of any spirit distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, is in all respects in conformity with the permit granted for the same; and if such person shall find that the quantity of such spirits removed, or the means or time of removal, or the places to or from which it is removed, shall not correspond with the same particulars as appearing in the permit accompanying the same, or if no permit shall be produced for the removal thereof, it shall be lawful for such person to detain any such spirit and without delay to give the same, together with every cart, waggon, boat, vessel, animal, or other conveyance employed in such removal, into the charge of the government agent, to be dealt with according to law; and if any person removing any such spirit shall, after production of the authority to demand the permit for such removal, refuse to produce the same, or shall in any way molest, obstruct, or resist any person producing such authority in the execution of his duty under this Ordinance, he shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds, or to imprisonment with hard labour for any period not exceeding three months.

and examine spirit.

36 If any party by the thirty-third clause of this Ordinance empowered to grant permits for the removal of spirit shall refuse, neglect, or wilfully delay to issue such permit without fee, gratuity, or reward, such party shall, over and above any damages which may be recovered against him for loss sustained by the party requiring the same, be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of five pounds.

Officer refusing to grant permit.

37 All spirit distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, which shall be removed without a permit, as required by the thirty-third clause of this Ordinance, accompanying the same, or not in conformity with the terms of such permit, and every cart, waggon, boat, vessel, animal, or other conveyance employed in such removal, shall be forfeited; and the owner of such spirit and every person concerned in the removal thereof shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine at the rate of thirty shillings per gallon, whether more or less, upon the quantity so removed; and every person employed or concerned in such illegal removal who shall not give up the true name and place of abode of the owner of such spirit, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of five pounds.

Penalty on illegal removal of arrack and rum.

38 No person shall sell any toddy by retail, that is to say, in any less quantity at any one time than fifteen gallons, without having first obtained a license for that purpose, as near as is material of the form F hereto annexed, from the government agent of the province in which such sale by retail is intended to be carried on, or unless he be acting for and by the authority and for the benefit of and in conformity with the license granted to such retail dealer, which license shall be in force on and from the day on which the same shall be granted until the thirtieth day of June next thereafter, inclusive.

Permit to draw toddy for distillers, renters, and retailers ;

39 It shall not be lawful for any person to draw or cause to be drawn any toddy from any cocoanut or other description of palm, either on his own account, being a distiller duly licensed under the provisions of this Ordinance, or for the purpose of selling the said toddy to any such distiller or to any licensed retail dealer in toddy, unless he shall first have obtained a permit for that purpose, as near as is material of the form G hereto annexed, from the government agent of the province, or from some person authorized in writing under his hand to grant such permit, or from the licensed retail dealer in toddy for the district within which such palm shall be situated, which permit shall be issued to such person on his application free of all charge, and shall be in force on and from the day on which the same shall be granted until the thirty-first day of December next thereafter, inclusive.

or for other purpose.

40 It shall not be lawful for any person to draw or cause to be drawn any toddy from any cocoanut or other description of palm for any other than the afore-mentioned purposes, unless he shall first have obtained a license for that purpose, as near as is material of the form H hereto annexed, from the government agent of the province or from the licensed retail dealer in toddy of the district within which such palm shall be situated, which license shall be in force on and from the day on which the same shall be granted until the thirty-first day of December next thereafter, inclusive ; and such government agent or licensed retail dealer shall be entitled to demand and receive the sum of one pound for each cocoanut tree and for each palmirah tree, and of two pounds for each jaggery tree, for which such license shall be granted.

Sale of toddy.

41 It shall not be lawful for any person other than the licensed retail dealer in toddy within the district in which he shall be licensed to retail the same, or person authorized under the provisions of the thirty-ninth clause of this Ordinance, to sell any toddy whatsoever.

Possession of toddy.

42 It shall not be lawful for any person to possess toddy in any quantity exceeding one gallon, unless the same shall belong to or be for the use of the licensed retail dealer in toddy for the district in which the same shall be possessed, or shall belong to or be for the use of some duly licensed distiller, or shall belong to or be for the use of some person authorized under the thirty-ninth or fortieth clauses of this Ordinance to draw the same, and shall be possessed within the premises of the said retail dealer, distiller, or authorized person respectively.

Arrack, Rum, and Toddy.

43 It shall not be lawful for any person to remove any toddy in any quantity exceeding one gallon.

Removal of toddy.

44 It shall be lawful for the government agent, or any person thereto authorized by him in writing under his hand, or the licensed retail dealer in toddy within the district in which he shall be licensed to retail the same, to grant a permit, as near as is material of the form I hereto annexed, for the removal and possession of any quantity of toddy, which permit shall specify the places from and to which the same is to be removed, or in which it shall be kept, and shall remain in force for such period as shall be therein stated; provided that no such permit shall remain in force after the thirty-first day of December next after the date thereof.

Removal and possession with permit.

45 If any party by the preceding clause of this Ordinance empowered to grant permits for the removal and possession of toddy shall, on application made to him, refuse, neglect, or wilfully delay to issue any such permit without fee, gratuity, or reward, such party shall, over and above any damages which may be recovered against him by the party applying for such permit, be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of five pounds.

Officer refusing to grant permit.

46 Any person drawing, selling, possessing, or removing, or causing to be drawn, sold, or removed, any toddy contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds for each offence, and all toddy so illegally drawn, sold, possessed, or removed shall be forfeited.

Penalty on illicit drawing, sale, possessing, or removal of toddy.

46 (1) In case of default of payment of any fine imposed under this section, the court inflicting the fine may at its discretion sentence the offender to simple or rigorous imprisonment for any period not exceeding three months, anything in the Criminal Procedure Code, 1883, or Ordinance No. 22 of 1890 to the contrary notwithstanding.

[§ 11, 13 of 1891]

47 The restrictions hereinbefore contained in respect to selling, possessing, and removing toddy shall not be deemed to apply to sweet toddy, and no person shall be convicted of drawing toddy without having obtained a permit or license unless it be proved to the satisfaction of the court before which he is tried that in drawing such toddy he had omitted to take necessary precautions to prevent the same from fermenting.

Proviso as to sweet toddy.

48 If any spirit distilled from the produce of the cocoanut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, shall be found in the estate of any deceased person, who shall during his lifetime have been legally entitled to possess the same, it shall be lawful for the legal representative or representatives of such person, at any time within one week after the death of such person, to make application in writing to the government agent to be placed in the same position with respect to the possession of such spirit as the deceased person; and it shall be lawful for the government agent, and he is hereby required, within ten days after the receipt of such application, unless he shall have reason to doubt that the party or parties making the same is or are such bonâ fide legal representative or representatives, by a written authority under his hand to grant such application ; and the party or parties to whom such written authority shall be granted shall be entitled to possess spirit in such and the same manner, and for the same period, and under the same restrictions, as the deceased person would be entitled to possess the same if he were alive : Provided always that every person who shall in any such written application to the government agent falsely represent himself to be the legal representative of any such deceased person as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of twenty pounds, or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding twelve months.

Person falsely applying as representative.

Extension of license to representative of deceased distiller.

[§ 14. 13 of 1891]

Where no representative of deceased.

Or license withdrawn.

48 (1) It shall be in the discretion of the government agent to authorize in writing any legal representative or representatives of any deceased distiller to distil spirits in such and the same manner, and for the same period and under the same restrictions, as such deceased distiller would be entitled to distil if he were alive ; and the provisions of section 48, with regard to the legal representative or representatives therein referred to shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the legal representative or representatives of a deceased licensed distiller.

49 If any spirit distilled from the produce of the cocoa-nut or other description of palm, or of the sugarcane, shall be found in the estate of any deceased person who shall during his lifetime have been legally entitled to possess the same, and if no such application as in the preceding clause mentioned shall have been made to the government agent within the period therein prescribed, or if the government agent shall not be satisfied that the applicant or applicants is or are the bonâ fide legal representative or representatives of the deceased party, or if any such spirit shall be found in the possession of any licensed wholesale or retail dealer at the time when the government agent shall, by virtue of the powers in him vested by the thirty-first clause of this Ordinance, call upon such wholesale or retail dealer to give up the license which shall have been issued to him, it shall be lawful for the government agent to sell all such spirits by auction, at such time and place and in such manner as to him shall appear most expedient ; and the government agent shall, after deducting the costs of such sale, and any other costs that may have been necessarily incurred in respect thereof, pay the balance of the amount realized by the same, if the spirit shall have been found in the estate of any deceased person, into the Loan Board, to be placed to the credit of the party or parties legally entitled to the same, and if such spirit shall have been found in the possession of any wholesale or retail dealer whose license shall have been withdrawn, then to such wholesale or retail dealer respectively : Provided always that if the quantity of such spirit shall be less than thirty-five gallons in any one case, it shall be lawful for the government agent to direct the same to be delivered over to the licensed retail dealer of the district in which the same shall be, and to pay into the Loan Board, to be placed to the credit of the party or parties legally entitled to the same, or to pay to the wholesale or retail dealer whose license shall have been withdrawn, as the case may be, the value of such spirit, at a rate of twenty per cent. under the price at which such retail dealer shall be licensed to retail the same.

50 Any person who shall forge, alter, or counterfeit, or procure or incite or assist any other person to forge, alter, or counterfeit any license or permit required to be used or issued under this Ordinance, or shall knowingly and wilfully utter any such forged, altered, or counterfeit license or permit, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding twelve months.

Punishment for forgery of permit or certificate.

51 All spirits, toddy, stills, and other things which by this Ordinance are declared to be forfeited, shall and may be seized by any officer of police or any peace officer whatsoever, and when seized shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be delivered into the charge of the government agent, to be by him safely kept until final judgment shall be given for the condemnation or restoration of the same.

Seizure of forfeitures.

52 All spirits, toddy, stills, and other things which shall be seized as forfeited under this Ordinance shall be deemed and taken to have been adjudged to be duly forfeited and condemned by a competent court of law, and may be dealt with in the manner directed by this Ordinance in respect of spirits, stills, and other things which shall have been actually so adjudged and condemned, unless the person from whom any such spirits, toddy, still, or other thing shall have been seized, or the owner of them, or some person authorized by him, shall within one calendar month from the day of seizing of the same give sufficient notice in writing to the government agent that he claims such spirits, toddy, still, or thing, or intends to claim them, and unless he shall also within ten days after the delivery of such notice give security to the satisfaction of the government agent to answer and pay the costs occasioned by such claim: Provided always that no such notice shall be taken to be sufficient unless the same shall set forth the true and real name or names of the owner or owners of every thing so seized, and shall describe the place of residence, and the business or profession of every such owner, nor unless a declaration of the ownership of the things seized, signed by some such owner or by some person in the actual management or superintendence of the trade or business of the owner or owners, shall accompany such notice.

Seizures to be taken to be condemned, unless claimed and security given.

Proviso.

53 If such declaration shall be signed by the owner or part owner of anything so seized, it shall set forth that such thing was the bonâ fide property at the time of the seizure of the person or persons declared in such notice as aforesaid to be the real owner or owners ; and if such declaration shall be signed by any person in the management or superintendence of the trade or business of the owner or owners, it shall set forth that to the best of his knowledge and belief the thing so seized was at the time of seizure the bonâ fide property of the owner or owners named in the said notice as aforesaid ; and if any declaration so made shall be wilfully false the person making it shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine of twenty pounds.

Modes of proceeding for the condemnation of forfeitures.

54 Whenever any person shall be convicted of doing or permitting to be done or of leaving undone anything the doing of which or the permitting which to be done, or the leaving which undone, is declared to be an offence by this Ordinance, and the forfeiture of any spirits, toddy, still, or other thing is also declared to be the consequence of such thing, being done or permitted to be done, or being left undone, it shall be lawful for any court before whom such person shall have been convicted, at the same time that it shall pass sentence upon such person, to declare and adjudge such spirits, toddy, still, or other thing to be forfeited, and to condemn the same, whatever may be the amount or value thereof : Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Queen's Advocate, if he shall think fit, to institute separate proceedings of a civil nature for the recovery of any such forfeiture ; and the acquittal of any person charged with any offence in this clause mentioned shall not be taken to be any sufficient reason why any such proceedings should not be instituted, or being instituted should be abated, or why such forfeiture should not be recovered.

Disposal of condemned forfeiture.

55 Whenever any spirits, toddy, still, or other thing shall have been adjudged to be forfeited and condemned by any competent court of law, the government agent shall, within one month after such condemnation, cause the same to be sold by public auction to the best bidder : Provided always that if any appeal shall be entered against any judgment of any court in respect of any suit or information on behalf of the Crown or of the defendant, no such sale shall take place until a final decision shall be given in the matter, and all such things shall until such time be kept in the custody of the government agent.

When things seized, stolen, or injured.

56 If any spirits, toddy, still, or other thing seized under the provisions of this Ordinance, and taken into the custody of the government agent, shall while being in such custody be destroyed by fire or stolen therefrom, or if any cask or vessel containing spirits shall burst, or if any spirits shall waste, the owner thereof shall not have any claim on the Crown or upon the government agent for compensation thereof ; provided always that if any person employed by the government agent about the custody of such spirits, toddy, still, or thing shall embezzle the same or any part thereof, or if any such spirits, toddy, still, or thing shall be stolen or destroyed or in any way injured through the negligence or misconduct of any person so employed, such person shall, in addition to any liability to be prosecuted criminally, be liable to make good to the party to whom such spirits, toddy, still, or other thing shall be eventually adjudged, whether such party be the Crown or the claimant, double the value of the thing that shall be so embezzled, stolen, destroyed, or injured.

57 It shall be lawful for the government agent, with the sanction of the Governor, to order any spirits, toddy, still, or other thing seized under the provisions of this Ordinance to be restored at any time before the sale thereof, in such manner and on such terms and conditions as the Governor shall think fit to prescribe, and if the owner or any person duly authorized in his behalf shall accept the terms and conditions so prescribed, he shall not have or maintain any action for recompense or damage on account of such seizure, and no further proceedings shall be had for the condemnation of such seizure.

Restoration of seizures.

58 Whenever any spirits, toddy, still, or other thing shall have been forfeited under the provisions of this Ordinance, but cannot be seized and secured on account of their having been made away with, or for any other reason, the owner or owners of such spirits, toddy, still, or thing shall forfeit double the value of any spirits, toddy, still, or thing which shall be proved to have been so forfeited.

Where seizures cannot be effected.

59 Whenever any officer of police or peace officer whatsoever shall have good reason to believe that any spirits, toddy, still, or other thing have become forfeited and liable to seizure under the provisions of this Ordinance, and are to be found in any house, outhouse, or other premises or place whatsoever, it shall be lawful for such officer, and for any person whom he shall call to his aid, to enter such house, outhouse, premises, or place, either by day or night, and to search for such spirits, still, toddy, or thing, and to seize the same; and if admittance into any such house, outhouse, premises, or place shall not be immediately given to any such officer or person called to his aid as aforesaid, upon being audibly demanded by such officer, it shall be lawful for such officer or person so called to his aid to break open or otherwise forcibly enter any such house, premises, or place.

Powers of peace officers, &c.

61 Every officer of police and peace officer whatsoever, and every person acting in the aid of any such officer, and every other person who shall, under pretence of performing any duty or exercising any authority imposed upon or vested in him by this Ordinance, use unnecessary violence, or wantonly do any injury, or give uncalled-for and vexatious annoyance, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding three months.

Vexatious conduct of officers.

Arrack, Rum, and Toddy.

Probable cause of seizure.

62 In case any information or suit shall be brought to trial on account of any seizure made under this Ordinance, and the judge before whom the cause shall have been tried shall certify on the record that there was probable cause of seizure, the claimant shall not be entitled to any costs of suit, or to any damages in respect of such seizure, nor shall the person who made such seizure be liable to any action, information, or other suit or prosecution on account of such seizure.

As to awarding informer a share.
[§ 13, 13 of 1891]

63 It shall be lawful for the court imposing a fine under the provisions of this Ordinance to award to the informer any share not exceeding a moiety of so much of the fine as is actually recovered and realized.

Informer competent witness.

64 No person shall be deemed incompetent to give evidence at the trial of any party for any offence created by this Ordinance, or at the trial of any suit or information instituted for the recovery of or in relation to any forfeiture or seizure under this Ordinance, by reason of any reward or benefit to which such person may be entitled upon the conviction of such offender, or upon the adjudication of such forfeiture, anything in the Ordinance No. 6 of 1834, entitled "Ordinance declaring English rules of evidence to be in force in this island, unless in cases otherwise expressly provided for by law, and prescribing the course by which evidence is to be obtained in certain cases," to the contrary notwithstanding.

prove whether he comes under exceptions.

65 Wherever in any clause of this Ordinance any person or thing is declared liable to any punishment, penalty, or forfeiture, but certain exceptions are therein expressed, excepting such persons or things under certain circumstances from such liabilities, it shall not be necessary to aver or show in any information or other proceeding for the prosecution of such offence, or for the recovery of such penalty or forfeiture, that the defendant or the subject of any such proceeding does not come within any such exception, but the proof thereof shall be upon the defendant.

Powers of assistant agents.

66 In all cases wherein any act is authorized or directed by this Ordinance to be done by any government agent of any province, the same shall and may equally be done by any of his assistants.

(2) Whoever acts contrary to the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

16 Every person licensed as a distiller, and every person licensed as a wholesale dealer, shall, on or before Wednesday of each week, make true and correct returns to the government agent of the province for and in respect of the previous week of the particulars set forth in the forms contained in the schedule V. hereto: the return to be made by every licensed distiller being in the form A in schedule V. hereto and by every licensed wholesale dealer in the form B in schedule V. hereto.

Licensed distillers and wholesale dealers to make weekly returns.

17 Every licensed distiller and wholesale dealer shall keep true and correct copies of the returns respectively made by them, and such copies shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of the government agent, or of any person authorized by him in writing to inspect the same.

and to keep correct copies of such returns.

18 Any licensed distiller or wholesale dealer who shall refuse or neglect to make any return by this Ordinance required to be made in the form and within the time herein specified, or who shall refuse or neglect to keep a true and correct copy of such return, or who shall refuse to allow inspection of such copy to the government agent or other person authorized as aforesaid, shall for every such refusal or act of neglect be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees; and the production of a certificate under the hand of the government agent to the effect that no return has been received by him from the person charged shall, in all judicial proceedings, be prima facie evidence of such person having refused or neglected to make such return.

Offences: penalty.

Evidence.

19 In any prosecution for any offence under this or the principal Ordinance, if the information, plaint, or charge in any such case shall negative any exemption, proviso, or condition in this or the principal Ordinance, it shall not be necessary for the prosecutor or complainant in that behalf to give any evidence of such negative, but the defendant or accused may prove the affirmative thereof in his defence, if he would have advantage of the same.

Proof of negative to be on the defendant.

20 A person charged with any offence under this or the principal Ordinance may, if he thinks fit, tender himself to be examined on his own behalf, and thereupon may give evidence in the same manner and with the like effect and consequences as any other witness.

Accused may give evidence.

No. 10 of 1844 was passed in Council on 5th August, 1844.

No. 20 of 1844.

An Ordinance to provide for the Total Abolition of Slavery in Ceylon.

WHEREAS the proprietors of slaves in this colony have almost universally failed to comply with the several enactments in force therein relative to the registration of slaves, and their slaves have in consequence become free; and it has therefore become practicable, without hardship to any one, to provide for the total abolition of slavery in this colony:

Preamble.

1 Slavery shall no longer exist in this colony, and all persons being slaves shall become free, and entitled in every way to all the rights and privileges of free persons, any other Law or Ordinance to the contrary now in force notwithstanding.

Slavery no longer to exist in this colony.

2 And it is further enacted and declared that the Proclamation of the 15th January, 1799; Regulation No. 9 of 1818, entitled "A Regulation for securing to certain children emancipated by the proprietors of their mothers the full benefit of such proprietors' intention, and for establishing an efficient registry of all slaves, and abolishing the joint tenure of property in the same"; Regulation No. 10 of 1818, entitled "A Regulation for facilitating the division of Covia, Nallua, and Palla slaves in the districts of Jaffnapatam and Trincomalee, among the present owners of such slaves"; Regulation No. 8 of 1821, entitled "For the gradual emancipation of all female slave children of the Covia, Nallua, and Palla castes by the purchase of their master's interest in such female

No. 21 of 1844.An Ordinance to make better provision for the disposal of Landed Property.(See No. 7 of 1871.)*

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that some uniform provision should be made with respect to testamentary dispositions of property: And whereas the undivided possession of landed property is productive of very injurious consequences to the inhabitants of this colony, and it is expedient to provide a remedy for the same in certain cases:

Parties may dispose of their property by will as they choose.

1 It shall be lawful for every person competent to make a will to devise, bequeath, and dispose of by will all the property within this colony which at the time of his death shall belong to him, or to which he shall be then entitled, of whatsoever nature or description the same may be, movable or immovable, and all and every estate, right, share, or interest in any property, and which if not so devised, bequeathed, or disposed of would devolve upon his heirs-at-law, executor, or administrator, to such person or persons not legally incapacitated from taking the same, as he shall see fit; and no will made either within or beyond the limits of this colony subsequently to the time when this Ordinance shall commence and take effect shall be or be liable to be set aside as invalid or inofficious, either wholly or in part, by reason that any person who by any law, usage, or custom now or at any time heretofore in force within this colony, would be entitled to a share or portion of the property of the testator, has been excluded from such share or portion, or wholly disinherited by or omitted in such will; but every testator shall have full power to make such testamentary disposition as he shall feel disposed, and in the exercise of such right to exclude from the legitimate or other portion any child, parent, relative, or descendant, or to disinherit or omit to mention any such person, without assigning any reason for such exclusion, disinheritance, or omission, any law, usage, or custom now or heretofore in force in this colony to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize or entitle any testator to dispose by will of any property or estate of his wife, or to exclude or deprive her of any life or other interest (belonging to her in her own right) in any property, and to which property, estate, or interest she would have been entitled if this Ordinance had not been passed.

Proviso

2 No will made by any male under the age of twenty-one years, or by any female under the age of eighteen years, shall be valid, unless such person shall have obtained letters of Venia Ætatis, or unless such person shall have been lawfully married.

At what age wills may be made.

3 The Governor of this colony for the time being shall have and enjoy within and over each and every district thereof all such rights and powers in respect of granting letters of Venia Ætatis as are now possessed and may lawfully be exercised by him within the Maritime provinces thereof.

Governor may grant letters of Venia Ætatis.

4 Every will made beyond the limits of this colony containing any devise or disposition of immovable property situate within this colony, which shall have been duly made and executed according to and in conformity with the forms and solemnities prescribed by the law of the country where the same shall have been so made and executed, by any person who by the law of such country or of this colony is competent to make a will, shall be valid and effectual to alienate and pass the property in any immovable property so devised or disposed of by any such testator; and every will duly made and executed in manner aforesaid, in any place beyond the limits of this colony, by any person who shall be competent to make a will by the law of the place where he shall be domiciled at the time of making and executing the same, shall be valid and effectual to alienate and pass the property in any movable property by such will bequeathed or disposed of, anything contained in the Ordinance No. 7 of 1840, entitled "To provide more effectually for the prevention of Frauds and Perjuries," or any other law or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

As to the validity of foreign wills.

5 Every will re-executed or republished, or revived by any codicil, shall for the purpose of this Ordinance be deemed to have been made at the time at which the same shall be so re-executed or republished or revived.

As to the re-execution of wills.

6 *In all cases of marriages contracted either within any part of this colony or abroad without a nuptial contract or settlement, the respective rights and powers of the parties during the subsistence of the marriage in and about the management, control, disposition, or alienation of any immovable property situated in any part of this colony, which belonged to either party at the time of the marriage, or has been acquired during the coverture, and also their respective rights in or to such property, or any portion thereof, or estate or interest therein, either during the subsistence of the marriage or upon the dissolution thereof, shall in all cases be determined according to the law of the matrimonial domicile; and if the parties shall have entered into a nuptial contract or settlement by which their or either of their rights, powers, or interests in, to, or over any such property as aforesaid are ascertained and determined, or by which either party shall be declared entitled to a defined portion of or interest in the common estates, or to any provision by way of dowry or maintenance, or otherwise, out of the separate estate of the other of such parties during the subsistence of the marriage or at the dissolution thereof, then and in any such case neither of the parties shall be entitled, upon the dissolution of the marriage, to any other or greater portion, interest, or provision in or out of any such property as aforesaid, than in and by such nuptial contract or settlement such party shall be declared entitled to, whether or not it shall be expressly stated therein that such portion, interest, or provision was in lieu of the right or interest which such party would otherwise have had in such property as aforesaid if such nuptial contract or settlement had not been made.

No survivorship as to property undivided held in shares, unless expressly stipulated for.

20 And for the avoiding of all doubts and questions as to the respective rights of persons jointly holding landed property situated within certain districts of this colony, it is further enacted and declared that all landed property situated in this colony which shall belong to two or more persons jointly, whether the same shall have come to them by grant, purchase, descent, or otherwise, is and shall be deemed and taken to be held by them in common, and upon the decease of any of such persons the said property so jointly possessed shall not remain or belong to the survivor, but all the right, share, and interest of the person so dying in and to the property so jointly possessed as aforesaid shall form part of his estate; and the person or persons to whom the same shall by him be devised or bequeathed, or to whom it shall devolve, shall thereupon become and be coproprietors with the survivor in the said property, in the proportion and according to the share of such deceased person therein, unless the instrument under which the said property is jointly held and possessed, or any agreement mutually entered into between them, shall expressly provide that the survivor, upon such decease, shall become entitled to the whole estate.

Interpretation of terms.

21 Whenever in this Ordinance the word "will" is used it shall be construed to extend to a testament and to a codicil, and to any other testamentary disposition; and whenever the words "landed property" are used they shall be construed to extend to houses and buildings erected on the same, and to any estate, right, or interest (other than a chattel interest) therein ; and whenever the word "representative" is used it shall be construed to mean the party legally entitled to appear and act for and on behalf of another, as his guardian, tutor, curator, or attorney, as the case may be ; and whenever any word or words is or are used importing the singular number or the masculine gender only, yet such word or words shall be understood and construed to include several persons as well as one person, females as well as males, and several matters or things as well as one matter or thing, unless it be otherwise specially provided, or there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

23rd December, 1844.

No. 13 of 1845.An Ordinance to regulate the Temporal Affairs of the Presbyterian Church in Kandy, in the Island of Ceylon.

WHEREAS by the Ordinance No. 1 of the present year 1845, entitled "An Ordinance to promote the building of places of Christian worship, and to provide for the maintenance of ministers of the Christian religion," it is amongst other things provided that before any sum of money shall be issued from the colonial treasury for the erection of any place of worship, trustees shall be elected or appointed in such manner as shall be by any future Ordinance provided, in whom the real estate in the site of such place of worship or minister's dwelling, or both, as the case may be, and of any lands and hereditaments thereunto belonging, shall be vested upon such trusts as shall in such future Ordinance be declared : And whereas it is proposed to erect a Presbyterian place of worship in the town of Kandy, and a dwelling house for the minister of such proposed place of worship has already been erected, and it is expedient that provision should be made, as well for the original nomination of trustees as for maintaining from time to time a proper number of duly qualified trustees, in manner hereinafter mentioned, and for defining the manner in which the trusts hereby created shall be fulfilled, and otherwise for regulating the temporal affairs of the said Presbyterian church and minister's dwelling with lands and hereditaments as aforesaid :

1 The first or original trustees of the Presbyterian church aforesaid shall be elected and appointed in the manner following, that is to say, the persons who have subscribed towards the erection of the said place of worship and minister's dwelling, or any three or more of them, shall and may at any time after the passing of this Ordinance convene a meeting of the subscribers (of the time and place of holding which fourteen days' notice shall have been previously published in the Government Gazette), at which meeting three persons shall be elected by majority of votes to act as trustees until Monday in the last week in December next ensuing after the said place of worship shall have been opened for Divine worship.

Trustees to rent out sittings in church.

2 On the completion of the said place of worship, and before or so soon as shall be practicable after the same shall have been opened for Divine service, the trustees then in office shall, except as hereinafter excepted, rent out the sittings therein according to such general scale, and agreeably to such regulations for fixing the rates of seat rents, and other matters connected therewith, as shall have been agreed upon by the majority of subscribers present at the meeting held for the election of such trustees, or of any other meeting of subscribers to be specially convened by the said trustees for that purpose.

Annual meeting in December.

3 Upon Monday in the last week of every month of December after the said place of worship shall have been opened for Divine service, there shall be appointed for the year commencing on the first day of January then next ensuing three new trustees, of whom one shall be appointed by the minister of such place of worship for the time being, and two by a majority of the seatholders present at a meeting to be convened for that purpose by the trustees for the time being, and to be holden at such hour and place as shall be specified in a notice to be posted for that purpose in some conspicuous place in such place of worship for at least fourteen days previously to the day fixed for the holding of such meeting: Provided always that nothing in this clause contained shall be construed to prevent the re-appointment at any such meeting of all or any of the trustees who shall at the time of such meeting be actually in office; and provided further, that in case the minister shall fail to make such appointment, or the trustees shall fail to call such meeting, or in case at any time there shall not be any duly appointed trustee, it shall be lawful for the Governor and Executive Council to nominate so many persons as are required for completing the number of trustees to be trustees until the next ensuing annual meeting.

Vacancies in the office of trustee how filled up.

4 In case of the death, incapacity, resignation, or departure from the island of any trustee appointed or elected under the provisions of this Ordinance before the expiration of the period for which he shall have been so appointed or elected, or in case any such trustee shall be absent from the colony, or be in a part thereof remote from the said place of worship for more than six months in succession, or shall be a confirmed lunatic, or shall be or become disqualified to act in such capacity, it shall be lawful for the remaining trustees to convene a special meeting of seatholders for the election of a new trustee or new trustees, as the case may be, to supply the vacancy or vacancies so created during the remainder of that period : provided that no trustee shall be permitted to resign his office until he shall have duly accounted to the satisfaction of his co-trustees for all sums of money at any time received by him in his said trust ; and provided also, that where any such vacancy shall in any year arise after the month of June, no such new appointment shall be necessary, but the powers which by this Ordinance are given to the trustees may, until the next annual meeting, continue to be exercised by the remaining trustees or trustee ; and provided always that if any such vacancy shall occur among the first or original trustees before the said place of worship shall have been opened for Divine service, it shall be lawful for the remaining trustees (subject to the approval of the Governor and Executive Council) to fill up the same.

5 The minister of the said church for the time being shall ex officio be entitled to be present at and to be the chairman of all meetings of the trustees, or other meetings concerning the affairs of the said church, and shall at all such meetings be privileged to vote upon any question concerning the affairs of the said church or concerning the minister's dwelling thereof ; and in case there should at any such meeting be an equality of votes, the chairman, whether the minister or other person, shall have a casting vote ; and the chairman of every meeting for the election of any trustees or trustee under any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall, after signing the minutes thereof, transmit the names of the persons or person so elected for the approval of the Governor and Executive Council.

Minister to be chairman at meetings of trustees.

6 Every person who shall be elected or appointed as trustee for the said Presbyterian church as aforesaid shall be a member of the congregation of the said church, either as a seatholder or a communicant, and above the age of twenty-one years, and any trustee ceasing to be either a seatholder or a communicant, as the case may be, shall be held ipso facto to have resigned his office, and thereupon a new trustee shall be elected in the manner provided by the fourth section of this Ordinance.

Who may be a trustee.

7 The said first or original trustees, and all others who shall from time to time be hereafter elected as trustees under any of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall during the time of their continuance in office stand and be possessed of all the real estate in the site of such place of worship and minister's dwelling, and of the buildings constructed or to be constructed thereon, and of the lands and hereditaments thereunto belonging or appertaining, and of all sums of money already given or subscribed towards the erection of the said place of worship or minister's dwelling, and of all such sums of money as shall at any time hereafter be granted to them from the colonial treasury, and of all such donations and subscriptions as shall at any time hereafter be given or subscribed for the purpose aforesaid, or in aid of the funds of the said church, and of all rents and revenues arising from the letting of pews or sittings, and of all fees and payments for vaults, monuments, tombstones, and the like, and of all rents and revenues arising out of any of the lands or hereditaments belonging or appertaining to the said place of worship or minister's dwelling or otherwise, upon trust in the first place, and until the said place of worship shall be erected and completed, to cause the same to be erected and completed according to such plan and specification thereof as shall be approved by the Governor and Executive Council, and after the completion of the said place of worship to inclose the ground surrounding the same, and the minister's dwelling which has been already erected, and to do other necessary works connected therewith; and also upon trust thereafter to pay and apply the said sums of money, donations, subscriptions, rents, fees, and revenues, for repairing, keeping up, and maintaining the said place of worship and minister's dwelling, and the said inclosure; and lastly upon trust to provide such articles as may be necessary for the proper celebration of Divine service in the said place of worship, and to pay the salaries of the clerk, servants, and officers employed in and about the same.

Place of worship to be for ever holden for the purposes for which originally erected.

8 The said place of worship and minister's dwelling shall, with their respective appurtenances, be and continue to be for ever dedicated to the purposes and holden solely for the uses and be appropriated to the service of the religious denominations of Presbyterians adhering to the Westminster Confession of Faith, for which the same are or shall be originally erected.

Trustees to let pews and seats, and manage the temporalities.

9 It shall be lawful for the trustees for the time being, subject to such general rules as shall be from time to time established by the seatholders at any such annual meeting in December, to fix the amount which shall be payable for the rent of pews and seats in such place of worship, and the amount of fees which shall be payable for vaults, monuments, and tombstones, and to let such pews and seats (subject to all existing rights therein, if any) in such manner and to such persons as they the said trustees shall think fit; and to appoint, suspend, and remove all church officers and servants employed in or about such place of worship (the minister's clerk or precentor excepted, who shall in each case be appointed and removed by the minister only), and generally to manage the temporalities of such place of worship, and to fix the salaries or other remuneration of all such officers and servants (including such clerk as aforesaid): And it is also hereby declared that the said trustees shall have no power or authority to appoint or dismiss the minister of such place of worship.

Two trustees to form a quorum.

10 The trustees for the time being shall upon all matters before them have each one vote, and any two of them shall form a quorum, and in the event of a difference of opinion between such trustees on any occasion, the votes of any two of them (where three are present) shall be binding upon all ; or in case of an equality of votes when the trustees and the minister are all present, the minister shall possess a casting vote ; and the trustees for the time being shall have power from time to time to make by-laws (such laws not being inconsistent with or repugnant to this Ordinance) for their general guidance, which laws shall be equally binding on and shall be observed by their successors until abrogated or altered by such successors.

11 At every meeting held in the last week of December as aforesaid for the appointment of trustees after the said place of worship has been opened for Divine service, two indifferent persons shall be elected by and out of the seat-holders to be auditors of the accounts of the trustees then about to quit office, and in the month of January following the trustees who have so quitted office shall cause a true and particular account of their receipts and expenditure during the period they have held office, duly audited and signed by the auditors, to be transmitted to the Governor, in order that, should it be deemed expedient by him, the same may be published in the Government Gazette for general information.

Auditors to be elected at annual meeting.

12 It shall and may be lawful for the minister of the said church for the time being to have free access and admission to the said church, and the burial ground belonging thereto and every part thereof, at all times as he shall think fit, and freely to exercise his spiritual functions therein, without any hindrance or disturbance of the trustees of the same or any person whatever ; and such officiating minister shall or may, during such time as aforesaid, freely use, have, possess, and enjoy the minister's dwelling house and appurtenances belonging to the said church, and shall or may, with the consent of the trustees for the time being, but not otherwise, let the said dwelling house and appurtenances to any other person : Provided that no such liberty of access and admission to such house of residence as aforesaid, nor occupation of the same, for any length of time whatever, shall be construed to confer any right of property in the same upon the said minister or other parties by whom such dwelling house and the appurtenances may have been so occupied, nor any right or title to retain possession of the same after such minister shall have been removed from his office, or after his resignation thereof, or during his absence from the colony or suspension from his office, nor shall the same be pleaded in bar of any ejection which may be brought by or on behalf of the trustees of the church as aforesaid for recovering possession of such house of residence and the appurtenances thereof.

Minister to have right of access to church, and use of house.

Such possession not to confer right of property.

13 It shall be lawful for the trustees for the time being to call in and compel the payment of all sums of money which are or at any time hereafter shall be due and payable to them under and by virtue of any of the provisions of this Ordinance, and in their own names to make and enter into, perform, and execute, and compel the performance and execution of all such contracts and agreements, matters and things, and to commence and maintain all such suits and actions as they shall deem necessary to the performance of the trust reposed in them; and all such contracts and agreements shall and may be entered into and enforced, and all such suits and actions be brought by them, in the name of "The Trustees of the Presbyterian Church at Kandy" (describing the place of worship by its name after it shall have been named), without specifying the christian or surnames of the trustees; and no action shall abate by reason of the death or removal or going out of office of any trustee; and all suits or actions the cause of which shall arise or accrue to any person whatsoever from or by reason of any contract or agreement or any other matter or thing made or entered into, done, or performed by the said trustees in the execution of the said trust, shall be brought by such person against the trustees under the name and title aforesaid, nor shall any trustee, by reason of his being a plaintiff or defendant in any such suit, be prevented from being a witness therein.

Trustees may sue and be sued.

at meetings.

14 The right of voting at every meeting convened in respect of such place of worship shall, until the said place of worship shall be opened for Divine service as aforesaid, be vested in subscribers who have paid up their subscriptions previous to the date of the notice to convene such meeting; and from and after such time as the said place of worship shall have been so opened the right of voting at every annual meeting shall be vested in renters of sittings in the said place of worship who shall have duly paid up their rent: Provided always that no such subscriber or renter of sittings shall on any occasion be allowed to give more than one vote, or to give any vote except in person; and provided that no person shall be entitled to vote who shall not be a male of at least twenty-one years of age.

Trustees to
of lands.

15 It shall be lawful for any trustees appointed or elected under the provisions of this Ordinance to accept or take from persons willing to give the same, or from the Crown, subject to the provisions of any law now or hereafter to be in force relative to such gifts, any lands or premises adapted for the site of the place of worship to be erected under the provisions of this Ordinance, or of a minister's dwelling, with a garden and other appurtenances thereunto, or any lands or premises adapted for the purposes of a burial ground, or any lands or premises for the maintenance of such place of worship or of the ministers thereof, and such land or premises so given shall be deemed and taken to be for ever vested in the trustees of such place of worship for the time being in trust for the purposes thereof.

Free sittings
reserved.

16 On the completion of the said church one sixth part of the whole number of sittings therein shall be appropriated to the use of the poor as free sittings; and if at any future period the number of sittings in the said church shall be increased, there shall be appropriated to the use of the poor so many additional free sittings as that the number of free sittings shall always bear the same proportion to the whole number of sittings as is hereinbefore provided.

17 And whereas in the aforesaid cited Ordinance it is provided that no sum of money shall be issued from the colonial treasury until the whole amount required to be furnished by subscription shall have been deposited in the colonial treasury, nor until a specification and plan of the intended place of worship or minister's dwelling, or both, as the case may be, shall have been submitted to the Governor and the Executive Council and approved of by them : And whereas in the case of the Presbyterian church in Kandy it has been made evident that the subscribers have completed the erection of a minister's dwelling, and have expended therein the sum of six hundred and ten pounds : It is hereby enacted that the said conditions, so far as relates to the minister's dwelling, shall be regarded as having been fulfilled, and the said sum of six hundred and ten pounds shall be and is hereby held to have been paid into the colonial treasury.

Certain conditions of former Ordinance declared to be fulfilled.

18 This Ordinance shall be deemed and taken to be a public Ordinance, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all judges, magistrates, and others without being specially pleaded.

Ordinance to be deemed a public one.

No. 3 of 1846.

For improving the Law of Evidence in this Colony.

(See No. 3 of 1833 and No. 2 of 1839.)

WHEREAS it is expedient that the improvements from time to time made in the law of evidence in force in that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England should be introduced into the law of evidence in force in this colony ; and it is also expedient to alter, amend, and declare in certain respects the law of evidence within this colony :

Preamble.

1 It is therefore hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that from and after the passing of this Ordinance the Ordinance No. 6 of the year 1834, entitled "An Ordinance declaring English Rules of Evidence to be in force in this Island, unless in cases otherwise expressly provided for by Law : and prescribing the course by which Evidence is to be obtained in certain cases," shall be and the same is hereby repealed, save and except as to repeal thereby of any former Law, Regulation, or Ordinance. And that from and after the passing of this Ordinance, any and every of the provisions of the Roman-Dutch law, by which the law, or any rule, or question of evidence, touching any matter or thing whatsoever, shall or may have been, or may now be regulated, prescribed, or determined, shall be and the same are hereby wholly abrogated, rescinded, and repealed.

Law of evidence of England to be the law of evidence of this colony.

2 Except in so far as is hereinafter excepted and provided, all such evidence shall be admissible, and such and no other evidence shall be required for the proof of any act, matter, or thing whatsoever, in any action, suit, prosecution, matter, or proceeding depending in any of the courts of this colony as would at the same period be admissible or be required for the proof of any act, matter, or thing in any similar action, suit, matter, or proceeding depending in any of Her Majesty's courts of record of Westminster, whether of equity or law; and no evidence shall be admissible in any action, suit, prosecution, matter, or proceeding depending in any of the courts of this colony which would not at the same period be admissible in any similar action, suit, prosecution, matter, or proceeding depending in any of Her Majesty's said courts of record of Westminster.

Provision as to the requisitions of particular modes of proof by any Ordinance in force in this colony.

3 Where by any Regulation or Ordinance in force within this colony provision has been or shall hereafter be expressly made touching the nature, quality, admissibility, or effect of the evidence to be adduced in proof of the execution of any will, deed, or instrument, or in proof of any matter or thing whatsoever; or touching the examination of the parties to civil suits; or in any other way prescribing or regulating any matter of evidence, such Regulation or Ordinance shall be and be deemed and taken to be the law of evidence of this colony in respect of the matters and things therein expressly provided for, anything contained in the law of evidence of England in relation thereto to the contrary notwithstanding.

Certain practical rules of the law of evidence of England not hereby introduced into the law of evidence of this colony.

5 The several practical rules and provisions forming part of or incorporated with the law of evidence of England touching the attendance of witnesses, the method of enforcing such attendance, the payment of the expenses of witnesses, the remedies for the non-attendance of witnesses, and the like, as also touching the inspection of public writings and of private documents; as also touching bills of exceptions and demurrers to evidence; and also relating to matters of pleading and practice, which are now or shall hereafter be regulated by any general rule or rules of practice which have been or may hereafter be lawfully and duly made and promulgated by the judges of the Supreme Court, or by any other competent authority, are not and shall not be considered as introduced by this Ordinance into, or by the authority thereof as hereafter forming part of the law of evidence of this colony.

lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to cause to be issued from the colonial treasury, as a contribution from the public funds, such sum or sums of money as should be equal to the amount of such subscription ; provided that no such sum should be issued from the colonial treasury until the whole amount required to be furnished by subscription should have been deposited therein, and a plan of the intended building submitted to the Governor and Executive Council and approved of by them : And whereas by the said Ordinance it was further enacted that before any sums of money should be issued from the colonial treasury as aforesaid trustees should be elected or appointed in such manner as should by some future Ordinances be provided : And whereas certain churches for the celebration of Divine service according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland have been erected or are now in course of erection by subscription and by contribution from the public funds as aforesaid, and it is expedient to make provision for the management of the temporal affairs of the said churches, and of any others which may hereafter be erected in like manner for the purpose aforesaid :

Notice of election for church already erected,

1 Within three months from the passing of this Ordinance, the colonial chaplain of any church already erected in manner aforesaid shall fix a place and a day, which shall not be earlier than twenty-one days from the passing of this Ordinance, for holding a general meeting for the election of trustees of the said church in manner hereinafter appointed, and shall cause notices thereof to be affixed to some conspicuous parts of the said church.

or in course of erection,

2 The building committee or persons in charge of the building of any church now in course of erection in manner aforesaid shall, within ten days from the passing of this Ordinance, fix a place and a day in the month of December next ensuing for holding a general meeting for the election of trustees of the said church in manner hereinafter appointed, and shall give notice thereof in three successive Government Gazettes.

or to be hereafter erected.

3 The building committee or persons who may be in charge of the building of any church to be hereafter erected in manner aforesaid shall, at the time of making application to the Governor for a contribution from the public funds, fix a place and a day for holding a general meeting for the election of trustees of the said church in manner hereinafter appointed, and shall give notice thereof in three successive Government Gazettes.

Mode of holding election.

4 Any election to be held under the provisions of the three preceding clauses shall be held before the person or persons by whom the day and place for holding the same shall have been fixed ; and it shall be lawful for the subscribers to any church of which the sittings shall not have been apportioned, or for the seatholders, if the same shall have been apportioned, in respect of which such election shall be held, to elect three trustees of such church :

Episcopal Churches (Temporalities).

Provided always that no subscriber or seatholder shall be entitled to give more than one vote, or to give any vote except in person, and that no person shall be entitled to vote who shall not be twenty-one years of age, and the person or persons holding any such election shall record the names of the voters and of the persons for whom their votes shall be given, and shall at the close of the election declare the names of the three persons for whom the greatest number of votes shall have been recorded, who shall thereupon be deemed to be duly elected as trustees, and shall grant to such persons certificates under their hands of such their election.

Mode of voting.

5 The trustees elected under the provisions of the preceding clause shall without delay communicate such their election to the Bishop of the diocese, who shall thereupon be entitled to appoint one other person to be a trustee of the church in respect of which such trustees shall have been elected, and shall grant to such person a certificate of such his appointment; and it shall be lawful for the Bishop from time to time, if he shall see fit so to do, to withdraw any such appointment, and to appoint some other person to be a trustee of such church, and to appoint a new trustee in the place of any trustee originally appointed by him who shall in any manner have vacated his office.

Appointment by Bishop of one trustee.

6 In case of the death, incapacity, resignation, or departure of any trustee of any church elected under the provisions of this Ordinance, or of his ceasing to be a seatholder, or of his election not being confirmed by the Governor, or in case any such trustee shall be a confirmed lunatic, or shall be or become disqualified to act in such capacity, the remaining trustees of such church shall fix a place and a day for holding an election of a new trustee, and shall give notice thereof in the three Government Gazettes published next immediately preceding such day, and such election shall be held by the said trustees according to such and the same forms as are hereinbefore prescribed for the election of the original trustees.

Vacancy of trustee.

7 Every trustee to be elected or appointed under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be a member of the United Church of England and Ireland, and no person shall be elected or appointed or shall continue to be a trustee of any church after the apportionment of the sittings in the same unless he shall be one of the seatholders therein.

Qualification of trustee.

8 No election or re-election or appointment of any trustee shall be valid, nor shall such trustee be capable of performing any of the functions provided by this Ordinance, or of sitting or voting at any meeting of trustees, until after His Excellency the Governor shall have signified his sanction or confirmation of such election, re-election, or appointment.

No election or appointment of any trustee valid unless sanctioned by the Governor.

9 No trustee shall be permitted to resign his office until he shall have duly accounted, to the satisfaction of his co-trustees, for all sums of money at any time received by him in his said trust.

Trustee resigning to render account.

Annual election of trustees.

10 No trustee elected under any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall continue in office beyond the thirty-first day of December next ensuing after such his election; and that the trustees for the time being of any church erected or to be erected in manner aforesaid shall fix a place and a day in the month of December in every year for the holding before them of a general meeting for the election of three new trustees of such church for the year commencing on the first of January next ensuing, and shall give notice thereof in the three Government Gazettes published next immediately preceding such day, and shall cause written notice thereof to be posted for fourteen days in some conspicuous place on or near the church; and such election shall be held according to such and the same forms as are hereinbefore prescribed for the election of the original trustees of such church: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any person who at the time of holding such election may be one of the trustees of any such church from being elected as such for the ensuing year.

appoint in default of
trustees.

11 If after the election and appointment of the original trustees of any such church the trustees for the time being shall, for the period of one month, neglect to fix a place and a day for holding an election of a trustee in the room of one who may in any manner have vacated his office, or whose election the Governor shall have refused to confirm, or if they shall for the like period neglect to fix a place and a day for holding an election of trustees for the ensuing year as hereinbefore appointed, it shall be lawful for any six of the subscribers to such church, or if the sittings shall have been apportioned, for any six of the seatholders, to fix such place and day, and to give notice of the same in manner hereinbefore appointed; and such election shall be held before the chaplain or clergyman of such church; but if no such election shall be held within two months from the time appointed by this Ordinance it shall be lawful for the Bishop of the diocese to appoint by writing under his hand, subject to approval of the Governor, one or more fit and proper person or persons to be trustee or trustees of such church to fill the vacancy or vacancies which shall have thus occurred, and every such trustee so appointed shall continue in office until the thirty-first day of December next ensuing.

Bishop may be
sole trustee.

12 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be construed to prevent any person or persons who may hereafter, without any pecuniary or other contribution from the Government, erect any church for the celebration of Divine service according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, from nominating the Bishop of the diocese for the time being and his successors to be the sole and successive trustees of such church, and in any such case the Bishop shall hold, exercise, and enjoy in respect to such church all the rights and privileges vested in trustees elected or appointed under this Ordinance.

Episcopal Churches (Temporalities).

13 The colonial chaplain or clergyman for the time being duly appointed and licensed to any church erected in manner aforesaid, or during his absence the clergyman duly authorized to officiate for him, shall, whenever present at any meeting of the trustees of such church, be ex officio chairman of such meeting, but shall not have the power of voting except in cases where the votes of the trustees present shall be equal; and when no such chaplain or clergyman is present the trustees shall elect their own chairman, and such trustees shall upon all matters before them have each one vote, and any three such trustees, or any two with the ex officio chairman, shall form a quorum, and any such quorum shall and may exercise all the powers and privileges which are vested in the trustees of any church by this Ordinance; and in the event of a difference of opinion between such trustees on any occasion, the votes of the majority shall be binding upon all; and in case of an equality of votes, and in the absence of the chaplain or clergyman, the chairman for the time being shall, in addition to his own vote, possess a casting vote, and such trustees shall have power from time to time to make by-laws (such laws not being inconsistent with this Ordinance) for their general guidance, which laws shall be equally binding on and shall be observed by their successors, until by them abrogated or altered: Provided always that the meetings of the trustees shall take place on stated days agreed to by a majority for the transaction of ordinary business, and that if the meeting be extraordinary or special seven days' notice thereof, and of its object, shall be given in writing to each of the said trustees and to the chaplain or clergyman, and that it shall at any time be competent for any two of the said trustees to convene such special meeting.

14 The real estate and property in any church of which trustees shall be elected and appointed in the manner aforesaid, and in any burial ground now belonging or which may at any time hereafter belong thereto, and their appurtenances respectively, and in all lands and hereditaments and in all monies and chattels belonging or which may hereafter belong thereto, shall be deemed and taken to be vested in such trustees for the purposes of their trust.

Property vested
in trustees.

15 It shall be lawful for the said trustees to make or enter into, perform, and execute, and compel the performance and execution, of all such contracts and agreements, matters and things, and to commence and maintain all such suits and actions as they shall deem necessary to the performance of the trust reposed in them; and all such contracts and agreements shall and may be entered into and enforced, and all such suits and actions be brought by them in the name of "The Trustees of the Church," specifying the name of the church, but without specifying the christian or surname of the trustees, and no action shall abate by reason of the death or removal or going out of office of any trustee; and all suits and actions the cause of which shall arise or accrue to any person whatsoever from or by reason of any contract or agreement, or any other matter or thing made or entered into, done, or performed by the said trustees in the execution of the said trust, shall be brought by such person against the said trustees under the name and title aforesaid ; nor shall any of the said trustees, merely by reason of his being a plaintiff in any such suit, be prevented from being a witness therein.

Trustees to apportion sittings.

16 The said trustees shall and they are hereby required as soon as may be after their election and appointment, or as soon as possible after the church shall be ready for the performance of Divine worship, to set out and apportion sittings in the church intrusted to them, and to affix and assess a rent or rate for such sittings, and make agreements and contracts with any person desirous to engage the same according to such assessment : Provided always that one sixth part of the whole number of sittings in any such church shall be appropriated free of any charge whatever to the use and accommodation of the poorer classes of the population, and also not less than four sittings for the use and occupation free of all charge of the chaplain or clergyman ; and such sittings shall for ever be kept apart for the purposes aforesaid.

Subscribers entitled to sittings.

17 Every subscriber to any church erected in manner aforesaid, provided he be bonâ fide resident within twenty miles of the same, shall be entitled to engage such number of sittings therein as he may really require for the use of himself and his family, and the priority of choice amongst such subscribers shall be determined by the trustees ; and after all the sittings shall have been so apportioned in the first instance, the trustees shall register in a book, to be by them kept for that purpose, all subsequent applications for sittings in the order in which they may be received by them, and shall allot such sittings as may thereafter become vacant to the parties who may have applied for the same according to such order.

Trustees to collect monies,

18 It shall be lawful for the said trustees, and they are hereby required, to collect and gather, or cause to be collected and gathered, all sums of money which shall be due for sittings in any such church, and all subscriptions and donations thereunto, and all rents and revenues that may at any time arise out of any land or hereditaments or from any property whatever belonging to such church, and all fees and payments for vaults and tombstones, and to apply for the said sums ; and it shall be lawful for the said trustees in conjunction with the chaplain or clergyman of such church, who in respect of such appointments or removals shall have a vote, to appoint, suspend, and remove all church officers and servants employed in or about any such church (the clerk of the same excepted, who shall in each case be appointed and removed by the chaplain or clergyman only), and it shall be lawful for the said trustees generally to manage the temporalities of every such church, and to provide and remove officers,

such articles as may be necessary for the proper celebration of Divine service therein, and to fix the salaries or other remuneration of all such officers and servants (including such clerk as aforesaid), and to pay the amount thereof respectively, and of all repairs of buildings and other expenses which circumstances may from time to time render necessary, by or out of such rents and fees as aforesaid, or out of such other funds as may come to their hands.

18 (a) It shall be lawful for the said trustees, after defraying such necessary expenses as are specified in the preceding section, to spend any income, rents, revenues, interest, fees, collections, or subscriptions, or any other funds which may come into their hands as trustees of any such church, in the purchase or acquirement of property of any description for the purposes of their trust, or in the payment of the stipends of the clergy, teachers, and catechists of such church, or in the erection or purchase of a parsonage for the use of the clergyman of such church, or for the maintenance of such parsonage and of schools or missions attached to such church, or on any other religious work connected with such church.

Trustees authorized to acquire property and maintain parsonages, schools, and missions out of income and collections.
[§ 1, 30 of 1890]

19 It shall and may be lawful for the said trustees, with the previous consent of the Bishop of the diocese, and with his approval of any proposed epitaph or inscription, to permit any monument to be erected or placed in such parts of any church erected or to be erected as aforesaid, or of the enclosed ground about the same, or of the burial ground belonging thereto, as they may deem convenient, or vaults to be dug and made in the said burial ground, upon payment to the said trustees, for the use of such church, for such permission, by the person or persons desiring to erect or place any monument therein or enclosed ground about the same, or in the said burial ground, or to dig and make any vault in the said burial ground, of such charges as to the said trustees shall appear fitting; provided that the same shall in no case exceed the charges set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed; and it shall be lawful for any person or persons erecting or placing any monument in any such church or enclosed ground about the same, or digging or making any vault in the said burial ground, by and with such permission as aforesaid, to have and maintain and keep up such monument or vault, according to the terms of such permission, to and for the sole and separate use of the said person or persons and his or their heirs for ever: Provided always that it shall not be lawful to bury any body within any such church or within the enclosed ground about the same.

Erection of monument. &c.

20 One person, not being a trustee, shall be elected at a general meeting to be called by the trustees in the first week in January in every year, to be an auditor of the yearly accounts of the said trustees.

Appointment of auditor.

21 The said trustees shall keep an account, wherein they shall enter all monies received and paid by them under and by virtue of the provisions of this Ordinance, which account the auditor may inspect at all reasonable times, and the said account, together with any report of the auditor thereon, shall be laid before the general annual meeting to be held under the provisions of the ninth clause of this Ordinance.

Trustees may accept lands.

22 It shall be lawful for the said trustees to accept or take from persons willing to give the same, or from the Crown, subject to the provisions of any law now or hereafter to be in force relating to such gifts, any lands or premises adapted for the site of a chaplain's dwelling, with the garden and other appurtenances thereunto, or any lands or premises adapted for the purposes of a burial ground, or any lands or premises for the maintenance of such church or of the chaplain thereof, and such lands or premises so given shall be deemed and taken to be for ever vested in the trustees of the said church for the time being in trust for the purposes thereof.

Performance of service for troops.

23 It shall be lawful for the Governor, should circumstances render the same necessary, to require the free use of any church erected or to be erected in manner aforesaid for the performance of Divine service for the benefit of any troops stationed at or near to the same, at such hour during any Sunday as may be fixed by the said Governor after communication with the Bishop of the diocese: Provided always that such extraordinary service shall not interfere with the ordinary services of the day.

Exclusive privileges of chaplain.

25 No person shall be suffered to perform Divine service or to administer the sacraments, or to preach any sermon in any such church, except the Bishop of the diocese, the archdeacon, and the colonial chaplain duly appointed and licensed to such church, or some clergyman duly appointed by the ordinary.

Ordinance not to affect Ordinance
No 11 of 1842.

26 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall or shall be deemed and taken to affect the Ordinance No. 11 of 1842, entitled "An Ordinance to provide for a Church in Kandy," or to extend the provisions of this Ordinance to such church, but the said Ordinance No. 11 of the year 1842 shall continue to be of full force and effect, and the affairs of the said church in Kandy shall continue to be regulated thereby.

*Emigration (Natives of India).No. 3 of 1847.

An Ordinance to prohibit Natives of India from entering into contracts in this Island for labour to be performed in any British or Foreign Colony beyond the limits of this Island and without the territories of the East India Company, and from emigrating from this Island to any such Colony for the purpose of employment as Labourers.

WHEREAS by Act XIV. of 1839 of the Governor-General of India in Council it was enacted that every person who should make with any native of India any contract for labour to be performed in any British or foreign colony without the territories of the East India Company, or who should knowingly abet or aid any native of India in emigrating from the said territories for the purpose of being employed as a labourer should be liable, on conviction, to certain penalties therein declared : And whereas it has been intimated to the Government of this colony that the provisions of the said recited Act will cease to have any force or effect in so far as regards the island of Ceylon so soon as the Governor-General of India in Council shall be duly certified that the Legislature of the said island has made such laws as the said Governor-General in Council shall think sufficient for the protection of natives of India emigrating to the said island against the evils which might attend their emigrating from the said island to any other British or foreign colony : And whereas it is expedient that the Legislature of this island shall forthwith make provision for the protection of such natives against the evils aforesaid :

Preamble

1 If any native of India who shall have emigrated therefrom to this island shall enter into any contract within the said island for labour to be performed in any British or foreign colony beyond the limits of the said island and without the territories of the East India Company, or shall embark or attempt to embark from any place in the said island on board any ship or vessel for the purpose of being conveyed to any British or foreign colony beyond the limits of the said island and without the territories of the East India Company, and of being employed in such colony as a labourer, every such native shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty on natives of India contracting for labour to be performed in any British or foreign colony, or embarking on board any vessel for the purpose of employment as labourer in any such colony, and on all persons aiding or abetting them.

2 Every person who shall enter into any such contract as aforesaid with any such native of India, or shall knowingly aid or abet any such native in embarking or attempting to embark from any place in this island on board any ship or vessel for the purpose of such conveyance and employment as aforesaid, or shall attempt by means of intoxication or by false imprisonment or other means of crimping to export any such native from any place in this island on board any ship or vessel for the purpose of such conveyance and employment as aforesaid, and every master or person in charge of a ship or vessel who shall admit any such native on board thereof for the purpose of such conveyance and employment as aforesaid, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds for every native so contracted with, aided, abetted, exported, or admitted on board.

Powers of search, &c., for the purposes of this Ordinance extended to officers of customs and pilots.

3 All powers vested by law in the officers of customs in regard to the searching and detention of ships and vessels, or otherwise for the prevention of smuggling on board thereof, may be exercised by such officers for the prevention of the illegal embarkation of natives of India on board of ships or vessels in any port, harbour, or roadstead in this island, and of other offences against this Ordinance; and all persons authorized to act as pilots in this island are hereby invested with the same powers and charged with the same duties as officers of the customs in this behalf.

This Act not to extend to bonâ fide menial servants.

4 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be taken to apply to any native of India who shall of his own free will enter into any bonâ fide contract to serve on board any ship or vessel as a seaman or as a menial servant, or to any such native who shall embark or attempt to embark on board of any ship or vessel in pursuance of any such contract or as a menial servant, or to any person who shall enter into any such contract with any such native, or who shall aid or abet any such native in embarking or attempting to embark on board any ship or vessel for the purpose of serving as a seaman or menial servant, or to any master or person in charge of any ship or vessel who shall admit any such native on board thereof for the purpose of such service as aforesaid, or to any native of India who shall hold a sufficient license or certificate of some competent authority in that country to enter into any contract for labour to be performed in any British or foreign colony beyond the limits of this island and without the territories of the East India Company, or to embark for or proceed to any such colony.

28th September, 1847.

No. 6 of 1847.

An Ordinance to amend in certain respects the Law of Marriages, and to provide for the better registration of Marriages, Births, and Deaths.

For Marriages, Births, and Deaths, see Nos. 15 of 1877. 11 of 1890, 10 of 1892, and 11 of 1892.

For Marriages, see Nos. 13 of 1863 and 8 of 1865.

For Births and Deaths, see No. 18 of 1867.

For Deaths, see No. 20 of 1891.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain respects the law of marriages, and to provide for the better registration of marriages, births, and deaths:

Registration (Marriages, Births, and Deaths).

1 It is therefore hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the Regulation No. 7 of 1815, entitled "For facilitating the marriages of native Protestants," shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided nevertheless, that all marriages contracted under the provisions of the said Regulation, and all marriages declared therein to be valid, shall be deemed and taken to have been good and valid marriages.

Repeal of former Regulations.

7 It shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint one registrar-general of marriages in this colony, and one provincial registrar in each of the provinces thereof, and to establish from time to time, with the advice of the Executive Council, such and so many districts within any of such provinces as shall appear expedient, and such districts at any time, with the like advice, to alter or abolish; and it shall be lawful for the said Governor to appoint one or more registrar or registrars to each of such districts, and at any time when he shall think fit to remove any such registrar-general, provincial registrar, or registrar, and when necessary to appoint some other person in his place or in the place of any registrar-general, provincial registrar, or registrar who shall have died or resigned his office; and it shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make regulations for the direction of the said registrar-general, provincial registrars, and registrars in the discharge of their duties, and for the maintenance of such officers or establishments as may be necessary thereunto: Provided always that such regulations shall in no case be inconsistent with or repugnant to any of the provisions of this Ordinance.

Governor to
registrars.

10 If any person being removed or ceasing to act in the office of registrar-general, provincial registrar, registrar, or assistant registrar, or in the case of the death of any such officer, if any of his heirs, executors, or administrators, or any other person into whose possession any registers, books, or other articles possessed by him in right of the said office, and necessary or convenient to the duties thereof, shall have come, shall wilfully cause the same or any part thereof to be lost or destroyed, or shall wilfully neglect or refuse to deliver over the same or any part thereof as soon as conveniently may be to his successor, every such person shall be guilty of an offence, and shall on conviction thereof be committed to prison, there to remain without bail and at hard labour until he shall have delivered up the same, if it shall be within his power so to do, and shall in addition be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment at hard labour for any period not exceeding three years; and any judge, magistrate, or justice of the peace may grant a warrant to search for such articles as in the case of stolen goods, in any dwelling house or other premises within his jurisdiction in which there is reasonable cause to suspect the same to be, and the same, when found, shall be delivered to the person in whose custody they ought to be.

Transfer of register on decease, &c., of registrar.

Registration (Marriages, Births, and Deaths).

Book to be kept,

11 Every registrar-general, provincial registrar, and registrar shall keep books for the several purposes of this Ordinance, of such form and material as shall at any time hereafter be directed by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and that such books shall at no time be out of the possession of the said registrar-general, provincial registrars, registrars, or assistant registrars: Provided always that all persons shall be entitled to refer to and demand extracts from the book of the registrar-general, or of any provincial registrar, or registrar, on payment of such fee as the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may from time to time direct, and every such extract shall bear a stamp of one shilling and sixpence.

and give extracts.

Fee for extract

by the Governor and Council.

Where consent is necessary.

18 The father, if living, of any male under twenty-one years of age, not being a widower, and of any female under sixteen, or in the case of a daughter of European or Burgher parents, under twenty-one years of age, not being a widow, or if the father shall be dead the mother, or if both father and mother shall be dead the guardian or guardians of the party so under age lawfully appointed, or one of them, shall have authority to give consent to the marriage of such party, and to forbid the issue of any such certificate as aforesaid, or the publication of banns, or the solemnization of marriage, in respect of such party; and such consent is hereby required for the marriage of such party so under age, unless there shall be no person authorized to give such consent: Provided always that in case the father or fathers of the parties to be married, or of one of them so under age as aforesaid, shall be non compos mentis, or the mother or mothers, guardian or guardians, or any of them whose consent is made necessary as aforesaid to the marriage of such party or parties, shall be non compos mentis, or in parts beyond the island, or shall unreasonably or from undue motives refuse or withhold his, her, or their consent to a proper marriage, then it shall and may be lawful for any person desiring to marry in any of the before-mentioned cases to apply to the judge of any court of record within the district in which such person shall reside, which judge is hereby empowered to proceed upon and to determine such application in a summary way; but an appeal shall lie from every such decision to the Supreme Court or to any judge thereof, and in case the marriage proposed shall upon examination appear to be proper, the judge shall certify the same to be so, and such certificate, unless set aside in appeal, shall be deemed and taken to be as good and effectual to all intents and purposes as if the father or mother, guardian or guardians, of the person so applying had consented to such marriage.

After proof
unnecessary.

23 After any marriage shall have been registered it shall not be necessary in support of such marriage to give any proof of the actual dwelling of either of the parties previous to giving notice of marriage within the district where such notice was given for the time required by this Ordinance, nor shall any evidence be admissible to prove the contrary in any suit touching the validity of such marriage.

26 From and after the publication in the Gazette of the confirmation of this Ordinance by Her Majesty no marriage shall be valid to which the male party is under sixteen or the female under ten, or if a daughter of European or Burgher parents under fourteen years of age.

When marriage invalid.

27 No marriage solemnized by any minister after the confirmation of this Ordinance by Her Majesty, and no marriage solemnized by a registrar in any part of this island after this Ordinance shall have been proclaimed to be in force therein, shall be valid where either party shall be directly descended from the other, or where the female shall be sister of the male, either by the full or the half blood, or the daughter of his brother or of his sister by the full or the half blood, or a descendant from either of them, or daughter of his wife by another father, or his son's, or grandson's, or father's, or grandfather's widow, or where the male shall be brother of the female either by the full or the half blood, or the son of her brother or sister by the full or the half blood, or a descendant from either of them, or the son of her husband by another mother, or her deceased daughter's, or granddaughter's, or mother's, or grandmother's husband; and any marriage or cohabitation between parties standing towards each other in any of the above enumerated degrees of relationship shall be deemed to be an act of incest, and shall be punishable with imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding one year.

Prohibited degrees of relationship.

28 No marriage solemnized in any part of this island after the notification in the Gazette of the confirmation of this Ordinance by Her Majesty shall be valid (except among Mahomedans) where either of the parties thereto shall have contracted a prior marriage which shall not have been legally dissolved or declared void by decree of some competent court; and every person, except a Mahomedan, who shall after such period as aforesaid contract a subsequent marriage before his or her prior marriage shall have been so dissolved or declared void, and every person, except a Mahomedan, who shall marry another whom he or she shall know to be bound by a previous marriage not so dissolved or declared void, shall be guilty of bigamy, and liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding three years: Provided always that no person marrying a second time, whose husband or wife shall have been continually absent from such person for the space of seven years then last past, and shall not have been known by such person to be living within that time, shall be deemed to be guilty of bigamy.

What constitutes bigamy.

29 No valid marriage once contracted in any part of this island after the confirmation of this Ordinance by Her Majesty shall be dissolved during the lifetime of the parties thereto, except by judgment of divorce a vinculo matrimonii, pronounced in some competent court, and which judgment shall be founded either on the ground of adultery subsequent to marriage, or malicious desertion, or of incurable impotency at the time of such marriage, and every court in this island having matrimonial jurisdiction is hereby declared competent to dissolve any such marriage on any such ground.

Suit to compel marriages not allowed.

30 From and after the notification in the Gazette of the confirmation of this Ordinance by Her Majesty, in no case whatsoever shall any suit or proceeding be had in any court, or before any jurisdiction whatsoever, to compel the celebration of any marriage by reason of any promise or marriage contract entered into, or by reason of seduction, or of any cause whatever; and no promise or contract of marriage, or seduction, which shall have been heretofore or shall be hereafter made, entered into, or committed, shall vitiate any marriage duly solemnized or registered under the provisions of this Ordinance: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent any person aggrieved from at any time suing for or recovering damages in any court where damages are lawfully recoverable for breach of promise of marriage, or for seduction, or for any other cause.

Legal marriage between parties to legitimize children of same parties before marriage.

31 From and after the notification in the Gazette of the confirmation of this Ordinance by Her Majesty, a legal marriage between any parties shall have the effect of rendering legitimate the birth of any children who may have been procreated between the same parties before marriage, unless such children shall have been procreated in adultery.

Where solemnization of marriage procured by false document.

32 If any valid marriage shall be had under the provisions of this Ordinance by means of any wilfully false notice, certificate, or declaration made by either party to such marriage as to any matter to which a notice, certificate, or declaration is herein required, it shall be lawful for the Queen's Advocate, if he shall think fit, upon the affidavit of either of the parties to such marriage, or in the case of any such marriage having been had without the consent of any person authorized to give the same, upon the affidavit of such person, or in the case of both such parties being charged with any such fraud, upon the affidavit of any third person, to sue by himself or by some deputy queen's advocate for the district, or by some person duly authorized in that behalf in writing under the hand of the Queen's Advocate or of such deputy, in the proper district court for a forfeiture of all estate and interest in any property accruing to the offending party by such marriage, and such court shall have power in any such suit to declare such forfeiture, and thereupon to order and direct that all such estate and interest as shall then have accrued or shall thereafter accrue to such offending party by force of such marriage shall be secured under the direction of such court for the benefit of the innocent party, or of the issue of the marriage, or of any of them, in such manner as the said court shall think fit, for the purpose of preventing the offending party from deriving any interest in any real or personal estate or pecuniary benefits from such marriage; and if both the parties so contracting shall, in the judgment of the court, be guilty of any such offence as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said court to settle and secure such property, or any part thereof, immediately for the benefit of the issue of the marriage, subject to such provisions for the offending parties, by way of maintenance or otherwise, as the said court under the circumstances of the case shall think reasonable, regard being had to the benefit of the issue of the marriage during the lives of their parents, and of the issue of the parties respectively by any future marriage, or of the parties themselves, in case either of them shall survive the other: Provided always that it shall be competent to the court before which such suit shall be brought to make such order respecting the costs thereof as to the said court shall seem fit and proper.

33 All agreements, settlements, and deeds entered into or executed by the parties to any marriage in consequence of or in relation to which marriage such suit as aforesaid shall have been commenced, or by either of the said parties before and in contemplation of such marriage, or after such marriage for the benefit of the parties or either of them or their issue, so far as the same shall be contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of any security and settlement which shall be made by or under direction of any district court, or of the Supreme Court, as the case may be, as aforesaid, for the purposes mentioned in the preceding clause of this Ordinance, shall be absolutely void and have no force or effect.

Settlement and agreements void.

58 This Ordinance shall commence and take effect so soon as it shall have been gazetted as confirmed by Her Majesty.

No. 12 of 1848.

For making provision in certain respects touching the Admission of Advocates and Proctors; and for the annual registration of Practising Proctors.

(See No. 3 of 1890.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision in certain respects relating to the admission of advocates and proctors in this island: And whereas for the better regulation of proctors practising in this island it is expedient that every such proctor should be required to take out annually a certificate that the person named therein is a proctor and authorized to practise as such:

Preamble.

1 It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that from and after the time when this Ordinance shall come into operation when any order shall have been duly made for the admission of any person to act as an advocate or a proctor in any court of this island, the registrar of the Supreme Court of the said island shall and he is hereby required at the time of such admission to issue and deliver to the person so admitted a writing under the hand of such registrar and the seal of the said court, certifying the admission of such person as an advocate or a proctor as aforesaid, and specifying the court in which he has been admitted to act; and the several stamp duties specified in the table A in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed shall be payable to Her Majesty on such admission: Provided that where any person duly admitted a proctor in any court of this island shall be afterwards admitted a proctor in any other court thereof, the latter admission shall be free of stamp duty; and no person not duly authorized to act as an advocate or proctor previously to the time when this Ordinance shall come into operation shall be entitled to act as an advocate or a proctor in any such court who has not obtained such written admission as aforesaid, anything in the charter or letters patent of King William the Fourth, dated the Eighteenth day of February, One thousand Eight hundred and Thirty-three, or in any rule or order of the said Supreme Court, or any usage or custom in anywise to the contrary notwithstanding.

Certificates to be granted yearly to proctors

2 It shall be the duty of the registrar of the said Supreme Court, and of the several district judges of the respective district courts in this island, and they are hereby required, to grant or issue to every person entitled to act as a proctor in any such court who shall apply for the same a certificate that such person is a proctor of such court, and duly authorized to practise as such therein; and all such certificates shall be applied for and granted on or before the twenty-fifth day of March in every year, and shall be in force for one year and no longer, and the several stamp duties specified in the table B in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed shall be payable to Her Majesty on such certificates: Provided that if any proctor shall be entitled and shall intend to practise in courts situated at different places, he shall only be required to obtain one such stamped certificate yearly from the proper officer of any court in which he shall intend to practise; provided, however, that if different rates of stamp duty are chargeable on certificates issued to proctors practising at such places, the certificate so to be obtained shall be taken out in some court of the place where the highest amount of duty is chargeable.

On application for certificate a declaration to be made and entered in a book.

3 For the purpose of obtaining such certificate as aforesaid a declaration in writing, signed by such proctor or by his partner, containing his name and place of residence and the court or courts of which he is then admitted a proctor, together with the date of his admission as a proctor, shall be delivered to the said registrar or district judge, who shall cause all the particulars in such declaration to be entered in a proper book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be open to the inspection and examination of all persons without fee or reward; and the said registrar or district judge shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the delivery of such declaration (unless he shall see cause and have reason to believe that the party applying for such certificate is not upon the roll of proctors), deliver to the said proctor or his agent a certificate in the form hereunto annexed marked C, which shall bear such stamp as the same at the time of the granting thereof is hereby required to bear.

4 If any proctor shall neglect to procure an annual stamped certificate authorizing him to practise as such within the time by this Ordinance appointed for that purpose, then and in such case the said registrar or district judge shall not afterwards grant a certificate to such proctor without the order of the Supreme Court, or a judge thereof, authorizing such registrar or district judge to issue such certificate; and it shall be lawful for the said Supreme Court or judge thereof to make such order upon such terms and conditions as they shall think fit.

In case of neglect to obtain a stamped certificate, application to be made to the Supreme Court or a judge thereof.

5 Any person who, as a proctor, after the twenty-fifth day of March next ensuing, shall sue, prosecute, defend, or carry on any action or suit, or any proceedings in any court, without having previously obtained such stamped certificate as aforesaid which shall be then in force, shall be incapable of obtaining any taxation of any bill of costs due to him, or of maintaining any action or suit for the recovery of any fee, reward, or disbursement for or in respect of any business, matter, or thing done by him as a proctor as aforesaid whilst he shall have been without such certificate as aforesaid, and shall also incur and be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Proctors practising without certificate incapable of recovering fees.

6 In case any such registrar or district judge shall decline to issue any such certificate as aforesaid the party so applying for the same shall and may apply to the Supreme Court, or to any judge thereof, who are hereby respectively authorized to make such order in the matter as shall be just.

On refusal to grant any certificate, application to be made to the Supreme Court.

7 And it is further enacted that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the First day of January, One thousand Eight hundred and Forty-nine.

*Lands.No. 18 of 1848.*To remove doubts concerning the validity of Grants of Lands in this Island.*Preamble.

WHEREAS the Governors of this island have from time to time been authorized and empowered by her present Majesty, and Her Majesty's last royal predecessor, by commission under the great seal, to make and execute grants of waste lands belonging to the Crown within this island to private persons : And whereas Her said Majesty, and Her Majesty's royal predecessor, did appoint and direct that such grants should pass in the name of Her Majesty or Her Majesty's royal predecessor, as the case might be, under the public seal of this island, and should be made to such private persons, and to their heirs and assigns, and that such grants should be enrolled in such courts as Her Majesty and her royal predecessor have respectively appointed and directed : And whereas in the exercise or supposed exercise of the powers and authorities in them so vested as aforesaid the respective Governors have from time to time made and issued grants or conveyances of lands situated in this island to divers private persons ; but such grants or conveyances have not always been of waste lands, and have been made in the names of the said Governors and not in the name of Her Majesty or her royal predecessor, and have also been made to the grantee and to his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, and in many instances such grants or conveyances have not been duly enrolled in the proper court: And whereas doubts may be entertained whether such grants or conveyances made and issued as aforesaid, by reason of the informality thereof, are valid in the law or binding upon Her Majesty, her heirs and successors : And whereas to remove any such doubts, and to quiet the titles of persons holding or entitled to hold any lands in this island so granted or conveyed as aforesaid, Her Majesty hath graciously signified her royal will and pleasure, that all grants or conveyances of lands in this island made by any such Governor, in the exercise or supposed exercise of the powers and authorities in them so vested as aforesaid, should be declared to be valid in the law, and binding upon Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, notwithstanding any such informality as aforesaid, subject to the limitation hereinafter contained :

Grants of lands heretofore issued by the Governors of this island declared valid, notwithstanding certain informalities therein.

1 All grants or conveyances of land at any time heretofore made and issued by or in the name of any Governor of the island, in the exercise or supposed exercise of the powers and authorities vested in him by Her Majesty, or by Her Majesty's royal predecessor, of any lands situated in this island, whether the same were waste lands or otherwise, and notwithstanding such grants or conveyances shall not be in the name of Her Majesty, or of Her Majesty's royal predecessor, or shall not be under the public seal of this island, and notwithstanding such grants or conveyances shall have been made to the grantee and to his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, and shall not have been duly enrolled in the proper court, shall be, and be deemed, taken, and held to be, and to have been, from the respective dates thereof, as valid and effectual in the law to grant and convey such lands, and shall be as binding upon Her said Majesty, her heirs and successors, to all intents and purposes as if such grants or conveyances had been of lands which were waste, and had been made and issued in the name of Her Majesty, or of Her Majesty's royal predecessor, and had passed and been executed under the public seal of this island, and had been made to the respective grantees and to their respective heirs and assigns, and had been duly enrolled in the proper court, anything in any such commission, or any law, custom, or usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always that where in any case the invalidity of any such grant or conveyance shall be consequent upon the non-enrolment thereof in the proper court, nothing hereinbefore contained shall be deemed or taken to have rendered the same valid until the same shall have been enrolled in the district court of the district where the land thereby granted or conveyed shall be situate.

13th November, 1848.

Such grants not hitherto duly enrolled to be enrolled in the district court.

No. 1 of 1852.For shortening the Language used in Ordinances.

WHEREAS it is expedient to shorten the language used in Ordinances; it is enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 That the sections into which any Ordinance shall be divided, where there are more enactments than one, shall be deemed to be substantive enactments without any introductory words.

Introductory words to the sections of Ordinances not required.

2 That in all Ordinances words importing the masculine gender shall be deemed and taken to include females, and the singular to include the plural, and the plural the singular, unless the contrary as to gender or number is expressly provided; and the word "Governor" shall be held to mean the person lawfully administering the government of this island for the time being; and the words "this island," "this colony," and the "island of Ceylon," shall be held to mean the island of Ceylon and the dependencies thereof; and the word "Ordinance" shall be held to include also regulation; and the word "month" to mean calendar month, unless words be added showing lunar month to be intended; and the word "land" shall include messuages, tenements, and hereditaments, houses, and buildings, of any tenure, unless where there are words to exclude houses and buildings, or to restrict the meaning to tenements of some particular tenure; and the words "oath," "swear," and "affidavit" shall include affirmation, declaration, affirming, and declaring in the case of persons by law allowed to declare or affirm instead of swearing.

Interpretation of certain words for future Ordinances.

Repealed Ordinances not revived by the repeal of the repealing Ordinance.

3 That when any Ordinance repealing in whole or in part any former Ordinance or Regulation is itself repealed, such last repeal shall not revive the Ordinance or the Regulation, or the provisions before repealed, unless words be added reviving such Ordinance, Regulation, or provisions.

Repealed provisions of an Ordinance to remain in force until the substituted provisions come into force.

4 That whenever any Ordinance shall be enacted repealing in whole or in part any former Ordinance or Regulation, and substituting some provision or provisions instead of the provision or provisions repealed, such provision or provisions so repealed shall remain in force until the substituted provision or provisions shall come into operation by force of the last made Ordinance.

All Ordinances to be deemed public Ordinances unless the contrary is expressed. Commencement of Ordinance.

5 Every Ordinance enacted after the commencement of this Ordinance shall be deemed and taken to be a public Ordinance, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such, unless the contrary be expressly provided and declared by such Ordinance.

This Ordinance shall come into operation from and after the passing thereof.

No. 3 of 1852.

To repeal the Regulation No. 8 of 1809, and to remove certain restrictions peculiar to the tenure of Service Parveny Lands.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the Regulation No. 8 of 1809, and to remove certain restrictions peculiar to the tenure of service parveny lands; it is enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Repeal of Regulation No. 8 of 1809.

1 The Regulation No. 8 of 1809, entitled "For declaring the tenure of Service Parveny Lands, and to prevent the same from being aliened or incumbered," is hereby repealed.

Succession in female as well as in male heirs.

2 The privilege of succeeding to service parveny lands shall be in the female as fully as in the male heirs of all persons who shall die possessed of such lands after this Ordinance shall have come into operation, and such lands shall not revert to the Crown on the failure of male heirs; and such lands are hereby declared to be henceforth capable of alienation by gift, sale, devise, or other act, or of being charged or incumbered with any debt whatever; and such lands are hereby further declared to be henceforth liable to be sold by virtue of any writ of execution or other legal process of any court of this island.

Law of England Introduction, &c.

3 No sale of any service parveny land, or of any share thereof heretofore effected under any writ of execution or other legal process of any court of this island, and no sale or alienation of any such land, or of any share thereof heretofore effected by any person in the lawful possession thereof, shall be deemed to be invalid by reason of anything in the said Regulation No. 8 of 1809 contained, or by reason of such land being service parveny land, unless some suit or other proceeding at law touching the validity of such sale or alienation shall be pending at the time that this Ordinance shall come into operation, in every which excepted case such suit or proceeding shall be determined in such and the same manner as it would have been determined if this Ordinance had not been enacted.

Former sale and possession under writ of execution not invalid.

4 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall or shall be construed to affect the rate of tax to which any service parveny lands may be liable.

Rate of tax not affected.

This Ordinance shall take effect from and after the passing thereof.

Commencement of Ordinance.

No. 5 of 1852.

To introduce into this Colony the Law of England in certain cases, and to restrict the operation of the Kandyan Law.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the law of England should be observed as the law of this colony in certain respects, and that the laws of the Kandyan provinces should be assimilated as far as may be to the laws of the Maritime provinces; it is enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 The law to be hereafter administered in this colony in respect of all contracts or questions arising within the same relating to ships and to the property therein, and to the owners thereof, the behaviour of the master and mariners, and their respective rights, duties, and liabilities, relating to the carriage of passengers and goods by ships, to stoppage in transitu, to freight, demurrage, insurance, salvage, average, collision between ships, to bills of lading, and generally to all maritime matters, shall be the same in respect of the said matters as would be administered in England in the like case at the corresponding period, if the contract had been entered into or if the act in respect of which any such question shall have arisen had been done in England, unless in any case other provision is or shall be made by any Ordinance now in force in this colony or hereafter to be enacted.

Law of England to be observed in maritime matters:

2 The law to be hereafter administered in this colony in respect of all contracts and questions arising within the same upon or relating to bills of exchange, promissory notes, and cheques, and in respect of all matters connected with any and in respect of bills of exchange, &c.

Law of England Introduction, &c.

such instruments, shall be the same in respect of the said matters as would be administered in England in the like case at the corresponding period, if the contract had been entered into or if the act in respect of which any such question shall have arisen had been done in England, unless in any case other provision is or shall be made by any Ordinance now in force in this colony or hereafter to be enacted.

Proviso in regard to interest.

3 Provided that no person shall be prevented from recovering on any contract or engagement any amount of interest expressly reserved thereby, or from recovering interest at the rate of nine per cent. per annum on any contract or engagement, or in any case in which interest is payable by law and no different rate of interest has been specially agreed upon between the parties, but the amount recoverable on account of interest or arrears of interest shall in no case exceed the principal.

Proviso in regard to contracts made abroad.

4 Provided further, that nothing in the preceding sections contained shall alter or affect the law in regard to any question arising for adjudication within this colony upon a contract made abroad, which question shall be determined as if this Ordinance had not been enacted.

If the Kandyan law is silent, the law of the Maritime provinces to govern.

5 Where there is no Kandyan law or custom having the force of law applicable to the decision of any matter or question arising for adjudication within the Kandyan provinces, for the decision of which other provision is not herein specially made, the court shall in any such case have recourse to the law as to the like matter or question in force within the Maritime provinces, which is hereby declared to be the law for the determination of such matter or question.

The criminal law of the Maritime provinces to extend to the Kandyan provinces.

7 The law administered within the Maritime provinces upon the trial and conviction of any person for any crime or offence committed within such provinces is hereby declared to extend and shall be applied to the like crimes and offences committed within the Kandyan provinces, unless by any law now in force in this colony or in any part thereof, or hereafter to be enacted, other provision has been or shall be made in that behalf.

The succession ab intestato to the property of Europeans in the Kandyan provinces to be the same as in the Maritime provinces.

8* The inheritance and succession to the real property situated within the Kandyan provinces of persons commonly known as Europeans, and of their descendants, and of persons commonly known as Burghers, who may die possessed of or entitled to any such property, and without disposing of the same by will, and the inheritance and succession to the personal property of such persons who at the time of their death shall be domiciled within the Kandyan provinces, and who may die possessed of or entitled to any such property, and without disposing of the same by will, shall be regulated and determined in such manner and according to such laws and usages as would have been the case had such real property been situated, or had the deceased been domiciled at the time of his death, within the Maritime provinces, anything contained in the sixth section of the Ordinance No. 21 of 1844, entitled "An Ordinance to make better provision for the disposal of Landed Property," to the contrary notwithstanding.

* Repealed so far as inconsistent with No. 15 of 1876.

9 No marriage contracted between persons commonly known as Europeans or their descendants, or persons commonly known as Burghers, or between any such persons and any Singhalese (whether of the Maritime or Kandyan provinces), or any Asiatic within the Kandyan provinces, shall be valid, unless such marriage would have been valid if contracted within the Maritime provinces.

10 The code of Mahomedan laws, entitled "Special Laws concerning Maurs or Mahomedans," promulgated on the 5th day of August, 1806, and ordered to be observed throughout the whole of the province of Colombo, shall extend and be applied to the like cases, matters, and things between Mahomedans residing within the Kandyan provinces and in other parts of this colony, unless in any case other provision is or shall be made by any Ordinance now in force in this colony or hereafter to be enacted.

11 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the First day of July in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-three.

8th September, 1852.

Marriages of Europeans not valid in the Maritime provinces to be invalid in the Kandyan provinces.

The Mahomedan code in force in the Maritime provinces extended to Mahomedans in the Kandyan provinces.

No. 9 of 1852.To amend the Law of Evidence.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-nine, to amend the law of evidence of England, and the said Act is in force in this colony in virtue of the provisions contained in the second section of the Ordinance No. 3 of 1846, but some of the provisions of the said Act are not applicable to the circumstances of this colony, and it is therefore desirable to declare that the said Act shall not be in force in this colony in virtue of the said Ordinance, but to re-enact such parts of it as are applicable; it is enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 The Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-nine, shall not in virtue of the Ordinance No. 3 of 1846 be in force in this colony; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the validity and operation of the eleventh section of the said Act, which section in virtue of the provisions of the said Act is in force in this colony, and is as follows:

Act 14 and 15 Vict., c. 99, not to be in force in this island except as therein provided.

"XI. Every document which by any law now in force, or hereafter to be in force, is or shall be admissible in evidence of any particular in any court of justice in England or Wales, or Ireland, without proof of the seal, or stamp, or signature authenticating the same, or of the judicial or official character of the person appearing to have signed the same, shall be admitted in evidence to the same extent and for the same purposes in any court of justice of any of the British colonies, or before any person having in any of such colonies, by law or by consent of parties, authority to hear, receive, and examine evidence, without proof of the seal or stamp or signature authenticating the same, or of the judicial or official character of the person appearing to have signed the same."

The 4th section of Ordinance No. 3 of 1846.

2 The fourth section of the Ordinance No. 3 of 1846, entitled "For improving the Law of Evidence in this Colony," is repealed.

Parties to be admissible witnesses.

3 On the trial of any issue joined, or of any matter or question, or on any inquiry arising in any suit, action, or other proceeding in any court of justice, or before any person having by law or by consent of parties authority to hear, receive, and examine evidence, the parties thereto and the persons in whose behalf any such suit, action, or other proceeding may be brought or defended, shall, except as herein-after excepted, be competent and compellable to give evidence on behalf of either or any of the parties to the said suit, action, or other proceeding, anything contained in the said Ordinance No. 3 of 1846, or in the Ordinance No. 10 of 1843, entitled "An Ordinance for the establishment of courts of inferior civil jurisdiction, to be called Courts of Requests," or in the Ordinance No. 12 of 1843, entitled "An Ordinance to make certain alterations in the constitution of District Courts," or in any rule or order of court to the contrary notwithstanding.

Nothing herein to compel any person charged with a criminal offence to give evidence tending to criminate himself.

4 But nothing herein contained shall render any person who in any criminal proceeding is charged with the commission of any crime or offence competent or compellable to give evidence for or against himself, or shall render any person compellable to answer any question tending to criminate himself.

Not to apply to proceedings in consequence of adultery.

5 Nothing herein contained shall apply to any action, suit, or proceeding in any court in this island instituted in consequence of adultery or malicious desertion, or to any action for separation a mensâ et thoro, or to any action for breach of promise of marriage.

Not to compel the Queen's Advocate to give evidence in suits by or against him. Foreign and colonial acts of state, judgments, &c.

6 Nothing herein contained shall render the Queen's Advocate compellable to give evidence in any action, suit, or proceeding in any court in this island instituted by or against such officer in his official capacity.

8 All proclamations, treaties, and other acts of state of any foreign state or of any British colony, and all judgments, decrees, orders, and other judicial proceedings of any court of justice in any foreign state, or in the United

Evidence.

Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any British colony, and all affidavits, pleadings, and other legal documents filed or deposited in any such court may be proved in any court of justice or before any person having by law or by consent of parties authority to hear, receive, and examine evidence, either by examined copies or by copies authenticated as hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, if the document sought to be proved be a proclamation, treaty, or other act of state, the authenticated copy to be admissible in evidence must purport to be sealed with the seal of the foreign state or British colony to which the original document belongs; and if the document sought to be proved be a judgment, decree, order, or other judicial proceeding of any foreign court, or of any court of justice in Great Britain or Ireland, or of any colonial court, or an affidavit, pleading, or other legal document filed or deposited in any such court, the authenticated copy to be admissible in evidence must purport either to be sealed with the seal of the court to which the original document belongs, or, in the event of such court having no seal, to be signed by the judge, or, if there be more than one judge, by any one of the judges of the said court, and such judge shall attach to his signature a statement in writing on the said copy that the court whereof he is a judge has no seal; but if any of the aforesaid authenticated copies shall purport to be sealed or signed as hereinbefore respectively directed, the same shall respectively be admitted in evidence in every case in which the original document could have been received in evidence, without any proof of the seal where a seal is necessary, or of the signature, or of the truth of the statement attached thereto, where such signature and statement are necessary, or of the judicial character of the person appearing to have made such signature and statements.

9 Every register of a vessel kept under any of the Acts relating to the registry of British vessels may be proved in any court of justice or before any person having by law or by consent of parties authority to hear, receive, and examine evidence, either by the production of the original or by an examined copy thereof, or by a copy thereof purporting to be certified under the hand of the person having the charge of the original; and every such register or such copy of a register, and also every certificate of registry granted under any of the Acts relating to the registry of British vessels, and purporting to be signed as required by law, shall be received in evidence in any court of justice or before any person having by law or by consent of parties authority to hear, receive, and examine evidence as primâ facie proof of all the matters contained or recited in such register when the register or such copy thereof as aforesaid is produced, and of all the matters contained or recited in or endorsed on such certificate of registry when the said certificate is produced.

13 Whenever any book or other document is of such a public nature as to be admissible in evidence on its mere production from the proper custody, and no statute or ordinance exists which renders its contents provable by means provable by certified copies without proof of seal or signature or judicial character of person signing the same.

Registers of British vessels and certificates of registry admissible as primâ facie evidence of their contents without proof of signature, &c.

Examined or certified copies of documents admissible in evidence.

Execution of Deeds.

of a copy, any copy thereof or extract therefrom shall be admissible in evidence in any court of justice or before any person now or hereafter having by law or by consent of parties authority to hear, receive, and examine evidence, provided it be proved to be an examined copy or extract, or provided it purport to be signed and certified as a true copy or extract by the officer to whose custody the original is intrusted, and which officer is hereby required to furnish such certified copy or extract to any person applying at a reasonable time for the same, provided it be made to appear to such officer that such document is required to be produced in a suit pending in any court of justice.

Interpretation of "British colony."

17 The words "British colony" as used in this Ordinance shall apply to all the British territories under the Government of the East India Company, and to the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and to all other possessions of the British Crown, wheresoever and whatsoever.

Commencement of Ordinance.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to facilitate the execution of certain deeds which at present are required to be executed before and attested by a notary public, and for that purpose to allow parties to such deeds to execute the same, if they think fit, before an officer of government instead of before a notary, and to render all deeds executed before any such officer of equal validity and effect with notarial deeds :

Deeds relating to land may be executed before a district judge or commissioner,
&c.

1 Every writing, deed, or instrument which by the second section of the Ordinance No. 7 of 1840, entitled "To provide more effectually for the prevention of Frauds and Perjuries," is required to be executed in the manner therein mentioned in order to its validity, shall, if made after this Ordinance shall come into operation, be valid and effectual, so far as relates to the execution thereof, if the same be signed by the party making the same, or by some person lawfully authorized by him, and by two or more witnesses present at the same time, in the presence of some district judge or commissioner of a court of requests for the district in which the party making such writing, deed, or instrument, or the person signing the same as such attorney, resides, or in the presence of some justice of the peace for such district specially authorized by the Governor to act in that behalf, and of whose appointment notice shall be given in the Government Gazette, and if the execution of such writing, deed, or instrument shall be certified at the foot or end thereof under the hand and seal of such judge or commissioner, or of such justice authorized as aforesaid, anything contained in the said Ordinance No. 7 of 1840 to the contrary notwithstanding.

2 Provided that every such writing, deed, or instrument shall be executed in duplicate, which duplicate shall be forthwith delivered or transmitted by such judge, commissioner, or justice to the secretary of the proper district court, to be by him registered and preserved in the district court in like manner as notarial deeds of a similar description; and all persons interested in any such deed shall be entitled, on furnishing the proper stamp, to demand a copy or extract of such deed, certified as correct by the said secretary, for which copy or extract a fee of four shillings shall be paid to the said secretary, who shall pay the same into the public treasury.

They shall be executed in duplicate and registered.

Copies or extracts how obtained.

3 No such judge, commissioner, or justice as aforesaid shall be authorized to certify the execution of any such writing, deed, or instrument unless the same, and the duplicate thereof, shall be duly stamped as required by law, nor until the same shall have been read over and explained to the party making the same, and to the witnesses thereto, by or in the presence of such judge, commissioner, or justice as aforesaid, nor unless the same, and the duplicate thereof, shall be legibly written or engrossed, without erasures therein, nor unless the party making such writing, deed, or instrument shall be known to such judge, commissioner, or justice as aforesaid, or to at least two of the attesting witnesses thereto, who shall make a declaration to that effect before him.

Manner of execution of such deeds.

4 Every such judge, commissioner, or justice as aforesaid shall insert in his certificate of the execution of every such writing, deed, or instrument, the day, month, and year on which and the place where the same is executed, together with the names and residences of the attesting witnesses; and such certificate shall be in the following form of words, or in any other form of words to the same effect; that is to say,

Form of certificate.

I, A. B., district judge of Ratnapoora (or as the case may be), hereby certify that the above-written deed was signed by the within-named (insert the name of the party making the deed), the maker thereof, and by _____ of _____, and _____ of _____, the attesting witnesses thereto, in my presence and in the presence of one another, at Ratnapoora, on the Sixth day of September, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-two.

District Judge.

Warrants under the Public Seal.

No fees to be taken.

5 No fee or gratuity shall be received or taken by any such judge or commissioner, or by any such justice authorized by the Governor as aforesaid, of or from any person whomsoever, for certifying the execution of any such writing, deed, or instrument, or for any act done or to be done by any such judge, commissioner, or justice under this Ordinance; and any such officer who shall receive or take any fee or gratuity contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Ordinance shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty.

Deeds not to be written by such judges, &c., or by the officers of their courts.

6 No such judge or commissioner, and no such justice authorized by the Governor as aforesaid, and no secretary, clerk, interpreter, or other officer of any court presided over by such judge or commissioner, shall draw up, write, or engross any writing, deed, or instrument to be executed under the provisions of this Ordinance, or any duplicate thereof; and any such officer who shall draw up, write, or engross any such writing, deed, or instrument, or the duplicate thereof, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Ordinance, shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty.

Commencement of Ordinance.

7 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the First day of July, One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-three.

20th October, 1852.

No. 3 of 1853.

To dispense with the issuing of Warrants under the Public Seal to Persons appointed to act temporarily in certain Public Offices.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by certain laws in force within this colony it is enacted that persons holding certain public offices shall be appointed thereto by letters patent, or commission, or warrant issued by the Governor under the public seal of the island, or by warrant under the hand and seal of the Governor, and it is inconvenient to require the issuing of such letters patent, commissions, or warrants on occasion of the appointment of persons to act temporarily in any such office: It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that from and after the passing of this Ordinance, whenever it shall be deemed advisable to appoint any person to act as district judge, commissioner of a court of requests, police magistrate, coroner, deputy coroner, superintendent of police, or justice of the peace, during the sickness, or absence, or suspension from office, or upon the death of the person permanently appointed to any such office, the notification in the Gazette of this colony by the Governor's command, under the hand of the Colonial Secretary or Assistant Colonial Secretary, of the appointment of any person to act in any such office, shall be and be deemed to be a sufficient warrant and authority to such person to enter upon and to perform all the duties of such office, without any other appointment, whether by letters patent, or by commission, or by warrant issued by the Governor under the public seal, or by warrant under the hand and seal of the Governor, as the case may be, anything contained in the Charter bearing date at Westminster the 18th February, 1833, or in the Ordinance No. 6 of 1843, entitled "An Ordinance for the creation of Justices of the Peace," or in the Ordinance No. 8 of 1843, entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the better holding of Inquests touching sudden and violent deaths," or in the Ordinance No. 10 of 1843, entitled "An Ordinance for the establishment of courts of inferior civil jurisdiction to be called Courts of Requests," or in the Ordinance No. 17 of 1844, entitled "An Ordinance for establishing an efficient Police in certain towns, &c.," or in any other Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

31st August, 1853.

No. 7 of 1853.

For regulating the due Collection, Administration, and Distribution of Insolvent Estates.

(See No. 24 of 1884 and No. 3 of 1890.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the due collection, administration, and distribution of the estates of persons within this colony who may become insolvent, for the prevention of fraud affecting the same, and for the relief of such persons as by misfortune, and without having been guilty of fraud or dishonesty, may become insolvent:

1 The Ordinance No. 6 of 1835, entitled "Ordinance to amend and consolidate the laws now in force in the settlements relating to Bankruptcy, the relief of insolvent debtors, and the privilege of cessio bonorum," is repealed.

2 This Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the first day of July next. Provided that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall render invalid any proceedings which may have been taken or commenced under the said Ordinance No. 6 of 1835, or lessen or affect any right, title, claim, demand, or remedy which any person now has or hereafter may have upon or against any bankrupt, against whom any commission of bankruptcy shall have been issued, or against any person who may or shall have taken proceedings for a composition with his creditors, or against any insolvent prisoner; and all proceedings commenced under the said Ordinance shall and may be continued and prosecuted as if this Ordinance had not been passed.

Cessio bonorum
abolished.

3 It shall not be lawful for any person to obtain from any court within this colony, or for any such court to grant to any person, the benefit or relief of cession of goods and property commonly called the cessio bonorum, as heretofore known to and allowed by the Roman-Dutch law in force within this colony: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to affect in any way the estate or condition of any person to whom before the commencement of this Ordinance the said benefit or relief shall have been duly granted, which estate shall be administered, and which condition shall be judged of, as if this Ordinance had not been enacted.

Proviso.

Judges may make rules.

4 The judges of the Supreme Court may from time to time make such rules and orders as they may think fit for the better carrying this Ordinance into effect, and generally for regulating the practice of the district court and the forms of proceedings under this Ordinance in all insolvency matters not provided for in this Ordinance: Provided that such rules and orders shall not be inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this Ordinance, and that no such rules or orders shall be of any force or effect until they shall have been transmitted to the Governor and confirmed in the manner provided by the Ordinance No. 8 of 1846, entitled "For rendering the operation of rules of court contingent on their enactment by the Legislature."

Proviso.

District courts to be auxiliary to each other for proof of debts and taking examinations.

5 The several district courts throughout this colony shall be courts for the administration of insolvent estates under this Ordinance, and shall be auxiliary to each other for proof of debts and for the examination of persons or witnesses in all matters under this Ordinance, or for any or either of such purposes: Provided that all such examinations shall be taken down in writing, and shall be transmitted to the court in which the petition for sequestration is being prosecuted, and shall be annexed to and form part of the proceedings in the matter to which the same shall relate, and that no such examination shall be taken without the request in writing of the judge of the district court before whom the matter is being prosecuted.

Proviso.

Appeals to Supreme Court.

6 All decisions and orders of the district courts made under the authority of this Ordinance shall be subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court; and every such appeal shall be brought on and prosecuted in such manner and shall be subject to such regulations as now exist or shall be hereafter made by any rule or order of the Supreme Court.

Insolvent Estates.

And with respect to acts of insolvency in general :

7 If any person residing in this colony, or having any property, real or personal, therein, shall depart therefrom, or being out of this colony shall remain abroad, or shall depart from his dwelling house, or otherwise absent himself, or begin to keep his house, or suffer himself to be arrested or taken in execution for any debt not due, or yield himself to prison, or procure himself to be arrested or taken in execution, or his goods, money, lands, or other property to be attached, sequestered, or taken in execution, or make or cause to be made, either in this colony or elsewhere, any fraudulent grant, conveyance, or mortgage of any of his lands or goods, or make or cause to be made any fraudulent gift, delivery, or transfer of any of his goods or other property, every such person doing, suffering, procuring, executing, permitting, making, or causing to be made any of the acts, deeds, or matters aforesaid, with intent to defeat or delay his creditors, shall be deemed to have thereby committed an act of insolvency.

insolvency.

8 If any person shall execute any conveyance or assignment by deed of all his property to a trustee or trustees for the benefit of all the creditors of such person, the execution of such deed shall not be deemed an act of insolvency, unless a petition for sequestration of the estate of such person be filed within three months from the execution thereof : Provided such deed shall be executed by every such trustee within fifteen days after the execution thereof by such first-mentioned person, and notice thereof be given within one month after the execution thereof by such first-mentioned person in the Government Gazette and in some newspaper published in Colombo ; and such notice shall contain the date and execution of such deed, and the name and place of abode of every such trustee.

Conveyance of all a person's property to trustees not

and attested by a proctor of such court, or some other witness, that he is unable to meet his engagements, every such person shall be deemed thereby to have committed an act of insolvency at the time of filing such declaration, provided a petition for sequestration of his estate shall be filed by or against such person within two months from the filing of such declaration.

Compounding with petitioning creditor an act of insolvency.

11 If any person, after the filing of any petition for sequestration of his estate, shall pay money to the petitioning creditor, or give or deliver to such petitioning creditor any satisfaction or security for his debt or any part thereof, whereby such petitioning creditor may receive more in the pound in respect of his debt than the other creditors, such payment, gift, delivery, satisfaction, or security shall be an act of insolvency; and if adjudication that such estate be sequestered shall have been made upon such petition, the court may either declare such adjudication to be valid, and direct the same to be proceeded in, or may order it to be annulled, and a petition or new petition for sequestration may be filed, and such petition or new petition may be supported either by proof of such last-mentioned or any other act of insolvency.

Defendant not paying, securing, or compounding for a judgment debt within 30 days after notice an act of insolvency.

12 If any plaintiff shall recover judgment in any action for the recovery of any debt or money demand in any court in this colony against any person residing within the same, and shall be in a situation to sue out execution upon such judgment, and there be nothing due from such plaintiff by way of set off against such judgment, and the defendant shall not within thirty days after notice in writing personally served upon such defendant requiring immediate payment of such judgment debt pay, secure, or compound for the same to the satisfaction of such plaintiff, every such defendant shall be deemed to have committed an act of insolvency on the thirty-first day after service of such notice: Provided that if such execution shall in the meantime be suspended or restrained by any rule, order, or proceeding of any court having jurisdiction in that behalf, no further proceeding shall be had on such notice, but it shall be lawful nevertheless for such plaintiff, when he shall again be in a situation to sue out execution on such judgment, to proceed again by notice in manner aforesaid: Provided also that if the defendant appeals against such judgment no such notice shall be given, or if given no further proceeding shall be had thereon, pending such appeal.

Proviso.

Person disobeying order of court for payment of money after service of peremptory order an act of insolvency.

13 If any decree or order shall be pronounced in any cause depending in any court, or any order shall be made in any matter of insolvency against any person residing in this island, ordering such person to pay any sum of money, and such person shall disobey such decree or order, the same having been personally served upon him, and no appeal against the same shall be pending, the person entitled to receive such sum under such decree or order, or interested in enforcing the payment thereof pursuant thereto, may make an ex parte application to the court by which the same shall have been pronounced to fix a peremptory day for the payment of such money, which shall accordingly be fixed by an order for that purpose ; and if such debtor, being personally served with such last-mentioned order thirty days before the day therein appointed for payment of such money, shall neglect to pay the same, every such debtor shall be deemed to have committed an act of insolvency on the thirty-first day after the service of such order.

14 If any accredited agent of any body corporate or public company shall have had notice of any act of insolvency, such body corporate or company shall be deemed to have had such notice.

Notice of acts of insolvency to agents of corporate bodies. &c.

15 No person shall be liable to be adjudged insolvent by reason of any act of insolvency committed more than twelve months prior to the filing of any petition for sequestration of his estate ; and no adjudication of insolvency shall be deemed invalid by reason of any act of insolvency prior to the debt of the petitioning creditor, provided there be a sufficient act of insolvency subsequent to such debt.

No person liable upon an act of insolvency committed more than 12 months before petition.

And with respect to the proceedings before the estate of any person is adjudged insolvent : -

16 Proceedings to obtain the sequestration of the estate of any person as insolvent shall be by petition to the district court of the district in which the debtor shall have resided or carried on business for six months next immediately preceding the time of filing such petition, except where otherwise in this Ordinance specially provided (such petition if presented by a creditor, being in the form B in the schedule annexed to this Ordinance, and the truth thereof verified by the affidavit of the petitioner in the form C in such schedule ; and if presented by a person against himself under the twentieth section of this Ordinance, being in the form D specified in such schedule, and the truth thereof and of the matters required to be stated in the list annexed to such petition verified by the affidavit of such person in the form C specified in such schedule) ; and every such petition shall be filed of record and prosecuted as directed by this Ordinance ; and from and after the filing of such petition the said court shall have full power and authority to take such order and direction with the body of the insolvent as mentioned in this Ordinance, as also with all his property, real and personal, which he shall have in his own right before he became insolvent, as also with all such interest in any such property as such insolvent may lawfully part with, and with all his money, fees, annuities, goods, wares, merchandise, and debts, wheresoever they may be found or known, and to make or order sale thereof in manner herein mentioned, or otherwise order the same for satisfaction and payment of the creditors of such insolvent.

any district, &c.

17 Provided that the Supreme Court or any judge thereof shall have power, whenever such court or judge may deem it expedient, to order any petition against or by any person for the sequestration of his estate, to be prosecuted in any district court with or without reference to the district in which such person resided or carried on business, and whether or not such person has resided or carried on his business for six months preceding the filing of such petition, and whether or not such person has carried on his business for that time in any particular district; or to consolidate the proceedings or any part thereof under two or more petitions for the sequestration of such estate, or to transfer any petition for such sequestration and the proceedings thereunder, and the prosecution or the further prosecution thereof, from any one district court to any other district court, and the court to which any such transfer shall be made shall have and exercise full jurisdiction therein; and any such order by the Supreme Court, or by any judge thereof, may be in such of the forms E, F, or G in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed as may be adapted to the case, or to the like effect.

Petitioning
creditor's debt :

18 The amount of the debt of any creditor petitioning for sequestration of the estate of any person as insolvent shall be as follows; that is to say, the single debt of such creditor, or of two or more persons being partners, so petitioning shall amount to fifty pounds or upwards; and the debt of two creditors so petitioning shall amount to seventy pounds or upwards; and the debt of three or more creditors so petitioning shall amount to one hundred pounds or upwards; and every person who has given credit to any person upon valuable consideration for any sum payable at a certain time, which time shall not have arrived when such person committed an act of insolvency, may so petition or join in petitioning, whether he shall have had any security in writing for such sum or not.

Petition by public officer of certain co-partnership.

19 A petition for sequestration as insolvent of the estate of any person indebted in the amount aforesaid to any co-partnership, duly authorized to sue and be sued in the name of a public officer of such co-partnership, may be filed by such public officer as the nominal petitioner for and on behalf of such co-partnership.

erson may

petitioner's property, and an inventory of the same, and of the debts owing to him, with their dates, as nearly as such dates can be stated, and the names of his debtors, and the nature of the securities (if any) which he has for such debts: Provided that unless such person shall forthwith after the filing of his petition, and before adjudication of insolvency thereunder, make it appear to the satisfaction of the court that his available estate is sufficient to pay his creditors at least five shillings in the pound, clear of all charges (to be estimated by the court) of prosecuting the petition, such petition shall be dismissed, and no further petition shall be filed by such person in the same district without the leave of the court first obtained for that purpose; and the adjudication on any further petition shall be subject to the like condition as aforesaid as to the available estate of the petitioner: Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for any person, whatever the amount of his available estate, who shall be in actual custody within the walls of any prison in this colony, upon any writ of execution against his person, or other like process, for or by reason of any debt, damages, or costs, at any time after twenty-one days from the commencement of the actual custody of such prisoner, to file a declaration of insolvency, and to petition for the sequestration as an insolvent of his own estate.

Proviso.

So also may an insolvent prisoner.

21 If the petitioning creditor in any petition for sequestration of his debtor's estate as insolvent shall not proceed and obtain adjudication within three days after his petition shall have been filed, or within such extended time as shall be allowed by the court, the court may at any time within fourteen days then next following, upon the application of any other creditor to the amount required to constitute a petitioning creditor, proceed to adjudicate on such petition, upon the proof of the debt of such second-mentioned creditor and of the other requisites to support such petition (except the debt of the petitioning creditor); but if neither the petitioner nor any other creditor shall within such fourteen days, or within such extended time as may be granted by the court for that purpose, apply to the court to adjudicate upon such petition, no further proceeding shall be taken thereon.

If adjudication be not obtained within three days after petition, any other creditor may proceed on it.

22 Any creditor whose debt is sufficient to entitle him to petition for the sequestration as insolvent of the estate of all the partners of any firm may petition for such sequestration against one or more partners of such firm, and every such petition shall be valid, although it does not include all the partners of the firm; and in every petition for sequestration against two or more persons the court may dismiss the same as to one or more of such persons, and the validity of such petition shall not be thereby affected as to any person as to whom such petition is not ordered to be dismissed, nor shall any such person's certificate be thereby affected.

Petitions may be presented against one or more partners in a firm; and petitions against two or more may be dismissed as to one without affecting the others.

Insolvent Estates.

If one member of a firm be insolvent, a petition against the others shall be filed in the same court.

23 After a petition for sequestration filed against or by one or more member or members of a firm, any petition for sequestration against or by any other member of such firm shall be filed and prosecuted in the court in which the first petition was prosecuted; and immediately after the adjudication under such other petition all the estate, real and personal, of any such insolvent shall vest in the assignee, if any, under the first petition; and thereafter all separate proceedings under such other petition shall be stayed, and such petition shall, without affecting the validity of the first petition, be annexed to and form part of the same: Provided that the Supreme Court, or any judge thereof, may direct that such other petition shall be filed and prosecuted in any other district court, or be proceeded in, either separately or in conjunction with the first petition.

Providio

After petition filed, if the insolvent be about to quit this colony, or to remove or conceal his goods, he may be arrested and his goods seized.

24 Whenever any petition for sequestration as insolvent of the estate of any person shall have been filed against any person, and it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the court in which such petition has been filed that there is probable cause for believing that such person is about to quit this colony, or to remove or conceal any of his goods with intent to defraud his creditors, unless he be forthwith apprehended, it shall be lawful for the court to issue a warrant, directed to the fiscal, or to such person as the court shall think fit, whereby such fiscal or other person shall have authority to arrest the person against whom such petition shall have been filed, and also to seize his books, papers, monies, securities for monies, goods, and effects, wheresoever he or they may be found, and him and them safely keep until the expiration of the time allowed for adjudication on such petition, or until such person shall be adjudged insolvent under such petition, and be thereon dealt with according to this Ordinance: Provided that any person arrested upon any such warrant, or any person whose books, papers, monies, securities for monies, goods, or effects have been seized under any such warrant, may apply at any time after such arrest or seizure to the court for an order or rule on the petitioning creditor to show cause why the person arrested should not be discharged out of custody, or why his books, papers, monies, securities for monies, goods, and effects should not be delivered up to him; and it shall be lawful for such court to make absolute or discharge such order or rule.

Person so arrested may apply to the court for his discharge.

Court, before adjudication, may summon witnesses to prove act of insolvency.

25 The court, before adjudication, may summon before it any person whom such court shall believe capable of giving any information concerning any act of insolvency committed by the person against whom any petition for the sequestration of his estate as insolvent has been filed, and may require any person so summoned to produce any books, papers, deeds, writings, and other documents in his custody, possession, or power which may appear to the court to be necessary to establish such act of insolvency; and it shall be lawful for the court to examine any such person upon oath, by word of mouth, or interrogatories in writing, concerning such act of insolvency ; and such court, before or at the time of adjudication, may examine the person by or against whom any such petition has been presented, or any other person, as to the probable value of the property of such first-mentioned person available for the payment of his debts.

And with respect to the adjudication of the estate of any person as insolvent, and the proceedings for securing the property and surrender of the insolvent :

26 The district court, under a petition filed by a creditor, shall, upon proof of the petitioning creditor's debt and of the act of insolvency of the person against whom such petition is filed, adjudge such person insolvent ; or if in case of the failure of the petitioning creditor to proceed and obtain adjudication within three days after his petition shall have been filed, or within such extended time as may be allowed by the court, another creditor shall apply for adjudication upon such petition, then upon such application, and proof of such creditor's debt, and of the act of insolvency of the person against whom such petition is filed, the court shall adjudge such person insolvent ; and under a petition filed by any person against himself the court, upon the application of such person, and upon proof of the filing a declaration of insolvency, and of the sufficiency of his available estate to the extent required by this Ordinance, or upon proof of the filing of such declaration of insolvency, and that such person has been in actual custody within the walls of a prison for debt for more than twenty-one days, shall adjudge such person insolvent.

Adjudication, and upon what proof.

27 Forthwith, after any person shall be adjudged insolvent, the district court shall issue to the fiscal an order (in the form H in the schedule annexed to this Ordinance) placing the estate of the insolvent under sequestration in his hands, and such fiscal shall enter and lay an attachment on the estate, under inventory thereof ; and when the same shall be sequestered upon the petition of any creditor the said fiscal shall be accompanied by the petitioning creditor, or some one authorized by him, on behalf of himself and the other creditors of the said estate ; and when the said estate shall be sequestered upon the petition of any insolvent against himself it shall be lawful for any of the creditors, or for the agent of any of the creditors, of the insolvent to accompany the fiscal and to be present with him while making out the inventory aforesaid.

Attachment
upon the estate, and how to be made.

28 When any personal property belonging to any insolvent is attached as aforesaid in virtue of any order for the sequestration thereof, the fiscal making such attachment shall leave with the person in whose possession any such property is attached a copy of the said inventory, having subjoined thereto a notice in the English language, and also, if he does not understand English, in the language spoken by such person, that the property therein specified has been attached by the said fiscal, by virtue of an order of the court for the sequestration thereof; and any person who, knowing the same to have been so attached, shall dispose of, remove, conceal, or receive the same, or any part thereof, with intent to defeat the said attachment, shall be liable on conviction of such offence to be transported for any period not exceeding seven years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding five years: Provided that it shall be lawful for such fiscal to secure on the premises, by sealing up in any room or repository, any articles which in the discharge of his duty it shall seem to him expedient so to secure, causing no unnecessary hindrance or inconvenience to any party by so doing, or to leave some person on the premises in charge thereof; and the said fiscal shall forthwith report his execution of the said attachment to the said court, and the court may give such directions for the safe custody of the said property as shall seem fit.

If petitioning creditor's debt insufficient, court may proceed upon the application of any other creditor.

29 If, after adjudication of insolvency, the debt of the petitioning creditor be found by the court to be insufficient to support such adjudication, it shall be lawful for the court, upon the application of any other creditor having proved any debt sufficient to support an adjudication, to order the petition for sequestration to be proceeded in, and it shall by such order be deemed valid, which order may be in the form I in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, or to the like effect.

Insolvent to have notice of adjudication, and to be allowed a certain time to show cause against it before advertisement.

30 Before notice of any adjudication of insolvency shall be given in the Gazette of this colony, and at or before the time of putting in execution any order of sequestration which shall have been granted upon such adjudication, a duplicate of such adjudication shall be served on the person adjudged insolvent, personally or by leaving the same at the usual or last known place of abode or place of business of such person; and such person shall be allowed seven days, or such extended time not exceeding fourteen days in the whole as the court shall think fit, from the service of such duplicate, to show cause to the court against the validity of such adjudication; and if such person shall within such time show to the satisfaction of the court that the petitioning creditor's debt, and the act of insolvency upon which such adjudication has been grounded, or either of such matters, are insufficient to support such adjudication, and upon such showing no other creditor's debt and act of insolvency sufficient to support such adjudication, or such of the said last-mentioned matters as shall be requisite to support such adjudication, in lieu of the petitioning creditor's debt and act of insolvency, or either of such matters which shall be deemed insufficient in that behalf, as the case may be, shall be proved to the satisfaction of the court, the court shall thereupon order (in the form K in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, or to the like effect) such adjudication to be annulled, and the same shall by such order be annulled accordingly; but if at the expiration of the said time no cause shall have been shown to the satisfaction of the court for the annulling of such adjudication, the court shall forthwith, after the expiration of such time, cause notice of such adjudication to be given in the said Gazette, and, if the court considers it expedient, in the London Gazette and in the Gazettes published at each of the presidencies of India, and shall thereby appoint two public sittings of the court for the insolvent to surrender and conform, the last of which sittings shall be on a day not less than thirty days and not exceeding sixty days from such advertisement in the Gazette of this colony, and shall be the day limited for such surrender; and copies and translations of such advertisement shall also be affixed on the wall of the district court and of the nearest cutcherry: Provided that the court shall have power from time to time to enlarge the time for the insolvent surrendering himself for such time as the court shall think fit, so as every such order be made six days at least before the day on which such insolvent was to surrender himself; and also from time to time to adjourn either of the said sittings if the court shall deem it necessary to do so: Provided also that if any person so adjudged insolvent shall, before the expiration of the time allowed for showing cause, surrender himself and give his consent, testified in writing under his hand, to such adjudication being advertised, the court after such consent so given shall forthwith cause the notice of adjudication to be advertised, and appoint the sittings for the insolvent to surrender and conform.

Proviso.

Adjudication may, with insolvent's consent, be advertised before the time for showing cause.

31 Forthwith after the insertion of the notice of adjudication in the Gazette of this colony, or, if the insolvent before the expiration of the time allowed for showing cause against the adjudication surrender himself and give consent to such insertion, forthwith after such surrender, the insolvent shall (if thereto required by the court) deliver up to the court upon oath all books of account, papers, and writings relating to his estate in his custody or power, and discover such as are in the custody or power of any other person; and every insolvent not in prison or custody shall at all times after such surrender attend the assignees, upon every reasonable notice in writing for that purpose given by them to him or left at his usual or last known place of abode, and shall assist such assignees in making out the accounts of his estate; and such insolvent after he shall have surrendered may, at all reasonable times before the expiration of such time as shall be allowed to him to finish his examination, inspect his books, papers, and writings in the presence of his assignees, or any person appointed by them, and bring with him each time any two persons to assist him; and every such insolvent after he shall have obtained his certificate shall, upon demand in writing given to him or left at his usual or last known place of abode, attend the assignees to settle any accounts between his estate and any debtor to or creditor thereof, or attend any court to give evidence touching the same, or do any act necessary for getting in or protecting the said estate, for which attendance he shall be paid by the assignees out of his estate such sum, not exceeding ten shillings per day, as they shall deem reasonable.

Search warrants in what cases.

32 In all cases where it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the district court that there is reason to suspect and believe that any property of any insolvent is concealed in any house or other place not belonging to such insolvent, the court may grant a search warrant to the fiscal or other person appointed by the court, and it shall be lawful for such fiscal or other person to execute such warrant according to the tenor thereof ; and such fiscal or other person shall be entitled to the same protection as is allowed by law in execution of a search warrant for property reputed to be stolen, and every such search warrant shall be in the form L in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, or to the like effect.

No action against persons for acting under warrant of the court, without demand of copy of warrant.

33 No action shall be brought against any fiscal or other person appointed by the court for anything done in obedience to any warrant of the court, unless demand of the perusal and copy of such warrant hath been made or left at the usual place of abode of such fiscal or other person by the party intending to bring such action, or by his proctor or agent, in writing, signed by the party demanding the same, and unless the same hath been refused or neglected for six days after such demand ; and if after such demand, and compliance therewith, any action be brought against such fiscal or person so appointed, without making the petitioning creditor defendant, if living, the court at the trial of such action, on the production and proof of such warrant, shall give judgment for the defendant, notwithstanding any defect of jurisdiction in the court by which such warrant shall have been granted; and if such action be brought against the petitioning creditor and the fiscal or person so appointed, the court shall, on proof of such warrant, give judgment for such fiscal or person so appointed, notwithstanding any such defect of jurisdiction ; and if the judgment shall be given against the petitioning creditor, the plaintiff shall recover his costs against him, to be taxed so as to include such costs as the plaintiff is liable to pay to the fiscal or person so appointed as aforesaid.

Proof in such actions that defendant is petitioning creditor sufficient to render him liable.

34 In any such action brought against the petitioning creditor, either alone or jointly with any fiscal or other person so appointed by the court, for anything done in obedience to the warrant of the court, proof by the plaintiff in such action that the defendant or defendants or any of them is or are petitioning creditor or creditors shall be sufficient for the purpose of making such defendant or defendants liable in the same manner and to the same extent as if the act complained of in such action had been done or committed by such defendant or defendants.

Fiscal may break open the insolvent's doors, &c., and seize upon his body or property.

35 It shall be lawful for any fiscal, acting under warrant of the court, to break open any house, chamber, shop, warehouse, door, trunk, or chest of any insolvent where such insolvent or any of his property shall be reputed to be, and seize upon the body or property of such insolvent ; and if the insolvent be in prison or in custody it shall be lawful for the fiscal to seize any property of the insolvent (his necessary wearing apparel only excepted) in the custody or possession of such insolvent or of any other person, in any prison or place where such insolvent is in custody.

36* If the insolvent be not in prison or custody at the date of the adjudication, he shall be free from arrest or imprisonment by any creditor in coming to surrender, and after such surrender during the time by this Ordinance limited for such surrender, and for such further time as shall be allowed him for finishing his examination, and for such time after finishing his examination until his certificate be allowed, as the court shall from time to time by endorsement upon the summons of such insolvent, or by writing under the hand of the judge of such court, think fit to appoint; and whenever any insolvent is in prison or in custody under any process, attachment, execution, commitment, or sentence, the court may by warrant directed to the person in whose custody he is confined cause him to be brought before it at any sitting, either public or private, and if he be desirous to surrender, he shall be so brought up, and the expense thereof shall be paid out of his estate, and such person shall be indemnified by the warrant of the court for bringing up such insolvent; and where any person who has been adjudged insolvent, and has surrendered and obtained his protection from arrest, is in prison or in custody for debt at the time of his obtaining such protection, the court may, except in the cases next hereinafter mentioned, order his immediate release, either absolutely or upon such conditions as it shall think fit: Provided that the court shall not order such release where it shall appear by any judgment, order, commitment, or sentence under which the insolvent is in prison or in custody, or by the record or entry of any such judgment, order, commitment, or sentence, and the pleadings or proceedings previously thereto, that he is in prison or in custody for any debt contracted by fraud or breach of trust, or by reason of any prosecution against him whereby he had been convicted of any offence, or for any debt contracted by reason of any judgment in any proceeding for breach of the revenue laws, or in any action for breach of promise of marriage, seduction, criminal conversation, libel, slander, assault, battery, malicious arrest, malicious trespass, or maliciously filing or prosecuting a petition for sequestration of the estate of any person as insolvent, unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the insolvent shall at the time of this Ordinance coming into operation, or at any time thereafter, have been in prison or custody under or by reason of any such judgment, order, commitment, or sentence as aforesaid for a period of or exceeding one year. Provided also that such release shall in nowise affect any rights of the creditor at whose suit the insolvent may be in prison or in custody against the insolvent, except the right of detaining him in prison or in custody, whilst protected from imprisonment by order of the court.

Insolvent not in custody to be free from arrest in coming to surrender, &c.

If in custody, he may be brought up to be examined, or to surrender. &c.; and if for debt, the court may, except in certain cases, order his release.

Proviso.

Court may order release of insolvent if in custody for debt contracted by fraud, &c., when detained for more than one year.

Insolvent Estates.

If arrested, to be discharged on producing protection.

37* If any insolvent shall be arrested for debt in coming to surrender, or shall after his surrender and while protected by order of the court be so arrested, he shall, on producing such protection to the officer who shall arrest him, and giving such officer a copy thereof, be immediately discharged; and if any officer shall detain any such insolvent after he shall have shown such protection to him, except for so long as shall be necessary for obtaining a copy of the same, such officer shall forfeit to such insolvent, for his own use, the sum of five pounds for every day he shall detain such insolvent, to be recovered by action in any competent court in the name of such insolvent, with costs of suit.

Petitioning creditor to proceed at his own costs until choice of assignees.

38 The petitioning creditor shall, at his own cost, file and prosecute his petition until the choice of assignees by the creditors; and the court shall at or after the sitting for such choice make order for the payment thereof out of the estate of the insolvent.

No objection to petition for sequestration, that the act of insolvency was concerted.

39 No petition for sequestration of the estate of any person as insolvent shall be dismissed, nor any adjudication thereon reversed, by reason only that the petition, or adjudication, or act of insolvency has been concerted or agreed upon between the insolvent, his proctor or agent, or any of them, and any creditor or other person.

Court may proceed notwithstanding death of insolvent.

40 If any person shall die after he has been adjudged insolvent, the court may proceed in the matter of such insolvency as if such insolvent were living.

Court may summon and examine insolvent.

41 The court may summon any insolvent before it, whether such insolvent shall have obtained his certificate or not; and in case he shall not come at the time appointed by the court (having no lawful impediment made known to and allowed by the court at such time), it shall be lawful for the court, by warrant, to authorize and direct the fiscal, or any person the court shall think fit, to apprehend and arrest such insolvent and bring him before the court; and upon the appearance of such insolvent, or if such insolvent be present at any sitting of the court, it shall be lawful for the court to examine or to permit the examination by the creditors of such insolvent after he shall have made and signed a declaration in the form M in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, either by word of mouth or on interrogatories in writing, touching all matters relating to his trade, dealings, or estate, or which may tend to disclose any secret grant, conveyance, or concealment of his lands, goods, money, or debts, and to reduce his answers into writing, which examination, so reduced into writing, the said insolvent shall sign.

Court may summon and examine the insolvent's wife.

42 It shall be lawful for the court to summon before it the wife of any insolvent, and to examine her, or to permit her examination by the creditors of such insolvent, after she shall have made and signed a declaration in the form M in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, either by word of mouth or interrogatories in writing, for the finding out and discovery of the property of such insolvent concealed, kept, or disposed of by such wife in her own person or by her own act, or by any other person, and she shall incur such danger or penalty for not coming before the court, or for refusing to make and sign such declaration and to be examined, or to sign her examination, or for not fully answering to the satisfaction of the court, as is hereinafter provided.

43 If in any case it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the court that any insolvent is keeping out of the way and cannot be personally served with a summons, and that due pains have been taken to effect such personal service, or that there is probable cause for believing that he is about to quit this colony, or to remove or conceal any of his goods or effects, unless he be forthwith apprehended, it shall be lawful for such court, by warrant, to authorize and direct the fiscal, or any person it shall think fit, to apprehend and arrest such insolvent, and bring him before the court to be examined in like manner as if he appeared upon a summons.

If insolvent keep out of the way, or be about to quit this colony, &c., warrant.

44 After any person has been adjudged insolvent it shall be lawful for the district court to summon before it any person known or suspected to have any of the estate of the insolvent in his possession, or who is supposed to be indebted to the insolvent, or any person the court may believe capable of giving information concerning the person, trade, dealings, or estate of the insolvent, or concerning any act of insolvency committed by him, or any information material to the full disclosure of his dealings; and the court may require such person to produce any books, papers, deeds, writings, or other documents in his custody or power which may appear to the court necessary to the verification of the deposition of such person, or to the full disclosure of any of the matters which the court is authorized to inquire into; and if such person so summoned as aforesaid shall not come before the court at the time appointed, having no lawful impediment (made known to the court at the time of its sitting, and allowed by it), it shall be lawful for the court by warrant to authorize and direct the fiscal, or other person therein named for that purpose, to apprehend and arrest such person and bring him before the court for examination.

Court may summon persons suspected of having insolvent's property, &c., and if they fail to attend, warrant.

45 Where it shall be shown by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court that any person to whom any such summons is directed as aforesaid is keeping out of the way and cannot be personally served therewith, and that due pains have been taken to effect such personal service, it shall be lawful for the court to order by endorsement upon the summons that the delivery of a copy of such summons to the wife or servant, or some adult inmate of the house or family of the person at his usual or last known place of abode or business, and explaining the purport thereof to such wife, servant, or inmate, shall be equivalent to personal service; and in every such case the service of such summons in pursuance of such order shall be and be deemed and taken to be of the same force and effect to all intents and purposes as if the party to whom such summons was directed had been personally served therewith.

Power to examine persons summoned or present at any sitting.

46 Upon the appearance of any person summoned or brought before the court upon any warrant as aforesaid, or if any person be present at any sitting of the court, it shall be lawful for the court to examine or to permit the examination by the creditors of every such person upon oath, either by word of mouth or by interrogatories in writing, concerning the person, trade, dealings, or estate of any insolvent, or concerning any act of insolvency by any insolvent committed, and to reduce into writing the answers of every such person; and such answers so reduced into writing such person examined is hereby required to sign.

Court may order payment of debts admitted to be due to the estate;

47 If any such person examined as last aforesaid shall, in and by his examination signed as aforesaid, and also in and by a separate writing in the form N in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, admit that he is indebted to the insolvent in any sum of money upon the balance of accounts, it shall be lawful for the court, if it think fit, to order (in the form O in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, or to the like effect) that such person shall forthwith, or at such time and in such manner as to the court may seem expedient, pay the amount so admitted, in full discharge thereof, to the assignees, together with the costs of and incident to the summons of such person, if the court think fit to award costs, or the court may, if it think fit, in the said form O, order the assignees to pay the costs of the person summoned out of the estate of the insolvent; and every such order shall have the effect of a judgment in the said court, and may be enforced accordingly: Provided always that no such order shall be made unless such party has been informed by the judge of the effect of such admission before the same is signed as aforesaid: Provided also, that if part only of the sum actually due be so admitted, or if the court make an order for part only of the sum admitted, the residue may be recoverable in the same manner in all respects as if no such admission or order had been made.

may, upon any application to be made for that purpose, renew any such order for a like or for any other less period as often as may be necessary.

And with respect to the power of the district court over certain descriptions of property :

49 If any insolvent, at the time he commits the act of insolvency, shall, by the consent and permission of the true owner thereof, have in his possession, order, or disposition any goods or effects whereof he was reputed owner, or whereof he had taken upon him the sale or disposition as owner, the court shall have power to order the same to be sold or disposed of for the benefit of the creditors of the insolvent : Provided that nothing herein contained shall invalidate or affect any transfer or assignment of any ship or vessel, or any share thereof, made as a security for any debt, either by way of mortgage or assignment, duly registered according to the provisions of an Act made in the Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her Majesty, entitled "An Act for the registering of British vessels," or any of the Acts therein mentioned.

Goods in the possession, order, or disposition of the insolvent to be deemed his property.

Proviso for assignments of vessels under 8 & 9 Vict., c. 89.

50 But if there shall be found among the insolvent's property at the time of its seizure any wares, goods, or merchandise consigned to him for the special purpose of being sold by him on commission, or intrusted in his hands for any specific purpose, and which evidently are the property of the consignor or person so intrusting, notice thereof shall be transmitted to the owners as soon as possible, in order that they may take the necessary measures to secure their property, and the same shall be carefully preserved, and shall be delivered over to the lawful owners.

Consigned goods, &c., to be given up to the owner.

51 If any person adjudged insolvent under this Ordinance shall (except upon the marriage of any of his children, or for some valuable consideration) have conveyed, assigned, or transferred to any of his children, or to any other person, any real or personal property whatsoever, or have delivered or made over to any such person any bills, bonds, notes, or other securities, or have transferred his debts to any other person, or into any other person's name, such first-mentioned person being at the time of making any such conveyance, assignment, transfer, or delivery insolvent, the court shall have power to order any such property to be sold and disposed of for the benefit of the creditors under the insolvency; and every such sale shall be valid against the insolvent and such children and persons, and against all persons claiming under him.

Conveyances, &c., by insolvent without valuable consideration void.

52 No seizure or detention of the goods of any insolvent for rent made after an act of insolvency, and whether before or after the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate, shall be available for more than one year's rent accrued prior to the day of the filing of such petition, but the landlord or person to whom the rent shall be due shall be allowed to come in as creditor for the overplus of the rent due, and for which the goods seized shall not be available.

Seizure of goods for rent not to be available for more than one year's rent due; the landlord to prove for the residue.

Insolvent Estates.

Where insolvent is a trustee, the court may order conveyance or assignment to another trustee.

53 If any insolvent shall as trustee be seized, possessed of, or entitled to, either alone or jointly, any real or personal estate, or any interest secured upon or arising out of the same, or shall have standing in his name as trustee, either alone or jointly, any funds or annuities, or any of the stock of any public company in this colony, it shall be lawful for the court, on the petition of the person entitled in possession to the receipt of the rents, issues, and profits, dividends, interest, or produce thereof, on due notice given to all other persons (if any) interested therein, to order the assignees, and all persons whose act or consent thereto is necessary, to convey, assign, or transfer the said estate, interest, funds, or annuities to such person as the said court shall think fit, upon the same trusts as the said estate, interest, funds, or annuities were subject to before the insolvency, or such of them as shall be then subsisting and capable of taking effect, and also to receive and pay over the rents, issues, and profits, dividends, interest, or produce thereof as the said court shall direct.

Title to property sold not to be impeached unless insolvency disputed within a certain time.

54 No title to any real or personal estate sold under any insolvency shall be impeached by the insolvent, or any person claiming under him, in respect of any defect in the petition for sequestration, or in any of the proceedings under the same, unless the insolvent shall, within the time allowed by this Ordinance, have commenced proceedings to dispute, dismiss, or annul the petition or adjudication thereunder, and duly prosecuted the same.

The court, after adjudication, may order any agent of the insolvent to deliver over all monies, &c.

55 After the adjudication of insolvency in any case shall have been advertised in the Gazette of this colony, it shall be lawful for the court to order any treasurer or other officer, or any banker, attorney, proctor, or other agent of the insolvent, to pay and deliver over to the assignees, to the credit of the estate of such insolvent, all monies or securities for money in his custody, possession, or power as such officer or agent, and which he is not by law entitled to retain against the insolvent or his assignees.

And with respect to transactions with the insolvent, and executions against his property up to the time of the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate as insolvent, or within a limited time previously thereto :

Payment by insolvent ;

56 All payments really and bonâ fide made by any insolvent, or by any person on his behalf, before the filing of a petition for sequestration of his estate as insolvent, to any creditor of such insolvent, and all payments really and bonâ fide made to any insolvent before the filing of such petition, and all conveyances by any insolvent bonâ fide made and executed before the filing of such petition, and all contracts, dealings, and transactions by and with any insolvent really and bonâ fide made and entered into before the filing of such petition, and all executions and attachments against the lands of any insolvent bonâ fide executed by seizure, and all executions and attachments against the goods and effects of any insolvent bonâ fide executed and levied by seizure and sale before the date of the filing of such petition, shall be deemed to be valid notwithstanding any prior act of insolvency by such insolvent committed, provided the person so dealing with or paying to or being paid by such insolvent, or at whose suit or on whose account such execution or attachment shall have issued, had not at the time of such payment, conveyance, contract, dealing, or transaction, or at the time of such executing or levying such execution or attachment, or at the time of making any sale thereunder, notice of any prior act of insolvency by him committed : Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to give validity to any payment, or to any delivery or transfer of any goods or effects made by any insolvent being a fraudulent preference of any creditor of such insolvent, or to any conveyance or mortgage made or given by any insolvent by way of fraudulent preference of any creditor of such insolvent, or to any execution founded on a judgment on a power of attorney to confess judgment, or consent to a judgment given by any insolvent by way of fraudulent preference.

in what cases valid, if no notice of act of insolvency ;

but not to extend to fraudulent preferences, &c.

57 No purchase from any insolvent boná fide and for valuable consideration, where the purchaser had notice at the time of such purchase of an act of insolvency by such insolvent committed, shall be impeached by reason thereof, unless a petition for sequestration of the estate of such insolvent shall have been filed within twelve months after such act of insolvency.

Boná fide purchases not to be impeached by notice of act of insolvency, unless petition be filed within 12 months after the act of insolvency.

58 Every transaction, dealing, transfer, delivery, alienation, mortgage, pledge, or payment by any insolvent to or with any creditor of such insolvent, or to or with any other person, which by the law of England at the corresponding period would be and be deemed to be a fraudulent preference of one creditor before other creditors in any proceeding in bankruptcy, or in any suit or action, shall, in the like case arising within this colony, be and be deemed to be a fraudulent preference according to the true intent and meaning of this Ordinance.

Fraudulent preferences according to the law of England to be deemed such in like cases within this colony.

59 Every power of attorney to confess judgment in any personal action given by any insolvent after the commencement of this Ordinance, and within two months of the filing of a petition for sequestration of his estate by or against such insolvent, and being for or in respect of (wholly or in part) an antecedent debt or money demand, and every consent to a judgment given by any insolvent at any time after the commencement of this Ordinance, and within two months of the filing of any such petition, in any action commenced by collusion with the insolvent, and not adversely or purporting to have been given in an action, but having been in fact given before the commencement of any action against the insolvent, such insolvent being unable to meet his engagements at the time of giving such power of attorney or consent (as the case may be), shall be deemed and taken to be null and void, whether the same shall have been given by such insolvent in contemplation of the sequestration of his estate as insolvent or not.

Certain powers of attorney to confess judgment, and consents to judgments, given within two months of filing petition, to be null and void.

Insolvent Estates.

And with respect to stamps :

Deeds and other instruments relating to insolvency not liable to stamp duty.

60 No deed, conveyance, assignment, admission, or other assurance of or to or relating solely to any lands, or to any mortgage, charge, or other incumbrance upon, or any estate, right, or interest of and in any lands or personal estate, being the estate of or belonging to any insolvent, or part or parcel thereof, and which after the execution of such deed, conveyance, assignment, or assurance respectively shall either be or remain the estate and property of such insolvent, or of the assignees appointed or chosen under any insolvency, and no power of attorney, order, certificate of conformity, affidavit, or other instrument or writing whatsoever relating solely to the estate or effects of any insolvent, or to any part thereof, or to any proceeding under any insolvency, and no affidavit, bond, or other proceeding under this Ordinance relating solely to insolvency matters, shall be liable to any stamp duty, save and except such stamp duty as is mentioned in schedule P* to this Ordinance annexed.

Certain documents to be stamped.

61 Every document enumerated in the schedule P* to this Ordinance annexed shall be printed or written upon paper having the stamp duty set opposite to such document respectively in such schedule: Provided that where any such document shall consist of more than one sheet only the first sheet thereof shall be impressed with such stamp.

Provisions of Stamp Ordinance to extend to stamps under this Ordinance.

62 The provisions contained in the Ordinance for the time being in force relating to stamps shall (so far as the same are applicable and consistent with the provisions of this Ordinance), in all cases not hereby expressly provided for, be of full force and effect with respect to the stamps to be provided under and by virtue of this Ordinance, and to the paper on which the same shall be impressed, and shall be applied and put in execution for collecting and securing the sums of money denoted thereby, and for preventing, detecting, and punishing all frauds, forgeries, and other offences relating thereto, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if such provisions had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said last-mentioned stamps and sums of money respectively.

Documents not to be received unless stamped.

63 No document which by this Ordinance is required to have a stamp impressed thereon shall be received or filed or be used in relation to any proceedings in the court, or be of any validity for any purpose whatever, unless or until the same shall have a stamp impressed thereon: Provided that if at any time it shall appear that any such document which ought to have had a stamp impressed thereon has, through mistake or inadvertence, been received or filed or used without having such stamp, it shall be lawful for the court, if it think fit, to order that such stamp shall be impressed thereon; and thereupon, when a stamp shall have been impressed on such document in compliance with such order, such document and every proceeding in reference thereto shall be as valid and effectual as if such stamp had been impressed thereon in the first instance.

And with respect to the appointment by the court of provisional assignees :

64 It shall be lawful for the district court, on cause shown by any person interested in the due administration of the insolvent estate at any time after the adjudication of insolvency, by order of court to appoint one or more fit person or persons to be assignee or assignees of any insolvent estate provisionally, and until the creditors of the said estate shall have made choice of assignees, which provisional assignees may be removed at the meeting of creditors for the choice of assignees if the said creditors shall think fit, or may then be chosen as assignees, but shall and may, until so removed, act in the collection, administration, and distribution of the said estate in all respects the same as assignees elected by the creditors are by this Ordinance authorized or required to do : Provided that no such provisional assignees shall proceed to make sale of any part of the said estate without the authority for that purpose of the said court first had and obtained.

As to appointment by court of provisional assignee.

Proviso.

65 Every order of court appointing provisional assignees shall, so soon as made, have the effect in law to vest in such provisional assignees for the uses and purposes of the sequestration, and until their removal, all the present and future estate of the insolvent, real and personal, as fully and completely to all intents and purposes as the said estate is by virtue of the 70th and 71st sections of this Ordinance vested in the assignees chosen by the creditors.

Effect of appointment of provisional assignee.

And with respect to the choice of assignees, and their rights and duties :

66 At the first public sitting appointed by the court under any insolvency, or at any adjournment thereof, assignees of the insolvent's estate and effects shall and may be chosen and appointed ; and all creditors who have proved debts to the amount of ten pounds and upwards shall be entitled to vote in such choice ; and also any person authorized by letter of attorney from any such creditor, upon proof of the execution thereof, either by affidavit or by oath before the court vivá voce ; and the choice and appointment shall be made by the major part in value of the creditors so entitled to vote : Provided that the court shall have power to reject any person so chosen who shall appear to such court unfit to be an assignee, or to remove any assignee ; and upon such rejection or removal a new choice and appointment of another assignee shall be made in like manner.

Assignees when and how chosen.

Court may reject or remove any person chosen as unfit.

67 If one or more of the partners of a firm be adjudged insolvent, any creditor to whom the insolvent is indebted jointly with the other partners of the firm, or any of them, shall be entitled to prove his debt for the purpose only of voting in the choice of assignees and of being heard against the allowance of the insolvent's certificate, or of either of such purposes ; but such creditor shall not receive any dividend out of the separate estate of the insolvent until all the separate creditors shall have received the full amount of their respective debts.

Who incompetent to be appointed assignee.

68 In no case shall it be competent for the creditors to elect as assignee the insolvent himself, or any person related to the insolvent by consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree, nor any minor, nor any proctor, nor any person not resident within this colony, nor any person having an interest opposed to the general interest of the creditors in the insolvent estate, nor any person declared to be incapable of being elected by virtue of the provisions in the next succeeding section contained.

Acts of assignee entitling the court to set election aside, and declare offender disqualified.

69 If any person elected as assignee shall be proved to the satisfaction of the district court to have, either directly or indirectly, given or promised to give to any creditor of the insolvent any species of valuable consideration whatsoever, in order to obtain the vote of such creditor at the choice of assignees, or to have agreed to secure and make good to any creditor some certain sum or dividend in discharge or diminution of his debt, upon condition or in order that such creditor should give his vote to such assignee, or to have offered or agreed, in case any creditor of the insolvent should consent to vote for such assignee, to abstain from opening up or investigating some previous transactions between such creditor and the insolvent which were, or were supposed to be, of questionable validity, or to have contrived or been privy to any plan or arrangement by which debts or securities really belonging to some one or more persons have been divided amongst a greater number of persons for the purpose merely of increasing the number of votes at the election for assignees and thereby influencing the same, or to have undertaken to share with any creditor of the insolvent, in return for his vote, the commission or remuneration to be awarded to him as such assignee, the court shall declare such assignee to have forfeited the office of such assignee in regard to the insolvent estate for which he shall have been elected, and to be incapable of being again elected thereto ; and it shall be lawful for such court, if it should so think fit, to further declare that the person so offending shall be incapable of being elected an assignee under the provisions of this Ordinance for and during his natural life, or for such period as such court shall determine and adjudge ; and any person interested in the due administration of the insolvent estate may apply by motion to such court to declare any such assignee to have forfeited his office by reason of any such misconduct as aforesaid ; and as often as a vacancy in the office of assignee shall be created by any such forfeiture the court declaring the same shall order a new assignee to be chosen by the creditors, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as on the original election of assignees.

Insolvent Estates.

70 When any person shall have been adjudged an insolvent all his personal estate and effects, present and future, wheresoever the same may be found or known, and all property which he may purchase, or which may revert, descend, be devised or bequeathed, or come to him before he shall have obtained his certificate, and all debts due or to be due to him, wheresoever the same may be found or known, and the property, right, and interest in such debts, shall become absolutely vested in the assignees for the time being, for the benefit of the creditors of the insolvent, by virtue of their appointment; and after such appointment neither the insolvent nor any person claiming through or under him shall have power to recover the same, nor to make any release or discharge thereof; but such assignees shall have like remedy to recover the same in their own names as the insolvent himself might have had if he had not been adjudged insolvent.

Personal estate to vest in
assignees.

71 When any person shall have been adjudged an insolvent, all lands in this colony to which any insolvent is entitled, and all interests to which such insolvent is entitled in any such lands, and of which he might according to the laws of this colony have disposed, and all such lands in this colony as he shall purchase, or as shall descend, be devised, revert to, or come to such insolvent before he shall have obtained his certificate, and all deeds, papers, and writings respecting the same, shall become absolutely vested in the assignees for the time being, for the benefit of the creditors of the insolvent, by virtue of their appointment, without any deed of conveyance for that purpose, and as often as any such assignee shall die or be lawfully removed or displaced, and a new assignee shall be duly appointed, such of the aforesaid real estate as shall remain unsold or unconveyed shall, by virtue of such appointment, vest in the new assignee, either alone or jointly with the existing assignees, as the case may require, without any conveyance for that purpose.

Real estate
assignees.

72 If the assignees of the estate and effects of any insolvent having or being entitled to any land under a conveyance to him, or under an agreement for any such conveyance, subject to any perpetual yearly rent reserved by such conveyance or agreement, or having or being entitled to any lease or agreement for a lease, shall elect to take such land, or the benefit of such conveyance or agreement, or such lease or agreement for a lease, as the case may be, the insolvent shall not be liable to pay any rent accruing after the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate against him, or to be sued in respect of any subsequent non-observance or non-performance of the conditions, covenants, or agreements in any such conveyance or agreement, or lease or agreement for a lease; and if the assignees shall decline to take such land, or the benefit of such conveyance or agreement or lease or agreement for lease, the insolvent shall not be liable if, within fourteen days after he shall have had notice that the assignees have declined, he shall deliver up such conveyance or agreement or lease or agreement for lease to the person then entitled to the rent, or having so agreed to lease, as the case may be; and if the assignees shall not (upon being thereto required) elect whether they will accept or decline such land or conveyance or agreement for conveyance, or such lease or agreement for a lease, any person entitled to such rent, or having so conveyed or agreed to convey, or leased or agreed to lease, or any person claiming under him, shall be entitled to apply to the district court, and the district court may order them to elect and deliver up such conveyance or agreement for conveyance, or lease or agreement for lease, in case they shall decline the same, and the possession of the premises, or may make such other order therein as it shall think fit.

Assignees how compelled to elect whether they will abide by or decline agreement for the purchase of land.

73 If any insolvent shall have entered into any agreement for the purchase of any estate or interest in land, the vendor thereof, or any person claiming under him, if the assignees shall not (upon being thereto required) elect whether they will abide by and execute such agreement or abandon the same, may apply to the district court, and the court may thereupon order them to deliver up the agreement and the possession of the premises to the vendor or person claiming under him, or may make such other order therein as such court shall think fit.

Assignees may execute power vested in the insolvent.

74 All powers vested in any insolvent which he might legally execute for his own benefit may be executed by the assignees for the benefit of the creditors in such manner as the insolvent might have executed the same.

Court may order insolvent to join in conveyances.

75 It shall be lawful for the district court, upon the application of the assignees or of any purchaser from them of any part of the insolvent's estate, if such insolvent shall not try the validity of the adjudication, or if there shall have been a judgment establishing its validity, to order the insolvent to join in any conveyance of such estate or any part thereof; and if he shall not execute any such conveyance within the time directed by the order, such insolvent and all persons claiming under him shall be stopped from objecting to the validity of such conveyance, and all estate, right, or title which such insolvent had therein shall be as effectually barred by such order as if such conveyance had been executed by him.

Property mortgaged or pledged may be redeemed by the assignees.

76 If any insolvent shall have granted, conveyed, assured, or pledged any real or personal estate, or deposited any deeds, such grant, conveyance, assurance, pledge, or deposit being upon condition or power of redemption at a future day by payment of money or otherwise, the assignees may, before the time of the performance of such condition, make tender or payment of money or other performance, according to such condition, as fully as the insolvent might have done, and after such tender, payment, or performance such real or personal estate may be sold and disposed of for the benefit of the creditors.

78 The assignees shall be subject to the orders of the district court in their conduct as assignees; and it shall be lawful for the court at all times to summon the assignees, and require them to produce all books, papers, deeds, writings, and other documents relating to the insolvency in their possession, and to direct them to pay and deliver over to the court all monies, books, papers, deeds, writings, and other documents which may have come to their possession or custody as such assignees.

Assignees to be subject to orders of the court.

79 If any person adjudged insolvent shall at the time of the adjudication of insolvency be a member of a firm, it shall be lawful for the district court to authorize the assignees, upon their application, to commence or prosecute any action in the name of such assignees and of the remaining partner against any debtor of the partnership, and such judgment, decree, or order may be obtained therein as if such action had been instituted with the consent of such partner, and if such partner shall execute any release of the debt or demand for which such action is instituted such release shall be void; provided that every such partner shall have notice given him of such application, and be at liberty to show cause against it, and if no benefit be claimed by him by virtue of the said proceedings, shall be indemnified against the payment of any costs in respect of such action in such manner as the court may direct; and it shall be lawful for such court, upon the application of such partner, to direct that he may receive so much of the proceeds of such action as such court shall direct.

Where one of a firm is insolvent, the court may authorize action in name of the assignees and of the other partner.

Partner to have notice, and may show cause.

80 The assignees shall, subject to the directions of the creditors given at any meeting of such creditors, forthwith proceed to make sale of all the property belonging to the insolvent, real and personal, giving due notice thereof in the Government Gazette, and also such other notice as they shall think fit; provided that from the sale of the said personal property shall be excepted, until the creditors shall determine thereon, the wearing apparel, bedding, household furniture, and tools of trade of the insolvent and his family; and provided that the sale of all real property shall take place in such manner and under such conditions as shall be determined on by the greater part in number and value of the creditors present at any meeting duly summoned; provided, however, that such conditions shall be subject to the approval or disapproval of the district court on the application of any person interested therein.

82 The assignees, with the leave of the district court first obtained, upon application to such court, but not otherwise, may commence, prosecute, or defend any action which the insolvent might have commenced and prosecuted or defended, and in such case the costs to which they may be put in respect of such action shall be allowed out of the proceeds of the estate and effects of the insolvent; and with like leave of the court, after notice to the creditors, and subject to such condition (if any) as to obtaining the consent of creditors, or any proportion of them as the court shall think fit to direct, the assignees may take such reasonable part of any debt due to the insolvent's estate as may by composition be obtained, or may give time or take security for the payment of such debts, and may, with like leave of the court, submit to arbitration any difference or dispute between the assignees and any other person for or on account or by reason of anything relating to the estate and effects of the insolvent.

83 If the assignees shall agree in manner aforesaid to refer any matter in dispute to arbitration, such agreement of reference may be made a rule of court, whether such agreement contain a clause to that effect or not.

84 All persons from whom the assignees shall have recovered any real or personal estate, either by judgment or decree, are hereby discharged, in case the petition for sequestration or the adjudication of insolvency thereunder be afterwards annulled or dismissed, from all demands which may thereafter be made in respect of the same by the person against whom such adjudication was made, and all persons claiming under him; and all persons who shall, without action, bonâ fide deliver up possession of any real or personal estate to the assignees, or pay any debt claimed by them, are hereby discharged from all claim of any such person as aforesaid in respect of the same, or any person claiming under him; provided the person so delivering up any real or personal estate, or paying any debt, shall not have had notice of an action or other proceeding to dispute or annul the petition for sequestration or adjudication thereunder, and such action or other proceeding shall not have been commenced and prosecuted within the time and in manner allowed by this Ordinance.

And with respect to the proof of debts and payments in full:

When and how debts may be proved.

93 At the sittings appointed by the court under the 30th section of this Ordinance, and at every adjournment thereof, and at every other sitting held for proof of debts, and whereof and of the purport whereof ten days' notice shall have been given in the Gazette of this colony, every creditor of the insolvent may prove his debt by his own oath or affidavit; and all bodies politic and public companies incorporated or authorized to sue or bring actions, either by Charter, Act of Parliament, or Ordinance, may prove by an agent, provided such agent shall in his deposition swear that he is such agent, and that he is authorized to make such proof: Provided always that if it shall appear to the court that any clerk, agent, or other person is more fully cognizant of the nature of the debt sought to be proved than the creditor is, the said court shall allow such clerk, agent, or other person to prove such debt by his oath or affidavit; and provided that any creditor who is out of the colony may, in case he have no known agent in the colony capable of proving the alleged debt, make the necessary affidavit before some person duly qualified to administer oaths in the place where he resides, such person being certified to be so qualified by some sufficient authority in that behalf: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the court to examine upon oath, either by word of mouth or by interrogatories in writing, every person claiming to prove a debt, or to require such further proof, and to examine such other persons in relation thereto, as such court shall think fit.

Creditor may be examined upon oath.

94 Every person with whom any insolvent shall have really and bonâ fide contracted any debt or demand before the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate shall, notwithstanding any prior act of insolvency committed by such insolvent, be admitted to prove the same as if no such act of insolvency had been committed; provided such person had not at the time the same was contracted notice of any act of insolvency by such insolvent committed.

Bonâ fide creditors for debts contracted after an act of insolvency may prove.

95 The court, out of the estate and effects of the insolvent, shall order payment of all taxes due by the insolvent at the time of his insolvency up to the end of the current quarter.

Amount of taxes.

96 If any person already appointed or employed, or who may be hereafter appointed to or employed, in any office in the Ceylon Savings Bank, or in the Loan Board, or in any friendly society duly incorporated, and being intrusted with the keeping of the accounts, or having in his hands or possession by virtue of his office or employment any monies or effects belonging to such savings bank, loan board, or society, or any deeds or securities relating to the same, shall become insolvent, the court shall, upon application made by the order of any such society, or any committee thereof, or the major part of them assembled at any meeting thereof, order payment and delivery over to be made to such society, or to such person as such society or committee may appoint, of all monies and other things belonging to such society, and shall also order payment out of the estate and effects of the insolvent of all sums of money remaining due which the insolvent received by virtue of his said office or employment, before any other of his debts are paid or satisfied.

If insolvent an officer of friendly society, court to order payment of debt to them before any other debts.

97 When any insolvent shall have been indebted at the time of filing the petition for the sequestration of his estate to any servant, clerk, or superintendent, labourer, cooly, or workman of such insolvent, in respect of the wages or salary of such servant, clerk, or superintendent, labourer, cooly, or workman, it shall be lawful for the court, upon proof thereof, to order so much as shall be so due, not exceeding three months' wages or salary, and not exceeding thirty pounds, to be paid to such servant, clerk, or superintendent, labourer,

Three months' wages or salary to clerks or servants.

cooly, or workman, out of the estate of such insolvent, and such servant, clerk, or superintendent, labourer, cooly, or workman shall be at liberty to prove for any sum exceeding such amount.

Apprentices discharged from their indentures.

Sum to be paid in respect of apprentice fees.

98 When any person shall have been an apprentice to an insolvent at the time of the filing of a petition for sequestration of his estate, the filing of such petition shall be and inure as a complete discharge of the indenture whereby such apprentice was bound ; and if any sum shall have been really and bonâ fide paid by or on the behalf of such apprentice to the insolvent as an apprentice fee, it shall be lawful for the court, upon proof thereof, to order any sum to be paid out of the estate of the said insolvent to or for the use of such apprentice which such court shall think reasonable, regard being had, in estimating such sum, to the amount of the sum so paid by or on behalf of such apprentice, and to the time during which such apprentice shall have resided with the insolvent previous to the filing of such petition.

Mutual debts and credits may be set off.

99 Where there has been mutual credit given by the insolvent and any other person, or where there are mutual debts between the insolvent and any other person, the court shall state the account between them, and one debt or demand may be set against another, notwithstanding any prior act of insolvency committed by such insolvent before the credit given to or the debt contracted by him ; and what shall appear due on either side on the balance of such account, and no more, shall be claimed or paid on either side respectively ; and every debt or demand hereby made provable against the estate of the insolvent may also be set off in manner aforesaid against such estate ; provided that the person claiming the benefit of such set off had not, when such credit was given, notice of an act of insolvency by such insolvent committed.

Debts not payable at the time of the insolvency may be proved.

100 Any person who shall have given credit to the insolvent, upon valuable consideration, for any money or other matter or thing whatsoever which shall not have become payable when such insolvent committed an act of insolvency, and whether such credit shall have been given upon any bill, bond, note, or other negotiable security or not, shall be entitled to prove such debt, bill, bond, note, or other security as if the same was payable presently, and receive dividends equally with the other creditors, deducting only thereout a rebate of interest for what he shall so receive, at the rate of nine pounds per centum per annum, to be computed from the declaration of a dividend to the time such debt would have become payable according to the terms upon which it was contracted.

Proof by sureties.

101 Any person who at the time of filing a petition for sequestration of any estate as insolvent shall be surety or liable for any debt of the insolvent, or bail for the insolvent, if he shall have paid the debt or any part thereof in discharge of the whole debt (although he may have paid the same after the filing of the petition for sequestration of the estate), if the creditor shall have proved his debt under the insolvency, shall be entitled to stand in the place of such creditor as to the dividends and all other rights under the insolvency which such creditor possessed or would be entitled to in respect of such proof; or if the creditor shall not have proved, such surety or person liable or bail shall be entitled to prove his demand in respect of such payment as a debt under the insolvency, not disturbing the former dividends, and may receive dividends with the other creditors, although he may have become surety, liable, or bail as aforesaid after an act of insolvency committed by the insolvent; provided that such person had not, when he became such surety or bail or so liable as aforesaid, notice of any act of insolvency by such insolvent committed.

102 The obligee in any bottomry or respondentia bond, and the assured in any policy of insurance, made upon good and valuable consideration, shall be admitted to claim, and, after the loss of contingency shall have happened, to prove his debt or demand in respect thereof, and receive dividends with the other creditors as if the loss or contingency had happened before the filing of the petition for sequestration of the estate of such obligee or insurer; and the person effecting any policy of insurance upon ships or goods with any person (as a subscriber or underwriter) having become or becoming insolvent, shall be entitled to prove any loss to which such insolvent shall be liable in respect of such subscription, although the person so effecting such policy was not beneficially interested in such ships or goods, in case the person so interested is not within this colony.

Claim and proof on bottomry or respondentia bonds, and policy of insurance.

103 Any annuity creditor of any insolvent, by whatever assurance the same be secured, and whether there were or not any arrears of such annuity due at the time of the filing the petition for sequestration, shall be entitled to prove for the value of such annuity, which value the court shall ascertain, regard being had to the original price given for such annuity, deducting therefrom such diminution in the value thereof as shall have been caused by the lapse of time since the grant thereof to the date of the filing of such petition.

Proof by annuity creditor.

104 It shall not be lawful for any person entitled to any annuity granted by any insolvent to sue any person who may be collateral surety for the payment of such annuity until such annuitant shall have proved against such insolvent's estate for the value of such annuity, and for the arrears thereof; and if such surety after such proof pay the amount proved, he shall be thereby discharged from all claims in respect of such annuity; and if such surety shall not (before any payment of the annuity subsequent to the filing the petition for sequestration shall have become due) pay the sum so proved, he may be sued for the accruing payments of such annuity until such surety shall have paid or satisfied the contingent debt.

105 If any insolvent shall before the filing of a petition for sequestration of his estate have contracted any debt payable upon a contingency which shall not have happened before the filing of such petition, the person with whom such debt has been contracted may, if he think fit, apply to the court to set a value upon such debt, and the court is hereby required to ascertain the value thereof and to admit such person to prove the amount so ascertained and to receive dividends thereon ; or if such value shall not be ascertained before the contingency shall have happened, then such person may, after such contingency shall have happened, prove in respect of such debt and receive dividends with the other creditors, not disturbing any former dividends ; provided such person had not when such debt was contracted notice of any act of insolvency by such insolvent committed.

Claim and proof
liability.

106 If any person who shall be adjudged insolvent after the commencement of this Ordinance shall have contracted before the filing of a petition for sequestration of his estate a liability to pay money upon a contingency which shall not have happened, and the demand in respect whereof shall not have been ascertained before the filing of such petition, in every such case, if such liability be not provable under any other provision of this Ordinance, the person with whom such liability has been contracted shall be admitted to claim for such sum as the court shall think fit ; and after the contingency shall have happened, and the demand in respect of such liability shall have been ascertained, he shall be admitted to prove such demand and receive dividends with the other creditors, and, so far as is practicable, as if the contingency had happened and the demands had been ascertained before the filing of such petition, but not disturbing former dividends ; provided such person had not at the time such liability was contracted notice of any act of insolvency by such insolvent committed ; provided also, that where any such claim shall not have, either in whole or in part, been converted into a proof within six months after the filing of such petition, it may, upon the application of the assignees at any time after the expiration of such time, and if the court shall think fit, be expunged either in whole or in part from the proceedings.

Insolvent Estates.

107 Upon all debts or sums certain, payable at a certain time or otherwise, whereupon interest is not reserved or agreed for, and which shall be overdue at the filing of the petition for sequestration and provable thereunder, the creditor shall be entitled to prove for interest to be calculated at a rate not exceeding nine pounds per centum per annum, up to the date of the filing of such petition from the time when such debts or sums certain were payable, if such debts or sums be payable by virtue of some written instrument at a certain time, or if payable otherwise, then from the time when demand of payment shall have been made in writing, so as such demand shall give notice to the debtor that interest will be claimed from the date of such demand until the time of payment.

Proof for interest.

108 If any plaintiff in any action or petitioner for the sequestration of the estate of any person as insolvent shall have obtained any judgment, decree, or order against any person who shall thereafter become insolvent for any debt or demand in respect of which such plaintiff or petitioner shall prove under the insolvency, such plaintiff or petitioner shall also be entitled to prove for the costs which he shall have incurred in obtaining the same, although such costs shall not have been taxed at the time of the insolvency; and if any defendant shall have obtained any judgment, decree, or order in any such action or in the matter of any such petition against any person who shall thereafter become insolvent, such defendant shall be entitled to prove for the costs which he shall have incurred in obtaining the same, although such costs shall not have been taxed at the time of the insolvency.

Plaintiff or defendant obtaining judgment. &c. entitled to prove for costs, &c.

109 No creditor who has brought any action against any insolvent in respect of a demand prior to the filing of a petition for sequestration, or which might have been proved as a debt under the insolvency, shall prove a debt under such insolvency, or have any claim entered upon the proceedings, without relinquishing such action; and the proving or claiming a debt under a petition for sequestration by any creditor shall be deemed an election by such creditor to take the benefit of such petition with respect to the debt so proved or claimed: Provided that such creditor shall not be liable to the payment to such insolvent or his assignees of the cost of such action so relinquished by him, and that where any such creditor shall have brought any action against such insolvent jointly with any other person, his relinquishing such action against the insolvent shall not affect such action against such other person; provided also, that any creditor who shall have so proved or claimed, if the petition for sequestration be afterwards dismissed, may proceed in the action as if he had not so proved or claimed.

Proving debt to be an election not to proceed against the insolvent's action.

Accounts of
assignees.

112 The assignees shall keep an account wherein they shall enter all property of the insolvent received by them and all payments made by them on account of the insolvent's estate, which account every creditor who shall have proved may inspect at all reasonable times; and it shall and may be lawful for the court, whenever it shall think fit, to summon the assignees to produce the said book, and the said court may examine and inspect the same or appoint some qualified person so to do.

And with respect to the audit, and to the money belonging to the insolvent estate:

Audit.

113 The district court shall, whenever it shall think fit, appoint a public sitting to be holden after the sitting appointed for the last examination of the insolvent (of which public sitting and of the purport whereof ten days' notice shall be given in the Gazette of this colony) to audit the accounts of the assignees; and at such sitting the assignees shall deliver upon oath a true statement in writing of all money received by them respectively, and when, and on what account, and how the same has been employed; and the court shall examine such statement, and compare the receipts with the payments, and ascertain what balances have been from time to time in the hands of such assignees respectively; and it shall be lawful for the court to examine the assignees upon oath touching the truth of such accounts, and to make therein all just allowances.

114 The district court may order and allow to be paid out of the assets of any insolvent estate to the assignees appointed by the court or chosen by the creditors, as a remuneration for their services, such sum as shall, upon consideration of the amount of the said estate and the nature of the duties performed by such assignees, appear to be just and reasonable.

Remuneration
to assignees.

115 It shall be lawful for and shall be the duty of the creditors of any insolvent estate, at the meeting held for the choice of assignees, immediately after such election, in case such election shall take place at such meeting, and in case such election shall not then take place, then immediately after the votes of the said creditors in regard to such election shall have been given, to nominate and appoint some bank within this colony, with which bank it shall be the duty of the assignees to open an account, and in case of a difference of opinion amongst the said creditors assembled at such meeting, the greater part in value of the said creditors shall determine upon the bank to be so nominated and appointed as aforesaid, and from and after any such nomination and appointment of any such bank the assignees of such insolvent estate, whether chosen by the creditors or provisionally appointed, shall, as soon as they shall receive any sum of money exceeding ten pounds belonging to such estate, open an account with such bank in the name of the insolvent estate, and such sum and every other sum exceeding ten pounds so received by them shall with all convenient speed be paid into such bank, to be placed to the credit of such account, and all cheques or orders for the payment of any such money out of the said bank shall truly express the cause of such payment and the name of the person in whose favour it is drawn, and shall be signed by all the assignees, or by one of them for himself and co-assignees; provided that in case the creditors of any insolvent estate shall neglect to nominate any such bank it shall be lawful for the assignees to open an account with and pay all such monies into any such bank in this colony as they shall select: And provided that every provisional assignee appointed under this Ordinance before the meeting of creditors for the choice of assignees shall, pending such meeting, open an account with and pay all such monies into any such bank in this colony as he shall select; and provided that all assignees, whether provisional or elected, shall in regard to the bank with which such account shall be kept, and such monies lodged, pursue such directions as they shall, from time to time receive from any general meeting of the creditors of the insolvent estate : Provided that if there shall be no bank at the place where the assignees reside, any sum of money received by them exceeding ten pounds belonging to such estate shall forthwith be paid into the district court.

Penalty upon assignee retaining or employing money belonging to the estate.

116 Any assignee who shall retain in his hands, or knowingly permit any co-assignee so to retain, any sum of money exceeding ten pounds sterling part of any insolvent estate longer than until the first day after his receiving the same upon which it shall be possible for him to pay the said sum, or cause it to be paid, into some such bank or into the district court as aforesaid, and who shall not have any just and lawful cause for so retaining the same, or shall employ for his own benefit, or knowingly permit any co-assignee so to employ, any sum of money part of any insolvent estate, shall forfeit and pay, for the benefit of the said estate, double the amount of the sum so retained or employed ; and the said sum so forfeited shall be deducted out of any claim the said assignee may have against the said estate, and the surplus, if any, shall be recovered by action at the suit of any two or more creditors in any competent court.

And with respect to the dividend :

Method of making dividends.

117 The district court shall, whenever it shall think fit, appoint a public sitting to be holden after the sitting appointed for the last examination of the insolvent, when there are assets wherewith a dividend may be made (of which public sitting and of the purport whereof twenty-one days' notice shall be given in the Gazette of this colony), to make a dividend of the insolvent's estate, and shall at such sitting direct such part of the net produce of the insolvent's estate as it may think fit to be forthwith divided amongst such creditors as have proved debts under the insolvency in proportion to their respective debts, and shall make an order in writing under the hand of the district judge for dividend accordingly, to be filed with the proceedings, which order shall contain an account of the amount of the debts proved of the money to be divided, of how much in the pound is then ordered to be paid to the creditors, and of the money allowed by the court to be retained, and of the reason for retaining the same ; and the assignees, in pursuance of such order, shall forthwith make such dividend in manner directed by the rules at any time in force under this Ordinance relating to the mode of payment of dividends by the assignees, but no dividend shall be declared unless the accounts of the assignees shall have been first audited.

No dividend without previous audit.

Final dividend within eighteen months, except where suit depending or estate standing out, &c.

118 If the insolvent's estate shall not have been wholly divided upon the first dividend the court shall, within eighteen months after the filing of the petition for sequestration of the estate, appoint a public sitting (whereof and of the purport whereof twenty-one days' notice shall be given in the Gazette of this colony) to make a second dividend, when all the creditors who have not proved their debts may prove the same, and at such sitting, but after such an audit as is directed by this Ordinance, shall order the balance in hand to be forthwith divided among such of the creditors as shall have proved their debts; and such second dividend shall be final, unless any action be depending, or any part of the estate be standing out not sold or disposed of, or unless some other estate or effects of the insolvent shall afterwards come to the assignees, in which case they shall as soon as may be convert such estate and effects into money; and within two months after the same shall be so converted the same shall also be divided in manner aforesaid; and if at the expiration of two years from the filing of any petition for sequestration there shall remain any outstanding debts or other property due or belonging to the estate of the insolvent which cannot in the opinion of the court be collected and received without unreasonable or inconvenient delay, it shall be lawful for the assignees, under the direction of the court, to sell and assign such debts and other property, and also the books of the insolvent relating to his trade, dealings, or estate, in such manner and subject to such conditions as shall be ordered by the court; and any person to whom any of such debts shall be so sold or assigned may sue for the same in his own name as fully as the assignees of such insolvent might have done.

Outstanding debts, &c., may be sold, and the purchaser may sue for them.

119 No action for any dividend shall be brought against any assignee by any creditor who shall have proved under the insolvency; but if the assignees shall refuse to pay any such dividend the court may order payment thereof, with interest for the time that it shall have been withheld, and may also order the costs of the application, and such order shall have the effect of a judgment by the said court.

Remedy for dividend.

And with respect to the unclaimed dividends:

120 All unclaimed dividends, and also any undivided surplus of an insolvent's estate over and above the amount finally directed to be divided amongst the creditors of any insolvent, shall be paid into the Treasury, to be carried in the books of the Treasury to the account intituled "The Unclaimed Dividend Account," subject to the order of the district court, acting in prosecution of any insolvency, for the payment thereof of any dividend due to any creditor.

Unclaimed dividends, &c., to be paid into the Treasury.

121 Subject to any rule at any time in force under this Ordinance relating to unclaimed dividends, if any assignee under any insolvency shall have, either in his own hands or at any bank, or otherwise subject to his order or disposition, or shall know that there is in the hands or subject to the order and disposition of himself and any co-assignee, or of either of them, any unclaimed dividend or any such undivided surplus as aforesaid, such assignee shall, within three months next after the expiration of one year from the time of the declaration and order of payment of such dividend, either pay the same to the creditor or other the person entitled to the same or cause a certificate thereof to be filed in the district court, containing a full and true account of the name of the creditor to whom such unclaimed dividend is due, and of the amount of such dividend, and shall in like manner as to any undivided surplus as aforesaid, within three months next after the expiration of one year after the final declaration of dividends, cause a certificate stating the full and true amount of such surplus to be filed in the district court, and every certificate to be filed as aforesaid shall be signed by the assignees filing the same, and every assignee shall, within one year next after the filing of any such certificate as aforesaid, pay or cause to be paid into the Treasury, to be carried to the account entitled "The Unclaimed Dividend Account," the full amount of the unclaimed dividends mentioned in such certificate, or so much thereof as shall not have been then paid to the creditors or other persons entitled thereto, and also the full amount of such undivided surplus as aforesaid: Provided always that no certificate of any unclaimed dividend shall be filed until the expiration of one year after the declaration and order for payment of such dividends.

Proviso.

And with respect to allowances to the insolvent :

Allowance to insolvent for maintenance.

122 It shall be lawful for the district court, if it think fit, from time to time to make such allowance to the insolvent out of his estate, until he shall have passed his last examination, as shall be necessary for the support of himself and his family: Provided always that no such allowance shall be made by the court for any period after the adjournment of the last examination sine die.

If estate pay 20s. in the pound and interest, surplus to be paid to insolvent.

123 If the produce of the estate of any insolvent shall be sufficient to pay twenty shillings in the pound, and interest as hereinafter mentioned, and to leave a surplus, the court may order such surplus to be paid to such insolvent, his executors, administrators, or assigns; and every such insolvent shall be entitled to recover the remainder, if any, of the debts due to him; but such surplus shall not be paid until all the creditors who have proved shall have received the interest due upon their debts.

And with respect to the certificate of conformity:

Mode of obtaining certificate.

124 Forthwith after the insolvent shall have passed his last examination the district court shall appoint a public sitting for the allowance of his certificate (whereof and of the purport whereof twenty-one days' notice shall be given in the Gazette of this colony and to the assignees), and at such sitting the assignees or any of the creditors of such insolvent who shall have given to the secretary of the court three clear days' notice in writing of his intention to oppose, may be heard against the allowance of such certificate, and the court having regard to the conformity of the insolvent to this Ordinance, and to his conduct as a trader, or in relation to his estate, before as well as after his insolvency, and whether the allowance of such certificate be opposed by any creditor or not, shall judge of any objection against allowing such certificate, and either find the insolvent entitled thereto,

and allow the same, or refuse or suspend the allowance thereof, or annex such conditions thereto, as the justice of the case may require.

125 The certificate of conformity under this Ordinance shall be in writing under the hand of the district judge, and shall certify that the insolvent has made a full discovery of his estate and effects and in all things conformed, and that so far as the court can judge there does not appear any reason to question the truth or fulness of such discovery (and shall be in the form Q in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, or to the like effect); and notice of the allowance of such certificate and of the class thereof shall be advertised in the Gazette of this colony in such manner as may be directed by the court.

Form of it.

126 The certificate of conformity allowed under this Ordinance, subject to the provisions herein contained, shall discharge the insolvent from all debts due by him when he became insolvent, and from all claims and demands made provable under the insolvency: Provided always that no such certificate shall release or discharge any person who was a partner with such insolvent at the time of his insolvency, or was then jointly bound or had made any joint contract with such insolvent, or who was a surety for him.

It discharges insolvent from all debts provable.

127 No insolvent shall be entitled to a certificate of conformity under this Ordinance, and any such certificate if allowed shall be void, if such insolvent shall, after an act of insolvency, or in contemplation of insolvency, or with intent to defeat the object of this Ordinance, have parted with, concealed, destroyed, altered, mutilated, or falsified, or caused to be concealed, destroyed, altered, mutilated, or falsified, any of his books, papers, writings, or securities, or made or been privy to the making of any false or fraudulent entry in any book of accounts or other document with intent to defraud his creditors, or shall have concealed any part of his property, or if any person having proved a false debt under the insolvency, such insolvent being privy thereto, or afterwards knowing the same, shall not have disclosed the same to his assignees within one month after such knowledge.

Certificate not granted or void if insolvent has concealed or falsified books, &c., or concealed any property, or permitted any fictitious debts to be proved.

128 Any contract or security made or given by any insolvent or other person unto or in trust for any creditor for securing the payment of any money due by such insolvent at his insolvency, as a consideration or with intent to persuade such creditor to forbear opposing, or to consent to the allowance of the insolvent's certificate, or to forbear to petition for the recall of the same, shall be void, and the money thereby secured or agreed to be paid shall not be recoverable.

Contract or security to induce creditor to forbear opposition void.

129 At any time within six months after any certificate of conformity shall have been allowed, and subject to such order as to deposit of costs as may be made by the Supreme Court, any creditor of the insolvent, or any assignee, may Certificate may be recalled.

Insolvent Estates.

apply to the Supreme Court that such certificate may be recalled and delivered up to be cancelled ; and the Supreme Court may, on good cause shown, order such certificate to be recalled and cancelled.

Insolvent not liable upon any promise to pay debt discharged by certificate.

130 No insolvent after his certificate shall have been allowed shall be liable to pay or satisfy any debt, claim, or demand from which he shall have been discharged by virtue of such certificate, or any part of such debt, claim, or demand upon any contract, promise, or agreement made after the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate.

Insolvent, having obtained his certificate, free from arrest; may plead his certificate ; evidence under it.

131 Any insolvent who shall after his certificate shall have been allowed be arrested or have any action brought against him for any debt, claim, or demand provable under his insolvency, shall be discharged upon entering an appearance, and may plead in general that the cause of action accrued before he became insolvent, and may give this Ordinance and the special matter in evidence ; and such insolvent's certificate shall be sufficient evidence of the insolvency, petition for sequestration, and other proceedings precedent to the obtaining such certificate ; and if any such insolvent shall be taken in execution or detained in prison for such debt, claim, or demand where judgment has been obtained before the allowance of his certificate, it shall be lawful for any judge of the court wherein judgment has been so obtained, on such insolvent's producing his certificate, to order any officer who shall have such insolvent in custody by virtue of such execution, to discharge such insolvent, and such officer shall be hereby indemnified for so doing.

Insolvent, if in execution, discharged.

Appeal against allowance or refusal of certificate.

132 No such certificate shall be delivered to the insolvent until after the expiration of the time allowed for entering an appeal ; and if an appeal be duly entered against the judgment of such court for the allowance of the certificate, or for the refusal, the withholding, or the class of the certificate, and notice thereof be given to the court in such manner as may be any general rule or order to be made in pursuance of this Ordinance be directed, the certificate shall be further kept by the court and abide the judgment of the Supreme Court thereupon ; and upon any appeal duly entered and prosecuted relating to the certificate or to the judgment of the court as to any offence under this Ordinance charged against the insolvent, the Supreme Court shall have power to rescind or vary the order of the district court, or to make such other order thereon as it may think fit ; and upon an order for the allowance of any certificate by the Supreme Court, and whether with conditions or not, or after a suspension thereof by order of the Supreme Court or not, such certificate may be allowed and signed by the district judge or by a judge of the Supreme Court.

Allowance, refusal, or suspension of certificate

133 The allowance of the certificate by the district court, and any order for the refusal or suspension of the allowance thereof (except in case of appeal), shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be revised by the district court unless the said court shall thereafter see good and sufficient cause to believe that the allowance of such certificate, or the refusal or suspension thereof, has been obtained on false evidence, or by reason of an improper suppression of evidence, or has otherwise been fraudulently obtained, in any of which cases it shall and may be lawful for the district court, upon the application of the insolvent, or of any creditor of the insolvent, and subject to such order as to deposit of a sum for costs, and to such notices to the insolvent and to creditors by advertisement or otherwise as the court shall think fit, to grant a re-hearing of the matter, and to re-hear the same accordingly, and upon such re-hearing the district court shall make such order as to the allowance of the certificate, or the refusal or suspension thereof, as the justice of the case may require, in like manner, upon like conditions, and having regard to the like circumstances, so far as the case will admit, as upon any original hearing; and in case the certificate shall have been previously allowed, and upon such re-hearing the allowance thereof shall not be confirmed, such certificate shall have no force or effect whatever, and the same shall be delivered up to the court and cancelled.

Insolvent Estates.

(except in case of appeal) to be final in what cases.

And with respect to arrangements by deed :

134 Every deed or memorandum of arrangement now or hereafter entered into between any person and his creditors, and signed by or on behalf of six-sevenths in number and value of those creditors whose debts amount to ten pounds and upwards, touching such person's liabilities and his release therefrom, and the distribution, inspection, conduct, management, and mode of winding up of his estate, or all or any of such matters or any matters having reference thereto, shall (subject to the conditions hereinafter mentioned) be as effectual and obligatory in all respects upon all the creditors who shall not have signed such deed or memorandum of arrangement as if they had duly signed the same ; and such deed or memorandum, when so signed, shall not be or be liable to be disturbed or impeached by reason of any prior or subsequent act of insolvency : Provided always that every creditor shall be accounted a creditor in value in respect of such amount only as upon an account fairly stated, after allowing the value of mortgaged property and other such available securities or liens from such person, shall appear to be the balance due to him.

Deeds of arrangement entered into between any debtor and certain of his creditors, in what cases binding on all.

Proviso.

135 No such deed or memorandum of arrangement shall be effectual or obligatory upon any creditor who shall not have signed the same until after the expiration of three months from the time at which such creditor shall have had notice from such person of his suspension of payment, and of such deed or memorandum of arrangement, unless such debtor shall within such time obtain from the district court an order or certificate of the said court declaring or certifying that such deed or memorandum of arrangement has been duly signed by or on behalf of such majority of the creditors as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the district court of the district in which the person shall have resided or carried on business for six months next immediately preceding his suspension of payment to make such order or certificate on the petition of any such person, and to exercise jurisdiction in and over the matters of any such application; and no creditor who shall not have had fourteen days' notice of any intended application for such order or certificate as aforesaid shall be bound thereby.

Trustee or inspector, &c., to certify as to the deed being signed.

136 When the trustee or inspector under any such deed or memorandum of arrangement, or, if there shall be no such trustee or inspector, when any two of the creditors shall be satisfied that six-sevenths in number and value of the creditors whose debts amount to ten pounds and upwards have signed such deed or memorandum, it shall be lawful for such trustee or inspector, or for such two creditors, as the case may be, to certify the same to the district court in writing, and such certificate shall be filed in court, and shall thereupon be prima facie evidence in all courts that such deed or memorandum of arrangement has been so signed.

Account of debt, &c., to be annexed to such certificate.

137 Every such certificate as last aforesaid shall have appended thereto a full account of the debts of such debtor, together with the names, residences, and occupations of his creditors, and shall be accompanied by an affidavit by such debtor verifying the same; and any omission in such account, or the insertion therein of any debt not really existing, or of any larger amount of debt than that really existing, and which shall appear to the court to have been made through the culpable negligence or fraud of such debtor, with intent to defraud any of his creditors, shall deprive him of the benefit of the provisions of this Ordinance with respect to arrangements by deed, and of the discharge proposed in any such deed or memorandum of arrangement: Provided always that any omission, insertion, or incorrectness in such account, which shall not have been made through such culpable negligence or fraud as aforesaid, shall not defeat or otherwise affect such deed or memorandum of arrangement.

Proviso.

creditors.

138 The creditors of every such debtor shall have the same rights respectively as to set-off, mutual credit, lien, and priority, and joint and separate assets shall be distributed in like manner as in insolvency, and no creditor shall be prejudiced or affected by being a party to any such deed or memorandum of arrangement as aforesaid, or by the same being obligatory upon him as to his right or remedy against any person other than such debtor; and every person who would be entitled to prove in insolvency shall be deemed a creditor within the meaning of the provisions of this Ordinance with respect to arrangements by deed.

Court may interfere in case

139 If any creditor of any person shall be desirous to show that the administration of the estate of such person has not been duly conducted in conformity with such deed or memorandum of arrangement, it shall be lawful for him to apply to the district court by petition, supported by affidavit, stating any facts or circumstances to show that such administration has not been duly conducted, and thereupon the court shall have full power, and it is hereby fully authorized, to consider the subject matter of such application, and if it shall think fit may direct any inquiry, and in such manner as it shall think proper, into the subject of such application, and generally may make such order and exercise such jurisdiction in or over the subject matter of such application and the costs thereof as to the said court shall appear just.

Insolvent Estates.

of improper administration of the estate.

And with respect to composition after adjudication of insolvency :

140 Any insolvent, at any time after he shall have passed his last examination, may call a meeting of his creditors (whereof and of the purport whereof twenty-one days' notice shall be given in the Government Gazette), and if the insolvent or his friend shall make an offer of composition and nine-tenths in number and value of the creditors assembled at such meeting shall agree to accept the same, another meeting for the purpose of deciding upon such offer shall be appointed to be holden, whereof such notice shall be given as aforesaid ; and if at such second meeting nine-tenths in number and value of the creditors then present shall also agree to accept such offer, the district court shall and may, upon such acceptance being testified by them in writing, and upon payment of such sum as the court shall direct, annul the adjudication of insolvency and supersede or dismiss the petition for sequestration ; and every creditor of such insolvent shall be bound to accept of such composition so agreed to.

If after adjudication certain of the creditors accept composition, it shall bind the rest.

141 In deciding upon the offer of composition no creditor whose debt is below twenty pounds shall be reckoned in number, but the debt due to such creditor shall be computed in value ; and every creditor to the amount of fifty pounds and upwards residing out of Ceylon shall be personally served with a copy of the notice of the meeting to decide upon such offer as aforesaid, and of the purpose for which the same is called, so long before such meeting as that he may have time to vote thereat, and such creditor shall be entitled to vote by letter of attorney executed and attested in manner required for a creditor's voting in the choice of assignees ; and if any creditor shall agree to accept any gratuity or higher composition for assenting to such offer he shall forfeit the debt due to him, together with such gratuity or composition ; and the insolvent shall (if thereto required) make oath before the court that there has been no such transaction between him or any person with his privity and any of the creditors, and that he has not used any undue means or influence with any of them to attain such assent.

Mode of voting in deciding upon such composition.

Insolvent Estates.

And with respect to evidence :

Officer of court to produce proceedings and give copies thereof.

142 The proper officer of the district court shall, on the reasonable request of any insolvent, or of any creditor of such insolvent (having proved his debt), or on the like request of the proctor of any such insolvent or creditor, produce and show to such insolvent, creditor, or proctor at such times as the court shall direct every petition for sequestration and adjudication of insolvency against or by such insolvent, and all orders and proceedings under any such petition or adjudication ; and the court shall order the assignees or officer of court, as the case may be, to permit such insolvent, creditor, or proctor to have inspection at all reasonable times of all books, papers, and writings relating to the matters of such petition or adjudication, and the estate of the insolvent in the possession of the assignees or filed in court in such matter, and permit him to inspect and examine the same ; and such assignees or such officer shall provide for any such insolvent, creditor, or proctor requiring the same a copy of such petition or other proceeding, books, papers, and writings as aforesaid, or of such part thereof as shall be required, receiving such fee, or sum, or rate of charge as may be authorized by the court in that behalf.

If insolvent do not dispute the insolvency, Gazette to be evidence of the adjudication and petition, as against insolvent, and in suits or debts, &c., by assignees.

143 If the insolvent shall not (if he were within this colony at the date of the adjudication) within twenty-one days after the advertisement of the insolvency in the Government Gazette, or (if he were in any part of the East India Company's territories at the date of the adjudication) within three months after such advertisement, or (if he were elsewhere at the date of the adjudication) within twelve months after such advertisement, have commenced an action or other proceeding to dispute or annul the petition for sequestration of his estate as insolvent, and shall not have prosecuted the same with due diligence and effect, the Gazette containing such advertisement shall be conclusive evidence in all cases as against such insolvent, and in all actions brought by the assignees for any debt or demand for which such insolvent might have sustained any action had he not been adjudged insolvent, that such person so adjudged insolvent became an insolvent before the date and filing of the petition for sequestration, and that such petition was filed on the day on which the same is stated in the Gazette to bear date.

In other cases no proof of petitioning creditor's debt or act of insolvency, unless notice to dispute them.

144 In any action (other than an action brought by the assignees for any debt or demand for which the insolvent might have sustained an action had he not been adjudged insolvent), and whether at the suit of or against the assignees or against any person acting under the warrant of the court, for anything done under such warrant, no proof shall be required at the trial of the petitioning creditor's debt or of the act of insolvency respectively, unless the other party in such action shall, if defendant at or before answering, and if plaintiff before issue joined, give notice in writing to such assignees or other person that he intends to dispute one or both, and which of such matters ; and in case such notice shall have been given, if such assignees or other person shall prove the matter so disputed, or the other party admit the same, the judge before whom the cause shall be tried may (if he think fit) grant a certificate of such proof or admission; and such assignees or other person shall be entitled to the costs occasioned by such notice, and such costs shall, if such assignees or other person shall obtain a judgment, be added to the costs, and if the other party shall obtain a judgment shall be deducted from the costs which such other party would otherwise be entitled to receive from such assignees or other person.

145 The court may in all matters before it award such costs as to such court shall seem fit and just; and in all cases in which costs shall be so awarded against any person it shall and may be lawful for such court to cause such costs to be recovered from such person in the same manner as costs awarded by such court in civil suits may be recovered.

Court may award costs, and how recovered.

146 Every person summoned to attend before the court as a person known or suspected to have any of the estate of the insolvent in his possession, or who is supposed to be indebted to the insolvent, shall have such costs and charges as the court in its discretion shall think fit, and every witness summoned to attend before the court shall have his necessary expenses tendered to him in like manner as is now by law required upon service of subpoena to a witness in a civil action.

Witnesses and persons known or suspected to have insolvent's property, &c., when entitled to costs.

And with respect to offences against the law relating to insolvency and other matters in this Ordinance:

147 If any person adjudged insolvent shall not upon the day limited for his surrender, and before three of the clock of such day, or at the hour and upon the day allowed him for finishing his examination, after notice thereof in writing, to be served upon him personally or left at the usual or last known place of abode or business of such person, or personal notice in case such person be then in prison, and notice given in the Government Gazette of the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate as insolvent, as the case may be, and of the sittings of the court (having no lawful impediment proved to the satisfaction of the court at such time, and allowed by the court by a memorandum thereof then made on the proceedings), surrender himself to such court and sign or subscribe such surrender, and submit to be examined before such court from time to time; or if any such insolvent upon such examination shall not discover all his real and personal estate, and how and to whom, upon what consideration, and when he disposed of, assigned, or transferred any of such estate (and all books, papers, and writings relating thereunto), except such part as shall have been really and bonâ fide before sold or disposed of in the way of his trade or laid out in the ordinary expenses of his family; or if any such insolvent upon such examination shall not deliver up to such court all such parts of such estate, and all books, papers, and writings relating thereunto as shall be in his possession, custody, or power (except the necessary wearing apparel of himself, his wife, and children), or if any such insolvent shall remove, conceal, or embezzle any part of such estate to the value of ten pounds or upwards, or any books of accounts, papers, or writings relating thereto, with intent to defraud his creditors, every such insolvent shall be liable to transportation for life, or for such term not less than seven years as the Supreme Court shall adjudge, or shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding seven years.

Insolvent destroying or falsifying books, &c.

Punishment.

148 If any insolvent shall, after an act of insolvency committed, or in contemplation of insolvency, or with intent to defeat the object of the law relating to insolvents, destroy, alter, mutilate, or falsify any of his books, papers, writings, or securities, or make or be privy to the making of any false or fraudulent entry in any book of account or other document, with intent to defraud his creditors, every such insolvent shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three years.

Insolvent obtaining goods on credit under false pretences, or removing or concealing goods so obtained.

Punishment.

149 If any insolvent shall within three months next preceding the date of the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate, under the false colour and pretence of carrying on business and dealing in the ordinary course of trade, obtain on credit from any other person any goods or property with intent to defraud the owner thereof; or if any insolvent shall, within such time and with such intent, remove, conceal, or dispose of any goods or property so obtained, every such insolvent shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding two years.

False evidence.

Perjury.

150 Any insolvent or insolvent's wife who shall upon any examination directed or authorized by this Ordinance, and any person who shall upon any examination or in any affidavit or deposition so authorized or directed, or in any affidavit or deposition, wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, or wilfully and corruptly swear anything which shall be false, being convicted thereof shall be liable to the penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury.

If at last examination it appears that insolvent has been guilty of any of the following offences, further protection refused; certificate refused or suspended.

151 If at the sitting appointed for the last examination of any insolvent, or at any adjournment thereof, it shall appear to the district court that the insolvent has committed any of the offences hereinafter enumerated, the court shall refuse to grant the insolvent any further protection from arrest, and if at any sitting or adjourned sitting for the allowance of the certificate of any insolvent it shall appear that he has committed any of such offences, the court shall refuse to grant such certificate, or shall suspend the same for such time as it shall think fit, and shall in like manner refuse to grant the insolvent any further protection.

Insolvent Estates.

Offences referred to :

First. If the insolvent shall at any time after the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate, or within two months next preceding the filing of such petition, with intent to conceal the state of his affairs or to defeat the objects of the law of insolvency, have destroyed any book, paper, deed, writing, or other document relating to his trade, dealings, or estate.

Second. If the insolvent shall, with the like intent, have kept or cause to be kept false books, or have made false entries in, or withheld entries from, or wilfully altered or falsified any book, paper, deed, writing, or other document relating to his trade, dealings, or estate.

Third. If the insolvent shall have contracted any of his debts by any manner of fraud or by means of false pretences, or shall by any manner of fraud or by means of false pretences have obtained the forbearance of any of his debts by any of his creditors.

Fourth. If the insolvent shall at any time within two months next preceding the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate, fraudulently, in contemplation of insolvency, and not under pressure from any of his creditors, with intent to diminish the sum to be divided among his creditors, or to give an undue preference to any of his creditors, have paid or satisfied any such creditor wholly or in part, or have made away with, mortgaged, or charged any part of his property, of what kind soever.

Fifth. If the insolvent shall at any time after the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate, and with intent to diminish the sum to be divided among his creditors, or to give an undue preference to any of his creditors, have concealed from the district court or his assignees any debt due to or from him, or have concealed or made away with any part of his property, of what kind soever.

Sixth. If the insolvent shall under his insolvency, or at any meeting of his creditors, within three months next preceding the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate, have attempted to account for any of his property by fictitious losses or expenses.

Seventh. If the insolvent shall, within six months next preceding the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate, have put any of his creditors to any unnecessary expense by any vexatious and frivolous defence or delay to any action for the recovery of any debt or demand provable under his insolvency, or shall be indebted in costs incurred in any action so vexatiously brought or defended.

Eighth. If the insolvent shall, at any time after the filing of the petition for sequestration of his estate, have wilfully prevented or withheld the production of any book, paper, deed, writing, or other document relating to his trade, dealings, or estate.

Ninth. If the insolvent (being a trader) shall during his trading have wilfully, and with intent to conceal the true state of his affairs, have omitted to keep proper accounts, or Assignees for the time being may issue execution on such certificate.

153 The assignees for the time being may issue and enforce execution upon any such certificate as last aforesaid, as fully to all intents and purposes as the assignees to whom such certificate shall have been originally granted.

Insolvent taken, not discharged for one year.

154 If any insolvent shall be taken in execution after the refusal of protection, or after the refusal or suspension of his certificate, he shall not be discharged from such execution until he shall have been in prison for the full period of one year, except by order of the district court.

List of uncertificated insolvents to be published in the Gazette every six months.

155 Every district judge shall transmit to the Colonial Secretary on or before the 15th day of January and the 15th day of July in each year the name and residence of every insolvent whose certificate shall have been refused or suspended by such judge, and who shall then be uncertificated; and the said Colonial Secretary shall thereupon cause a list, alphabetically arranged, showing the names and residences of all such uncertificated insolvents, to be prepared and published in the Government Gazette for general information.

156 If any insolvent, or the wife of any insolvent, shall refuse to make and sign the declaration contained in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, or if any other person shall refuse to be sworn, or shall refuse to answer any lawful question put by the court, or shall not fully answer any such question to the satisfaction of the court, or shall refuse to sign his examination when reduced into writing (not having any lawful objection allowed by the court), or shall not produce any books, papers, deeds, and writings, or other documents in his custody or power, relating to any of the matters under inquiry, which such insolvent, wife of the insolvent, or person, is required by the court to produce, and to the production of which he shall not state any objection allowed by the court, it shall be lawful for the court, by warrant, to commit such insolvent, wife of such insolvent, or other person, to prison, there to remain without bail until he shall submit himself to such court to be sworn, and full answers make to the satisfaction of such court to all such lawful questions as shall be put by the court, and sign such examination, and produce such books, papers, deeds, writings, and other documents in his custody or power, to the production of which no such objection as aforesaid has been allowed.

Any person refusing to be sworn or refusing to answer, or not answering, or fully refusing to sign examination or to produce books, &c., may be committed.

157 If any person be committed by the district court for refusing to answer or for not fully answering any question put to him by the court, such court shall in its warrant of commitment specify every such question: Provided that if any person so committed shall bring any habeas corpus in order to be discharged from such commitment, and there shall appear on the return of such habeas corpus any such insufficiency in the form of the warrant whereby such person was committed, by reason whereof he might be discharged, it shall be lawful for the Supreme Court, and such court is hereby required, to commit such person to the same prison, there to remain until he shall conform, unless it shall be shown to such court by the person committed that he has fully answered all lawful questions put to him by the district court, or if such person was committed for refusing to be sworn, or for not signing his examinations, unless it shall appear to the Supreme Court that he had a sufficient reason for the same: Provided also that the Supreme Court shall, if required thereto by the person committed, in case the whole of the examination of the person so committed shall not have been stated in the warrant of commitment, inspect and consider the whole of the examination of such person whereof any such question was a part; and if it shall appear from the whole examination that the answer or answers of the person committed is or are satisfactory, such court shall and may order the person so committed to be discharged.

Questions to be specified in warrant.

Proviso

Insolvent Estates.

Persons disobeying any order of court to be committed.

158 If any person shall disobey any rule or order of the district court, duly made by such court, for enforcing any of the purposes and provisions of this Ordinance, or made or entered into by consent of such person for carrying into effect any of such purposes or provisions, the court may, by warrant in the form S in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, commit the person so offending to prison, there to remain without bail until such court, or the Supreme Court, shall make order to the contrary.

If petitioning creditor's debt be not due, or if act of insolvency be not proved, and petition be filed fraudulently or maliciously, court may order satisfaction.

159 If the debt stated by the petitioning creditor in his affidavit, or in his petition for sequestration, and verified by affidavit to be due to him from any person, shall not be really due, or if, after a petition for sequestration filed, it shall not have been proved that the person against whom such petition has been filed had committed an act of insolvency, and it shall also appear that such petition was filed fraudulently or maliciously, the court shall and may, upon petition of the person against whom any such petition was so filed, examine into the same, and order satisfaction to be made to him for the damages by him sustained.

Petitioning creditor compounding with person after insolvency to forfeit his debt, and pay the money, &c.

160 If any petitioning creditor shall, after the filing of his petition, receive any money, satisfaction, or security for his debt or any part thereof, whereby such petitioning creditor may receive more in the pound in respect of his debt than the other creditors, such petitioning creditor shall forfeit his whole debt, and shall also repay or deliver up such money, satisfaction, or security, or the full value thereof, to the assignees of such insolvent for the benefit of the creditors of the insolvent.

Concealing insolvent's effects.

161 Any person who shall wilfully conceal any real or personal estate of the insolvent, and who shall not within forty-two days after the filing of the petition for sequestration, discover such estate to the court or to the assignees, shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds, and double the value of the estate so concealed; and any person, other than the person who shall have concealed the same, who shall after such time voluntarily discover to the court or to the assignees any part of such insolvent's estate not before come to the knowledge of the assignees, shall be allowed five per centum thereupon, and such further reward as the assignees, with the consent of the court, shall think fit to be paid out of the estate recovered on such discovery.

Penalty.

Allowance to persons making discovery.

Obtaining money, &c., to forbear opposition to, or to consent to allowance of, certificate.

162 If any creditor of any insolvent shall obtain any sum of money, or any property whatever, or security for money, from any person as an inducement for forbearing to oppose or for consenting to the allowance of the certificate of such insolvent, or to forbear to petition for the recall of the same, every such creditor so offending shall forfeit and lose for every such offence the treble value or amount of such money, property, or security so obtained (as the case may be).

Penalty.

Inserting advertisements without authority.

163 Any person who shall insert or cause to be inserted in the Government Gazette, or in any newspaper, any advertisement under this Ordinance without authority, or knowing the same to be false in any material particular, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to punishment by fine or imprisonment as the district court shall award.

Insolvent Estates.

THE INSOLVENT ORDINANCE, 1853.

Petition by a Creditor for Sequestration of his Debtor's Estate.

To the District Court of _____.

The humble petition of _____.

Showeth,

That _____ having resided (or carried on business, as the case may be) for six months next immediately preceding the date of this petition, within the district of this court, that is to say, at _____, is indebted unto your petitioner in the sum of fifty (if two petitioners, seventy, and if three or more, one hundred pounds, as the case may be), and that your petitioner has been informed and believes that the said _____ did lately commit an act of insolvency within the true intent and meaning of the Insolvent Ordinance.

Your petitioner therefore humbly prays that on proof of the requisites in that behalf the estate of the said _____ may be adjudged insolvent and placed under sequestration.

And your petitioner shall ever pray, &c.

Signed by the petitioner on the _____ day of _____, 18 __, in the presence of _____.

If the petition be by partners, alter the form accordingly, and let it be signed by one on behalf of himself and partners.

If the petition be by several, not being partners, then it must be signed by each, and in such case the names of the several petitioners should be stated in the attestation or attestations relating thereto respectively.

*Burial Grounds, &c.No. 10 of 1854.*To make provision respecting Burial Grounds and the Burial of the Dead.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision touching burial grounds and the burial of the dead, with a view to the protection of the public health : It is enacted as follows :

New burial grounds in certain towns to be approved by the Governor.

1 No new burial ground shall be provided and used in any of the places mentioned in the schedule to this Ordinance, or to which this Ordinance is applied as hereinafter mentioned, without the previous approval of the Governor on the recommendation of the board of health of the province, signified by notice in the Government Gazette.

Burials forbidden in churches hereafter erected within such towns.

2 It shall not be lawful to bury any corpse or coffin in any place of public worship erected after this Ordinance comes into operation within any of the places mentioned in the said schedule, or to which this Ordinance is applied as hereinafter mentioned : Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to revoke or affect the prohibition against burials within certain churches, and within the enclosed ground about the same, contained in the Ordinance No. 11 of 1842, entitled "An Ordinance to provide for a Church in Kandy," and in the Ordinance No. 12 of 1846, entitled "An Ordinance to regulate the Temporal Affairs of the Episcopal Churches in the Island of Ceylon which have been erected or are now in course of erection, or which may hereafter be erected in terms of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1845," which prohibition shall remain of full force and effect to all intents and purposes.

Penalty for breach of the preceding sections.

3 Whosoever shall bury, or cause, permit, or suffer to be buried, any corpse or coffin in any burial ground, or in any place of public worship, or the enclosed ground about the same, contrary to the provisions contained in the two preceding sections, or in the said Ordinances No. 11 of 1842 and No. 12 of 1846, shall for every such offence be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Burial grounds, &c., dangerous to health may be prohibited.

4 In case it appears to the Governor and Executive Council, upon the representation of the board of health of the province, or after inquiry by such ways and means as the said Governor and Council may think fit to direct, that any burial ground situate in any place mentioned in the schedule to this Ordinance, or to which this Ordinance is applied as hereinafter mentioned, is in such a state or locality as to be dangerous to the health of persons living in the neighbourhood thereof ; or that by reason of the surcharged state of the vaults or graves within any place of public worship, in any such place as aforesaid, or other cause, it is dangerous to the health of persons frequenting such place of public worship to permit the continuance of burials

in any vaults or graves within the same, and that sufficient means of interment exist within a convenient distance from such burial ground or place of public worship, it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the said Executive Council, to order that, after a time to be mentioned in the order, burials in any such burial ground or place of public worship shall be discontinued; and every such order shall be published in the Government Gazette.

5 After the time mentioned in any such order it shall not be lawful to bury any corpse or coffin in any burial ground or place of public worship mentioned in such order; and every person who after such time as aforesaid shall bury, or cause, permit, or suffer to be buried, any corpse or coffin contrary to this enactment, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

6 All graves in any burial ground within any of the places mentioned in the schedule to this Ordinance, or to which this Ordinance is applied as hereinafter mentioned, shall be dug to such a depth, being not less than three feet, as, considering the nature of the soil and other circumstances, the board of health of the province may think fit to direct; and the said board shall cause notice to be given of the depth to which graves are to be dug in any such burial ground, in such manner as the said board may think best adapted for giving the greatest publicity thereto; and whosoever, after such public notice, buries, or causes, permits, or suffers to be buried any corpse or coffin contrary to this enactment, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

7 All burial grounds within any of the places mentioned in the schedule to this Ordinance, or to which this Ordinance is applied as hereinafter mentioned, shall be enclosed with a sufficient wall or fence, and be kept clear of low jungle or underwood; and it shall be lawful for the board of health of the province to call upon the trustees, managers, or proprietors of any such burial ground, or upon the person having sole or principal charge thereof, to enclose or to clear the same as aforesaid, within a reasonable time to be determined by such board; and in case of non-compliance with such requisition, it shall be lawful for the said board to cause any such burial ground to be properly enclosed or cleared of jungle, at the expense of such trustees, managers, proprietors, or person having sole or principal charge thereof as aforesaid.

8 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by any proclamation to be by him from time to time for that purpose issued and published in the Government Gazette, to declare that the provisions contained in this Ordinance shall extend to and may be brought into operation within any town, village, or other place in this colony, other than those mentioned in the schedule to this Ordinance; and thereupon its several provisions shall apply and extend to and may be enforced within any town, village, or place mentioned in such proclamation, as fully to all intents and purposes as if such town, village, or place had been mentioned in the said schedule.

Limitation of prosecution.

9 No prosecution shall be instituted against any person for an offence against the provisions of this Ordinance unless the same shall be commenced within three months from the commission of the offence.

Informer's share of penalty.

10 It shall be lawful for the court before which any conviction under this Ordinance shall take place, to award to the person who may have given information of the offence such share of any penalty actually recovered, not exceeding the half of the sum recovered, as the court may deem fit.

Ordinance when to come into operation.

11 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the First day of July in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-five.

No. 10 of 1856.

To provide for the settlement of Claims to Exemption from Taxation of Temple Lands in the Kandyan Provinces, and for the due registration of all Lands belonging to such Temples.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by the Proclamation of the 21st November, 1818, all lands then the property of Buddhist temples in the Kandyan provinces were declared to be exempt from all taxation whatever; and by subsequent Proclamations of the 18th September, 1819, and 21st May, 1822, the persons having the charge or superintendence of such temples were required to register the lands thereunto belonging within the time appointed by the said Proclamations; and the certificate of such registration to be thereupon granted by the revenue commissioner or agent of Government was declared to be the sole sufficient proof that such lands were exempted from taxation: And whereas the said register was never completed, and great doubts exist as to what lands belong to the said temples and should be exempted from the tax leviable on other lands of the same description; and it is necessary for the protection of the revenue that measures should be taken for the speedy settlement, upon just grounds, of all claims on the part of such temples to exemption from taxation of the lands belonging thereto, and for ascertaining and defining the extent of all lands belonging to such temples, and making a correct registration thereof: And whereas it is therefore expedient that commissioners should be appointed to carry into effect the provisions of this Ordinance: It is enacted as follows:

1 In citing this Ordinance in any instrument or proceeding, it shall be sufficient to use the expression "The Temple Lands Registration Ordinance, 1856."

Short title of Ordinance.

2 The provisions of this Ordinance shall come into operation on the First day of January, 1857.

Commencement of Ordinance.

3 From the time when this Ordinance shall commence and take effect there shall be within this island one or more person or persons, not exceeding three in number, who shall be the commissioner or commissioners for carrying into effect the provisions of this Ordinance, and for executing the several powers hereby conferred upon them, and such commissioner or commissioners shall from time to time be appointed by the Governor, by a commission or commissions under the public seal of this island.

Governor to appoint commissioners to carry the Ordinance into effect.

4 Every such commissioner shall, before proceeding to execute the duties imposed on him by this Ordinance, take and subscribe before some justice of the peace the oath following:

Commissioners to take oath of office.

I, A. B., do swear that I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my skill and ability, execute and perform the several trusts, powers, and authorities vested and reposed in me as a commissioner by virtue of "The Temple Lands Registration Ordinance, 1856," according to equity and good conscience, and without favour or affection, prejudice, or partiality to any person or persons whomsoever. And I do further swear that I will not directly or indirectly receive or knowingly permit any other person to receive any fee or reward for anything done or to be done under the said Ordinance, excepting only such as the said Ordinance appoints or authorizes. So help me God.

Which oath so taken and subscribed by each commissioner shall be enrolled in the Supreme Court.

Oath to be enrolled in the Supreme Court.

5 No such commissioner shall be capable, whilst holding such commission, of being a purchaser, either in his own name or in the name or names of any person or persons, of any lands within any part of this island to which the provisions of this Ordinance extend.

Commissioner not to be purchaser of land.

6 It shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time to appoint a clerk to the said commissioners, and such other ministerial officers as to him may appear necessary for enabling such commissioners duly to execute the provisions of this Ordinance; and it shall be lawful for the said Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time to frame and establish such rules and regulations as to him may appear necessary for carrying into effect the several provisions of this Ordinance: Provided

Governor to appoint clerk and other officers; and to make rules for giving effect to the Ordinance.

Proviso.

Temple Lands (Kandyan Provinces).

such rules and regulations shall not be repugnant to or inconsistent with this Ordinance. And it shall also be lawful for the said Governor, with the advice aforesaid, to direct to be paid out of the Colonial Treasury to such commissioners, clerks, and other officers, such reasonable salaries or remuneration as he may think fit.

Time and place of the sittings of the commissioners, how appointed and notified.

7 The commissioners appointed by virtue of this Ordinance shall hold their sittings at any such place and at such times as shall from time to time be appointed by them, and as shall be found convenient and necessary for the despatch of business; and public notice in writing under the hand of such commissioners of the place and time so to be appointed shall be given by publication in the Government Gazette, and in such other manner as such commissioners shall direct, and as may appear best adapted for giving publicity thereto; and the proceedings of the said commissioners in the investigation of any claims or the settlement of any disputes, in virtue of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be carried on and the decisions and orders of such commissioners shall be pronounced and declared with open doors.

Proceedings of commissioners in the investigation of claims, &c., to be with open doors.

Commissioners to inquire into, ascertain, and set out the boundaries of temple lands in the Kandyan provinces.

8 So soon as this Ordinance shall come into operation the commissioners appointed by virtue thereof shall and they are hereby authorized and required to inquire into the boundaries of all lands, of whatsoever description the same may be, belonging or alleged to belong to or in the possession of all wihares and dewales within any district of the Kandyan provinces, to which the privilege of exemption from taxation of temple lands extends; and in case it shall appear to such commissioners that the boundaries of the same respectively are not sufficiently ascertained and distinguished, such commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and required to ascertain, determine, set out, and fix the same respectively; and after the said boundaries shall be so ascertained, determined, set out, and fixed, the same shall and are hereby declared to be the boundaries of such lands respectively, so far as regards any question between such temples and Her Majesty's Government, touching any claim to exemption from taxation, or touching the boundaries or extent of any lands whatsoever claimed by any such temple: Provided always that before such commissioners proceed to ascertain and set out such boundaries, they shall and are hereby required to give public notice by writing under their hands in the English and Sinhalese languages, to be affixed in the most public places in the district within which such lands are situated; and also by writing to be delivered to or left at the last or usual places of abode of the persons in charge of the temples to which such lands are alleged to belong, three weeks at least before the time of setting out such boundaries, of their intention to ascertain, determine, set out, and fix the same respectively.

Before doing so, three weeks public notice of their intention to be given.

So soon as such public notice is given, persons claiming lands within any district or village, all persons who shall have or claim to have any right to or in any lands situated within such district or village, belonging or alleged to belong to any wihare or dewale, shall deliver or transmit to such commissioners, within such time as they shall appoint for that purpose, a schedule in writing signed by the person having charge of the revenues of the temple to which such lands are alleged to belong, which schedule shall be, as near as is material, in the form following :

on behalf of temples to lodge with commissioners a schedule of such claims.

FORM OF CLAIM.

Description of the land	...	A tract of paddy land, with a chena adjoining (or a tract of forest land, or as the case may be), situated in the village of _____ in _____, and known by the name of _____.
Boundaries and computed extent of the land	...	Bounded north by —, &c., &c., and computed to contain _____.
Name and situation of the temple to which the land is alleged to belong	...
In what right the claim is made	...	In right of a sannas dated _____ (or as the case may be).
Name and residence of the priest or other person in charge of such land	...	(Signed) A. B., residing in the village of _____.

10 Provided that it shall and may be lawful for any such person, instead of delivering to such commissioners such schedule as aforesaid, to appear in person before such commissioners within such time as may be allowed for that purpose, and to state verbally to such commissioners the particulars of his claim required to be stated in such schedule ; and it shall be the duty of such commissioners, or one of them, thereupon to take down in writing, in the form required by the preceding section, the particulars of such claim, and to require such person to sign the same, or, in case of inability, the same shall be signed by the commissioner by whom such claim has been reduced to writing.

Instead of giving in a written claim, parties may appear before the commissioners and state the same verbally. Such verbal statements are to be recorded and signed.

11 All the said claims (whether delivered by the claimants to such commissioners, or by them reduced into writing) shall at all reasonable times, until after the commissioners have made registration of the lands claimed as hereinafter provided, be open to the inspection and perusal of all parties interested or claiming to be interested in the premises, their respective attorneys or agents, who may take copies thereof or extracts therefrom respectively ; and if any person interested or claiming to be interested in the premises shall have any objection to offer to any such claim, the particulars of such objection shall be reduced into writing and signed by him, and shall be delivered to the said commissioners at or before some meeting of such commissioners, to be by them appointed for that purpose ; or such objection shall be verbally stated at any such meeting to such commissioners, and by them reduced into writing, and signed by the party objecting, or in case of his inability to sign, by the commissioner by whom such objection has been reduced into writing ; and no such objection as aforesaid shall afterwards be received, unless for some legal disability, or special cause to be allowed by the said commissioners.

Commissioners to decide questions of exemption from taxation, and boundaries of temple lands.

12 It shall be lawful for such commissioners, and they are hereby required to inquire and determine the right and title of any such temple to exemption from taxation in respect of any lands alleged to belong thereunto, and what are the true and proper boundaries, name, and description of the lands belonging to any such temple ; but nothing herein contained shall authorize such commissioners to hear and determine any difference or dispute between any such temple and any person (except differences or disputes between such temple and Our Lady the Queen), touching the right or title to any land of any such person ; or to determine any question as to the validity or legal effect and construction of any grant, conveyance, mortgage, or other instrument, in virtue of which any such person claims to be entitled to such property : Provided, however, that no such difference or dispute and that no such question as aforesaid shall impede or delay the commissioners in the execution of the powers vested in them by this Ordinance ; but the claims to exemption from taxation shall be inquired into and determined, the boundaries of such temple lands shall be set out, the survey hereinafter mentioned shall be proceeded in, and the register of such lands shall be made, notwithstanding such difference, dispute, or question.

Disputes between temple and private persons not to delay the commissioners.

Instruments dated prior to 1st February, 1840, produced to the commissioners to be copied, and copies filed in district court.

13 If any person claiming on behalf of any such temple any land situated in this island in virtue of any grant, sannas, or other instrument made and executed prior to the 1st day of February, 1840, and of which no public registry exists, shall produce to the said commissioners the grant, sannas, or other instrument in virtue of which such person claims the said property or part thereof, or any right or interest therein, the said commissioners shall, and they are hereby required to examine and inquire strictly into the genuineness and authenticity of such grant, sannas, or other instrument, and if they shall be satisfied that the same is genuine they shall cause a true copy thereof to be made and certified under their hands, and to be then delivered to the secretary of the proper district court, to be by him preserved in the district court, in like manner as the duplicates of other deeds affecting land ; and no such grant, sannas, or other instrument dated prior to the said 1st day of February, 1840, and of which no public registry exists, which shall not have been produced to such commissioners in manner above mentioned, on or before the day on which the lands mentioned or described in such instrument shall have been registered as hereinafter provided, and of which a certified copy shall not have been forwarded to the district court for the purpose aforesaid, shall after such registration be admitted in any court as evidence of the title of such temple to the lands therein mentioned or referred to, in any suit with the Crown touching the right to such lands, or to exemption from taxation in respect thereof.

No such instrument, not produced, to be afterwards received in evidence.

14 In the execution of the powers vested in such commissioners by virtue of this Ordinance, they shall be guided by equity and good conscience only, and by the best evidence that can or may be procured, although not such as would be required or be admissible in ordinary cases; nor shall they be bound by the strict rules of law in any case, or by any technicalities or legal forms whatever; and it shall be lawful for the said commissioners, if they think proper, to examine on oath the parties, or any of them, making or opposing any claim investigated or inquired into by such commissioners, touching any of the matters in dispute.

Commissioners to be guided by equity, and not bound by the strict rules of law;

and may examine the parties on oath.

15 It shall be lawful to and for the said commissioners from time to time, as they shall see occasion, by any writing under their hands, to summon and require any person to appear before them at any time and place in such writing to be appointed, to testify the truth touching any claim or any matter in dispute between any proprietors or interested persons, or otherwise relating to the execution of the powers given by this Ordinance, and to produce in evidence all deeds, instruments, surveys, or writings in the possession or control of any such person, in so far as the same shall be necessary for the due investigation of any such claim or dispute, or for enabling the said commissioners duly to execute the powers given by this Ordinance; and to cause a copy of such writing to be served on such person required to give evidence or to produce such deeds, instruments, surveys, or writings, or to be left at his usual or last place of abode; and every person so summoned who shall not appear before such commissioners pursuant to such summons (without assigning some reasonable excuse for not appearing), or appearing shall without sufficient cause refuse to be sworn or examined on oath (which oath such commissioners are hereby empowered and required to administer), or shall without sufficient cause refuse or wilfully neglect to produce any such deeds, instruments, surveys, or writings, shall for every such neglect or refusal forfeit and pay such sum of money, not exceeding five pounds sterling, as such commissioners shall think fit and order; and it shall be lawful for the commissioners in such order to direct payment of any such fine to be made into the police court of the district in which such person resides; and if payment shall not be made as directed the said police court shall proceed to enforce the same and the charges relating to the recovery thereof, and to deal with the person liable to make the same in such manner as if the said fine had been imposed by such court.

Commissioners to have powers to summon witnesses.

Penalty for not obeying the summons.

Fine how recovered.

16 Provided that no witness summoned to attend before such commissioners shall be bound or obliged to travel more than ten miles from his usual place of abode for the purpose of such attendance.

Witness not bound to travel more than ten miles.

Temple Lands (Kandyan Provinces).

Evidence to be reduced to writing and signed.

17 All evidence given before such commissioners shall be taken down in writing in presence of the witnesses respectively giving the same, and shall at the time of their examination be signed by them, or in case of their refusal or inability to sign, by the commissioner by whom the same has been reduced to writing; and if any person shall in any examination, affidavit, or deposition to be had or taken in pursuance of this Ordinance before any such commissioners, knowingly and wilfully swear any matter or thing which shall be false, every such person so offending shall, on conviction thereof before any competent court, be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall suffer the like pains and penalties as persons guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury are now subject and liable to.

Persons swearing falsely to be deemed guilty of perjury.

Commissioners may order witnesses residing at a distance, or unable to attend, to be examined on oath by justice of the peace.

18 In case any party or any witness shall reside at a greater distance than ten miles from the place where the sittings of any such commissioners are appointed to be holden, or if any such person shall by reason of age, sickness, or infirmity be unable to travel, it shall be lawful for such commissioners to order, by writing under their hands, that such person shall be examined and cross-examined, upon oath, before any justice of the peace to be named in such order, as to any matter concerning which such commissioners require to be informed; and all justices of the peace in this island are hereby authorized and required, upon the receipt of any such order, to summon such person before him, and to examine him upon oath, and to transmit such examination under his hand to the said commissioners.

Duties of such justices of the peace.

Commissioner may order the person in charge of any temple land to put up landmarks.

19 It shall be lawful for such commissioners, whenever they shall see occasion, by writing under their hand, to order and direct the person in charge of any temple land, the boundaries of which have been ascertained and set out by such commissioners under the provisions of this Ordinance, to put up or make such fences, ditches, mounds, or other marks on the land of such description and at such places as to such commissioners shall appear necessary; and if any person shall refuse or neglect to put up or make such landmarks, and at such places as the said commissioners shall have ordered, within one month from the date of such order, it shall be lawful for such commissioners to cause such landmarks to be put up or made, and to recover from such person twice the amount of the costs necessarily incurred therein; and the said costs shall be recovered in like manner as any fine imposed on any witness under the 15th clause of this Ordinance.

On failure or refusal commissioners may have them erected, and recover double the cost of erection Penalty for removing or destroying landmark.

20 Every person who shall wilfully remove, destroy, or efface, or attempt to remove, destroy, or efface, any landmark which shall have been put up or made under the authority and for the purposes of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof in any competent court to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding one year.

Temple Lands (Kandyan Provinces).

21 So soon as conveniently may be after the said commissioners shall have ascertained and set out the boundaries of all lands belonging to any such temples within any district, or within any convenient subdivision of a district, or within any village, as the case may be, such commissioners shall form and draw up, or cause to be formed and drawn up, a register thereof, which shall be in the form hereunto annexed marked A, and shall express the situation, description, and name of the several lands registered; the name and situation of the temple to which the same belong; the boundaries, so far as the same can be described by existing landmarks; the extent, so far as the same is known; the names of the adjoining properties, or if they have no names, the names of the adjoining proprietors or occupiers; and the dates and description of any deeds or instruments produced to such commissioners relative to such property: Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to direct that the said registry shall be kept according to such other form, or shall contain such other or such additional information as may be found expedient.

Commissioners to draw up a registry of lands.

22 The said commissioners shall, at the request of the person in charge of the revenues of any such temple, grant and deliver to him a certificate under their hands, in the form hereunto annexed marked B, that the lands therein named or described have been registered as the property of such temple; and such certificate shall be sufficient proof of the exemption of such lands from taxation, and no other proof of exemption shall in any case be admitted or received in any court.

Commissioners to grant certificates of registration.

23 The said register shall be preserved in the office of the government agent of the province in which such lands shall be situated, to the end that recourse may be had there-to by any person interested therein, for the inspection or perusal thereof; and the said register and the several matters and things therein mentioned and contained shall to all intents and purposes be binding and conclusive upon and against Her Majesty and any temple concerned or interested in the same, or in any of the lands therein registered as aforesaid; and any map or plan which shall be made in virtue of the provisions of this Ordinance, the better to describe the properties mentioned in such register, shall be deposited with such register in the office of such government agent, and shall be deemed and construed in every respect as and for part of the said register.

Register to be preserved in the cutcherry.

Map of the lands to be deposited with the register in the cutcherry.

24 So soon as conveniently may be after such commissioners shall have ascertained and set out the boundaries of all such temple lands within any district or subdivision of a district, or village, as aforesaid, they shall give notice thereof in writing to the Surveyor-General, who shall cause a true and particular survey, admeasurement, and plan of all such lands to be made and reduced into writing, by such person as he shall nominate and appoint; and the number of acres

Commissioners to cause survey and plan to be made.

Temple Lands (Kandyan Provinces).

or decimal parts of an acre contained in all the lands so surveyed, and of each particular tract of paddy fields, chena, forest, or other allotment therein contained at the time of making such survey and admeasurement, shall be therein set forth and specified; and such plan shall be delivered to such commissioners to be by them deposited with the register in the office of the government agent as aforesaid.

Expenses of the survey how paid.

25 Subject to the limitations and exceptions hereinafter contained, one moiety of the expense of making such survey, admeasurement, and plan shall be defrayed by the person in charge of the lands surveyed, and shall be a charge upon such lands, and the other moiety of such expense shall be defrayed out of the Public Treasury.

Temple not liable for expenses of survey if it possesses an authenticated plan and there is no dispute as to boundaries.

26 If the person in charge of any temple land shall have in his possession and shall produce to such commissioners, prior to such survey being made, a plan of such land, authenticated by the Surveyor-General of this island, and if it shall not be necessary in the opinion of such commissioners for the settlement of any dispute respecting the boundaries of such land that the same should be surveyed, then and in such case the expense of any survey of such land which may be made under the authority and for the purposes of this Ordinance shall be defrayed out of the Public Treasury.

Powers of the commissioners may be exercised by any one of them.

27 All the powers and duties hereby vested in or imposed upon such commissioners shall and may be exercised and discharged by any one of such commissioners.

Penalty for obstructing commissioners or surveyor.

28 The said commissioners, surveyors, and all persons acting under their orders, shall at all times be entitled to enter upon the lands of any person or body corporate, for the purpose of ascertaining any boundaries, or putting up any landmarks, or making any survey, or for any other purpose contemplated by this Ordinance; and any person who shall wilfully resist, obstruct, hinder, or molest, and any person who shall incite, procure, or assist any other to resist, obstruct, hinder, or molest any commissioner, surveyor, or other person acting in the discharge of any duty or the performance of any act which they or any of them shall be authorized or required to perform under any of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding three months.

To prevent the leaving of Carts on the Colombo and Kandy Road.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make further provision Preamble.
for the prevention of obstructions to the traffic upon, and of injury to, the road from Colombo to Kandy, arising from the practice of leaving carts thereon: It is enacted as follows:

Carts.

Penalty for leaving carts, &c., on the Colombo and Kandy road.

1 Any person who shall leave, or permit to be left, on the road between Colombo and Kandy, or on the side of such road, any cart or other carriage whatever, without the oxen, horses, or other animals being yoked or harnessed thereto, unless such cart or carriage shall have been accidentally broken down there, and in case of such accident for a longer time than may be necessary for its removal, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten shillings, anything contained in the 13th clause of the 63rd section of the Ordinance No. 8 of 1848, entitled "To make provision for the formation and improvement of the means of communication in this Island," to the contrary notwithstanding.

Offences in what courts cognizable.

2 Every offence against this Ordinance may be inquired into, tried, and determined either by the police court of the district in which the offence was committed, or by the nearest police court on the line of road in the direction such cart or carriage may have been travelling.

Carts, &c., of offenders may be detained and sold.

3 It shall be lawful for any inspector of police, police headman, or other constable, and for any overseer of the road appointed by the Governor, to take charge of any cart or other carriage which may have been left on the said road contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, and of the oxen, horses, or other animals belonging thereto, and to deposit or keep the same in some place of safe custody until the penalty to which the person having had charge thereof may become liable has been paid; and if such penalty, and any expenses incurred in feeding and watching such oxen, horses, or animals, shall not be paid within ten days from the day of the conviction, it shall be lawful for the police court before which the case shall have been heard to order that such cart, carriage, oxen, horses, or other animals shall be sold for the purpose of satisfying such penalty and expenses aforesaid.

Ordinance may be applied to other public roads.

4 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by any Proclamation to be by him from time to time for that purpose issued and published in the Government Gazette, to declare that the provisions contained in this Ordinance shall extend to any other public road in this colony, whenever it shall appear to the said Governor and Council that a sufficient number of halting places have been constructed along the same; and thereupon its several provisions shall apply and extend to and may be enforced in reference to any public road mentioned in such Proclamation, as fully to all intents and purposes as if such road had been specially mentioned in this Ordinance.

Treasurer.

9 The Treasurer of the colony for the time being shall be the treasurer of the said bank.

Board of directors.

[§ 2, 12 of 1892]

10 The board of directors may, with the approval of the Governor, acting with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, order the treasurer to pay out of the funds of the bank such sums of money as to them shall seem fit, by way of salary or fees, to the secretary, auditor, accountant, clerks, and other officers and servants employed in the business of the bank.

[§ 6, 12 of 1892]

General meeting.

11 A general meeting of the depositors of the said bank shall be held once a year, on or before the 31st day of March, at which meeting the board of directors shall submit a statement of the affairs of the said bank for the preceding year.

Special meeting.

[§ 7, 12 of 1892]

12 The board of directors may call special general meetings when they think proper; and, on the requisition of any two directors delivered in writing to the secretary, it shall be obligatory on him to call a special general meeting within fifteen days from the date of the delivery of such requisition.

Notice of general meetings.

13 Seven days' notice of every general meeting shall be published in the Government Gazette and in all the local newspapers.

Board of directors to make rules and regulations.

14 The board of directors may from time to time make rules and regulations touching the business of the said bank, which said rules and regulations shall not come into operation until they shall have been approved of by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council.

Regulations when valid to be kept in a book.

15 Such rules and regulations shall be entered in a book to be kept at the office of the said bank, which book shall be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of the depositors.

Regulations on whom binding.

16 The said rules and regulations so made as aforesaid shall be binding on the board of directors and officers of, and all depositors in, and all borrowers and other persons having dealings with, the bank, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, assigns, and agents, without further notice thereof.

Printed copies of regulations to be furnished.

17 The board of directors, and all officers, depositors, borrowers, and other persons having dealings with the bank, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, assigns, and agents, shall, on demand, be entitled to be furnished by the secretary of the said bank with one printed copy of the said rules and regulations, as often as the same are altered and amended, free of expense, and any additional copies on a reasonable payment for the same.

Depositors.

[§ 8, 12 of 1892]

18 No depositor shall be allowed to deposit in the said bank any sum less than fifty cents at any one time or more than rupees one thousand in any one year, nor shall any depositor be allowed to have at any one time in the said bank a larger sum than rupees three thousand of principal.

Ceylon Savings Bank.

19 Any charitable society or institution may deposit funds in the said bank to the amount of rupees two thousand five hundred per annum until such deposits, including interest, shall amount to rupees seven thousand five hundred, after which the said deposits shall not bear interest at a higher rate than three per cent. per annum: Provided that the said bank may at any time refuse to receive any sum of money from any such society or institution, and may give thirty days' notice to the treasurer, trustees, or officers thereof to withdraw from the Savings Bank all such sums as may have been deposited therein on behalf of such society or institution, together with the interest which may have accumulated thereon, and from and after the expiration of such period no further interest shall be payable on such deposits.

Charitable societies may become depositors.
[§ 9, 12 of 1802]

20 The receipt of any such treasurer, trustees, or officers for the time being of any such society or institution, for money withdrawn by or paid to such society or institution, shall be a sufficient discharge to the said bank in that behalf.

Discharge for payments made to charitable societies.

21 The said bank may receive deposits from or for the benefit of minors, subject to the same regulations as to deposits made by others, and it shall be lawful for the bank to pay to such minors the interest which may become due on such deposits. Any deposit made by or on behalf of any minor may be paid to him personally, or to his guardian for his use if the deposit was made by any person other than the minor, together with the interest accrued thereon. The receipt of any minor or guardian for money paid to him under this section shall be a sufficient discharge therefor.

Deposits by or on behalf of minors.
[§ 10, 12 of 1802]

22 In case any dispute shall arise between the board of directors of the said bank, or any person or persons acting under them, and any individual depositor therein, or any trustee of a depositor, or any person claiming to be heir, executor, administrator, assign, or agent of such depositor, then and in every such case the matter so in dispute shall be referred to two arbitrators, one to be appointed by each party, which arbitrators shall in the first instance conjointly appoint an umpire, and the judgment of such arbitrators or umpire shall be conclusive: Provided that neither party shall be entitled to institute any suit in reference to such dispute as aforesaid until after the same has been referred to arbitration in manner aforesaid, and then only in case of the arbitrators or umpire failing to make an award within the time specified in the order of reference, or, if no time is specified therein, within a reasonable time.

Arbitration.

23 The several sums which shall from time to time be deposited in the bank shall be laid out at interest by the treasurer on the mortgage of immovable property in this island, or in Government securities of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of India, or of this island, or of any British colony; and the treasurer is hereby empowered from time to time to sell or otherwise dispose of such securities. Provided, however, that any moneys remaining in the hands of the treasurer over and above the principal of the moneys deposited in the said bank may, until so invested as aforesaid, be deposited at interest by the treasurer in any bank approved by the Governor carrying on business in this island.

24 All mortgages, hypothecations, bonds, receipts instruments, and securities for monies invested or deposited as aforesaid shall be granted to "the treasurer of the Ceylon Savings Bank," without specifying the name of the treasurer.

25 All suits and actions to be instituted by or against the bank shall be instituted by or against the Attorney-General of the island for the time being.

26 The accountant of the bank shall pay to the treasurer all sums of money received by him from depositors, as often as the same shall amount to five hundred rupees; and the treasurer shall not make any payment unless the person or persons applying for that purpose shall produce to him an order signed by the secretary and one director.

28 In case of the death of any depositor whose deposits, including interest thereon, shall not amount to rupees one thousand, and where the treasurer shall be satisfied by affidavit that the depositor died intestate, and that no letters of administration are required by law to be taken out, the treasurer shall be at liberty to pay the amount of such deposits to any person or persons appearing to him to be entitled thereto as heir or heirs at law of the deceased depositor; and such payment shall be a full discharge from all further liability in respect of the money so paid.

29 All monies, goods, chattels, and effects whatsoever, and all securities for money, or other obligatory instruments and evidences or muniments of title, and all other effects whatsoever, and all rights or claims belonging to or held by the said bank, shall vest in the Government of this colony for the use and benefit of the said bank and the respective depositors therein, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns respectively, according to their respective claims and interest, and also shall, for all purposes of action or suit, as well criminal as civil, in anywise touching or concerning the same, be deemed and taken to be, and shall in every such proceeding (where necessary) be stated to be, the property of "the Crown," without further description.

30 No power, warrant, or letter of attorney granted or to be granted by the board of directors, nor any power, warrant, or letter of attorney given by any depositor in the said bank to any other person, authorizing him to make any deposit of any sum of money in the said bank on behalf of the said depositor, or to sign any document or instrument required by the rules or regulations of the said bank to be signed on making such deposit, or to receive back any sum of money deposited in the said bank, or the dividends or interest arising therefrom, nor any receipt nor any entry in

No. 1 of 1860.An Ordinance to prevent the overcrowding of Vessels carrying Passengers in the Gulf of Mannar and Palk's Straits.

WHEREAS it is necessary to prevent the overcrowding of vessels carrying passengers in the Gulf of Mannar and Palk's Straits: And whereas the Ordinance No. 10 of 1857 was passed for effecting the above purpose, which said Ordinance has expired, and the Ordinance No. 8 of 1853 has thereby become revived: It is enacted as follows:

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the day of the passing thereof.

2 The Ordinance No. 8 of 1853, intituled "To regulate the number of Passengers on board of Vessels proceeding from Ceylon to certain parts of the East Indies," is hereby repealed.

3 For the purposes of this Ordinance the word "vessel" shall not apply to any vessel propelled partly or wholly by steam.

4 No vessel shall carry passengers from any port or place in Ceylon to any port or place in India in the Gulf of Mannar or Palk's Straits, in a proportion greater than one passenger to every four tons of the burden of such vessel, without a license.

5 No vessel shall be licensed to carry passengers on any such voyage as aforesaid in a proportion greater than one passenger to every ton of burden, nor unless the vessel has space on a deck or platform, under hatches, reserved for the accommodation of the passengers, in the proportion of six superficial feet for every passenger, with not less than five feet clear between the upper deck and the lower deck or platform, except a vessel proceeding in ballast, which may be licensed to carry a number of passengers not exceeding the proportion of two and a half to every ton of her burden; provided that the whole of the space usually allotted for cargo, and not occupied by ballast, be kept for the accommodation of the passengers, and for storing the provisions and water for their use; and that the space left clear for the accommodation of the passengers on the deck or decks of the vessel be not less than four superficial feet for each passenger.

Penalty on master of unlicensed vessel.

6 The master or tindal of any vessel which shall carry passengers on any such voyage as aforesaid without a license, in a proportion exceeding that laid down in the 4th section of this Ordinance, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two pounds for each passenger in excess of such proportion.

Penalty on master of licensed vessel.

7 The master or tindal of any licensed vessel which shall carry on any such voyage a greater number of passengers than is specified in the license, or in which the accommodation therein required shall not be afforded, or who shall knowingly receive or allow to come on board such vessel a greater number of passengers than is specified in the license, intending to proceed to sea with such passengers on any such voyage, shall be liable for any such offence to a fine not exceeding two pounds for each passenger in excess of such number, or for each passenger who is not provided with accommodation agreeably to the license.

Government to appoint ports for shipment of passengers when the number of passengers to be carried is greater than one to every four tons of burden.

8 Passengers in a greater number than one passenger to every four tons of the burden of any vessel shall not be shipped from Ceylon for any port or place in India in the Gulf of Mannar or Palk's Straits, except from such ports as shall be from time to time appointed by the Governor by an order published in the Government Gazette; and the master or tindal of any vessel who shall take on board passengers for such voyage from any other port or place in a greater proportion to the burden of the vessel than is above-mentioned shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two pounds for each passenger embarked.

Grant of license to vessels.

9 It shall be at the discretion of the collectors of customs for the ports appointed for shipping passengers, or such other persons as the Governor may from time to time appoint for the purpose, to grant licenses to vessels under this Ordinance. The license shall describe the vessel, her tonnage and rig, the number of her boats, anchors, and cables, also the name of the owner and of the master or tindal, and the number of the crew, and shall specify the number of passengers she may carry and the space to be assigned for their accommodation: Provided if any doubts shall arise whether any vessel about to proceed with passengers as aforesaid is seaworthy, so as to be fit for her intended voyage, and such doubts shall not be removed to the satisfaction of the collector of customs at the port from which such vessel is to be cleared out, it shall be lawful for such collector to cause such vessel to be surveyed by such person as shall be appointed by the Governor for that purpose, and if it shall be reported by such person that such vessel is not seaworthy with reference to such voyage, such vessel shall not be cleared out until such vessel shall have been rendered seaworthy.

Supply of provisions on board passenger vessels plying to and from Ceylon, &c.

10 The master or tindal of any vessel licensed to carry passengers from any port in Ceylon to any port or place in India in the Gulf of Mannar or Palk's Straits who shall proceed on any such voyage without having laid in a supply of water and provisions for the passengers, according to a scale to be fixed by the collector of customs for such port, or such other person as the Governor may from time to time appoint for the purpose, and which shall be hung up at the custom house of the port, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

11 The master or tindal of any vessel licensed to carry passengers as hereinbefore provided shall sign and deliver, in duplicate, to the principal officer of customs at the place of embarkation, or such other person as the Governor may from time to time appoint for the purpose, a list, according to the form annexed to this Ordinance, of all passengers to be conveyed in such vessel, and such officer, after satisfying himself of the correctness of the same, and that the number of passengers authorized is not exceeded, shall countersign and return one such list to the master or tindal, to be produced to the proper officer at the port to which the vessel is bound; and should any additional passengers engage to proceed by such vessel after such list has been so countersigned, the master or tindal may insert their number in the original list, obtaining the signature of the controlling officer as before. The officer in charge of the customs may withhold the port clearance till this provision is complied with.

List of passengers to be signed by master.

Additional passengers.

12 The principal officer in charge of the customs at the port of embarkation, or any person authorized by him, shall be at liberty at all times to enter and inspect any passenger vessel and the fittings, provisions, and stores therein, and to muster the passengers and crew, and whoever impedes such entry, inspection, or muster, or refuses to allow the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty for impeding entry or inspection.

13 If any passenger in any vessel shall be landed at any port or place other than the port or place at which he may have contracted to land, unless with his previous consent, or unless such landing is made necessary by perils of the sea or other unavoidable accident, the master shall for each offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty on landing passenger at a place other than at which he has contracted to land.

14 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall take away or abridge any right of action which may accrue to any passenger or to any other person in respect of the breach or non-performance of any contract made with the master or owner of the vessel or his agent.

Passenger's right of action preserved.

15 Any offence against this Ordinance, though the same may be beyond the jurisdiction of a police court by reason of the amount of punishment to which the offender is liable, shall and may nevertheless be inquired into, tried, and punished by the police court of the district in which the offence was committed, wholly or in part, or where the offender is found; and any fine imposed on the master or tindal of any vessel for a breach of this Ordinance may be recovered from the owner of such vessel or from his agent; and if the person directed to pay any penalty is the master

No. 3 of 1861.

An Ordinance to authorize the formation of Volunteer Corps in this Colony, and to provide for the good order and discipline thereof.

(See No. 8 of 1881, No. 9 of 1881, No. 7 of 1884, No. 11 of 1889, No. 17 of 1890, and No. 2 of 1892.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS certain of Her Majesty's loyal subjects are desirous of associating and enrolling themselves as military corps, and it is expedient to authorize the Governor to accept their services, and to provide for the establishment, maintenance, good order, and discipline of the said corps: It is enacted as follows:

Commencement
of Ordinance.

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such day as shall be mentioned in the Proclamation by the Governor in the Government Gazette of this island, notifying that the same has been confirmed by Her Majesty.

Volunteer Corps.

2 Whenever any number of persons not less than thirty shall, by petition addressed to the Governor, express their willingness to form themselves into a corps and to submit to the provisions of this Ordinance, and to such rules and regulations as shall be made in pursuance of the powers given by it, and shall pray the Governor to accept their services as volunteers and to permit their enrolment, it shall be lawful for the Governor, if he shall see fit so to do, to grant their petition and to signify his assent by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, and to issue commissions appointing the persons named therein to be the officers of the corps and the commanding officer thereof, and, if need be, to join different corps into regiments, and to appoint the commanding officers thereof, under such conditions and according to such regulations as may be approved by the Governor.

Governor to accept services of volunteers and to issue commissions to officers.

3 The Governor may disband any corps enrolled under the provisions of this Ordinance, or any part thereof, or remove from the corps any member thereof, whenever he shall think it necessary or proper so to do: Provided, however, that the whole or part so disbanded, or the member removed, shall remain subject to the liabilities imposed upon such as shall be disbanded or removed by this Ordinance, or by any rules or regulations to be made in pursuance of the powers given by it.

Governor may disband corps or remove any member.
Proviso.

4 The Governor may call out the volunteer force or any part thereof whenever occasion may require, and when it is so called out it shall be placed and be liable to act under the orders of the senior officer in command of Her Majesty's troops in this colony.

Governor may call out volunteer corps, and when called out it must be under the orders of the officer commanding the force.

7 Every person enrolled in any corps of volunteers, including the officers, shall, as soon as possible, take the following oath, or if he be not a Christian make the following affirmation, which oath or affirmation shall be administered by any justice of the peace having jurisdiction in the place where such oath shall be taken:

Oath to be taken by volunteers.

I, A. B., do sincerely promise and swear (or do solemnly, sincerely, and truly affirm and declare, as the case may be) that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, her heirs and successors, and that I will faithfully serve Her Majesty in Ceylon for the defence thereof against all her enemies and opposers whatever.

8 The commanding officer of each corps shall appoint the non-commissioned officers necessary for the due working of the said corps.

Appointment of non-commissioned officers.

9 Every person shall be deemed an effective member of the volunteer corps who is enrolled and serves as such for the time and in the manner directed by the rules and regulations, and shall be duly returned and certified as such by the commanding officer of the corps.

Who are effective members of the corps.

10 Every volunteer corps shall be liable to be inspected once at least within six months by the officer commanding Her Majesty's regular forces, or by some field officer authorized thereunto by him.

Liability to be inspected.

Volunteer Corps.

Commanding officers to make returns.

11 All commanding officers of volunteers shall on the first day of May in every year, or within fourteen days thereafter, make returns to the Governor showing the state and strength of the corps, and certify the same to be true, and every commanding officer shall in such return specially state the number of men on the establishment, and also the number of supernumeraries allowed in such corps, and shall also distinguish the effective from the non-effective members, and shall state the names of all such as shall have been admitted into, and all such as have joined, their respective corps since the last return, and the names of all persons absent on leave, and also the names of all persons who shall have been discharged from or shall have quitted the corps since the last return, and shall also at such period make to the senior officer commanding the troops of Her Majesty's regular forces in this island accurate returns of their respective corps, specifying the numbers of the effective and non-effective men at the time of making such returns; and all such returns shall be made as near as may be according to the description of the corps in the form in which the monthly military returns are usually made.

Appointment of and sentences by general courts martial.

12 General courts martial shall be convened and appointed by the commanding officer of the regiment, if there be one, with the sanction of the Governor, or by the Governor, if there be no commanding officer of the regiment, for the trial of military offences of which any volunteer shall be guilty whilst on actual duty; and no sentence of such court martial shall be put into execution until after a report of the whole proceedings shall have been made to and the sentence shall have been confirmed by the Governor. The Governor may commute any such sentence for a less punishment, or pardon the offender.

General court martial of whom to be composed.

13 General courts martial shall consist of not less than thirteen members of the corps or regiment, and every member of the corps or regiment, whether an officer or not, shall be competent to sit and act as a member of such courts martial.

Regimental courts martial.

14 Regimental courts martial may be convened by the commanding officer of the corps, and shall consist of not less than three members of the corps.

Proceedings of courts martial.
[See 8 of 1881.]

15 The proceedings of courts martial convened under this Ordinance shall be conducted according to the laws and customs applicable to courts martial held under the Mutiny Act and Articles of War, except so far as the same are inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance.

Volunteers guilty of military offences in cases of invasion, &c., to be subject to Articles of War so far as they apply to officers.

[§ 1, 7 of 1884]

16 Every member of any such corps enrolled according to the provisions of this Ordinance shall for all military offences of which he shall be guilty, when warned for actual duty in cases of actual invasion, or of any appearance of any enemy on the coast of Ceylon, or of rebellion or insurrection arising or existing within the same, or whenever the volunteer force or any part thereof has been called out by the Governor

Volunteer Corps.

under the power in that behalf hereinbefore provided, or whilst on actual duty in such cases as aforesaid, be subject to the Mutiny Act and Articles of War, so far as the same are applicable to officers and consistent with the provisions of this Ordinance: Provided that no such person shall for any offence be subject to the punishment of death, instead of which it shall be competent for the general court martial before which such member shall be tried to award such lighter punishment than death as the court shall deem fit.

Proviso.

17 If in cases other than those referred to in the preceding section any member of such corps shall be guilty of any military offence except as is hereinafter excepted, he shall be liable, upon conviction by a general court martial, to a fine not exceeding £10, or to simple dismissal from the corps, or to dismissal from the corps as unworthy to belong to it.

Volunteers guilty of military offences in other cases to be subject to fine and dismissal.

18 If any member of such corps shall without reasonable excuse neglect to attend drill or parade at such times as may be appointed for that purpose, or shall be guilty of any neglect of duty or misconduct, or other military offence which in the judgment of the commanding officer of the corps will be sufficiently punished by a small fine, he shall be liable to pay such sum, not exceeding £5, as a regimental court martial shall adjudge: Provided that the commanding officer of the corps may, instead of trying any such member so guilty as aforesaid by a regimental court martial, summarily order him to pay a fine not exceeding five shillings.

Volunteers not attending drill or parade, or guilty of minor offences, subject to fine.

19 Every person who shall not during the time of training and exercise, or of being under arms, or wearing the clothing or accoutrements of the corps, conduct himself in a decent and orderly manner, or shall not obey the lawful command of the commanding officer thereof, may be ordered by him into the custody of any persons belonging to such corps for the time during which it shall remain under arms.

When commanding officer may order volunteers into custody.

20 In case any member of such corps shall neglect or refuse to pay any fine to which he shall be sentenced by any court martial, within such time as shall be fixed by such court martial, he may be dismissed by the commanding officer of the corps from such corps, and every dismissal shall be recorded and reported to the Governor: Provided that such dismissal shall be no bar to the recovery of the fine in the manner hereinafter provided.

Dismissal for nonpayment of fine.

21 Any volunteer may at any time, except whilst on actual duty, quit the corps, and he shall accordingly be struck out of the muster roll of such corps in the manner and under the conditions hereinafter mentioned.

When volunteers may quit the corps.

22 No person shall be entitled to quit any corps without giving fourteen days' notice in writing of his intention to the commanding officer of the corps, unless such commanding officer shall dispense with such notice: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor to allow any volunteer to quit the corps at any time and under any circumstances, subject to such conditions as the Governor shall see fit to impose.

Conditions of quitting.

Volunteer Corps.

Volunteers when called out on service to be entitled to pay and quarters.

23 All persons enrolled in any corps of volunteers when called out on actual duty by the Governor shall be entitled to pay in such manner and after such rates and conditions, and to be quartered and billeted in like manner in every respect, and under and subject to the same regulations, as Her Majesty's other forces, as far as the same shall by the Governor be deemed applicable to the volunteer corps.

Relief to families of volunteers called out on service.

24 All persons enrolled, and who shall when called out on such actual duty as aforesaid leave families unable to support themselves, shall during the period of their absence or service on military duty be entitled to relief for their wives and families, and it shall be lawful for the Governor to fix the amount of such relief.

When travelling expenses are payable to volunteers.

25 Whenever any person enrolled as aforesaid shall be called out on actual duty as aforesaid away from his place of residence, he shall be entitled to receive, if willing to do so, his travelling expenses from and to such residence, and it shall be lawful for the Governor to fix the rate and amount of such expenses.

Pensions to volunteers disabled on service and to the widows and families of those killed on service.

26 All commissioned officers of volunteers who shall be disabled when called out on actual duty as aforesaid, and all non-commissioned officers, drummers, and private men of any corps of volunteers so disabled, and the widows and families of all such commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers, drummers, and private men of any corps of volunteers killed in such actual duty, shall be entitled to such pensions as shall be fixed by the Governor.

Exemption from toll.

27 No toll shall be demanded or taken for the horses, animals, or conveyances of volunteers going to or returning from the performance of any military duty, or for any vehicles employed in conveying the arms, ammunition, accoutrements, uniforms, provisions, and baggage which are bonâ fide the property of the corps and to be used by the volunteers: Provided that in the former case every volunteer claiming such exemptions be at the time dressed in the uniform of his corps, or armed and accoutred according to the regulation provided for such corps; and in the latter case the person or persons in charge of the vehicles shall present, at the time of claiming the exemption, a certificate from the commanding officer of the corps or detachment and signed by him, setting out that the property conveyed by the vehicles is bonâ fide the property of the corps, and to be used by the volunteers as such.

Exemption from postage.

28 Letters being strictly on Her Majesty's service, and bearing on the outside or cover thereof the signature of any commissioned officer of the volunteer corps from whom they shall have been sent, and also words or letters indicating that such letters are on Her Majesty's service only, will be received and forwarded by any post office in the island free of postage. And should any private note or private communication of any sort or kind whatever be written or printed on or contained in any such official letter, it shall be deemed an offence, and any person found guilty thereof will be liable on conviction to any fine not exceeding £5.

29 All arms, ammunition, accoutrements, or uniforms consigned to any officer of the volunteer corps, being the property of the corps, are to be passed by the customs duty free, on the officer to whom they are consigned delivering to the collector of customs a list of the articles, and certifying at the foot thereof that they are bonâ fide the property of the corps: Provided always that all such property shall, in case of the sale thereof after importation, be liable to and be charged with such and the same duties of customs as may by law be payable or charged on the like property, not being the property of the volunteer corps.

Exemption
duty.

30 The commanding officer of any corps receiving any arms or accoutrements supplied at the public expense or by subscription may, with the consent of the Governor, appoint proper places for depositing and safe keeping of the arms and accoutrements of the corps, and proper persons to repair and keep such arms in good condition; and all reasonable expenses incurred in placing and keeping them clean and in proper repair, order, and condition shall be paid from the General Treasury, upon warrant to be for that purpose issued by the Governor: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint any person or persons to inspect and report upon the state and condition of such arms and accoutrements, and to audit the account, and order such sums as expenses as he shall consider right.

sum of money as shall be adjudged by a regimental court martial to be assembled for that purpose by the commanding officer of the corps.

Volunteer liable to fines and subscriptions though he quits the corps, or is dismissed therefrom, or corps be disbanded.

33 Every person quitting his corps, or being dismissed therefrom, or whenever the said corps shall be disbanded, shall nevertheless remain liable to all subscriptions and fines incurred by him under any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or any of the rules and regulations of his corps.

Sums due by volunteers how recoverable.

34 If any volunteer shall neglect or refuse, on demand made for that purpose, to pay any sum which he may be condemned to pay by the sentence of a court martial, or any sum subscribed or required by any rules of such corps to be subscribed by him towards any expenses thereof, in such case any police magistrate residing in or near to the place in which such corps shall be, on application made for that purpose by any commanding or field officer, or adjutant or serjeant major, under any order of the commanding officer of any such corps, may direct such sum to be paid as a fine, on a day to be named in an order to be for that purpose made by such police court and served upon such volunteer; and in default of his so paying the sum due by him, the police court shall and may proceed to recover the same in such and the same manner as any fine adjudged by police courts against any person is recovered.

Fines, &c., payable to commanding officers.

35 All sums levied as fines, penalties, or otherwise under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be paid to the commanding officer of the particular corps in respect of which such sums have been recovered, and shall go to the general stock of such corps, to be applied in the general expenses thereof in like manner as any subscription or money may be applied; or where there shall be no subscription or stock, then to any such purpose as the commanding officer may think fit.

Notice of action and limitation thereof.

36 No suit, action, or other proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted against any person for anything done in pursuance of this Ordinance, or for any act done in the real or alleged discharge of his duty as a member of the volunteer corps, without a month's previous notice in writing being given him of the intended action and of the cause thereof, nor after tender of sufficient amends, nor after the expiration of three months from the accrual of the cause of action or other proceeding.

Certificate of commanding officer to be evidence of enrolment.

37 A certificate of enrolment in a volunteer corps signed by the commanding officer thereof shall be prima facie evidence of such enrolment without any further proof.

Penalty for hindering volunteers or injuring their property.

38 If any person shall knowingly and wilfully hinder or obstruct or interfere with the march or evolutions of volunteers lawfully assembled, or injure the targets, shooting sheds, parade drill ground, rifle range, or other the property belonging to or in the charge of any volunteer corps, such person shall be guilty of an offence and subject to a fine not exceeding £5.

Joint Stock Companies.

39 If any person shall knowingly and wilfully buy, take in exchange, or otherwise receive any arms, accoutrements, or clothing, or any public stores or ammunition delivered for the use of any corps of volunteers, he shall for every offence be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty for knowingly buying or receiving arms, &c.

40 Whosoever assaults or resists, or aids or assists any person in assaulting or resisting, or incites any person to assault or resist, any volunteer in the execution of his duty, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding six months.

Penalty for assaulting or resisting volunteers in the execution of their duty.

4th September, 1861.

No. 4 of 1861.

(As amended by No. 9 of 1867 and No. 3 of 1893.)

An Ordinance to promote the establishment of Joint Stock Companies, both with unlimited and limited liability.

(See No. 6 of 1868.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to promote the establishment of certain partnerships or joint stock companies, with or without limited liability, and to provide for the due registration of the above :

Preamble.

It is enacted as follows :

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

Commencement.

2 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as the "Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance, 1861."

Short title.

3 This Ordinance shall not apply to persons associated together for the purposes of banking or insurance.

Banking and insurance companies exempted.

PART I.

Registration.

4 The registration of companies shall be conducted as follows ; (that is to say.)

Registration.

(1) The Governor may from time to time appoint such registrars, assistant registrars, clerks, and servants as he may think necessary for the registration of companies under this Ordinance, and remove them at pleasure.

(2) The Governor may, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, make regulations with respect to the duties to be performed by any such registrars, assistant registrars, clerks, and servants as aforesaid, and may determine the place or places at which offices for the registration of companies are to be established.

Joint Stock Companies.

- (3) There shall be paid to any registrar, assistant registrar, clerk, or servant that may hereafter be employed in the registration of joint stock companies, such salary as the Governor may direct : Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor to direct the payment to them of fees instead of salary, and to apportion such fees amongst the officers respectively as he may think fit.
- (4) There shall be paid to the registrar of joint stock companies in respect of the several matters mentioned in the table marked A in the schedule hereto the several fees therein specified.
- (5) Every person may inspect the documents kept by the registrar, and may require a copy or extract of any document or part of a document to be certified by the registrar, and there shall be paid for such inspection and for such certified copy or extract the respective fees specified in the said table A. Such certified copy or extract shall be primâ facie evidence of the matters therein contained in all legal proceedings whatever.
- (6) Excepting in case the Governor shall otherwise direct, all fees authorized by and paid under this Ordinance shall be paid into the public treasury and carried to account as the Governor shall appoint.
- (7) Whenever any act is herein directed to be done to or by the registrar of joint stock companies such act shall, until a registrar of joint stock companies shall have been appointed, be done to or by the registrar of the Supreme Court, who shall until such appointment have the powers and be subject to the liabilities given to and imposed upon the registrar of joint stock companies.

PART II.

Constitution and Incorporation of Companies and Associations. Registry.

5 Seven or more persons associated for any lawful purpose may, by subscribing their names to a memorandum of association, and otherwise complying with the requisitions of this Ordinance in respect of registration and incorporation, procure themselves to be formed into an incorporated company with or without limited liability.

6 No company, association, or partnership consisting of more than twenty persons shall, after the passing of this Ordinance, carry on any trade or business having for its object the procurement of gain to the company, association, or partnership, or to the individual members thereof, unless it is registered as a company under the "Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance, 1861," or is incorporated or otherwise legally constituted by some Act of Parliament, royal charter, or letters patent, or is registered as a company under or by virtue or in pursuance of any Act of Parliament relating to joint stock companies; and if any persons do so carry on business contrary to this provision, every person so acting shall be severally liable for the payment of the whole debts of the company, association, or partnership, and may be sued for the same without the joinder in the suit of any other member of the company, association, or partnership.

[§ 2, 9 of 1867]

Joint Stock Companies.

7 The memorandum of association shall contain the following particulars ; (that is to say,)

- (1) The name of the proposed company.
- (2) The town in which the registered office of the company is to be established.
- (3) The objects for which the proposed company is to be established.
- (4) The liability of the shareholders, whether it is to be limited or unlimited.
- (5) The amount of the nominal capital of the proposed company.
- (6) The number of shares into which such capital is to be divided, and the amount of each share, subject to the following restriction :

That in the case of a company formed with limited liability, and hereinafter called a limited company, the word "limited" shall be the last word in the name of the company.

8 No company shall be incorporated under a name identical with that by which any other company shall have been incorporated, or so nearly resembling the same as to be calculated to deceive; and if any company, through inadvertence or otherwise, is incorporated by a name identical with that by which a company shall have been previously incorporated, or so nearly resembling the same as to be calculated to deceive, such first-mentioned company shall, with the sanction of the Governor, change its name; and upon such change being made the registrar shall enter the new name on the register in the place of the former name; but no such alteration of name shall affect any rights or obligations of the company, or of any member thereof, or render defective any legal proceedings instituted or to be instituted by or against the company; and any legal proceedings may be continued or commenced against the company by its new name that might have been continued or commenced against the company by its former name.

8 (1) Any company with the sanction of a special resolution of the company passed in manner hereinafter mentioned, and with the approval of the Governor, testified in writing under the hand of the Colonial Secretary or of one of the assistant colonial secretaries, may change its name, and upon such change being made the registrar shall enter the new name in the register in the place of the former name, and shall issue a certificate of incorporation altered to meet the circumstances of the case; but no such alteration of name shall affect any rights or obligations of the company, or render defective any legal proceedings instituted or to be instituted by or against the company, and any legal proceedings may be continued or commenced against the company by its new name that might have been continued or commenced against the company by its former name.

Matters required to be prescribed by memorandum of association.

Prohibition against identity of names in incorporated companies.

[§ 4, 3 of 1893]

Power of company to change name.

[§ 5, 3 of 1893]

Joint Stock Companies.

Form of memorandum of association.

9 The memorandum of association shall be in the form marked B in the schedule hereto, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, and it shall, when the company is incorporated, bind the company and the shareholders therein as if there were in such memorandum contained on the part of every shareholder, his heirs, executors, and administrators, a covenant to conform to all the regulations of such memorandum, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance.

Shares to be taken by subscribers of memorandum of association.

10 Every subscriber of the memorandum of association shall take one share at least in the company. The number of shares taken by each subscriber shall be set opposite his name in such memorandum of association, and upon the incorporation of the company he shall be entered in the register of shareholders hereinafter mentioned as a shareholder to the extent of the shares he has taken.

Special regulations may be prescribed by articles of association.

11 The memorandum of association may be accompanied by, or have annexed thereto or indorsed thereon, articles of association, signed by the subscribers to the memorandum of association, and prescribing regulations for the company; but if no such regulations are prescribed, or so far as the same do not extend to modify the regulations contained in the table marked C in the schedule hereto, such last-mentioned regulations shall, so far as the same are applicable, be deemed to be the regulations of the company, and shall bind the company and the shareholders therein to the same extent as if they had been inserted in articles of association and such articles had been registered.

Effects of articles of association.

12 The articles of association shall, when the company is incorporated, bind the company and the shareholders therein to the same extent as if there were in such articles contained, on the part of every shareholder, his heirs, executors, and administrators, a covenant to conform to all the regulations of such articles, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance.

Stamp on memorandum of association and articles of association and use of printed copies.

13 The memorandum of association shall bear a stamp of five pounds, and the articles of association shall bear a stamp of one pound. Any person signing a printed copy of the memorandum of association or articles of association shall be deemed to have signed such memorandum and articles respectively, and where the proper stamp has been duly fixed on such memorandum of association or articles of association it shall not be necessary to stamp any printed copy so signed. The execution by any person of the memorandum of association or articles of association shall be attested by one witness at the least, and attestation by one witness shall be sufficient attestation.

How to obtain incorporation.

14 In order to obtain incorporation, the memorandum of association, together with the articles of association (if any), must be delivered to the registrar, who shall transmit the same to the Governor, and shall cause the same to be published in the Gazette in three consecutive numbers. After such publication it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, under the public seal of the island of Ceylon, to declare the company to be incorporated, which declaration shall be endorsed on the memorandum of association, and shall be in the form following :

Whereas the subscribers to this memorandum of association have done all things to entitle them to incorporation as a company, with limited (or unlimited, as the case may be) liability : Now know ye that we, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, do declare the said subscribers and their successors to be incorporated as the _____ Company (Limited), under the provisions of the Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance, 1861.

The memorandum of association, with the declaration endorsed thereon, and the articles of association, shall thereupon be returned to the registrar, who shall register the same.

15 The registrar shall, on payment of five shillings, issue a certificate of incorporation of any company to any person applying for the same, and such certificate shall be admissible in evidence.

Certificate of incorporation issuable to any party.

16 Upon the declaration of incorporation being registered as aforesaid, the subscribers to the memorandum of association, together with such other persons as may from time to time become shareholders in the company, shall thereupon be a body corporate by the name prescribed in the memorandum of association and declaration of incorporation, having a perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to hold lands, but with such pecuniary liability on the part of the shareholders as is hereinafter mentioned. The declaration of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all the requisitions of this Ordinance in respect of incorporation have been complied with, and the date of such declaration shall be deemed to be the date of the incorporation of the company.

Effect of registration.

17 No dividends shall be payable except with the sanction of the directors ; and if they shall declare and pay any dividend when the company is known by them to be insolvent, or any dividend the payment of which would to their knowledge render it insolvent, they shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of the company then existing, and for all that shall be thereafter contracted, so long as they shall respectively continue in office : Provided always that the amount for which they shall all be so liable shall not exceed the amount of such dividend, and that if any director shall object thereto, and shall file his objection in writing with the clerk of the company, he shall be exempted from the said liability.

Directors to be liable for debts, if dividend be paid when the company is known by them to be insolvent.

18 As soon as a certificate of incorporation has been granted the company may issue certificates of shares to the subscribers to the memorandum of association, and to all other persons to whom shares may be allotted, of such number and amount as may be prescribed by the memorandum of the association, but not of any greater number or amount. The shares so issued shall be movable property, and shall not be of the nature of immovable property, and each share shall be distinguished by its appropriate number.

Issue of shares by company.

Joint Stock Companies.Register of Shareholders.

Register of shareholders.

19 Every company registered under this Ordinance, hereinafter referred to as "the company," shall cause to be kept in one or more books a register of shareholders, and there shall be entered therein the following particulars :

- (1) The names, addresses, and occupations, if any, of the shareholders in the company, and the shares held by each of them, distinguishing each share by its number.
- (2) The amount paid on the shares of each shareholder.
- (3) The date at which the name of any person was entered in the register as a shareholder.
- (4) The date at which any person ceased to be a shareholder in respect of any share.

Annual list of shareholders on register.

20 Once at the least in every year a list shall be made of all persons who, on the fourteenth day succeeding the day on which the ordinary general meeting of the company, or if there is more than one ordinary general meeting in each year, the first of such ordinary general meetings, is held, are holders of shares in the company ; and such list shall state the names, addresses, and occupations of all the persons therein mentioned, and the number of shares held by each of them, and shall contain a summary specifying the following particulars :

- (1) The amount of the nominal capital of the company, and the number of shares into which it is divided.
- (2) The number of shares taken from the commencement of the company up to the date of the summary.
- (3) The amount of calls made on each share.
- (4) The total amount of calls that have been received.
- (5) The total amount of calls unpaid.
- (6) The total amount of shares forfeited.

The above list and summary shall be contained in a separate part of the register, and shall be in the form marked D in the schedule hereto, or as near thereto as circumstances admit ; such list and summary shall be completed within seven days after such fourteenth day as is mentioned in this section, and a copy thereof, authenticated by the seal of the company, shall forthwith be forwarded to the registrar, and any person may inspect and take copies of the same, subject to the regulations under which a person is hereinafter declared to be entitled to inspect and take copies of any documents kept by the registrar.

Penalty on company not keeping a register.

21 If any company registered under this Ordinance makes default in keeping a register of shareholders, or in sending a copy of such list and summary as aforesaid to the registrar, in compliance with the foregoing rules, such company shall incur a penalty not exceeding £5 for every day during which such default continues.

And every director or manager of the company who shall knowingly and wilfully authorize or permit a contravention of this section shall incur the like penalty.

Joint Stock Companies.

22 No notice of any trust, express or implied or constructive, shall be entered on the register, or receivable by the company; and every person who has accepted any share in a company registered under this Ordinance, and whose name is entered in the register of shareholders, and no other person (except a subscriber to the memorandum of association in respect of the shares subscribed for by him), shall for the purposes of this Ordinance be deemed to be a shareholder.

Restrictive definition of shareholder.

23 The transfer of any share in the company shall be in the form marked E in the schedule hereto, or to the like effect, and shall be executed both by the transferor and transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register book in respect thereof.

Transfer of shares.

24 A certificate under the common seal of the company, specifying any share or shares held by any shareholder, shall be prima facie evidence of the title of the shareholder to the share or shares therein specified.

Certificate of shares.

25 The amount of calls for the time being unpaid on any share shall be deemed to be a debt due from the holder of such share to the company.

Calls a debt to company.

26 The register and annual list of shareholders, commencing from the incorporation of the company, shall be kept at the registered office of the company hereinafter mentioned. Except when the register is closed as hereinafter mentioned, it shall during business hours (but subject to such reasonable restrictions as the company in general meeting may impose, so that not less than two hours in each day be appointed for inspection) be open to the inspection of any shareholder gratis, and to the inspection of any other person on the payment of one shilling or such less sum as the company may prescribe for each inspection; and every such shareholder or other person may require a copy of such register, or of any part thereof, on payment of sixpence for every hundred words required to be copied. If such inspection or copy is refused, the company shall incur for each refusal a penalty not exceeding two pounds, and a further penalty not exceeding two pounds for every day during which such refusal continues.

Inspection of register.

And every director and manager of the company who shall knowingly authorize or permit such refusal shall incur the like penalty.

[§7, 3 of 1893]

27 The company may, upon giving notice by advertisement in the Government Gazette, close the register of shareholders for any time or times not exceeding on the whole twenty-one days in each year, and the period during which the books are closed shall not be reckoned as part of the time within which a transfer is to be registered.

Power to close register.

28 Any limited company may by special resolution convert into stock any shares which have been fully paid up, and upon such conversion being made all the provisions of this Ordinance which require or imply that the capital of the company is divided into shares of any fixed amount, and Power of limited company to convert paid up shares into stock.

Joint Stock Companies.

distinguished by numbers, and which require the company to keep a register of shareholders, or to make an annual list of shareholders in the register, shall cease as to so much of the capital as has been so converted into stock.

Company to give notice of conversion of capital into stock.

29 Any company that has converted any portion of its capital into stock shall give notice of such conversion, specifying the shares so converted, to the registrar of joint stock companies, within fifteen days from the date of the last of the meetings at which the resolution was passed by which such conversion was authorized, and the registrar shall forthwith record the fact of such conversion. If such notice is not given within the period aforesaid the company shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day during which such neglect to give notice continues.

Register of holders of stock.

30 Any company that has converted any portion of its capital into stock shall keep at the registered office of the company a register of the names and addresses of the persons for the time being entitled to such stock, and such register shall be open to inspection in the manner and subject to the penalties in and subject to which the register of shareholders is directed to be kept open.

Remedy for improper entry or omission of entry in the register of stock.

31 If the name of any person is without sufficient cause entered or omitted to be entered in the register of stock of any company, such person, or any holder of stock in the company, may apply to have the register rectified in manner directed by the 32nd section.

Remedy for improper entry or omission of entry in register.

32 If the name of any person is without sufficient cause entered or omitted to be entered in the register of shareholders of any company, such person or any shareholder of the company may, by motion in the district court of Colombo, apply to such court for an order that the register may be rectified; and the court may either refuse such application, with or without costs, to be paid by the applicant, or it may, if satisfied of the justice of the case, make an order for the rectification of the register, and may direct the company to pay all the costs of such motion, and any damages the party aggrieved may have sustained; and if the company makes default or is guilty of unnecessary delay in registering any transfer of shares, they shall be responsible to any person injured by such default or delay for the amount of damage he may thereby have sustained; and the court may, in any proceeding taken under this clause, decide on any question relating to the title of any person who is a party to such proceeding to have his name entered in or erased from the register, whether such question arises between two or more holders or alleged holders of shares or stock, or between any holders or alleged holders of shares or stock and the company, and generally the court may in such proceeding decide any question that it may be necessary or expedient to decide for the rectification of the register.

Register to be evidence.

33 The register of shareholders shall be evidence of any matters by this Ordinance directed or authorized to be inserted therein.

Joint Stock Companies.

34 Copies of the memorandum of association and articles of association shall be forwarded to every shareholder at his request, on payment of the sum of one shilling for each copy, or such less sum as may be prescribed by the company.

Copies of memorandum and articles of association to be given to shareholders.

And if any company make default in forwarding a copy of the memorandum of association, if any, to a member in pursuance of this section, the company so making default shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding ten rupees.

[§ 8, 3 of 1893]

PART III.

Management and Administration of Companies. General.

35 The company shall have a registered office, to which all communications and notices may be addressed. If any company registered under this Ordinance carries on business without having such an office it shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which business is so carried on.

Registered office of company.

36 Notice of the situation of such registered office and of any change therein shall be given to the registrar and be recorded by him; until such notice is given the company shall not be deemed to have complied with the provisions of this Ordinance with respect to having a registered office.

Notice of situation of registered office.

37 Every limited company registered under this Ordinance shall paint or affix, and shall keep painted or affixed, its name in the English, Singhalese, and Tamil languages, on the outside of every office or place in which the business of the company is carried on, in a conspicuous position, in letters easily legible, and shall have its name in the English language engraven in legible characters on its seal, and shall have its name mentioned in the English language, in legible characters, in all notices, advertisements, and other official publications of such company, and in all bills of exchange, promissory notes, indorsements, cheques, and orders for money or goods purporting to be signed by or on behalf of such company, and in all bills of parcels, invoices, receipts, and letters of credit of the company.

Publication of name by a limited company

38 If any limited company registered under this Ordinance does not paint or affix, and keep painted or affixed, its name in manner aforesaid, it shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for not so painting or affixing its name, and for every day during which such name is not so kept painted or affixed; and if any officer of such company, or any person on its behalf, uses any seal purporting to be a seal of the company, whereon its name is not so engraven as aforesaid, or issues or authorizes the issue of any notice, advertisement, or other official publication of such company, or signs or authorizes to be signed on behalf of such company any bill of exchange, promissory note, indorsement, cheque, order for money or goods, or issues or authorizes to be issued any bill of parcels, invoice, receipt, or letter of credit of the company, wherein its name is not mentioned in manner aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, and shall further be personally liable to the holder of any such bill of exchange, promissory note, cheque, or order for money or goods for the amount thereof, unless the same is duly paid by the company.

Penalties on non-publication of name.

Joint Stock Companies.

General meeting of company.

39 A general meeting of the company shall be held once at the least in every year.

What accounts to be kept.

- 40 The directors shall cause true accounts to be kept of the stock in trade of the company, of the sums of money received and expended by the company, and the matter in respect of which such receipt and expenditure takes place, and of the credits and liabilities of the company.

Balance sheets to be made out annually and filed with the registrar.

41 A balance sheet shall be made out and filed with the registrar of joint stock companies within twelve months after the incorporation of the company, and once at least in every year; afterwards, within twelve months from the filing of the balance sheet immediately preceding. Such balance sheet shall contain a summary of the property and liabilities of the company arranged under the heads appearing in the form annexed to table C in the schedule hereto, or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

Balance sheet to be signed and certified by the directors.

42 The balance sheet shall be signed by the directors, or any three or more of them, who shall certify at the foot thereof that the same, to the best of their belief, contains a true account of the capital and liabilities and of the property and assets of the company.

No dividend payable except out of profits.

43 No dividend shall be payable except out of the profits arising from the business of the company, including interest on capital.

Audit.

44 The accounts of the company shall be examined, and the correctness of the balance sheet ascertained, by one or more auditor or auditors, who shall certify at the foot of such balance sheet that the same, to the best of his or their belief, contains a true account of the capital and liabilities and of the property and assets of the company, or make special report thereon as he or they think necessary.

Inspection of balance sheet and of auditors' report.

45 A copy of every balance sheet and of the report thereon by the auditors shall be open to inspection in the same manner as the register of shareholders kept at such office.

Power of company to alter regulations by special resolutions.

46 Any company registered under this Ordinance may in general meeting from time to time, by such special resolution as is hereinafter mentioned, alter and make new provisions in lieu of or in addition to any regulations of the company contained in the articles of association: Provided always that such resolutions so made shall be reported to the registrar to be registered by him.

Definition of special resolution.

47 A resolution shall be deemed to be a special resolution of the company whenever the same has been passed by three-fourths in number and value of such shareholders of the company for the time being entitled to vote as may be present in person or by proxy (in cases where, by the regulations of the company, proxies are allowed) at any meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose such resolution has been duly given, and such resolution has been confirmed by a majority of such shareholders for the time being entitled to vote as may be present in person or by proxy at a subsequent meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose such confirmation has been duly given, and held at an interval of not less than fourteen days nor more than two months from the date of the meeting at which such special resolution was first passed. Unless a poll is demanded by at least five shareholders, a declaration of the chairman of any such meeting as is mentioned in this section that a special resolution has been carried or confirmed shall be deemed conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the same. Notice of any meeting shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to be duly given, and the meeting to be duly held, whenever such notice is given and meeting held in manner prescribed by the regulations of the company.

[§ 2, 3 of 1893]

48 A copy of any special resolution that is passed by any company registered under this Ordinance shall be forwarded to the registrar and recorded by him; if such copy is not so forwarded within fifteen days from the date of the passing of the resolution, the company shall incur a penalty not exceeding two pounds for every day after the expiration of such fifteen days during which such copy is omitted to be forwarded.

Registry of special resolutions.

49 A copy of any special resolution shall be given to any shareholder on payment of one shilling, or of such less sum as the company may direct.

Copies of special resolutions.

50 The company, if authorized so to do by its regulations, may increase its nominal capital in manner directed by such regulations, but notice of any increase so made shall be given to the registrar within fifteen days from the date of the passing of the resolution by which such increase has been authorized, and the registrar shall forthwith record the amount of such increase. If such notice is not given within the period aforesaid, the company shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day during which such neglect to give notice continues.

Notice to registrar of increase of capital.

51 If any company registered under this Ordinance carries on business when the number of its shareholders is less than seven for a period of six months after the number has been so reduced, then every person who is a shareholder in such company during the time that it so carries on business after such period of six months shall be severally liable for the payment of the whole debts of the company contracted during such time, and may be sued for the same without the joinder in the suit of any other shareholder.

Prohibition against carrying on business with less than seven shareholders.

52 The company shall cause minutes of all resolutions and proceedings of general meetings of the company to be duly entered in books to be from time to time provided for the purpose, and any such minutes as aforesaid, if signed by any person purporting to be the chairman of such meeting, shall be receivable in evidence in all legal proceedings, and until the contrary is proved every general meeting in respect of the proceedings of which minutes have been so made shall be deemed to have been duly held and convened.

Legal Instruments of Company. Contracts.

Contracts how made.

53 Contracts on behalf of any company registered under this Ordinance may be made as follows ; (that is to say,)

- (1) Any contract which would be by law required to be in writing may be made on behalf of the company in writing under the common seal of the company, and such contract may be in the same manner varied or discharged.
- (2) Any contract which would be by law required to be in writing, and signed by the parties to be charged therewith, may be made on behalf of the company in writing, signed by any person acting under the express or implied authority of the company, and such contract may in the same manner be varied or discharged.
- (3) Any contract which would by law be valid, although made by parol only and not reduced into writing, may be made by parol on behalf of the company by any person acting under the express or implied authority of the company, and such contract may in the same way be varied or discharged.

Deeds and other Instruments.

Execution of deeds abroad.

54 Any company registered under this Ordinance may, by instrument or writing under their common seal, empower any person, either generally or in respect of any specified matters, as their attorney to execute deeds on their behalf in any place ; and every deed signed by such attorney on behalf of the company shall be binding on the company to the same extent as if it were under the common seal of the company.

Promissory notes or bills of exchange.

55 A promissory note or bill of exchange shall be deemed to have been made, accepted, or indorsed on behalf of any company registered under this Ordinance, if made, accepted, or indorsed in the name of the company by any person acting under the express authority of the company.

Mortgages registered under this Ordinance.

56 In any mortgage made by any company registered under this Ordinance, there shall be implied the following covenants (unless words expressly negating such implication are contained therein) ; that is to say, a covenant on the part of the company to pay the money thereby secured, and interest thereon, at the time and rate therein mentioned, a covenant that they have power to mortgage the property and that the same is free from incumbrances, and such mortgage may be in the form marked F in the schedule hereto annexed, or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

Joint Stock Companies.

57 In any conveyance made by any company registered under this Ordinance, there shall be implied (unless words expressly negating such implication are contained therein) the following covenants on the part of the company; (that is to say,)

Conveyances registered under this Ordinance.

A covenant that, notwithstanding any act or default done by the company, they were at the time of the execution of such conveyance possessed of the lands or premises thereby conveyed as their own absolute property, free from incumbrances occasioned by them, or otherwise for such estate or interest as therein expressed to be conveyed, free from incumbrances occasioned by them.

A covenant that the person to whom such lands or premises are conveyed, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns (as the case may be), shall quietly enjoy the same against the company and their successors, and all other persons claiming under them, and be indemnified and saved harmless by the company and their successors from all incumbrances occasioned by the company.

A covenant to warrant and defend the title of the person to whom such lands or premises are conveyed, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, and to grant at its own expense such further deeds as may be necessary to render such conveyance effectual.

Examination of Affairs of Company.

58 Upon the application of one-third in number and value of the shareholders of any limited company registered under this Ordinance, the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, may appoint one or more competent inspectors to examine into the affairs of the company, and to report thereon in such manner as the Governor with the advice aforesaid directs.

Examination of affairs of company by inspectors appointed by the Governor.

59 It shall be the duty of all officers and agents of the company to produce, for the examination of the inspectors, all books and documents in their custody or power. Any inspector may examine upon oath the officers and agents of the company in relation to its business, and may administer such oath accordingly. If any officer or agent refuses to produce any such book or document, or to answer any question relating to the affairs of the company, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds in respect of each offence.

Power of inspectors.

60 Upon the conclusion of the examination the inspectors shall report their opinion to the Governor, who shall direct the same to be forwarded to the registrar. All expenses of and incidental to any such examination as aforesaid shall be defrayed by the shareholders upon whose application the inspectors were appointed.

Result of examination how dealt with

Joint Stock Companies.

Power of company to appoint inspectors.

61 Any company, whether limited or unlimited, registered under this Ordinance, may in general meeting appoint inspectors for the purpose of examining into the affairs of the company. The inspectors so appointed shall have the same powers and perform the same duties as inspectors appointed by the Governor, with this exception, that instead of making their report to the Governor they shall make the same in such manner and to such persons as the company in general meeting directs; and the officers and agents of the company shall incur the same penalties, in case of any refusal to produce any book or document to such inspectors, or to answer any question, as they would have incurred if such inspectors had been appointed by the Governor. All expenses of and incidental to any examination to be made by the inspectors so appointed shall be defrayed by the company.

Report of inspectors to be evidence.

62 A copy of the report of any inspectors appointed under this Ordinance, authenticated by the seal of the company into whose affairs they have made inspection, shall be admissible as evidence in any legal proceeding.

Notices.

Service of notice on company and registrar.

[§10, 3 of 1893]

63 Any summons or notice requiring to be served upon the company may, except in cases where a particular mode of service is directed, be served by leaving the same with any director, secretary, or other principal officer of the company at their registered office, or by sending it through the post by letter addressed to such company, and any notice to the registrar may be served by sending it to him through the post by letter, or by delivering it to him, or by leaving it for him at his office.

Rule as to notices by letter.

64 Notices by letter shall be posted in such time as to admit of the letter being delivered in the due course of delivery, within the period (if any) prescribed for the giving of such notice; and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that such notice was properly directed, and that it was put in the post office at such time as aforesaid.

Authentication of notices of company.

65 Any summons, notices, writ, or proceeding requiring authentication by the company may be signed by any director, secretary, or other authorized officer of the company, and need not be under the common seal of the company, and the same may be in writing or in print, or partly in writing and partly in print.

Security for Costs.

Provision as to costs in actions brought by or against certain limited companies.

66 When a limited company is party to any suit, the judge, if it be proved to his satisfaction that there is reason to believe that if their opponent be successful the assets of the company will be insufficient to pay his costs, may require sufficient security to be given for such costs, and (if the limited company be plaintiff) he may stay all proceedings until such security be given, or (if the limited company be defendant) he may refuse to admit the defence, and after the expiration of a stated time to be named by him to enable the company to furnish such security may, on their still failing to give security, treat the case as an undefended one.

PART IV.

Winding up.—Preliminary.

67 The provisions of this Ordinance relating to the winding up of companies shall apply to all companies registered under this Ordinance, and not to any other companies.

Application of Part IV. of Ordinance.

68 The expression "the court," as used in this Ordinance, shall mean the district court having jurisdiction in the place in which the registered office of the company is situate; and any court to which jurisdiction is given by this Ordinance shall, in addition to its ordinary powers, have the same power of enforcing any orders made by it in pursuance of this Ordinance as it has in relation to other matters within the jurisdiction of such court respectively.

Definition of "the court."

69 In the event of any company being wound up by the court or voluntarily, the existing shareholders shall be liable to contribute to the assets of the company to an amount sufficient to pay the debts and liabilities of the company, and the costs, charges, and expenses of winding up the same, with this qualification, that if the company is limited no contribution shall be required from any shareholder exceeding the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by him, and his proportion of the costs, charges, and expenses.

Liability of present shareholders in respect of debts.

70 In the event of any company, other than a limited company, being wound up by the court or voluntarily, any person who has ceased to be a shareholder within the period of three years prior to the commencement of the winding up shall be deemed, for the purposes of contribution towards payment of the debts of the company, and the costs, charges, and expenses of winding up the same, to be an existing shareholder, and shall have in all respects the same rights and be subject to the same liabilities to creditors as if he had not so ceased to be a shareholder, with this exception, that he shall not be liable in respect of any debt of the company contracted after the time at which he ceased to be a shareholder.

Liability of former shareholders in a company, other than a limited company, with respect to debts.

71 In the event of any limited company being wound up by the court or voluntarily, any person who has ceased to be a holder of any share or shares within the period of one year prior to the commencement of the winding up, shall be deemed for the purposes of contribution towards payment of the debts of the company, and the costs, charges, and expenses of winding up the same, to be an existing holder of such share or shares, and shall have in all respects the same rights and be subject to the same liabilities to creditors as if he had not so ceased to be a shareholder, with this exception, that he shall not be liable in respect of any debt of the company contracted after the time at which he ceased to be a shareholder.

Liability of former shareholders in a limited company with respect to debts.

72 The winding up shall, if the company is wound up by the court, be deemed to commence at the time of the presentation of such petition as is hereinafter required to be presented to the court, and if the company is wound up voluntarily, be deemed to commence at the time of the passing of the resolution authorizing such winding up.

Definition of "contributory" and legal character of his liability.

73 Any existing or former shareholder upon whom calls are authorized to be made by the fourth part of this Ordinance is hereinafter called "a contributory," and the representatives of any deceased contributory shall be liable in a due course of administration to the same extent as such contributory would be liable under the fourth part of this Ordinance, if alive.

Rights of contributories between themselves.

74 For the purpose of ascertaining the liability of existing and former shareholders as between themselves, the following rules shall be adopted in the absence of any express contract to the contrary; (that is to say),

- (1) In the case of a company other than a limited company, every transferee of shares shall, in a degree proportioned to the shares transferred, indemnify the transferor against all existing and future debts of the company.
- (2) In the case of a limited company, every transferee shall indemnify the transferor against all calls made or accrued and due on the shares transferred subsequently to the transfer.

Winding up by Court.

Circumstances under which company may be wound up by court.

75 A company may be wound up by the court under the following circumstances; (that is to say),

- (1) Whenever the company in general meeting has passed a special resolution requiring the company to be wound up by the court;
- (2) Whenever the company does not commence its business within a year from its incorporation, or suspends its business for the space of a whole year;
- (3) Whenever the shareholders are reduced in number to less than seven;
- (4) Whenever the company is unable to pay its debts;
- (5) Whenever three-fourths of the capital of the company have been lost or become unavailable.

Company when deemed unable to pay its debts.

76 A company shall be deemed to be unable to pay its debts:

- (1) Whenever a creditor to whom the company is indebted in a sum exceeding £50 has served due notice on the company, by leaving at their registered office a demand under his hand requiring the company to pay the sum so due, and the company have for the space of three weeks succeeding the service of such demand neglected to pay such sum or to secure or compound for the same to the satisfaction of the creditor:

Joint Stock Companies.

(2) Whenever satisfaction of a judgment, decree, or order of any court in favour of any creditor in any suit or other legal proceeding cannot be obtained within ten days.

77 Any application for the winding up of a company shall be by petition, and there shall be filed or lodged at the time when such petition is presented an affidavit verifying the same. Such petition may, in cases where the company is unable to pay its debts, be presented either by a creditor or a contributory, but where any other ground is alleged for winding up the company, a contributory alone is entitled to present the petition.

Application for winding up to be by petition.

78 Upon the hearing of any petition presented by a creditor, the court may dismiss such petition, with or without costs, to be paid by the petitioner; or it may make an order directing the company, on a day to be named in the order, to pay or secure payment to the creditor of all monies that may be proved due to him, together with such costs as the court may direct; or the court may, if it so thinks fit, on the hearing of such petition, make an order for winding up the company in the first instance, or such other order as it deems just.

Course to be pursued by a court on petition by a creditor.

79 If at the expiration of the time named in such order such payment is not made, or security given, the court may thereupon make an order or decree for winding up the company.

Order for winding up company on creditor's petition.

80 Upon the hearing of a petition presented by a contributory, the court may dismiss such petition, with or without costs, to be paid by the petitioner, or it may make an order or decree directing the company to be wound up, or such other order or decree as it deems just.

Course to be pursued by court on petition of contributory.

81 After the date of such order or decree for winding up the company, all suits and actions against the company shall, if the court so orders, be stayed; no director or other officer of the company shall without the sanction of the court dispose of any of the property or effects of the company, and no transfer of any shares shall be valid without the sanction of the court. A copy of such order or decree shall forthwith be reported by the company to the registrar, who shall make a minute thereof in his books relating to the company.

Effect of the order for winding up company.

82 As soon as may be after making an order or decree for winding up the company the court shall cause the assets of the company to be collected, and applied in discharge of its liabilities, in a due course of administration.

Collection and application of assets.

83 Any such conveyance, mortgage, delivery of goods, payment, execution, or other act relating to property as would, if made or done by any individual trader, be deemed in the event of his bankruptcy to have been made or done by way of undue or fraudulent preference of any creditor of such trader, shall, if made or done by or against any company registered under this Ordinance, be deemed, in the event of an order being made for winding up such company, to have been made or done by way of undue or fraudulent preference of such credit of such company, and shall be invalid accordingly; and for the purposes of this section the presentation of a petition for winding up a company shall be deemed to correspond with the filing of a petition for adjudication of insolvency in the case of an individual trader, and any conveyance or assignment made by any company registered under this Ordinance of all its estate and effects to trustees for the benefit of all its creditors shall be void to all intents.

Power of court to examine persons suspected of having property of company.

84 Before or after an order for winding up the company has been made, any person known or suspected to have in his possession any of the estate or effects of the company, or supposed to be indebted to the company, or any person whom the court may deem capable of giving information concerning the trade, dealings, estate, or effects of the company, may be compelled to give evidence, and to produce any books, papers, deeds, writings, or other documents in his custody or power, which may appear to the court requisite to the full disclosure of any of the matters which the court thinks necessary to be inquired into for the purpose of winding up the company, in the same manner as a witness may be compelled to give evidence and to produce documents in any action or suit depending in such court.

Penalty on falsification of books.

85 If any director, officer, or contributory of any company registered under this Ordinance destroys, mutilates, alters, or falsifies any books, papers, writings, or securities, or makes or is privy to the making of any false or fraudulent entry in any register, book of account, or other document belonging to the company, with intent to defraud the creditors or contributories of such company, or any of them, every person so offending shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence, and upon being convicted shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour.

Power to arrest shareholder about to abscond or to remove or conceal any of his property.

86 Where an order has been made for winding up a company under the fourth part of this Ordinance, if upon the application of the official liquidator it appears to the court having jurisdiction in the matter of such winding up that there is probable cause for believing that any contributory to such company is about to quit the island, or otherwise abscond or conceal himself, or to remove or conceal any of his goods or chattels, for the purpose of evading payment of calls, or for avoiding examination in respect of the affairs of the company, the court may, by warrant directed to such person or persons as it thinks fit, cause such contributory to be arrested, and his books, papers, monies, securities for monies, goods, and chattels, to be seized, and him and them to be safely kept until such time as the court may order. Any contributory who has been arrested, or whose goods or chattels have been seized under any such warrant as aforesaid, may, at any time after such arrest or seizure, apply to the court that issued the warrant to discharge him from custody, or to direct the delivery to him of any books, papers, monies, securities for money, goods, or chattels, that may have been seized, and the court may order his discharge, or the release of his goods, upon such terms and subject to such conditions as it deems fit.

87 If any attachment, sequestration, or execution is issued against any company, by virtue whereof the property and effects of the company, or any of them, may be attached, sequestered, or taken in execution at any time within three months next before the filing or presentation of the petition for winding up the company, such attachment, sequestration, or taking in execution shall be void in favour of the liquidators of the company, as against the attaching, sequestrating, or execution creditor, whether the same has been completely executed or not; except that such creditor shall, if the attachment, sequestration, or execution would have been valid but for this provision, be entitled to receive out of any money already realized his costs of suit, and of the attachment, sequestration, or execution, or to proceed with the attachment, sequestration, or execution for the purpose of realizing such costs; but on satisfaction of such costs, or on tender of the amount by the liquidators to the creditor, it shall be lawful for the liquidators to recover the property so attached, sequestered, and taken in execution, and the proceeds of such property or the residue thereof, as the case may be. If property seized upon such attachment, sequestration, or execution shall have already been sold, the proceeds shall be paid to the liquidators, less the costs of suit and of the attachment, sequestration, or execution.

Attachments, sequestrations, and executions within three months of petition.

88 All books, accounts, and documents of the company, and of the liquidators hereinafter mentioned, shall, as between the contributories of the company, be prima facie evidence of the truth of all matters therein contained and purporting to be therein recorded.

Books of company to be evidence.

89 The court may, at any time after making an order or decree for winding up a company, and either before or after it has ascertained the sufficiency of the assets of the company or the debts in respect of which the several classes of contributories are liable, make calls on all or any of the contributories to the extent of their liability for payment of all or any sums it deems necessary to satisfy the debts and liabilities of the company, and the costs of winding it up; and it may, in making a call, take into consideration the probability that some of the contributories upon whom the same is made may partly or wholly fail to pay their respective portions of the same, and every such call shall be deemed a debt due to the company.

Power of court to make calls.

90 Upon such calls being made the official liquidator or liquidators shall proceed immediately to collect the same, and shall monthly, or oftener, report to the court the names of defaulters, together with the amounts remaining unpaid of the calls made upon them respectively, and thereupon the said court shall order the payment of such calls or any of them within such time or times, and upon such notice or demand, by advertisements or otherwise, as the said court may think fit; and in case any contributory, whether subject to the ordinary civil jurisdiction of the court or not, shall neglect to pay any part of the call within the time fixed by the court for the payment thereof, and shall not within such time show to the court sufficient cause for the nonpayment thereof, the said court may make an order upon such contributory for the payment of the amount due upon the call, and such order shall have the force and effect of a decree or judgment of the court, and may be executed accordingly.

Recovery of calls.

Calls may be made upon former shareholders in respect of shares.

91 The court may at any time make calls upon any former holder of a share who is liable under section 70 or 71 of this Ordinance in respect of such share, as well as upon the existing holder of that share; but any payment made or obtained from any contributory in respect of a share shall operate for the benefit of every other contributory in respect of such share.

Payment of money into the bank.

92 All monies received under the direction of the court on account of the sale or conversion of any of the assets of the company, or in respect of calls made on any contributories, or of any other matter, with the exception of such balance, if any, as the official liquidators may, with the sanction of the court, retain in their hands for the payment of current expenses, shall be paid into one of the banks as the court may direct; and no money standing to such account shall be drawn except upon cheques signed in such manner as the court directs.

Power of the court to grant injunction or interdict.

93 The court may, at any time after the presentation of a petition for winding up a company, and either before or after making an order for winding up the same, upon the application of any creditor or contributory of such company, restrain further proceedings in any suit against the company, or appoint a receiver of the estate and effects of the company; it may also, by notice or advertisement, require all creditors to present and prove their claims within a certain time, or be precluded from the benefit of any distribution which may be made before such claim is proved.

Power of court to stay proceedings.

94 The court may, at any time after an order has been made for winding up a company, upon the application of any creditor or contributory of the company, and upon proof to the satisfaction of the court that all proceedings in relation to such winding up ought to be stayed, make an order staying the same, either altogether or for a limited time, on such terms and subject to such conditions as it deems fit.

Power of court to adjust rights of contributories.

95 As soon as the creditors are satisfied the court shall proceed to adjust the rights of the contributories amongst themselves, and to distribute any surplus that may remain amongst the parties entitled thereto; and for the purposes of such adjustment it may make calls on the contributories to the extent of their liability for the payment of such sums as it deems necessary; and it may in making a call take into consideration the probability that some of the contributories upon whom the same is made may partly or wholly fail to pay their respective portions of the same. Nothing in this section shall preclude any former shareholder entitled to indemnity under section 74 of this Ordinance from enforcing such indemnity by due course of law.

96 The court may make such order as to the priority and payment out of the estate of the company of the costs, charges, and expenses incurred in winding up any company, as it thinks just.

Power of court to order costs.

Official Liquidators.

97 For the purpose of conducting the proceedings in winding up a company and assisting the court therein, there shall be appointed a person or persons to be called an official liquidator or official liquidators, and such appointment shall be made as follows, that is to say :

Appointment of official
liquidators.

- (1) The court having jurisdiction may, after requiring due security, should the court deem such security necessary, appoint such person or persons, either provisionally or otherwise, as it thinks fit, to the office of official liquidators; it may from time to time remove any person or persons so appointed, and fill up any vacancy occasioned by such removal, or by the death or resignation of any such appointee or appointees; if one person only is appointed, he shall have all the powers hereby given to several liquidators; if more persons than one are appointed, the court shall declare whether any act hereby required or authorized to be done by the official liquidators may be done by all or any one or more of such persons :
- (2) The court having jurisdiction shall, in the appointment of an official liquidator or official liquidators, consult the interest of both the creditors and contributories, and hear such creditors or contributories as it thinks fit to hear with respect to such appointment. It may, unless both the creditors and contributories concur in the appointment of a single liquidator, appoint one or more liquidator or liquidators to act on behalf of each of such parties. It may declare that in case of difference any act may be done by a majority of liquidators, or it may require the liquidators in all cases of difference to apply to the court. It may do anything hereby authorized to be done, either upon the first appointment of a liquidator or at any subsequent stage of the winding up; but notwithstanding anything herein contained it shall not be obligatory on the court to appoint more than one liquidator.

Joint Stock Companies.

Style and duties of official
liquidators.

98 The official liquidator or liquidators shall be described by the style of the official liquidator or official liquidators of the particular company in respect of which he or they is or are appointed, and not by his or their individual name or names ; he or they shall take into his or their custody all the property and effects of the company, and shall perform such duties in reference to the winding up of the company as may be imposed by the court.

Powers of official
liquidators.

99 The official liquidator or liquidators shall have power with the sanction of the court to do the following things :

To bring or defend any action, suit, or prosecution, or other legal proceeding, civil or criminal, in the name and on behalf of the company :

To carry on the business of the company, so far as may be necessary for the beneficial winding up of the same :

To sell the immovable and movable property of the company by public or private contract, with power, if they think fit, to transfer the whole thereof to any person or company, or to sell the same in parcels :

To execute in the name and on behalf of the company all deeds, receipts, and other documents, and for that purpose to use, when necessary, the company's seal :

To refer disputes to arbitration, and compromise any debts or claims. Such power of compromising debts and claims shall be deemed to extend to the compromise of any calls or debts due from any contributory or alleged contributory to the company on receipt of a smaller sum in lieu of a greater, or upon such terms as may be agreed upon, with power to the liquidators to take any security for any calls or debts so due, and to give effectual discharges on completion of such compromise ; provided that no such compromise shall be made by any official liquidator without giving such notice to creditors, and subject to such conditions as to obtaining the consent of creditors, or any portion of them, as the court may direct, and that no such compromise shall be made by the liquidators appointed on the voluntary winding up of a company, except with the sanction of a special resolution :

To prove, claim, rank, and draw a dividend in the matter of the bankruptcy or insolvency or sequestration of any contributory for any balance against the estate of such contributory, and to take and receive dividends in respect of such balance in the matter of insolvency or sequestration as a separate debt due from such insolvent, and rateably with the other separate creditors :

Joint Stock Companies.

To draw, accept, make, and indorse any bill of exchange or promissory note, and also to raise upon the security of the assets of the company from time to time any requisite sum or sums of money; and the drawing, accepting, making, or indorsing of every such bill of exchange or promissory note as aforesaid, on behalf of the company, shall have the same effect with respect to the liability of such company as if such bill or note had been drawn, accepted, made, or indorsed by such company in the course of carrying on the business thereof :

To do and execute all such other things as may be necessary for winding up the affairs of the company and distributing its assets.

100 The official liquidators may, with the approval of the court, appoint such clerks or officers as may be necessary to assist them in the performance of their duties. There shall be paid to such agent, clerks, and officers such remuneration, by way of fees or otherwise, as may be allowed by the court.

Appointment of clerks to assist official liquidators.

101 There shall be paid to the official liquidators such salary or remuneration by way of percentage or otherwise as the court directs.

Remuneration of official liquidator.

102 When the affairs of the company have been completely wound up, the court shall make an order declaring the company to be dissolved from the date of such order, and the company shall be dissolved accordingly.

Dissolution of company.

103 Any order so made shall be reported by the official liquidators to the registrar, who shall make a minute accordingly in his books of the dissolution of such company.

Registrar to make minute of dissolution of company.

104 The judges of the Supreme Court may, as often as circumstances require, make such rules concerning the mode of proceeding to be had for winding up a company, and the fees to be paid to advocates and proctors in respect thereof, as may from time to time seem necessary ; but until such rules are made the general practice of the court, including its practice in insolvency cases, shall, so far as the same is applicable to and not inconsistent with this Ordinance, apply to all proceedings for winding up a company, and official liquidators shall be considered as occupying in all respects the place of an assignee.

Power of the judges of the Supreme Court to make rules.

Voluntary Winding up of the Company.

105 A company may be wound up voluntarily—

- (1) Whenever the period, if any, fixed for the duration of the company by the articles of association expires, or whenever the event, if any, occurs upon the occurrence of which it is provided by the articles of association that the company is to be dissolved :
- (2) Whenever the company in general meeting has passed a special resolution requiring the company to be wound up voluntarily.

Circumstances under which company may be wound up voluntarily.

Joint Stock Companies.

Whenever a company is wound up voluntarily, the company shall, from the date of the commencement of such winding up, cease to carry on its business, except in so far as may be required for the beneficial winding up thereof, but its corporate state and all its corporate powers shall, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in its articles of association, continue until the affairs of the company are wound up.

Notice of resolution to wind up voluntarily.

106 Notice of any special resolution to wind up a company voluntarily shall be given in the Government Gazette.

Consequences of voluntary winding up.

107 The following consequences shall ensue upon the voluntary winding up of a company :

- (1) The property of the company shall be applied in satisfaction of its liabilities, and subject thereto, and, unless it be otherwise provided by the articles of association, be distributed amongst the shareholders in proportion to their shares :
- (2) Liquidators may be appointed for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the company and distributing the property :
- (3) The company in general meeting may appoint such person or persons as it thinks fit to be a liquidator or liquidators, and may fix the remuneration to be paid to them :
- (4) If one person only is appointed, all the provisions herein contained in reference to several liquidators shall apply to him :
- (5) When several liquidators are appointed every power hereby given may be exercised by any two of them :
- (6) The liquidators may, at any time after the passing of the resolution for winding up the company, and before they have ascertained the sufficiency of the assets of the company, or the debts in respect of which the several classes of contributories are liable, call on all or any of the contributories to the extent of their liability to pay all or any sums they deem necessary to satisfy the debts of the company and the costs of winding it up ; and they may, in making a call, take into consideration the probability that some of the contributories upon whom the same is made may partly or wholly fail to pay their respective portions of the same :
- (7) The liquidators shall have all powers hereinbefore vested in official liquidators, and may exercise the same without the intervention of the court :
- (8) All books, papers, and documents in the hands of the liquidators shall, at all reasonable times, be open to the inspection of the shareholders :

Joint Stock Companies.

- (9) When the creditors are satisfied the liquidators shall proceed to adjust the rights of the contributories amongst themselves; and for the purposes of such adjustment they may make calls on all contributories to the extent of their liability, for any sums they may deem necessary, and they may in making a call take into consideration the probability that some of the contributories upon whom the same is made may partly or wholly fail to pay their respective portions of the same :
- (10) As soon as the affairs of the company are fully wound up the liquidators shall make up an account showing the manner in which such winding up has been conducted, and the property of the company disposed of; and such account, with the vouchers thereof, shall be laid before such person or persons as may be appointed by the company to inspect the same; and upon such inspection being concluded the liquidators shall proceed to call a general meeting of the shareholders for the purpose of considering such account; but no such meeting shall be deemed to be duly held unless one month's previous notice, specifying the time, place, and object of such meeting, has been published in the Government Gazette :
- (11) Such general meeting shall not enter upon any business except the consideration of the account; but the meeting may proceed to the consideration thereof notwithstanding the quorum required by any regulation of the company to be present at general meetings is not present thereat, and if on consideration the meeting is of opinion that the affairs of the company have been fairly wound up they shall pass a resolution to that effect, and thereupon the liquidators shall publish a notice of such resolution in the Government Gazette, and shall also make a return to the registrar of such resolution, and on the expiration of one month from the date of the registration of such return the company shall be deemed to be dissolved :
- (12) If within one year after the passing of the resolution for winding up the affairs of the company such affairs are not wound up, the liquidators shall immediately thereafter make up an account showing the state of the affairs, and the progress which has been made in winding up down to that date; and they shall add thereto a report stating the reason why the winding up has not been completed, and a general meeting shall be called to consider the same, and so on from year to year until the winding up of the affairs of the company is completed.

108 All costs, charges, and expenses properly incurred in the voluntary winding up of a company, including the priority to all other claims.

Saving of rights of creditors.

Appeals may be taken against decisions or orders of district and police courts.

remuneration of the liquidators, shall be payable out of the assets of the company in priority to all other claims.

109 The voluntary winding up of a company shall not prejudice the right of any creditor of such company to institute proceedings for the purpose of having the same wound up by the court.

110 All decisions and orders of the district and police courts, made under the authority of this Ordinance, shall be subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court; and every such appeal shall be brought on and prosecuted in such manner and shall be subject to such regulations as now exist, or shall be hereafter made by any rule or order of the Supreme Court.

No. 3 of 1893.

Wages and salaries to be a claim.

11 (1) In the distribution of the assets of any company being wound up under the principal Ordinance, there shall be paid in priority to other debts—

- (a) all wages or salary of any clerk or servant in respect of service rendered to the company during four months before the commencement of the winding up, not exceeding five hundred rupees; and
- (b) all wages of any labourers or workmen in respect of service rendered to the company during two months before the commencement of the winding up.

Such claims to rank equally.

(2) The foregoing debts shall rank equally among themselves, and shall be paid in full, unless the assets of the company are insufficient to meet them, in which case they shall abate in equal proportions between themselves.

Liquidators to discharge same upon receipt of sufficient assets.

(3) Subject to the retention of such sums as may be necessary for the cost of administration or otherwise, the liquidator or liquidators or official liquidator shall discharge the foregoing debts forthwith, so far as the assets of the company are and will be sufficient to meet them, as and when such assets come into the hands of such liquidator or liquidators or official liquidator.

Prospectus, &c., to specify dates and names of parties to any contract made prior to issue of such prospectus, &c.

12 Every prospectus of a company, and every notice inviting persons to subscribe for shares in any joint stock company, shall specify the dates and the names of the parties to any contract entered into by the company, or the promoters, directors, or trustees thereof, before the issue of such prospectus or notice, whether subject to adoption by the directors or the company, or otherwise, and any prospectus or notice not specifying the same shall be deemed fraudulent on the part of the promoters, directors, and officers of the company knowingly issuing the same, as regards any person taking shares in the company on the faith of such prospectus unless he shall have had notice of such contract. And any promoter, director, or officer of a company who shall issue any such prospectus or notice contrary to the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence, and be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to twelve months, and with a fine not exceeding five thousand rupees.

Penalty for breach.

Register of mortgages.

13 Every limited company under the principal Ordinance shall keep a register of all mortgages and charges specifically affecting property of the company, and shall enter in such register in respect of each mortgage, or charge, a short description of the property mortgaged or charged, the amount of charge created, and the names of the mortgagees or persons entitled to such charge; if any property of the company is mortgaged or charged without such entry as aforesaid being made, every director, manager, or other officer of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits the omission of such entry shall incur a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees. The register of mortgages required by this section shall be open to inspection by any creditor or member of the company at all reasonable times, and if such inspection is refused any officer of the company refusing the same, and every director and manager of the company authorizing or knowingly and wilfully permitting such refusal, shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees, and a further penalty not exceeding twenty rupees for every day during which such refusal continues, and in addition to the above penalty any district judge, in the case of companies subject to his jurisdiction, may by order compel an immediate inspection of the register.

14 (1) Subject to the provisions hereinafter mentioned a company registered under the principal Ordinance may by special resolution alter the provisions of its memorandum of association with respect to the objects of the company, but in no case shall any such alteration take effect until confirmed on petition by the court which has jurisdiction to make an order for winding up the company.

Power of company to alter objects subject to confirmation by court.

(2) Before confirming any such alteration the court must be satisfied—

- (a) That sufficient notice has been given to every holder of debentures or debenture stock of the company, and any person or class of persons whose interests will, in the opinion of the court, be affected by the alteration; and
- (b) That with respect to every creditor who in the opinion of the court is entitled to object, and who signifies his objection in manner directed by the court, either his consent to the alteration has been obtained or his debt or claim has been discharged, or has determined, or has been secured to the satisfaction of the court. Provided that the court may, in the case of any person or class of persons, for special reasons dispense with the notice required by this section.

(3) An order confirming any such alteration may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as to the court seems fit, and the court may make such orders as to costs as it deems proper.

(4) The court shall, in exercising its discretion under this Ordinance, have regard to the rights and interests of the members of the company, or of any class of those members, as well as to the rights and interests of the creditors, and may, if it thinks fit, adjourn the proceedings in order that an arrangement may be made to the satisfaction of the court for the purchase of the interests of dissentient members; and the court may give such directions and make such orders as it may think expedient for the purpose of facilitating any such arrangement or carrying the same into effect: Provided always that it shall not be lawful to expend any part of the capital of the company in any such purchase.

(5) The court may confirm, either wholly or in part, any such alteration as aforesaid with respect to the objects of the company, if it appears that the alteration is required in order to enable the company—

- (a) To carry on its business more economically or more efficiently; or

Joint Stock Companies.

- (b) To attain its main purpose by new or improved means ; or
 (c) To enlarge or change the local area of its operations ; or
 (d) To carry on some business or businesses which under existing circumstances may conveniently or advantageously be combined with the business of the company ; or
 (e) To restrict or abandon any of the objects specified in the memorandum of association.

Registration of order together with memorandum as altered, and consequences thereof.

15 (1) Where a company has altered the provisions of its memorandum of association with respect to the objects of the company, and such alteration has been confirmed by the court, an office copy of the order confirming such alteration, together with a printed copy of the memorandum of association, shall be delivered by the company to the registrar of joint stock companies within fifteen days from the date of the order, and the registrar shall register the same and shall certify under his hand the registration thereof, and his certificate shall be conclusive evidence that all the requisitions of this Ordinance, with respect to such alteration and the confirmation thereof, have been complied with, and thenceforth (but subject to the provisions of this Ordinance) the memorandum so altered shall be the memorandum of association, and shall apply to the company in the same manner as if the company were a company registered under the principal Ordinance with such memorandum.

(2) If a company makes default in delivering to the registrar any document required by this section to be delivered to him, the company shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees for every day during which it is in default.

Penalties to be recoverable at the suit of the registrar in the court of requests, Colombo.

16 All penalties imposed by and recoverable under this or the principal Ordinance shall be deemed and taken to be a debt to Her Majesty of the party, parties, or company liable to pay the same, and shall and may, whatever may be the amount claimed, be sued for and recovered by the registrar on behalf of Her Majesty in the court of requests, Colombo.

Regulations for Management of the Company.

Shares.

1. Every person taking any share in the company shall testify his acceptance thereof by writing under his hand, in such form as the company from time to time directs.
2. The company may from time to time make such calls upon the shareholders in respect of all monies unpaid on their shares as they think fit, provided that twenty-one days' notice at least is given of each call by publication in the Gazette, and each shareholder shall be liable to pay the amount of calls so made to the persons and at the time and places appointed by the company.
3. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorizing such call was passed.
4. If before or on the day appointed for payment any shareholder does not pay the amount of any call to which he is liable, then such shareholder shall be liable to pay interest for the same at the rate of nine pounds per cent. per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment.
5. The company may, if they think fit, receive from any of the shareholders willing to advance the same all or any part of the monies due upon their respective shares beyond the sums actually called for; and upon the monies so paid in advance, or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, the company may pay interest at such rate as the shareholder paying such sum in advance and the company agree upon.

6. If several persons are joint holders of any share, any one of such persons may give effectual receipt for any dividend payable in respect of such share.

7. The company may decline to register any transfer of shares made by a shareholder who is indebted to them.

8. Every shareholder shall, on payment of one shilling, be entitled to a certificate under the common seal of the company, specifying the share or shares held by him and the amount paid up thereon.

9. If such certificate is worn out or lost, it may be renewed on payment of one shilling.

10. The transfer books shall be closed during the fourteen days immediately preceding the ordinary general meeting in each year.

Transmission of Shares.

11. The executors or administrators or heirs of a deceased shareholder shall be the only persons recognized by the company as having any title to his share.

12. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, or insolvency of any shareholder, or in consequence of the marriage of any female shareholder, or in any way other than by transfer, may be registered as a shareholder upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the company.

13. Any person who has become entitled to a share in any way, other than by transfer, may, instead of being registered himself, elect to have some person to be named by him registered as a holder of such share.

14. The person so becoming entitled shall testify such election by executing to his nominee a transfer of such share.

15. The instrument of transfer shall be presented to the company, accompanied with such evidence as they may require to prove the title of the transferor, and thereupon the company shall register the transferee as a shareholder.

Forfeiture of Shares.

16. If any shareholder fails to pay any call due on the appointed day, the company may, at any time thereafter during such time as the call remains unpaid, serve a notice on him, requiring him to pay such call, together with any interest that may have accrued by reason of such nonpayment.

17. The notice shall name a further day, and a place or places, being a place or places at which calls of the company are usually made payable, on and at which such call is to be paid. It shall also state that in the event of nonpayment at the time and place appointed the shares in respect of which such call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

18. If the requisitions of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect.

19. Any shares so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the company, and may be disposed of in such manner as the company think fit.

20. Any shareholder whose shares have been forfeited shall, notwithstanding, be liable to pay to the company all calls owing upon such shares at the time of the forfeiture.

Joint Stock Companies.

Increase of Capital.

21. The company may, with the sanction of the company previously given in general meeting, increase its capital.

22. Any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original capital, and shall be subject to the same provisions in all respects, whether with reference to the payment of calls, or the forfeiture of shares on nonpayment of calls, or otherwise, as if it had been part of the original capital.

General Meeting.

23. The first general meeting shall be held at such time, not being more than twelve months after the incorporation of the company, and at such place as the directors may determine.

24. Subsequent general meetings shall be held at such time and place as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting; and if no other time or place is prescribed, a general meeting shall be held on the first Monday in February in each year, at such place as may be determined by the directors.

25. The above-mentioned general meetings shall be called ordinary meetings; all other general meetings shall be called extraordinary.

26. The directors may whenever they think fit, and they shall, upon a requisition made in writing by any number of shareholders holding in the aggregate not less than one-fifth part of the shares of the company, convene an extraordinary general meeting.

27. Any requisition so made by the shareholders shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called, and shall be left at the registered office of the company.

28. Upon the receipt of such requisition the directors shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting; if they do not proceed to convene the same within twenty-one days from the date of the requisition, the requisitionists, or any other shareholders holding the required number of shares, may themselves convene a meeting.

29. Seven days' notice at the least, specifying the place and the hour of meeting, and the purpose for which any general meeting is to be held, shall be given by advertisement, or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the company.

30. Any shareholder may, on giving not less than three days' previous notice of any resolution, submit the same to a meeting.

31. Such notice shall be given by leaving a copy of the resolution at the registered office of the company.

32. No business shall be transacted at any meeting except the declaration of a dividend, unless a quorum of shareholders is present at the commencement of such business, and such quorum shall be ascertained as follows; that is to say, if the shareholders belonging to the company at the time of the meeting do not exceed ten in number, the quorum shall be five; if they exceed ten, there shall be added to the above quorum one for every additional five shareholders up to fifty; and one for every ten additional shareholders after fifty, with this limitation, that no quorum shall in any case exceed forty.

33. If within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting the required number of shareholders is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of the shareholders, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the following day, at the same time and place; and if at such adjourned meeting the required number of shareholders is not present, it shall be adjourned sine die.

34. The chairman (if any) of the board of directors shall preside as chairman at every meeting of the company.

Joint Stock Companies.

35. If there is no such chairman, or if at any meeting he is not present at the time of holding the same, the shareholders present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman of such meeting.

36. The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

37. At any general meeting, unless a poll is demanded by at least five shareholders, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the company, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

38. If a poll is demanded in manner aforesaid, the same shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the company in general meeting.

Votes of Shareholders.

39. Every shareholder shall have one vote for every share up to ten; he shall have an additional vote for every five shares beyond the first ten shares up to one hundred, and an additional vote for every ten shares held by him beyond the first hundred shares.

40. If any shareholder is a lunatic or idiot or prodigal he may vote by his curator; and if any shareholder is a minor he may vote by his guardian, or any one of his guardians, if more than one.

41. If one or more persons are jointly entitled to a share or shares, the person whose name stands first in the register of shareholders as one of the holders of such share or shares, and no other, shall be entitled to vote in respect of the same.

42. No shareholder shall be entitled to vote at any meeting unless all calls due from him have been paid, nor until he shall have been possessed of his shares three months, unless such shares shall have been acquired, or shall have come by bequest, or by marriage, or by succession to an intestate's estate, or by operation of law, or by any deed of settlement, after the death of any person who shall have been entitled for life to the dividends of such shares.

43. Votes may be given either personally or by proxies; a proxy shall be appointed in writing under the hand of the appointor, or if such appointor is a corporation under their common seal.

44. No person shall be appointed a proxy who is not a shareholder, and the instrument or mandate appointing him shall be deposited at the registered office of the company not less than forty-eight hours before the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote; but no instrument or mandate appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of one month from the date of its execution.^c Directors.

45. The number of the directors and the names of the first directors shall be determined by the subscribers to the memorandum of association.

46. Until directors are appointed the subscribers to the memorandum of association shall for all the purposes of this Ordinance be deemed to be directors.

* A proxy must bear a 5 cent stamp (No. 3 of 1890, schedule B).

Joint Stock Companies.Powers of Directors.

47. The business of the company shall be managed by the directors, who may exercise all such powers of the company as are not by this Ordinance or by the articles of association, if any, declared to be exercisable by the company in general meeting, subject, nevertheless, to any regulations of the articles of association, to the provisions of this Ordinance, and to such regulations being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting; but no regulation made by the company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.

Disqualification of Directors.

48. The office of director shall be vacated—

If he holds any other office or place of profit under the company :

If he becomes insolvent :

If he is concerned in or participates in the profits of any contract with the company :

If he participates in the profits of any work done for the company.

But the above rules shall be subject to the following exceptions :— That no director shall vacate his office by reason of his being a shareholder in any incorporated company which has entered into contracts with or done any work for the company of which he is director; nevertheless, he shall not vote in respect of such work or contract, and if he does so vote his vote shall not be counted, and he shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Rotation of Directors.

49. At the first ordinary meeting after the incorporation of the company the whole of the directors shall retire from office; and at the first ordinary meeting in every subsequent year one-third of the directors for the time being, or if their number is not a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third, shall retire from office.

50. The directors who are to retire during the first and second years ensuing the incorporation of the company shall, unless the directors agree among themselves, be determined by ballot; in every subsequent year the one-third or other nearest number who have been longest in office shall retire.

51. A retiring director shall be eligible for re-election.

52. The company, at the general meeting at which any directors retire in manner aforesaid, shall fill up the vacated offices by electing a like number of persons.

53. If at any meeting at which an election of directors ought to take place no such election is made, the meeting shall stand adjourned till the next day, at the same time and place; and if at such adjourned meeting no election takes place, the former directors shall continue to act until new directors are appointed at the first ordinary meeting of the following year.

54. The company may from time to time in general meeting increase or reduce the number of directors, and may also determine in what rotation they are to go out of office.

55. Any casual vacancy in the board of directors may be filled up by the directors, but any person so chosen shall retain his office so long only as the vacating director would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

Joint Stock Companies.Proceedings of Directors.

56. The directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn, and otherwise regulate their meetings, as they think fit, and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes the chairman, in addition to his original vote, shall have a casting vote. A director may at any time summon a meeting of the directors.

57. The directors may elect a chairman of their meetings and determine the period for which he is to hold office; but if no such chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the chairman is not present at the time appointed for holding the same, the directors present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman of such meeting.

58. The directors may delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of such member or members of their body as they think fit, who shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may be imposed by the directors.

59. A committee may elect a chairman of their meetings. If no such chairman is elected, or if he is not present at the time appointed for holding the same, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of such meeting.

60. A committee may meet and adjourn as they think proper. Questions at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in case of an equal division of votes the chairman shall, in addition to his original vote, have a casting vote.

61. All acts done by any meeting of the directors, or of a committee of directors or by any person acting as a director, shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such directors or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a director.

62. The directors shall cause minutes to be made in a book or books provided for and used solely for that purpose—

- (1) Of all appointments of officers made by the directors :
- (2) Of the names of the directors present at each meeting of directors and committees of directors :
- (3) Of all orders made by the directors and committees of directors ; and,
- (4) Of all resolutions and proceedings of meetings of the company, and of the directors and committees of directors.

And any such minute as aforesaid, if signed by any person purporting to be the chairman of any meeting of directors or committee of directors, shall be receivable in evidence without any further proof.

63. The company in general meeting may, by a special resolution, remove any director before the expiration of his period of office, and appoint another qualified person in his stead ; the person so appointed shall hold office during such time only as the director in whose place he is appointed would have held the same if he had not been removed.

Dividends.

64. The directors may, with the sanction of the company in general meeting, declare a dividend to be paid to the shareholders in proportion to their shares.

65. No dividends shall be payable except out of the profits arising from the business of the company and with the sanction of the directors.

Joint Stock Companies.

66. The directors may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the company such sum as they think proper as a reserve fund to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining the works connected with the business of the company, or any part thereof, and the directors may invest the sum so set apart as a reserve fund upon such securities as they, with the sanction of the company, may select.

67. The directors may deduct from the dividends payable to any shareholder all such sums of money as may be due from him to the company on account of calls or otherwise.

68. Notice of any dividend that may have been declared shall be given to each shareholder, or sent by post or otherwise to his registered place of abode; and all dividends unclaimed for three years after having been declared, may be forfeited by the directors for the benefit of the company.

69. No dividend shall bear interest as against the company.

Accounts.

70. Once at the least in every year the directors shall lay before the company in general meeting a statement of the income and expenditure for the past year, made up to a date not more than three months before such meeting.

71. The statement so made shall show, arranged under the most convenient heads, the amount of gross income, distinguishing the several sources from which it has been derived, and the amount of gross expenditure, distinguishing the expense of the establishment, salaries, and other like matters. Every item of expenditure fairly chargeable against the year's income shall be brought into account, so that a just balance of profit and loss may be laid before the meeting; and in cases where any item of expenditure which may in fairness be distributed over several years has been incurred in any one year, the whole amount of such item shall be stated, with the addition of the reasons why only a portion of such expenditure is charged against the income of the year.

72. A balance sheet shall be made out in every year, and laid before the general meeting of the company, and such balance sheet shall contain a summary of the property and liabilities of the company, arranged under the heads appearing in the form annexed to this table, or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

73. A printed copy of such balance sheet shall, seven days previously to such meeting, be delivered at or sent by post to the registered address of every shareholder.

Audit.

74. The accounts of the company shall be examined, and the correctness of the balance sheet ascertained, by one or more auditors to be elected by the company in general meeting.

75. If not more than one auditor is appointed, all the provisions herein contained relating to auditors shall apply to him.

76. The auditors need not be shareholders in the company. No person is eligible as an auditor who is interested otherwise than as a shareholder in any transaction of the company, and no director or other officer of the company is eligible during his continuance in office.

77. The election of auditors shall be made by the company at their ordinary meeting, or, if there are more than one, at their first ordinary meeting in each year.

Joint Stock Companies.

78. The remuneration of the auditors shall be fixed by the company at the time of their election.

79. Any auditor shall be re-eligible on his quitting office.

80. If any casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor, the directors shall forthwith call an extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of supplying the same.

81. If no election of auditors is made in manner aforesaid the Governor may, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, and on the application of one-fifth in number of the shareholders of the company, appoint an auditor for the current year, and fix the remuneration to be paid to him by the company for his services.

82. Every auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the balance sheet, and it shall be his duty to examine the same with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto.

83. Every auditor shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the company, and he shall at all reasonable times have access to the books and accounts of the company. He may, at the expense of the company, employ accountants or other persons to assist him in investigating such accounts, and he may, in relation to such accounts, examine the directors or any other officer of the company.

84. The auditors shall make a report to the shareholders upon the balance sheet and accounts, and in every such report they shall state whether, in their opinion, the balance sheet is a full and fair balance sheet, containing the particulars required by these regulations, and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the company's affairs; and in case they have called for explanations or information from the directors, whether such explanations or information have been given by the directors, and whether they have been satisfactory; and such report shall be read, together with the report of the directors, at the ordinary meeting.

Notices.

85. Notices requiring to be served by the company upon the shareholders may be served either personally or by leaving the same, or sending them through the post in a letter addressed to the shareholders at their registered places of abode.

86. All notices directed to be given to the shareholders shall, with respect to any share to which persons are jointly entitled, be given to whichever of the said persons is named first in the register of shareholders, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the proprietors of such share.

87. All notices required by this Ordinance to be given by advertisement shall be published in the Government Gazette.

No. 5 of 1861.

An Ordinance relating to Wrecks, Sea Casualties, and Salvage.

(See No. 4 of 1862, No. 4 of 1863, and No. 6 of 1884; and English Acts 32 Vict. chap. 11, and 45 Vict. chap. 76.)

WHEREAS it is expedient more effectually to provide for wrecks, sea casualties, and salvage, within the limits of Ceylon: It is therefore enacted as follows:

Preamble.

1 In the construction and for the purposes of this Ordinance (if not inconsistent with the context or subject-matter) the following terms shall have the respective meanings hereinafter assigned to them; (that is to say)

Interpretation of terms.

“Receiver” shall mean any person appointed in pursuance of this Ordinance receiver of wrecks:

“Master” shall include every person (except a pilot) having command or charge of any ship:

“Person” shall include body corporate:

“Ship” shall include every description of vessel used in navigation not propelled by oars:

“Wreck” shall include jetsam, flotsam, lagan, and derelict, found in or on the shores of the sea or any tidal water.

Appointment of Superintendent of Wrecks and Receivers.

2 The Principal Collector of Customs shall throughout Ceylon have the general superintendence of all matters relating to wrecks; and it shall be lawful for the Governor to

Principal Collector of Customs to be superintendent of wrecks, and Governor to appoint receivers.

Wrecks, &c.

appoint any officer of customs, or any other person to be a receiver of wreck in any district, and to perform such duties as are hereinafter mentioned, and due notice of every such appointment shall be published in the Government Gazette.

Duty of receiver when any ship is stranded or in distress.

Duties of Receivers.

7 Whenever any ship or boat is stranded or in distress at any place on the shore of the sea, or of any tidal water within the limits of Ceylon, the receiver of the district within which such place is situate shall, upon being made acquainted with such accident, forthwith proceed to such place and take the command of all persons present, and assign such duties to each person and issue such directions as he may think fit, with a view to the preservation of such ship or boat, and the lives of the persons belonging thereto, and the cargo and apparel thereof; and if any person wilfully disobeys such directions he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty pounds; but it shall not be lawful for such receiver to interfere between the master of such ship or boat and his crew in matters relating to the management thereof, unless he is requested so to do by such master.

Powers of receiver in case of such accident to any ship or boat.

8 The receiver may, with a view to such preservation as aforesaid of the ship or boat, persons, cargo, and apparel, do the following things; (that is to say)

- (1) Summon such number of men as he thinks necessary to assist him :
- (2) Require the master or other person having the charge of any ship or boat near at hand to give such aid with his men, ship, or boats as may be in his power :
- (3) Demand the use of any waggon, cart, horses, or bullocks that may be near at hand.

And any person refusing without reasonable cause to comply with any summons, requisition, or demand so made as aforesaid, shall for every such refusal incur a penalty not exceeding £100.

All articles washed on shore, or lost or taken from any ship or boat, to be delivered to the receiver.

9 All cargo and other articles belonging to such ship or boat as aforesaid that may be washed on shore, or otherwise be lost or taken from such ship or boat, shall be delivered to the receiver; and any person, whether he is the owner or not, who secretes or keeps possession of any such cargo or article, or refuses to deliver the same to the receiver or to any person authorized by him to demand the same, shall incur a penalty not exceeding £100; and it shall be lawful for such receiver or other person as aforesaid to take such cargo or article by force from the person so refusing to deliver the same.

Power of receiver to suppress plunder and disorder by force.

10 Whenever any such accident as aforesaid occurs to any ship or boat, and any person plunders, creates disorder, or obstructs the preservation of such ship, boat, lives, or cargo, as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the receiver to cause such person to be apprehended, and to use force for the suppression of any such plundering, disorder, or obstruction as aforesaid, with power to command all Her Majesty's subjects to assist him in the use of such force; and if any person is killed, maimed, or hurt by reason of his resisting the receiver in the execution of the duties hereby committed to him, or any person acting under his orders, such receiver or other person shall be freely and fully indemnified as well against the Queen's Majesty, her heirs and successors, as against all persons so maimed or hurt, and against the heirs, executors, administrators, or other representatives of the persons so killed.

11 During the absence of the receiver from the place where any such accident as aforesaid occurs, or in places where no receiver has been appointed under this Ordinance, the following officers in succession, each in the absence of the other, in the order in which they are named: (that is to say,) the principal officer of customs in the district, or master attendant, or government agent, or assistant government agent, or superintendent or assistant superintendent of police, and also any justice of the peace, commissioned officer on full pay in the naval service of Her Majesty, or commissioned officer on full pay in the military service of Her Majesty, may do all matters and things hereby authorized to be done by the receiver, with this exception, that with respect to any goods or articles belonging to any such ship or boat the delivery up of which to the receiver is hereinbefore required, any officer so acting shall be considered as the agent of the receiver, and shall place the same in the custody of the receiver; and no person so acting as substitute for any receiver shall be entitled to any fees payable to receivers, or be deprived by reason of his so acting of any right to salvage to which he would otherwise be entitled.

Certain officers to exercise powers of receiver in his absence.

12 Whenever any such accident as aforesaid occurs to any ship or boat, all persons may, for the purpose of rendering assistance to such ship or boat, or saving the lives of the persons on board the same, or the cargo or apparel thereof, unless there is some public road equally convenient, pass and repass, either with or without carriages, horses, or cattle, over any adjoining lands, without being subject to interruption by the owner or occupier, so that they do as little damage as possible, and may also, on the like condition, deposit on such lands any cargo or other article recovered from such ship or boat; and all damage that may be sustained by any owner or occupier in consequence of any such passing or repassing or deposit as aforesaid shall be a charge on the ship, boat, cargo, or article in respect of or by which such damage was occasioned, and shall, in default of payment, be recoverable as salvage is hereby made recoverable, and the amount payable in respect thereof, if disputed, shall be determined as disputed salvage is hereby directed to be determined.

Power in case of a ship being in distress to pass over adjoining lands with carriages.

Wrecks, &c.

Penalty on owners and occupiers of land refusing to allow carriages, &c., to pass over their land.

13 If the owner or occupier of any land over or on which any person is hereby authorized to pass, repass, or deposit as aforesaid for any of the purposes hereinbefore mentioned, does any of the following things; (that is to say,)

- (1) Impedes or hinders any such person from so passing or repassing, with or without carriages, horses, cattle, and servants, by locking his gates or placing any barrier, refusing, upon request, to open such gates or remove such barrier, or otherwise however;
- (2) Impedes or hinders the deposit of any cargo or other article recovered from any such ship or boat as hereinbefore mentioned;
- (3) Prevents such cargo or other articles from remaining so deposited for a reasonable time, until the same can be removed to a safe place of deposit;

he shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Power of receiver to institute examination with respect to ships in distress.

14 Any receiver, or in his absence any justice of the peace, shall, as soon as conveniently may be, examine upon oath (which oath they are hereby respectively empowered to administer) any person belonging to any ship which may be or may have been in distress on the coast of Ceylon, or any other person who may be able to give any account thereof, or of the cargo or stores thereof, as to the following matters; (that is to say,)

- (1) The name and description of the ship;
- (2) The name of the master and of the owners;
- (3) The names of the owners of the cargo;
- (4) The ports or places from and to which the ship was bound;
- (5) The occasion of the distress of the ship;
- (6) The services rendered;
- (7) Such other matters or circumstances relating to such ship or to the cargo on board the same as the receiver or justice thinks necessary.

And such receiver or justice shall take the examinations down in writing, and shall make a copy of the same, which he shall send to the Principal Collector of Customs, who shall place the same in some conspicuous situation for the inspection of persons desirous of examining the same, and shall otherwise give such publicity thereto as he shall consider necessary.

Original or certified copy of examination to be primâ facie evidence.

15 Any such examination or a copy thereof certified under the hand of such receiver or justice shall be admitted in evidence in any court of justice, or before any person having by law or by consent of parties authority to hear, receive, and examine evidence, as primâ facie proof of all matters contained in such examination.

Wrecks, &c.

16 The following rules shall be observed by any person finding or taking possession of wreck within Ceylon; (that is to say,)

Rules to be observed by persons finding wreck.

- (1) If the person finding or taking possession of wreck is the owner, he shall as soon as possible give notice to the receiver of the district within which such wreck is found, stating that he has found or taken possession of the same, and he shall describe in such notice the marks by which such wreck is distinguished.
- (2) If any person not being the owner finds or takes possession of any wreck, he shall as soon as possible deliver the same to such receiver.

And if the owner makes default in performing the several things the performance of which is hereby imposed on the owner, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding £50.

Any person who makes default in performing the several things the performance of which is hereby imposed on any person not being an owner shall forfeit all claim to salvage, and shall pay to the owner of such wreck, if the same is claimed, but if the same is unclaimed, then to the person entitled to such unclaimed wreck, double the value of such wreck (such value to be recovered in the same way as a penalty of like amount), and he shall incur a penalty not exceeding £50.

17 Any receiver suspecting or receiving information that wreck is secreted, or in the possession of some person who is not the owner thereof, or otherwise improperly dealt with, may apply to any justice of the peace for a warrant; and such justice may grant a warrant for the receiver to enter into any house or place, and also into any ship or boat, and to search for, seize, and detain any such wreck there found; and if any such seizure is made in consequence of information that may have been given by any person to the receiver, the informer shall be entitled, by way of salvage, to such a sum, not exceeding in any case five pounds, as the receiver may allow.

Power for receivers to seize concealed wreck.

18 Every receiver shall, within forty-eight hours after taking possession of any wreck, cause to be posted up in the custom house of the port nearest to the place where such wreck was found a description of the same, and of any marks by which it is distinguished, and shall give such publicity thereto otherwise as the Principal Collector of Customs shall direct.

Notice of wreck to be given by receiver.

19 In cases where any wreck in the custody of any receiver is under the value of £5, or is of so perishable a nature or so damaged that the same cannot, in his opinion, be advantageously kept, or if its value is not sufficient to defray the charge of warehousing, the receiver may sell the same before the expiration of the period hereinafter

Goods deemed perishable or of small value may be sold immediately.

Wrecks, &c.

mentioned, and the money raised by such sale, less the expenses thereof, shall be held by the receiver for the same purposes, and subject to the same claims, for and to which the article sold would have been held liable if it had remained unsold.

Remuneration
to receivers.

20 There shall be paid to all receivers appointed under this Ordinance the expenses properly incurred by them in the performance of their duties, and also such fees as may from time to time be directed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, and the receiver shall have the same lien and be entitled to the same remedies as for the recovery of such expenses and fees as a salvor has or is entitled to in respect of salvage due to him ; but save as aforesaid no receiver appointed under this Ordinance shall, as such, be entitled to any remuneration whatsoever.

Salvage in Ceylon.

Salvage in respect of services rendered in Ceylon.

21 Whenever any ship or boat is stranded or otherwise in distress on the shore of any sea of or tidal water in Ceylon, and services are rendered by any person :

- (1) In assisting such ship or boat :
- (2) In saving the lives of the persons belonging to such ship or boat :
- (3) In saving the cargo or apparel of such ship or boat, or any portion thereof :

And whenever any wreck is saved by any person other than a receiver :

The owners of such ship or boat, cargo, apparel, or wreck, shall pay to the person by whom such services are rendered, or by whom such wreck is saved, a reasonable amount of salvage, together with all expenses incurred by him in the performance of such services, or the saving of such wreck, the amount of such salvage and expenses (which expenses are hereinafter included under the term salvage) to be determined in case of dispute in manner hereinafter mentioned.

Salvage for life.

22 Salvage in respect of the preservation of the life or lives of any person shall be payable in priority to all other claims for salvage, and in cases where a ship or boat is destroyed, or where the value thereof is insufficient, after payment of the actual expenses incurred for the amount of salvage due in respect of any life or lives, the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, may award to the salvors of such life or lives, out of the public revenue, such sum or sums as he may deem fit.

Disputes as to salvage how to be settled.

23 Disputes between the owners of any such ship, boat, cargo, or apparel as aforesaid and the salvors as to the amount of salvage, and amongst several salvors as to the apportionment thereof, shall, if the parties cannot agree to settle the same by arbitration or otherwise, be determined by the competent court having jurisdiction in that behalf.

24 Whenever the salvage in respect of services rendered has been ascertained, and any of the salvors are absent, the party liable to pay the salvage may apply to the receiver of the district for liberty to pay the salvage to him; and he shall, if he thinks fit, receive the same and grant a certificate under his hand, stating such payment and the services for which it is made; and such certificate shall be a full discharge to the person to whom it is given against the claims of all persons in respect of the services therein mentioned.

25 Upon the receipt of any such amount the receiver shall proceed to distribute the same among the several persons entitled thereto, and pay the share of each on application being made to him for that purpose.

26 Whenever any salvage is due to any person under this Ordinance the receiver shall act as follows; (that is to say,)

(1) If the salvage is due in respect of services rendered in assisting any ship or boat, or in saving the lives of persons belonging to the same, or the cargo or apparel thereof, he shall detain such ship or boat, and the cargo and apparel belonging thereto, until payment is made, or process has been issued by some competent court for the detention of such ship, boat, cargo, or apparel:

(2) If the same is due in respect of the saving of any wreck, and such wreck is not sold as unclaimed in pursuance of the provisions hereinafter mentioned, he shall detain such wreck until payment is made, or process has been issued in manner aforesaid; but it shall be lawful for the receiver, if at any time previous to the issue of such process security is given to his satisfaction for the amount of salvage due, to release from his custody any ship, boat, cargo, apparel, or wreck so detained by him as aforesaid, and in all cases where bond or other security is given to the receiver it shall be lawful for the salvor, or for the owner of the property salvaged, or their respective agents, to institute proceedings in a competent court for the purpose of having the questions arising between them adjudicated upon, and the said court may enforce payment of the said bond or other security in the same manner as if bail had been given in the said court.

27 Whenever any ship, boat, cargo, apparel, or wreck is detained by any receiver for nonpayment of any sums so due as aforesaid, and the parties liable to pay the same are aware of such detention, then in the following cases: (that is to say.)

Payment of salvage to whom to be made in case of dispute as to apportionment.

Apportionment of salvage by receiver and payment over.

Manner of enforcing payment of salvage.

Power of receiver to sell property salvaged in cases of nonpayment.

Wrecks, &c.

- (1) In cases where the amount is not disputed, and payment thereof is not made within twenty days after the same has become due :
- (2) In cases where the amount is disputed, and no appeal is taken from the first tribunal by which the dispute is decided, and payment thereof is not made within twenty days after the decision of tribunal :
- (3) In cases where the amount is disputed, and an appeal is taken from the decision of the first tribunal to some other tribunal, and payment thereof is not made within such twenty days as last aforesaid, or such proceedings as are according to the practice of such other tribunal necessary for the prosecution of an appeal are not instituted within such twenty days :

The receiver may forthwith sell such ship, boat, cargo, apparel, or wreck, or a sufficient part thereof, and out of the proceeds of the sale, after payment of all the expenses thereof, defray all sums of money due in respect of expenses, fees, and salvage, paying the surplus, if any, to the owners of the property sold, or other the parties entitled to receive the same.

Subject to payment of expenses, fees, and salvage, owner entitled to wreck.

Subject to the payment of such expenses, fees, and salvage as aforesaid, the owner of any wreck who establishes his claim thereto to the satisfaction of the receiver, within one year from the date at which such wreck has come into the possession of the receiver, shall be entitled to have the same delivered up to him.

Miscellaneous.

All goods found derelict to be subject to the same duties as on importation.

31 All wreck shall be subject to the same duties as if the same were imported into Ceylon.

Goods saved from ships wrecked to be forwarded to the ports of their original destination.

32 The Principal Collector of Customs shall permit all goods, wares, and merchandise saved from any ship stranded or wrecked to be forwarded to the port of its destination or shipment, but he is to take security, for the due protection of the revenue, in respect of such goods, wares, and merchandise.

In case of wreck of foreign ships, consul-general or other consular officer to be deemed agent of owner.

33 Whenever any articles belonging to or forming part of any foreign ship which has been wrecked on or near the coasts of Ceylon, or belonging to or forming part of the cargo thereof, are found on or near such coasts, or are brought into any port in Ceylon, the consul-general of the country to which such ship, or, in the case of cargo, to which the owners of such cargo may have belonged, or any consular officer of such country authorized in that behalf, shall, in the absence of the owner of such ship or articles and of the master or other agent of the owner, be deemed to be the agent of the owner, so far as relates to the custody and disposal of such articles.

Commencement of Ordinance.

34 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

2nd October, 1861.

*Public Thoroughfares.No. 10 of 1861.*To consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Public Thoroughfares in this Colony.

(See No. 31 of 1884, No. 17 of 1885, No. 18 of 1885, No. 10 of 1887, and No. 11 of 1889.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the laws relating to public thoroughfares in this colony, and to make other provisions respecting the same: It is enacted as follows:

Preamble.

1 The Ordinance No. 8 of 1848, entitled "To make provision for the formation and improvement of the means of communication in this Island;" the Ordinance No. 14 of 1848, entitled "To alter in certain respects the Ordinance No. 8 of the year 1848, and to extend its operation to the maintenance of Public Tanks and other means of Irrigation;" and the 16th, 17th, 23rd, and 24th clauses of the Ordinance No. 16 of 1844, entitled "An Ordinance for the preservation and improvement of Streets, Roads, Thoroughfares, and Public Places within Towns, and of the Public Roads, Navigable Rivers, Lakes, and Canals of this Island," are repealed, save and except rights which shall have accrued, liabilities which shall have been incurred, acts which shall have been done, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place before this Ordinance shall come into force.

Ordinances No. 8 and 14 of 1848 repealed, and sections 16, 17, 23, and 24 of Ordinance No. 16 of 1844.

2 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Road Ordinance, 1861."

Short title of Ordinance.

3 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the first day of January, One thousand Eight hundred and Sixty-two.

Commencement of Ordinance.

4 In the construction and for the purposes of this Ordinance (if not inconsistent with the context or subject-matter) the following terms shall have the respective meanings hereinafter assigned to them; (that is to say),

Interpretation of certain terms in this Ordinance.

"Thoroughfare" shall mean any public road, canal, or river.

"Road" shall include all public carriage ways, cart ways, and pathways, as well as all bridges, drains, embankments, causeways, and ditches belonging or appertaining to a road, and such waste land adjoining any road as may have been reserved for its protection or benefit, throughout the island; also all public places in any town.

"Canal" shall mean any public canal, and shall include the full extent of waterway from bank to bank, together with the sides, towing-paths, embankments, drains, and ditches thereto belonging.

Public Thoroughfares.

“River” shall include all public navigable streams, lakes, estuaries, creeks, and inlets of the sea, and all towing-paths and embankments thereto belonging.

“Centre of the road” shall be deemed to be the centre of the part thereof commonly used as a thoroughfare.

“Town” shall mean any place within the limits of which a police force is or shall hereafter be established by the Governor, and any place included in any Proclamation issued or to be issued by the Governor under the provisions of the Ordinance No. 10 of 1848.

“Householder” shall mean the owner, or part owner, or lessee, or principal occupant of the house in which such person resides.

“Inhabitant” shall mean a person who, being in this colony, has resided therein for three months or upwards.

“Resthouse” shall include any amblam, maddum, or other public building for the shelter of travellers.

“Ox” shall include buffalo and all cattle.

“Horse” shall include all animals except oxen commonly used in drawing any kind of carriage.

Language of notices, and how served.

5 All notices required to be given by this Ordinance shall be in the English, Sinhalese, or Tamil language, in the discretion of the provincial committee; and every notice addressed to any person may be served either personally upon such party, or by leaving it with some member of his household, or by affixing it to some conspicuous part of his residence.

Forms in schedule may be used.

6 The several forms in the schedule to this Ordinance, or forms to the like effect, shall be deemed good and sufficient.

Powers of Commissioner of Roads to be exercised by his assistants.

7 The powers and duties vested by this Ordinance in and imposed upon the Commissioner of Roads shall and may be exercised and discharged by any assistant commissioner of roads within the limits of his authority, under the control and direction of the Commissioner of Roads.

Governor to declare principal thoroughfares.

8 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation to declare that any road, canal, or river shall be deemed to be a principal thoroughfare for the purposes of this Ordinance, and such road, canal, or river shall from the time specified in such Proclamation be deemed to be a principal thoroughfare accordingly: Provided that all roads, rivers, lakes, and canals which have been declared principal roads, rivers, lakes, or canals under the Ordinance No. 8 of 1848, shall be deemed principal thoroughfares for the purposes of this Ordinance.

Proviso.

Governor may order road to be stopped up or diverted.

9 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and on the application of the provincial committee, to order that any existing road or canal be stopped up, diverted, or turned, and to substitute some shorter or more commodious course for any road or canal so diverted or turned, as the public advantage may require; and it shall also be lawful for the said Governor and Council to order any new road to be opened, or any road to be widened and enlarged, in such manner as they shall think fit; and if in the execution of any such order it shall become necessary to take possession for the public use of the land of any person, it shall be lawful for the chairman of the provincial committee, and he is hereby empowered, subject to the approval of the Governor, to make an agreement on behalf of the Government with the owner for the recompense to be made for such land, and for any building, tree, or fence thereon, either by allowing him to possess the ground, or part of the ground, of the former road, or by the grant of other Crown land in exchange, or by payment in money; and the land of any person taken possession of by the chairman of the said committee in pursuance of such agreement shall vest in the Government, without any formal transfer thereof, and the certificate of such chairman that any person has been allowed by the Governor to possess any part of the ground of the former road or other Crown land, together with a survey thereof, shall be a sufficient title of the right of such person to the same; and if the said chairman cannot agree with such owner as to the recompense to be made, or if the owner cannot be found, or if it be not thought advisable to enter into any such agreement, then proceedings may be taken for obtaining possession of such land, and for compensating the owner, in the manner prescribed by any Ordinance in force at the time providing means for taking private lands for public uses.

10 The several districts and divisions into which the colony has been divided under the authority of the Ordinance No. 8 of 1848 shall continue to be the districts and divisions for the purposes of this Ordinance, so long as any such district or division shall not have been altered in manner hereinafter provided.

11 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation to alter and vary any district or division into which this colony has already been divided under the authority of the Ordinance No. 8 of 1848, or into which it may at any time hereafter be divided for the purposes of this Ordinance: Provided that any such alteration of a district shall take effect only from the first day of January thence next ensuing.

12 It shall be lawful for any provincial or district committee for the time being to make and enter into, perform and execute, and compel the performance and execution of all such contracts and agreements, matters, and things, and to commence and maintain all such suits as they shall deem necessary; and all such contracts and agreements shall and may be entered into and enforced, and all such and substitute shorter or more commodious course, and order road to be widened and enlarged.

[§ 1, 17 of 1885]

Mode of ascertaining compensation to be given to owner of land taken for any such purpose.

The existing districts and divisions to continue until altered.

Governor may alter the districts and divisions.

Proviso.

Committees may enter into contracts, and may sue and be sued.

15 Meetings of the provincial committee shall be held for the despatch of business at the office of the government agent for the province, upon such day or days in every month as shall be fixed by any general rule made by such committee as hereinafter provided: Provided that if any two members shall call upon the chairman, by writing under their hands, to convene a special meeting of such committee, it shall be the duty of the chairman to convene such meeting within seven days from the receipt of such requisition, and two days' notice of the day appointed by him for the same shall be given by the secretary to each member thereof.

Meetings of provincial committee.

Proviso.

16 It shall be lawful for the provincial committee to make such rules and to prescribe such forms of accounts as to them may appear expedient for regulating the due conduct and management of the duties imposed on them and on those acting under their authority, and on the district committees and division officers in their province; provided such rules be not repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Ordinance, and that copies thereof be with all convenient speed transmitted to the Governor for the approval, amendment, or disallowance thereof by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council; and the said rules so approved or amended shall thereupon become as legal, valid, and effectual as if the same had been inserted herein; and it shall also be lawful for the provincial committee from time to time to give general directions for the management of their business to the district committees and to the division officers within their province; provided such directions be not repugnant to or inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, or with any rules made under the authority of this section.

Provincial committee to make rules.

17 Every provincial committee shall, on or before the first day of July in every year, transmit to the Governor a numerical abstract of the inhabitants resident within the province liable to the performance of labour under this Ordinance, distinguishing the number of such inhabitants belonging to each district and division within the province.

Provincial committee to furnish list of inhabitants annually to Government.

19 The charge of all public resthouses and of any premises belonging thereto shall be vested in the provincial committee of the province within which the same shall be situated; and it shall be lawful for the said committee, with the approval of the Governor, to make such rules as to them may appear expedient in respect to the letting or occupation of the same, and all such rules shall be binding in law upon all parties in any manner using or occupying any such resthouse, or any of the premises belonging thereto; and all sums which shall by virtue of any such rules or otherwise be received from any person hiring, using, or occupying any such resthouse or premises shall be paid to the chairman of the said provincial committee, who shall defray therefrom the expenses necessary for the management of the several resthouses and premises within the province.

Provincial committee to furnish accounts to Governor.

20 Every provincial committee shall, on or before the first day of April in every year, transmit to the Governor accounts, audited by two of its members, showing the amount of labour and money performed and paid on account of each district and division in the province during the preceding year, and of the several works for which the same shall have been applied; and there shall be appended to such accounts copies of the certificates referred to in the 37th section; and such accounts, with the copies aforesaid, shall be laid before the Legislative Council at its next session.

Persons appointed bound to serve.

21 Every person appointed a member of a provincial committee shall be bound to act as such for the space of one year from the time of such appointment; and any person so appointed who shall refuse to act as such for the time aforesaid, or who shall neglect to attend any meeting of the said committee without lawful excuse, or who shall on any occasion during such time wilfully neglect or refuse to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by this Ordinance, shall forfeit for such first-mentioned act of refusal the sum of ten pounds, and for any other act of neglect or refusal the sum of two pounds: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, upon good and sufficient reasons shown to him, to permit any person appointed a member of a provincial committee to resign such office before the expiration of one year from the time of such appointment; and provided further, that no person shall, unless with his own consent, be appointed a member of any such committee within five years from the time of his having ceased to act in such office; but nothing in this Ordinance contained shall prevent any person appointed a member of any such committee continuing with his own consent, and upon a fresh appointment, to act as such for a longer period than one year.

Proviso.

Vacancy in provincial committee.

22 In case of the death, incapacity, resignation, or departure from the island of any member of a provincial committee the chairman shall report the same forthwith to the Governor, and it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint some qualified person to supply the vacancy so created for the remainder of the period for which any such member was bound to act; and any person appointed to supply any such vacancy shall be and become vested with all the powers and rights, and liable to the performance of all the duties, and subject to the penalties, conferred or imposed by this Ordinance on members of the provincial committee; and until any such vacancy shall be supplied the remaining members or member of any such committee shall continue to do and perform all and every the acts, matters, and things necessary for carrying into effect the purposes of this Ordinance, anything contained in section 14, relative to the number of members required to form a quorum at any meeting of a provincial committee, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Public Thoroughfares.District Committees.

23 For the purposes of this Ordinance, there shall be in each district into which any province has been or shall hereafter be divided, a committee, to be termed a district committee, and consisting of the following members; that is to say, the government agent of the province, or in his absence the assistant government agent of the district, or if there be none such, then such other person as the provincial committee shall appoint; the assistant commissioner of roads of the district, or such other officer as the Commissioner of Roads shall appoint; and three other members to be elected or appointed in the manner hereinafter mentioned: Provided that it shall be lawful for any member of a provincial committee to be also a member of any district committee; and the said government agent, or in his absence the said assistant agent, or such other person as may be appointed by the provincial committee as aforesaid, shall be the chairman of such district committee; and the said assistant agent, or in his absence, or if there be no such assistant agent, then any member nominated by the chairman, shall be the secretary thereof, and shall make due record of all meetings of the said committee and of the resolutions and proceedings thereof: Provided that in the event of the absence of such secretary from any meeting the duties of secretary may and shall be performed by any one of the members present who shall be thereunto directed by the member chosen to preside at such meeting.

25 No person shall be eligible as a member of a district committee unless he shall be an inhabitant of the district for which the said committee is assigned to act, and shall be of the age of twenty-one years or upwards: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time to require by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette that any members to be elected for any district therein named should be able to read and write the English language, and no person shall after such Proclamation be admitted as a candidate for election who does not possess such qualification.

Qualification of member.

Public Thoroughfares.

Candidates must give notice of intention to offer themselves as such.

26 Every person intending to offer himself as a candidate shall give at least ten days' notice in writing to the chairman of the provincial committee of such his intention, and it shall be the duty of the said chairman to publish the names of the candidates at the different places in which the election is held, as is hereinafter provided, before the election takes place.

Elections when to be held.

27 The provincial committee of every province shall, once in three years, cause a general election to be held in each district within the province, for the election of the three members for each of the district committees within such province; that is to say, the first of such elections shall be held on an early day in the month of January, One thousand Eight hundred and Sixty-two, and thereafter on such other day before the first day of January of every succeeding third year as the said provincial committee shall appoint. The committee may, if need be, appoint several places for holding the election, so as to secure that the elections should all be held in one and the same day: Provided that such committee shall in every case cause notices to be published seven days at least before the day of such election, fixing the time and places of such election. A copy of such notice shall also be inserted in the Government Gazette, and affixed on the walls of the cutcherry and courts of every such district respectively.

Election by whom to be held.

28 Every election shall be held at the time and places fixed by the provincial committee as aforesaid, and in the presence of the chairman thereof or of such other person as the committee shall depute for that purpose; that is to say, there shall be a separate election in respect of each class of the community, namely, the Europeans, the Burghers, and the natives: Provided that for the purpose of such election every person shall be deemed a Burgher who shall be commonly known as such, and every person shall be deemed a native who shall not be either a European or a Burgher.

Classification of electors.

Order of holding elections.

29 At the time and places so fixed as aforesaid the person holding the election shall at once proceed to the election of the member for the European community, and thereafter of the member for the Burgher community, and lastly of the member for the native community.

Mode of holding elections.

30 At every such election it shall be lawful for every male inhabitant between the ages of 18 and 55 years residing within the district, and being a member of that class of the community for which the member is to be elected, and liable to perform labour under the Ordinance, to nominate for election as a member of the district committee of the said district any person who shall have offered himself as a candidate for the said office; and every such inhabitant shall be entitled to attend personally at the time and place aforesaid, before the person holding the election, and declare to him the name of the candidate for whom he votes: Provided that no person otherwise qualified shall be entitled to vote unless he shall produce a certificate of the due performance by him of labour for the current year, or a receipt of the payment of commutation money in lieu of such labour. If the election should precede the calling out of labour in the district to which the voter belongs, it shall then be competent for him to produce the certificate of labour or the commutation receipt for the preceding year: Provided further that it shall not be competent for any inhabitant to nominate or vote for any candidate who may have already been elected by either of the other two classes for the same period.

31 The persons holding the election shall record or cause to be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose the proceedings had at such elections, and the number of votes for the several candidates, and at the close of each election shall publicly declare the names of the candidates for whom the greatest number of votes shall have been recorded, and shall communicate the same forthwith to the chairman of the provincial committee; and such chairman, after having ascertained the result of the elections at all the places appointed for holding the same, shall publish the names of the candidates elected by each class for whom the greatest number of votes shall have been recorded in the aggregate, and who shall thereupon be deemed to have been duly elected: Provided that no person shall be deemed duly elected who shall have less than five votes in his favour: Provided also that if the votes in favour of two or more of the candidates shall be equal, the provincial committee may at their discretion select any one of them and declare him to be, and he shall thereupon be deemed to be, the duly elected member.

Votes to be recorded, and the result to be declared.

Proviso.

32 If any question shall be raised as to the right of any person to vote at any election, the person holding the election shall then and there make such inquiry as he may deem requisite, and shall declare whether the objection made be good or not, and the decision so made shall, for the purposes of the said election, be final. In all other questions relating to elections, or the legality thereof, the decision of the provincial committee shall be final.

Objections to voters how disposed of.

33 If upon the day fixed for holding any election no person shall offer himself for election, or no person shall be duly elected, it shall be lawful for the provincial committee either again to appoint a time and places for holding such election, giving such notice as they may deem sufficient, or, if they shall think fit so to do, to appoint some person to be nominated by themselves as the member to represent that class of the community in respect of which no person shall have offered himself or been duly elected.

Provision in case no candidate appears or is elected.

34 Every person so elected or appointed as a member of a district committee shall be bound to act in such office for the period of at least one year.

Member bound to serve.

Public Thoroughfares.

Vacancy how supplied.

35 In case of the death, incapacity, resignation, or departure from the island of any member so elected or appointed as aforesaid, the provincial committee shall cause a fresh election to be held, after such notices and in like manner as is hereinbefore provided in respect of general elections, and subject also to the provision in the 33rd section contained; and every person so elected or appointed in place of another shall, except as is hereinbefore provided, be bound to act in the said office for the remainder of the period for which the original member was elected or appointed.

Penalty for refusal to act as member.

36 Any person appointed as a member of a district committee who shall refuse to act as such shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds; and any member, whether elected or appointed, who shall, during the time that he is a member, wilfully neglect or refuse to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by this Ordinance, shall forfeit for any such act of neglect or refusal the sum of two pounds: Provided that it shall be lawful for the provincial committee, upon good and sufficient reasons being shown in that behalf, to permit any such member to resign his office before the expiration of the period for which he shall be bound to act therein.

Appropriation of one-third to minor works.

37 It shall be lawful for the district committee, with the approval of the provincial committee, to apply the remaining amount of labour not appropriated for works referred to in section 18,* or any money paid in commutation thereof, less the proportion of the necessary expenditure to be incurred in carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance for the repair, improvement, maintenance, and formation of any minor road or path, river, lake, or canal, or any proposed minor road, path, or canal within the district: Provided that it shall be the duty of every district committee, before commencing their works in any year, to transmit to the provincial committee estimates of the amount which the district committee recommend should be expended during that year upon any minor road or path, river, lake, or canal, or any proposed minor road or canal within the district, copies of which estimates shall be forwarded by the provincial committee to the Governor; and provided further that no work performed by the district committee shall be admitted into account and pass audit unless the due and satisfactory performance thereof be certified to in writing by two members of the provincial or district committee, and an entry thereof be made in the proceedings.

Proviso.

Further proviso.

Division Officers.

Division officers how appointed.

38 The district committee of each district shall be empowered from time to time to appoint as many division officers for such district as shall be necessary, and to award to them such salary or remuneration as they deem fit, and also from time to time to remove any existing or future division officer from his office, and appoint another to succeed him : Provided that the several division officers elected or appointed under the authority of the Ordinance No. 8 of 1848 shall, unless removed by the said committee, continue to be the division officers for the respective divisions for which they were originally elected or appointed, receiving therefor such salary or remuneration as may have been agreed upon ; and they shall perform the duties and exercise the powers, and be liable to the penalties, conferred or imposed by this Ordinance on division officers ; and any bond or other security given by them for the due and faithful execution of their office shall remain in force and be good and effectual as security for the due and faithful execution of their duties as division officers under this Ordinance.

Security given by them to stand good.

39 If any division officer shall die or become incapable or disqualified, or resign or be removed from his office, the district committee shall with the least possible delay appoint such person to the vacancy as they may deem fit.

Appointment of successors to present division officers.

40 No person shall be eligible to be appointed a division officer unless he shall be an inhabitant of the division for which he shall be appointed, or shall reside within such distance from it as the district committee shall determine.

Qualification of division officer.

41 Every person appointed a division officer shall, within ten days from the time of such appointment, give security to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, for the due and faithful execution of his office, in such amount as shall be determined by the district committee ; and such security shall be given by way of mortgage of immovable property within this island, or by deposit of money, in such manner as the said district committee shall appoint, and such mortgage bond shall be free of stamp duty.

Division officer to give security.

42 Every householder shall, whenever thereunto required by the division officer of the division in which such householder resides, or by any person acting on behalf of such division officer, fill up a list (A) containing the number of inmates, and the name, age, and occupation of every male person (including such householder himself, if a male) resident in his house, so far as the same shall be known to him ; and the division officer, or person acting on his behalf, shall ask the persons mentioned in such list who are liable to perform labour under this Ordinance, and who had not theretofore commuted or elected to commute, whether or not they elect to commute the same, and the purport of their reply shall be entered in the said list ; and if any householder is unable to write he shall furnish the required information to the division officer, or person acting on his behalf, who shall enter the same in such list ; and any householder refusing or neglecting to comply with any such requisition, or wilfully giving false information to the division officer, or to the person acting on his behalf, as to any matter or thing required to be inserted in such list, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Householders to fill up lists of males resident in their houses, on requisition by division officer.

Absent persons usually residing with such householder to be named to the division officer.

Division officer to give information thereof to the district committee.

Division officer to preserve lists; to deliver them to district committee if required; and to permit their inspection.

Division officer to make and preserve lists and returns.

Punishment of division officer for neglect of duty, misconduct, &c.

Default of payment of money due.

Fraudulent acts.

On removal or resignation of division officer, district committee entitled to his books, &c.

43 If any male person who usually resides in the house of such householder shall be absent from home in some other division at the time any such householder is called upon to fill up any such list, such householder shall inform the division officer, or person acting in his behalf, of the name, age, and occupation of such absent person, and also of the place to which he has gone, and of the time when he is expected to return, so far as the same shall be known to such householder; and the said division officer, or person acting on his behalf, shall enter the name and other particulars respecting any such absent person in such list, and shall inform the district committee of the name and supposed residence for the time being of such absent person.

44 Every division officer shall carefully preserve the lists mentioned in section 42 for such period as the district committee may direct; and he shall be bound to deliver the same at any time to the district committee if called upon so to do, and if the same are in his possession; and he shall at all reasonable times permit any inhabitant of his division liable to perform labour to inspect the same.

45 Every division officer shall make and preserve such lists and returns, and shall conform to such instructions, as the provincial committee shall from time to time by writing require and prescribe.

46 Any division officer who shall commit any of the following offences shall be liable to the punishment hereinafter specified in each case:

(2) If he shall make default in the paying or accounting for any money received by him, within the time and according to the directions appointed by the district committee, he shall be liable for every such offence to a fine not exceeding treble the amount of the money so due:

(3) If he shall by any wilful act, either of commission or omission, commit or attempt to commit any fraud in the execution of his office, or shall wilfully or fraudulently alter, deface, destroy, or make away with any book, list, account, or document in his charge or custody, or which he was bound to preserve, he shall be liable for every such offence to such punishment as the court before which he shall be convicted may in its discretion award.

47 In the case of the death, resignation, or removal of any division officer, the district committee shall be entitled to receive and take possession of all books, lists, accounts, and other things relating to his office which were in his possession; and if any division officer so removed from or resigning his office, or the representative of any deceased division officer, shall neglect or refuse to deliver within a time fixed by the said district committee the said books, lists, accounts, and other things, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds for every day during which such neglect or refusal shall continue.

Public Thoroughfares.

48 All headmen and all police and peace officers shall, when necessary, be aiding and assisting every division officer within their respective jurisdictions in the discharge of the duties imposed upon him; and every such headman or police or peace officer who shall wilfully neglect or refuse so to aid or assist shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Headmen and others to assist division officers.

Performance of Labour.

49 Every male inhabitant between the ages of eighteen and fifty-five years shall be liable to perform six consecutive days' labour in each year upon the thoroughfares in this colony, or on works necessary for the formation, repair, or improvement thereof, or in the collection and preparation of materials required for any such purpose, or on any work sanctioned by the Legislative Council under the authority of this Ordinance.

Male inhabitants between 18 and 55 years liable to perform labour on the roads.

50 The following persons are exempted from the liability to labour imposed by the preceding section :

Exemptions.

- (1) The Governor :
- (2) All officers, non-commissioned officers, and soldiers belonging to the staff, or to any regiment or corps of Her Majesty's army serving in this Colony :
- (3) Buddhist priests :
- (4) Pioneers in the employ of Government :
- (5) Indian coolies in search of or employed in agricultural labour in this island.

Execution of Works.

66 The direction and control of any work directed by the Governor and the Legislative Council to be undertaken under this Ordinance upon any principal thoroughfare shall be vested in the provincial committee, the execution, however, of such work being left to the Commissioner of Roads for the time being, or such other officer as the Governor may direct; and the provincial committee shall as hereinafter provided furnish the said Commissioner of Roads or other officer with the amount of labour voted by the said Council for every such work, or shall from time to time pay for such labour out of the sums received by them in commutation of labour due under this Ordinance.

Management of works on principal thoroughfares to be vested in provincial committee.

67 The provincial committee shall as soon as may be after any work shall have been directed by the Governor and the Legislative Council to be undertaken upon any principal thoroughfare, or proposed principal thoroughfare, inform the Commissioner of Roads or other officer of the time at which they propose to commence such work; and it shall be lawful for such provincial committee, and they are hereby required, to determine, as to them shall appear expedient, the amount of the labour due from each division within their province to be applied to each such work; and the provincial committee shall inform each district committee of the amount of repairing, clearing, or improving any bridge, fence, drain, dam, or ditch thereupon or in any way connected therewith, it shall and may be lawful for any such officer to throw upon any lands adjacent or near thereto such earth, rubbish, or materials as it shall or may be necessary to remove from the place of any such work.

and make temporary road ;

75 It shall be lawful for any such officer to make a road through the grounds adjacent or near to any existing or intended thoroughfare during the execution of any work thereupon or in any way connected therewith ; provided such road shall not run over any ground whereon any building stands, nor over an inclosed garden or yard.

and cut trees ;

76 It shall be lawful for any such officer to cut and remove, and place upon any ground adjacent or near thereto, all trees, bushes, or shrubs, and all leaves or branches or roots of trees that shall grow in or overhang any thoroughfare or cause any obstruction therein, and for that purpose to enter upon any land or premises with such persons, animals, and instruments as may be necessary, and to proceed to do therein all such things as may be necessary for the cutting, lopping, or removing of such trees, bushes, shrubs, leaves, branches, or roots.

and put up fences ;

77 It shall be lawful for any such officer to put up or make fences, hedges, ditches, drains, or banks by the side of any thoroughfare, whenever to him it shall appear necessary, and the owners or occupiers of land adjoining such fences, hedges, ditches, drains, or banks shall, and they are hereby required to, keep the same in good and substantial repair and order.

and to make and keep open ditches, &c., and to lay trunks, &c. ;

78 Every such officer shall have power to make, scour, cleanse, and keep open all ditches, gutters, drains, or water-courses, and also to make and lay such trunks, tunnels, plats, or bridges, as he shall deem necessary for the protection, preservation, improvement, repair, or construction of any road or canal in and through any lands or grounds adjoining or lying near to such road or canal or intended road or canal.

and to lay stones, &c., on road.

79 Every such officer shall have power to lay any heap of stone or gravel, or any log of wood, or any other matter or thing whatsoever, upon any road, and to allow the same to remain there during the time such road is under repair, and for such time before the repairs are commenced, and after the repairs are completed, as may be necessary for facilitating the making of such repairs, or for preventing damage to such recently repaired road, but he shall take due and reasonable precaution for preventing danger or injury to persons passing along such road.

Compensation for injury to property by authorized officers.

80 Every person who shall sustain any loss or damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers and authorities conferred by this Ordinance upon officers in charge of works to which it is applicable shall be entitled to receive compensation for the same ; provided he shall make application in that behalf to the chairman of the proper provincial or district committee at any time before the expiration of three months after the act, matter, or thing in respect of which such damage shall be alleged to have been done, and if he shall fail to make such application within the aforesaid period his claim to compensation for the alleged injury may be disallowed, and he shall be barred from recovering the same ; and the amount of compensation, if the same cannot be agreed to, may be decided by arbitration, the provincial committee naming one arbitrator and the person claiming compensation another. If the two arbitrators cannot agree they shall appoint an umpire, and the award of the arbitrators or umpire, to be given in terms of the reference to be agreed to by the parties, shall be final.

Reference to arbitration.

81 Every chairman of a provincial or district committee, within the limits of the province or district for which such committee is assigned to act, the Commissioner of Roads, and every person authorized in writing by any such chairman or Commissioner of Roads, shall and may by themselves, their servants, workmen, and labourers, exercise the several powers and authorities conferred by this Ordinance on officers in charge of works to which this Ordinance is applicable.

Powers conferred on officers in charge of public works by whom to be exercised.

82 Every person acting under the authority of this Ordinance who shall, under pretence of performing any act under the authority of this Ordinance, use any unnecessary violence or give any uncalled-for and vexatious annoyance, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to any fine not exceeding five pounds.

Vexatious conduct of officer.

Encroachments.

84 And whereas the line of many thoroughfares has been altered to suit the purposes of private parties, and many obstructions and encroachments have been made in and upon the said thoroughfares, to the great inconvenience and injury of the public : It is enacted that whenever it shall appear to the provincial or district committee that any building, inclosure, or obstruction shall have been raised or made in any thoroughfare, or on any waste or other ground immediately adjoining thereto and belonging to Her Majesty, it shall be lawful for any such committee to demand in writing of the person claiming to be the owner of the premises on which such building, inclosure, or obstruction shall have been raised or made, the production of every deed, document, and instrument upon which such person founds such claim ; and if the occupier of such premises, not being himself the alleged owner, shall refuse to give full information respecting the name and residence of such alleged owner, upon being requested so to do by any such committee, or if such alleged owner shall refuse to produce within ten days after being requested so to do every deed, document, and instrument upon which he founds his claim to the said premises, and which shall be in his possession, or, if any such and make survey of premises.

Committee may in certain cases demand production of title deeds :

deed, document, or instrument shall not be in his possession, shall refuse fully to inform any such committee, upon application, in whose possession they are ; or if any person having in his possession any such deed, document, or instrument shall refuse to produce the same within ten days after having been requested so to do in writing by any such committee, every such occupier, alleged owner, and person so refusing shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds; and it shall be lawful for any such committee, or any person thereto authorized by the chairman thereof, to enter upon any premises upon which any such building, inclosure, or encroachment shall have been raised or made as aforesaid, and upon any other premises whatsoever which it may be necessary to enter for the purposes of the survey hereinafter mentioned, and to make such survey of all such premises as may be necessary to enable any such committee to ascertain whether such building or inclosure is an encroachment upon any thoroughfare, or upon any land adjoining thereto and belonging to Her Majesty.

Demand of production of deed to include power of examination.

85 The deeds, documents, and instruments in the preceding clause mentioned shall be produced on the premises to which the same may relate, or at such other place as the provincial or district committee may require, and the power of demanding the production thereof, in the preceding clause given, shall be deemed and taken to include the power of making such examination of such deeds, documents, and instruments as shall be necessary ; and every person refusing or failing to permit such examination of any such deed, document, or instrument to any party authorized under this Ordinance to demand production thereof, and making such demand, shall be liable to any fine not exceeding five pounds.

Notice of intended building along a thoroughfare.

86 It shall not be lawful for any person to commence any building, wall, or fence along any thoroughfare, or to place any temporary fence or inclosure on any such thoroughfare, for commencing or repairing any such building or wall, without giving seven days' previous notice in writing to the chairman of the district committee of the district within which such building, wall, fence, or inclosure is about to be commenced ; and any person neglecting to give such notice shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds ; and it shall be lawful for the chairman of the said committee, with the sanction of the provincial committee, to cause any building, wall, fence, or inclosure, commenced or erected without such notice, to be removed, and to recover the costs of such removal in the manner provided in section 90 for the recovery of the costs therein mentioned : Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to deprive any provincial or district committee of the power hereinafter conferred on them of removing any such building, wall, fence, or inclosure, if the same be ultimately discovered to be an encroachment, notwithstanding that no proceeding shall have been taken by them on the said notice.

Public Thoroughfares.

87 Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any public officer, duly authorized in that behalf, from making temporary use of any part of any thoroughfare for the public service, nor to prevent the chairman of any provincial or district committee from granting his license to the inhabitants for the erecting of temporary fences and inclosures, in order to the building, pulling down, or repairing of their houses and other buildings, or of temporary decorations, within such province or district, provided the length and breadth of such inclosures be described in such license, and that there be sufficient room for carriages and carts, or boats, to pass: Provided that the person obtaining such license shall immediately after sunset, during all the time that the inclosure shall continue, if so required by the said chairman of the provincial or district committee in such license, place and keep a sufficient light upon the premises till daybreak, and any person removing or extinguishing such light during such time shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one pound.

Where the erecting of temporary fences and inclosures is allowed.

88 Whenever it appears to a provincial or district committee that the line of any thoroughfare within the province or district for which such committee is assigned to act has been altered without proper authority, or has been stopped up, or obstructed, or encroached upon, such committee shall give notice in writing to the occupier of the land from off which the said thoroughfare shall be alleged to have been turned, or upon which such stoppage or obstruction or encroachment shall be alleged to have been made, that a survey of the premises has been made by the authority of such committee, and is open to the inspection of such occupier at a place to be therein mentioned, and that unless within one month from the service of such notice he, or the person under whom he holds, shall take legal proceedings for establishing his title to such land, and for preventing the removal of any such obstruction or encroachment, the said committee will proceed with the removal thereof, in manner provided by section 90 of this Ordinance; and if no such legal proceedings are taken within the time specified, or being taken are not duly prosecuted, it shall be the duty of such committee to cause any such obstruction or encroachment to be forthwith removed as hereinafter provided. Where legal proceedings are taken as aforesaid it shall be incumbent on the party claiming to be the owner of the land from off which the line of any thoroughfare has been alleged to have been altered or turned, or upon which such stoppage or obstruction or encroachment shall be alleged to have been made, to prove his title to such land.

Proof of right to apparent encroachment to rest upon the owner.

89 If any plan or survey made by the authority of the provincial or district committee shall be proved in evidence in any proceeding under this Ordinance, such plan or survey shall be deemed and taken to be conclusive proof of the facts exhibited therein, in so far as the claim of Her Majesty is concerned, unless satisfactory proof to the contrary shall be established by the party contesting such claim.

Survey by proper officer to be conclusive evidence.

Public Thoroughfares.

Removal of obstructions or encroachments.

90 It shall be lawful for the provincial or district committee to give order verbally, or by notice in writing, to any person obstructing or encroaching upon any thoroughfare situate within the province or district for which such committee is assigned to act, forthwith to remove or abate the same; and if any such person to whom such order shall have been given shall refuse or neglect to comply with the same within a reasonable time, or if there be any doubt as to who is the proper person to whom such order should be given, it shall be lawful for the said provincial or district committee to cause any such obstruction or encroachment to be forthwith removed or abated, and for that purpose it shall be lawful for the said committee, or any person thereto authorized in writing by the chairman thereof, where necessary, to enter into any house, garden, inclosure, or other premises, and to cause to enter therein such persons, with such instruments and things as may be necessary, and to proceed to do therein, or cause to be done, all such things as may be necessary for such removal or abatement; and upon the chairman of the said committee certifying to the police court of the district where such person resides, or where such obstruction or encroachment existed, the costs which have been bonâ fide incurred in effecting such removal or abatement, such court shall summon the party, on account of whose non-compliance with any such order such costs were incurred, to appear before it on a certain day, then and there to make payment of the costs which shall appear to such court to have been properly incurred in that behalf; and if such party shall refuse or fail to make such payment forthwith, or within such time as the court shall appoint, the court shall proceed to recover such payment in such and the same manner as it would proceed to recover any fine incurred under any sentence of such court: Provided that if any removal shall be effected after the due production of all deeds, documents, and instruments affecting the title to such premises, and such premises shall nevertheless be adjudged to be the property of the party laying claim to the same, such committee shall be liable in damages for all loss and injury occasioned thereby; but if the party claiming to be the owner of such premises shall refuse or neglect to produce all such deeds, documents, and instruments, or if such deeds, documents, and instruments shall not be produced within ten days after application in that behalf, and any such committee shall nevertheless have caused the removal of such building, inclosure, or encroachment, then in the event of such premises being adjudged to be the property of the party claiming to be the owner thereof any such committee shall not be liable in damages for any loss or injury occasioned thereby.

Proviso.

Injuries to Thoroughfares.

91 Whosoever shall commit any of the following offences on or relating to any thoroughfare shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £5 :

Public Thoroughfares.

- (1) Whosoever shall wilfully destroy, pull up, deface, throw down, break, or injure any milestone, mile-post, lamp-post, or direction post, or any bridge, battlement, arch, wall, dam, drain, sluice, lock, bank, abutment, mound, prop, post, lamp, railing, chain, or fence belonging to any thoroughfare or put up at or near any pit or quarry opened or used for getting road materials : Destroying milestones, bridges, &c.
- (2) Whosoever shall wilfully and unnecessarily remove any fence, post, stone, log, or other thing laid or put up by the authority of the Commissioner of Roads, or of any provincial or district committee, on or in any thoroughfare, for the temporary prevention of the use thereof, or for preventing danger or injury to persons passing along the same whilst undergoing repair : Removing fence, log, &c., put up or laid on thoroughfare to prevent temporarily its use.
- (3) Whosoever shall, without such authority as aforesaid, gather or heap up or take away any stones, gravel, sand, or other material, or any slutch, dirt, drift, or soil from any thoroughfare : Taking away stones, gravel, &c.
- (4) Whosoever shall lead or drive any ox, horse, pig, or other animal from or off or on or into any thoroughfare in such manner as to cause injury to the same, or shall suffer any such animal to damage the same : Injuring thoroughfare by driving ox, &c., from or on or into it.
- (5) Any owner or occupier of any land contiguous to any road who shall suffer the passage of the water from such road, or from any ditch or drain leading therefrom, to be obstructed by making or leaving any way or passage from any road into the adjoining land, or into his house, without a sufficient sewer, gullet, or pipe underneath it ; or who shall suffer any water, filth, or other substance or thing to flow or run from such land or house into or upon any such road, or shall suffer any accumulation of dirt or rubbish in any drain opposite to his house or land to impede the flow of water : Suffering passage of water from road to be obstructed.
Suffering water, filth, &c., to flow upon road.
- (6) Whosoever shall haul or draw upon any thoroughfare any timber, stone, or other thing, otherwise than upon wheeled carriages, or shall suffer any timber, stone, or other thing which shall be carried principally or in part upon wheeled carriages, to drag or trail upon such thoroughfare to the damage thereof : Hauling or trailing timber, &c.
- (7) Whosoever shall make or cause to be made any dam, ditch, drain, or watercourse upon or across, or shall otherwise break up or injure, the surface of any thoroughfare : Making any dams, ditch drains, &c., upon or across any thoroughfare.
- (8) Whosoever shall attach additions to his house so as to project over the outer edge of the side drain of any road, or who shall by means of temporary supports or causing carts to be loaded or unloaded in front of dwelling, &c.

or otherwise expose goods or wares of any description over any portion of a road or its side drain, or who shall by causing carts to be loaded or unloaded in front of his dwelling in any way injure the side drain.

Using new road for certain time after making.

92 It shall be lawful for any provincial or district committee to forbid all persons from riding or driving any kind of beast or carriage on any road within their province or district for such space of time as shall to them appear necessary, not exceeding one month after such road shall have been made or repaired; and any person who shall wilfully disobey such order (the same being duly notified by a notice affixed to a board or boards erected upon or near to such road) shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Owner or occupier bound to have bridge, &c., over drain leading to his house.

93 If the owner or occupant of any house or premises adjoining any road, by the side of which a drain shall have been made or excavated, shall require the means of access to such house or premises from such road, he shall be bound to place a bridge, platform, or arch, which shall in no case cover less than four feet of the length of such drain; and it shall be lawful for the provincial or district committee of the province or district in which such house or premises are situated, or for the Commissioner of Roads, if it shall come to their knowledge that any parties have access to any house or premises so situated without such bridge, platform, or arch as aforesaid, to call upon the owner or occupant thereof forthwith to construct the same, and if he shall fail to do so within a reasonable time, to cause the same to be done, and to recover the costs thereof in the manner provided in section 90 for the recovery of the costs therein mentioned.

Nuisances on Thoroughfares.

94 Whosoever shall commit any of the following offences shall, except where other provision is herein expressly made, be liable to a fine not exceeding £5:

Turning cattle loose on road or canal.

- (1) Whosoever shall turn or suffer to be turned loose any ox, horse, sheep, or goat, on any road or canal; or shall tie or tether any ox, horse, or other animal of any description, so that any such animal can or shall make its way into any road or canal, unless such animal shall be so tied or tethered during the time required for loading or unloading it, or for the loading or unloading of any cart or boat to which it may belong.

Tying cattle on or near road or canal.

Seizure of stray cattle.

And it shall and may be lawful for any person thereto authorized by the chairman of a provincial or district committee to seize any ox, horse, sheep, or goat which he may find tied, tethered, or straying upon any thoroughfare within the province or district for which such committee is assigned to act, unless any such animal belong to any cart or boat to which it is tied or tethered whilst the same is being loaded or unloaded: Provided that if the person authorized as aforesaid shall not be a peace or police officer, every such animal seized by him shall be forthwith delivered into the custody of the nearest peace or police officer; and every such officer seizing or receiving any such animal as aforesaid shall forthwith report such seizure to the proper police court, and such court shall, if at the time of such report no claim be made to such animal, direct such officer to take the necessary steps for the safe custody and maintenance thereof, and to publish such seizure in the usual manner; and no such animal seized as aforesaid shall be delivered to the owner thereof unless upon payment into such court of the sum of two shillings, for the use of the person by whom the same shall have been seized, and of a further sum of threepence for each day during which the same shall have been kept in the custody of the said officer, for the use of such officer; and if no person shall claim such animal or pay such dues as aforesaid within ten days after the animal shall have been so seized, it shall be lawful for such officer, and he is hereby required, to sell the same by public auction, and after payment of two shillings to the person by whom the same may have been seized, and of the sum due to himself for the custody and maintenance thereof, to pay the remainder of the produce of such sale, if any, to the police court for the use of Her Majesty.

- (2) Any owner of a pig found tied, straying, burrowing, or wallowing in any road or canal, shall be liable to a fine of three shillings; and it shall be lawful for every person to seize or shoot or otherwise destroy any pig that he may find tied, straying, burrowing, or wallowing in any road or canal; and such person may, if he choose, take such pig to any peace or police officer of the district in which the offence was committed, who shall forthwith sell the same, and pay the produce of such sale to such person. Destruction of stray pigs.
- (3) Whosoever shall hang up or otherwise expose any mats, cloths, or other substances on or at the side of any road, in a manner calculated to terrify horses or endanger the passengers. Hanging up mats, &c.
- (4) Whosoever shall leave, or permit to be left, on any road to which this provision shall be extended, as hereinafter mentioned, any cart or other carriage, without the oxen, horses, or other animals being yoked or harnessed thereto, unless such cart or carriage shall have accidentally broken down there; and in case of such accident, for a longer time than may be necessary for its removal. Leaving carts on roads to which this provision is extended.
- (5) Whosoever shall drive any cart drawn by one or more bullocks, or suffer the same to remain in any thoroughfare between the hours of sunset and sunrise, without having a light attached thereto.

Public Thoroughfares.

Governor by Proclamation may extend this provision to any road.

And it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation to declare that the aforesaid provision shall extend and be applicable to any road in this colony, or to any section of such road, whenever it shall appear to the said Governor and Council that a sufficient number of halting places have been constructed along the same; and thereupon such provision shall extend and apply to any road, or section of a road, mentioned in such Proclamation.

Leaving boat or timber, &c., so as to obstruct passage on canal.

(6) Whosoever shall leave any boat or raft in any canal in such a way as to obstruct the passage on such canal.

Laying stones, timber, rubbish, &c., on the road or canal.

(7) Whosoever shall lay or throw any stones, bricks, raft, timber, sand, lime, dung, straw, rubbish, or scourings of any ditch or drain, or other object or thing, on or in any road, river, or canal, and shall allow the same to remain there, except for such a period as shall be absolutely necessary for the removal thereof.

Persons placing stones upon roads at Jaffna.

And whereas it is customary in the cultivation of lands situated in the peninsula of Jaffna to remove the stones from the same from time to time, and whereas the stones so removed are frequently placed upon the roads: It is enacted that whenever any stones shall be found to be so placed upon any road within the district aforesaid, the placing thereof shall be deemed to be the act of the person in occupation of the land immediately adjoining, unless the contrary be proved, and such person shall be liable to the penalties herein provided.

Carrying timber, &c., crosswise.

(8) Whosoever shall lead or drive on any road any cart or other carriage with timber, boards, iron, or other goods, so that either end shall project beyond the wheels or sides thereof.

Encroachment on thoroughfare.

(9) Whosoever shall encroach on any thoroughfare, by making or causing to be made any building, platform, hedge, ditch, or fence, or other obstruction upon or in any thoroughfare.

Leaving block on road.

(10) Whosoever shall, after having blocked or stopped any cart or other carriage in going up or down a hill or rising ground, cause or suffer to be or remain on any road the stone, timber, or other thing with which such cart or other carriage shall have been blocked or stopped.

Preventing others from passing.

(11) Whosoever shall in any manner wilfully prevent any other person, or any carriage, boat, raft, or other conveyance under his care, from passing along any thoroughfare.

Erection of kraals in canals and rivers.

(12) Whosoever shall place or continue any kraal or fence, or any other obstruction in any canal or river, so as to impede or in any way interfere with the convenient navigation thereof.

Public Thoroughfares.

And it shall be lawful for the provincial committee to cause any such kraal, fence, or obstruction so placed or continued as aforesaid to be pulled up or otherwise destroyed, and to recover the costs thereof in the manner provided in section 90 for the recovery of the costs therein mentioned: Provided that nothing herein contained shall render any officer in charge of any work on any thoroughfare, or any road contractor, liable to any fine for any act done by such officer in the discharge of the duties of his office, or by such contractor in the necessary execution or performance of his contract; but if any such officer or contractor shall lay or cause to be laid any heap of stones, gravel, rubbish, or other matter whatever upon any road, and allow the same to remain there at night, to the danger or personal damage of any person passing thereon (all due and reasonable precautions not having been taken by him to prevent any such danger or damage), such officer or contractor shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Road officer or road contractor not liable to fine except in certain cases.

95 It shall be the duty of all officers of the police force, and of all headmen, police, and peace officers generally, to aid and assist in the prevention of all offences against this Ordinance within their respective jurisdictions; and every officer or headman who, being cognizant of any such offence, whether upon his own view or upon the information of others, shall fail to make complaint thereof before the duly constituted authority, or shall fail to act promptly and vigorously thereupon, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Police officers and headmen to enforce provisions of Ordinance.

No. 1 of 1862.

An Ordinance for vesting all Lands and Property in Ceylon occupied by or for the Naval Service of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, of the said United Kingdom for the time being.

Preamble.

WHEREAS divers lands have been at various times purchased in Ceylon for the use of the naval service of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and conveyed to several different persons in trust for Her Majesty and her royal predecessors, and her and their heirs and successors, and the same have been placed under the charge of the commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the said United Kingdom for the time being; and it is expedient that the same and all other lands in Ceylon that may be hereafter purchased, or in any manner acquired by or used and occupied by or for the said service, should be vested in the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, for the time being:

It is enacted as follows:

All lands, &c., held for the naval service vested in the Admiralty.

1 All lands and property which have been conveyed to or are vested in any person or persons, or are held or in any manner occupied by or in the name of any person in trust for Her Majesty or her royal predecessors, and her or their heirs or successors, for the use of the naval service of the said United Kingdom, or of any of the departments of or belonging to the said naval service, by whatever title or for whatever interest therein the same shall be had, held, or occupied, together with all rights, servitudes, and appurtenances thereto belonging, shall be vested in the Lord High Admiral of the said United Kingdom, or the commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid for the time being, according to the respective nature and quality of the said lands, and the several interests therein respectively, in trust for Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, for the public service.

Admiralty (Lands, &c.).

2 From and after the purchase and conveyance, grant or demise thereof, all other lands hereafter purchased, taken, held, or occupied by the Lord High Admiral or the commissioners aforesaid, or by any person by his or their order for the said naval service, or any of the departments thereof, and all things thereafter erected or built thereon, with the rights, servitudes, and appurtenances to the said lands and things respectively belonging, shall in like manner be vested in the Lord High Admiral or the said commissioners for the time being, according to the respective nature and quality of the said lands and things, and the several interests therein in trust as aforesaid.

Lands, &c. subsequently acquired for the naval service to vest in the Admiralty.

3 Upon the death, resignation, or removal of the present commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or of any of them, or of any future such commissioners, or of any Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, all such lands and things shall become vested in and be held by the succeeding commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, or the Lord High Admiral aforesaid, as the case may be, and so in perpetual succession, according to the respective nature and quality of the said lands and the several interests therein in trust as aforesaid.

Lands vested in the succeeding Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

4 In all deeds, conveyances, leases, contracts, and other instruments touching any land, property, matter, or thing relating to the said naval service, or to any department under the control of the commissioners aforesaid, or whereto they or any of them shall be parties, it shall be sufficient to describe them generally as "The Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," without expressing their names; and all such deeds, conveyances, leases, contracts, and other instruments wherein the said commissioners shall be so described, and the execution or signature thereof by any two of them, or any person or persons duly authorized to sign for them, shall be as valid as if they or any of them had been expressly named therein and had executed or signed the same.

Title by which Lords Commissioners of Admiralty may be cited.

5 The Lord High Admiral or the said commissioners, or any two or more of them, or any person duly authorized by him or them, may sell, exchange, or in any manner dispose of or let or demise any of the said lands or property, together with their respective appurtenances vested in them by this Ordinance, either by public auction or private contract, and in due form of law convey, lease, or demise the same respectively to any person, and do all things in relation to such lands or property, or for the better management thereof, which he or they shall deem beneficial for the public service, which might be done by any person having a like interest in such lands and property.

Lords Commissioners may sell, exchange, or let land, &c.

6 The Lord High Admiral, or the commissioners aforesaid for the time being, are hereby empowered to bring, prosecute,

Lords Commissioners and maintain any suit or other proceeding at law, for recovering possession of any lands or property by this Ordinance vested in him or them, and to sue for any arrears of rent due in respect thereof, under any demise from the Lord High Admiral or commissioners, or any person on his or their behalf, or on behalf of Her Majesty, and also to bring, prosecute, or maintain, or to defend any other suit in respect of the said lands or property, or any trespass or encroachment committed thereon, or damage or injury done thereto; and in every such suit the said commissioners shall be called "The Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland," without naming them; and no such suit shall abate by the death, resignation, or removal of such Lord High Admiral or of such commissioners, or any of them.

17th September, 1862.

No. 4 of 1862.

An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 5 of 1861.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Ordinance No. 5 of 1861, intituled "An Ordinance relating to Wrecks, Sea Casualties, and Salvage:" It is enacted as follows:

Repeal.

1 The 28th section of the said Ordinance is repealed.

Unclaimed
wreck in Ceylon.

2 In the event of no owner establishing a claim to wreck found in Ceylon before the expiration of a year from the date at which the same has come into the possession of the receiver, the receiver shall, at the expiration of such year, sell the wreck, and after paying the expenses of the sale, and deducting therefrom his fees and all expenses (if any) incurred by him, and paying to the salvors such amount of salvage as the Principal Collector of Customs may, with the sanction of the Governor in each case, or by any general rule, determine, deposit the balance of the produce of the sales in the Treasury, that the same may be carried to and made part of the consolidated fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in virtue of and in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the first year of Her Majesty, chapter two, "For the support of Her Majesty's household, and of the honour and dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland."

Commencement.

3 This Ordinance shall take effect from the day of the passing thereof.

1st October, 1862.

*Cruelty to Animals.Galle Face Burial Ground.No. 7 of 1862.*An Ordinance for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prohibit by law the cruel and improper treatment of animals : It is enacted as follows :

Preamble.

1 Any person cruelly beating, ill-treating, over-driving, abusing, or torturing any animal, or causing or procuring any animal to be cruelly beaten, ill-treated, over-driven, abused, or tortured, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Fine for cruelty to animals.

2 For the purpose of this Ordinance the word animal shall be taken to mean and include any elephant, horse, gelding, bull, ox, buffalo, steer, calf, mule, ass, sheep, lamb, hog, pig, goat, dog, cat, cock, capon, duck, goose, chicken, pigeon, or other domestic animal, and also any sea turtle.

Animals.

3 Any person slaughtering, branding, conveying, or carrying, or causing to be slaughtered, branded, conveyed, or carried, any animal in such a manner or position as to subject such animal to unnecessary pain or suffering, shall be held to be ill-treating, abusing, and torturing such animal within the meaning of this Ordinance.

Improperly slaughtering or carrying animals.

4 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

Commencement.

1st October, 1862.

No. 9 of 1862.

An Ordinance for restricting the use of the Galle Face Burial Ground to the Garrison of Colombo, and to make other provision in respect thereof.

WHEREAS by two Crown grants, bearing date respectively the Sixteenth day of May, One thousand Eight hundred and Twenty-one, and the Eighteenth day of November, One thousand Eight hundred and Thirty-five, two allotments of land (now forming the Galle Face burial ground) were granted to certain trustees in trust for the military garrison and other British inhabitants of the fort, town, and district of Colombo professing the doctrine and discipline of the United Church of England and Ireland, and all who might thereafter belong to the said garrison, or become inhabitants as aforesaid, to be held as a cemetery or burial ground for the interment of the dead according to the rubric of the said United Church, and not to any profane or common use, for ever :

Preamble.

Galle Face Burial Ground.

And whereas by a certain other Crown grant, bearing date the First day of December, One thousand Eight hundred and Forty-nine, a certain other allotment of ground, adjoining the allotments above mentioned, was granted to certain other trustees to be used as a burial ground for the interment of all persons professing to be members of the Church of Scotland :

And whereas the said last-mentioned allotment has been found unadapted for the purpose aforesaid, and has never in fact been so used :

And whereas by reason of the increase of British inhabitants since the said first-mentioned two grants were made it is necessary to restrict interments in the said Galle Face burial ground to persons belonging to the European garrison only, including those not professing the doctrines of the said United Church, and for whom no special provision has been made :

It is enacted as follows :

The trust deeds voided.

1 The several grants in the preamble mentioned are hereby made and declared to be henceforth null and void.

New trusts reserved.

2 The said two pieces of ground first hereinbefore mentioned and now forming the Galle Face burial ground shall be held by the commandant of Colombo for the time being, the commanding Royal Engineer for the time being, and the government agent for the Western Province for the time being, in trust to be used as a cemetery or burial ground for the European garrison of Colombo for the interment of the dead according to the rules, rites, and ceremonies in each case of the religious denomination to which any deceased member of the said garrison belonged during his lifetime, to be performed by a minister of the said denomination, and not to any profane or common use, for ever : Provided that in case of any doubt existing as to the denomination to which such deceased member belonged, or in case there be no minister of that denomination, the interment shall be performed by such minister as the commanding officer of the garrison shall direct.

Monies and property held by former trustees to be handed over to present trustees.

3 All monies and other property held by the trustees under the aforesaid grants in respect of the said burial ground shall be paid and handed over to the trustees appointed by this Ordinance, and a receipt signed by the last-mentioned trustees shall be a complete discharge for the same.

Proviso as to existing vaults and monuments.

4 Provided that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall affect the rights of any person who shall have acquired a right to any existing vault or monument in the said burial ground.

Commencement.

5 This Ordinance shall come into operation on a day to be appointed by the Governor by Proclamation in the Government Gazette.

*General Cemeteries.No. 12 of 1862.An Ordinance for the Establishment of General Cemeteries.(See No. 20 of 1884, No. 2 of 1885, and No. 17 of 1886.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to authorize the establishment of general cemeteries in this Island: It is enacted as follows:

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

Commencement.

2 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Cemeteries Ordinance, 1862."

Short title.

3 In construing this Ordinance the word "cemetery" shall mean any general cemetery established under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Interpretation.

4 All Proclamations, Regulations, and public orders made and issued under this Ordinance shall be published in the Government Gazette.

Proclamations, &c., to be gazetted.

5 The Governor may, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, when to him it shall seem advisable, by Proclamation, establish a general cemetery for the burial of the dead within such limits as shall be specified and defined in such Proclamation; and from the date of such Proclamation this Ordinance shall come into operation within such place and limits.

Establishment of general cemeteries.

[See 2 of 1885]

6 Whenever a cemetery is established as aforesaid, the Governor may, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, order that, after a time to be mentioned in the order, burials in all or certain of the burial grounds within such place and limits shall be wholly or partially discontinued.

Other burial grounds to be closed.

7 After the time mentioned in such order it shall not be lawful to bury in any burial ground or other burial place mentioned in such order; and every person who after such time as aforesaid shall bury, or cause, permit, or suffer any burial contrary to this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Burials not to take place after order for discontinuance.

8 No land which shall have been consecrated or used for the burial of the dead, and in which burials shall have been discontinued under this Ordinance, shall be sold, disposed of, or made any use of for any purpose whatsoever without the permission of the Governor; and every sale and disposal of such land without the permission aforesaid shall be null and void; and any person making any use of such land without the permission of the Governor aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds for every such offence.

Closed burial grounds not to be sold or made use of without permission.

General Cemeteries.

Cemetery not to be within certain distance of houses.

9 No part of any cemetery shall be constructed nearer to any dwelling house than fifty feet, except with the consent in writing of the owner, lessee, and occupier of such dwelling house.

Chapels, &c., may be built.

10 The Governor may, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, authorize the erection of chapels and other buildings for the performance of burial services within the limits of a cemetery.

Cemetery to be enclosed.

[See 20 of 1884]

11 Every cemetery shall be enclosed by substantial walls or iron railings, of the height of six feet at least, which shall be kept in complete repair.

Appropriation of the cemetery.

[See 17 of 1886]

12 The Governor may, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, set apart a portion of any cemetery for the special use of any religious denomination applying for the same.

Cemetery to be used for burials only.

13 No part of any cemetery shall be used for any purpose except for the purpose of a cemetery ; and any person making any other use of such land except for the burial of the dead, and purposes relative to such burial, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds for every such offence.

Any minister requested may perform services.

14 Any clerk in holy orders, minister, priest, or other person may perform the services of his religion, at the request of the executor of the will of any deceased person, or any other person having the charge of the body of any deceased person.

Corpses not to be removed without authority.

15 No corpse buried in any part of any cemetery shall be removed from its place of burial without the authority of a district court having jurisdiction over the limits thereof : Provided that nothing in this clause shall be taken to limit any powers now existing to order a post mortem examination for the purposes of the criminal law.

Burials to be registered.

16 All burials shall be registered in register books to be kept for that purpose by the keeper of the cemetery herein-after mentioned ; and such register books, or certified copies or extracts therefrom, shall be received in all courts as prima facie evidence of such burials ; and copies or transcripts thereof shall be from time to time sent to such officer as shall be appointed by the Governor for such purpose.

Governor to appoint a keeper, grave diggers, &c.

17 The Governor shall appoint a keeper, grave diggers, and other servants necessary for the care and use of the cemetery, and may pay them such salary, wages, and allowances as he may think fit, and may remove them, or any of them, at his pleasure.

Regulations for ensuring decency, solemnity, and deep graves.

18 The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, may make regulations for ensuring that all burials within the cemetery are conducted in a decent and solemn manner, and that the graves are of a proper depth.

General Cemeteries.

19 No corpse shall be buried in any vault under any chapel or building of the cemetery, or within five feet of the outer wall of any such chapel.

No burials under or close to chapels or buildings.

20 The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, may grant portions of the cemetery for the purpose of exclusive rights of burial therein, and may sell, either in perpetuity or for a limited time, and subject to any condition which he may think fit, the exclusive right of burial in any such portions of the cemetery so granted, or the rights of one or more burials therein, and may sell the right of placing any monument or gravestone in the cemetery, or any tablet or monumental inscription on the walls of any chapel or other building within the cemetery.

Portions of the cemetery may be set apart for exclusive burial.

[See 17 of 1886]

21 The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, shall make regulations as to the fees to be paid for the performance of burial services, for digging graves, and such other services, and all such fees shall be paid to the keeper of the cemetery, to be by him paid into the General Treasury as part of the general revenue.

Fees for burial services, &c.

22 The Governor shall cause a plan of the cemetery to be made upon a scale sufficiently large to show the situation of every burial place in all parts of the cemetery so set apart, and in which an exclusive right of burial has been granted ; and all such burial places shall be numbered, and such numbers shall be entered in a book to be kept by the keeper for that purpose, and such book shall contain the names and descriptions of the several persons to whom the exclusive right of burial in any such place of burial has been granted ; and no place of burial with exclusive right of burial therein shall be made in the cemetery without the same being marked out in such plan and a corresponding entry made in the said book ; and the said plan and book shall be kept by the cemetery keeper, and shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable hours, on payment of such fee as the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, shall appoint.

Plan and book of reference.

To be open to inspection.

23 The grant of the exclusive right of burial in any part of the cemetery, and of the right of one or more burials therein, or of placing therein any monument, tablet, or gravestone, may be made in the form in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, or to the like effect, and shall be executed by the cemetery keeper in the presence of two witnesses.

Form of grant of exclusive burial. &c.

24 A register of all such grants shall be kept by the cemetery keeper, and within fourteen days after the date of any such grant and entry a memorial of the date thereof and of the parties thereto, and also of the consideration for such grant, and also a proper description of the ground described in such grant, so as the situation thereof may be ascertained, shall be made by the said keeper in such register, and such keeper shall be entitled to demand such sum as the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, shall think fit, not exceeding two shillings for every entry or

General Cemeteries.

memorial ; and the said register shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by any grantee or assignee of any right conveyed to him, upon payment of the sum of one shilling to the keeper.

Form of assignment.

25 Every assignment of an exclusive right of burial may be in the form in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, or to the like effect, and shall be valid if executed before one or more witnesses.

Assignment to be registered.

26 Every such assignment shall within six months after the execution thereof, if executed in Ceylon, or within six months after the arrival thereof in Ceylon if executed elsewhere, be produced to the keeper of the cemetery, and an entry or memorial of such assignment shall be made in the register by the keeper in the same manner as that of the original grant ; and until such entry or memorial no right of burial shall be acquired under any such assignment ; and for every such entry or memorial the keeper shall be entitled to demand such sum as the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, shall think fit, not exceeding two shillings.

Exclusive right of burial not to be disturbed without consent.

27 No corpse shall be buried in any place wherein the exclusive right of burial shall have been granted, except with the consent of the owner for the time being of such exclusive right of burial.

Removal of monuments improperly erected.

28 The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, may cause to be taken down and removed any gravestone, monument, tablet, or monumental inscription which shall have been placed within the cemetery without his authority.

Penalty on persons committing nuisances in the cemetery.

30 Every person who shall play at any game or sport, or discharge firearms, save at a military funeral, in any cemetery, or who shall wilfully and unlawfully disturb any persons assembled in any cemetery for the purpose of burying any corpse therein, or who shall commit any nuisance within any cemetery, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Breach of regulations.

31 Any person committing any breach of any regulation made in virtue of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

No. 15 of 1862.

An Ordinance for the better preservation of Public Health and the suppression of Nuisances.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make further and more effectual provision for the preservation of the public health and for suppressing nuisances: It is enacted as follows:

1 Whosoever shall commit any of the following offences shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds:

- (1) Whosoever, being the owner or occupier of any house, building, or land in or near any road, street, or public thoroughfare, whether tenanted or otherwise, shall keep or suffer the same to be in a filthy and unwholesome state, or overgrown with rank and noisome vegetation, so as to be a nuisance to or injurious to the health of any person.
- (2) Whosoever shall have in or upon any house, building, or land occupied by him any foul or offensive ditch, gutter, drain, privy, cesspool, or other receptacle.
- (3) Whosoever, being the occupier of a house, building, or land in or near any road, street, or public thoroughfare, shall keep or allow to be kept for more than twenty-four hours, otherwise than in some proper receptacle, any accumulation of dung, offal, filth, refuse, or other noxious or offensive matter, or suffer such receptacle to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglect to employ proper means to remove the filth therefrom and to cleanse and purify the same.
- (4) Whosoever shall keep in or upon any house, building, or land occupied by him any cattle, goat, swine, or other animal, so as to be a nuisance to or injurious to the health of any person.

Preamble.

Certain acts made offences.

Keeping a house, &c., in a filthy state.

Having foul and offensive drains.

Keeping an accumulation of dung, &c.

Keeping cattle, goats, swine, &c.

Nuisances.

Allowing house, &c., to be in a state ruinous or likely to fall.

(5) Whoever, being the owner of a house, building, or wall, shall allow the same to be in a ruinous state, or in any way dangerous to the inhabitants of such house or building, or to the neighbouring houses or buildings, or to the occupiers thereof, or to passengers.

Suffering waste or stagnant water to remain, &c.

(6) Whoever shall suffer any waste or stagnant water or other matter to remain in any place within the premises occupied by him, or shall allow the contents of any privy or cesspool to overflow or soak therefrom.

Casting animals, dirt, &c., in streams.

(7) Whoever shall throw, put, or cast, or cause to enter in any stream, tank, reservoir, well, cistern, conduit, or aqueduct, any dead animal, or any dirt, rubbish, filth, or other noisome or offensive matter or thing, or shall cause or suffer to run, drain, or be brought thereinto any unwholesome or offensive liquid, matter, or thing, or flowing from any house or building or from any ground occupied by him, or shall do anything whereby any such water shall be in any degree fouled or corrupted.

Exposing for sale unwholesome meat, &c.

(8) Whoever shall keep in any market, shop, building, stall, or place used for the sale of butchers' meat, poultry, fish, fruit, or vegetable, or expose or shall allow to be exposed for sale in any place or way any animal, carcass, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, fruit, or vegetable which is unfit for the food of man.

Selling noxious articles as food.

(9) Whoever shall sell or offer or expose for sale as food or drink for man any article which has been rendered or has become noxious or unfit for such use, knowing or having reason to believe the same to be noxious or unfit for such use.

Keeping manufactories without license.

(10) Whoever shall keep any manufactory or place of business from which offensive or unwholesome smells arise, without a license for that purpose, as provided in the fourth section.

Depositing cocoanut husks, &c.

(11) Whoever shall keep or deposit any cocoanut husks, coir, or any other substance at or near such places, or in such a manner as to be a nuisance to or injurious to the health of any person.

Throwing dirt, &c., on roads, or into sewers.

(12) Whoever shall throw or put, or permit his servants to throw or put, any earth, dirt, ashes, filth, refuse from any garden, kitchen, or stable, or any broken glass or earthenware, or other rubbish, on any street, road, or public place or passage, or into any sewer or drain.

Notice to the owner or occupier to abate the nuisance.

2 Whoever shall continue or suffer to continue any of the nuisances above specified, after being convicted of any of the above offences, or after notice in writing prior to any conviction from the board of health, or any of its officers, or from the police magistrate, requiring him to abate or put an end to the same, shall be liable to a further fine not exceeding one pound for each day after such conviction or notice. And the court competent to try the offender is hereby empowered to impose such further fine, although the aggregate thereof may exceed in amount the jurisdiction of such court.

3 Any person authorized by the board of health may, and he is hereby empowered, at all reasonable times, with or without assistants, to enter into and inspect any market, building, shop, stall, or place used for the sale of butchers' meat, poultry, fish, fruit, or vegetable, or as a slaughter-house, and to examine any animal, carcass, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, fruit, or vegetable which may be therein ; and in case any animal, carcass, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, fruit, or vegetable appear to him to be intended for the food of man, and to be unfit for such food, the same may be seized and conveyed to the nearest magistrate ; and if it appear to such magistrate, upon the evidence of a competent person, that any such animal, carcass, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, fruit, or vegetable was intended for the food of man and is unfit for such food, he shall order the same to be destroyed, or to be so disposed of as to prevent its being exposed for sale or used for such food.

Markets may be visited, and unwholesome meat seized and destroyed.

4 No place shall be used within the limits of a town for the purposes of a manufactory or place of business from which offensive or unwholesome smells arise, except under a license from the government agent of the province, or assistant government agent of the district, within which such manufactory or place of business is used, who is hereby empowered at his discretion from time to time to grant such licenses, and the same, with the sanction of the Governor, to recall ; and the license shall be on a stamp of two pounds, and shall be substantially of the form in the schedule to this Ordinance appended.

What manufactories must be licensed.

5 The board of health for each province may make by-laws with respect to the removal by the owners and occupiers of houses of dust, ashes, rubbish, filth, manure, dung, and soil collected, placed, or found in or about any house, stable, cowhouse, street, or place whatsoever, and for preventing the deposit thereof in or by the side of any street so as to be a nuisance to any person.

Board of health may make by-laws.

And for the draining, cleansing, covering, or filling up all ponds, pools, open ditches, sewers, drains, and places containing or used for the collection of any drainage, filth, water, matter, or thing of an offensive nature or likely to be prejudicial to health.

And for the cleansing, purifying, ventilating, and disinfecting of houses, dwellings, churches, and places of assembly by the owners or occupiers and persons having the care and ordering thereof.

And also for the preventing or mitigating any epidemic, endemic, or contagious diseases, and for the speedy interment of the dead during the prevalence of such diseases.

Nuisances.

And all other provisions as are not specially enacted by this Ordinance, and as shall be necessary for the preservation of the public health and the suppression of nuisances.

Provided that no such by-laws shall be repugnant to the provisions of this Ordinance, and the same shall not be of any force and effect unless and until the same be submitted to and confirmed by the Governor and the Executive Council, who are hereby empowered to allow, amend, or disallow the same as they may think proper, and published in the Government Gazette: Provided also that the said board of health may, with the sanction of the Governor and the Executive Council, alter or repeal any such by-laws.

By-laws to be taken judicial notice of.

6 All courts and magistrates shall take judicial notice of such by-laws, when the same shall have been confirmed and published as aforesaid.

Short particulars of offences and penalties to be published.

7 The board of health shall cause short particulars of the several offences for which any penalty is imposed by this Ordinance, or of any by-law made under this Ordinance, and of the amount of every such penalty, to be printed in the English and in the vernacular languages chiefly in use, and copies thereof to be circulated so as to secure due publicity to the same.

Breach of by-laws made an offence.

8 Any breach of by-laws so made as aforesaid shall be deemed an offence, and the person guilty thereof shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding two pounds, and in the case of a continuing offence a further fine not exceeding the sum of ten shillings for each day after conviction for the original offence, or after written notice from the board of health, or any officer thereof in its name, or from the police magistrate, calling upon him to remove the same; and the court competent to try the offender is hereby empowered to impose such further fine, although the aggregate thereof may exceed in amount the jurisdiction of such court.

Other nuisances not affected by this Ordinance.

9 Nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed to render lawful any act or omission on the part of any person which is, or but for this Ordinance would be, otherwise deemed to be a nuisance, or to exempt any person guilty of such nuisance from prosecution or action in respect thereof.

Service of notices.

10 Where any notice is required by this Ordinance to be given to the owner or occupier of any building or land, such notice addressed to the owner or occupier, as the case may require, may be served on the occupier of such building or land, or left with some adult member or servant of his family, or, if the notice cannot be so served, or if there be no occupier, may be put up on some conspicuous part of such building or land, and it shall not be necessary in any such notice to name the occupier or the owner.

Nuisances.

11 If at any time it shall appear to the board of health or to the police magistrate that a nuisance ought to be abated, or any work or thing required by this Ordinance or by any by-law to be performed or done, such board or magistrate may give notice to the owner or occupier, as the case may be, requiring him to get such nuisance abated, or such work or thing performed or done, within such time as the board of health shall deem reasonable; and if after such notice default is made in the removal of the nuisance or the performance of such work, or in the doing of such thing, the board of health or police magistrate, whether any penalty is or is not provided for such default, may cause such nuisance to be removed or work to be performed or such thing to be done, and the expense thereby incurred, if not paid by the owner or occupier, or any person on his behalf, shall, when notified to the police court by the person entrusted with the performance of such work or the doing of such thing, and proved to be reasonable by the evidence of two or more competent persons, be recovered as any ordinary fine imposed by the court.

Board of health or magistrate may abate nuisances.

12 Whenever default is made by the owner of any land in the execution of any work required to be executed by him, the occupier of such land may cause such work to be executed, and the cost thereof shall be paid to him by the owner.

Occupier may execute works in default of owner.

13 Whenever the occupier of any land shall be put to any expense or pay any money for anything required under this Ordinance which is payable by the owner, being the defaulter, such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to his landlord so much as is so paid by or recovered from him in respect of any such expenses, and he shall have a right to retain possession of such house until such expenses are paid or tendered to him.

Occupier executing works for owners may deduct his expenses from the rent.

14 If the occupier of any land prevent the owner thereof from carrying into effect any of the provisions of this Ordinance after notice of his intention so to do has been given by the owner to such occupier, any police magistrate, upon proof thereof, may make an order in writing requiring such occupier to permit the owner to execute all such works as may be necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this Ordinance; and if after the expiration of eight days from the date of the order such occupier refuse to permit such owner to execute such works, such occupier shall, for every day during which he so continues to refuse, be liable to a fine not exceeding two pounds; and every such owner during the continuance of such refusal shall be discharged from any penalties to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of his default in executing such works.

Course if occupier obstruct owner.

15 The board of health or police magistrate shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, have power by themselves or their officers to enter at all reasonable hours in the daytime into and upon any land, for the purpose of inspecting the Power to enter into lands.

Nuisances.

same or removing any nuisance or executing any work authorized by this Ordinance, without being liable to any legal proceedings or molestation whatever on account of such entry, or of anything done in any part of the land in pursuance of this Ordinance.

Obstruction of board of health or magistrate, or their officers.

16 Whoever at any time shall obstruct or molest the board of health or police magistrate, or any of their officers or workmen, or any person employed by them in the performance and execution of their duty, or of anything which they are respectively empowered or required to do by virtue or in consequence of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Informer's share.

17 The magistrate by whom any fine is imposed by virtue of this Ordinance may award any portion not exceeding one half thereof to the informer.

Limitation of prosecutions.

18 No person shall be liable to any fine for any offence committed under this Ordinance, unless the complaint respecting such offence shall have been made before a magistrate within three months next after the commission of such offence.

Police officers to assist.

19 It shall be the duty of all officers of the police force, and of all headmen, police and peace officers generally, to aid and assist in the prevention of all offences against this Ordinance within their respective jurisdiction; and any officer or headman who being cognizant of any such offence, whether upon his own view or upon the information of others, shall fail to make complaint thereof before the duly constituted authority, or shall fail to act promptly and vigorously thereupon, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Interpretation clause.

20 In construing this Ordinance the terms "board of health" and "police magistrate" shall be respectively held to mean the board of health of the province, or the police magistrate of the district, within which the nuisance exists or any work or thing has to be performed or done.

Short title.

21 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Nuisances Ordinance, 1862."

Commencement of Ordinance.

Debentures. Colombo and Kandy Railway. Wrecks.

No. 19 of 1862.*

An Ordinance for raising £1,000,000 sterling on Debentures for the construction of a Railway from Colombo to Kandy.

Has had its effect.

No. 1 of 1863.

An Ordinance to confirm and ratify a Contract entered into between the Agents-General for Crown Colonies and William Frederick Faviell, for the completion of the Railway between Colombo and Kandy.

Has had its effect.

No. 4 of 1863.

An Ordinance to authorize District Courts to institute Inquiries into Wrecks.

(See No. 5 of 1861 and No. 6 of 1884.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to authorize district courts to exercise the powers set out in certain Acts of the Imperial Parliament, to wit, "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854" (section 242), and "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862" (sections 23 and 24), and with this view to modify some of the provisions in the Ordinance No. 5 of 1861, entitled "An Ordinance relating to Wrecks, Sea Casualties, and Salvage":

Preamble,

It is enacted as follows:

1 The 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th sections of the Ordinance No. 5 of 1861 are repealed.

Repeal of 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th sections of Ordinance 5 of 1861.

2 In any of the cases following; (that is to say,)

Whenever any ship is lost, abandoned, or materially damaged on or near the coasts of Ceylon;

Whenever any ship causes loss or material damage to any other ship on or near such coasts;

Whenever by reason of any casualty happening to or on board of any ship on or near such coast loss of life ensues;

Whenever any such loss, abandonment, damage, or casualty happens elsewhere, and any competent witnesses thereof arrive or are found at any place in Ceylon;

Inquiries to be instituted in cases of wreck and casualty.

* The debentures raised under this Ordinance were wholly paid off by 1884.

Inquiries into Wrecks.

It shall be lawful for the receiver of wrecks residing at or nearest to the place where such loss, abandonment, damage, or casualty occurred, if the same occurred on or near the coasts of Ceylon, but if elsewhere at or near the place where such witnesses as aforesaid arrive or are found, or can be conveniently examined, or for any other person appointed for that purpose by the Governor, to make inquiry respecting such loss, abandonment, damage, or casualty.

Formal investigation before justice.

3 If it appears to such officer or person as aforesaid, either upon or without any such inquiry as aforesaid, that a further investigation is expedient, or if the Principal Collector of Customs so directs, he shall apply to any district judge to hear the case, and such district judge shall thereupon proceed summarily to hear and try the same, and shall for that purpose, so far as relates to the summoning of parties, compelling the attendance of witnesses, and the regulation of the proceedings, have the same powers as if the same were a proceeding relating to an offence or cause of complaint over which he has jurisdiction, or as near thereto as circumstances permit; and it shall be the duty of such officer or person as aforesaid to superintend the management of the case, and to render such assistance to the said judge as is in his power.

Power to appoint nautical assessor.

4 In cases where nautical skill and knowledge are required, the Principal Collector of Customs shall have the power, either at the request of such judge or at his own discretion, to appoint some person of nautical skill and knowledge to act as assessor to such judge; and such assessor shall, upon the conclusion of the case, either signify his concurrence in the report by signing the same, or, if he dissents therefrom, shall signify such dissent and his reasons therefor to the Principal Collector of Customs. And it shall be lawful for the Governor to allow the assessor such reasonable compensation for his services as to the Governor shall seem fit.

Remuneration to assessor.

District judge may suspend or cancel certificates.

5 The hearing of the case being concluded, the district judge may proceed, if need be, to suspend or cancel the certificate of any master, mate, or certificated engineer, and to demand the delivery of the same, as authorized by the 23rd and 24th sections of "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," conforming in every respect to the directions therein contained.

Report must be submitted to the Governor.

6 The report to the Board of Trade required by the 23rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," must in the first instance be submitted to the Governor for the confirmation required by the 24th section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

This Ordinance and No. 5 of 1861 to be taken as one.

7 This Ordinance and the Ordinance No. 5 of 1861 shall be read and construed as if they formed one Ordinance.

The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

Cl. 242. "The Board of Trade may suspend or cancel the certificate (whether of competency or service) of any master or mate in the following cases ; (that is to say,)

- (1) If upon any investigation made in pursuance of the last-preceding section he is reported to be incompetent, or to have been guilty of any gross act of misconduct, drunkenness, or tyranny.
- (2) If upon any investigation conducted under the provisions contained in the eighth part of this Act, or upon any investigation made by a naval court constituted as hereinafter mentioned, it is reported that the loss or abandonment of or serious damage to any ship or loss of life has been caused by his wrongful act or default.
- (3) If he is superseded by the order of any admiralty court or of any naval court constituted as hereinafter mentioned.
- (4) If he is shown to have been convicted of any offence.
- (5) If upon any investigation made by any court or tribunal authorized, or hereafter to be authorized, by the legislative authority in any British possession to make inquiry into charges of incompetency or misconduct on the part of masters or mates of ships, or as to shipwrecks or other casualties affecting ships, a report is made by such court or tribunal to the effect that he has been guilty of any gross act of misconduct, drunkenness, or tyranny, or that the loss or abandonment of or serious damage to any ship or loss of life has been caused by his wrongful act or default, and such report is confirmed by the Governor or person administering the Government of such possession.

And every master or mate whose certificate is cancelled or suspended shall deliver it to the Board of Trade, or as it directs, and in default shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding £50 ; and the Board of Trade may at any subsequent time grant to any person whose certificate has been cancelled a new certificate of the same or of any lower grade."

Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862.

Cl. 23. "The following rules shall be observed with respect to the cancellation and suspension of certificates ; (that is to say,)

- (1) The power of cancelling or suspending the certificate of a master or mate by the 242nd section of the principal Act conferred on the Board of Trade, shall (except in the case provided for by the fourth paragraph of the said section) vest in and be exercised by the local marine board, magistrates, naval court, admiralty court, or other court or tribunal by which the case is investigated or tried, and shall not in future vest in or be exercised by the Board of Trade.
- (2) Such power shall extend to cancelling or suspending the certificates of engineers in the same manner as if 'certificated engineer' or 'certificated engineers' were inserted throughout such section after 'master' or 'masters.'
- (3) Every such board, court, or tribunal shall at the conclusion of the case, or as soon afterwards as possible, state in open court the decision to which they may have come with respect to cancelling or suspending certificates, and shall in all cases send a full report upon the case, with the evidence, to the Board of Trade ; and shall also, if they determine to cancel

Merchant Shipping.

- or suspend any certificate, forward such certificate to the Board of Trade with their report.
- (4) It shall be lawful for the Board of Trade, if they think the justice of the case require it, to re-issue and return any certificate which has been cancelled or suspended, or shorten the time for which it is suspended, or grant a new certificate of the same or any lower grade in place of any certificate which has been cancelled or suspended.
 - (5) The 434th and 437th sections of the principal Act shall be read as if for the word 'nautical' were substituted the words 'nautical or engineering,' and as if for the word 'person' and 'assessor' respectively were substituted the words 'person or persons' and 'assessor or assessors' respectively.
 - (6) No certificates shall be cancelled or suspended under this section unless a copy of the report or a statement of the case upon which the investigation is ordered has been furnished to the owner of the certificate before the commencement of the investigation, nor in the case of investigations conducted by justices or a stipendiary magistrate unless one assessor at least expresses his concurrence in the report."

Cl. 24. "Every master or mate or engineer whose certificate is or is to be suspended or cancelled in pursuance of this Act shall, upon demand of the board, court, or tribunal by which the case is investigated or tried, deliver his certificate to them; or if it is not demanded by such board, court, or tribunal, shall, upon demand, deliver it to the Board of Trade, or as it directs, and in default shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding £50."

16th September, 1863.

No. 7 of 1863.An Ordinance relating to Merchant Shipping.

(See No. 3 of 1884 and No. 3 of 1888.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS by section CCLXXXVIII. of an Act of the Imperial Parliament called "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that "if the respective legislative authorities in any British possession abroad, by any Acts, Ordinances, or other appropriate legal means, apply or adapt any of the provisions in the third part of this Act contained to any British ships registered at, trading with, or being at any place within their respective jurisdictions, and to the owners, masters, mates, and crews thereof, such provisions, when so applied and adapted as aforesaid, and as long as they remain in force, shall, in respect of the ships and persons to which the same are applied, be enforced, and penalties and punishments for the breach thereof shall be recovered and inflicted throughout Her Majesty's dominions, in the same manner as if such provisions had been hereby so adapted and applied, and such penalties and punishments had been hereby expressly imposed:" And whereas it is expedient to apply to ships registered at, trading with, or being at any place within the limits of Ceylon, certain provisions of the third part of the said Act, with such adaptations and modifications as are required by the circumstances of this island: It is enacted as follows :

Merchant Shipping.

1 The following words and expressions in this Ordinance shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction :

Interpretation.

(1) "Coastwise ship" shall include every ship employed in trading or going between any ports or places in this island or between any such port or place and any port or place on the coast of India between Bombay and Calcutta.

[§ 2, 3 of 1868]

(2) "Foreign-going ship" shall include every ship employed in trading or going between some port or place in this island and some port or place beyond the limits of this island, excepting that part of the coast of India which lies between Bombay and Calcutta.

the word "master" shall include every person (except a pilot) having command or charge of any ship; the word "seaman" shall include every person (except masters, pilots, and apprentices) employed or engaged in any capacity on board any ship; "ship" shall include every description of vessel used in navigation not propelled with oars; and the word "person" shall include a corporation.

Appointment of Superintendent.

2 The Principal Collector of Customs* shall throughout Ceylon have the general superintendence of all matters relating to this Ordinance, and it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint any officer of customs or any other person to be shipping officer at any port, and to perform such duties as are hereinafter mentioned. Due notice of every such appointment shall be published in the Government Gazette.

Principal Collector of Customs to be superintendent. Governor to appoint shipping officers.

Shipping Offices.

3 A shipping office shall be established at each of the ports of Colombo, Galle, Trincomalie, and Jaffna, and at such other ports as the Governor shall hereafter deem necessary. For every such office there shall be a superintendent, to be called a "shipping officer," with such necessary deputies, clerks, and servants, at such salaries or other allowances, and subject to such regulations, as the Governor shall from time to time direct and appoint. Every act done by or before any deputy duly appointed shall have the same effect as if done by or before a shipping officer.

Shipping offices.

4 The whole or any part of the business of the shipping office shall be conducted at the custom house, or at the office of the master attendant or harbour master, or at such other office as the Governor shall direct; and in respect of such business such custom house or office as aforesaid shall for all purposes be deemed to be a shipping office, and the officer of customs or other officer there to whom such business is committed shall for all purposes be deemed to be a shipping officer within the meaning of this Ordinance.

Business of shipping office may be transacted at custom house or elsewhere.

* Collectors of customs register ships exceeding 15 tons burthen under section 19 of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

Merchant Shipping.

Business of shipping officer.

5 It shall be the general business of shipping officers to superintend and facilitate the engagement and discharge of seamen in manner hereinafter mentioned, and to perform such other duties relating to merchant seamen and merchant ships as are hereby, or under the said "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," or as may hereafter under the powers herein contained, be committed to them. It shall also be the duty of shipping officers to give to all persons desirous of apprenticing boys to the sea service, and also to masters and owners of ships requiring apprentices, such assistance as may be in their power for facilitating the making of such apprentice-ships.

Fees to be paid upon engagements
and discharges.

6 Such fees not exceeding the sums specified in the table marked A in the schedule to this Ordinance, as are from time to time fixed by the Governor, shall be payable to the shipping officers upon all engagements and discharges effected before shipping officers as hereinafter mentioned. Scales of the fees payable for the time being shall be conspicuously placed in the shipping offices; and all shipping officers, their deputies, clerks, and servants may refuse to proceed with any engagement unless the fees payable thereon are first paid.

Fees by whom to be paid, &c.

7 Every owner or master of a ship engaging or discharging any seaman in a shipping office or before a shipping officer shall pay to the shipping officer the whole of the fees hereby made payable in respect of such engagement or discharge, and may, for the purpose of in part reimbursing himself, deduct in respect of each such engagement or discharge from the wages of all persons (except apprentices) so engaged or discharged, and retain any sums not exceeding the sums specified in that behalf in the table marked B in the schedule hereto: Provided that if in any cases the sums which the owner is so entitled to deduct exceed the amount of the fee payable by him, such excess shall be paid by him to the shipping officer in addition to such fee.

Penalty on shipping officer asking other remuneration.

8 Any shipping officer, deputy shipping officer, or any clerk or servant in any shipping office, who demands or receives any remuneration whatever, either directly or indirectly, for hiring or supplying any seaman for any merchant ship, excepting the lawful fees payable under this Ordinance, shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding £20, and may be dismissed from his office.

Examinations and Certificates of Masters and Mates.

Examinations.
[§ 3, 3 of 1888]

9 Examinations shall be instituted for persons who intend to become masters or mates of coastwise ships or foreign-going ships registered in this island, of the burthen of fifty tons and upwards, or who wish to procure certificates of competency hereinafter mentioned.

Examiners.
[§ 3, 3 of 1888]

10 The Governor shall from time to time nominate two or more competent persons as examiners, and make rules as to the conduct of such examinations and as to the qualifications of the various classes of applicants, and such rules shall be strictly adhered to

Merchant Shipping.

by the examiners. Fees at the following rates shall be paid to the examiners by all applicants for examination :—

	Of a Foreign- going Ship.		Of a Coast- wise Ship.
	Rs. c.		Rs. c.
For a certificate as master ...	20 0	...	10 0
For a certificate as mate ...	10 0	...	5 0

11 The examiners shall deliver to every applicant who has passed the examination satisfactorily, and who has given satisfactory evidence of his sobriety, experience, ability, and general good conduct on board ship, a certificate, hereinafter called a "certificate of competency," to the effect that he is competent to act as master or mate of a coastwise ship registered in this island, or as master or mate of a foreign-going ship registered in this island, as the case may be.

Certificates of competency.
[§ 3, 3 of 1888]

12 Certificates of service differing in form from certificates of competency shall be granted as follows ; (that is to say.)

Certificates of service to master and mates who have served as such prior to January 1st, 1851.

(1) Every person who, before the 1st of January, 1851, served as master in the British Merchant Service, or who has attained or attains the rank of lieutenant, master, passed mate, or second master, or any higher rank in the service of Her Majesty or of the late East India Company, shall be entitled to a certificate of service as master.

(2) Every person who, before the 1st of January, 1851, served as mate in the British merchant service shall be entitled to a certificate of service as mate.

And each of such certificates of service shall contain particulars of the name, place, and time of birth and of the length and nature of the previous service of the person to whom the same is delivered, and the examiners shall deliver such certificates of service to the various persons so respectively entitled thereto upon their proving themselves to have obtained such rank or to have served as aforesaid and upon their giving a full and satisfactory account of the particulars aforesaid.

13 No ship registered* in this island of a burthen of 50 tons or upwards shall go to sea from any port in this island unless the master, and one officer besides the master, have obtained and possess valid and appropriate certificates either of competency or service under this Ordinance, or under the British or Indian Merchant Shipping Acts ; and whosoever, having been engaged to serve as master or mate, goes to sea as such master or mate without being at the time entitled to and possessed of such a certificate as hereinbefore required, and whosoever employs any person as such master or mate without ascertaining that he is at the time entitled to and possessed of such certificate, shall for each such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

No ship of 50 tons to go to sea without certificated master, &c.

14 Every certificate, whether of competency or service, shall be made in duplicate ; one part shall be delivered to the person entitled to the certificate, and the other shall be kept and recorded by the Principal Collector of Customs. A note of all orders made for cancelling, suspending, altering, or otherwise affecting any certificate, in pursuance of the powers herein contained, shall be entered in the record of certificates.

Record of grants, cancellations, &c., of certificates.

* Collectors of customs register ships exceeding 15 tons burthen under section 19 of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

Merchant Shipping.

Loss of certificate.

15 Whenever any master or mate proves to the satisfaction of the Principal Collector of Customs that he has, without fault on his part, lost or been deprived of any certificate already granted to him, a copy of the certificate shall, on payment of a fee of five shillings, be delivered to him, and such copy shall have all the effect of the original.

Engagement of Seamen.

Licenses to procure scamen.

16 The Governor may authorize the granting to such persons as may be deemed fit of licenses to engage or supply seamen for merchant ships, such licenses to continue for such periods, and upon such terms, and to be revocable upon such conditions, as the Governor thinks proper and shall direct. If after such license shall be granted at any port any person shall engage or supply seamen for merchant ships without a license, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Agreements with seamen.

17 The master of every ship of the burthen of 50 tons and upwards, other than a coastwise ship, shall enter into an agreement with every seaman whom he carries to sea from any port in this island as one of his crew, in the manner hereinafter mentioned; and every such agreement shall be in a form sanctioned by the Governor, and shall be dated at the time of the first signature thereof, and shall be signed by the master before any seaman signs the same, and shall contain the following particulars as terms thereof; (that is to say,)

- (1) The nature and, as far as practicable, the duration of the intended voyage or engagement :
- (2) The number and description of the crew, specifying how many are engaged as sailors :
- (3) The time at which each seaman is to be on board or to begin work :
- (4) The capacity in which each seaman is to serve :
- (5) The amount of wages which each seaman is to receive :
- (6) A scale of the provisions which are to be furnished to each seaman :

And every such agreement shall be so framed as to admit of stipulations, to be adopted at the will of the master and seaman in each case (not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance), as to advance and allotment of wages, and may contain any other stipulations which are not contrary to law; provided that if the master of any ship belonging to the United Kingdom or any British possession has an agreement with his crew made in due form according to the law of the place to which such ship belongs or in which her crew were engaged, and engages single seamen in any port within this island, such seamen may sign the agreement so made, and it shall not be necessary for them to sign an agreement under this Ordinance:

Proviso as to forms for British or colonial ships.

Merchant Shipping.

Provided also that in the case of Ceylon or Indian seamen, when it shall be agreed that the service of any such seamen shall end at any port not in this island, the agreement shall contain stipulations for providing for such seamen fit employment on board some other vessel bound to the port at which they were shipped, or such other port as may be agreed on, or for providing them a passage to some such port as aforesaid free of charge, or on such other terms as may be agreed on; and every such stipulation shall be signed by the owner of the vessel or by the master on his behalf, and shall be binding upon the said owner.

Proviso where Ceylon or Indian seamen are shipped.

18 In the case of all ships, in whatever part of Her Majesty's dominions the same are registered, the following rules shall be observed with respect to agreements; (that is to say,)

Agreements, except in special cases, to be made before and attested by a shipping officer.

- (1) Every agreement made in any port of this island (except in such cases of agreements with substitutes as are hereinafter specially provided for) shall be signed by each seaman in the presence of a shipping officer :
- (2) Such shipping officer shall cause the agreement to be read over and explained to each seaman in a language understood by him, or shall otherwise ascertain that each seaman understands the same before he signs it, and shall attest each signature :
- (3) When the crew is first engaged the agreement shall be signed in duplicate, one shall be retained by the shipping officer, and the other (which shall contain a special place or form for the descriptions and signatures of substitutes or persons engaged subsequently to the first departure of the ship) shall be delivered to the master :
- (4) In the case of substitutes engaged in the place of seamen who have duly signed the agreement, and whose services are lost within twenty-four hours of the ship's putting to sea, by death, desertion, or other unforeseen cause, the engagement shall, when practicable, be made before some shipping officer duly appointed in the manner hereinbefore specified; and whenever such last-mentioned engagement cannot be so made, the master shall, before the ship puts to sea, if practicable, and if not, as soon afterwards as possible, cause the agreement to be read over and explained to the seamen; and the seamen shall thereupon sign the same in the presence of a witness, who shall attest their signatures.

Agreement to be signed by seamen.

Shipping officer to cause agreement to be explained to seamen.

To be in duplicate.

Provision for substitutes.

19 In the case of ships making voyages averaging less than six months in duration, running agreements with the crew may be made to extend over two or more voyages, or for a period not exceeding twelve months, so that no such agreement shall extend beyond the next following 31st day

Ships making short voyages may have running agreements.

of December of each year, or the first arrival of the ship at her port of destination within this island after such date, or the discharge of cargo consequent upon such arrival; and every person entering into such agreement, whether engaged upon the first commencement thereof or otherwise, shall enter into and sign the same in the manner hereby required for other foreign-going ships; and every person engaged thereunder, if discharged in any port within the said island, shall be discharged in the manner hereby required for the discharge of seamen belonging to other foreign-going ships.

Engagement and discharge of seamen in the meantime.

20 The master of every ship for which such a running agreement as aforesaid is made, shall upon every return to any port of this island before the final termination of the agreement discharge or engage before the shipping officer at such port any seaman whom he is required by law so to discharge or engage; and shall upon every such return endorse on the agreement a statement (as the case may be) either that no such discharges or engagements have been made or are intended to be made before the ship again leaves port, or that all such discharges or engagements have been duly made as hereinbefore required, and shall deliver the agreement so endorsed to the shipping officer; and any master who wilfully makes a false statement in such endorsement shall incur a penalty not exceeding £20; and the shipping officer shall also sign an endorsement on the agreement to the effect that the provisions of this Ordinance relating to such agreement have been complied with, and shall re-deliver the agreement so endorsed to the master.

Fees to be paid on such running agreements.

21 For the purpose of determining the fees to be paid upon the engagement and discharge of seamen belonging to ships which have running agreements as aforesaid, the crew shall be considered to be engaged when the agreement is first signed, and to be discharged when the agreement finally terminates; and all intermediate engagements and discharges shall be considered to be engagements and discharges of single seamen.

In coastwise ships, or ships of less than 50 tons, agreements may be entered into before a shipping officer.

22 In the case of coastwise ships, or of ships of less than 50 tons burthen, crews or single seamen may, if the master thinks fit, be engaged before a shipping officer in the manner hereinbefore directed with respect to ships of 50 tons burthen and upwards.

Penalty for shipping seamen without agreement duly executed.

23 If in any case a master carries any seaman to sea without entering into an agreement with him in the form and manner and at the place and time hereby in such case required, the master shall for each such offence incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Foregoing provisions applicable to foreign ships shipping British or Ceylon or Indian seamen.

24 The foregoing provisions relative to the engagement of and agreements with seamen shall be applicable also in respect of all ships belonging to the subjects of any foreign state upon which any British or Ceylon or Indian seamen may be shipped at any port within this island.

Merchant Shipping.

25 For the purpose of preventing any seamen from being shipped at any port in this island contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, the shipping officer by himself or his deputy may enter at any time on board any ship upon which he shall have reason to believe that seamen have been shipped, and may muster and examine the several seamen employed therein; and any person who shall obstruct the said shipping officer or deputy in such duty shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

To prevent infraction of Ordinance. shipping officer may board vessels and muster seamen.

26 The following rules shall be observed with respect to the production of agreements and certificates of competency or service for ships; (that is to say,)

Production of agreements and certificates.

- (1) The master shall, on signing the agreement with his crew, produce to the shipping officer before whom the same is signed the certificates of competency or service which the said master and his mate are hereby required to possess; and upon such production being duly made, and the agreement being duly executed as hereby required, the shipping officer shall sign and give to the master a certificate to that effect.
- (2) In the case of running agreements for ships, the shipping officer shall, before the second and every subsequent voyage made after the first commencement of the agreement, sign and give to the master, on his complying with the provisions herein contained with respect to such agreements, and producing to the shipping officer the certificate of competency or service of any mate then first engaged by him, a certificate to that effect.
- (3) The master shall, before proceeding to sea, produce the certificate so to be given to him by the shipping officer as aforesaid to the collector of customs, and no officer of customs shall clear any ship outwards in respect of which agreements and certificates are hereinbefore required without such production; and if any such ship attempts to go to sea without a certificate, any such officer may detain her until such certificate as aforesaid is produced.
- (4) The master shall, within forty-eight hours after the ship's arrival at her final port of destination within this island, or upon the discharge of the crew, whichever first happens, deliver the agreement to a shipping officer at such port; such shipping officer shall thereupon give to the master a certificate of such delivery; and no officer of customs shall clear any ship inwards in respect of which agreements and certificates are hereinbefore required without the production of such certificate.

And if any master fail to deliver the agreement to a shipping officer at the time and in the manner hereby directed, he shall for every default incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Merchant Shipping.

Alterations to be void unless attested to have been made with the consent of all parties.

27 Every erasure, interlineation, or alteration in any such agreement with seamen as is required by this Ordinance (except additions so made as hereinbefore directed for shipping substitutes or persons engaged subsequently to the first departure of the ship) shall be wholly inoperative, unless proved to have been made with the consent of all the persons interested in such erasure, interlineation, or alteration by the written attestation (if made in Her Majesty's dominions) of some shipping officer, justice, officer of customs, or other public functionary, or (if made out of Her Majesty's dominions) of a British consular officer or, where there is no such officer, of two respectable British merchants.

Copy of agreement to be made accessible to crew.

28 The master shall, at the commencement of every voyage or engagement, cause a legible copy of the agreement, and if necessary a translation thereof in a language understood by the majority of the crew (omitting the signatures), to be placed or posted up in such part of the ship as to be accessible to the crew, and in default shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Seamen discharged before voyage to have compensation.

29 Any seaman who has signed an agreement, and is afterwards discharged before the commencement of the voyage or before one month's wages are earned, without fault on his part justifying such discharge, and without his consent, shall be entitled to receive from the master or owner, in addition to any wages he may have earned, due compensation for the damage thereby caused to him, not exceeding one month's wages, and may, on adducing such evidence as the court hearing the case deems satisfactory of his having been so improperly discharged as aforesaid, recover such compensation as if it were wages duly earned.

Regulation of Advances.

Regulation of advances and advance notes.

30 No advance of wages shall be made or advance note given to any person but the seaman himself; and no advance note shall be given to any seaman who signs the agreement before a shipping master, unless in the presence of such shipping master.

Advances irregularly or improperly made not to be a discharge of wages.

31 If any advance of wages is made or any advance note given to any seaman in any such manner as to constitute a breach of any of the above provisions, the wages of such seaman shall be recoverable by him as if no such advance had been made or advance note given; and in the case of any advance note so given no person shall be sued thereon under the provisions hereinafter contained, unless he was in person or by his agent a party to the irregular or improper manner of giving the same.

Allotment of Wages.

Regulations as to allotment notes.

32 All stipulations for the allotment of any part of the wages of a seaman during his absence which are made at the commencement of the voyage shall be inserted in the agreement, and shall state the amounts and times of the payments to be made.

Merchant Shipping.

33 The person in whose favour an allotment note of part of the wages of such seaman is made may, unless the seaman is shown in manner hereinafter mentioned to have forfeited or ceased to be entitled to the wages out of which the allotment is to be paid, sue for and recover the sums allotted by the note when and as the same are made payable, with costs, from the owner or any agent who has authorized the drawing of the note; and in any such proceeding it shall be sufficient for the claimant to prove that he is the person mentioned in the note, and that the note was given by the owner or by the master or some other authorized agent; and the seaman shall be presumed to be duly earning his wages, unless the contrary is shown to the satisfaction of the court, either by the official statement of the change in the crew caused by his absence made and signed by the master, as by this Ordinance is required, or by a duly certified copy of some entry in the official log book to the effect that he has left the ship, or by a credible letter from the master of the ship to the same effect, or by such other evidence, of whatever description, as the court in its absolute discretion considers sufficient to show satisfactorily that the seaman has ceased to be entitled to the wages out of which the allotment is to be paid.

Allotment notes may be sued on summarily by certain persons and under certain conditions.

Discharge and Payment of Wages.

34 All seamen discharged from any ship at any port within this island, in whatever part of Her Majesty's dominions the ship is registered, shall be discharged and receive their wages in the presence of a shipping officer duly appointed under this Ordinance, except in cases where some competent court otherwise directs; and any master or owner of any such ship who discharges any seaman belonging thereto, or except as aforesaid pays his wages in any other manner, shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Discharge from ships to be made before shipping officer.

35 Every master of such ship shall, not less than twenty-four hours before paying off or discharging any seaman, deliver to him, or, if he is to be discharged before a shipping officer, to such shipping officer, a full and true account of his wages and of all deductions to be made therefrom on any account whatever, and in default shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds; and no deduction from the wages of any seaman (except in respect of any matter happening after such delivery) shall be allowed unless it is included in the account so delivered; and the master shall during the voyage enter the various matters in respect of which such deductions are made, with the amounts of the respective deductions as they occur, in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall, if required, produce such book at the time of the payment of wages and also upon the hearing before any competent authority of any complaint or question relating to such payments.

Master to deliver account of wages.

services and the time and place of his discharge ; and if any master fail to sign and give to any such seaman such certificate of discharge, he shall for each such offence incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds ; and the master shall also, upon the discharge of every certificated mate whose certificate of competency or service has been delivered to and retained by him, return such certificate, and shall in default incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

37 Every shipping officer shall hear and decide any question whatever between a master or owner and any of his crew which both parties agree in writing to submit to him ; and every award so made by him shall be binding on both parties, and shall in any legal proceeding which may be taken in the matter before any court of justice be deemed to be conclusive as to the rights of the parties ; and any document purporting to be such submission or award shall be prima facie evidence thereof.

38 In any proceeding relating to the wages, claims, or discharge of any seaman carried on before any shipping officer under the provisions of this Ordinance, such shipping officer may call upon the owner or his agent, or upon the master or any mate or other member of the crew, to produce any log books, papers, or other documents in their respective possession or power relating to any matter in question in such proceeding, and may call before him and examine any of such persons being then at or near the place on any such matter ; and every owner, agent, master, mate, or other member of the crew who, when called upon by the shipping officer, does not produce any such paper or document as aforesaid, if in his possession or power, or does not appear and give evidence, shall, unless he shows some reasonable excuse for such default, for each such offence incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

39 The following rules shall be observed with respect to the settlement of wages ; (that is to say,)

- (1) Upon the completion before a shipping officer of any discharge and settlement, the master or owner and each seaman shall respectively, in the presence of the shipping officer, sign a mutual release of all claims in respect of the past voyage or engagement, and the shipping officer shall also sign and attest the release and shall retain the same.
- (2) Such release so signed and attested shall operate as a mutual discharge and settlement of all demands between the parties thereto in respect of the past voyage or engagement.
- (3) A copy of such release, certified under the hand of such shipping officer to be a true copy, shall be given by him to any party thereto requiring the same, and such copy shall be receivable in evidence upon any future question touching such claims as aforesaid, and shall have all the effect of the original of which it purports to be a copy.

Merchant Shipping.

- (4) In cases in which discharge and settlement before a shipping officer are hereby required, no payment, receipt, settlement, or discharge otherwise made shall operate or be admitted as evidence of the release or satisfaction of any claim. No other receipt to be a discharge.
- (5) Upon any payment being made by a master before a shipping officer, the shipping officer shall, if required, sign and give to such master a statement of the whole amount so paid, and such statement shall, as between the master and his employer, be received as evidence that he has made the payments therein mentioned. Voucher to be given to master, and to be evidence.

Legal Rights to Wages.

40 A seaman's right to wages and provisions shall be taken to commence either at the time at which he commences work, or at the time specified in the agreement for his commencement of work or presence on board, whichever first happens. Right to wages and provisions when to begin 41 No seaman shall by any agreement forfeit his lien upon the ship or be deprived of any remedy for the recovery of his wages to which he would otherwise have been entitled; and every stipulation in any agreement inconsistent with any provision of this Ordinance, and every stipulation by which any seaman consents to abandon his right to wages in the case of the loss of the ship, or to abandon any right which he may have or obtain in the nature of salvage, shall be wholly inoperative. Seamen not to give up certain rights.

42 No right to wages shall be dependent on the earning of freight; and every seaman and apprentice who would be entitled to demand and recover any wages if the ship in which he has served had earned freight, shall, subject to all other rules of law and conditions applicable to the case, be entitled to claim and recover the same notwithstanding that freight has not been earned; but in all cases of wreck or loss of the ship, proof that he has not exerted himself to the utmost to save the ship, cargo, and stores, shall bar his claim. Wages not to be dependent on the earning of freight.

43 If any seaman or apprentice to whom wages are due under the last preceding enactment dies before the same are paid, they shall be paid and applied in the manner herein-after specified with regard to the wages of seamen who die during a voyage. In case of death such wages to be paid as after mentioned.

44 In cases where the service of any seaman terminates before the period contemplated in the agreement, by reason of the wreck or loss of the ship, and also in cases where such service terminates before such period as aforesaid, by reason of his being left on shore at any place abroad, under a certificate of his unfitness or inability to proceed on the voyage, granted under the provisions of the British or Indian Merchant Shipping Acts, such seaman shall be entitled to wages for the time of service prior to such termination as aforesaid, but not for any further period. Rights to wages in case of termination of service by wreck or illness.

Merchant Shipping.

Wages not to accrue during refusal to work or imprisonment.

45 No seaman or apprentice shall be entitled to wages for any period during which he unlawfully refuses or neglects to work when required, whether before or after the time fixed by the agreement for his beginning work; nor, unless the court hearing the case otherwise directs, for any period during which he is lawfully imprisoned for any offence committed by him.

Period within which wages are to be paid.

46 The master or owner of every ship shall pay to every seaman his wages within three days after the cargo has been delivered, or within five days after the seaman's discharge, whichever first happens; and the seaman shall at the time of his discharge be entitled to be paid on account a sum equal to one fourth part of the balance due to him; and every master or owner who neglects or refuses to make payment in manner aforesaid without sufficient cause shall pay to the seaman a sum not exceeding the amount of two days' pay for each of the days, not exceeding ten days, during which payment is delayed beyond the respective periods aforesaid; and such sum shall be recoverable as wages.

Mode of recovering Wages.

Seamen may sue for wages in a summary manner.

47 Any seaman or apprentice, or any person duly authorized on his behalf, may sue in the court of requests established for the place at which the service has terminated, or at which the seaman has been discharged, or at which any person upon whom the claim is made is or resides, although the amount in suit may exceed the sum of ten pounds; and every order made by such court in the matter shall be final, and may be enforced by execution against the ship, as well as against the person and property of the owner or master, anything in any former law or Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

Master to have same remedies for wages as seamen.

48 Every master of a ship shall, so far as the case permits, have the same rights, liens, and remedies for the recovery of his wages which by this Ordinance or by any law or custom any seaman, not being a master, has for the recovery of his wages; and if in any proceeding in any court touching the claim of a master to wages any right of set-off or counter claim is set up, it shall be lawful for such court to enter into and adjudicate upon all questions, and to settle all accounts then arising or outstanding and unsettled between the parties to the proceeding, and to direct payment of any balance which is found to be due.

Wages and Effects of deceased Seamen.

Master to take charge of effects of deceased seamen.

49 Whenever a seaman or apprentice, on a voyage which is to terminate at any port within this island, dies during such voyage, the master shall take charge of all money, clothes, and effects which he leaves on board; and shall, if he think fit, cause all or any of the said clothes and effects to be sold by auction, and shall enter in the official log book a statement of the amount of money and a description of the effects left by the deceased, and in case of a sale of such effects the sum received for each article sold.

Merchant Shipping.

50 The master shall, within forty-eight hours after his arrival at his port of destination in this island, deliver any such effects as aforesaid, and pay any money which he has taken charge of or received, and also the wages due to deceased, to the shipping officer at such port, and shall give to such shipping officer an account of the effects, money, and wages so to be delivered and paid; and no deductions claimed in such account shall be allowed unless verified, if there is an official log book, by the entry therein hereinbefore required, and also by such other vouchers (if any) as may be reasonably required by the shipping officer to whom the account is rendered.

Effects and wages to be delivered and paid to shipping officer, with full accounts.

51 If the master fail to take such charge of the money or other effects of a seaman or apprentice dying during a voyage, or to make such entries in respect thereof, or to make such payment or delivery, or to give such account as hereinbefore respectively directed, he shall be accountable for the money, wages, and effects of the seaman or apprentice to the shipping officer as aforesaid, and shall pay and deliver the same accordingly; and such master shall in addition incur a penalty not exceeding treble the value of the money or effects or, if such value is not ascertained, not exceeding fifty pounds. All money, wages, and effects of any seaman or apprentice dying during a voyage shall be recoverable in the same courts and by the same modes of proceeding by which seamen are hereby enabled to recover wages due to them.

Penalties for not taking charge of or accounting for such monies and effects.

52 When money or effects left by or due to any deceased seaman or apprentice are paid or delivered to a shipping officer, then, subject to such deductions for expenses incurred in respect of the seaman or apprentice or of his said money and effects as the shipping officer thinks proper to allow, the shipping officer may pay and deliver the said money and effects to any claimants who can prove themselves to the satisfaction of the said shipping officer to be entitled thereto, and the said shipping officer shall be thereby discharged from all further liability in respect of the money and effects so paid and delivered.

Wages and property of deceased seaman may be paid without probate.

53 In cases of wages or effects of deceased seamen or apprentices received by any shipping officer as aforesaid to which no claim is substantiated within one year from the receipt thereof by such shipping officer, it shall be in the discretion of the shipping officer, subject to the orders of the Governor, if any subsequent claim is made, either to allow or refuse the same. And every shipping officer shall pay into the Treasury of this island all monies arising from the unclaimed wages and effects of deceased seamen to which no claim has been preferred within the period aforesaid, after having given notice of such unclaimed monies being in his possession by advertisement in some public paper at least twice during such period. And such monies shall be brought to account as revenue, if not claimed within two years from the date of such payment into the Treasury.

Unclaimed wages.

Survey of provisions and water on complaint made

54 Any three or more of the crew of any British ship registered at, trading with, or being at any port or place within the said island, may complain to any shipping officer or other officer duly appointed in this behalf by the Governor, that the provisions or water for the use of the crew are at any time of bad quality, unfit for use, or deficient in quantity, and such officer may thereupon examine the said provisions or water, or cause them to be examined; and if on examination such provisions or water are found to be of bad quality and unfit for use, or to be deficient in quantity, the person making such examination shall signify the same in writing to the master of the ship; and if such master does not thereupon provide other proper provisions or water in lieu of any so signified to be of a bad quality and unfit for use, or does not procure the requisite quantity of any so signified to be insufficient in quantity, or uses any provisions or water which have been so signified as aforesaid to be of a bad quality and unfit for use, he shall in every such case incur a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds; and upon every such examination as aforesaid the officers making or directing the same shall enter a statement of the result of the examination in the official log, and shall (if such examination be made by a person not a shipping officer) send a report thereof to the shipping officer, and such report, if produced out of the custody of such shipping officer, shall be received in evidence in any legal proceeding.

Forfeiture for frivolous complaint.

55 If the officer to whom any such complaint as last aforesaid is made certifies in such statement as aforesaid that there was no reasonable ground for such complaint, each of the parties so complaining shall be liable to forfeit to the owner out of his wages a sum not exceeding one week's wages.

56 In the following cases; (that is to say,)

Allowance for short or bad provisions.

- (1) If during a voyage the allowance of any of the provisions which any seaman has by his agreement stipulated for is reduced (except in accordance with any regulations for reduction by way of punishment contained in the agreement, and also except for any time during which such seaman wilfully and without sufficient cause refuses or neglects to perform his duty, or is lawfully under confinement for misconduct, either on board or on shore):
- (2) If it is shown that any of such provisions are or have during the voyage been bad in quality and unfit for use:

The seaman shall receive by way of compensation for such reduction or bad quality, according to the time of its continuance, the following sums to be paid to him in addition to and to be recoverable as wages; (that is to say,)

Merchant Shipping.

- (1) If his allowance is reduced by any quantity not exceeding one-third of the quantity specified in the agreement, a sum not exceeding $4\frac{1}{2}d.$ per diem in the case of a European seaman, or $1\frac{1}{2}d.$ per diem in the case of a Ceylon or Indian seaman :
- (2) If his allowance is reduced by more than one-third of such quantity, a sum not exceeding $9d.$ per diem in the case of a European seaman, or $3d.$ per diem in the case of a Ceylon or Indian seaman :
- (3) In respect of such bad quality as aforesaid, a sum not exceeding $1s.$ per diem in the case of a European seaman, or $4\frac{1}{2}d.$ per diem in the case of a Ceylon or Indian seaman.

But if it be shown that any provisions the allowance of which has been reduced could not be procured or supplied in proper quantities, and that proper and equivalent substitutes were supplied in lieu thereof, such circumstances shall be taken into consideration, and shall be held to modify or refuse compensation, as the justice of the case may require.

57 Every master shall keep on board proper weights and measures for the purpose of determining the quantities of the several provisions and articles served out, and shall allow the same to be used at the time of serving out such provisions and articles in the presence of a witness whenever any dispute arises about such quantities ; and in default shall for every offence incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Master to keep weights and measures on board.

58 Whenever the master or any seaman of any ship registered at any place within the said island shall receive any hurt or injury in the service of the vessel, the expense of providing the necessary surgical and medical advice and attendance, with medicines, and of his subsistence, until he shall be cured or shall be brought back to the port from which he was shipped, or other port agreed upon, shall be defrayed, with the cost of his conveyance to such port, by the owner of the vessel, without any deduction on that account from the wages of such master or seaman ; and if paid by himself, may be recovered as part of his wages ; and if paid or allowed out of any monies belonging to the Government of this island, may be recovered from such owner, with full costs of suit, as a debt due to Government.

Expense of medical attendance and subsistence in case of illness how to be defrayed.

59 The shipping officer at any port in the said island, by himself or his deputy, may enter at any time on board of any ship upon which seamen have been shipped at such port and inspect the provisions and water provided for the use of the crew prescribed by this Ordinance, or by any British or Indian Merchant Shipping Acts. If on inspection the provisions or water are found to be of bad quality and unfit for use, or to be deficient in quantity, the shipping officer shall proceed as provided in section 54 of this Ordinance, and the penalty prescribed in the said section shall be incurred by any default of the master of the ship in respect of such provisions or water.

Shipping officer, &c., may enter on board any ship and inspect provisions, &c.

Procedure if provisions, &c., are found to be of a bad quality.

Merchant Shipping.Boats for sea-going Ships.

Boats for sea-going ships.

Rules as to boats and life-buoys.

60 The following rules shall be observed with respect to boats and life-buoys ; (that is to say),

- (1) No decked ship shall proceed to sea from any place in this island unless she is provided, according to her tonnage, with boats duly supplied with all requisites for use, and not being fewer in number nor less in their cubic contents than the boats, the number and cubic contents of which are specified in the table marked C in the schedule hereto for the class to which such ship belongs.
- (2) No ships carrying more than twenty-five passengers shall proceed to sea from any place in this island unless, in addition to the boats hereinbefore required, she is also provided with an additional boat furnished with all requisites for use.
- (3) No such ship shall proceed to sea unless she is also provided with two life-buoys, and such boats and life-buoys shall be kept so as to be at all times fit and ready for use.

61 In any of the following cases ; (that is to say),

- (1) If any ship hereinbefore required to be provided with boats or life-buoys proceeds to sea without being so provided therewith, or if any of such boats or life-buoys are lost or rendered unfit for service in the course of the voyage through the wilful fault or negligence of the owner or master ; or,
- (2) If, in case of any of such boats or life-buoys being accidentally lost or injured in the course of the voyage, the master wilfully neglects to replace or repair the same on the first opportunity ; or,
- (3) If such boats and life-buoys are not kept so as to be at all times fit and ready for use ;

then, if the owner appears to be in fault, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, and if the master appears to be in fault he shall incur a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Penalty on masters and owners, &c., neglecting to provide boats and life-buoys.

62 No officer of customs shall grant a clearance for any ship hereinbefore required to be provided with boats or with life-buoys unless the same is duly so provided ; and if any such ship attempts to go to sea without such clearance any such officer may detain her until she is so provided.

Officers of customs not to clear ships not complying with the above provisions.

Power of making Complaints.

63 If any seaman or apprentice whilst on board any ship states to the master that he desires to make complaint to a magistrate against the master or any of the crew, the said master shall, if the ship is then at a place where there is a magistrate, so soon as the service of the ship will permit, and if the ship is not then at such a place, so soon after her first arrival at such a place as the service of the ship will permit, allow such seaman to go ashore, or send him ashore in proper custody, so that he may be enabled to make such complaint, and shall in default incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Seamen to be allowed to go ashore to make complaint to a magistrate.

Merchant Shipping.Protection of Seamen from Imposition.

64 No wages due or accruing to any seaman or apprentice shall be subject to attachment from any court; and every payment of wages to a seaman shall be valid in law, notwithstanding any previous sale or assignment of such wages, or of any incumbrance thereon; and no assignment or sale of such wages, or of salvage made prior to the accruing thereof, shall bind the party making the same; and no power of attorney or authority for the receipt of any such wages or salvage shall be irrevocable; provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to invalidate payments made by virtue of allotments under the 32nd section.

Sale of and charge upon wages to be invalid.

65 No debt exceeding in amount 6s. incurred by any seaman after he has engaged to serve shall be recoverable until the service agreed for is concluded.

No debt exceeding six shillings recoverable till end of voyage.

66 If any person demands or receives from any seaman or apprentice payment in respect of his board or lodging in the house of such person for a longer period than such seaman or apprentice has actually resided or boarded therein, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty for overcharges by lodging-house keepers.

67 If any person receives or takes into his possession or under his control any monies, documents, or effects of any seaman or apprentice, and does not return the same or pay the value thereof when required by such seaman or apprentice, subject to such deduction as may be justly due to him from such seaman or apprentice in respect of board or lodging, or otherwise, or absconds therewith, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and any magistrate may, besides inflicting such penalty, direct the amount or value of such monies, documents, or effects, subject to such deduction as aforesaid, to be forthwith paid to such seaman or apprentice.

Penalty for detaining seamen's effects.

68 Every person who, not being in the service of Her Majesty, and not being duly authorized by law for the purpose, goes on board any ship about to arrive at the place of her destination before her actual arrival at the place of her discharge, without the permission of the master, shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds; and the master or person in charge of such ship may take any such person so going on board as aforesaid into custody, and deliver him up forthwith to any police officer, to be by him taken before a magistrate to be dealt with according to the provisions of this Ordinance.

Persons not to go on board before the final arrival of ship without permission.

69 If within twenty-four hours after the arrival of any ship at any port in this island any person then being on board such ship solicits any seaman to become a lodger at the house of any person letting lodgings for hire, or takes out of such ship any effects of any seaman, except under his personal direction, and with the permission of the master, he shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty for solicitations by lodging-house keepers.

Merchant Shipping.Discipline.

Penalty for misconduct endangering ship or life or limb.

70 Any master of or any seaman or apprentice belonging to any British ship, who by wilful breach of duty, or by neglect of duty, or by reason of drunkenness, does any act tending to the immediate loss, destruction, or serious damage of such ship, or tending immediately to endanger the life or limb of any person belonging to or on board of such ship, or who by wilful breach of duty, or by neglect of duty, or by reason of drunkenness, refuses or omits to do any lawful act proper and requisite to be done by him for preserving such ship from immediate loss, destruction, or serious damage, or for preserving any person belonging to or on board of such ship from immediate danger to life or limb, shall for every such offence be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two years.

Power to investigate cases of alleged incompetency
and misconduct.

71 If the Governor, on the information of any shipping officer, or on any other ground, has reason to believe that any master or mate who has obtained a certificate of competency or service under this Ordinance, is from incompetency or misconduct unfit to discharge his duties, he may direct any tribunal, board, or officer at or near to the place at which it may be convenient for the parties and witnesses to attend to institute an investigation; and thereupon such tribunal, board, or officer shall conduct the investigation, and may summon the master or mate to appear, and shall give him full opportunity of making a defence, either in person or otherwise, and shall, for the purpose of such investigation, have all the powers vested in magistrates of summoning and examining witnesses, and may make such order with respect to the costs of such investigation as they may deem just, and shall on the conclusion of the investigation make a report upon the case to the Governor.

Governor may cancel or suspend certificates in certain cases.

72 The Governor may suspend or cancel the certificate (whether of competency or service) granted under this Ordinance to any master or mate in the following cases; (that is to say,)

- (1) If upon any investigation made in pursuance of the last preceding section it is reported that such master or mate is incompetent, or guilty of any gross act of misconduct, drunkenness, or tyranny, or that the loss or abandonment of or serious damage to any ship, or loss of life, has been caused by his wrongful act or default:
- (2) If he is superseded by the order of any admiralty court, or of any duly constituted naval court:
- (3) If he is shown to have been convicted of any offence.

And every master or mate whose certificate is cancelled or suspended shall deliver it to the shipping officer, or to such other person as the Governor shall direct, and in default shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds; and the Governor may at any subsequent time grant to any person whose certificate has been cancelled a new certificate of the same or of any lower grade.

Merchant Shipping.

73 Whenever any seaman who has been lawfully engaged, or any apprentice to the sea service, commits any of the following offences, he shall be liable to be punished as follows ; (that is to say,)

Offences of seamen and apprentices, and their punishments.
Desertion.

(1) For desertion he shall be liable to imprisonment for any period not exceeding twelve weeks, with or without hard labour, and also to forfeit all or any part of the clothes and effects he leaves on board, and all or any part of the wages or emoluments which he has then earned ; and also, if such desertion takes place at any port or place not within the said island, at the discretion of the court, to forfeit all or any part of the wages or emoluments he may earn in any other ship in which he may be employed until his next return to any port or place within the said island, and to satisfy any excess of wages paid by the master or owner of the ship from which he deserts to any substitute engaged in his place at a higher rate of wages than the rate stipulated to be paid to him.

(2) For neglecting or refusing, without reasonable cause, to join his ship, or to proceed to sea in his ship, or for absence without leave at any time within twenty-four hours of the ship's sailing from any port, either at the commencement or during the progress of any voyage, or for absence at any time without leave and without sufficient reason from his ship or from his duty, not amounting to desertion, or not treated as such by the master, he shall be liable to imprisonment for any period not exceeding ten weeks, with or without hard labour, and also, at the discretion of the court, to forfeit out of his wages a sum not exceeding the amount of two days' pay, and in addition for every twenty-four hours of absence either a sum not exceeding six days' pay, or any expenses which have been properly incurred in hiring a substitute.

Neglecting or refusing to join or to proceed to sea, absence within twenty-four hours before sailing, and absence without leave.

(3) For quitting the ship without leave after her arrival at her port of delivery, and before she is placed in security, he shall be liable to forfeit out of his wages a sum not exceeding one month's pay.

Quitting without leave before ship is secured.

(4) For wilful disobedience to any lawful command he shall be liable to imprisonment for any period not exceeding four weeks, with or without hard labour, and also, at the discretion of the court, to forfeit out of his wages a sum not exceeding two days' pay.

Act of disobedience.

(5) For continued wilful disobedience to lawful commands, or continued wilful neglect of duty, he shall be liable to imprisonment for any period not exceeding twelve weeks, with or without hard labour, and also, at the discretion of the court, to forfeit for every twenty-four hours' continuance of such disobedience or neglect either a sum

- not exceeding six days' pay, or any expenses which have been properly incurred in hiring a substitute.
- Assault on officers. (6) For assaulting any master or mate he shall be liable to imprisonment for any period not exceeding twelve weeks, with or without hard labour, and to such forfeiture of wages as the court may direct.
- Combining to disobey. (7) For combining with any other or others of the crew to disobey lawful commands, or to neglect duty, or to impede the navigation of the ship or the progress of the voyage, he shall be liable to imprisonment for any period not exceeding twelve weeks, with or without hard labour, and to such forfeiture of wages as the court may direct.
- Wilful damage and embezzlement. (8) For wilfully damaging the ship, or embezzling or wilfully damaging any of her stores or cargo, he shall be liable to forfeit out of his wages a sum equal in amount to the loss thereby sustained, and also, at the discretion of the court, to imprisonment for any period not exceeding twelve weeks, with or without hard labour.
- Act of smuggling causing loss to owner. (9) For any act of smuggling of which he is convicted, and whereby loss or damage is occasioned to the master or owner, he shall be liable to pay to such master or owner such a sum as is sufficient to reimburse the master or owner for such loss or damage; and the whole or a proportionate part of his wages may be retained in satisfaction or on account of such liability, without prejudice to any further remedy.

Entry of offences to be made in official log, and to be read over or a copy given to the offender; and his reply, if any, to be also entered.

74 Upon the commission of any of the offences enumerated in the last preceding section an entry thereof shall be made in the official log book, and shall be signed by the master, and also by the mate or one of the crew; and the offender, if still in the ship, shall, before the next subsequent arrival of the ship at any port, or if she is at the time in port, before her departure therefrom, either be furnished with a copy of such entry, or have the same read over distinctly and audibly to him, and may thereupon make such reply thereto as he thinks fit; and a statement that a copy of the said entry has been so furnished, or that the same has been so read over as aforesaid, and the reply (if any) made by the offender, shall likewise be entered and signed in manner aforesaid; and in any subsequent legal proceeding the entries hereinbefore required shall, if practicable, be produced or proved, and in default of such production or proof the court hearing the case may, at its discretion, refuse to receive evidence of the offence.

Seamen whom masters of ships are compelled to convey, and persons going in ships without leave, to be

75 Every seafaring person whom the master of any ship is under the authority of this Ordinance or any law compelled to take on board and convey, and every person who goes to sea in any ship without the consent of the master or owner or other person entitled to give such consent, shall, so long as he remains in such ship, be subject to the same laws and regulations for preserving discipline, and to the same penalties and punishments for offences constituting or tending to a breach of discipline, to which he would be subject if he were a member of the crew and had signed the agreement.

76 Whenever, either at the commencement or during the progress of any voyage, any seaman or apprentice neglects or refuses to join, or deserts from, or refuses to proceed to sea in any ship in which he is duly engaged to serve, or is found otherwise absenting himself therefrom without leave, the master or any mate, or the owner, ship's husband, or consignee, may, with or without the assistance of police officers, who are hereby directed to give the same if required, apprehend him without first procuring a warrant; and may thereupon in any case, and shall, in case he so requires, and it is practicable, convey him before some court capable of taking cognizance of the matter, to be dealt with according to law, and may for the purpose of conveying him before such court detain him in custody for a period not exceeding twenty-four hours, or such shorter time as may be necessary, or may, if he does not so require, or if there is no such court at or near the place, at once convey him on board; and if any such apprehension appears to the court before which the case is brought to have been made on improper or on insufficient grounds, the master, mate, owner, ship's husband, or consignee, who makes the same or causes the same to be made, shall incur a penalty not exceeding £20; and such penalty, if inflicted, shall be a bar to any action for false imprisonment in respect of such apprehension.

77 Whenever any seaman or apprentice is brought before any court on the ground of his having neglected or refused to join or to proceed to sea in any ship in which he is engaged to serve, or of having deserted or otherwise absented himself therefrom without leave, such court may, if the master or the owner or his agent so requires, instead of committing the offender to prison, cause him to be conveyed on board for the purpose of proceeding on the voyage, or deliver him to the master or any mate of the ship, or the owner or his agent, to be by them so conveyed, and may in such case order any costs and expenses properly incurred by or on behalf of the master or owner by reason of the offence to be paid by the offender, and, if necessary, to be deducted from any wages which he has then earned, or which by virtue of his then existing engagement he may afterwards earn.

78 If any seaman or apprentice is imprisoned on the ground of his having neglected or refused to join or to proceed to sea in any ship in which he is engaged to serve, or of having deserted or otherwise absented himself therefrom without leave, or of his having committed any other breach of discipline, and if during such imprisonment and before his engagement is at an end his services are required on board his ship, any magistrate may, at the request of the master or of the owner or his agent, cause such seaman or apprentice to be conveyed on board his said ship for the purpose of proceeding on the voyage, or to be delivered to the master or any mate of the ship or to the owner or his agent, to be by them so conveyed, notwithstanding that the termination of the period for which he was sentenced to imprisonment has not arrived.

Entries and certificates of desertion abroad to be copied, sent home, and admitted in evidence.

79 In all cases of desertion from any ship registered at a port or place within the said island while such ship is at any place out of the said island, the master shall produce the entry of such desertion in the official log book to the person or persons required by this Ordinance or by the British or Indian Merchant Shipping Acts to endorse on the agreement a certificate of such desertion; and such person or persons shall thereupon make and certify a copy of such entry and also a copy of the said certificate of desertion; the master shall forthwith transmit such copies to the shipping master at the port where such seaman was engaged, who shall, if required, cause the same to be produced in any legal proceeding; and such copies, if purporting to be so made and certified as aforesaid, shall in any legal proceeding relating to such desertion be received as evidence of the entries therein appearing.

Facilities for proving desertion so far as concerns forfeiture of wages.

80 Whenever a question arises whether the wages of any seaman or apprentice are forfeited for desertion, it shall be sufficient for the party insisting on the forfeiture to show that such seaman or apprentice was duly engaged in or that he belonged to the ship from which he is alleged to have deserted, and that he quitted such ship before the completion of the voyage or engagement, or if such voyage was to terminate at any port or place within the said island, and the ship has not returned, that he is absent from her, and that an entry of the desertion has been duly made in the official log book, and thereupon the desertion shall, so far as relates to any forfeiture of wages or emoluments under the provisions hereinbefore contained be deemed to be proved, unless the seaman or apprentice can produce a proper certificate of discharge, or can otherwise show to the satisfaction of the court that he had sufficient reasons for leaving his ship.

Costs of procuring imprisonment may, to the extent of three pounds, be deducted from wages.

81 Whenever in any proceeding relating to seamen's wages it is shown that any seaman or apprentice has, in the course of the voyage, been convicted of any offence by any competent tribunal and rightfully punished therefor by imprisonment or otherwise, the court hearing the case may direct a part of the wages due to such seaman, not exceeding three pounds, to be applied in reimbursing any costs properly incurred by the master in procuring such conviction and punishment.

Amount of forfeiture how to be ascertained when seamen contract for the voyage.

82 Whenever any seaman contracts for wages by the voyage, or by the run, or by the share, and not by the month or other stated period of time, the amount of forfeiture to be incurred under this Ordinance shall be taken to be an amount bearing the same proportion to the whole wages or share as the period hereinbefore mentioned in fixing the amount of such forfeiture (as the case may be) bears to the whole time spent in the voyage ; and if the whole time spent in the voyage does not exceed the period for which the pay is to be forfeited, the forfeiture shall extend to the whole wages or share.

83 All clothes, effects, wages, and emoluments which under the provisions hereinbefore contained are forfeited for desertion shall be applied in the first instance in or towards the reimbursement of the expenses occasioned by such desertion to the master or owner of the ship from which the desertion has taken place, and may, if earned subsequently to the desertion, be recovered by such master, or by the owner or his agent, in the same manner as the deserter might have recovered the same if they had not been forfeited ; and in any legal proceeding relating to such wages the court may order the same to be paid accordingly ; and, subject to such reimbursement, the same shall be paid into the Treasury of this island, and carried to the account of Government ; and in all other cases of forfeiture of wages under the provisions hereinbefore contained the forfeiture shall, in the absence of any specific directions to the contrary, be for the benefit of the master or owner by whom the wages are payable.

Application of forfeitures.

84 Any question concerning the forfeiture of or deductions from the wages of any seaman or apprentice may be determined in any proceeding lawfully instituted with respect to such wages, notwithstanding that the offence in respect of which such question arises, though hereby made punishable by imprisonment as well as forfeiture, has not been made the subject of any criminal proceeding.

Questions of forfeitures may be decided in suits for wages

85 If any seaman, on or before being engaged, wilfully and fraudulently makes a false statement of the name of his last ship or last alleged ship, or wilfully and fraudulently makes a false statement of his own name, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and such penalty may be deducted from any wages he may earn by virtue of such engagement as aforesaid, and shall, subject to reimbursement of the loss and expenses, if any, occasioned by any previous desertion, be paid and applied in the same manner as other penalties payable under this Ordinance.

Penalty for false statement as to last ship or name.

86 Whenever any seaman commits an act of misconduct for which his agreement imposes a fine, and which it is intended to punish by enforcing such fine, an entry thereof shall be made in the official log book, and a copy of such entry shall be furnished or the same shall be read over to the offender, and an entry of such reading over and of the reply (if any) made by the offender shall be made, in the manner and subject to the conditions hereinbefore specified with respect to the offences against discipline specified in and punishable under this Ordinance ; and such fine shall be deducted and paid over as follows : (that is to say,) if the offender is discharged at any port or place within the said

Fines to be deducted from wages and paid to shipping officer.

island, and the offence, and such entries in respect thereof as aforesaid, are proved, in the case of a foreign-going ship to the satisfaction of the shipping officer before whom the offender is discharged, and in the case of a coastwise ship to the satisfaction of the shipping officer at or nearest to the place at which the crew is discharged, the master or owner shall deduct such fine from the wages of the offender and pay the same over to such shipping officer; and if before the final discharge of the crew within the said island any such offender as aforesaid enters into any of Her Majesty's ships or is discharged at any place not in the said island, and the offence and such entries as aforesaid are proved to the satisfaction of the officer in command of the ship into which he so enters, or of the consular officer, officer of customs, or other person by whose sanction he is so discharged, the fine shall thereupon be deducted as aforesaid, and an entry of such deduction shall then be made in the official log book (if any) and signed by such officer or other person; and on the return of the ship within the said island the master or owner shall pay over such fine, in the case of foreign-going ships to the shipping officer before whom the crew is discharged, and in the case of coastwise ships to the shipping officer at or nearest to the place at which the crew is discharged; and if any master or owner neglects or refuses to pay over any such fine in manner aforesaid, he shall for each such offence incur a penalty not exceeding six times the amount of the fine retained by him: Provided that no act of misconduct for which any such fine as aforesaid has been inflicted and paid shall be otherwise punished under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Penalty for enticing to desert and harbouring deserters.

87 Every person who by any means whatever persuades or attempts to persuade any seaman or apprentice to neglect or refuse to join or to proceed to sea in or to desert from his ship, or otherwise to absent himself from his duty, shall for each such offence in respect of each such seaman or apprentice incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds; and every person who wilfully harbours or secretes any seaman or apprentice who has deserted from his ship, or who has wilfully neglected or refused to join or has deserted from his ship, knowing or having reason to believe such seaman or apprentice to have so done, shall for every such seaman or apprentice so harboured or secreted incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty for obtaining passage surreptitiously.

88 Any person who secretes himself and goes to sea in any ship without the consent of either the owner, consignee, or master, or of a mate, or of any person in charge of such ship, or of any other person entitled to give such consent, shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds, or be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding four weeks.

On change of masters documents hereby required

89 If during the progress of a voyage the master of any ship registered at any port or place within the said island is superseded, or for any other reason quits the ship, and is succeeded in the command by some other person, he shall deliver to his successor the various documents relating to the navigation of the ship and to the crew thereof which are in his custody, and shall in default incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds; and such successor shall, immediately on assuming the command of the ship, enter in the official log a list of the documents so delivered to him.

to be handed over to successor.

Official Logs.

90 The shipping officer may require an official log book of every ship registered at any port of this island, not being a coastwise ship, to be kept in a form sanctioned by the Governor; and such official log may, at the discretion of the master or owner, either be kept distinct from the ordinary ship's log or united therewith, so that in all cases all the blanks in the official log be duly filled up.

Official logs to be kept in forms sanctioned by the Governor.

91 Every entry in every official log shall be made as soon as possible after the occurrence to which it relates, and if not made on the same day as the occurrence to which it relates, shall be made and dated so as to show the date of the occurrence and of the entry respecting it; and in no case shall any entry therein in respect of any occurrence happening previously to the arrival of the ship at her final port of discharge be made more than twenty-four hours after such arrival.

Entries to be made in due time.

92 Every master of a ship for which an official log book is hereby required shall make or cause to be made therein entries of the following matters; (that is to say,)

Entries required in official log.

(1) Every legal conviction of any member of his crew, and the punishment inflicted.

Convictions.

(2) Every offence committed by any member of his crew for which it is intended to prosecute, or to enforce a forfeiture, or to exact a fine, together with such statement concerning the reading over such entry and concerning the reply (if any) made to the charge, as hereinbefore required.

Offences.

(3) Every offence for which punishment is inflicted on board, and the punishment inflicted.

Punishments.

(4) A statement of the conduct, character, and qualifications of each of his crew, or a statement that he declines to give an opinion on such particulars.

Conduct, &c., of crew.

(5) Every case of illness or injury happening to any member of the crew, with the nature thereof, and the medical treatment adopted.

Illness and injuries.

(6) Every case of death happening on board, and of the cause thereof.

Deaths.

(7) Every birth happening on board, with the sex of the infant and the names of the parents.

Births.

(8) Every marriage taking place on board, with the names and ages of the parties.

Marriages.

(9) The name of every seaman or apprentice who ceases to be a member of the crew otherwise than by death, with the place, time, manner, and cause thereof.

Quitting ships.

Merchant Shipping.

- Wages of men entering navy. (10) The amount of wages due to any seaman who enters Her Majesty's service during the voyage.
- Wages of deceased seamen. (11) The wages due to any seaman or apprentice who dies during the voyage, and the gross amount of all deductions to be made therefrom.
- Sale of deceased men's effects. (12) The sale of the effects of any seaman or apprentice who dies during the voyage, including a statement of each article sold and of the sum received for it.
- Collisions. (13) Every collision with any other ship, and the circumstances under which the same occurred.

Entries how to be signed.

93 The entries hereby required to be made in official log books shall be signed as follows ; (that is to say,) every such entry shall be signed by the master and by the mate or some other of the crew, and every entry of illness, injury, or death shall be also signed by the surgeon or medical practitioner on board (if any) ; and every entry of wages due to, or of the sale of the effects of, any seaman or apprentice who dies shall be signed by the master and by the mate and some other member of the crew, and every entry of wages due to any seaman who enters Her Majesty's service shall be signed by the master and by the seaman or by the officer authorized to receive the seaman into such service.

Penalties in respect of official logs.

94 The following offences in respect of official log books shall be punishable as hereinafter mentioned ; (that is to say,)

- (1) If in any case an official log book is not kept in the manner hereby required, or if any entry hereby directed to be made in any such log book is not made at the time and in the manner hereby directed, the master shall for each such offence incur the specific penalty herein mentioned in respect thereof, or, where there is no such specific penalty, a penalty not exceeding five pounds :
- (2) Every person who makes or procures to be made or assists in making any entry in an official log book, in respect of any occurrence happening previously to the arrival of the ship at her final port of discharge within the said island, more than twenty-four hours after such arrival, shall for each such offence incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds :
- (3) Every person who wilfully destroys or mutilates or renders illegible any entry in any official log book, or who wilfully makes or procures to be made or assists in making any false or fraudulent entry or omission in any such log book, shall for each such offence be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year.

Entries in official logs to be received in evidence.

95 All entries made in any official log book as hereinbefore directed shall be prima facie evidence in any proceeding in any court of justice, subject to all just exceptions.

Merchant Shipping.

96 Whenever, in the course of any legal proceedings instituted at any port or place within the said island before any judge, commissioner, or magistrate, or before any person authorized by law or by consent of parties to receive evidence, the testimony of any witness is required in relation to the subject-matter of such proceeding, then, upon due proof that such witness cannot be found at or that he has departed from such port or place, any deposition that such witness may have previously made on oath in relation to the same subject-matter before any justice or magistrate in Her Majesty's dominions (including the said island), or any British consular officer elsewhere, shall, if authenticated by the signature of the justice, magistrate, or consular officer, be admissible in evidence: Provided that if the proceeding is criminal such deposition shall not be admissible unless it was made in the presence of the person accused, and the fact that it was so made is certified by the justice, magistrate, or consular officer. It shall not be necessary in any case to prove the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed any such deposition; and in any criminal proceeding such certificate as aforesaid shall, unless the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence of the accused having been present in manner thereby certified.

Depositions to be received in evidence when witness cannot be produced.

97 Nothing in this Ordinance shall extend to any ship belonging to or in the service of Her Majesty, or to any ship of war belonging to any foreign prince or state.

Ordinance not to extend to ships of war.

98 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the First day of January, One thousand Eight hundred and Sixty-five.

7th October, 1863.

No. 10 of 1863.

An Ordinance to provide for the Partition or Sale of Lands held in common.

(See No. 14 of 1835.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the partition or sale of lands held in common: It is enacted as follows :

Interpretation clause.

1 For the purposes of this Ordinance, the word "will" shall be held to include a codicil and any other testamentary disposition, and the word "representative" to mean the party legally entitled to appear and act for and on behalf of another as his guardian, tutor, curator, or attorney, as the case may be.

Partition of Lands.

2 When any landed property shall belong in common to two or more owners, it is and shall be competent to one or more of such owners to compel a partition of the said property, or, should such partition be impossible or inexpedient on account of the number or poverty of the owners, the nature, extent, or value of such property, or from other causes, to apply for a sale thereof, and in either case to file in any court of competent jurisdiction a libel, particularly describing the property and stating the extent of his or their share and interest therein, the names and residences of all the co-owners and mortgagees, and the extent of their respective shares or interests, and also the improvements, if any, which have been made on the property, and by which of the owners, so far as the said matters or things, or any of them, shall be known to him or them, and praying for a partition of the common estate amongst the several owners, or a sale thereof, as the case may be.

Any one of two or more owners may compel partition or sale.

3 On such application being filed, the court shall issue its summons directed to the parties named by the plaintiff, calling upon them to appear and show cause why a partition or sale of the common property should not be decreed as prayed; and such summons shall be served upon the defendants or such of them as can be found, or if they cannot be found upon the person or persons in the actual possession of such property; or, if there be no person in possession, in such manner as the court shall direct.

Summons.

Service of summons.

4 If the defendant served as aforesaid shall make default in appearance as directed by the summons, the court shall fix a day to hear evidence in support of the application of the plaintiffs, and on that day, or any other day to which the court may adjourn the hearing, shall hear evidence in support of the title of the plaintiffs and the extent of their shares or interests, as also the title of the defendants and the extent of their respective shares or interests in so far as may be practicable by any ex parte proceeding, and shall, if the plaintiff's title be proved, give judgment by default, decreeing partition or sale as to the court shall seem fit. If the defendants or any of them shall appear and dispute the title of the plaintiffs, or shall claim larger shares or interests than the plaintiffs have stated to belong to them, or shall dispute any other material allegation in the libel, the court shall in the same cause proceed to examine the titles of all the parties interested therein, and the extent of their several shares or interests, and to try and determine any other material question in dispute between the parties, and to decree a partition or sale according to the application of the parties, or as to the court shall seem fit: Provided, however, that it shall be competent to the court to decree the sale of the common property, though such sale be not prayed for by the parties in the original libel, if in any suit for a partition it shall appear to such court that on account of the number or poverty of the owners, the nature, extent, or value of the land, or other causes, a partition would be impossible or inexpedient.

Commission for partition.

5 When a decree of partition has been given, it shall be lawful for the court, on the application of any party to the suit, and on his depositing, if required so to do, such sum as the court shall consider sufficient to defray the expenses of such partition, to issue a commission addressed to such person or persons as shall be agreed upon by all the parties to such suit and as shall be willing to execute the same; or if the parties cannot agree upon any such person, then to some fit person to be named by the court who shall be willing to execute the same, authorizing and requiring him or them to make partition of the land, assigning to each owner his proper share, and otherwise conforming to such special directions as to the partition which the court may give; and the person or persons to whom such commission shall be addressed shall, with all practicable speed, proceed in the presence of all parties concerned (if they will appear) to make partition thereof according to the ascertained proportions of the several owners, and with reference to the value of any improvements made thereon, and the party by whom they may have been made, and in conformity with any special directions as to the partition contained in such decree, and shall make due return thereof, accompanying such return with a schedule, and, if need be, a survey, showing the name, situation, extent, and estimated value of the land, the names of the owners, the nature and extent of their respective shares and interests, and generally the mode in which the said person or persons propose that such partition shall be made: Provided that the commissioners shall, thirty days at least before making such partition, affix on some conspicuous part of the land a written notice of the day on which they propose to make the same, and give further notice thereof by beat of tom-tom in the village or place where such land is situated, and in such other manner as shall appear best calculated for giving the greatest publicity thereto.

Return to commission.

Provision as to notice.

Proceeding on receipt of return.

6 On the receipt of the return of such commission the court shall fix a day, of which notice shall be issued to all the parties, and which said notice shall be served in the same way as the original summons, for considering the return; and on that day or such other day as the court shall then appoint, the court after summarily hearing the parties, and, if need be, making such further reference as the court shall deem necessary, shall either confirm or modify the partition proposed by the commissioners, and enter final judgment accordingly in the cause.

Partition of share only of applicant.

7 If it should be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court, in the case of an application for partition or sale, that a partition of the share of the applicant can be made without interfering with the shares of the other owners of the property, and that such other owners are willing to possess their shares in common, it shall then be lawful for the court to abstain from ordering a partition of the entire land, further than shall be necessary to ascertain and define the share in severalty of the particular applicant.

Partition of Lands.

8 When a decree for the sale of the common property has been given, it shall be lawful for the court, on the application of any party to the suit, and on his depositing, if required so to do, in court such sum as the court shall consider sufficient to defray the expenses of the sale, and of any survey which may be required for the purposes of such sale, to issue a commission (directed as in the case of a partition) for the sale of such property; and such commissioners shall thereupon proceed to make a just valuation of the property, and to give notice of not less than six weeks, in such manner as the court shall direct and as shall appear best calculated for giving the greatest publicity thereto, that on the day mentioned in such notice the whole of such property will be put up to sale, first among the owners thereof, at the price for which the same shall have been valued, and if not purchased by some one of them that it shall be put up and sold to the highest bidder; and on the day named in such notice the commissioners shall proceed to sell the whole of such property, by first putting up the same for sale under such conditions as the court shall direct, and subject to any mortgage or other charges or incumbrances which may be on the same, amongst the said owners, at the upset price for which the property has been valued; and if none of the owners shall then become the purchaser thereof and comply with the conditions under which the said property shall be sold, the commissioners shall forthwith put the same up for sale, subject to any such mortgage, charge, or incumbrance, by public auction to the highest bidder; and such commissioners shall make their return to such commission to the said court, showing therein the name and place of abode of the purchaser and the amount for which the said property was sold, and shall file therewith a survey of such property in any case in which a survey shall have been directed by the court; and the purchaser shall pay into court the amount of the purchase money, agreeably to the conditions of sale, to be paid over to the persons entitled thereto, under the order of the court, in the proportion of their respective shares; and the certificate under the hand of the judge of such court that the said property has been sold under the order of the said court, and setting forth the name of the purchaser thereof, and that the purchase money has been duly paid into court by him, shall be evidence in any court of the purchaser's title, without any deed of transfer from the former owners: Provided that in case the premises shall be purchased by one or more of the co-proprietors, the share due to him or them shall be deducted from the amount to be paid into court as aforesaid.

Proviso.

9 The decree for partition or sale given as hereinbefore provided shall be good and conclusive against all persons whomsoever, whatever right or title they have or claim to have in the said property, although all persons concerned are not named in any of the said proceedings, nor the title of the owners nor of any of them truly set forth, and shall be good and sufficient evidence of such partition and sale and of the titles of the parties to such shares or interests as have been thereby awarded in severalty : Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the right of any party prejudiced by such partition or sale to recover damages from the parties by whose act, whether of commission or omission, such damages had accrued.

Remuneration to commissioners and expenses of partition or sale.

10 The court by which any such decree of partition or sale shall be given shall and may award to such commissioners such amount as it shall consider a reasonable remuneration for their labour, and for the expenses incurred by them in the survey of the property (if any such has been made) and in and about the making of such partition or sale, which amount shall be paid to them out of the money deposited in court as aforesaid ; and the person or persons making a deposit shall be entitled to recover from each of the co-proprietors, by proceeding in the same cause, a share of the costs of such partition or sale proportionate to the share of such person in the said property.

No dilatory exception allowed.

11 No dilatory exception shall be admitted in any suit for partition or sale.

Where property is subject to mortgage.

12 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall affect the right of any mortgagee of the land which is the subject of the partition or sale : Provided that if at the time any partition or sale shall be made an undivided share only of the land, and not the whole thereof, shall be subject to mortgage, the right of the mortgagee shall be limited to the share in severalty allotted to his mortgagor by and under the same conditions, covenants, and reservations as shall be stipulated in the mortgage bond, so far as the same shall apply to a share in severalty ; and the owner of the share in severalty so subject to mortgage shall, without a new deed of mortgage, warrant and make good to the mortgagee the said several part after such partition as he was bound to do before such partition.

Where property is subject to lease.

13 If at the time any partition shall be made under any of the foregoing provisions of this Ordinance the property shall be held under any lease, the tenants thereof, or of any part thereof, before such partition was made, shall be tenants of such part set out severally to the respective owners thereof, by and under the same conditions, rents, covenants, and reservations as they held by and under before such partition ; and the owners of the several parts so divided and allotted as aforesaid shall without any new deed of lease warrant and make good to the said tenant or tenants the said several parts, severally, after such partition, as they were bound to do before such partition.

Persons having permanent right of property to growing trees distinct from the soil, or owners of soil

14 For the purposes of this Ordinance, every person having a permanent right of property in any of the trees growing upon any land in this island, distinct from the ownership of the soil, and every person being the owner of any land in this island, apart from the ownership of the trees thereon, shall be deemed and taken to have an undivided interest in such land ; and the owner of the soil, as well as the person having such right in the trees growing thereon, shall and may compel a partition or sale in the manner provided by this Ordinance : Provided, however, that in all such cases either party shall have the right of demanding a sale instead of a partition of the said property ; and the owner of the soil shall also have a right of pre-emption in and to the said property, upon a just appraisement by the commissioner or commissioners of the value of the planter's right and interest in the said property, and of any buildings or improvements made by him thereon.

Partition of Lands.

apart from the trees thereon, to be deemed to have an undivided interest.

15 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give to any co-proprietor of any land in this island the right to compel a partition or sale thereof, if there shall be any valid or subsisting deed of partnership binding upon any such co-proprietor for the cultivation of such property, or the raising of any crops or produce thereon, for the purpose of selling such crops or produce, or for carrying on any trade, manufacture, or occupation having relation to or connected with the joint possession of such property, any of the terms or conditions of which deed would be broken or avoided by the partition or sale of such property, unless such deed shall expressly reserve to the parties thereto, or to any of them, or to their or any of their heirs, executors, or administrators, the right of compelling a partition or sale of such property ; and any partition, sale, or conveyance of such property effected without the consent of the parties to such deed, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this section, shall be void.

Proviso where a deed of partnership subsists as respects the property.

16 When any undivided share or interest in any land shall be seized under any writ of execution or distress warrant, the fiscal shall only put up for sale the share or interest belonging to the debtor, unless the other co-proprietors shall notify in writing to such fiscal their wish that the whole of the land should be sold, in which case the fiscal shall cause a just valuation to be made thereof by two appraisers, one of whom shall be named by the debtor and the other by the said co-proprietors, or in the event of their failing to do so within fifteen days from the date of such notification by the fiscal, and in case of a difference between such appraisers in such valuation, the fiscal shall appoint a third person as umpire, whose valuation shall be final ; and the fiscal shall insert in the notice of sale that on the day of sale the whole of such property will be put up for sale, first among the co-proprietors thereof, at the price for which the same shall have been valued, and if not purchased by some one or more of them, that it shall then be put up and sold to the highest bidder ; and on the day named in such notice the said fiscal shall proceed to sell the whole of such property, by first putting up the same for sale upon the usual conditions, and subject to any mortgage or other charges or incumbrances which may be on the same, amongst the said co-proprietors at the upset price for which the said property shall have been valued, and if none of the said co-proprietors shall then become the purchaser thereof, and comply with the conditions under which the said property shall be sold, the fiscal shall forthwith put the same up for sale, subject to any such mortgage, charge, or other incumbrance thereon, and sell the same by public auction to the highest bidder; and in case the premises shall be purchased by one or more of the co-proprietors the fiscal shall recover from him or them the amount of the purchase and the expenses attending the appraisement and sale, less the shares of such co-proprietors; but if such premises are purchased by any person not being one of the co-proprietors, the said fiscal shall bring the whole amount into the court out of which the writ of execution was issued, to be paid over to the parties entitled thereto under an order of the said court, in the proportion of their respective shares; and the sum awarded to the debtor as his share, or such part thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy the exigency of the said writ, shall be paid over under an order of such court to the creditor, and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the said debtor: Provided, however, that in case any dispute should arise as to what is the amount due to the debtor, it shall be lawful for the creditor, as soon as the money has been brought into court by the fiscal, to apply to the court for such portion thereof, not exceeding the amount of his writ, as he shall have reason to believe to belong to his debtor, and the court may make an order for the payment thereof to him on his giving security to the satisfaction of the court for the repayment of any part thereof which may at any time within two years thereafter be found not to have belonged to such debtor.

No owner may alienate or hypothecate his share after commencement of legal proceeding.

17 Whenever any legal proceedings shall have been instituted for obtaining a partition or sale of any property as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for any of the owners to alienate or hypothecate his undivided share or interest therein, unless and until the court before which the same were instituted shall, by its decree in the matter, have refused to grant the application for such partition or sale, as the case may be; and any such alienation or hypothecation shall be void.

No survivorship as to property held in undivided shares unless expressly stipulated for.

18 All landed property situated in this colony which shall belong to two or more persons jointly, whether the same shall have come to them by grant, purchase, descent, or otherwise, is and shall be deemed and taken to be held by them in common, and upon the decease of any such persons the said property so jointly possessed shall not remain or belong to the survivor, but all the right, share, and interest of the person so dying in and to the property so jointly possessed as aforesaid shall form part of his estate: and the person or persons to whom the same shall by him be devised or bequeathed, or to whom it shall devolve, shall thereupon become and be co-proprietors with the survivor in the said property, in the proportion and according to the share of such deceased person therein, unless the instrument under which the said property is jointly held and possessed, or any agreement mutually entered into between them, shall expressly provide that the survivor, upon such decease, shall become entitled to the whole estate.

19 All decisions and orders of any court made under the authority of this Ordinance shall be subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court, and every such appeal shall be brought or prosecuted in such manner and shall be subject to such regulations as now exist or shall hereafter be made by law.

Appeals.

20 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the First day of January, One thousand Eight hundred and Sixty-four.

Commencement.

11th November, 1863.

No. 13 of 1863.

An Ordinance to amend in certain respects the Law of Marriages in this Island, and to provide for the due registration thereof.

(See No. 6 of 1847, No. 8 of 1865, and No. 15 of 1877.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to marriages other than Kandyan marriages, and to provide for the due registration thereof: It is hereby enacted as follows:

Preamble.

1 Save and except marriages which shall have been entered into or been thereby declared valid, rights which shall have accrued, liabilities which shall have been incurred, acts which shall have been done, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place under and by virtue of the Regulation and Ordinance hereunder mentioned prior to the repeal thereof: the Regulation No. 9 of 1822, "For regulating the registry of the Marriages and Births of the Natives of the Maritime Settlements of this Island, as well as of the Natives of India residing in the said Maritime Settlements, and for declaring the effect of the said registry as evidence of such Marriages and Births;" and the Ordinance No. 6 of 1847, entitled "An Ordinance to amend the Law of Marriages, and to provide for the better registration of Marriages, Births, and Deaths" (except sections 1, 7, 10, 11, 18, 23, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, and 33, which shall be and continue in force from and after the time that this Ordinance shall come into operation), are repealed.

Repeal of No 9 of 1822, and certain sections in No. 6 of 1847

2 For the purposes of this Ordinance, the expression "Registrar-General of Marriages" and "registrar of marriages" shall include any person authorized by the Governor to act as such respectively; the expression "minister" of any church or registered place of worship shall include any person authorized by such minister to act in that capacity being legally competent so to act; the word "marriages" shall mean all marriages save and except those contracted under and by virtue of the Ordinance No. 13 of 1859, entitled "An Ordinance to amend the Laws of Marriage in the Kandyan Provinces," and those contracted between persons professing the Mohammedan faith.

Declaration of validity of past marriages by Christian ministers :

3 All marriages which have been heretofore bonâ fide solemnized (and not subsequently declared invalid by the judgment of a competent court) between parties legally competent to marry, by judges or by magistrates, or by ministers of the Christian religion, or persons ordinarily officiating as such, either by license or after the publication of banns, shall be deemed and taken to have been good and valid marriages in law, notwithstanding any non-compliance with forms or other irregularity attending the license, or the publication of banns, or the celebration of such marriage, or the want of authority in the party issuing the license, unless the parties to any such marriage, or either of them, shall in the lifetime of both such parties have contracted a subsequent valid marriage: Provided that no person who shall have heretofore lawfully come into possession of any property, movable or immovable, by reason of the invalidity of any marriage so solemnized as aforesaid, shall be dispossessed thereof, and that the rights of such person, and of all others claiming under him, shall not be in any way affected by reason of such marriage being by this Ordinance made good and valid.

and of past marriages rendered invalid by not being registered in conformity with Regulation
No. 9 of 1822.

4 All marriages heretofore had in this island, which were in all other respects good and valid marriages, but which have been rendered invalid by reason of their not being registered in conformity with the Regulation No. 9 of 1822, and which have not been subsequently declared invalid by the judgment of a competent court, shall be deemed and taken to have been good and valid marriages, except where the parties to any such marriage or either of them, not being Mohammedans, shall during the lifetime of both such parties have contracted a subsequent valid marriage: Provided that no person who shall have heretofore lawfully come into possession of any property, movable or immovable, by reason of the non-registration of any marriage, shall be dispossessed thereof, and that the rights of such person, and of all others claiming under him, shall not be in any way affected by reason of such marriage being by this Ordinance made good and valid.

Registrar to register
buildings for the solemnization of marriages.

5 It shall be lawful for the Registrar-General, on receiving from any proprietor or trustee of any separate building used as a place of public Christian religious worship, an application that such building may be registered for solemnizing marriages therein, together with a declaration signed by at least twenty householders, and countersigned by the said proprietor or trustee, that they frequent, or intend to frequent, such place of public worship, to register such place of worship for the solemnization of marriages in a book to be by him provided for that purpose; and the Registrar-General shall thereupon give a certificate of such registry and of the date thereof, under his hand, bearing a stamp of three pounds, to be for that purpose provided by the party making such application, and shall give public notice of such registry by advertisement in the Government Gazette.

6 If at any time subsequent to the registry of any building for the solemnizing of marriages it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Registrar-General that any such building has been disused for the public religious worship of the congregation on whose behalf it was registered as aforesaid, the registrar shall cause the registry thereof to be cancelled; provided that if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Registrar-General that the same congregation use instead thereof some other such building for the purpose of public religious worship, the Registrar-General may substitute and register such new place of worship instead of the disused building; and such cancelling or substitution when made shall be entered in the book provided for the registry of such buildings, and shall be certified and published in manner hereinbefore provided in the case of the original registry of the disused building, and such substitution shall be made under the hand of the Registrar-General, and shall bear a stamp of two pounds, to be for that purpose provided by the party applying for such substitution. After such cancelling shall have been made no marriage shall be solemnized in such disused building, unless the same shall be again registered.

Registry of disused buildings may be cancelled.

7 In every case of marriage intended to be contracted or solemnized, one of the parties shall give notice to a registrar of the district in which he or she shall have dwelt for not less than twenty-one days then next preceding, and such notice shall be in the form A in the schedule hereunto annexed, and which form such registrar is hereby required to supply gratis to any person applying for the same, and such notice shall bear the signature or mark of the person applying for the same, and shall be attested by two witnesses who shall be personally acquainted with either or both of such parties, and shall state therein the name, and (where they shall be different) the name by which he or she is commonly known, the condition, profession, and dwelling place of each of the parties intending to marry, and whether each of them is of full age or not; and the said registrar shall file every such notice and keep it with the records of his office, and shall also suspend a copy of such notice in a conspicuous place in his office, and shall also cause other publication of such notice to be made by affixing a copy thereof, at such conspicuous places in his district as shall for that purpose be appointed by the Registrar-General, from the time of the entry thereof until the lawful period for issuing such certificate as hereinafter mentioned, and shall also forthwith enter a true copy of the said notice, together with the date of entering the same, fairly into a book, to be called the marriage notice book, which shall be open at all reasonable times, without fee, to all persons desirous of inspecting the same. For every such entry the registrar shall be entitled to such fee as the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall from time to time direct.

Where parties reside in different districts.

8 If both the parties shall not have dwelt for not less than twenty-one days in the same district as aforesaid, but shall have dwelt in different districts, the notice hereinbefore required shall be given to a registrar in each of such districts, and both notices shall be filed, suspended, published and entered in the manner provided for in the preceding section, after which such registrars shall mutually forward to each other a certificate that such notice has been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance: Provided that in case one of the parties shall have recently arrived in the island, and shall not have acquired a residence therein, the notice given to the registrar of the district wherein the other party shall have resided shall be sufficient.

Certificate of notice to be given after 21 days.

9 At any time not more than three months nor (except in pursuance of such license as is hereinafter mentioned) less than twenty-one days after the entry of such notice, the registrar, or, in case the parties reside in different districts, the registrar of each district, upon being requested so to do by either of the parties in respect of whom such notice was given, shall issue under his hand a certificate of the form B, as near as is material, in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed; provided that no lawful impediment be shown to the satisfaction of such registrar why such certificate should not issue, and provided that the issue of such certificate shall not have been sooner forbidden in manner hereinafter mentioned by any person or persons whose consent is required to the said marriage; and every such certificate shall state the particulars set forth in the notice, and the day on which the notice was entered, and that the issue of such certificate has not been forbidden by any person whose consent is required to the said marriage, and either that the full period of twenty-one days has elapsed since the entry of such notice or that the marriage is to be had in pursuance of such license as is hereinafter mentioned; and for every such certificate the registrar shall be entitled to such fees as the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall from time to time direct: Provided that where a certificate shall have been forbidden, or a caveat entered, the time taken up in the disposal of the objection made to the marriage shall not count in the calculation of the three months from the entry of the notice within which the certificate may issue.

License to issue certificate before 21 days.

10 It shall be lawful for the Governor at any time after the entry of such notice, if he shall think fit, by license under his hand to be made in the form provided in schedule C hereto annexed, or to the like effect, to authorize the said registrar to issue such certificate as aforesaid, on or after any day named in such license : Provided always that before any such license shall be issued, one of the parties intending marriage shall appear personally before the registrar and make oath or solemn affirmation that he or she believes that there is not any impediment of kindred or alliance, or of any other lawful cause, nor any suit commenced in any court to bar or hinder the said marriage, and either that the consent of the person or persons whose consent to such marriage is required by law has been obtained, or that no such consent is required, or that such marriage has been authorized by a judge as hereafter mentioned : Provided further that for every such license the party requiring it shall supply a stamp of three pounds.

11 Any person whose consent is required by law for any marriage may forbid the issue of the said certificate, by writing, at any time before the issue thereof, the word "forbidden," or some word of like meaning in the Singalese or Tamul languages, opposite to the entry of the notice of such intended marriage in the marriage notice book, and by adding or causing to be added thereto his name and place of abode, and his relationship to either of the parties in respect of whom such consent is required ; and in such case as well the said notice as any certificate which may afterwards be granted thereupon, and all other proceedings thereupon, shall be utterly void, unless the marriage shall have been authorized by a judge in manner hereinafter provided.

Persons whose consent is required may forbid issue of certificate.

12 If the issue of any certificate shall be forbidden, the registrar shall forthwith make report thereof to the district court of the district within which he shall be appointed to act, and shall suspend such issue or such publication, and all further proceedings thereupon, until it shall have been decided by such court whether such certificate ought to be issued or not ; and such court shall, as soon as possible after such report shall have been received, take the same into consideration, and decide, in as summary way as the circumstances of the case will permit, whether such certificate ought to be issued or not, or whether or not such publication should be stopped ; and if such court shall decide that such certificate ought not to be issued or should be stopped, then the notice of marriage and all further proceedings had thereupon shall be null and void ; and if such court shall decide that there exist no grounds for withholding such certificate, then the notice of marriage and all other proceedings in relation thereto shall be held valid and sufficient, and the registrar shall issue such certificate as if the publication had not been forbidden, and although the period of three months from the entry of the notice shall have expired ; and if it shall appear to such court that the issue of such certificate has been forbidden on frivolous and vexatious grounds the court may condemn the party forbidding the same to pay, in addition to costs and all civil damages to which he may be liable, a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Proceeding where issue of certificate forbidden.

Marriage Law Amendment.

Caveat may be entered against issue of certificate.

13 Any person may, on payment of one pound, enter a caveat with the registrar against the grant of a certificate for the marriage of any person therein named, such caveat being duly signed by or on behalf of the person who enters the same, and stating his place of residence and the ground of objection on which the caveat is founded. No certificate shall in such case issue until the registrar shall have examined into the matter of the caveat (which he is required to do forthwith), and shall be satisfied that it ought not to obstruct the grant of the certificate for the said marriage, or until the caveat be withdrawn by the party who entered the same: Provided that in cases of doubt the registrar may refer the matter of any such caveat to the district judge of the district within which he is authorized to act, who shall decide upon the same summarily: Provided likewise that in case of the registrar allowing or refusing the grant of the certificate, the person objecting to or requiring the same shall have a right to apply to such district judge by petition, who shall thereupon proceed in a summary way either to confirm the refusal or direct the grant of the certificate. Any person who shall enter a caveat with the registrar against the issue of any certificate on frivolous and vexatious grounds shall be liable, in addition to costs and civil damages as aforesaid, to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Ministers of registered places of worship may solemnize marriages.

14 On the delivery of such certificate to the minister of any registered place of worship, it shall be lawful for such minister to solemnize a marriage in such building between the parties named in such certificate: Provided always that such marriage shall be solemnized with open doors between the hours of eight in the morning and six in the afternoon in the presence of two or more credible witnesses besides the said minister, and according to the usages of the church, denomination, or body to which such minister belongs, and not elsewhere or otherwise: Provided also that there be no lawful impediment to the marriage of such parties.

Marriages may be contracted before the registrar.

15 The parties named in such certificate may, if they shall prefer it, contract marriage at the office and in the presence of the registrar (whose duty it shall be to solemnize such marriage) and of two other witnesses, with open doors and between the hours aforesaid, each of the parties making in the presence of such registrar and witnesses the following declaration: "I do solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I, A. B., may not be joined in matrimony to C. D. here present," and each of the parties saying to the other, "I call upon these persons present here to witness that I, A. B., do take thee, C. D., to be my lawful wife [or husband]"; and the registrar shall be entitled for every such marriage to receive from the parties marrying such fee as the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall from time to time direct: Provided that before administering such declaration, the registrar shall address the parties to the following effect: "Be it known unto you, A. B. and C. D., that by the public reception of each other as man and wife in my presence, and the subsequent attestation thereof by signing your name to that effect in the registry book, you become legally married to each other, although no other rite of a civil or religious nature shall take place; and know ye further that the marriage now intended to be contracted cannot be dissolved during your lifetime, except by a valid judgment of divorce, and that if either of you before the death of the other shall contract another marriage before the former is thus legally dissolved, you will thereby become guilty of bigamy, and be liable to the heavy penalties attached to that offence."

16 Whenever a marriage shall not be had within three months after the notice thereof shall have been entered by the registrar, except as is provided in the 9th section, the notice and any license or certificate which may have been granted thereupon, and all other proceedings thereupon, shall be utterly void; and no person shall proceed to solemnize the marriage, nor shall any registrar register the same, until new notice shall have been given and entry made and certificate thereof given at the time and in the manner aforesaid.

License or certificate void three months after entry of notice.

17 No clergyman or minister shall be compellable to solemnize marriage between persons either of whom shall not be a member of his own communion, nor otherwise than according to the rules or custom of such communion, nor unless he shall be satisfied by the declaration of the parties or otherwise that the proposed marriage is consistent with such rules or custom.

Clergymen, &c., not compellable to celebrate marriages.

18 Immediately after the solemnization of any marriage by the minister of any registered place of worship, the said minister shall enter into a book to be kept for that purpose in the said place of worship a statement of the said marriage in the form and comprising the particulars set forth in the form D to the schedule hereto annexed, or to a like effect, which entry shall be signed by the said minister and by the parties married and by two credible witnesses of the said marriage, who shall also give their condition and residence; and the said minister shall forthwith transmit to the registrar a duplicate of such statement similarly signed; and all such statements shall be filed by the registrar, and duly preserved in his office.

Entry of marriages in places of worship.

19 The registrar shall forthwith enter the above-mentioned particulars of every marriage contracted in his presence, and (with the word "copy" prefixed) all statements of marriages so transmitted to him as aforesaid into a marriage register book, which shall be made out in the form D in the schedule hereto annexed; and every entry of such marriage contracted in the presence of the registrar shall be signed by him and by the parties married, and by two credible witnesses, who shall also give their condition and residence; and all entries made in the said book shall be made in order from the beginning to the end thereof; and every such entry, or any copy thereof certified under the hand of the said registrar, shall be the best evidence of the facts recorded therein in pursuance of this Ordinance before all courts and in all proceedings before or in which it may be necessary to give evidence of the marriage to which the same shall relate.

Power to supply defects or correct errors in registry.

20 Where a marriage has been heretofore contracted, or shall hereafter be contracted, which, without fault of the parties thereto, may have been omitted to be registered, or may have been erroneously registered, it shall be lawful to either of the said parties, or in case of his or her death the issue or other lawful representative of such party, to apply to the district court having jurisdiction over the district within which the marriage took place to have such marriage correctly registered; and the judge of such court shall cause the Registrar-General, and the registrar of the district, and such other parties as to him shall appear expedient, to be noticed to show cause why such application shall not be granted. If no sufficient cause be shown to the contrary, and the court shall be satisfied after hearing such evidence as the parties may have it in their power to adduce that such marriage has been proved, it shall certify the same to the Registrar-General, who shall thereupon cause such marriage to be registered.

[§ 6, 8 of 1865]

21 If both the parties to any marriage shall knowingly and wilfully intermarry under the provisions of this Ordinance in any place other than the office of the registrar or registered place of worship (except when specially licensed thereto under the provisions of this Ordinance), or under a false name or names, or without certificate of notice duly issued, or shall knowingly and wilfully consent to acquiesce in the solemnization of a marriage by a person not being a minister or registrar for the district, the marriage of such persons shall be null and void.

Penalty for altering or destroying notices.

22 Any person who shall wilfully remove, alter, deface, or destroy any copy affixed under the authority of the 7th section of this Ordinance shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty for failing to return or register marriages.

23 Any minister who shall fail to transmit to the registrar the statement required by the 18th section of this Ordinance within one week after solemnization of the marriage to which such statement relates, and every registrar who shall fail to register any such marriage within one week of receiving such statement or who shall fail to register any marriage contracted before him on the day on which the same shall have been contracted, shall be liable for every such offence to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

Persons unduly solemnizing a marriage, and registrar unduly issuing certificates, guilty of offence.

25 Any person who shall knowingly and wilfully solemnize a marriage not being legally competent so to do, or between parties not legally competent to contract the same, or in any other places than the building or office herein specified, or before the issue of such certificate or after the expiration of three months from the entry of such notice as aforesaid, except as is provided in the 9th

Marriage Law Amendment.

section, and any registrar who shall knowingly and wilfully issue any certificate of marriage after the period allowed by this Ordinance for issuing the same, except as aforesaid, or any certificate the issue of which shall have been forbidden in manner aforesaid by any person authorized so to forbid the same, except as hereinbefore provided, or who shall knowingly and wilfully register or allow to be contracted in his presence any marriage herein declared to be null and void, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, and to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, not exceeding three years.

27 After any marriage shall have been contracted, it shall not be necessary in support of such marriage to give any proof of the consent of any party whose consent thereunto is required by law ; nor shall any evidence be given to prove the contrary in any suit touching the validity of such marriage.

No evidence of consent is necessary after marriage.

28 All decisions and orders of any court made under the authority of this Ordinance shall be subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court, and every such appeal shall be brought or prosecuted in such manner and shall be subject to such regulations as now exist or shall hereafter be made by law.

Appeal.

29 This Ordinance, and the sections 1, 7, 10, 11, 18, 23, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, and 33 of the Ordinance No. 6 of 1847, shall be read and construed as if they formed one Ordinance.

This Ordinance and unexpired sections of No. 6 of 1847 to be read as one.

30 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such day as shall be mentioned in a Proclamation notifying the confirmation of this Ordinance by Her Majesty.

*Temporal Affairs of Churches.No. 5 of 1864.*An Ordinance to regulate the Temporal Affairs of Churches not provided for in the Ordinance No. 12 of 1846.*Preamble.

WHEREAS the Ordinance No. 12 of 1846 makes provision for regulating the temporal affairs of certain Episcopal churches, and it is expedient that like provision should be made for and in respect of churches other than those referred to in that enactment: It is enacted as follows:

Repeal of Ordinance No. 11 of 1863.

1 The Ordinance No. 11 of 1863, entitled "An Ordinance to regulate the Temporal Affairs of Churches not provided for in the Ordinance No. 12 of 1846," is hereby repealed.

Interpretation clause.

2 For the purposes of this Ordinance, except when otherwise provided, the word "church" shall be construed to mean any place set apart for the purposes of Christian worship other than those referred to in the Ordinance No. 12 of 1846; "the trustees" shall mean the trustees elected or appointed under the provisions of this Ordinance; and "the minister" shall mean the person usually officiating in such church and conducting the public worship therein.

Notice of election of trustees.

3 It shall be lawful for the minister or ministers of any church already erected, or for any five or more persons who shall have subscribed for the erection thereof, or who attend it for purposes of worship, or for the building committee or persons in charge of the building of any church proposed to be erected, or whilst the same is in course of erection, to fix a place and a day for holding a general meeting in manner hereinafter appointed, giving notice thereof in three successive Government Gazettes: Provided that if the church belong to or be vested in any person, society, or corporation, no proceedings can be taken to bring the same within the operation of this Ordinance without the consent, previously obtained, of such person, society, or corporation; any proceeding taken without such consent shall be null and void.

Proviso.Mode of holding meeting.

4 Every meeting so convened shall be held at the time and place appointed, and at every such meeting it shall be lawful for the subscribers to any church not completed and used for public worship at the time such meeting is held, or for the seatholders or members of the congregation of the church, if the same shall then have been completed and used, to determine whether such church is to be brought within the provisions of this Ordinance, and, if this be decided in the affirmative, to elect three trustees: Provided that no subscriber or seatholder or member of the congregation shall be entitled to give more than one vote, or to give any vote except in person, and that no person shall be entitled to vote who shall not be twenty-one years of age; and the person or persons who shall have convened such meeting shall record the names of the voters, and (if the meeting proceed to the election of trustees) of the persons for whom

Mode of voting.

Temporal Affairs of Churches.

their votes shall have been given, and shall at the close of the meeting declare the determination of the voters and (if any election shall have taken place) the names of the three persons elected to be trustees by the greatest number of votes, and shall grant to such persons certificates under their hands of such election.

5 In case of the death, incapacity, resignation, or departure of any trustee, or in case any such trustee shall become a lunatic, or otherwise disqualified to act, the remaining trustees shall fix a place and a day for holding an election of a new trustee, and shall give notice thereof in the three successive Government Gazettes published next immediately preceding such day; and the election shall be held by the said trustees according to the forms hereinbefore prescribed for election of trustees.

Vacancy of trustees.

6 No trustee shall be permitted to resign his office until he shall have duly accounted, to the satisfaction of his co-trustees, for all sums of money at any time received by him in his trust.

Trustee resigning to render account.

7 No trustee shall, unless re-elected, continue in office beyond the thirty-first day of December next after his election or appointment. A general meeting shall be held on the first Monday in the month of December in every year, for the election of three new trustees for the year commencing on the first of January next ensuing; and such election shall be held according to the forms hereinbefore prescribed for the election of trustees.

Annual election of trustees.

First Monday in December.

8 If the trustees shall for the period of one month neglect to fix a place and a day for holding an election of a trustee in the room of one who may have vacated his office, then any six of the subscribers or seatholders, as the case may be, may fix the place and day, and give notice of the same in manner hereinbefore appointed; and the election shall be held before the minister or ministers of the church. If no election shall be held within two months from the time above prescribed, it shall be lawful for the minister or ministers, or should the minister or ministers fail to do so, or disagree, for the trustees of the preceding year, to appoint one or more persons as trustees, and every such trustee so appointed shall continue in office until the thirty-first day of December next ensuing.

Proceeding where no meeting is fixed.

9 The minister shall, whenever present at any meeting of the trustees, be ex-officio chairman of such meeting, and if more ministers than one usually officiate at such church, each shall be chairman in turn. When no minister is present the trustees shall elect their own chairman. All matters before the trustees, in cases where they differ, shall be decided by a majority of their votes, each trustee having one vote on each matter or case, and in the event of an equality of votes the chairman shall have the casting vote. Three trustees, or two trustees with the ex-officio chairman, shall form a quorum.

Chairman of trustees.

Temporal Affairs of Churches.

Trustees may make by-laws.

10 The trustees shall have power from time to time to make by-laws (not inconsistent with this Ordinance) for their general guidance, which laws shall be equally binding on their successors until repealed or altered.

Meetings of trustees.

11 The meetings of the trustees shall take place on days agreed to by a majority, for the transaction of ordinary business, and if the meeting be extraordinary or special seven days' notice thereof, and of its object, shall be given in writing to each of the trustees and to the minister, and two trustees may at any time convene a special meeting.

Property vested
in trustees.

12 The real estate and property in the church, and in the minister's dwelling or burial ground attached to the church, and their appurtenances respectively, and in all lands, monies, and chattels belonging thereto, shall be vested in the trustees, for the purposes of their trust.

Trustees to make agreements.

13 The trustees may make and execute and compel the performance and execution of all contracts, agreements, matters, and things, and may commence and maintain all suits necessary to their trust. All contracts and agreements shall and may be entered into and enforced, and all suits be brought by them in the name of the trustees, specifying the name of the church without specifying the trustees; and no suit shall abate by the death or vacancy in the office of any trustee. All suits the cause of which shall accrue to any person from any contract, agreement, or other matter made, executed, done, or performed by the trustees, as such, shall be brought against the trustees under the name and title aforesaid.

Trustees to appoint sittings.

14 The trustees may from time to time set out and apportion the sittings in the church, and fix a rent for such sittings, and make agreements with any person desirous to engage the same.

Subscribers entitled to sittings.

15 Where seats are apportioned, every subscriber to the church bonâ fide resident with twenty miles of the same shall be entitled to engage the number of sittings therein which he may require for the use of himself and family, and the priority of choice amongst the subscribers shall be determined by the trustees.

Trustees to collect monies.

16 The trustees shall collect, or shall cause to be collected, the rents due for sittings, and all subscriptions and donations to the church, and all other revenues arising out of any land or other property belonging to the church, and all fees and payments for vaults and tombstones; and shall appoint, suspend, and remove all officers and servants of the church, and manage the temporalities of the church, and provide the articles necessary for Divine worship therein; and shall fix the salaries or wages of the officers and servants, and shall pay the said salaries or wages, as well as other expenses incident to the church or its property, from the rents and fees and other funds arising out of the property of the church.

Erection of monument, &c.

17 The trustees may, with the previous consent of the ministers, and with their approval of any proposed epitaph or inscription, permit any monument to be erected or placed in a convenient part of the church, or of the enclosed ground round about it, or of the burial ground belonging to it, or may permit vaults to be dug and made in the burial ground, upon payment to the trustees, for such permission, of such charges as the trustees shall appoint, provided that the same shall in no case exceed the charges set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed. Any person erecting or placing any monument in the church or the enclosed ground round about it, or digging or making any vault in the burial ground, by and with the permission aforesaid, shall have a right to maintain and keep up such monument or vault, according to the terms of the permission, to and for the sole and separate use of the said person and his heirs for ever: Provided always that it shall not be lawful to bury any body within the church or within the enclosed ground round about it.

No burial

18 One person, not being a trustee, shall be elected at the general meeting for the election of trustees to be an auditor of the accounts of the trustees for the year succeeding his appointment.

Appointment of auditor.

19 The trustees shall keep a written account of all monies received and paid by them, which account the auditor may inspect at all reasonable times, and the account, together with any report of the auditor thereon, shall be open to the inspection of the seatholders or members of the congregation at all reasonable times.

Trustees to keep account.

20 The trustees may accept and take from private persons, or from the Crown, gifts or grants of land for the site of a minister's dwelling, with a garden and other appurtenances, or for a burial ground, or any lands for the maintenance of the church or of the ministers; and the land so given or granted shall be for ever vested in the trustees, in trust for the purpose for which it is given or granted.

Trustees may accept lands.

22 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be construed to affect the Ordinance No. 13 of 1845, intituled "An Ordinance to regulate the Temporal Affairs of the Presbyterian Church in Kandy, in the Island of Ceylon," but the same shall be of full force, anything in this Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

No. 7 of 1864.*

An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 19 of 1862, intituled "An Ordinance for raising £1,000,000 sterling on Debentures for the construction of a Railway from Colombo to Kandy," and to provide for the formation of a Sinking Fund.

Has had its effect.

No. 12 of 1864.

An Ordinance to provide for the production in Evidence of Copies, instead of Originals, of Public Documents.

Preamble.

WHEREAS much inconvenience is experienced from the practice, which is now common, of summoning public officers to produce in evidence books and documents in their custody: It is enacted as follows:

Copies must be produced in evidence instead of originals.

1 Whenever it shall be necessary for any person to adduce proof in any court of justice, or before any person now or hereafter having, by law or consent of parties, authority to hear, receive, and examine evidence of the contents of any book or document in any public office or in charge of any public officer, he shall only produce a copy or extract therefrom, signed and certified by the officer to whose custody the original is intrusted, and such copy or extract shall be admissible in evidence in such court, or before such person, in place of the original: Provided that it shall be lawful for the judge, or person presiding in such court, or such other person as aforesaid, to require (upon his being satisfied that in any particular cause or inquiry such production is necessary for the ends of justice) that the original of such book or document should be produced in addition to the copy as aforesaid.

Charges for such copies.

2 Public officers to whose custody the originals of such books or documents are intrusted are hereby required to furnish certified copies or extracts therefrom on payment, by the party applying therefor, of a fee of ninepence for every folio of 120 words, or of two shillings for each copy of a title deed plan on tracing cloth, and six shillings for each copy on drawing paper, such fees to be appropriated in such manner as the Governor shall from time to time appoint.

Commencement.

3 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

16th November, 1864.

* The debentures raised under this Ordinance were wholly paid off by 1884.

*Sale of Bread.No. 13 of 1864.*An Ordinance for regulating the Sale of Bread, and preventing its Adulteration.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provisions respecting the sale of bread, and to prevent the adulteration thereof: It is enacted as follows:

Preamble.

1 It shall not be lawful for any baker or vendor of bread to sell any bread, other than French or fancy bread, and rolls, except by weight, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bread to be sold by weight.

2 All bread, except French or fancy bread, and rolls, shall be stamped with figures denoting one or other of the following weights, to wit, $\frac{1}{4}$ lb., $\frac{1}{2}$ lb., 1 lb., 2 lb., and 4 lb., and which said weights shall respectively be of the avoirdupois weight of sixteen ounces to the pound, and the several gradations of the same for any quantity less than a pound; and if any baker or vendor of bread shall sell any bread, except as aforesaid, which shall not weigh so much as the figures stamped thereon indicate, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two pounds for each offence.

Weight to be stamped on bread.

Of the standard weight of this colony.

3 Every baker or vendor of bread shall cause to be fixed in some conspicuous part of his shop a beam and scales with standard weights or other sufficient balance, in order that all bread, except as aforesaid, there sold, may from time to time be weighed in the presence of the purchasers thereof, if they shall so require; and if any baker or vendor of bread shall neglect to fix such beams and scales or other sufficient balance in manner aforesaid, or to provide and keep for use a proper beam and scales and proper weights or balance, or shall use any false weight, or shall not weigh bread sold in his shop when required so to do by a purchaser, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds sterling for each offence.

Means of weighing to be provided.

4 Any baker or other person or persons who shall make bread for sale, or any person in the employ of any such baker or other person, who shall, on any account or under any colour or pretence whatsoever, at any time in the making of bread for sale use any mixture or ingredient whatsoever which shall, after due examination, be adjudged by any magistrate to have the effect of adulterating such bread, or any damaged grain, flour, or meal, shall be liable for the first offence to a fine not exceeding five pounds, and to a fine of ten pounds for every subsequent offence.

Adulteration of bread an offence.

5 If any person shall put into any corn, meal, or flour which shall be offered for sale, either before or at the time of grinding, dressing, bolting, or manufacturing the same, or at any other time, any ingredient or mixture whatsoever, not being the real and genuine produce of the corn or grain; or if any person shall knowingly sell, or offer or expose for sale, either separately or mixed, any meal or flour of one sort of corn or grain as the meal or flour of any other sort of corn or grain, or any ingredient whatsoever mixed with the meal or flour so offered or exposed for sale, then and in every such case every person so offending shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Adulterating corn, meal, or flour, &c., an offence.

Magistrates may search bakers', &c., premises, and seize adulterated flour, &c.

6 It shall be lawful for any justice of the peace within the limit of his jurisdiction, and also for any police or peace officer, or other person authorized by the warrant of any such justice of the peace (and which warrant any such justice is hereby empowered to grant), at reasonable times in the day-time to enter into any house, mill, shop, stall, or other premises of or belonging to any miller, mealman, or baker, or other person who shall grind grain or dress or bolt meal or flour or make bread for reward or sale, or who shall have corn or meal for sale, and to weigh the bread kept there for sale, and to search or examine whether any mixture or ingredient not the genuine produce of the grain such meal or flour shall import or ought to be shall have been mixed with or put into any meal or flour in the possession of such miller, mealman, or baker, whereby the purity of any meal or flour is or shall be in anywise adulterated, or for damaged grain, flour, or meal; and if, on any such search, it shall appear that any bread is not of the weight which it purports to be, or is not stamped as required by this Ordinance, or that any meal, flour, dough; or bread so found shall have been damaged or so adulterated by the person in whose possession it shall then be, or any mixture or ingredients shall be found which shall seem to have been deposited there in order to be used in the adulteration of meal, flour, or bread, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for every such justice, police or peace officer, or other person authorized as aforesaid, within the limits of their respective jurisdictions, to seize and take any meal, flour, or bread which shall be found in any such search and deemed to have been damaged or adulterated, and all ingredients and mixtures which shall be found and deemed to have been used or intended to be used in or for any such adulteration as aforesaid, to the police magistrate having jurisdiction in the district where such seizure took place, and such magistrate is hereby authorized and required to dispose of the same as he in his discretion shall from time to time think proper.

Persons in whose premises ingredients for adulteration found, punishable.

7 Every person in whose house, mill, shop, stall, or premises, any ingredient or mixture shall be found which shall, after due examination, be adjudged by any magistrate to have been deposited there for the purpose of being used in adulterating meal, flour, or bread, or any damaged grain, flour, or meal, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two pounds for the first offence, five pounds for the second offence, and ten pounds for every subsequent offence.

Commencement.

No. 4 of 1865.An Ordinance for the better regulation of the Loan Board.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make a change in the constitution and management of the Loan Board, and to make certain unclaimed balances available for public purposes : It is enacted as follows :

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Loan Board Ordinance, 1865."

Short title.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on a day to be named in the Proclamation notifying the confirmation thereof by Her Majesty.

Commencement.

Loan Board and Officers.

3 It shall be lawful for the Governor, subject to the pleasure of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, from time to time as occasion may require, to appoint three or more fit and proper persons to be the commissioners of the Loan Board, and to nominate one of them to be the Chief Commissioner ; and they shall hold office during pleasure, and exercise the duties and powers hereby conferred on them.

Governor to appoint commissioners of Loan Board.

4 It shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time to appoint such secretary, clerks, and other ministerial officers as to him may appear necessary, to assist the commissioners in the execution of the duties and powers hereby conferred on them.

Governor to appoint secretary, clerks, &c.

5 The Treasurer of the colony shall be the treasurer of the Loan Board, provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Treasurer being appointed a commissioner in addition.

Treasurer.

6 The Governor may from time to time, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, direct to be paid out of the funds of the Colonial Treasury, to such commissioners, secretary, clerks, and officers as aforesaid, such salaries or remuneration as to him shall appear reasonable.

Salaries.

Loan Board.Meetings of Loan Board.

Meetings when to be held.

7 Meetings of the commissioners shall be held for the despatch of business upon such day and days in every month as shall be fixed by any general rule made by such commissioners as hereinafter provided: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Chief Commissioner, at his own instance, or when requested thereto by any other commissioner, to convene a special meeting of the board, and two days' notice of the day appointed by him for the same shall be given by the secretary to each commissioner.

Proviso.

Chairman.

8 The Chief Commissioner shall be the chairman of such meeting. In his absence it shall be competent to the commissioners to elect one of their own body.

Majority to decide.

9 All acts whatsoever authorized or required by virtue of this Ordinance to be done by the Loan Board may and shall be done and decided by the majority of the commissioners, such number not being less than two. When the votes of the commissioners present in regard to any question shall be equally divided, the chairman, besides his vote as a commissioner, shall have a casting vote.

Quorum.

Casting vote.

Rules and Regulations.

10 It shall be lawful for the commissioners to make such rules and regulations as they may deem expedient for any of the following purposes:

- (1) For regulating the meetings and proceedings of the commissioners.
- (2) For determining the securities upon which loans are to be made, and the charges payable by borrowers.
- (3) For determining the rates of interest on loans and deposits.
- (4) For determining the distribution of interest realized upon the loans.
- (5) For regulating the books and forms of accounts to be kept and rendered.
- (6) For providing for every other matter not herein specially provided for, but necessary for the due regulation of the board and the funds thereof.

Proviso.

Provided that such rules and regulations be not repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Ordinance, and that copies thereof with all convenient speed be transmitted to the Governor, for the approval, amendment, or disallowance thereof by the Governor and Executive Council; and the said rules so approved or amended shall thereupon become as legal, valid, and effectual as if the same had been inserted herein.

General Provisions.

Control of Loan Board, &c., to be vested in commissioners.

11 As soon as commissioners have been appointed for the purposes of this Ordinance, the management of the Loan Board and all control and superintendence over or regarding the investment, management, and administration of any of the funds heretofore and now administered by the Loan Board (to wit, the funds administered in the time of the Dutch Government by the Weeskamer and Boedelkamer, the funds formed of the deposits made by the suitors of the Supreme Court of Judicature, the funds formed of the deposits made by suitors in the different district courts in this island, or by or on account of trustees, tutors, curators, guardians, executors, administrators, receivers, minors, insane or interdicted persons, deceased persons, insolvents' and trust estates, and all funds of whatever description which have come to the custody of the Loan Board, or are at present administered by it) shall be vested in and be exercised by the said commissioners subject to the limitations herein prescribed, and the Judges of the Supreme Court shall be relieved from any share in the general superintendence and control over the said board, and from the necessity of affixing their signatures to the accounts and other documents thereof: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit or affect the jurisdiction of the said Supreme Court in any question that may come before it for judgment in due course of law, affecting the title to or the recovery of any money or estate, or part of such funds as aforesaid, or affecting the application thereof to the use of any suitor or other person thereto entitled.

Loan Board.

Proviso.

12 All monies and estate forming at present the funds hereinbefore mentioned, and which are invested by or in the name of the registrar of the Supreme Court, or lying in deposit subject to the disposal of the Loan Board, or which are vested in, due to, or in any way within the power or under the control of either of them, shall be deemed to be vested in the said commissioners of the Loan Board hereunder appointed in trust for the use of the persons who shall be entitled to the same, and for the uses, ends, and purposes further in this Ordinance provided and declared.

Commissioners to be trustees.

13 It shall be lawful for the said commissioners from time to time to lend out at interest all such monies hereby vested in them as trustees as aforesaid, or which may have been or may hereafter be transmitted by or from or on account of the several courts and judges of this island to the Public Treasury, subject to such rules and regulations regarding investment, security, change of securities, interest, conditions, and administration, as they may from time to time make as herein provided.

Commissioners to invest suitors' fund, subject to certain rules.

14 The commissioners hereby appointed shall be entitled to sue upon all bonds, obligations, mortgages, and securities, and all contracts whatever heretofore granted to or made by the Loan Board or the registrar of the Supreme Court on behalf of the Loan Board, and to recover the same and to appear in all suits or proceedings already commenced or taken in which the Loan Board or the said registrar is interested, for and on behalf of the Loan Board; and all bonds, obligations, mortgages, and all contracts whatsoever to, by, or Commissioners to sue and be sued.

Loan Board.

with the commissioners hereunder appointed, and all suits and actions by or against the said commissioners, shall be made to, by, or with them, and shall be instituted by or against them, under the name of "The Commissioners of the Loan Board," without specifying the names of the individual commissioners or any of them; and no action shall abate by reason of the death, removal, resignation, incapacity, or going out of office of any of them; and the service of all process in any suit or action against the said commissioners shall be made on the secretary.

Parate execution.

15 It shall be lawful for the commissioners of the Loan Board to sue out from any court having jurisdiction over the person or effects of any person who now owes or may hereafter owe money to the Loan Board, and who shall not repay the principal amount at the period by his obligation stipulated, in one month after demand made in writing by or in the name of the said commissioners, or shall make default in the payment of the stipulated interest, due on the same for more than one month, process of parate execution against the body and effects of such person; and every such court is hereby authorized and directed on the application of the said commissioners, verified by affidavit of any commissioner swearing to the existence of the obligation and default, forthwith, and without further notice or delay, to issue such process.

Payment of one-third of interest to Government.

16 The payments which have heretofore been made to the Government of Ceylon, of one-third of all interest accruing from the investments made by the Loan Board, for the purpose of contributing towards the expenses of the establishment of the Board, shall be continued to be made by the commissioners appointed in pursuance of the provisions of this Ordinance.

Agents to transmit monies to the Treasurer.

17 At the end of every month the government agent of each province in the island shall transmit to the Treasury at Colombo the balance, if any, which at the end of every such month shall be in his hands to the credit of each and every district court within his province, or if such balance be in favour of such government agent in account with any of the district courts within his province, he shall then draw upon the said Treasury for the amount of such balance; and all suitors and other persons entitled to the monies so transmitted to the Treasury shall be entitled to the same advantages and interest, subject to the same conditions as the monies now under the administration of the Loan Board are entitled and subject to, or to which they shall become entitled and subject by any rules and regulations to be made as herein provided.

Disposal of monies long unclaimed.

18 Whereas certain monies heretofore administered by the Loan Board have been in deposit for very long periods of time, and no claims have been preferred to them, and the retention of them in the books and accounts of the Board is productive of much inconvenience, it is enacted as follows :

Loan Board.

(1) If any money now or which may hereafter come under the administration of the Loan Board shall have been in deposit to the credit of any person or estate, and shall not have been claimed by any person having a just and lawful right thereto, for the period of one-third of a century from the date of such deposit, or having been claimed such claim shall have been abandoned, withdrawn, or not prosecuted within one year from the date of claim, or if such claim has been set aside, then and in every such case every account with such person or estate shall be closed, and all such money shall, owing to the lapse of such period, become the property of the Crown, and shall be paid over by the commissioners of the Loan Board to the Treasurer, to be carried to the account of the public revenue, but to be appropriated for such purposes cognate to or connected with the administration of justice as the Governor and Executive Council shall from time to time determine.

If unclaimed for more than a third part of a century, money forfeited to the Crown.

(2) If any money now or which may hereafter come under the administration of the Loan Board shall have been in deposit for any period less than one-third of a century to the credit of any person or estate, and shall not have been claimed by any person having just and lawful right thereto for ten years and upwards, or having been claimed such claim shall have been abandoned, withdrawn, or not prosecuted within one year from the date of claim, or if such claim has been set aside, then and in every such case (after the expiration of ten years and upwards aforesaid) every account with such person or estate shall be closed; and all such money shall, owing to the lapse of time, be paid over by the commissioners of the Loan Board to the Treasurer, to be carried to the account of the public revenue, but to be appropriated for such purposes cognate to or connected with the administration of justice as the Governor and Executive Council shall from time to time determine: Provided, however, that if any person shall within one-third of a century from the date of such deposit establish a claim to any portion of the said last-mentioned monies to the satisfaction of a competent court of justice, such claim, as well the principal money as the interest due thereon, shall be paid by the Government out of the general revenue, which is hereby declared liable to meet all such claims.

If unclaimed for more than ten years and upwards, but less than a third part of a century, monies to be paid to the general revenue, which is made liable for the payment of such claims.

19 No person entitled to receive interest on any money in deposit in the Loan Board shall be entitled to receive as interest a larger amount than the principal, in case, at the time of payment, the interest unpaid and in arrear shall exceed the principal.

Interest never to exceed principal.

Duties of Masters Attendant, &c.

Nothing herein to affect liability of board to account to courts or to execute its orders.

20 Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to affect the liability of the Loan Board to account to the different courts for the monies placed in deposit by the orders of such courts, or to conform to and comply with such orders as it has heretofore done.

18th October, 1865.

No. 6 of 1865.

An Ordinance to declare the Duties of Masters Attendant, and to provide for the better preservation of the Ports of the Island, and for the better regulation of the Shipping therein.

(See No. 6 of 1880.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to declare the duties in certain respects of masters attendant, and to provide for the better preservation of the ports of the island, and for the better regulation of the shipping therein: It is enacted as follows:

Preliminary.

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Masters Attendant's Ordinance, 1865."

Commencement.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

Interpretation.

3 The following words and expressions in this Ordinance shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction:

The expression "master attendant" shall include his deputies and assistants.

The word "port" shall include all harbours, roadsteads, and places of anchorage in the island.

The word "vessel" shall include anything made for the conveyance by water of human beings or of property.

The word "master," when used in relation to any vessel, shall mean and include any person having for the time being the charge or command or control of such vessel.

The word "boat" shall include canoes and cattamarans.

Ordinances repealed.

4 The Ordinance No. 2 of 1847, entitled "An Ordinance to declare the duties in certain respects of the Masters Attendant of the Ports of Colombo, Galle, and Trincomalee, and to provide in certain respects for the better preservation of the said Ports, and for the better regulation of the Shipping therein," and the Ordinance No. 10 of 1853, entitled "To provide for the registration and licensing of Passenger Boats at Point de Galle," are hereby repealed; except as to liabilities which shall have been incurred, acts which shall have been done, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place before this Ordinance comes into operation.

Duties of Masters Attendant, &c.

5 The Governor may from time to time, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, declare by Proclamation the ports which are to be brought within the operation of this Ordinance, and may define the limits of such ports respectively.

Governor to declare ports to be brought under the Ordinance, and to define their limits.

6 The Governor may from time to time, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, frame and establish such port rules, not inconsistent with this Ordinance, as he may think necessary for any of the following purposes; namely :

Port rules.

- (1) For regulating the time at which, and the manner in which, vessels shall enter into or go out of any port subject to this Ordinance.
- (2) For regulating the berths and stations to be occupied by vessels in any such port.
- (3) For striking the yards and topmasts, and for rigging in the jib and driver booms, of vessels in any such port, whenever it may be proper so to do.
- (4) For the removal or proper hanging or placing of anchors, spars, and other things in or attached to vessels in any such port.
- (5) For regulating vessels whilst taking in or discharging ballast or cargo, or any particular kind of cargo, in any such port, and the stations to be occupied by vessels whilst so engaged.
- (6) For keeping free passages of such width as may be deemed necessary within any such port, and along or near to the piers, jetties, landing places, wharfs, quays, docks, moorings, and other works in or adjoining to the same, and for marking out the spaces so to be kept free.
- (7) For regulating the anchoring, fastening, mooring, and unmooring of vessels in any such port.
- (8) For regulating the mooring and warping of all vessels within any such port, and the use of warps therein.
- (9) For regulating the use of the mooring buoys, chain, and other moorings in any such port.
- (10) For fixing from time to time the charges to be made for boat hire which may be demanded by boats licensed to convey goods and passengers in the said ports; the rates and charges of pilotage on vessels into and out of any of the said ports, from or to a distance of one league out at sea; or for removing or re-mooring any vessel, and the rates to be paid for the use of Government moorings, whenever the same shall be available, and the charges for work connected with mooring of the said vessels.
- (11) For regulating boats plying for hire in any such port.
- (12) For regulating the use of fires and lights within any such port.

Duties of Masters Attendant, &c.

- (13) For regulating and enforcing the use of signals by vessels at night in any such port.
- (14) For regulating all other matters necessary to provide in every respect for the preservation of the ports and the better regulation of the shipping therein, and not specially provided for by this Ordinance.

Proviso.

Provided that such port rules shall be promulgated by Proclamation in the Government Gazette at least one month before the same shall take effect, and a copy and translations thereof in the vernacular languages of the district shall be fixed in some conspicuous place in the office of the master attendant of every port to which such order shall relate, and in the custom house, if any, of every such port.

Masters Attendant.

Master attendant may give directions for certain specific purposes.

7 The master attendant of any port subject to this Ordinance may, in respect of any vessel within such port, give directions for carrying into effect any port rule in force within such port.

Penalties for disobedience to orders of master attendant.

8 If any person shall wilfully, and without lawful excuse refuse or neglect to obey any lawful direction of the master attendant after notice thereof shall have been given to him, such person shall for every such offence be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds, and a further sum not exceeding five pounds for every day on which he shall wilfully continue to disobey such direction; and in case of such refusal or neglect it shall be lawful for the master attendant to do, or to cause to be done, all such acts as shall be reasonable or necessary for the purpose of carrying such direction into execution, and to hire and employ proper persons for that purpose; and all reasonable expenses which shall be incurred in doing such acts shall be paid and borne by the persons so offending. Any written notice of a direction given under this Ordinance, which shall be left for the master of any vessel with any person employed on board thereof, or which shall be affixed on a conspicuous place on board of such vessel, shall for the purposes of this Ordinance be deemed to have been given to the master thereof.

Master attendant to appoint place for anchorage.

9 Whenever any vessel shall arrive within any port of this island brought within the operation of this Ordinance, the master attendant of such port is hereby authorized and required to appoint the place where the same shall cast anchor, and to direct the master or person in charge of such vessel to anchor it at such place, or himself to cause it to be anchored there; and he shall at all times have full power and authority to board any such vessel, and to remove or cause the removal of the same from one place of mooring or anchorage to another, when he shall consider such removal expedient; and as often as the master or person in charge of any such vessel shall be desirous of moving the same from one place of mooring or anchorage to another, such master or person in charge is hereby required to notify to the master attendant such his desire, and the master attendant shall, unless he see good and sufficient reason to the contrary, authorize the removal thereof by such master or person in charge, or shall himself remove it or cause its removal; and whenever the master attendant shall consider it necessary for any of the purposes of this Ordinance to go on board of any such vessel, he shall be entitled to demand and receive a reasonable amount for boat hire. If any master or person in charge of any such vessel or any other person shall neglect or disobey any lawful direction of the master attendant, or shall offer any resistance or impediment to him or to any person acting under his orders, in the execution of any duty or authority herein imposed upon or vested in him, or shall change the mooring or anchoring of any such vessel without the authority of the master attendant, every such master or person shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to any fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty on disobedience to or obstruction of lawful orders of masters attendant.

10 The master attendant may, whenever he shall suspect that any offence has been or is about to be committed in any vessel contrary to this Ordinance, or whenever it is necessary for him so to do in the discharge of any duty imposed upon him by this Ordinance, go on board any vessel within the limits of any port. If the master or other person in charge of such vessel shall, without lawful excuse refuse to allow any master attendant or any of his deputies or assistants to enter such vessel for the performance of any duty imposed upon him by this Ordinance, he shall for every such offence be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Master attendant may go on board any vessel in discharge of his duty.

11 The master attendant shall render assistance to vessels in distress within sight of the port by every means in his power.

Master attendant to give assistance to ships in distress.

12 Whenever the passage of boats to or from any vessels at anchor in any port shall become dangerous, the master attendant shall hoist a white flag with a red ball in the centre in some conspicuous place, and shall keep the same so hoisted as long as such danger shall continue; and if any master or person in charge of a vessel or other person shall, after such signal shall have been made, prevent any boat which may be alongside of any vessel from returning ashore, every such master or person shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds; and the remuneration to be made in respect of any boat returning under such circumstances shall be determined by the master attendant, and shall not thereafter be questioned.

Flag to be hoisted when passage to or from ships dangerous.

13 The master attendant may remove or cause to be removed any timber or raft floating or being in any part of any such port which shall impede the free navigation of such port; or anything which shall obstruct or impede the lawful use of any pier, jetty, landing place, wharf, quay, dock, mooring or other work, or any part of the shore or bank which has been declared to be within the limits of such port,

Any floating timber, &c., or obstruction on shore to be removed at expense of owner.

Duties of Masters Attendant, &c.

and which is not private property ; and the owner of any such timber or raft, or other thing, shall be liable to pay the reasonable expenses of such removal.

Penalties for causing obstruction or public nuisance.

14 If any person shall, without lawful excuse, cause any obstruction or impediment to the navigation of any port subject to this Ordinance, or shall cause any public nuisance affecting or likely to affect such navigation, every such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, and also to pay all reasonable expenses which shall be incurred in abating or removing such nuisance, obstruction, or impediment, and the master attendant of the port may cause such nuisance, obstruction, or impediment to be abated and removed.

Master attendant may raise any wreck impeding navigation.

15 If any vessel shall be wrecked, stranded, or sunk in any such port, so as to impede or to be likely to impede the navigation thereof, the master attendant may cause the same to be raised, removed, or destroyed ; and unless the expense of such work shall be repaid within one month after the completion thereof, he shall recover the same in the manner provided by the 16th section of this Ordinance.

Expenses of removal.

16 If the master attendant shall incur any expense in causing any obstruction, impediment, wreck, or nuisance to be removed, and such expense be not paid within one week after the same shall have been notified in the Gazette, or in such other manner as the Governor by any general or special order may direct, such expense certified to by the master attendant, and reported to the police court of the district, may be recovered in the same manner as any fine imposed by that court. The master attendant may, in addition to or exclusive of such remedy, cause such timber, raft, or other thing, or the materials of any nuisance or obstruction so removed, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold by public auction, and may retain all the expenses of such removal and sale out of the proceeds of such sale, and shall pay the surplus of such proceeds or deliver so much of the timber and other materials as shall remain unsold to the owner or other person entitled to receive the same, and if no such person appear shall cause the same to be kept and deposited in such manner as the Governor may direct, and may, if necessary, from time to time realize the expenses of keeping the same, together with the expenses of such sale, by a further sale of so much of the said timber or other materials as may remain unsold.

Pilots.

Governor may require pilotage of vessels.

17 It shall be lawful for the Governor, by Proclamation from time to time to direct that it shall be unlawful to bring to or remove from any port vessels of a certain burthen without having a pilot on board, unless authority in writing so to do has been obtained from the master attendant or some officer empowered by such master attendant to give such authority ; and if any vessel shall be brought to or removed from any port contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, the master of such vessel shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds for every such offence.

18 It shall be lawful for the Governor to grant licenses to persons duly qualified to act as pilots for any of the said ports, and every license so granted shall contain the name, age, stature, complexion, and place of abode of every such pilot, and shall further certify for what port he is duly qualified to act as pilot, and shall be on a stamp of two pounds, to be paid by the pilot. The Governor may at any time recall any such license. And all such pilots shall be under the control and subject to the orders of the master attendant of the port for which he may be licensed.

Governor may grant licenses to pilots ; and recall them.

19 No pilot shall be in anywise bound to conduct any vessel to sea, neither shall any vessel proceed to sea, until the full amount of the outward pilotage of such vessel, and the charges due by such vessel to the master attendant's department, shall be first paid or secured to be paid to the satisfaction of such pilot and master attendant.

Amount of outward pilotage to be paid in advance.

20 Every pilot in charge of any vessel in, or entering, or proceeding from any port, who shall remain on board any such vessel for a period exceeding forty-eight hours, either on account of stress of weather or under quarantine, shall be entitled to demand and receive over and above the amount of pilotage charged under the regulations hereinbefore mentioned, the sum of eight shillings for each and every day he shall so remain on board such vessel.

Pilot in certain cases to demand payment over and above the amount of pilotage.

21 Every pilot licensed by virtue of this Ordinance who shall refuse, neglect, or delay to take charge of any vessel when required to do so by the master attendant, unless upon good and sufficient cause to justify such refusal, neglect, or delay, and every such licensed pilot, and every person lawfully acting as a pilot in the absence of a licensed pilot under the provisions of this Ordinance, who shall quit any such vessel, or decline the piloting thereof after he has been engaged, or before the service shall have been performed for which he was hired, or shall by drunkenness render himself incapable of conducting any vessel, or do any injury to the same, or to the tackle or furniture thereof, and every such licensed pilot who shall lend his license to any unlicensed person to assist him in acting or claiming to act as a licensed pilot, and every unlicensed person borrowing or making use of any such license for such purpose, shall, in addition to his civil liability, be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty on pilot for misconduct.

22 It shall be lawful for any licensed pilot within the limits of his license to supersede in the charge of any vessel any person not licensed to act as a pilot, or not licensed so to act within such limits, and every person assuming or continuing in the charge or conduct of any vessel without being a duly licensed pilot, or without being duly licensed to act as a pilot within the limits in which such vessel shall actually be after any pilot duly licensed to act in this premises shall have offered to take charge of such vessel, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds: Provided always that, notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance contained, any person whatsoever shall and may lawfully, and without being subject to any penalty by this Ordinance imposed, assume or continue in the charge or conduct of any vessel as a pilot where and so long as a pilot duly licensed shall not have offered to take charge of such vessel or made a signal for that purpose, or where and so long as such vessel shall be in distress, or under circumstances which shall have rendered it necessary for the master or person in charge of such vessel to avail himself of the best assistance which at the time could be procured.

Licensed Boats.

Passenger and cargo boats to be licensed.

23 No boat of any kind shall be used for the conveyance for hire of passengers, or for landing or shipping any cargo or goods, and no person shall act as tindal thereof, unless such boat and tindal shall be licensed for that purpose, by license under the hand of the master attendant of the port, such license to be issued and recalled or taken away in case of any misconduct by the owner, tindal, or any of the boatmen thereof, at the discretion of such master attendant, or (in the case of cargo boats and their tindals) of the collector of customs; and such license shall be in force for such period as may be expressed therein, unless previous to the expiration thereof the same shall be recalled or taken away as aforesaid, and shall specify the burthen and description of the boat and (if a passenger boat) the number of passengers that may be conveyed therein at one time, the name of the owner and the tindal thereof, and the number of boatmen to be employed in the same, and all licenses shall be registered in the offices of the master attendant at each port respectively; and such license shall be on a stamp of six shillings, to be paid by the owner of the boat and tindal respectively: Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for vessels in landing or shipping passengers or cargo or goods, to make use of their own boats: Provided further, that where a master attendant refuses granting a license to any person applying for the same or recalls the license after it is issued, he shall with all convenient dispatch report such refusal or recalling to the Governor, by whom the same shall and may be confirmed or reversed.

Penalty on tindals and boatmen of licensed boats
for misconduct.

24 All owners of boats, tindals, and boatmen of licensed boats shall obey the orders of the master attendant of the port, and no licensed boat shall be absent from the port without his leave; and if the owner, tindal, or principal person of any licensed boat shall not so obey the said orders or shall suffer his licensed boat to be absent from the port without leave as aforesaid, or if he, on any verbal or written notice being given to him by the master attendant of the port or any officer of his department ordering such boat to proceed on board any vessel, shall refuse or neglect to comply with such order, not being manifestly prevented therefrom by stress of weather, or if he shall, when so required to proceed, have fewer seamen on board his boat than the number specified in his license, unless by permission of the master attendant, who may in such case at his discretion order a proportionate reduction of the charges payable for the hire of such boat, such owner, tindal, or principal person shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to any fine not exceeding ten pounds.

25 If any passengers or goods be landed from or shipped to any vessel in any of the said ports in any boats except in boats licensed as above mentioned, or in boats belonging to such vessel, or after the expiration of the period mentioned in such license, or after the same has been recalled, or contrary to the terms thereof, the owner, tindal, or person in charge of such boat shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding two pounds, and the said goods and the unlicensed boat in which they may have been landed or shipped shall be forfeited, and shall be dealt with in the same manner as goods declared to be forfeited or liable to forfeiture by the laws for the time being in force relating to the customs.

Penalty on employment of unlicensed boats.

26 In landing the cargoes of vessels, each separate boat load shall be accompanied by a note, addressed to the collector of customs, specifying the number and description of the packages and the marks and numbers affixed thereon, or, if in bulk, the quantity, as far as can be ascertained, of the goods so sent : Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by general or special directions to be by him for that purpose given to the collector of customs of any port, to allow any vessels or class of vessels to give boat notes in any simpler form, if it be found inexpedient to require of them the fuller form above prescribed. In default of giving a note as required by this Ordinance, or by the directions of the Governor as aforesaid, the master or supercargo shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

Where specification of description, &c., of packages necessary.

27 The owner of every boat shall paint or cause to be painted, and shall keep painted in white or yellow, in English figures not less than twelve inches in length on a black ground on a conspicuous part on both sides of the bow of such boat, in a legible and distinct manner, the number of such boat as mentioned in the license ; and the license of such boat may be withheld until it is so marked.

Number of boat to be painted thereon.

28 Every licensed boat shall be kept well and completely dunnaged and seaworthy, and the master attendant shall, as often as he may think necessary, require the owners of licensed boats or any one or more of them to expose them in some convenient place for his inspection, and in case any owner shall neglect or refuse so to expose any boat belonging to him, and in case on any boat being so exposed the master attendant shall deem it unseaworthy, it shall be lawful for the master attendant to recall the license.

Duties of Masters Attendant, &c.

Owners of licensed boats to keep two boats always ready for service in the night time.

29 The owners of licensed boats shall keep and provide for service during the night, that is to say, from six o'clock in the afternoon until six o'clock in the morning, two full-sized boats with their proper crews, according to a course of rotation to be specified by the master attendant on the first day of every current month, and to be notified in writing on some conspicuous part of his office, as regards the particular nights for the attendance of particular boats; and every owner of such boat who shall fail to provide his boat properly manned, and in all respects fit for service, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to any fine not exceeding five pounds.

Masters of Vessels.

Penalty on throwing ballast, &c., overboard.

30 If any master or other person shall throw overboard from any vessel any stones or ballast or rubbish, or any other thing whatever likely to form a bank or shoal or to be detrimental to navigation within any of the said ports, except in such places as may be appointed for the purpose by the master attendant, and if any stones or ballast landed from any vessel on any wharf, quay, or other landing place in any of the said ports or in any place prohibited by public notice in writing signed by the collector and master attendant of the port, be not removed, within twenty-four hours after the same shall have been landed, to the depositories appointed by the collector of customs and master attendant of the port, the master or other persons so throwing overboard or landing such stones or ballast shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds over and above any expenses which may be incurred in removing the same, and which expenses shall be recovered in manner provided by the 16th section.

Ship losing anchor to give notice to master attendant.

31 Whenever any vessel shall have lost any anchor or cable in any of the said ports, the master or person in charge thereof shall immediately give notice of such loss to the master attendant, together with the bearings of such anchor or cable, and a description of any marks on them by which they could be recognized when discovered: Provided always that it shall at all times be lawful for such master or person in charge to sweep for, and fish up, and recover such anchor or cable at his own expense.

When share of value of lost anchor to be paid to master attendant or other person recovering it

32 If any master or person in charge of a vessel in any of the said ports shall request the master attendant to recover any anchor or cable which he shall have lost at any place therein, or if information shall be given to the master attendant that any anchor or cable has been found in any of the said ports, or is known or reported to have been lost from any vessel therein, the master attendant shall use his best endeavours to recover such anchor or cable, and shall be entitled upon recovering the same to one-third of the value thereof; and if the master attendant shall at any time refuse or neglect for the period of one calendar month after such request being made or such information being given to use such endeavours as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any other person or persons, at his or their own expense, to sweep for, and fish up, and recover such anchor or cable, and such person or persons shall in like manner be entitled to one-third of the value of any anchor or cable so recovered by him or them: Provided always that if any difference of opinion shall arise between the master attendant and the master or person in charge of any such vessel, or his agents, as to the value of any such anchor or cable, the point shall be referred to the collector of customs, and his decision shall be conclusive; and if any such difference shall arise between the master or person in charge of any ship or vessel, or his agents, and any other party or parties recovering such anchor or cable, the same shall be referred to the master attendant, whose decision shall be conclusive.

Proviso.

33 All anchors and cables which shall be recovered within any of the ports and by any person other than the person in charge of the vessel from which they are known to have been lost, shall be landed at the wharf or place appointed for that purpose; and if the same shall not be claimed within the period of twelve months they shall become the property of Her Majesty, and shall be sold by public auction. Two-thirds from the proceeds shall go to the party or parties who recovered the said anchor and cable, and one-third to Her Majesty.

Anchor not owned within twelve months to become the property of Her Majesty.

34 If any master or person in charge of a vessel or any pilot or other person shall in any case fail or neglect to observe any lawful directions of the master attendant, or to do anything required of him by this Ordinance or by any port rule to be made under the authority of the sixth clause, or shall do or omit to do anything contrary to the true and plain meaning of this Ordinance, or of any such port rule, or if any master or person in charge of any vessel or any other person shall interfere with any master attendant, or any of his deputies or officers, or any person acting under his authority, in the execution of his duty in regard to such vessel, so as to resist or impede him or them in the proper performance thereof, every such master or person in charge of a vessel, or other person, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty on master of vessel or pilot or other person offending against this Ordinance.

35 The officer of Government whose duty it shall be to grant a port clearance for any vessel shall not grant such port clearance until the owner, agent, or master of that vessel, or some other person, shall have paid all port dues, fees, and charges to which such vessel, or the owner or master of such vessel in respect thereof, shall be liable under this or any other Ordinance.

Vessels not to obtain clearance until all charges are paid.

36 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall extend to any vessel belonging to or in the service of Her Majesty, or to any vessel of war belonging to any foreign prince or state, nor affect any law relative to the customs, nor any order or direction which shall have been lawfully made or given in pursuance of the provisions of any such law.

Ordinance not to extend to Government vessels or ships of war.

Legal Age of Majority.Miscellaneous.Special Rule.

Removing stones,
&c., or injuring shores, prohibited.

39 In every port subject to this Ordinance, to which the provisions of this section shall be extended by an order of the Governor, no person, without the permission of the master attendant, shall remove or carry away any rock, stones, shingle, gravel, sand, or soil, or any artificial protection from any part of the bank or shore of such port; and no person shall sink, bury, or drive, in any part of such bank or shore, whether the same be public or private property, any mooring post, anchor, or any other thing which is likely to injure, or to be used so as to injure such bank or shoal, except with the permission of the said master attendant, and with the aid or under the inspection of such person or persons (if any) as he may appoint to take part in or overlook the performance of such work. If any person shall offend against the provisions of this section, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for every such offence, and to pay the expenses of repairing the injury (if any) done to such bank or shore, such expenses being recoverable in the manner provided by the 16th section.

Offences against this Ordinance. and debts due thereunder, to be respectively punishable and recoverable in police courts and

40 All offences against this Ordinance shall and they are hereby declared to be fully cognizable and punishable by police courts, and all sums becoming due by reason of any of the provisions thereof shall and they are hereby declared to be recoverable before courts of requests, though such offences and sums should exceed the ordinary jurisdiction of those courts.

18th October, 1865.

No. 7 of 1865.Ordinance for making the Age of Twenty-one Years the Legal Age of Majority in this Colony.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the same period of majority should be fixed for all persons whatever: It is enacted as follows:

Twenty-one years made the legal age of majority.

1 From and after the passing of this Ordinance all persons when they shall attain or who have already attained the full age of twenty-one years shall be deemed to have attained the legal age of majority, and, except as is hereinafter excepted, no person shall be deemed to have attained his majority at an earlier period, any law or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Attainment of majority by operation of law not affected.

2 Nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to prevent any person under the age of twenty-one years from attaining his majority at an earlier period by operation of law.

18th October, 1865.

Marriage Law Amendment.

No. 8 of 1865.

An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 13 of 1863.

(See No. 6 of 1847 and No. 13 of 1863.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Ordinance No. 13 of 1863, entitled "An Ordinance to amend in certain respects the Law of Marriage in this Island, and to provide for the due registration thereof:" It is enacted as follows :

Preamble.

1 Where the population in any district is so scattered that it is difficult to procure the declaration of at least twenty householders as required by the 5th section of the said Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the registrar to issue his certificate upon a declaration signed by the proprietor or trustee and as many of the householders as reside within a convenient distance from the building used as a place of public Christian worship, and upon such other evidence as the registrar may require to satisfy him that the building is bonâ fide a place of public worship.

When the declaration of twenty householders may be dispensed with.

2 It shall be lawful for the registrar to issue on unstamped paper certificates under the 5th and 6th sections of the said Ordinance, in respect of any place of worship in which marriages were habitually solemnized before the date of the said Ordinance, or of any place of worship used as a substitution of or for any disused place of worship in which marriages had been habitually solemnized before such date as aforesaid.

When stamp duty on certificates of registry may be dispensed with.

3 In districts where it is contrary to the habits and feelings of any class of people to require their females to appear in public before wedlock, it shall be lawful for the Governor, by general or special directions to be by him in that behalf given, to empower and require the registrar of any such district to solemnize marriages where the bride belongs to such class at any hour or hours or at any place which the parties may prefer, anything in the 15th section of the said Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Governor may, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, prescribe a higher fee for such marriages than where the same are solemnized at the office of the registrar: Provided, however, that in every other respect the requirements of the said Ordinance and the rules therein prescribed shall be fully complied with.

When marriages may be celebrated at other places and times than those prescribed by the Ordinance.

Proviso.

4 Any minister competent to solemnize marriages may solemnize them without the preliminaries required by the said Ordinance between persons of whom one is supposed to be on the point of death, subject, however, to the following conditions :

Death-bed marriages.

- (1) The minister solemnizing the marriage shall be subject to the penalty prescribed by the 25th section of the said Ordinance, and such marriage shall have no legal effect whatever unless such minister shall,

Minister to report such marriage.

Marriage Law Amendment.

within forty-eight hours of the solemnization thereof, forward to the nearest registrar a report of the marriage in the form and comprising the particulars set forth in the schedule D to the said Ordinance annexed, or to a like effect, which statement shall be signed by the minister and another credible person not being a party to the marriage, and a certificate by such minister and credible person to the effect that one of the parties, who shall be named in the said certificate, was supposed to be in a dying state at the time of the solemnization.

Limited effect of such marriage.

- (2) Such marriage shall have no legal effect except that of preventing the re-marriage of either of the said parties with any other person until the same shall be acknowledged by the parties before the registrar in the manner herein prescribed: Provided that it shall be necessary for the parties, prior to such acknowledgment, to give such notice or obtain such license as is by the said Ordinance made necessary to authorize its solemnization, and the said notice and license shall be subject to such caveat or other proceeding by way of prohibition as would be legally sufficient to prevent it. The registrar is hereby authorized and required to enter the marriage so acknowledged into the marriage register book in substantially the form prescribed by the 19th section of the said Ordinance; and such marriage so acknowledged shall be good and valid to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Proviso.

Penalty for fraud.

- (3) Any person who shall wilfully give a false statement or certificate, or who shall fraudulently procure a marriage to be solemnized under the provisions of the 4th section of this Ordinance, or who shall fraudulently act in contravention thereof or contrary to its plain intent and meaning, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, or to imprisonment with or without hard labour not exceeding three years.

When registrar may grant licenses.

- (4) It shall be lawful for the registrar, on the special application of the parties, supported by the affidavit of two credible persons, that either of such parties is very ill and unable to leave his abode, to license the solemnization of a marriage or the acceptance of the acknowledgment at any place other than a registered place of worship or registrar's office.

What ministers may solemnize marriages.

5 On the delivery of the certificate under the 9th section of the Ordinance No. 13 of 1863 to the minister of any registered place of worship, it shall be lawful for such or any other minister to solemnize a marriage in such building between the parties named in such certificate, anything in the 14th section of the Ordinance No. 13 of 1863 to the contrary notwithstanding.

Contracts for Hire and Service.

6 The 21st section of the said Ordinance No. 13 of 1863 is repealed, and it is enacted instead thereof, that if both the parties to any marriage shall knowingly and wilfully intermarry under the provisions of this Ordinance in any place other than the office of the registrar or registered place of worship (except when specially licensed thereto under the provisions of this Ordinance), or under a false name or names, or without certificate of notice duly issued, or shall knowingly and wilfully consent to acquiesce in the solemnization of a marriage by a person not being a minister or registrar for the district, the marriage of such persons shall be null and void.

Clandestine marriages void.

7 The registration books and forms shall be furnished by the Government on the application of the ministers of places of worship and of registrars free of charge.

Registration books and forms to be furnished free of charge.

8 This Ordinance and the Ordinances No. 6 of 1847 and No. 13 of 1863 (except the repealed sections thereof) shall be read and construed as if they formed one Ordinance.

This Ordinance and 6 of 1847 and 13 of 1863 to be deemed one Ordinance.

18th October, 1865.

No. 11 of 1865.

An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Servants, Labourers, and Journeymen Artificers, under Contracts for Hire and Service.

(See No. 13 of 1889 and No. 7 of 1890.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and consolidate the law relating to servants, labourers, and journeymen artificers, under contracts for hire and service: It is enacted as follows:

Preamble.

1 The word "servant" shall, unless otherwise expressly qualified, extend to and include menial, domestic, and other like servants, pioneers, kanganies, and other labourers, whether employed in agricultural, road, railway, or other like work.

Interpretation.

2 The Ordinances set out in the schedule hereto annexed are hereby repealed except so far as they or any of them repeal any other Ordinance or Ordinances or any part of any other Ordinance or Ordinances, and except so far as respects all offences which may have been heretofore committed against the same or any of them, all rights which shall have accrued, liabilities which shall have been incurred, acts which shall have been done, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place before this Ordinance shall come into force.

Ordinances repealed.

3 Every verbal contract for the hire of any servant, except for work usually performed by the day, or by the job, or by the journey, shall (unless otherwise expressly stipulated, and notwithstanding that the wages under such contract shall be payable at a daily rate) be deemed and taken in law to be a contract for hire in service for the period of one month, and to be renewable from month to month, and shall be

Verbal contract of service to be a contract of service for one month.

Contracts for Hire and Service.

deemed and taken in law to be so renewed, unless one month's previous notice or warning be given by either party to the other of his intention to determine the same at the expiry of a month from the day of giving such notice.

Wages when payable.

4 The wages of such servant shall be payable monthly, except where the service shall have been determined by notice on a day other than the last day of the month, in which case the wages for the broken period shall be payable to the day the service is so determined, and such wages, where the same shall not be payable at a monthly rate, shall be computed according to the number of days on which such servant shall have been able and willing to work; or, if payable at a monthly rate, shall be in proportion to the number of days on which he shall have been so able and willing as aforesaid. Any employer shall be entitled to discharge any such servant from his service under any such contract, without previous notice, provided such servant be instantly paid his wages for the time he has served, and also for one month from the time of such discharge: Provided always that any such contract may at any time be determined by the misconduct of either party in their relative capacity of master and servant, which may be proved by either party against the other.

Term of verbal contract for journeyman artificer.

5 Every verbal contract for the hire, according to time, of any journeyman artificer (where no special contract or agreement shall have been made and duly proved) shall be deemed and taken in law to be a contract for the hire of such artificer for one day, and no longer.

Proviso, if service be continued after the time agreed upon.

6 Provided always that nothing in the preceding clauses of this Ordinance shall be construed to prevent any servant or journeyman artificer, who may continue in the service of his employer beyond the period for which any verbal contract entered into by him is respectively declared binding only in law, as aforesaid, from recovering his wages according to the full period of time of his being in such service; nor to prevent any similar subsequent verbal contract being respectively implied in law from the continuance of such service or otherwise.

Written contracts with servants and journeymen artificers for terms of service exceeding one month, but not exceeding three years.

7 No contract entered into in this island for the hire and service of any servant or journeyman artificer for any period of time longer than one month shall be valid in law, so as to subject any party thereto to the provisions of this Ordinance for not performing the same, unless such contract shall be in writing, and shall clearly express the terms and conditions thereof, and shall be signed or acknowledged by the parties thereto in the presence of a police magistrate, or a justice of the peace, or other person expressly authorized by the Governor, such justice or other person not being himself the employer of such servant or journeyman artificer, or the agent of such employer. And it shall be the duty of such police magistrate, justice of the peace, or other authorized person to see that the contract is fully explained to the parties, and to certify on the contract that they fully understand the terms thereof, and are desirous to fulfil the same. And such contract, when produced in evidence, and bearing the certificate of the police magistrate, justice of the peace, or duly authorized person as aforesaid, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters and things contained therein. And every such contract shall be executed in triplicate; and it shall be the duty of such police magistrate, or justice of the peace, or other authorized person as aforesaid, to give or to cause to be given one copy thereof to the servant, and to send or to cause to be sent, within ten days of the execution thereof, another copy thereof to the police magistrate of the district wherein such contract shall have been executed, and in default thereof such magistrate or justice shall be liable to a penalty of five pounds. And the said police magistrate is hereby required to preserve the said counterpart, and to allow any person who may be interested in the said contract to inspect the same: Provided always that no contract (excepting contracts made under the 8th section of this Ordinance) for the hire and service of any servant or journeyman artificer (whether made in Ceylon or in India, as provided by the 9th section) shall be valid under the provisions of this Ordinance if made for a longer period of hire or service than three years.

Proviso.

8 It shall be lawful for the Civil Engineer, the Commissioner of Roads, the Surveyor-General, or any other person expressly authorized thereunto by the Governor, to enter into any contract on behalf of Her Majesty, for the hire and service of any person to be employed as a servant or artificer for any period not exceeding five years: Provided that such contract, if made for a period of hire or service exceeding one month, shall (if entered into in this island) be in writing, and shall be executed in the same manner and be subject to the same rules as are prescribed in the preceding section as respects contracts in the case of persons to be employed in service other than that of the Government.

Proviso.

9 Every contract entered into in India for the hire and service in this island of any servant or journeyman artificer, shall be valid and binding, so as to subject the parties thereto to the provisions of this Ordinance, notwithstanding that the same be not executed in the manner prescribed by the 7th and 8th sections of this Ordinance: Provided that such contract be in writing, and signed or acknowledged by the parties thereto or their agents respectively, and clearly express the terms and conditions thereof; and provided also that such contract be valid and binding according to the laws of India in force at the time of the entering into such contract; and every such contract as aforesaid when produced in any court of this island shall be deemed valid and binding according to such laws as aforesaid, unless the contrary be proved. It shall be the duty of such employer or his agent with whom any such contract shall be entered into to give, at the time of entering into such contract, a copy thereof to the servant or journeyman artificer with whom such contract shall have been entered into.

Written contracts how determinable.

10 Unless provision to the contrary be expressly made therein, no contract entered into and required to be in writing under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be determinable before the expiration of the period specified therein, except by the mutual consent of the contracting parties, expressed in writing, signed or acknowledged by them in the presence of two witnesses, or except when the party contracting to be employed shall have been convicted of an offence, or have become a prisoner, or permanently disabled from completing his contract, and his employer shall elect to determine the contract, or except for some reason sufficient in law to set it aside: Provided that, in case of such disability to serve, the employer shall be bound to furnish the immigrant from India who shall have contracted in India for any period of service in this island, or who shall have contracted in this island for any period of service not less than one year, with adequate means of returning to his own country.

Proviso.

Servant refusing to work, &c., is guilty of misconduct.

11 Any servant or journeyman artificer who, without reasonable cause, shall neglect or refuse to attend at and during the time and hours, or at the place when and where he shall have contracted to attend, in commencing or carrying on any work, or, in case of no special agreement in that behalf, during such hours as, according to the trade or occupation of such servant or artificer, it shall be usual so to attend, or who, without reasonable cause, shall leave unfinished or refuse to finish any work contracted to be done, or who shall be guilty of any drunkenness, wilful disobedience of orders, insolence, or gross neglect of duty, or other misconduct in the service of his employer, or who shall quit the service of such employer without leave or reasonable cause, before the end of his term of service or previous warning as required by the third clause of this Ordinance, or for such longer period as may be specially stipulated in his contract, shall be punishable by the police court of the district wherein such offence shall have been committed, or wherein the offender shall have been apprehended, by forfeiture of all wages then due, if not exceeding the wages of one month, or for the period of warning specially stipulated for, or by imprisonment with or without hard labour not exceeding three months, or by such forfeiture together with such imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

Punishment for desertion, &c., of servant engaged to go upon a journey.

12 Every servant who, having engaged to go on any journey, shall, without any just cause, desert, or refuse, or neglect to proceed on such journey or any stage thereof, or shall be guilty of any misbehaviour mentioned in the 11th clause of this Ordinance, shall be punishable by the police court of the district wherein such offence shall have been committed, or wherein the offender shall have been apprehended, by forfeiture of all wages then advanced or contracted for, or by imprisonment with or without hard labour not exceeding three months, or by such forfeiture together with such imprisonment, at the discretion of the said court:

Contracts for Hire and Service.

Provided always that no servant engaged for a journey shall be obliged to travel on foot more than twenty-five miles during every twenty-four hours; nor shall any coolie engaged for a journey be obliged to carry a greater weight than forty pounds, unless otherwise expressly agreed upon for a short distance only, nor to proceed in case of any actual illness or bodily injury rendering him incapable to travel the journey, or any stage thereof; and any person obliging any servant or coolie so engaged as aforesaid to act contrary to the regulations contained in this proviso, shall be punishable by such police court as aforesaid by a fine not exceeding five pounds, or by imprisonment, with or without hard labour, not exceeding three months, or by such fine together with such imprisonment, at the discretion of the said court.

Proviso as to distance to be travelled, and weight carried by such servant.

13 Upon any complaint by any servant or journeyman artificer for nonpayment of wages, or damages for breach of contract or misconduct by his employer, before a court having jurisdiction in that behalf, it shall be lawful for such court, at its discretion, to make a proportional abatement out of any sum to be awarded as the wages or damages due to any such servant or artificer, for such days or time as he shall have been proved to have been, without the consent of his employer, absent from or neglecting his service or work, and also for the value of any breakages or damage done to any of the property of his employer by or through the misconduct or gross negligence or carelessness of such servant or journeyman artificer.

Court may make abatement of wages or damages in case of misconduct.

14 In case any employer, not having reasonable cause of complaint, shall refuse payment of wages when due, or not having given such notice or made such payment as required by the 3rd and 4th sections of this Ordinance, shall refuse to continue full payment to any servant or journeyman artificer during the whole term of any contract entered into between them, every such employer so refusing shall, in addition to payment of all wages actually due, or of all that would have become due if the contract had been properly observed, or both, as the case may be, be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or to such fine together with such imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

Penalty on employer refusing without cause to act up to contract.

15 If any person shall knowingly and wilfully pretend or falsely assert in writing that any servant or journeyman artificer has been hired or retained in his service or employment, or in the service or employment of any other person or persons, for any period of time whatsoever, or in any station or capacity whatsoever, other than that for which such servant or artificer shall have been so employed, hired, or retained, or if any person shall otherwise knowingly and wilfully write, sign, or give any untrue, false, forged, or counterfeit certificate or writing in favour of the character of such servant or artificer, then in every such case such person or persons so offending shall be liable to a fine not

Contracts for Hire and Service.

20 Any person who shall take into his service or employment, or harbour, conceal, or retain any servant or journeyman artificer bound to serve another by any contract entered into under any of the provisions of the said Ordinance, without taking reasonable precautions to ascertain whether or not such servant or artificer is so bound, or knowing him to be so bound, or after notice that he is so bound, shall, if the servant or artificer be at the time so taken, harboured, or concealed, or retained, under advances from the person to whom he was so bound, be liable civilly to pay to such person as liquidated damages double the amount of such advances.

Persons employing, &c., labourers under advances liable in double such advances.

21 No servant or journeyman artificer shall be liable to punishment for neglecting or refusing to work, or for desertion, disobedience, or neglect of duty, if at the time of such alleged offence his wages shall have been unpaid for any period longer than a month : Provided always that in computing the amount of wages due at any time, such servant or journeyman artificer shall be debited with the amount of all advances of money made to him, and with the value of all food, clothes, or other materials supplied to him, and which the employer is not liable under this Ordinance to supply at his own expense : Provided also that the fact of such wages being so due as aforesaid shall not affect the liability of such servant or journeyman artificer to punishment under the provisions of this Ordinance,* unless he shall at least forty-eight hours previously to the time of such alleged offence have demanded from his employer the payment of his wages so due, and the employer shall have refused or failed to pay the same.

Servants not liable to punishment if wages unpaid for one month

22 Every kangany or other agent who, having been entrusted with any money or valuable security by any person or persons for the purpose of engaging or procuring for hire and service any servant or servants, artificer or artificers for such person or persons, shall, with intent to defraud, convert or appropriate the same or any part thereof to or for his own use or benefit, or the use or benefit of any person or persons other than such person or persons as aforesaid or for any purpose other than such purpose as aforesaid, shall be guilty of an offence, and, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to be transported for any term not exceeding seven years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three years, with or without hard labour.

Kanganies, &c., fraudulently disposing of advances guilty of an offence.

23 Whenever any servant or journeyman artificer is brought before any court or justice of the peace, on the ground of his having quitted the service of his employer, or having refused or neglected to work, without leave or reasonable cause before the end of his term of service or previous warning, such court or justice of the peace may, if the employer of such servant or his agent so requires, and the labourer consents thereto, instead of punishing or committing to trial the offender, direct him to return to the service of his employer; and the court or justice shall keep a record of the proceedings had before him, and shall certify at the foot thereof that he has satisfied himself that the servant has of his own free will consented to return to the service of his employer.

Period of absence without leave or of imprisonment not to be counted as part of the period of service.

24 If any servant or journeyman artificer, having entered into any contract of hire and service subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall, during the subsistence of such contract, have been imprisoned or have absented himself without leave, the court before which he is tried shall award that no part of the period of such imprisonment or of such absence (and which period the said court is to ascertain by evidence and define) shall be deemed or taken to be a part of the period of his service, but that he shall be compellable, at the option of his employer, to serve for the full period defined as aforesaid for which he shall have contracted to serve; and until such extended service shall have been completed he shall be and shall continue subject to the provisions of this Ordinance.

Transfer of contract of service to new proprietor or manager of estate.

25 If the estate upon which any agricultural servant or journeyman artificer is employed under any contract to serve for a period exceeding one month shall, during the pendency of such contract, become vested in or be transferred to or placed under the superintendence or management of any person other than the person with or by whom such contract was entered into, such contract and all the rights and liabilities incidental thereto shall be deemed in law to be transferred to the person in or to whom the said estate shall become vested or transferred as aforesaid, or under whose superintendence or management the said estate shall be placed as aforesaid, and such last-mentioned person and such servant or artificer shall be respectively bound to perform all the terms and conditions of the contract in the same manner, or as near thereto as the nature of the case will admit, as if the contract had been originally entered into between such person and such servant or artificer: Provided always that in case such estate shall become vested in or transferred to any person other than the person with whom such contract shall have been entered into, such servant or journeyman artificer shall thereupon be entitled to determine such contract, if he shall so elect, and give notice of such being his intention to the person in whom the estate shall have become vested or to whom it shall have been transferred, and shall receive all wages then due to him under or by virtue of such contract: Provided, however, that the last-mentioned proviso shall not be held to apply to cases where estates are held in partnership by several persons, and where one or more of the partners retire from the partnership, or when, on such retirement, other partner or partners shall take the place of the retiring partner or partners, one or more of the original partners who were parties to the contract continuing in the partnership.

26 Neither the alleged commission of any crime or offence by any person or persons under the provisions of this Ordinance, nor the conviction nor acquittal of any person or persons of any crime or offence under this Ordinance, shall be a bar to any civil action for damages against such person or persons at the instance of any person or persons who may have suffered any injury, or who may allege that he or they has or have suffered any injury from or by reason of the commission of any such crime or offence.

Penal provisions of this Ordinance not to affect civil actions.

27 Any servant who shall be incapacitated by sickness from labour whilst in the service of any employer shall be entitled to lodging, food, as well as medical care, at the expense of such employer during such incapacity; provided that the employer shall not be bound to pay to the servant during such period his wages in addition: Provided further, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the employer from determining the contract under the 10th section of this Ordinance in case the servant shall become permanently disabled from completing his contract.

Employer bound to find lodging, food, and medical care to sick coolies.

28 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date fixed by the Governor in the Proclamation notifying the confirmation of this Ordinance by Her Majesty.

No. 14 of 1865.

An Ordinance relating to the registration and licensing of Carts, Boats, and Coaches used for the conveyance of Goods and Passengers, and for declaring the rights and liabilities of the Owners thereof.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision than exists at present for the registration and licensing of carts, boats, and coaches used for the conveyance of goods and passengers for hire, and for declaring the rights and liabilities of the owners thereof: It is enacted as follows:

Preamble.

Carriers.Preliminary.

- Short title. 1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Carriers' Ordinance, 1865."
- Commencement. 2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the First day of January, One thousand Eight hundred and Sixty-six.
- Interpretation clause. 3 The following words and expressions in this Ordinance shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction :—
- The word "cart" shall include all carts, waggons, or other carriages used on land for the conveyance of goods.
- The word "boat" shall include all boats, padas, and canoes, whether impelled by steam or otherwise, and used on any river, lake, or canal for the conveyance of goods.
- The word "coach" shall include all mail coaches or other public conveyance by land for the conveyance of passengers or goods.
- The expression "government agent" shall include any assistant government agent in the province or district in which the owners of carts, boats, and coaches reside or exercise their calling.
- Repeal of Ordinances No. 23 of 1848 and No. 14 of 1861. 4 The Ordinance No. 23 of 1848, entitled "An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 3 of the year 1848, entitled 'For the registration of Carriages and Boats used for the conveyance of Goods and Passengers for hire, and for declaring the rights and liabilities of the Owners thereof,'" and the Ordinance No. 14 of 1861, entitled "An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 23 of 1848," are hereby repealed, except as to liabilities which shall have been incurred, acts which shall have been done, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place before this Ordinance comes into operation.
- Registering and Licensing of Carts, Boats, and Coaches.*
- Carts, boats, and coaches to be registered and licensed. 5 No cart shall be used on land, and no boat shall be used on any river, lake, or canal within the same for the conveyance of goods for hire, and no mail coach or other public conveyance by land shall be used for the conveyance for hire of any passengers or goods, unless the owner thereof shall have had the same registered in manner hereinafter mentioned, and shall have obtained a license for the same from the government agent of the province or district in which such owner resides or exercises his calling.
- Mode of obtaining license. 6 The owner of every cart or boat used for the conveyance of goods for hire, or of every coach used for the conveyance of passengers or goods for hire, shall, within forty days from the commencement of each year, or of such other date as the Governor shall for that purpose, by Proclamation, appoint for any province, make and subscribe before the government agent of the province or district in which such owner resides or exercises his calling, a declaration of ownership agreeably to the 12th section of this Ordinance, and, if the government agent shall by notice in the Gazette so require, shall cause such cart, boat, or coach to be marked with the name of such owner and his residence painted in legible characters on some conspicuous part of the cart, boat, or coach. If, by reason of sickness or absence from the island or other cause, any such owner shall be unable to attend before such government agent or assistant government agent, such declaration may be made and subscribed by the agent of such owner duly authorized in writing to make and subscribe the same.

7 The government agent shall thereupon cause the cart, boat, or coach to be branded, stamped, or cut, as he shall consider best, on the axle or some conspicuous part thereof, with a number corresponding to that in which such cart, boat, or coach is entered in a book of registry to be by him for such purpose kept in the cutcherry, and shall issue to the owner of the said cart, boat, or coach a license, substantially in the form A in the schedule hereto annexed, together with a plate on which shall be legibly painted or marked the figures and letters denoting the year in and place at which such license was granted, and a ticket on some durable material setting out the registered number of the cart, boat, or coach, and short particulars of the time when, the place where, and the period for which the license shall be granted ; and such license shall be issued in duplicate, one being marked "original" and the other "duplicate," and the original shall be on a stamp of six shillings, payable by the owner of the cart, boat, or coach, and shall be in force until the 31st day of December of the year in or for which the same shall be granted, or (if any other day shall have been appointed by the Governor for that purpose for any particular province) until such other day ; and it shall be lawful for the agent to add to the plate and ticket any other mark, sign, or device which may serve to render it difficult of imitation : Provided that if any license already granted shall extend to and include any portion of the time for which a license may be granted for the first year after this Ordinance shall come into operation, a proportionate reduction in the stamp duty may be made in the license for such first year.

8 In case any cart, boat, or coach, registered as aforesaid, shall be transferred to another by sale, gift, or otherwise, the person to whom the same shall be so transferred shall notify the same to the government agent, in order that such transfer may be entered in the book of registry, and a new license issued to the person to whom it shall be so transferred.

9 If any cart, boat, or coach shall be destroyed or rendered wholly unfit for use, the owner thereof shall notify the same to the government agent, in order that the number may be erased from the book of registry.

10 The owner of the cart, boat, or coach, and the driver of such cart or coach, or the person in charge of such boat, shall be bound to affix the plate on such part thereof and in such manner as shall be prescribed in the license granted to the owner, and to keep and continue it so affixed during the continuance of such license, and at the expiration of the period for which the license shall have been granted, or on his ceasing to be the owner thereof, such owner shall be bound to return the license (original and duplicate), plate, and ticket to the government agent from whom it was received, and (in case of transfer to another of such cart, boat, or coach) to have his name and residence which had been previously painted thereon obliterated.

Owner to have original license, and driver duplicate and ticket.

11 The original of the license shall be retained by the owner of the cart, boat, or coach, but the driver of the cart or coach, or the person in charge of the boat, shall have the duplicate of such license and the ticket, and be ready to produce the same whenever thereunto required.

Declaration of ownership.
Proviso.

12 The declaration of ownership to be made under the 6th section of this Ordinance shall be substantially in the form B in the schedule hereto annexed: Provided that if it shall become necessary to license any cart or other carriage, boat, or coach belonging to two or more persons in partnership, or to a corporate body, or to a joint stock company, such declaration may be made by one of the partners, or by the person managing the affairs of such firm, body, or company.

Reference to headman, &c.

13 The government agent may, if to him it shall appear necessary to do so, cause reference to be made to any headman or other person to ascertain the truth of any statement in the declaration of ownership, and to delay granting the license until the result of such reference is ascertained.

Government agent may issue license, &c. in place of one lost or destroyed.

14 The government agent may, on his being satisfied that any license, plate, or ticket has been lost or destroyed by accident, issue an exemplification of the license, plate, or ticket, on the application of the owner of the cart, boat, or coach.

Books and lists to be kept of vehicles licensed.

Lists to be published in Gazette.

Inspection.

15 The government agents shall, and they are hereby required, to keep a book or books in which shall be entered the lists of the carts, boats, and coaches licensed under this Ordinance, with all necessary particulars; and to publish the lists of the licensed carts, boats, or coaches in the Government Gazette, or any supplement thereof, from time to time. It shall be lawful for any person at any time during office hours to demand inspection of the said lists, and also to take copies or extracts therefrom.

Penalty for letting unlicensed carriage, &c.

16 If any person shall, contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, use, or permit or suffer to be used, any cart, boat, or coach belonging to him, without obtaining a license for the same, or after the expiration of the period mentioned in such license; or without having the said plate affixed as aforesaid; or if he shall use the said plate, or suffer it to remain affixed after the period for which it was given shall have expired; or shall neglect or refuse to deliver up license or plate within one month after the expiration of such license, or after he has ceased to be the owner of such cart, boat, or coach ; or if upon being thereunto required by any justice of the peace, superintendent of police, police officer, or any person claiming interest in the goods conveyed or to be conveyed in such cart, boat, or coach, any such person shall refuse or neglect within a reasonable time to produce the license for the same or the ticket to such justice of the peace, superintendent of police, police officer, or such other person ; or if any person shall use or permit or suffer to be used any cart, boat, or coach without having his name and residence painted thereon ; or if any person shall fail to give notice of transfer to another of his cart, boat, or coach, or of such cart, boat, or coach having been destroyed or rendered wholly unfit for use ; then in every such case the owner of such cart, boat, or coach, or the person so offending, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds for the first offence, and for the second and every other offence to a fine not exceeding ten pounds ; and the said cart, boat, or coach, and every ox, horse, or other animal used for drawing the same, shall, in every such case of a second or subsequent offence, be forfeited, if the court before which such conviction shall take place shall so adjudge.

17 If any person shall wilfully make any false declaration to any of the matters hereinbefore required to be verified by declaration ; or if any person shall counterfeit, alter, falsify, or forge the branding prescribed by the 7th section, or any license, plate, or ticket, or part of any license, plate, or ticket issued under the provisions of this Ordinance ; or if any person shall knowingly and without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall be on the person accused) have in his possession any false, forged, or counterfeit license, plate, or ticket resembling or intended to resemble, either wholly or in part, any license, plate, or ticket which at any time whatever hath been or shall or may be issued or used under the provisions of this Ordinance ; then and in every such case every person so offending, and every person knowingly and wilfully aiding, abetting, or assisting any person in committing any such offence, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to be imprisoned with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding five years.

Penalty for false declaration, forgery of license, &c.

Liabilities of Owners of Carriages and Boats.

18 The owner of every such licensed cart, boat, or coach, used for the conveyance of goods for hire, shall, in the absence of any special contract between him, or the person in charge of such cart, boat, or coach, and any other party for the conveyance of such goods, be liable for any loss of, or injury to, any goods, articles, or property whatsoever, delivered to be carried therein for hire, which shall be occasioned by the neglect or misconduct of such owner, or of any driver, coachman, boatman, book-keeper, or other person or servant in his employ, or in charge of any such cart, boat, or coach ; and such liability shall be deemed to continue in the person who shall have made the declaration of ownership herein required, unless and until he shall have given the notice of transfer required by the 8th section of this Ordinance: Provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall be construed to limit, or in anywise affect, the liability of any such owner as a common carrier if he shall be such.

Not liable for loss of certain goods above five pounds unless delivered as such.

19 Provided that no such owner shall be liable for the loss of, or injury to, any article or articles or property of the descriptions following (that is to say, gold or silver coin of this or any other country, or any gold or silver in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, or any precious stones, jewellery, watches, clocks, or timepieces of any description, trinkets, bills of exchange, orders, notes, or securities for payment of money, stamps, maps, writings, title deeds, paintings, engravings, pictures, gold or silver plate or plated articles, glass, china, opium, silks in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, and whether or not wrought up into other materials, or lace, or any of them, contained in any parcel or package which shall have been delivered to be carried for hire, or to accompany the person of any passenger, when the value of such article or articles or property aforesaid contained in such parcel or package shall exceed the sum of five pounds), unless at the time of delivery thereof at the office, warehouse, or receiving house of such owner, or to such owner or to his driver, coachman, boatman, book-keeper, or other servant for the purpose of being carried, or of accompanying the person of any passenger as aforesaid, the value and nature of such article or articles or property shall have been declared by the person sending or delivering the same, and such increased charge as hereinafter mentioned, or an engagement to pay the same, be accepted by the person receiving such parcel or package.

Increased rate of charge for such goods.

20 When any parcel or package containing any of the articles above specified shall be so delivered, and its value and contents declared as aforesaid, and such value shall exceed the sum of five pounds, it shall be lawful for the person receiving the same for carriage on hire to demand and receive an increased rate of charge to be notified by some notice affixed in legible characters in some public and conspicuous part of the office, warehouse, or other receiving house where such parcels or packages are received by them for the purpose of conveyance, stating the increased rates of charge required to be paid over and above the ordinary rate of carriage as a compensation for the greater risk and care to be taken for the safe conveyance of such valuable articles; and all persons sending or delivering any such parcels or packages at any such office shall be bound by such notice without further proof of the same having come to their knowledge.

Carriers to give receipts.

21 Whenever any goods shall have been received for conveyance for hire by any such licensed cart, boat, or coach, whether the same be such goods as are mentioned in the Carriers.

19th section of this Ordinance, or other goods, the person receiving the same for carriage on hire shall, if thereto required when the rate of carriage shall have been paid, or an engagement to pay the same shall have been accepted, sign a receipt for the said goods, setting out therein the name and residence of the owner ; and if such receipt shall not be given when required, the person so receiving the same for carriage, in addition to any other liability which he may incur by such refusal, shall not have or be entitled to any benefit or advantage under the 19th section of this Ordinance, and shall be liable to refund any increased rate of charge he may have received in respect of the goods specified therein, and shall further be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty shillings.

Penalty in case of neglect.

22 Provided that no public notice or declaration by the owner of any such licensed cart, boat, or coach shall be deemed or construed to limit or in anywise affect his liability as aforesaid for or in respect of any articles or goods to be carried and conveyed by him, but that all and every such owners shall be liable to answer for the loss of, or any injury to, any articles and goods in respect whereof they may not be entitled to the benefits of the 19th section of this Ordinance, any public notice or declaration by them made and given in anywise limiting such liability to the contrary notwithstanding.

Publication of notice to limit liability in respect of other goods.

23 Any one or more of the owners of any such licensed cart, boat, or coach shall be liable to be sued by his or their name or names only ; and no action or suit commenced to recover damages for loss or injury to any parcel, package, or person shall abate for the want of joining any co-proprietor or co-partner in such carriage or boat.

Any owner may be sued.

24 Where any such goods as are mentioned in the 19th section of this Ordinance shall have been delivered as aforesaid, and the value and contents declared as aforesaid, and the increased rate of charge, if any, paid, and such goods shall have been lost or damaged, the party entitled to recover damages in respect of such loss or damage shall also be entitled to recover such increased charge so paid as aforesaid in addition to the value of such goods.

Parties entitled to damages may also recover extra charges.

25 Provided that nothing in the 19th section of this Ordinance contained shall be deemed to protect the owner of any such licensed cart, boat, or coach from liability to answer for loss or injury to any goods or articles whatsoever arising from theft or fraudulent conduct of any coachman, driver, book-keeper, boatman, or other person or servant in his employ, or in charge of any such cart, boat, or coach, nor to protect any such coachman, driver, book-keeper, boatman, or other person or servant from liability for any loss or injury occasioned by his or their own personal neglect or misconduct.

Owner liable for thefts committed by his servants, &c.

26 Further, that no owner of any such licensed cart, boat, or coach shall be concluded as to the value of any goods whereof the value shall be declared in pursuance of or boat at the place of delivery, and in default thereof the owner of such cart or boat shall forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding twenty shillings.

Miscellaneous.

Proof of license to be on the accused.

34 If in any prosecution or proceeding under this Ordinance any question shall arise as to whether any cart, boat, or coach has been used for the conveyance of any goods for hire without a license, or as to whether a license has been obtained for any cart, boat, or coach, within the meaning thereof, or as to whether any person has made the declaration required thereby, the proof that such goods were not conveyed for hire, or that the goods belonged to himself, or that license has been obtained or the declaration made, shall be upon the accused, or the party against whom such prosecution or proceeding shall be had: Provided that it shall be lawful for the court to award a reasonable sum in lieu of costs to the accused, against any person who may have made a vexatious complaint, and such sum shall be recovered in like manner as any fine imposed under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Proviso.

Informers share of penalty.

35 The court before which the prosecution or proceeding is taken may award any share of the fines actually recovered and realized, not exceeding one-half, to be paid to the informer.

Limitation of prosecution.

36 No prosecution shall be instituted against any person for any offence committed against any of the provisions of this Ordinance cognizable by the police court unless the same shall be commenced within one month from the time of the commission of such offence.

This Ordinance not to apply to railways or carriages referred to in No. 7 of 1848.

37 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be held to apply to the conveyance of goods or passengers by railway or to palanquin and other carriages let to hire and referred to in the Ordinance No. 7 of 1848, entitled "For registering Palanquin and other Carriages let to hire."

No. 16 of 1865.

(As amended by No. 7 of 1866, No. 5 of 1867, No. 19 of 1871, No. 3 of 1875, No. 7 of 1880, and No. 23 of 1891.)

An Ordinance to provide for the establishment and regulation of a Police Force in this Island.

(See No. 16 of 1867 and No. 6 of 1873.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the establishment and regulation of a police force in this Island :
It is enacted as follows :

Preamble.

Preliminary.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Police Ordinance, 1865."

Short title.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the First day of January, One thousand Eight hundred and Sixty-six.

Commencement.

3 The Ordinances set out in the schedule A hereto annexed are hereby repealed, except so far as respects all offences which may have been heretofore committed against the same or any of them, all rights which shall have accrued, liabilities which shall have been incurred, acts which shall have been done, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place before this Ordinance shall come into force.

Repeal of former Ordinances.

4 So soon as this Ordinance shall come into operation in Jaffna and Manaar, the regulations set out in the schedule B hereto annexed, with reference to each place, shall be repealed, except as in the preceding section excepted.

Provision for future repeal of certain local laws.

Police Force.

Laws and customs repugnant to this Ordinance repealed.

5 So soon as any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be brought into operation within any town, village, or limits, or part of any town or village, all laws, customs, and usages which may then be in force therein, so far as they are in anywise repugnant to or inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be revoked, abrogated, and repealed.

Interpretation.

6 The following words and expressions in this Ordinance shall have the meaning hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction :

The expression "government agent" shall include the assistant government agent of the province, or, where there is any assistant government agent for the district in which any proceeding contemplated by this Ordinance is taken, such assistant government agent :

The word "town" shall include any village or limits set out for the purposes of this Ordinance :

[§ 1, 7 of 1866]

The expression "police officer" shall include the chief superintendent of police, provincial superintendents and assistant superintendents of police, inspectors, sergeants, and constables :

The word "person" shall include a company or corporation :

The word "cattle" shall, besides horned cattle, include horses, asses, mules, sheep, goats, and swine.

General Police Force.

Establishment of police force.

7 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, from time to time, as occasion may require, to establish, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, a police force for the effectual protection of person and property within such towns as to them shall appear to require the same. Whenever such force shall be so established within any town this Ordinance shall come into operation therein : Provided that no Proclamation shall be necessary to establish the force in places where the same shall have been already established under the Ordinance No. 17 of 1844, in which said places this Ordinance shall come into operation on the day in the second section mentioned.

Police force may be established in certain places, though not maintained as herein provided.

8 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to establish a police force in any place other than large towns, though such force be not maintained in the manner prescribed by this Ordinance, and to declare that certain of the provisions of this Ordinance shall come into operation at such place, specifying the limits thereof, and such Proclamation from time to time to revoke, alter, or amend.

Police in rural districts.

9 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, to establish a police force in any rural district, and to cause the same to be maintained in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

Police Force.

10 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to quarter police, or, should a police force have been already established there, to increase the same, in any part of the island which shall be found to be in a disturbed or dangerous state, or in any part in which, from the misconduct of the inhabitants (whether in harbouring offenders or suspected persons, refusing to aid in their apprehension, or otherwise), they may deem it expedient so to do; and the inhabitants of the part of the island in which the police or the additional number of men as aforesaid shall be so quartered, shall be charged with the cost of the men; and the government agent to whose province such part belongs, but not any assistant government agent, shall assess the proportion in which such cost is to be paid by the inhabitants according to his judgment of their respective means.

Quartermen of police in disturbed or dangerous districts, or districts the inhabitants of which misconduct themselves.

11 Whenever any railway or other large work, or any manufactory or commercial concern, shall be carried on or be in operation in any part of the country, and it shall appear to the Chief Superintendent or any provincial superintendents that the appointment of an additional force in such neighbourhood is rendered necessary by the behaviour or reasonable apprehension of the behaviour of persons employed upon such work, it shall be lawful for the Chief Superintendent of Police or provincial superintendent, under the directions of the Governor and Executive Council, to direct the employment of such additional force, and to maintain the same so long as such necessity shall continue, and to make orders from time to time upon the person having the control or custody of the funds of any company or person carrying on such works for the payment of the extra force so rendered necessary as aforesaid.

Additional force in the neighbourhood of railway and other works.

[§ 1, 7 of 1866]

[§ 2, 7 of 1866]

12 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to declare that such of the provisions of this Ordinance as to them may seem advisable shall come into operation at any place as shall appear to them to require the same, though there be no police force established therein.

Some of the provisions only of this Ordinance may be brought into operation in any place.

13 The Proclamation establishing a police force in any town shall also specify and define the limits of such town, and it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, from time to time as occasion may require, by Proclamation, to alter or vary such limits.

Definition of limits.

Police in Rural Districts.

14 For the purposes of the present division of this Ordinance, the word "proprietor" shall mean the sole or any joint owner of an estate, and the word "estate" shall mean a tract of land exceeding twenty-five acres, belonging to one person or to several persons, cultivated or uncultivated, and forming a separate or distinct property.

Interpretation clause.

Police Force.

Applications to bring districts under the operation of this Ordinance.

15 The proprietor of any estate situated in any district or locality may make application, in writing, to the government agent of the province in which such estate is situated that a police force should be established in the said district, and shall set forth in such application the name of the district, the names of all estates therein, the names of the proprietors, or (if the same be unknown) of the resident managers thereof, the probable extent of the land belonging to such estates, and the number of men to form the force which, in the opinion of the applicant, will be required to be stationed therein for the purposes of the district.

Proceedings thereon.

16 On receipt of such application, the government agent shall give such public notice as he thinks necessary of his intention to define the limits of the district, the estates in which will, if the proposal to establish a police force in the said district be adopted by the proprietors of at least two-thirds of the acreage of the estates in any such district as hereinafter provided, become and be severally bound and liable for the amount of contribution towards the maintenance of the police force which the said estates may be afterwards assessed at, in manner provided by this Ordinance; and in such notice the government agent shall appoint the time and place when and where he will attend to receive, inquire into, and consider the objections of any proprietor against his estate being included within the limits of such district; and the said government agent, after making such inquiry as he may deem requisite, and considering any such objections, shall proceed to define the limits of such district, and shall enter a description of such limits in the minutes of his proceedings, and shall thereupon transmit a requisition to the proprietor of every estate within the limits of such district so defined as aforesaid (or, in case of his absence from the colony, to the resident manager, or, if there be no resident manager, to the agent in this colony of the proprietor, if any, or if there be no known agent, shall cause requisition to be affixed in some conspicuous part of the estate), calling upon him to declare in writing, within such time as shall be therein specified, whether he desires that a police force should be established in the said district, and to specify the clauses of the Ordinance which ought, in his opinion, to be introduced therein. If no answer be sent to the government agent within the time limited by such requisition, the person to whom the same was forwarded shall be deemed and taken to have concurred in the proposal referred to therein.

If two-thirds concur, the application to be forwarded to Government with agent's report.

17 If it shall appear to the government agent, from the replies to such requisitions, or otherwise, as aforesaid, that a majority, consisting of the proprietors of at least two-thirds of the acreage of estates in any district, are desirous that a police force should be established in the said district, the said government agent shall forthwith forward such application to Government, together with his report as to the necessity for locating a police force in the district, and as to the number of men to compose such force, and the amount in money required for its upkeep; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to establish a police force in such district, from such time as shall be therein named, and to introduce such of the clauses as the Governor and Council shall consider expedient in such district, and such clauses shall accordingly come into force at the time so named. The Governor may, with the like advice and consent as aforesaid, revoke, alter, or amend such Proclamation.

Police Force.

Proclamation thereon.

18 On such Proclamation being made, the government agent shall proceed to assess the proportion due by each estate, by dividing the sum of money equal to a moiety of the total cost of maintaining such force in the district by the total number of acres of the estates in the district, and thus apportioning the amount due by each estate; and the rate so assessed shall be binding and conclusive on all proprietors of estates in such district; and the government agent shall thereupon transmit a notice to the proprietor of each estate (or in case of his absence from the colony, to the resident manager, or, if there be no resident manager, to the agent in this colony of the proprietor, if any, or if there be no known agent, he shall cause such notice to be affixed in some conspicuous part of the estate), informing him of the yearly amount of contribution due by him to make up the proportion payable by the district, and the date when the first quarterly instalment is payable as hereinafter provided.

The government agent to assess the share to be contributed by each estate.

19 The amount due by each estate for a year shall be payable in advance by quarterly instalments, the first instalment on such day as shall be fixed in the notice above mentioned, and the other instalments at the commencement of each successive quarter.

Date of payment of contribution.

20 If the amount so due as aforesaid shall not be paid when due, the same shall be recovered in the manner provided by the 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, and 45th sections of this Ordinance.

Mode of recovery in case of default.

21 Should it be found necessary at any time after the original assessment to alter the limits of any district, or to reduce or increase the force therein, it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, to do so; and the government agent shall give the same notice of such alteration, and of the new rates payable in consequence, as he is herein required to give of the original proceedings; and such notice shall be served and such new rates recovered in the same way as are herein prescribed in respect of the original notice and rates.

Alteration of district on assessment.

22 For the purpose of discontinuing the police force when introduced into any district under this Ordinance, the same course shall be taken as is prescribed in this Ordinance for its introduction, and if the demand for its withdrawal be adopted by the proprietors of two-thirds of the acreage, the Discontinuance of force in any district.

Police Force.

said government agent shall forthwith notify to Government that the required majority is in favour of the withdrawal of the police force; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to direct that the employment of the said police force in the said district shall cease and determine from the date fixed in the Proclamation. But nothing herein contained shall prevent proceedings being afterwards taken for the re-establishment of a force in the manner recognized by this Ordinance for the original establishment of a force in any district.

Its re-establishment.

Police Officers.

The several officers of police.
[§ 3, 7 of 1866]

23 The administration of the police in this island shall be vested in the Chief Superintendent of Police, provincial superintendents and assistant superintendents of police, inspectors, sergeants, and constables. The powers vested by this Ordinance [i.e., No. 16 of 1865] in provincial inspectors shall be exercised by the superintendents and assistant superintendents, and the provisions in this Ordinance [i.e., No. 16 of 1865] contained respecting provincial inspectors shall apply to such superintendents and assistant superintendents respectively.

Appointment of principal officers.

24 It shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, as occasion may require, subject to the pleasure of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, to appoint the Chief Superintendent of Police* and provincial and district inspectors, who shall hold office during pleasure.

Appointments under Ordinance.
[§ 4, 7 of 1866]

24 (1) The appointments under this Ordinance and under Ordinance No. 7 of 1866, to which are attached salaries exceeding two hundred pounds a year, shall be held during the pleasure of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint any person provisionally to such offices until the pleasure of Her Majesty shall have been made known.

Appointment of minor officers.

25 It shall be lawful for the Chief Superintendent of Police to nominate and appoint such and so many sergeants and constables as the Governor shall direct; and, if need be, subject to the approbation of the Governor, and to the rules to be made as hereinafter provided, to dismiss, suspend, reduce, or fine to any amount not exceeding one month's pay, any such officer whom he shall think remiss or negligent in the discharge of his duty, or otherwise unfit for the same.

Additional police officers to be employed at the cost of individuals.

26 It shall be lawful for the Chief Superintendent of Police, or any provincial superintendent, if he shall think fit, on the application of any person showing the necessity thereof, to appoint any additional number of police officers to keep the peace, at the charge of the person making the application, but to be under the orders of the Chief Superintendent or provincial superintendent, and for such time as they shall think fit: Provided that it shall be lawful for the person on whose application such appointment shall have been made, on giving one month's notice in writing to such Chief Superintendent or provincial superintendent, to require that the officer so appointed shall be discontinued, and such person shall be relieved from the charge of such additional force from the expiration of such notice.

Police Force.

27 If upon demand any person refuses or fails to pay the sum due by him for maintaining the force under the 10th, 11th, and 26th sections, the Chief Superintendent or provincial superintendent shall report such refusal or failure to the nearest police court, which shall proceed to recover such sum as if it were a fine imposed by that court.

Recovery of expense under the 10th, 11th, and 26th sections.

27 (1) The cost of the police payable under the 10th, 11th, 17th, and 26th sections of this Ordinance [i.e., No. 16 of 1865], and recoverable under the 27th section thereof, shall be at the rates hereinafter mentioned : that is to say,

Fixed rates at which such recovery shall be made.

[$ 2, 7 of 1880]

	Per annum. Rs.		Per annum. Rs.
Inspector ...	1,230	First class native sergeant	576
European sergeant ...	918	Second class native sergeant	384
European constable ...	518	Native constable ...	252 and the certificate of the Inspector-General of Police shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of all charges made under this Ordinance.

Proof of charges.

28 When it shall appear that any tumult, riot, or outrage has taken place, or may be reasonably apprehended in any place, and that the ordinary police officers appointed for preserving the peace are not sufficient for its preservation and for the protection of the inhabitants, and for the security of property in such place, it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace to appoint so many of the public or residents in the neighbourhood as may be required, to act as special police officers for such time and in such manner as he shall deem necessary.

Special police officers.

29 Every special police officer so appointed shall have the same powers, privileges, and protection, and be liable to all such duties and penalties, and be subordinate to the same authority as the ordinary officers of police.

Powers of special police officers.

30 If any person being appointed a special police officer as aforesaid shall, without sufficient excuse, neglect or refuse to serve as such, or to obey such lawful order or direction as may be given him for the performance of his duties, he shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds for every such neglect, refusal, or disobedience.

Refusal to serve.

31 No police officer shall be at liberty to resign his office or withdraw himself from the duties thereof, unless expressly allowed to do so in writing by the Chief Superintendent or provincial superintendent, or unless he shall have given to his superior officer two months' notice in writing of his intention to do so; nor shall any such police officer engage in any employment or office whatever other than his duties under this Ordinance, unless expressly permitted to do so in writing by the Chief Superintendent.

Police officers not to resign without leave or two months' notice.

Police Force.

Police force may be placed under the control of a public officer.

[§ 1, 23 of 1891]

32 It shall be lawful for the Governor to place a police force established in any district, rural district, town, or place, or in the neighbourhood of any railway and other works, under the control of any public officer having authority in such district, rural district, town, place, or neighbourhood, or in the province wherein such district, rural district, town, place, or neighbourhood is situated; and such public officer shall in such case exercise the powers herein vested in police officers not under the grade of inspectors. Provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to interfere with the general supervision of the Inspector-General of Police over the entire force and all officers thereof, subject to rules and regulations to be made by the Governor.

Maintenance of General Police.

Expenses of police.

33 The salaries of the Chief Superintendent of Police and of the provincial superintendents, the cost of barracks, hospitals, medical attendance, and arms will be defrayed by the Government. All other expenses must be defrayed by the inhabitants of the towns for the protection of whose persons and property the police is established, except where a force is created under the 8th section of this Ordinance. The expenses of police in rural districts shall be defrayed in equal shares by the Government and by proprietors of estates in each district as hereinbefore provided; Provided, however, that when any town is created a municipality, the expenses of the police shall be provided for and recovered as directed by "The Municipal Councils Ordinance, 1865," or any other Ordinance to be for that purpose hereinafter enacted.

Proviso.

Tax to be levied for maintenance of police.

34 For the purposes of creating a fund from which the expenses of the police payable by each town not created a municipality are to be defrayed, a tax shall be payable on the 31st day of March, on the 30th day of June, on the 30th day of September, and on the 31st day of December, in every year, for the quarter ending on the said days respectively, on all houses and buildings of every description, and on all lands and tenements whatsoever, within every such town, to an amount equal to such percentage on the bonâ fide annual value of such houses, buildings, lands, and tenements, as the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, shall by Proclamation from time to time appoint, except in cases where such amount shall fall below the sum of sixpence* per quarter, in all which excepted cases sixpence per quarter shall be assessed and payable: Provided that such tax shall not in the aggregate exceed the sum necessary for the maintenance of the force in such town, except as aforesaid, and which sum it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, from time to time to determine and appoint: Provided further, that buildings appropriated to religious worship, and such as are placed in charge of military sentries, shall be exempted from the payment of such tax.

Proviso.

* Governor may reduce minimum rate to fifty cents per annum, payable half-yearly, by section 1 of 19 of 1871.

Police Force.

- 34 (1) The "bonâ fide annual value" of all houses, buildings, lands, and tenements, as a basis of rating, shall be the gross annual value, without any deduction for expenses, repairs, or other expenses for maintenance or upkeep.
- 35 The assessment to be made in any town for the purposes of creating a fund for the maintenance of a police force shall be made by three or more persons appointed by the Governor, with power to them to act separately or collectively as the government agent shall direct; and each person so appointed shall be entitled to receive such remuneration as the Governor may in his discretion award.
- 36 The assessors for the first year in which a police force is to be introduced in any town may be appointed before the introduction of such force, and every such assessor, when so appointed, shall have and exercise the powers conferred on the committee of assessors by the 37th and 38th sections hereof, notwithstanding that the Ordinance shall not have been brought into operation in such town. For every year after the first the assessors shall be appointed within such time before the commencement of each year as the Governor shall deem reasonable.
- 37 Such committee [i.e., assessors] shall without unnecessary delay after its appointment proceed to inquire into, and according to the best of its information and judgment ascertain and assess as aforesaid, the bonâ fide annual value of all houses, buildings, lands, and tenements within such town, and the tax hereby imposed on or payable for the same, and for that purpose it shall be lawful for the said committee [i.e., assessors] or any member thereof, or for any person in company with or authorized in writing in that behalf by any such member, to enter any houses, buildings, lands, and tenements, and to cause to enter therein such persons and things as may be necessary, and to proceed to do or cause to be done therein all such things as may be necessary to enable such committee [i.e., assessors] to ascertain the annual value of such houses, buildings, lands, or tenements; and such committee [i.e., assessors] shall without delay report the assessment so made by them to the government agent of the province, who shall thereupon cause the same to be entered in a book which shall have an index or other convenient form of reference, and shall be kept at his office for public inspection. It shall be lawful for the government agent to revise such assessment, and to make such alterations therein as he shall consider expedient.
- 38 In order to enable the committee [i.e., assessors] to arrive at a fair valuation of any houses, buildings, or lands liable to the rate, it shall be lawful for them to require the owner or occupier of such houses, buildings, or lands to furnish them with returns of the rent or annual value thereof. Whoever refuses or fails to furnish such returns within one week from the day on which he shall have been required to do so, and whoever makes a false or incorrect return, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.
- 39 The tax hereby imposed shall be payable quarterly, and shall be recovered in manner hereinafter provided from the owner or owners, or from any or either of the owners of the houses, buildings, lands, or tenements liable to such tax, and if any person in the occupation of any such house, building, land, or tenement so liable, and not being the owner or a joint owner thereof, shall refuse, upon application being made in that behalf, to inform the said committee [i.e., assessors] or any member thereof, or the government agent or any person authorized by him to make such application, as to the correct name and residence of the owner or owners of the said house, building, land, or tenement, every such person shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Notice of assessment and demand of payment of tax to be served.

40 The government agent shall, as soon as may be after the commencement of each year, cause to be served upon the owner or some joint owner of every house, building, land, or tenement liable to the payment of the tax imposed by this Ordinance, a notice of assessment, having subjoined thereto a demand of payment of the tax, as near as is material in the form in the schedule C hereunto annexed. Such notice shall be in the English, Singhalese, or Tamil language, in the discretion of such government agent, and shall be served either personally upon the party to whom it is addressed, or by leaving it with some member of his household, or by affixing it to some conspicuous part of the house, building, land, or tenement liable to the payment of such tax.

Proceeding, if tax not duly paid.

[§ 6 of 1873]

41 If any person shall not pay the tax due by him under this Ordinance as soon as the same is due, either into the office of the government agent or to some collector authorized by the government agent, by writing under his hand, to collect and receive the same upon demand made by such collector, it shall be lawful for the government agent, and he is hereby thereunto authorized and required, for non-payment of such tax to seize any property whatsoever belonging to the person by whom such tax is due, where-soever the same may be found within the province of such government agent, and also to seize any movable property, to whomsoever the same may belong, which shall be found in or upon any house, building, land, or tenement for which such tax shall be due; and if the amount due on account of such tax, together with the costs and charges payable by virtue of the 43rd section of this Ordinance, shall not be sooner paid or tendered to such government agent, to sell the property so seized by public auction at any time not less than ten nor more than thirty days from the time of such seizure. It shall be lawful for the government agent or any assistant government agent to authorize any person specially in writing to seize and sell property as herein provided for.

Property may not be seized for arrears of tax beyond two quarters.

Exceptions.

42 It shall not be lawful for the government agent to seize any movable property which may be found in or upon any house, building, land, or tenement in respect of which such tax shall be due, for any arrears of tax due beyond two quarters next preceding such seizure, unless such movable property shall belong to any person who was the owner or a joint owner of the said house, building, land, or tenement at the time the arrears beyond such two quarters accrued and became due ; or unless such movable property shall belong to any person who shall have occupied the said house, building, land, or tenement at the time when the said last-mentioned arrears accrued and became due.

43 Any movable property seized as aforesaid may be removed by the government agent for safe custody, pending the sale thereof, to such place as he may think fit ; and in case of the seizure of immovable property, or of any property which cannot be conveniently removed, such government agent may place and keep a person in possession thereof pending such sale.

44 It shall be lawful for the government agent to demand, take, and receive from the person by whom the tax is due, or from the owner or any joint owner of any property which may be lawfully seized for non-payment of such tax, the several sums of money mentioned in the following table; that is to say,

Costs of seizure
&c.

Table of Charges incurred in the recovery of Tax.

- (1) For cost of proceeding to the house or land of the party in default, in order to seize property, a charge not exceeding one penny for every shilling of tax due.
- (2) For removal of the goods seized, in case such removal takes place, a charge not exceeding one penny for every shilling of tax due.
- (3) For keeping the same in safe custody in case of such detention, a charge not exceeding one penny per day.
- (4) For keeping a person in possession in case of a seizure of immovable property, or if the goods seized are not removed, a charge not exceeding one shilling per day.
- (5) For the expenses of sale, where any takes place, a charge not exceeding sixpence in the pound on the net produce of the sale.

44 (1) If any person shall be aggrieved by the assessment or non-assessment of any house, building, land, or tenement, it shall be lawful for him to object to such assessment or such non-assessment before the court of requests having jurisdiction in the place where such house, building, land, or tenement is situate, if the amount of the rate on the annual value of such house, building, land, or tenement does not exceed ten pounds, and to the district court if such amount exceeds ten pounds; and such court shall decide upon such objection in a summary way, and have power to amend the assessment or to supply any omission if necessary, and its decision shall be subject to appeal to the Supreme Court, which shall have like power of amendment, and each of the said courts shall have power to give costs : Provided that no such objection shall be entertained by any court of requests, or district court, unless the same shall be made, if by private parties, within fifteen days, and if by the Government, within one month, after the service of notice of assessment prescribed by section 40, nor unless the person objecting, or some person authorized by him in that behalf in writing, shall at the time of making such objection satisfy the court, by affidavit or otherwise, that he has furnished a statement in writing of the specific grounds on which such objection is founded to the government agent in any town where

Levying of rate not to be stayed.
[§ 2, 5 of 1867]

(2) Neither the objection nor the appeal shall stay the levying of any part of the rate, which may be proceeded with; the excess (if any) collected shall in such case be refunded, or the deficient amount (if any) shall be collected, according to the decision of such court of requests or district court, if there be no appeal, or of the Supreme Court in case of appeal.

Judges of Supreme Court
to make rules.
[§ 3, 5 of 1867]

(3) The judges of the Supreme Court may from time to time, and subject to the provisions of the Ordinance No. 8 of 1846, or any other Ordinance to be in that behalf hereafter enacted, make rules and orders as to the notices and the hearing of objections and appeals: Provided that such rules and orders shall not be inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this Ordinance.

Houses may be broken open, &c.

45 It shall be lawful for the government agent to break open or cause to be broken open, in the daytime, any house or building, for the purpose of seizing property in pursuance of this Ordinance.

46 It shall be lawful for the occupant of any house, building, land, or tenement, not being the owner or joint owner thereof, whose property shall have been seized as aforesaid, or who, to avoid such seizure, or after seizure to avoid a sale of such property, shall have paid the amount of tax due in respect of such house, building, land, or tenement, and the costs demandable by virtue of this Ordinance, to deduct the amount paid by him from the first payment of rent due by him on account of the said house, building, land, or tenement to the owner or owners thereof, and the receipt of the government agent for the amount so paid shall be deemed an acquittance in full for the like amount of rent: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall authorize any such deduction from his rent by any occupant who, by the terms of his lease or other agreement, was himself bound and liable to pay such tax.

Proviso.

After payment of the tax and charges, overplus

owner of the property.

47 In the event of a sale of property seized, the government agent shall, after deducting the amount due on account of such tax, and also the costs and charges payable by virtue of the 44th section of this Ordinance (which said costs and charges the government agent is hereby authorized to retain), restore the overplus arising from such sale, if any there be, to the owner or to some joint owner of the property sold; and the government agent shall, upon application in that behalf, grant a receipt for the amount of the tax recovered, and of such costs and charges, to the owner or joint owner of such property.

Certificate of sale.

48 If land or other immovable property be sold for non-payment of tax, a certificate substantially in form D in the schedule hereto annexed, signed by the government agent, shall be sufficient to vest the property in the purchaser, any law or custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such certificate shall be liable to the stamp duty fixed on conveyances of immovable property, and to any registration or other charges authorized by law, such duty and charges being payable by the purchaser.

Police Rules.

50 The Chief Superintendent of Police may from time to time, subject always to the approbation of the said Governor and Executive Council, frame orders and regulations for the observance of the police officers who shall be placed under his control as aforesaid, and also for the general government of such persons, as to their places of residence, classification, rank, and particular services, as well as their distribution and inspection, and all such orders and regulations relative to the said police force as he may deem expedient for preventing neglect or abuse, and for rendering such force efficient in the discharge of its duties; and every police officer who shall neglect or violate any such orders or regulations, or any duty imposed upon him by this or any other Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to any fine not exceeding five pounds (which fine or any part thereof may be deducted from any salary then or at any time thereafter due to such offender), or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding one month.

The Chief Superintendent of Police may make rules for police.

Duties and Liabilities of Police Officers.

51 Every police officer shall for all purposes in this Ordinance contained be considered to be always on duty, and shall have the powers of a police officer in every part of this island. It shall be his duty to use his best endeavours and ability to prevent all crimes, offences, and public nuisances; to preserve the peace; to apprehend disorderly and suspicious characters; to detect and bring offenders to justice; to collect and communicate intelligence affecting the public peace; and promptly to obey and execute all orders and warrants lawfully issued and directed to him by any competent authority.

Duties of police officers.

53 Any person who in any street or road, thoroughfare, or passage, within the limits of any town, commits any of the following offences, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, and it shall be lawful for any police officer to take into custody without a warrant any person who within his view commits any such offence:

Certain duties of police officers. Obstructions and nuisances on roads.

- (1) Any person who shall slaughter any cattle, or clean any carcase in the streets; any person riding any cattle carelessly, recklessly, and furiously, or training or breaking any horse or other cattle on or near any public road, to the danger of the passers by:
- (2) Any person who wantonly or cruelly beats, abuses, or tortures any animal:
- (3) Any person who shall keep any cattle or conveyance of any kind in any road or street longer than is required for loading or unloading goods, or for taking up or setting down passengers; or who shall leave any cattle or conveyance in such a manner as to cause inconvenience or danger to the public:

Slaughtering cattle, furious riding. &c.

Cruelty to animals.

Obstructing passengers.

Police Force.

Exposing goods on roads.

(4) Any person exposing any article or thing on the roads or streets, and which may obstruct passengers or frighten horses :

Throwing dirt into street.

(5) Any person who throws or lays down any dirt, filth, rubbish, or any stones or building materials ; or who constructs any cow sheds, stable, or the like, within the bounds of any thoroughfare ; or who causes any offensive matter to run from any house, factory, dung heap, or the like, into the street :

Indecent exposure of person.

(7) Any person who wilfully and indecently exposes his person, or any offensive deformity or disease, or commits nuisance by easing himself in or by the side of or near any public street or thoroughfare ; or by bathing or washing in any place not set apart for that purpose :

Neglect to protect dangerous places.

(8) Any person who neglects to fence in, or duly to protect any well, tank, or other dangerous place or structure :

Driving cart, &c., without lanterns.

(9) Any person who drives or leads any conveyance or cart after dark and before daylight without lighted lanterns.

Amends may be awarded for charges made on insufficient ground.

54 In every case in which any person shall be given in charge to a police officer on a false or frivolous charge, or in which a false or frivolous charge shall be made to a police officer against any person, or in which any information or complaint shall be laid or made before a police officer, and shall not be further prosecuted, or in which if further prosecuted it shall appear to the magistrate by whom the case is heard that there were no sufficient grounds for making the charge, such magistrate shall have the power to award a fine not exceeding five pounds, or imprisonment for a period not exceeding one month, or both ; or to award such amends, not exceeding five pounds, to be paid by the informer or complainant to the party informed or complained against, for his loss of time and expenses in the matter, as to such magistrate shall seem fit ; and such amends shall be recoverable in the manner provided for the levy of fines.

Persons arrested without warrant to be taken to station house until brought before magistrate or bailed.

55 Every person taken into custody by any police officer without warrant (except persons detained for the mere purpose of ascertaining their name and residence) shall forthwith be delivered into the custody of the police officer in charge of a station house, in order that such person may be secured until he can be brought before a magistrate to be dealt with according to law, or may give bail for his appearance before a magistrate, if the officer in charge shall deem it prudent to take bail as hereinafter mentioned. Provided always that where bail is not taken, the prisoner shall be brought before a magistrate within twenty-four hours, unless circumstances render delay unavoidable.

Proviso.

Police Force.

57 It shall be lawful for such above-mentioned police officer* to bind by recognizance any person to appear as prosecutor or as a witness before the magistrate by whom any grave charge is being or is about to be investigated; and if any such prosecutor or witness shall refuse to execute such recognizance it shall be competent to such officer to forward the person in custody to the proper court.

Superior officer of police may take recognizance for appearance of prosecutor or witness.

58 Every recognizance so taken shall be without fee or reward, and shall be conditioned for the appearance of the person thereby bound before any magistrate at such time and place as may be required, and the time and place of appearance, and the sum thereby acknowledged, not exceeding one hundred pounds, shall be specified in the said recognizance, or in the condition thereof; and the officer taking the recognizance shall return the same forthwith to the magistrate before whom the party is bound to appear.

Condition of recognizance.

59 It shall be lawful for any police officer without a warrant to enter and inspect all drinking shops, gaming houses, and other resorts of loose and disorderly characters, all premises of persons suspected of receiving stolen property, any locality, vessel, boat, or conveyance in any part whereof he shall have just cause to believe that crime has been or is about to be committed, or which he reasonably suspects to contain stolen property, and then and there to take all necessary measures for the effectual prevention and detection of crime, and to take charge of all property reasonably suspected to have been stolen, and of all articles or things which may serve as evidence of the crime supposed to have been committed, and to take charge of all unclaimed property.

Enter drinking shops, &c., without a warrant.

61 No police officer shall receive any complaint of any petty offence, or take into his custody any person brought to him accused of such petty offences as trespass, assault, quarrelling, or the like; and it shall be lawful for any police officer to refuse to receive and act upon any charge of an offence of a grave character, if he shall, on inquiry made of the complainant alone, see good grounds for doubting its truth: Provided always that if the charge be not of such a nature as under ordinary circumstances would justify the police officer in refusing to receive it, the particular reasons for refusing it are to be recorded by such officer at the time.

Police officer not to receive complaints of petty offences.

Proviso.

62 It shall be lawful for any police officer to lay any information before any magistrate, and to apply for summons, warrant, search warrant, or such other legal process as may by law issue, and may be expedient under the circumstances, against any person committing an offence against any law or enactment, or against any regulation for the protection of the revenue, or against any person committing or failing to remove any public nuisance or unwarrantable obstructions, keeping a disorderly house, harbouring thieves, disturbing the peace, obstructing the due course of justice, and the like; and to prosecute such offenders up to final judgment:

Police officers may lay information, &c.

* Chief Superintendent, or provincial or district inspector.

*Police Force.Proviso.

Provided always that any rewards, forfeitures, and penalties, or shares of rewards, forfeitures, or penalties which by law are payable to informers, and all costs of prosecution which may by any enactment be awarded to the prosecutor, shall be paid into a general fund for the reward of police officers, to be regulated in manner as the Governor shall from time to time direct.

Execution of process beyond five miles.

63 If, in the execution of process, it shall be found necessary for the officer of the police employed to serve such process to go any distance beyond five miles, the person at whose instance the process is issued shall be bound to lodge with the justice at the time he applies for the process a sum sufficient to cover the officer's travelling allowances, at such rates as the Governor shall from time to time appoint.

In case of fire, &c., police officers to repair to the spot.

65 In all cases of fire or other calamity occurring within such town and limits police officers shall repair to the place where the same has occurred, for the protection of such persons and property as may be endangered thereby, and shall be authorized to call upon all persons to aid and assist them in that behalf; and every person so called upon who shall refuse or neglect to give such aid and assistance without good and sufficient excuse shall be guilty of an offence, and liable to any fine not exceeding one pound.

Householder to give lists of inmates when required.

67 Every householder within such town and limits shall furnish the officer of police of his division, when required so to do by such officer under the order received to that effect from any justice of the peace having jurisdiction within such town and limits, or from the Chief Superintendent of Police, with a list of all the inmates of his house, distinguishing the members of his family from the servants or others resident therein; and he shall also, if it shall be so directed in the order of the Chief Superintendent or justice of the peace, report any increase or diminution, or change in the same; and he shall not, having received such notice under such order, harbour a stranger without giving such notice thereof to the principal officer of police of his division; and every person failing in any duty imposed upon him by this clause shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to any fine not exceeding five pounds.

Regulations of public processions, &c., and of carriages and persons at places of public resort.

69 Officers of police not below the grade of inspector may, as occasion requires, direct the conduct of all assemblies and processions in the public roads, streets, or thoroughfares, prescribe the routes by which and the times at which such processions may pass, and direct all crowds of twelve or more persons to disperse when they have reason to apprehend any breach of the peace. All officers of police shall and may keep order in the public roads, streets, thoroughfares, and landing places, and all other places of public resort, and prevent obstructions on the occasions of such assemblies and processions, and in the neighbourhood of places of worship during the time of public worship, and in any case when the roads, streets, or thoroughfares, or landing places, may be thronged, or may be liable to be obstructed. They may also regulate the use of music in the streets, when the same shall be allowed. Every person opposing or not obeying the orders so given as aforesaid, or violating the conditions of any license granted by such superintendent or other officers for the use of such music, or for the assembling of any such body of persons, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds: Provided always that nothing in this section contained shall be deemed to interfere with the general control of the magistrate over such matters.

Licenses for use of music in streets.

Proviso.

70 Every police officer who shall be guilty of any violation of duty or wilful breach or neglect of any regulations and lawful orders of other competent authority, and not punishable under section 50 of this Ordinance, or who shall cease to perform the duties of his office without leave, or without having given two months' notice, as provided by this enactment, or engage without authority in any employment other than his police duty, or who shall be guilty of prevarication in any judicial trial, or who shall maliciously and without probable cause prefer any false, vexatious, or frivolous charge or information against any individual, or who shall knowingly and wilfully, and with evil intent, exceed his powers, or who shall be guilty of any wilful culpable neglect of duty in not bringing any person who shall be in his custody without a warrant before a magisterial officer as hereinbefore provided, or who shall allow any person in his custody to escape, or who shall offer any unwarrantable personal violence to any person in his custody, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding three months' pay, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding three months, or both.

Penalties for neglect of duty, &c.

72 Any police officer who shall be guilty of cowardice shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twelve months' pay, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, not exceeding twelve months, or both.

Penalty for cowardice.

73 Every person not being, or having ceased to be, a duly enrolled police officer, who shall unlawfully assume any function or power belonging to the police, and who shall not forthwith deliver up all the clothing, accoutrements, and appointments, and other necessaries which may have been supplied to him in the execution of his duty; or if any person shall wilfully injure any such clothing or other article so as to render the same of less value; or who shall have in his possession any distinctive article of the dress or appointment directed to be worn exclusively by the police force, without being able to account satisfactorily for his possession thereof; or who shall put on the dress of any police officer, or any dress designed to represent it or to be taken for it; or who shall otherwise personate the character or act the part of any police officer for any purpose whatever, shall, in addition to any other punishment to which he may be liable for any offence committed under the assumed character, be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding three months, or both.

Unlawful assumption of police function, personation of police, &c.

Nuisances how to be removed and abated.

74 It shall be lawful for any officer of police not below the grade of inspector to give order either verbally or by notice in writing to any person causing any public nuisance mentioned in this Ordinance to abate and remove the same ; and if any person to whom such order or notice shall have been given shall refuse or neglect to comply with the same in a reasonable time, or if there be any doubt as to who is the proper person to whom such order or notice should be given, it shall be lawful for such officer to cause any such public nuisance to be forthwith abated or removed ; and for that purpose it shall be lawful for him, where necessary, to enter into or upon any house, garden, enclosure, land, or other premises, and to cause to enter therein or thereupon such persons, instruments, and things as may be necessary, and to proceed to do or cause to be done therein or thereupon all such things as may be necessary for such abatement or removal ; and upon the officer certifying to the proper police magistrate the costs which have been boná fide incurred in effecting such abatement or removal, such magistrate shall summon the party or parties on account of whose non-compliance with any such order or notice such costs were incurred to appear before him on a certain day, then and there to make payments of such costs, where it shall appear after due investigation that such costs were properly incurred ; and if such party or parties shall refuse or fail to make such payment, the police magistrate shall proceed to recover such payment in such and the same manner as he would proceed to recover any fine or penalty incurred under any sentence of the court in which he presides : Provided always that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be construed to limit or interfere with in any way the common law right of any individual to abate any nuisance.

Proviso.

Plea that act was done under a warrant.

78 When any action, prosecution, or proceeding shall be brought against any police officer for any act done by him in such capacity, it shall be lawful for him to plead that such act was done by him under the authority of warrant issued by a magisterial officer ; and such plea shall be proved by the production of the warrant directing the act and purporting to be signed by such magisterial officer ; and the defendant shall thereupon be entitled to decree in his favour, notwithstanding any defect of jurisdiction in such magisterial officer, and no proof of the signature of such official shall be necessary, unless the court shall see reason to doubt its being genuine : Provided always that any remedy which the party may have against the authority issuing such warrant shall remain entire.

Proviso.

Limitation of action.

79 All actions and prosecutions against any person which may be lawfully brought for anything done or intended to be done under the provisions of this Ordinance, or under the general police powers hereby given, shall be commenced within three months after the act complained of shall have been committed, and not otherwise ; and notice in writing of such action and of the cause thereof shall be given to the defendant, or to the principal officer of the district in which the act was committed, one month at least before the commencement of the action; and no plaintiff shall recover in any such action if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before such action brought, or if a sufficient sum of money shall have been paid into court after such action brought, by or on behalf of the defendant.

Police Force.

General Provisions.

80 All persons who shall make or cause to be made or have in rent or possess any well within any town and limits, and shall not surround the same with a wall two feet at least in height, and keep such wall of that height and in good and sufficient repair, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to any fine not exceeding two pounds.

Wells to be surrounded with wall two feet high.

81 No cart of any description whatsoever shall be left or permitted to remain in any street, way, or avenue within any town and limits upon any pretence whatever without the permission of the principal officer of police, except for such time as shall be necessary for the purposes only of loading or unloading, or except in such places as shall at any time be appointed and notified by such officer; and any owner or person in charge of any cart so left or permitted to remain as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence and be liable to any fine not exceeding two pounds.

No cart to remain in the street, &c., at night, under a penalty upon owner.

82 In no case shall any description of carriage be permitted to obstruct the passage of any street, way, or avenue, nor any two or more carriages of any description to stand abreast in any street, way, or avenue, within such town and limits; and the owner or person driving, loading, or in charge of any such carriage not removing the same immediately when ordered or requested so to do by any officer of police, or by any private person, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to any fine not exceeding two pounds.

No carriage to obstruct any street.

83 All persons who shall drive or conduct any carriage or other vehicle in a careless, reckless, or violent manner, or who shall ride upon any carriage or other vehicle drawn by horses, bullocks, or other cattle at a pace other than a walk, unless the animal driven be so harnessed and bitted as to be perfectly under the control of the driver, or some person on foot able to guide and control the same, or who shall furiously ride or drive, or carelessly lead or let loose any horse, bullock, or other animal in any street, to the danger and terror of passengers, or shall employ any incompetent person to drive or conduct any carriage or other vehicle, or to lead any horse, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding three months.

Penalty on furious or careless riding or driving.

84 No elephant shall be permitted to pass along any street, road, or thoroughfare within any town and limits except between the hours of two and eight in the morning; and every person riding, driving, or conducting any elephant, or causing any elephant to be ridden, driven, or conducted along any such street, road, or thoroughfare, except between such hours as aforesaid, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds: Provided always that nothing in this clause contained shall apply to the employment of elephants in any town or limits under a written license granted by the authority of the Governor.

Rules to be observed by carriages passing each other.

85 When a wheeled carriage shall pass another wheeled carriage going in the same or coming from an opposite direction, it shall pass on the off or right side of such other carriage; and every person driving or conducting a wheeled carriage who shall wilfully or negligently pass any other wheeled carriage on the wrong side, or prevent any other wheeled carriage from passing on the proper side, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable to any fine not exceeding one pound.

Persons offending against the 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, and 85th clauses of this Ordinance may be seized.

86 It shall be lawful for any person within whose view any of the offences specified in the 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, and 85th clauses of this Ordinance shall have been committed, to seize and take the party having so offended to the nearest officer of police to be dealt with according to law, if such party shall refuse to give to such person on demand full information respecting his name, occupation, and residence; and where such offender cannot be so seized or traced, but the carriage, cart, or animal in respect of which the offence in question was committed can be identified, it shall be lawful for any competent court to issue a warrant for the seizure of such carriage, cart, or animal, together with a summons to the owner thereof to appear before such court on a certain day to be mentioned in such summons; and if such owner shall fail to attend in pursuance thereof without good and sufficient excuse, or if attending and not being himself the offender he shall refuse to give all information in his power respecting the party by whom such offence was committed, such owner shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to the same punishment to which the party so having offended as aforesaid would have been liable on conviction thereof.

Penalty on persons forming part of procession or assemblies carrying swords or other offensive weapons.

87 If any person forming part of any procession or of any assembly of more than twelve persons, except under military regulation or some regulation of police, which shall take place or be collected for some particular purpose anywhere within any town and limits, shall have about him or have placed anywhere near him so as to be capable of being used by him while forming part of such procession or of such assembly, any gun, pistol, sword, creese, club, or other offensive weapon, every such person shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to any fine not exceeding twenty pounds, or to imprisonment at hard labour for any period not exceeding twelve months; and every person who shall have formed part of any such procession or assembly, and who it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the court before whom he shall be brought was aware that any such offensive weapon was carried or placed near any person forming part of such procession or assembly as aforesaid, and did not give information thereof to some officer of police, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to any fine not exceeding ten pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding six months.

90 All persons who shall at any time within any town and limits, either within or without any house or building, beat drums or tom-toms, or have or use any other music calculated to frighten horses, or who shall make any noise in the night so as to disturb the repose of the inhabitants, or who shall at any time discharge firearms, crackers, or fireworks, except under military regulation, or unless they shall have obtained a license from the police magistrate of the district, or from the Chief Superintendent of Police or provincial inspector, who are hereby authorized to grant the same when it shall to them appear expedient, or who shall play at any games in or near any street, road, or thoroughfare, or fly any kite, or throw any stone or other missile, or wilfully or negligently make any noise, or do any act or thing in a manner calculated to terrify or injure any passenger, horse, or cattle, or to injure any property, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to any fine not exceeding five pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding three months.

Beating of tom-tom, &c., forbidden.

91 Any person who shall spread false reports with the view to alarm the inhabitants of any place within this island and create a panic shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding twelve months; and if he shall be convicted a second time, or shall persist in the offence after warning to desist, he shall be liable to corporal punishment not exceeding twenty lashes.

False reports to alarm people and create a panic.

94 No filth, or dirt, or dead or disabled animal, shall be cast or allowed to remain in any street, road, canal, or other thoroughfare within any such town and limits, and every inhabitant within any such town and limits shall keep the space and street or road, and all surface drains, ditches, and gutters, before his house clean, and the owners or occupiers of all private avenues, passages, yards, and ways, and all slaughter-houses, shall keep the same clean, and shall remove the offal to such place as the principal police officer of the division may point out under the directions of the Superintendent of Police; and any person wilfully offending against this clause shall be guilty of an offence, and liable to any fine not exceeding two pounds.

Persons to keep the space opposite their houses clean.

95 It shall be lawful for the Chief Superintendent of Police, or where there is a municipality for the municipal council or its officers, to notify from time to time in as public a manner as he conveniently can, the place or places in any Common nuisance.

such town and limits within which persons shall not be allowed to ease themselves under the penalty hereinafter mentioned; and every person who shall, after such notification shall have been given, ease himself in any place comprehended in such notification, except in some house, outhouse, or enclosed place, with the leave of the occupant thereof, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to any penalty not exceeding one pound; Provided always that nothing in this clause contained shall be construed into a declaration that persons cannot commit a nuisance by easing themselves in such places as are not comprehended in such notification as aforesaid.

Houses to be surrounded with walls or fences, and gardens kept clear.

97 All houses and gardens within such parts of any of the said towns and limits as the Governor shall from time to time direct by Proclamation to be for that purpose issued in the Government Gazette shall, within six months after such Proclamation shall have been so issued, be surrounded with walls or good fences, and be cleared and kept clean of brush and underwood; and every person neglecting within such time so to surround his house and garden, or to clear and to keep the same clear of brush and underwood, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to any fine not exceeding two pounds: Provided always that the proprietors of adjoining lands which shall require to be fenced or walled under the provisions of this clause shall be liable to make and keep in repair each one-half of such fence or wall, except where by any law or custom such liability shall be otherwise determined.

Proviso.

Cases may be tried before police courts, though otherwise out of their jurisdiction.

98 Whereas the punishments assigned to certain offenders under this Ordinance are beyond the jurisdiction of police courts, but it would be frequently more advantageous that such offences should be brought to trial before such courts in order that the punishment of offenders may be more prompt, even though it should be less severe: It is therefore enacted, that in case of any person committing an offence under this Ordinance, and which offence could not otherwise be cognizable by a police court by reason of the punishment to which the same is subject, a certificate shall be presented to any police court, signed by the Queen's Advocate or by some competent deputy Queen's advocate, to the effect that such officer is content that such offence or act shall be prosecuted before such court, it shall be competent to such court to take cognizance of such offence or act, and to award in respect thereof so much of the punishment assigned thereto as police courts are empowered by law to award.

Power to prosecute not affected.

100 Nothing contained in this Ordinance shall be construed to prevent any person from being prosecuted for any offence made punishable on conviction by this Ordinance, or to prevent any person from being liable under any other law to any other or higher penalty or punishment than is provided for such offence by this Ordinance: Provided always that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

No. 20 of 1865.

An Ordinance to provide against the removal of Stones and other substances from certain parts of the Seashore.

Preamble.

WHEREAS many of the public roads and thoroughfares in this colony are seriously injured by the removal of stones or other substances from the seashore adjoining or near such roads and thoroughfares, and it is expedient to prohibit such removal: It is enacted as follows:

Agent may prohibit removal of stones, &c., from any locality.

1 It shall be lawful for the government agent of any province to prohibit the removal of stones or other substances from the seashore adjoining or near public roads and thoroughfares in any part of the district within his province, if such removal should, in his judgment, be calculated to injure such roads and thoroughfares; and he shall cause notice of such prohibition to be given in the district, by such means as shall seem to him likely to give the greatest publicity thereto.

Penalty for removal after prohibition.

2 Whoever, after such notice of prohibition, shall break or remove stone or other substances from any place from which such breaking or removal shall be prohibited, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, not exceeding three months, or to both; and the stone or substance shall be liable to be seized and to be disposed of as the government agent or any assistant government agent shall direct.

*Nuwara Eliya Parsonage Land.No. 22 of 1865.An Ordinance to establish the validity of a Lease of a portion of the Parsonage Land at Nuwara Eliya.(See No. 31 of 1890.)

WHEREAS by virtue of a conveyance bearing date at Caltura the 28th day of October, 1853, the late Francis James Templer granted, bargained, sold, assigned, and set over, for the consideration therein named, a tract of land at Nuwara Eliya, bounded on the north, east, and west by other land belonging to the said Francis James Templer, and on the south and south-west by a river, and containing in extent thirty acres, according to a survey to the said conveyance annexed, to Robert Temple, Samuel Baker, and Raymond Richard Pelley, the then trustees of the episcopal church at Nuwara Eliya, and to their successors the trustees for the time being :

And whereas Robert Temple, Arthur Edward Carey, and Mark Kellow, then trustees of the said church at Nuwara Eliya, on the 24th day of August, 1863, leased, for the consideration therein named, a portion of the land above described, three acres in extent, to Alfred Peter Lovekin, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for the term of seventy years, commencing from the 31st day of December, 1863, with power to the said Alfred Peter Lovekin to erect buildings thereon, and to plant and improve the same at his and their free will and pleasure :

And whereas the said Alfred Peter Lovekin has erected a certain house on the land so leased, and has planted and improved the same ; but doubts have been raised as to the validity of the lease and the power of the said trustees to make the same :

And it has been represented by Piers Clavelly Claughton, the Lord Bishop of Colombo, and Thomas Skinner, James Fowler, William Kellow, and Christopher Edmund Temple, the present trustees of the said church, that the value of the entire land made over for the use of the parsonage, as firstly herein recited, has been considerably increased by the buildings and improvements made by the said Alfred Peter Lovekin under the said lease secondly herein recited, and the said Bishop and trustees, on the one hand, and Alfred Peter Lovekin, on the other, have applied to the Government for an Act of the Legislature to remove the doubts above mentioned :

And whereas it is clear that such lease was made in good faith, and that it was and is beneficial and profitable to the interest of the trust established by the conveyance firstly above recited, and that it is expedient to confirm the same :

1 It is enacted that the said lease secondly above recited shall be and the same is hereby declared valid to all intents and purposes.

2 Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, and of all bodies politic and corporate, and of all other

No. 24 of 1865.

An Ordinance to authorize the shooting of Cattle trespassing on the Line of Railway.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the provisions already made to prevent cattle trespassing on the railway are ineffectual to secure the desired end, and there is reason to fear that, unless more stringent measures be adopted, serious accidents will occur : It is hereby enacted as follows :

Director-General may empower cattle trespassing on railway to be shot.

1 It shall be lawful for the Director-General of the Railway, with the sanction of the Governor, by written authority to be by him for that purpose issued, and subject to such conditions and limitations as shall be therein specified, to empower any person named therein to shoot cattle trespassing on the line of railway, and such authority from time to time to recall, if to the Director-General it shall appear expedient so to do.

Persons shooting exempted from liability.

2 Any person empowered as aforesaid may lawfully shoot and kill cattle trespassing on the line of railway, and shall not be subject to any liability, civil or criminal, for doing so.

Abuse of authority.

3 Any person who shall abuse the authority so given to him, or shall wilfully exceed the terms thereof, or shall in any way act contrary to the conditions and limitations therein specified, shall, in addition to any civil liability he may incur by such act, be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding twelve months, or to both.

No. 4 of 1866.

An Ordinance to enlarge the power of the Surveyor-General to demand the production of Deeds and make surveys of Lands, and to facilitate the proof of Surveys.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the continued encroachments made by private individuals upon lands belonging to the Crown, and the necessity for ascertaining and distinguishing the lands belonging to the Crown from those belonging to private individuals, render it necessary that the Surveyor-General and his officers should be vested with increased powers to demand the production of title deeds, and to make surveys of lands, whether public or private ; and whereas it is expedient to facilitate the proof of Government surveys : It is therefore enacted as follows :

Production of Deeds.

1 It shall be lawful for the Surveyor-General, or any of his assistants, or for any person authorized in that behalf in writing by the Surveyor-General, whenever to them it shall appear necessary to do so, to demand in writing of the person claiming to be the owner of any land or premises, or of his agent, or of the occupier of any such land or premises, the production of every deed, document, or instrument upon which such person founds his claim; and if such agent, or the occupier of any such land or premises, shall refuse to give full information respecting the name and residence of the alleged owner, and of the person by whom such agent or occupier is employed, and in whose possession the said deeds, documents, and instruments are, upon being requested so to do by the Surveyor-General, or on his behalf as aforesaid, or if such alleged owner, or agent, or occupier shall refuse to produce to the Surveyor-General, or to any person on his behalf, within ten days after being requested so to do, every deed, document, and instrument upon which he founds his claim to the said land or premises, and which shall be in his possession, or, if any such deed, document, or instrument shall not be in his possession, shall refuse fully to inform the Surveyor-General, or any person on his behalf, upon application, in whose possession they are; or if any person having in his possession any such deed, document, or instrument shall refuse to produce the same within ten days after having been requested so to do in writing by the Surveyor-General, or on his behalf, every such agent, occupier, alleged owner, and person so refusing shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Surveyor-General, &c., may demand production of deeds.

2 The deeds, documents, and instruments in the preceding clause mentioned shall be produced on the premises to which the same may relate, or at such other place as the person demanding the same may require, and the power of demanding the production thereof, in the preceding clause given, shall be deemed and taken to include the power of making such examination of such deeds, documents, and instruments as shall be necessary; and every person refusing or failing to permit such examination of any such deed, document, or instrument, to any party authorized under this Ordinance to demand production thereof, and making such demand, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Demand of production of deed to include power of examination.

3 The Surveyor-General, or any of his assistants, or any person authorized in that behalf in writing by the Surveyor-General, may, after reasonable notice given to the occupier, enter upon any land or premises which it may be necessary for him to inspect or survey, and make such inspection and survey of the same as shall be necessary to enable such Surveyor-General, assistant, or other person to ascertain whether such land or premises belongs to Her Majesty, or is the private property of the person claiming the same. notice for the purposes of this Ordinance ; but such form of notice shall not preclude the Surveyor-General or his assistants from adopting any other form.

Penalty on abuse of power by Surveyor-General, &c.

5 If the Surveyor-General, or any of his assistants, or any person authorized by him as aforesaid, or any person acting under his orders, shall, under pretence of performing any duty or exercising any privilege imposed on or vested in him by or under this Ordinance, abuse his power or use unnecessary violence, or wantonly do any injury, or give uncalled for and vexatious annoyance, every such officer or person shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Proof of plans signed by the Surveyor-General.

6 If any plan or survey offered in evidence in any suit shall purport to be signed by the Surveyor-General or officer acting on his behalf, such plan or survey shall be received in evidence, and may be taken to be prima facie proof of the facts exhibited therein ; and it shall not be necessary to prove that it was in fact signed by the Surveyor-General or officer acting on his behalf, nor that it was made by his authority, nor that the same is accurate, until evidence to the contrary shall have first been given.

Copies purporting to be authenticated by the Surveyor-General receivable instead of originals.

7 Any plan or survey purporting to be a true copy of one purporting to be signed as aforesaid shall, provided the said copy purport to be signed and authenticated by the Surveyor-General or officer acting on his behalf as a true copy of the original, be received in evidence in all cases and for all purposes instead of the original, and may (without proof that the original is not procurable) be taken as prima facie evidence of the truth of the facts exhibited therein as fully as that original may be under this Ordinance ; and it shall not be necessary to prove that the said copy was in fact signed or authenticated by the Surveyor-General or officer acting on his behalf, nor that it is a true copy, nor that the facts established therein are accurate, until evidence to the contrary shall have first been given.

8 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

17th October, 1866.

No. 6 of 1866.

An Ordinance to compel the registration of old Deeds and other Instruments of Title.

(See No. 15 of 1867.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS false deeds, sannases, and olas, purporting to bear old dates, are not uncommonly produced in evidence in courts of justice, and it is expedient to provide against them : It is therefore hereby enacted as follows :

Commencement.

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

Registration of Deeds.

2 All persons holding or claiming title under deeds, sannases, olas, or other instruments on which title to land or other immovable property is founded, which bear date on or before the 1st day of February, 1840, are hereby required to produce the same before the registrar of lands for the district within which such persons shall respectively reside, on or before the 31st day of December, 1867. If such registrar shall reside at an inconvenient distance, such deeds, sannases, olas, or other instruments may be produced before the nearest commissioner of requests or police magistrate, whose duty it shall be to forward the same safely and expeditiously to the registrar of lands for the purposes of registration under this Ordinance: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to extend the time hereinbefore limited for the production of deeds, sannases, olas, or other instruments, either as respects the colony generally or any particular province or district thereof.

Deeds, &c., not registered not admissible in evidence after January, 1868.

Proviso as to extension of time for producing deeds, &c.

3 The registrar of lands shall thereupon cause an exact copy of the said deed, sannas, ola, or other instrument to be made, which said copy shall show the alterations, erasures, interlineations, or other suspicious marks, if any, which may appear in the original, and shall cause such copy to be carefully filed and preserved in his office, and the original to be returned to the person from whom he received the same, with the registrar's endorsement written on some conspicuous part of the deed, ola, or other instrument, and engraved on the sannas, to show that the same was produced before him and the date of such production.

Registrar to cause exact copy to be made.

4 The registrar shall also cause a list in duplicate to be made monthly of all deeds, sannases, olas, or other instruments produced before him under the provisions of this Ordinance, giving all necessary particulars thereof, and shall transmit one to the Registrar-General of Lands, and shall file the other in his own office.

Monthly lists of such deeds, &c., to be made.

5 For facility of reference, a general list, either in alphabetical or other convenient order, shall be made and preserved of all such deeds, sannases, olas, or other instruments in the offices of the Registrar-General and district registrar.

General lists thereof to be kept.

6 If any person shall claim interest under any such deeds, sannases, olas, or other instruments, but is unable to produce them owing to their being in the possession of another who refuses to part with them, he shall inform the same to the registrar, who shall thereupon cause such other person to be noticed to produce them. Any person noticed as aforesaid who fails or refuses to produce any such deed, sannas, ola, or other instrument, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one pound for every day he so fails or refuses to produce the same.

Process where persons claiming interest under deeds, &c., are unable to produce the same.

Police Force.

All deeds, sannases, olas, &c., executed before 1st February, 1840, to be produced to registrar of lands.

Proviso.

Second proviso.

Deeds, &c., annexed to others, &c., not affected.

7 From and after the 1st day of January, 1868, or in case of the time having been extended as hereinbefore provided, from and after the expiry of such extended time, either in the colony generally or the particular province or district in respect of which such extension shall have been made, no deed, sannas, ola, or other instrument as aforesaid shall be received in evidence in any civil proceeding in any court of justice for the purposes of creating, transferring, or extinguishing any right or obligation, unless such deed, sannas, ola, or other instrument shall have been previously registered in the manner hereinbefore directed: Provided that if it shall be established to the satisfaction of the court before which any such deed, sannas, ola, or other instrument is produced that the same was not registered owing to the absence from the island of the holder thereof, or of his being under some legal disability, or from other causes utterly beyond the control of the person producing it in evidence, such court may allow the production of such deed, sannas, ola, or instrument, and the same shall be received in evidence notwithstanding that the same shall not have been previously registered as herein directed: Provided also that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be held to prevent parties questioning any deed, sannas, ola, or other instrument which may be produced in evidence notwithstanding that the same shall have been registered, and on grounds other than the registration thereof, and on which said other grounds the court before which the question shall arise shall determine as if this Ordinance had not been passed.

8 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall affect any deed, sannas, ola, or other instrument which is annexed to other deeds or instruments of title bearing date subsequent to the First February, 1840, and which said other deeds or instruments of title have been bonâ fide transferred and registered as has heretofore been required by law.

17th October, 1866.

No. 7 of 1866.

An Ordinance relating to the Police Force.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend, in certain respects, the Ordinance No. 16 of 1865, entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the establishment and regulation of a Police Force in this Island": It is enacted as follows:

Meaning of "police officer."

1 The expression police officer shall include the Chief Superintendent of Police, provincial superintendents and assistant superintendents of police, inspectors, sergeants, and constables.

Powers vested in superintendent by section 11 of "The Police Ordinance, 1865," how exercisable.

2 The powers vested in the Chief Superintendent of Police by section 11 of the said Ordinance shall be exercised by him under the directions of the Governor and Executive Council, and not with their advice and consent, as is in the said section mentioned.

Contagious Diseases.

3 The 23rd section of the said Ordinance is hereby repealed, and it is enacted instead thereof that the administration of the police in this island shall be vested in the Chief Superintendent of Police, provincial superintendents and assistant superintendents of police, inspectors, sergeants, and constables. The powers vested by the said Ordinance in provincial inspectors shall be exercised by the superintendents and assistant superintendents, and the provisions in the said Ordinance contained respecting provincial inspectors shall apply to such superintendents and assistant superintendents respectively.

The several officers of police.

4 The appointments under the said Ordinance and under this Ordinance to which are attached salaries exceeding two hundred pounds a year, shall be held during the pleasure of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint any person provisionally to such offices until the pleasure of Her Majesty shall have been made known.

Appointments under Ordinance.

5 The 35th and 36th sections of the said Ordinance are hereby repealed, and it is enacted instead thereof that the assessment to be made in any town for the purposes of creating a fund for the maintenance of a police force therein shall be made by three or more persons appointed by the Governor, with power to them to act separately or collectively as the government agent shall direct; and each person so appointed shall be entitled to receive such remuneration as the Governor may in his discretion award.

Repeal of sections 35 and 36, and power to appoint three or more assessors to assess the town, acting separately or collectively.

6 The assessors for the first year in which a police force is to be introduced in any town may be appointed before the introduction of such force, and every such assessor, when so appointed, shall have and exercise the powers conferred on the committee of assessors by the 37th and 38th sections thereof, notwithstanding that the Ordinance shall not have been brought into operation in such town. For every year after the first the assessors shall be appointed within such time before the commencement of each year as the Governor shall deem reasonable.

Time for appointment of assessors.

No. 8 of 1866.

An Ordinance to provide against the spread of Contagious Diseases in this Island.*

WHEREAS it is desirable to provide against the introduction and spread of certain malignant diseases generally believed to be of a contagious or infectious nature: It is enacted as follows:

Preamble.

1 The Ordinance No. 10 of 1852, entitled "An Ordinance to amend the laws relating to Smallpox Quarantine, and for preventing the spread of certain Contagious Diseases in this Island," is repealed.

Repeal of Ordinance No. 10 of 1852.

Board of health within each province.

Proviso in case of municipalities.

Second proviso.

Cases of smallpox or cholera, &c., to be reported.

Medical man to report such cases if not already reported.

Houses infected with smallpox may be marked.

2 For the purposes of this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time to appoint within each province two or more persons to form the board of health in such province, and, if need be, to remove such persons, or any of them, and to appoint others in their place: Provided that if any town in such province shall have been heretofore, or shall be hereafter, created a municipality, the municipal council of such town shall form the board of health thereof, and shall exercise the powers and shall be subject to the obligations vested in boards of health by this Ordinance, by the Ordinance No. 15 of 1862, entitled "The Nuisances Ordinance, 1862," and by any other Ordinance now in force or to be hereafter enacted: Provided further, that, except in the case of municipalities, the boards constituted and appointed under the Ordinance No. 10 of 1852 shall continue to act as boards of health under the present enactment until other appointments shall have been made.

3 Every householder residing in this colony shall be bound to report, with the least possible delay, to the superintendent of police, or to some inspector of police, or to some police constable or headman of his town or village, every case occurring in the house in which he resides of smallpox, cholera, or other disease which may from time to time be named by the Governor in a Proclamation to be by him for that purpose issued, and any householder neglecting to make such report shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding two pounds; and every inspector of police, police constable, or headman, to whom any such case shall be reported by such householder, or by any other person, or who shall know of the existence of any such case within such town or village, shall forthwith report the same to the superintendent of police, or to some justice of the peace for the district in which such town or village is situated.

4 The medical attendant of any person attacked with smallpox, cholera, or other disease as aforesaid shall be bound to report the same with all convenient despatch to the superintendent of police of the town, or to some inspector of police, or to some police constable or headman of the town or village in which such person resides, unless such medical attendant has credible information that such case has already been reported; and any medical man neglecting to make such report, he not having received credible information that the case has been already reported, shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

5 The superintendent of police of the town or place, or any police magistrate for the district in which any case of smallpox occurs, shall be entitled, if he shall see occasion, to place or cause to be placed on the wall or door of the house or building in which such disease exists any mark which he may think advisable for the purpose of denoting the existence of the disease, and to keep such mark affixed for such time as he may deem necessary; and any person removing or obliterating any such mark without the authority of such superintendent of police or police magistrate, shall on conviction thereof be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty for removing mark.

6 It shall be lawful for the superintendent of police of the town or place, or for any justice of the peace for the district in which any case of smallpox, cholera, or other disease as aforesaid occurs, upon the application of the head of a family or of the owner or occupier of the house in which such case occurs, to make an order in writing for the removal of the person affected with the disease (in such manner and with such precautions as he shall deem necessary) to some public hospital or place provided by Government for the reception of persons so affected, and for the detention of such person therein under proper medical care, for such time as the medical officer in charge of such hospital or place shall deem necessary; and any person resisting or preventing the removal of any other person for whose removal an order has been given on such application as aforesaid, shall on conviction thereof be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

On application of the head of a family, an affected person may be removed to hospital.

Penalty on person resisting removal.

7 It shall be lawful for any inspector of police, police constable, or headman of any town or village, forthwith to take and remove to the nearest hospital or place provided by Government for the reception of smallpox patients any person who shall be found in any street, thoroughfare, or public place in any such town or village whilst the smallpox disease is upon such person.

Persons going about whilst the smallpox is upon them may be taken to the hospital.

8 Any person affected with smallpox, and who knowing himself to be so affected shall wilfully go abroad into any street, thoroughfare, or public place, and any person who shall wilfully expose or take any child or other person affected with smallpox, knowing such child or person to be so affected, in or to any street, thoroughfare, or public place, shall on conviction thereof be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty on persons affected with smallpox wilfully going abroad.

9 The license required by section 4 of the Ordinance No. 15 of 1862 shall be issued by the board of health of the province, and not by the government agent or assistant government agent, as is therein required, but if any town within such province shall have a municipality the said license shall be issued by the municipal council of such town: Provided that the sum payable on account of such license shall be carried to the credit of the general revenue, except where there is a municipality, when it shall be received by the municipal council and form part of its funds.

License required by Nuisance Ordinance, 1862, to be issued by board of health.

regulations, &c., to prevent introduction or spread of infectious disease in the colony.

and also to establish regulations and make orders applicable to cases of emergency arising from or relating to the anticipated breaking out or spreading of any infectious or contagious disease, to establish such regulations and make such orders as the circumstances of the case appear to require : It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time to make such regulations or orders as may seem necessary and expedient to provide for the steps to be taken in the following cases and for the following objects :

Vessels arriving with infectious disease.

- (1) In respect to vessels which may at any time arrive at any port or place in this island having on board any infectious or contagious disease, whether as respects man or beast, or on board of which any such disease may have appeared in the course of the voyage ; or which may at any time arrive under any other alarming or suspicious circumstance as to infection ; and also with respect to the persons, animals, goods, merchandise, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, and other articles on board the same, so as to remove or lessen the danger of such disease being introduced or spreading in this island ; and also for shortening the time of quarantine to be performed by particular vessels, or by particular persons, goods, merchandise, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, or any other article, or for absolutely or conditionally releasing them, or any of them, from quarantine :

Infectious disease in the country.

- (2) In case of any infectious or contagious disease of a malignant nature, whether in man or beast, breaking out or spreading in any town or district of this colony, under circumstances which render it advisable that measures should promptly be taken for securing the public health :

Proviso.

Provided that such regulations or orders shall be inserted in the Gazette, and that any public officer taking action thereunder shall be bound to report the case, with all necessary particulars, without delay, to the Governor.

Penalty for disobeying Governor's orders as aforesaid.

11 If any person shall knowingly and wilfully disobey or contravene any order or direction made and given by the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council, under the authority of the preceding section, or any order or direction given under the authority and in pursuance of any such order of the Governor as aforesaid, every person so refusing or neglecting to obey any such order or direction shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds.

Commencement.

12 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

27th October, 1866.

Arbitration and Awards.

No. 15 of 1866.

An Ordinance relating to Arbitration and Awards, and to provide for summary reference to Courts.

(Partly repealed by the Civil Procedure Code, 1859.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to facilitate the settlement of differences by arbitration, and by summary recourse to courts: It is therefore hereby enacted as follows:

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Arbitration Ordinance, 1866."

Short title.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the date of the passing thereof.

Commencement.

I.—Reference to Arbitration.

3 All matters in dispute between parties, which may form the subject of civil action, and not that of an indictment or criminal proceeding, may be submitted to arbitration.

All civil matters may be referred to arbitration.

4 A submission to arbitration may be compulsory by order of court, or voluntary by the consent of parties.

Arbitration may be compulsory or voluntary.

II.—Compulsory Reference.

5 If at any time after the institution of an action it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that it relates wholly or in part to matters of mere account of an intricate and complicated character, which cannot conveniently be tried in the ordinary way, it shall be lawful for such court to order that such matters, either wholly or in part, be referred to one or more arbitrators to be nominated by the parties, or, if they cannot agree or refuse to nominate them, by the court itself, upon such terms as to the costs and otherwise as such court shall think reasonable. The award of the arbitrators or of the umpire shall be reported to the court, and shall, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, be treated as if it were a finding of the court on the particular matter referred to arbitration.

Power of court to direct arbitration.

6 If at the time of making reference, or at any time thereafter, it shall appear to the court, on a report to that effect made by the arbitrators, that the allowance or disallowance of any particular item in such account depends upon a question of law fit to be decided by the court, it shall be lawful for such court to try and determine such question, and the finding of the court thereupon shall be taken and acted upon by the arbitrators as conclusive.

Court may determine, however, any particular questions of fact or law upon which allowance of any item of account may depend.

7 In every case where reference shall be made to arbitration by the order of court as aforesaid, the court shall, in addition to the general power to remit conferred upon it by section 26, have power from time to time to remit the matters referred, or any of them, for the re-consideration and re-determination of the said arbitrators or umpire, upon such terms as to costs and otherwise as to the court may seem proper.

Power to send back to arbitrators.

Arbitration and Awards.

If action commenced by one party after all have agreed to arbitration, court may stay proceedings.

8 Whenever the parties to any deed or instrument in writing to be hereafter made or executed, or any of them, shall agree that any existing or future differences between them shall be referred to arbitration, and any one or more of the said parties, or any person claiming through or under them, shall nevertheless commence any action against the other party, or against any person claiming through or under them, in respect of the matters so agreed to be referred, it shall be lawful for the court in which the action is brought, on application by the defendants, or any of them, upon being satisfied that no sufficient reason exists why such matters cannot be referred to arbitration according to such agreement as aforesaid, and that the defendants or any of them were, at the time of the bringing of such action, and still are, ready and willing to join and concur in all acts necessary and proper for causing such matters to be decided by arbitration, to make an order staying all proceedings in such action, and compelling reference to arbitration on such terms as to costs and otherwise as to such court may seem fit: Provided always that any such rule or order may, at any time afterwards, be discharged or varied as justice may require.

Proceedings before, and power of such arbitrator.

9 The proceedings upon any compulsory arbitration shall, unless otherwise directed hereby, or by the deed or instrument authorizing the reference, be conducted in like manner, and subject to the same rules as to the power of the arbitrator and of the court, the attendance of witnesses, the production of documents, the enforcing or setting aside the award, and otherwise, as upon a reference made by consent under a rule of court.

*IV.—Proceedings before Arbitrators.

Power of arbitrators appointed under order of court or in pursuance of submission which may be made on rule of court.

20 When a reference is made to arbitration by an order of court, or in pursuance of an agreement that such reference shall be made an order of court, the court shall issue the same process to the parties and witnesses whom the arbitrators or umpire may desire to have examined, as the court is authorized to issue in suits tried before it; and persons not attending in consequence of such process, or making any other default, or refusing to give their testimony, or being guilty of any contempt to the arbitrators or umpire during the investigation of the suit, shall be made subject to the like disadvantages, penalties, and punishments, by order of the court, on the representation of the arbitrators or umpire, as they would incur for the same offence in suits tried before the court.

When arbitrators may administer oath; false oath before them made perjury.

21 When in any order of reference, or in any submission to arbitration, containing an agreement that the submission shall be made a rule or order of court, it shall be ordered or agreed that the parties and witnesses upon such references shall be examined upon oath, it shall be lawful for the

* Voluntary references under this chapter and chapter V. (sections 20 to 29) are repealed by No. 2 of 1889.

Arbitration and Awards.

arbitrators or umpire, or any one arbitrator, and they are hereby authorized and required, to administer oaths to such witnesses, or to take their affirmation, in cases where affirmation is allowed by law instead of oath; and if, upon such oath or affirmation, any person making the same shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, every person so offending shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of perjury, and shall be prosecuted and punished accordingly.

22 The arbitrators acting under any deed of submission, or compulsory order of reference, shall make their award under their hand and (unless such document or order shall contain a different limit of time) within three months after they shall have been appointed and shall have entered on the reference, or shall have been called upon to act by a notice in writing from any party, but the court or the parties by consent in writing may enlarge the time for making the award. If no period be stated for the enlargement in such consent or such order for such enlargement, it shall be deemed to be an enlargement for one month; and, in any case when an umpire shall have been appointed, it shall be lawful for him to enter on the reference, in lieu of the arbitrators, if the latter shall have allowed their time, or their extended time, to expire without making an award, or shall have delivered to any party, or to the umpire, a notice in writing stating that they cannot agree.

Award to be made in three months unless parties or court enlarge time.

V.—Award.

23 When an award in a suit shall be made either by the arbitrators or the umpire, it shall be submitted to the court under the signature of the person by whom it may be made, together with all the proceedings, depositions, and exhibits in the suit.

Award must be signed by party making, and submitted with proceedings, depositions, and exhibits.

24 It shall be lawful for the arbitrators or umpire, upon any reference, by an order of court, if they shall think fit, and if it is not provided to the contrary, to state their award as to the whole or any part thereof, in the form of a special case, for the opinion of the court.

Arbitrators may state their award in the form of a special case.

25 The court may, on the application of either party, modify or correct an award, where it appears that a part of the award is upon matters not referred to the arbitrators (provided that such part can be separated from the other part and does not affect the decision on the matter referred), or where the award is imperfect in form, or contains any obvious error which can be amended without affecting such decision. The court may also, on such application, make such order as it thinks just respecting the costs of the arbitration, if any question arise respecting such costs and the award contain no sufficient provision concerning them.

When court may modify or correct an award.

26 In any of the following cases the court shall have power to remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration to the reconsideration of the same arbitrators or umpire, upon such terms as it may think proper; (that is to say,)

When court may remit award.

Destruction of Documents.

- (1) If the award has left undetermined some of the matters referred to arbitration, or if it determine matters not referred to arbitration :
- (2) If the award is so indefinite as to be incapable of execution :
- (3) If an objection to the legality of the award is apparent upon the face of the award.

Setting aside of awards.

27 No award shall be liable to be set aside except on the ground of corruption or misconduct of the arbitrators or umpire. Any application to set aside an award shall be made within ten days after the same has been submitted to the court and notified to the parties in the suit, and not thereafter.

Judgment upon awards.

28 If the court shall not see cause to remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration for reconsideration in manner aforesaid, and if no application shall have been made to set aside the award, or if the court shall have refused such application, the court shall proceed to pass judgment according to the award, or according to its own opinion on the special case if the award shall have been submitted to it in the form of a special case ; and the judgment which shall be so given shall be carried into execution in the same manner as other decrees of the court. In every case in which judgment shall be given according to the award, the judgment shall be final, and shall not be subject to appeal. Where judgment shall be given in any case of compulsory reference, such judgment shall be subject to appeal.

Appeal.

Proceedings on awards not made a rule of court.

29 If there be no cause pending in court, and the submission has not been made a rule of court, the mode of enforcing the award is by action on the bond of submission.

12th December, 1866.

No. 17 of 1866.

An Ordinance to authorize the destruction of old and useless Processes and Documents.

Preamble.

WHEREAS certain of the documents now preserved in the courts of justice of this colony are utterly useless, and the accumulation of them is productive of inconvenience : It is therefore enacted as follows :

Governor to authorize destruction of processes and records.

1 It shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time to authorize one or more persons, to be named by him, to destroy the following documents, now of record in the different courts of justice in this colony, or any of them :

- (1) All ordinary processes of district courts or courts of requests, or any of them, namely, summonses, subpoenas, notices, and rules nisi, which have been issued and served at any period more than five years anterior to the date of the authority for their destruction :

Protection of Fish.

- (2) All the records of police courts, or any of them, save and except the record book required by the general rules and orders for police courts bearing date the 17th day of June, 1844, and the calendars prescribed by section 26 of the general rules and orders attached to the schedule A of the Ordinance No. 18 of 1861, entitled "An Ordinance for giving effect to certain rules and orders for the Police Courts," and which said records shall have been made more than three years anterior to the date of the authority for their destruction :

Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for the persons who may be authorized to destroy processes and records as aforesaid to preserve any process or record in cases where, from important documents being filed in such record, or from other reasons, it may seem desirable to do so.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation at the date of the passing thereof.

Commencement.

19th December, 1866.

No. 19 of 1866.An Ordinance to prevent the unnecessary destruction of Fish.

(See No. 13 of 1887.)

WHEREAS much wholesale and wanton destruction of fish, and of the brood, spawn, and fry thereof, results from the use of certain kinds of nets in some parts of the sea coast of this island, and it is expedient to prevent the same : It is therefore hereby enacted as follows :

Preamble.

1 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to prohibit the use of certain kinds of nets to be in such Proclamation specified, or to restrict their use to certain places, or to attach such conditions to their use as shall appear expedient to the Governor, with the said advice.

Governor may prohibit the use of certain kinds of nets, or may attach conditions to the use thereof.

2 Whoever, after such Proclamation, shall use, or join in using, any kind of net so prohibited as aforesaid, or shall use, or join in using them, in restricted places, or shall use, or join in using them, contrary to the conditions which may be attached to such use, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, with or without hard labour, or to both ; and the net, and other implements belonging thereto, and the fish caught by the same, shall be liable to be seized and disposed of, for the benefit of the Crown, as the police magistrate of the district shall direct.

Offence to use nets after prohibition, or contrary to condition.

3 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the date of the passing thereof.

Commencement.

19th December, 1866.

*Partnership.No. 21 of 1866.*An Ordinance relating to the Law of Partnership.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and declare the law relating to partnership: It is enacted as follows :

Commencement.

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

Interpretation of "person."

2 In the construction of this Ordinance, the word "person" shall include a partnership firm, a joint stock company, and a corporation.

Lender not a partner by advancing money for share of profits.

3 The advance of money by way of loan to a person engaged or about to engage in any trade or undertaking upon a contract in writing with such person that the lender shall receive a rate of interest varying with the profits, or shall receive a share of the profits arising from carrying on such trade or undertaking, shall not, of itself, constitute the lender a partner with the person carrying on such trade or undertaking, or render him responsible as such.

Remuneration of agents, &c., by profits not to make them partners.

4 No contract for the remuneration of a servant or agent or any person engaged in any trade or undertaking by a share of the profits of such trade or undertaking, shall, of itself, render such servant or agent responsible as a partner therein, nor give him the rights of a partner.

Certain annuitants not to be deemed partners.

5 No person being the widow or child of the deceased partner of a trader, and receiving by way of annuity a portion of the profits made by such trader in his business, shall, by reason only of such receipt, be deemed to be a partner of, or to be subject to, any liabilities incurred by such trader.

Receipt of profits, &c., not to make the seller a partner.

6 No person receiving by way of annuity or otherwise a portion of the profits of any business, in consideration of the sale by him of the goodwill of such business, shall, by reason only of such receipt, be deemed to be a partner of, or be subject to, the liabilities of the person carrying on such business.

In case of bankruptcy, &c., lender not to rank, as respects profit or interest, with other creditors.

7 In the event of any such trader as aforesaid being a bankrupt or insolvent, or taking the benefit of any Act for the relief of insolvent debtors, or entering into an arrangement to pay his creditors less than twenty shillings in the pound, or dying in insolvent circumstances, the lender of any such loan as aforesaid shall not be entitled to recover any portion of the profits or interest payable in respect of such loan, nor shall any such vendor of a goodwill as aforesaid be entitled to recover any such profits as aforesaid until the claims of the other creditors of the said trader for valuable consideration in money or money's worth have been satisfied.

English Law.

Fiscals.

No. 22 of 1866.

An Ordinance to extend the introduction into this Colony of the Law of England in certain cases.

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the introduction into this colony of the Law of England in certain respects : It is therefore enacted as follows :

Preamble.

1 In all questions or issues which may hereafter arise or which may have to be decided in this colony, with respect to the law of partnerships, joint stock companies, corporations, banks and banking, principals and agents, carriers by land, life and fire insurance, the law to be administered shall be the same as would be administered in England in the like case, at the corresponding period, if such question or issue had arisen or had to be decided in England, unless in any case other provision is or shall be made by any Ordinance now in force in this colony or hereafter to be enacted : Provided that nothing herein contained shall be taken to introduce into this colony any part of the Law of England relating to the tenure or conveyance, or assurance of, or succession to, any land or other immovable property, or any estate, right, or interest therein.

Law of England to be observed in all commercial matters.

Provisc.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the date of the passing thereof.

Commencement.

24th December, 1866.

No. 4 of 1867.

(As amended by No. 10 of 1867.)

An Ordinance to amend and consolidate the Law relating to Fiscals and their Officers.

(For the most part repealed by No. 2 of 1889. See No. 3 of 1890.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and consolidate the law relating to fiscals and their officers : It is enacted as follows :

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Fiscals' Ordinance, 1867."

Short title.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such day as the Governor shall, by Proclamation to be by him for that purpose issued, appoint.

Commencement of Ordinance.

3 The Ordinances and rules of court set out in the schedule A hereto annexed are hereby repealed, except so far as respects all offences which may have been heretofore committed against the same, or any of them, all rights which shall have accrued, liabilities which shall have been incurred, acts which shall have been done, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place thereunder before this Ordinance shall come into force.

Repeal of former Ordinances and rules.

Fiscals.

Interpretation
clause.

4 The following words and expressions in this Ordinance shall have the meaning hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction :

The word "officers" shall mean all persons employed to carry out the provisions of this Ordinance :

The word "court" shall include all courts of justice, and all persons and tribunals possessing judicial and magisterial authority in this island :

The word "sentence" shall include all decrees, judgments, or orders of a court :

The word "process" shall include all citations, monitions, summonses, mandates, subpoenas, notices, rules, orders, writs, warrants, and commands issued by a court.

I.—Fiscals' Department and Officers.

Appointment of fiscals and deputy fiscals.

5 The Governor shall appoint fit and proper persons to exercise the powers and perform the duties of fiscals for the provinces into which this island is now or may be hereafter divided, and deputy fiscals for each of the districts into which the several provinces may be subdivided. Notice of such appointments shall be published in the Government Gazette. All appointments to which are attached annual salaries exceeding two hundred pounds payable out of the colonial revenue shall be provisional, and subject to the approval of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors. Each deputy fiscal shall within his own district exercise the powers and perform the duties hereinafter required to be exercised and performed by the fiscal for the province: Provided that the fiscals and deputy fiscals heretofore appointed shall continue to act as such until any new appointment shall be made by the Governor, or until the warrant of deputation given to a deputy fiscal be withdrawn.

Deputy fiscal to have powers and duties of fiscal, but within his district.

Deputy fiscals should hold warrant of deputation from
fiscals.

6 No person shall act as deputy fiscal without a warrant of deputation from the fiscal substantially according to the form B in the schedule hereto annexed, and it shall be lawful for the fiscal to grant such warrants to persons other than those appointed by the Governor to act as deputy fiscals, and the last-mentioned persons holding such warrant shall, subject to the directions of the fiscal, have and exercise all the powers granted by this Ordinance to deputy fiscals. Every fiscal granting a warrant of deputation shall, within three days after signing the same, send a copy thereof to the Supreme Court, and to every court having jurisdiction within such deputy's district or division, and also to the Colonial Secretary. Like notice shall be given whenever any fiscal shall revoke a warrant.

Process servers to be licensed for each district.

8 For the service and execution of processes issued by the courts in this island the fiscal shall license as many process servers for each district as shall appear to him to be necessary, and the licenses to be issued by him shall be substantially in the form E to the schedule hereto annexed.

Fiscals.

The fiscal shall also have authority to revoke any license granted by him whenever it shall appear to him necessary to do so : Provided that it shall be lawful for the fiscal or deputy fiscal to appoint, by writing under his hand, any person to execute process in any particular case.

Power to revoke license.

9 Whenever satisfactory arrangements can for that purpose be made, it shall be lawful for the fiscal (and not for any deputy fiscal), with the sanction of the Governor, to divide each district into divisions, and to appoint a marshal for each division. Each marshal shall be answerable for the due and faithful execution and service of process within his division. The warrant appointing such marshals shall be substantially in the form F to the schedule hereto annexed ; and the fiscal shall have authority to revoke any warrant granted by him whenever it shall appear to him necessary to do so. Notice of the appointment or of the removal of marshals shall be published in the Government Gazette, as also in the division, in such manner as to secure publicity thereto.

Fiscal may subdivide district into divisions, and appoint a marshal for each 10 The fiscal may require every marshal to give security by bond for the due performance of the duties entrusted to him, and all officers employed by him, in such sum as shall appear to the fiscal to be necessary.

Warrant appointing marshal. Fiscal may revoke warrant. Notice of appointment and revocation.

11 Every marshal may appoint an assistant under his hand, giving notice to the fiscal of such appointment, and subject to the approval of the fiscal. The marshal shall be civilly responsible for the acts and omissions of his assistant.

Marshal may be required to give securities.

Marshal may appoint assistant.

12 Every marshal shall nominate a sufficient number of process servers for his division, and it shall be incumbent on the fiscal to issue his license, under section 8, to the process servers so nominated : Provided, however, that the marshal shall be civilly responsible for the acts and omissions of the process servers whom he shall nominate and employ.

Process servers to be employed by marshal

13 The Governor may from time to time appoint such clerks, superintendents of processes, and other officers, as to him may appear necessary, to assist the fiscals and deputy fiscals in the exercise and execution of their respective powers and duties.

Governor may appoint clerks and other officers.

II.—Fees.

14 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make and establish rates of fees and charges payable in each province by suitors, for the execution and service of the process issued at their instance or for their benefit, or on their account, by the courts of civil jurisdiction in this island, and to direct the mode in which such fees and charges are to be appropriated, and the form and mode in which the accounts of the department are to be kept and its work carried on ; and it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the like advice as aforesaid, from time to time to alter and vary such fees, charges, and directions, as shall appear to him necessary ; and such rates of fees and charges, when published in the Government Gazette, shall be deemed of force, and shall be payable by each suitor

Governor may establish fees and charges payable by suitors for the execution and service of their process.

Fiscals.

Such fees shall be deemed part of costs in the case.

Fees to be paid to revenue.
[§ 1, 10 of 1867]

Fees and charges leviable by stamp duty.

Schedule to be supplied with process.

Duty of secretary and clerk to issue no process without schedule.

No fiscal to cause process to be executed without schedule.

by the use of stamps as provided by section 16 ; and such fees shall form part of the costs in the cause, and shall be payable by the party whom the court shall condemn to pay costs : Provided that such fees and charges shall in no case exceed the rates specified in schedule G hereto annexed.

15 The fees and charges collected under section 14 of the said Ordinance shall be paid in, and form part of, the colonial revenue ; but the Treasurer shall nevertheless be bound to render to the Government the quarterly statements prescribed by the said Ordinance, to enable the Government to regulate thereby the expenditure of the fiscals' department, to remunerate the officers thereof, and otherwise to promote its strength and efficiency.

16 The fees and charges payable by suitors under section 14 shall be levied by means of stamp duties in manner following :

(1) Whenever a court shall issue one or more processes for service or execution by a fiscal, the suitor at whose instance, for whose benefit, or on whose account such processes issue, shall be required to supply with such processes a schedule according substantially to the form H hereto annexed ;* and every such schedule shall be on stamped paper not less in value than the aggregate sum due as fees and charges according to the rates established under section 14 for the service of the processes issued with the schedule :

(2) It shall be the duty of the secretary of every district court and the clerk of every court of requests to forward this schedule to the fiscal or deputy fiscal to whom the processes shall be forwarded for execution, and such secretary and clerk shall see that (except in the case referred to in articles 4 and 5 of this section) no process issues from the court without the schedule hereinbefore required, and that such schedule is duly filled up, and also to enter on the record of the case the date of issue of the process, specifying the number thereof, on pain of being themselves made liable for the amount, if any, lost to the fund created by section 15 by the non-issue of such schedule, or by the same being incorrect in any respect. If any process shall have been directed under section 26 to any person other than the fiscal and deputy fiscal, such secretary and clerk shall send the schedule to the fiscal or deputy fiscal within whose district the same has to be served :

(3) No fiscal or deputy fiscal shall cause any process to be executed without a schedule of the required amount (except as provided in articles 4 and 5 of this section) on pain of being himself made liable for the amount, if any, lost to the fund created by section 15 by the want of such schedule :

* Now regulated by section 66 of No. 3 of 1890 and part IV. of schedule B thereto.

Fiscals.

- (4) No Queen's advocate, or deputy queen's advocate, or public officer, suing or being sued, or intervening in any suit in their official capacity, and no person duly admitted to sue, or defend, or intervene as a pauper, shall be required to furnish any such schedule on stamp as is herein provided; and the secretary or clerk of court shall forward the process, with a schedule not on stamp, on which said schedule, however, shall be marked the value of the stamp duty which would have been payable for such process had the same been issued to any other party. If judgment shall be given in favour of such advocate, public officer, or pauper, the value of the stamps which would have been used by him as schedules of processes, if he had not been allowed to proceed without issuing stamps, or the value of such part thereof as shall be decreed by such judgment, shall be paid by the party against whom such judgment shall have been given to the secretary of the district court or clerk of the court of requests; and, in failure of payment, the said secretary or clerk shall insert the said value in the writ of execution issued by the party in whose favour such judgment shall have been given, and shall pay himself the said value when recovered from the first amount levied under the said writ, and before the payment of the other stamp duty due in the said case under the schedule, part 2, to "The Stamp Ordinance, 1861," annexed. If no such writ shall be issued, the said secretary or clerk shall issue a writ of execution free of stamp duty for the recovery of the said value; and, with the value so recovered, the secretary or clerk shall purchase stamps answering to the value of the schedules which would have been used had such party not been allowed to proceed without using stamps, and forward the same to the fiscal or deputy fiscal, making a note thereof in the record of the case and in the said stamped paper, and such fiscal or deputy fiscal shall include the same in the statements to be furnished by him as hereinbefore provided. If the secretary or clerk shall neglect or fail to perform any duty herein imposed upon him, he shall be held liable for the amount, if any, which may be lost to the fund created by section 15 in consequence of such neglect or failure:
- (5) Whenever any court shall order a process, or the issue of any process shall be rendered necessary by or in consequence of the order of any court, and such process shall not have been moved for at the instance of any party to the suit, it shall be the duty of the secretary or the clerk of court to issue such process in the first instance in blank, and the fiscals shall be bound to cause the same to be served though issued in blank ; but it shall be incumbent on the judge at any stage of the case, before or after its final settlement, to decree who shall pay the costs of the service of such process, and the party so decreed to pay the same shall be liable to make such payment ; and it shall be the duty of the secretary or clerk to enforce payment of the same, and to render account thereof to the fiscal or deputy fiscal in the manner provided by the preceding article for the payment of processes issued without payment having been made in the first instance. If the secretary or clerk shall neglect or fail to perform any duty herein imposed upon him, he shall be held liable for the amount, if any, which may be lost to the fund created under section 15 in consequence of such neglect or failure :

Deputy fiscal to transmit monthly statement to fiscal of fees due and paid on process.

- (6) It shall be the duty of each deputy fiscal to transmit to the fiscal on or before the 10th day of every month a statement in such form as the Treasurer shall prescribe, showing the number of processes issued for service in the district, and the value of the stamps used for the schedules forwarded with such processes ; and the deputy fiscal shall also transmit to the fiscal the schedules received by him from the different courts :

Fiscal to make returns to Treasurer.

- (7) On or before the 20th of each month it shall be the duty of the fiscal to forward to the Treasurer a statement, prepared in such form as this officer shall prescribe, showing the number of processes issued for service in the provinces, and the value of the stamps used for the schedules ; and the fiscal shall transmit with such statement the different schedules received by him to the Treasurer, whose duty it shall be to file the same in his office :

Treasurer to render quarterly account to Government.

- (8) The Treasurer shall render to the Government quarterly statements of the fees and charges levied under this Ordinance, or any other Ordinance in that behalf hereafter enacted, which said statements shall be from time to time laid before the Legislative Council :

Provisions of Stamp Ordinance to apply to schedules.

- (9) The provisions of "The Stamp Ordinance, 1861," or any other Ordinance to be in that behalf hereafter enacted, will, so far as they are applicable thereto, be held to apply to the stamps prescribed for schedules under the provisions of this section.

Correct accounts of fees and their appropriation to be kept by fiscals, and forwarded periodically to Government.

17 The fiscal and deputy fiscal of each province shall keep correct accounts of all fees and charges collected by them under the authority of this Ordinance, other than those in which special directions are given in section 16, and their appropriation, and shall render the same monthly to the Treasurer in such form and with such particulars as the Governor shall direct.

Fiscals.

26 Whenever any court shall be required to issue any process or to cause any sentence to be executed against any fiscal or deputy fiscal, or whenever it shall appear desirable to such court that, by reason of his near relationship to any of the parties to a suit, or for any other just cause, operating against such fiscal or deputy fiscal personally, and not merely on the ground of convenience, he should not be required to serve or execute the same, it shall be lawful for the court to name and appoint some other fit person to serve, execute, and return the process, or to execute the sentence, and the same shall thereupon be directed to the person so named, the cause of such special proceeding being suggested and entered on the records of the said court, and being notified at the time to such fiscal or deputy fiscal.

If fiscal personally interested. service to be made by another to be named by the court.

27 Whenever a marshal is appointed for any division, the process to be executed and served in such division may be transmitted to him by the fiscal or deputy fiscal, and he shall be responsible for their due execution and service, of which he shall make due return through the fiscal or deputy fiscal from whom he shall have received the process: and for this end he shall have all the powers and authorities created by this Ordinance, and necessary for the execution and service of process and the performance of the duties entrusted to him.

Processes to be forwarded to marshals for execution within their division.

Marshals to administer oaths.

28 All native headmen shall, within their local limits, be authorized and required to execute the process which may be duly sent to them for execution, and in the execution thereof they and such subordinate officers as they may employ shall be maintained and protected by law as the officers of such fiscal, although not holding any written deputation or warrant from him further than a copy authenticated by the signature of such fiscal or deputy fiscal, of the process which such headmen shall and may be required to serve or execute.

Native headmen to execute process.

XVI.—Miscellaneous.

31 It shall be lawful for the Governor to allow the security given by a fiscal, or any part thereof, to be made available for the payment of any sum which such fiscal shall be condemned to pay to any party in an action brought under the provisions of this Ordinance, by an endorsement on a copy of the bond given by the fiscal and his sureties of the nature of the entry M in the schedule hereto annexed, which said endorsement, though not on stamped paper, shall be sufficient to convey to the person in whose favour such endorsement is made the right to sue on such bond, and to derive all benefit and advantage arising therefrom, to the extent to which such security is allowed to be made available.

Governor may allow fiscal's security to be made available to meet claims on fiscal.

32 It shall be lawful for the fiscal to allow the security given by a deputy fiscal or other officer, or any part thereof, to be made available for the payment of any sum which any party may recover in an action brought by him against such deputy fiscal or other officer as an immediate wrong-doer

Fiscal may allow security given by deputy fiscal to be also so made available.

*Police Assessment.No. 5 of 1867.An Ordinance relating to the Assessment of Lands for the maintenance of the Police Force.(See No. 15 of 1865.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to give to parties dissatisfied with the assessment of the annual value of land for the purposes of creating a fund for the maintenance of the police force the right to object to and appeal against the same : It is hereby enacted as follows :

Remedy of parties dissatisfied with the assessment.

1 If any person shall be aggrieved by the assessment or non-assessment of any house, building, land, or tenement, it shall be lawful for him to object to such assessment or such non-assessment before the court of requests having jurisdiction in the place where such house, building, land, or tenement is situate, if the amount of the rate on the annual value of such house, building, land, or tenement does not exceed ten pounds, and to the district court if such amount exceeds ten pounds ; and such court shall decide upon such objection in a summary way, and have power to amend the assessment or to supply any omission if necessary, and its decision shall be subject to appeal to the Supreme Court, which shall have like power of amendment, and each of the said courts shall have power to give costs : Provided that no such objection shall be entertained by any court of requests, or district court, unless the same shall be made, if by private parties, within fifteen days, and if by the Government, within one month, after the service of notice of assessment prescribed by section 40 of "The Police Ordinance, 1865," or by section 63 of "The Municipal Councils' Ordinance, 1865," nor unless the person objecting, or some person authorized by him in that behalf in writing, shall at the time of making such objection satisfy the court, by affidavit or otherwise, that he has furnished a statement in writing of the specific grounds on which such objection is founded to the government agent in any town where there is no municipality, or to the chairman of the council where a municipality has been established, and to the person, if any, to the under-rating or omission of whose property he objects.

Appeal.

Levying of rate not to be stayed.

2 Neither the objection nor the appeal shall stay the levying of any part of the rate which may be proceeded with ; the excess (if any) collected shall in such case be refunded, or the deficient amount (if any) shall be collected, according to the decision of such court of requests or district court, if there be no appeal, or of the Supreme Court in case of appeal.

Judges of Supreme Court like rules.

3 The judges of the Supreme Court may from time to time, and subject to the provisions of the Ordinance No. 8 of 1846, or any other Ordinance to be in that behalf hereafter enacted, make rules and orders as to the notices and the hearing of objections and appeals : Provided that such rules and orders shall not be inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this Ordinance.

16th January, 1867.

No. 7 of 1867.An Ordinance for the more effectual protection of Her Majesty's Naval and Victualling Stores in this Island.

WHEREAS it is necessary to make provision for the more effectual protection of Her Majesty's naval and victualling stores in this island : It is therefore enacted as follows :

1 The marks described in the schedule to this Ordinance may be applied by the officers of the Admiralty, their contractors and workmen, in or on Her Majesty's naval and victualling stores to denote Her Majesty's property in stores so marked. If any person without lawful authority (proof of which authority shall lie on the party accused) applies any of the said marks in or on any such stores, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour.

2 If any person, with intent to conceal Her Majesty's property in any naval or victualling stores, takes out, destroys, or obliterates wholly or in part any such mark as aforesaid, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable, in the discretion of the court before which he shall be tried, to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour.

3 If any person without lawful authority (proof of which authority shall lie on the party accused) receives, possesses, keeps, sells, or delivers any naval or victualling stores bearing any such mark as aforesaid, knowing them to bear such mark, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one year, with or without hard labour : Provided that if the value of such stores does not exceed five pounds such person shall be liable to be tried before a police court, and shall be subject to such punishment as it shall be lawful for the police court to inflict.

4 For the purposes of this Ordinance stores shall be deemed to be in the possession or keeping of any person if he knowingly has them in the actual possession or keeping of any other person, or in any house, building, lodging, apartment, field, or place, open or enclosed, whether occupied by himself or not, and whether the same are so had for his own use or benefit or for the use or benefit of another.

5 It shall not be lawful for any person, without permission in writing from the officers of the Admiralty, or from some person authorized by such officers in that behalf,

Preamble.

No. 8 of 1867.

An Ordinance to provide for the better protection of Government Property entrusted to the charge of Pioneers, and for the apprehension of Pioneer Deserters.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the better protection of Government property entrusted to the charge of pioneers, and for the speedy apprehension of pioneer deserters : It is enacted as follows :

Repeal of No. 2 of 1866.

1 The Ordinance No. 2 of 1866, entitled "An Ordinance for preventing the sale and unlawful possession of clothes and other articles supplied to Pioneers," is hereby repealed.

Officers commanding pioneer divisions may issue warrants for apprehension of pioneer deserters.

2 It shall be lawful for any officer appointed to the command of a division of pioneers in the department of the Commissioner of Roads, on receiving information of the desertion of any pioneer serving in his division, to issue warrant signed by him in substantially the form A in the schedule annexed, for the apprehension of such pioneer, to be dealt with according to law, wherever he may be found, and to entrust the same for service to any person named therein ; and such warrant shall have force and be in every respect treated and dealt with as if it had been issued by a justice of the peace, and the person named as the server thereof shall be entitled to serve such warrant, and shall for that purpose have all the powers belonging to duly authorized process servers by the laws of this country.

3 If any pioneer shall sell, or barter, or give away, or shall wilfully damage or spoil any clothes, tools, arms, or ammunition supplied or entrusted to him as such pioneer, or shall be concerned in or connive at any such sale, exchange, gift, or wilful damaging or spoiling, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding twelve months, or to corporal punishment not exceeding twenty lashes, or to both.

Penalty on any pioneer selling clothes, &c., supplied to him.

4 Any person who shall knowingly detain, buy, exchange, or receive from any pioneer or any other person, on any pretence whatever, or shall solicit or entice any pioneer, or shall be employed by any pioneer, knowing him to be such, to sell or barter any clothes, tools, arms, or ammunition supplied or entrusted to any such pioneer by the Government of this colony, or by any officer thereof, in the execution of his office, or who shall have in his possession or keeping any such clothes, tools, arms, or ammunition as aforesaid, and shall not give a satisfactory account how he came by the same, or shall change the colour of any such clothes as aforesaid, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding twelve months, or to both ; and if any creditable person shall prove on oath before a justice of the peace, a reasonable cause to suspect that any person has in his possession or on his premises, within the jurisdiction of such justice, any property of the description hereinbefore mentioned, on or with respect to which any such offence shall have been committed, the said justice may grant a warrant to search for such property, as in the case of stolen goods, and if upon search any such property shall be found, the same shall and may be seized by the officer charged with the execution of such warrant, who shall bring the person in whose possession the same shall be found before such justice, to be dealt with according to law.

Penalty on persons purchasing or enticing pioneers to sell, or unlawfully possessing such clothes, &c.

5 It shall be competent for police courts to take cognizance of the offences specified in sections 3 and 4, and to inflict such punishment on the offenders as they are empowered to award in the exercise of their ordinary jurisdiction.

Police court to have cognizance of offences under sections 3 and 4.

6 No prosecution shall be instituted against any person for any offence committed against any of the provisions of this Ordinance, unless the same shall be commenced within six months from the time of the commission of such offence.

Limitation of prosecution.

Ordinance, 1861."(See No. 4 of 1861.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the "Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance, 1861:" It is enacted as follows:

Commencement.

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

Repeal of 6th clause of Ordinance No. 4 of 1861.

2 The 6th clause of the Ordinance No. 4 of 1861 is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof it is enacted as follows:

Penalty on unregistered partnerships exceeding a certain number.

No company, association, or partnership consisting of more than twenty persons shall, after the passing of this Ordinance, carry on any trade or business having for its object the procurement of gain to the company, association, or partnership, or to the individual members thereof, unless it is registered as a company under the "Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance, 1861," or is incorporated or otherwise legally constituted by some Act of Parliament, royal charter, or letters patent, or is registered as a company under or by virtue or in pursuance of any Act of Parliament relating to joint stock companies; and if any persons do so carry on business contrary to this provision, every person so acting shall be severally liable for the payment of the whole debts of the company, association, or partnership, and may be sued for the same without the joinder in the suit of any other member of the company, association, or partnership.

This Ordinance
and No. 4 of

*Fiscals.Military Expenditure.No. 10 of 1867.An Ordinance for amending "The Fiscals' Ordinance, 1867."(See No. 4 of 1867 and No. 3 of 1890.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Fiscals' Ordinance, 1867:" It is enacted as follows :

Preamble.

1 That section 15 of the Ordinance No. 4 of 1867, "To amend and consolidate the Law relating to Fiscals and their Officers," is repealed, and instead thereof it is provided that the fees and charges collected under section 14 of the said Ordinance shall be paid in, and form part of, the colonial revenue ; but the Treasurer shall nevertheless be bound to render to the Government the quarterly statements prescribed by the said Ordinance, to enable the Government to regulate thereby the expenditure of the Fiscals' Department, to remunerate the officers thereof, and otherwise to promote its strength and efficiency.

Section 15 of Ordinance No. 4 of 1867 repealed, and this substituted.

2 This Ordinance and the Ordinance No. 4 of 1867 shall be read and construed as if they formed one Ordinance.

This and No. 4 of 1867 to be read as one.

6th November, 1867.

No. 12 of 1867.An Ordinance to provide for the Military Expenditure of the Colony.(See No. 4 of 1869 and No. 20 of 1892.)*

WHEREAS the Ordinance No. 16 of 1864, entitled "An Ordinance relating to the Military Expenditure of the Colony," was enacted for the purpose of making temporary provision for such expenditure, pending a full and detailed investigation into every part of the military expenditure, with the view to settle a definite scale of military force and military works and buildings to be chargeable to the colony in time of peace, and also to determine how far the administration and detailed payment of the service should rest or not with the Colonial Government, and what should be the amount and mode of payment, whether by fixed sums or by capitation rates on the troops employed, or by assessment for services undertaken by the Imperial authorities :

Preamble.

And whereas such full and detailed investigation has been made by certain civil and military officers empowered thereto by virtue of a commission issued by the Governor in pursuance of instructions received from Her Majesty's Government, and such officers have made their report :

Military Expenditure.

And whereas certain arrangements have been come to between Her Majesty's Government and the Government of this island upon such report, and it is necessary to give the force of law to those arrangements, and to provide appropriations permanently from the colonial revenue for the military services of the island: It is therefore hereby enacted as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance shall be cited for all purposes as "The Military Expenditure Ordinance, 1867."

No. 16 of 1864 repealed.

2 The Ordinance No. 16 of 1864, entitled "An Ordinance relating to the Military Expenditure of the Colony," is hereby repealed, save and except charges which shall have been incurred and paid, acts which shall have been done, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place before this Ordinance shall come into force.

£30,000 for military works and buildings.

3 The sum of thirty thousand pounds charged upon the revenues of the island by the Ordinance No. 16 of 1864, and subsequently set aside, with all interest which shall have accrued thereon, shall be available for military works and buildings, to be constructed upon such plans and estimates and according to such arrangements with Her Majesty's Secretary of State for War for the time being, as may be approved from time to time by the Governor and Executive Council; and the said sum, with the accumulated interest, may be issued and applied for the purposes aforesaid at such times and in such proportions as the Governor for the time being, by any warrant or order in writing to be signed by him, shall from time to time order and direct.

£160,000 charged on revenues of Ceylon from 1st January, 1868, for military service, pensions, works, and buildings.

4 In lieu of the payments authorized to be made under the said Ordinance No. 16 of 1864, authority is hereby given for the payment at the rate of one hundred and fifty thousand pounds a year from the first day of July of the present year, and at the rate of one hundred and sixty thousand pounds a year from the First day of January, One thousand Eight hundred and Sixty-eight; and such sums are hereby charged upon the revenues of this island as provision for all military charges whatsoever, save and except the colonial pay and allowances of the aide-de-camp of the Governor of the island, and the cost of the mounted orderlies.

Fixed commutation for military expenditure. Force to be provided for such commutation.

First proviso.

In case the force provided fall below that agreed upon.

[§ 1, 4 of 1869]

5 The sums authorized to be paid by section 4 shall be deemed to be a fixed commutation payable by the colony in full return for its military defence, and shall be paid monthly in advance into the Imperial treasury chest in this island, on account of Her Majesty's Government: Provided that as the said commutation is based upon the understanding that the force specified in the schedule hereto annexed shall be provided and stationed in the colony for its protection in time of peace, the colony shall be entitled, in the event of the force actually provided and stationed in the colony falling below the number in non-commissioned officers, rank, and file, as set forth in the said schedule, by any number of men exceeding twenty-five on the monthly average of the year, to recover from the treasury chest as aforesaid at the rate of one hundred pounds for each European artillery or infantry soldier, and of fifty pounds for each native infantry soldier or gun lascar, for the total number of men by which the said average shall have fallen below the establishment.

Collection of Tolls.

Provided further, that no deduction shall be made for a deficiency of European infantry which is made up by an excess of artillery, or for a deficiency in native soldiery which is made up by an excess of European.

Provided further, that such commutation shall not include the expense of any movement of troops required by the Civil Government of Ceylon in the event of internal disturbance rendering it necessary to detach bodies of troops from their established quarters to other places.

And provided lastly, that such fixed commutation shall include only repairs of military works and buildings, and shall not include the construction of such works and buildings or the repairs or construction of fortifications.

SCHEDULE.

- 2 batteries of royal artillery, consisting of 203 non-commissioned officers, rank, and file.
- 1 battalion of European infantry, consisting of 800 non-commissioned officers, rank, and file.
- 1 battalion of native infantry, consisting of 816 non-commissioned officers, rank, and file.
- 1 company gun lascars, consisting of 89 non-commissioned officers, rank, and file.

7 The Treasurer of the island shall issue and pay the several sums to such persons for the purposes hereinbefore mentioned, upon such days and in such proportions as the Governor for the time being, by any warrant or order in writing to be signed by him, shall from time to time order and direct, and the payment so to be made shall be charged upon and payable out of the revenues of this island.

8 The said Treasurer shall in his accounts from time to time be allowed credit for any sum of money paid by him in pursuance of such warrant or order in writing as aforesaid, and the receipt of the respective persons to whom the same shall be so paid shall be a full and valid discharge to the said Treasurer in passing his accounts for any such sum as shall be therein mentioned, and he shall and may receive credit for the same accordingly.

13th November, 1867.

Second proviso.
Deficiency of inferior force to be made up by excess of superior force.

Third proviso.

No. 14 of 1867.An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Law in respect to the Collection of Tolls.

(See No. 9 of 1871, No. 7 of 1875, No. 8 of 1879, No. 2 of 1882, No. 12 of 1885, and No. 12 of 1887.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law in respect to the collection of tolls in this island : It is therefore enacted as follows :

Preamble.

Preliminary.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Toll Ordinance, 1867."

Short title of Ordinance.

Collection of Tolls.

Repeal of former Ordinances.

2 The Ordinances in the schedule A set out are repealed, save the Proclamations which shall have been made, rights which shall have accrued, liabilities which shall have been incurred, and acts which shall have been done or been thereby declared valid, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place before this Ordinance shall come into force : Provided nevertheless that any Proclamation made under any of the Ordinances so repealed may be altered in the same manner as any Proclamation made under this Ordinance may be altered.

Interpretation
clause.

3 In the construction and for the purposes of this Ordinance (if not inconsistent with the context or subject-matter), the following terms shall have the respective meanings hereinafter assigned to them ; that is to say,

“ Horse ” shall include pony, ass, or mule :

“ Ox ” shall include any bullock, buffalo, or any other beast of burden, except an elephant :

“ Load ” shall include all description of goods, but not passengers :

“ Vehicle for passengers ” shall include carriages, hackeries, and vehicles capable of carrying passengers, and commonly used for such purpose, though not actually carrying passengers at the time :

“ Vehicle for goods ” shall include carts, waggons, and all vehicles capable of carrying loads, and commonly used for such purpose, although not actually carrying goods at the time :

“ Boat ” shall include padda boats, battel, lighter, single or double canoe, scooped dhoney, ballam, raft, tug, catamaram, collah, and all other boats whether of European or native build.

Tolls established.

Tolls at roads,
bridges, ferries,
and canals.

4 Subject to the provisions and limitations hereinafter contained, tolls shall be levied upon all horses, oxen, vehicles, and boats, in respect of the roads, bridges, ferries, and canals specified in the schedules B, C, D, and E respectively, to this Ordinance annexed, and in respect of ferries, upon all foot passengers, at such rates as the Governor from time to time, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, shall be pleased to appoint, provided that the same shall in no case exceed the rates hereinafter specified ; that is to say,

Proviso.
Larger toll on ferries more than half a mile wide.

*Collection of Tolls.Proviso.

As to fishing boats and vehicles and boats, &c., conveying manure.

Provided further that boats or canoes employed in fishing, and not conveying loads or passengers, shall be exempt from toll, and that no tolls shall be demanded or taken for or in respect of any horse, ox, vehicle, boat, or canoe when employed, or going to be or returning from having been employed, in carrying or conveying only dung, soil, compost, bone dust, or manure for land (save and except lime, salt, saltpetre, and poonack), and the necessary implements used for filling the manure, and in the case of boats, the necessary tackle, apparel, and provisions of such boats and the crew thereof.

Vehicles and boats loaded with cocoanut husks to pay as unloaded vehicles and boats, and to pay only once.

[§ 3, 9 of 1871]

[§ 2, 7 of 1875]

[§ 3, 7 of 1875]

4 (1) From and after the first day of January, 1872, vehicles and boats loaded with cocoanut husks in an unmanufactured condition, and with no other goods or merchandise except the necessary tackle, apparel, and provision of such boat and the crew thereof, shall pass as, and pay the tolls of, unloaded vehicles and boats only. If such vehicles and boats shall pass more than once the same day, loaded as aforesaid, no further tolls shall be demanded or taken for or in respect of them, but they shall pass free.

(2) It shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to declare an exemption from toll in favour of any substance or substances in use for manuring purposes, and specified in such Proclamation.

(3) After the publication in the Government Gazette of such Proclamation no toll shall be demanded or taken for or in respect of any horse, ox, vehicle, boat, or canoe, when employed, or going to be or returning from being employed, in carrying or conveying only the substance or substances specified for exemption from toll in such Proclamation, or only such substance or substances, together with any other substance or substances exempted from toll by the Toll Ordinance [i.e., No 14. of 1867] or by any Proclamation in force under this Ordinance, and the necessary implements used for filling manure, and in the case of boats, the necessary tackle, apparel, and provisions of such boats and the crew thereof.

[§ 4, 7 of 1875]

(4) It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by further Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to revoke, alter, or amend any such Proclamation as aforesaid.

Legislative Council may by resolutions establish tolls.

[§ 1, 12 of 1885]

(5) From and after the passing of this Ordinance [i.e., No. 12 of 1885] it shall be lawful for the Legislative Council of the island of Ceylon, by means of any resolution duly passed at any public session of the said Council, to establish tolls in respect of any public road, bridge, ferry, or canal in this island, anything which may be contained in "The Toll Ordinance, 1867," to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provisions of existing Toll Ordinance to apply.

[§ 2, 12 of 1885]

(6) When tolls shall be so established by any resolution of the Legislative Council, the provisions of the Ordinance No. 14 of 1867 and of the Ordinance No. 9 of 1871 shall, in so far as they may not be repugnant to this Ordinance, apply thereto.

Governor in Executive Council may by resolution abolish and alter

(7) It shall be lawful for the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, by resolution to be notified in the Government Gazette—

(a) To abolish any existing tolls or any tolls which may hereafter be legally established; and anything which may be contained in "The Toll Ordinance, 1867," to the contrary notwithstanding.

5 Whenever it shall be found necessary to build a bridge, other than those specified in the said schedule C, the cost of which shall amount to five hundred pounds or more, it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to direct that tolls, not exceeding those specified in the fourth clause, shall be levied in respect thereof ; and whenever it shall be found necessary to establish any ferry other than those enumerated in the said schedule D, it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the like advice and in like manner, to direct that tolls not exceeding those specified in the said clause shall be levied in respect thereof.

Tolls on bridges, roads, canals, and ferries hereinafter built,
made, dug, and established.

6 Whenever tolls shall be directed to be levied under the fifth section of this Ordinance, or whenever tolls shall be established by any other Ordinance to be hereafter enacted, the provisions of this Ordinance shall be held applicable thereto as if those tolls were specified herein, and the Proclamations and Ordinances by which the same shall be respectively levied and established shall be read and construed as if they formed part of this Ordinance, and shall be applied and put in execution accordingly.

Provisions of this Ordinance
made applicable to future tolls.

7 The Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, and his suite, when in immediate attendance on him, together with all their necessary attendants, horses, animals, conveyances, baggage, and implements, all Her Majesty's officers and soldiers on duty or on their march, and their horses and baggage, and all carriages and horses belonging to Her Majesty or employed in her service, and all horses, animals, and vehicles conveying any such persons as aforesaid, or their baggage, or returning from conveying the same, and all messengers, carriages, and horses drawing or carrying the public mails, shall be exempted from payment of any toll ; and it shall be lawful for the government agent, if he shall see fit so to do, to direct the toll-keeper in writing to permit cattle or sheep driven to grass, persons with cattle, agricultural instruments, or seed grain, for the cultivation of their lands, and children going to and from school, to pass without payment of toll. All persons, vehicles, animals, or boats employed in the construction or repair of any road, bridge, canal, or ferry, within ten miles of the toll station, or in making crown surveys within that distance, shall pass without payment of toll, on production of a certificate of such employment from the officer superintending the work or survey ; and any officer giving such certificate to or in respect of any person, vehicle, or animal, or boat not boná fide employed as aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Exemptions.

Collection of Tolls.

Regulation as to Toll.

The Governor to fix toll station.

8 It shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to determine at what places the tolls authorized to be levied shall be collected, and the said places from time to time in like manner to alter, or other places to establish, for the collection of such tolls instead thereof, and if need be to repeal or alter any of the Proclamations now in force or to be hereafter issued.

Return tolls.

9 No toll shall be levied upon any passenger, vehicle, animal, or boat, upon his or its return by, over, or through any road, bridge, canal, or ferry, at which he or it shall have paid toll on the same day (to be computed from 12 o'clock at night to 12 o'clock of the succeeding night), unless such vehicle, animal, or boat shall carry a different load; and the one-half only of the appointed toll shall be levied upon any passenger, vehicle, animal, or boat at any road, bridge, canal, or ferry, by, over, or through which he or it shall have passed in a like direction on the same day, unless such vehicle, animal, or boat shall carry a different load: Provided that it shall be incumbent upon the party claiming such total or partial exemption to produce a ticket signed by the keeper of such toll station, denoting such previous payment to have been made, and provided also that no payment of toll upon any vehicle, animal, or boat when unloaded shall in any manner affect any toll to which such vehicle, animal, or boat is hereby declared to be liable when loaded.

Ticket required
passengers.

10 Every person having once paid toll in respect of himself or of any vehicle, animal, or boat at any place payment at which shall have been declared by the Governor, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to clear any other place, shall, on the production at such other place of a ticket denoting such payment to have been made, pass the same without any further payment of toll, except where such person, vehicle, animal, or boat shall at such latter place have become liable to a different rate of toll.

Toll-keepers.

Appointment of toll-keepers.

11 The tolls hereby established shall be taken and levied by the toll-keeper or some one of the toll-keepers to be appointed by the government agent of the province in which such tolls are levied, except as hereafter provided: Provided that in any case in which more than one toll-keeper shall be appointed for any place, such toll shall be demanded and taken by such one only of the said toll-keepers as shall at the time of such demand be the wearer of the metal badge hereinafter mentioned; and if the privilege of collecting tolls at any place shall at any time be let to any party, it shall be lawful for the government agent, except as aforesaid, on the application of such party, to appoint such person or persons as he may name to be toll-keeper or toll-keepers at such place; and if such party shall at any time be desirous of removing any toll-keeper appointed on his application as aforesaid, he shall give a written notice of his intention so to do to the government agent or his assistant at least ten days before carrying the same into effect; and any party who shall remove any toll-keeper without giving such notice shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to pay a fine not exceeding five pounds.

12 Every toll-keeper appointed under this Ordinance shall, while engaged in the collection of tolls, wear a metal badge, whereon shall be engraved the name of the place at which he is appointed to collect tolls; and there shall be suspended at some conspicuous place immediately adjoining to every place at which tolls are hereby authorized to be collected, so as to be distinctly legible, in the English and native languages, a copy of the fourth section of this Ordinance, and also a notice setting forth the name or names of the person or persons appointed to collect the tolls at such place.

Toll-keepers to wear badge; and put up table of tolls and name.

13 Every toll-keeper while engaged in the collection of tolls shall be provided with tickets consecutively numbered, acknowledging the payment of toll and the date thereof, and mentioning the road, bridge, ferry, or canal, if any, cleared by such payment, one of which tickets, duly signed by him, shall be delivered gratis to the person paying the toll; and every such ticket shall be in the English and native languages, and in the form hereunto annexed: Provided always that it shall be lawful for the government agent, if he shall see fit so to do, to grant to such toll-keeper permission to deliver such tickets in the native languages only.

Toll-keeper to give tickets.

15 If any toll-keeper shall at any time collect any toll without wearing a metal badge as aforesaid, or omit to suspend a copy of the fourth section of this Ordinance, and the notice of the name or names of the person or persons appointed to collect the tolls, or shall wilfully remove, conceal, alter, or deface the same or either of them, or permit either of them to become illegible, or shall demand or take toll in any case in which toll is not payable under the provisions of this Ordinance, or a greater or less toll than he shall be authorized to do thereunder, or shall fail to grant to any person having paid toll a ticket denoting such payment as hereinbefore required, or shall wilfully subject any passenger, vehicle, animal, or boat to unreasonable delay or detention, or shall demand or take toll from any person by this Ordinance exempted from the payment of toll, or from any person whom he has been duly directed by the government agent to permit to pass without payment of toll, such toll-keeper shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds, and on any second or subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

Toll-keeper acting contrary to the Ordinance.

Further Penalties.

16 If any person other than a toll-keeper duly appointed to collect toll shall demand or take any toll, or for the purpose of appearing or representing himself to be a Penalty on levying tolls without authority.

Collection of Tolls.

toll-keeper shall wear or carry, or produce or exhibit to any person liable to pay toll the metal badge which by this Ordinance a toll-keeper is required to wear, or any badge resembling or intended to resemble such metal badge, or shall otherwise personate or represent himself to be a toll-keeper, every person so offending shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds; and any toll-keeper who shall wilfully lend or give his metal badge to any person not duly appointed to collect toll, in order that the person should personate such toll-keeper, or shall be otherwise accessory to the collection of toll by any person not duly appointed as aforesaid, every such toll-keeper shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Penalties for infringement of the Ordinance by passenger.

17 If any person liable to payment of tolls shall pass from any road over any land near or adjoining thereto (not being a public highway), with intent to evade such payment, or shall fraudulently or forcibly pass or take his vehicle, animals, goods, or boat, by, over, or through any place duly appointed for the collection of tolls, or shall resist or make forcible opposition against any person duly appointed to collect tolls in the execution of his office; or if any person shall wilfully or maliciously damage any bar, boat, bridge, or other thing employed for the purpose of collecting tolls, or shall wilfully or maliciously remove, deface, alter, or damage any copy of the fourth section of this Ordinance, or the notice suspended as hereinbefore directed, or if any person other than a person duly appointed to collect tolls shall give, or if any person shall receive from any person other than a person duly appointed as aforesaid, or shall forge, counterfeit, or alter any ticket or certificate of payment or exemption with intent to evade or reduce the payment of any toll, or if any person shall do any other act whatsoever in order to evade or reduce the payment of any toll, and whereby the same shall be evaded or reduced, every such person shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Prohibition for employment of private boat.

18 If any person, not being a duly appointed toll-keeper, shall convey any goods, vehicle, or animal, not being his property, or any passenger not in his service, across any river or stream, by any boat or other means either at or within a distance of one mile above or below any road, bridge, ferry, canal, or place at which tolls shall be leviable, such person shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Toll payable on transfer of goods at toll station.

19 It shall not be lawful for any person in order to avoid payment of any toll, whether in whole or in part, to remove or cause to be removed any goods from any animal, vehicle, or boat on one side of any road, bridge, ferry, canal, or place appointed for the collection of tolls, to any other animal, vehicle, or boat on the opposite side thereof, unless after payment of toll upon the animal or vehicle on or in which the same shall have been so brought as a loaded animal or vehicle ; nor for any person to unload or cause to be unladen any goods from any animal or vehicle upon which the same shall have been brought to any road, bridge, ferry, or place appointed for the collection of tolls, and to load or cause the same to be reladen upon such animal or vehicle after it shall have passed such road, bridge, ferry, or place, unless after payment of toll upon such animal or vehicle as a loaded animal or vehicle ; and any person acting contrary to the provisions of this clause shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Miscellaneous.

20 The powers herein given to the government agent of any province shall also belong to and be executed by every assistant government agent within his district.

Powers vested in agents may be exercised by assistant agents. Municipality tolls.

21 Nothing herein contained shall be held to affect the power of the municipal council to impose tolls within the limits of the municipality, with the sanction of the Governor and the Executive Council, as provided by "The Municipal Councils' Ordinance, 1865" (section 57), or any other Ordinance to be in that behalf hereafter enacted, and when the municipal councils shall so establish tolls, or when tolls shall have been made over or shall hereafter be made over to any municipal council, they shall be empowered to appoint toll-keepers, and the provisions of this Ordinance shall, unless altered or modified by the by-rules of any municipal council, apply to the tolls so established or made over as if those tolls were specified in this Ordinance.

22 No prosecution shall be instituted against any person for any offence committed against the provisions of this Ordinance, unless the same shall be commenced within one month from the time of the commission of such offence.

Limitation of prosecution.

23 It shall be lawful for the magistrate, should he see fit so to do, to award any portion of the fine actually recovered and realized under any of the provisions of this Ordinance, not exceeding one-half thereof, to the informer.

Informer's share.

24 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the First day of January, One thousand Eight hundred and Sixty-eight.

No. 15 of 1867.

An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 6 of 1866.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Government that it would be almost impracticable in many places to comply strictly with the provisions of section 3 of the Ordinance No. 6 of 1866, entitled “An Ordinance to compel the registration of Old Deeds and other Instruments of Title,” and that the object aimed at by that Ordinance would be gained by simple registration, without requiring exact copies to be taken in such places : It is hereby enacted as follows :

Preamble.

1 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, to dispense in any district or districts of this island with the provisions contained in section 3 of the said Ordinance, so far as they relate to the taking of exact copies of deeds, olas, or other instruments, and to authorize the registrar of lands of such district or districts to register the substance of such deeds, olas, or other instruments, in such form and with such particulars as shall be prescribed in the said Proclamation; and the registrar shall in such cases cause the registry so made by him to be carefully filed and preserved in his office, and the original to be returned, with his endorsement as provided in the said section, to the person from whom he received the same.

Governor may dispense with the taking of deeds and copies in any district or districts.

2 In those places in which the taking of copies shall be dispensed with as hereinbefore provided, the provision in section 7 of the said Ordinance shall apply to the deeds, olas, or other instruments registered as required by the said Proclamation, as if the same shall have been registered in the manner directed by the said Ordinance.

Provision of section 7 of the Ordinance will apply to such registries.

3 This Ordinance and the Ordinance No. 6 of 1866 shall be read and construed as if they formed one Ordinance.

This Ordinance and Ordinance No. 6 of 1866 to be read as one.

11th December, 1867.

*Official Designations. Registration of Births and Deaths.No. 16 of 1867.*An Ordinance relating to certain Official Designations.*Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to change certain designations hereinafter described : It is therefore hereby enacted as follows :

Future designation of Civil Engineer and Commissioner of Roads' office.

1 The office of the Civil Engineer and Commissioner of Roads shall be henceforward termed "The Department of Public Works."

Future designation of the heads of that office and of the police force.

2 The chief officers of the above office and of the police force shall be henceforward termed "Director of Public Works" and "Inspector-General of Police" respectively, instead of "Civil Engineer and Commissioner of Roads" and "Chief Superintendent of Police."

Powers of and provisions applicable to those officers to be vested in and apply to the Director of Public Works and Inspector-General of Police and their assistants.

3 All the powers vested in those officers respectively, and in their assistants, by the different Ordinances heretofore enacted relating to them, and all the provisions made therein applicable to such officers and their assistants, shall be vested in, exercised by, and be deemed applicable to the Director of Public Works and the Inspector-General of Police, and their assistants respectively.

No. 18 of 1867.An Ordinance relating to the registration of Births and Deaths.*Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Ordinance No. 13 of 1862, entitled "An Ordinance for the registration of Births and Deaths," and provide the means for a complete register of the births and deaths of Her Majesty's subjects in Ceylon : It is enacted as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Births and Deaths Registration Ordinance, 1867."

Commencement.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such day as the Governor shall, by Proclamation to be by him for that purpose issued, appoint.*

Repeal of Ordinance No. 13 of 1862.

3 The said Ordinance No. 13 of 1862 is hereby repealed, save and except so far as respects appointments which shall have been made, acts which shall have been done, rights which shall have accrued, liabilities which shall have been incurred, and all proceedings which shall have taken place under and by virtue thereof prior to their repeal.

I.—Department.Registrar-General, provincial and 4 For the purpose of this Ordinance, the Registrar-General, the provincial registrars, and the district registrars of marriages, shall also respectively be and act as Registrar-General, provincial and district registrars of births and deaths; and the division of each province of this island into districts for the registry of marriages shall also form the division for the registry of births and deaths, as hereinafter provided.

district registrars of marriages, also to register births and deaths.

5 Every district registrar shall dwell in such places as the Registrar-General shall appoint, and shall cause his name, with the addition of registrar for the district for which he shall be appointed, to be placed in some conspicuous place on or near the outer door of the house appointed by the Registrar-General as the office of the registrar of that district, in the English, Singhalese, and Tamil languages.

Registrar to dwell within his district, &c.

II.—Rules.

6 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make rules for the direction of the said Registrar-General, provincial registrars, and district registrars in the discharge of their duties, and for the maintenance of such officers and establishments as may be necessary thereunto.

Rules for the direction of the officers.

7 The Registrar-General, provincial registrar, and district registrars shall keep books for the several purposes of this Ordinance, of such form and material as shall at any time hereafter be directed by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and such books shall be at no time out of their possession.

Registrars to keep books.

8 The Registrar-General shall cause certificates of births and deaths sent to him to be filed in two general books, one a general register of births and the other a general register of deaths, and he shall cause abstracts and indices of the two general registers to be made and kept in his office.

General register of births and deaths.

III.—Past Births.

9 Every district registrar shall be authorized, and is hereby required, to keep a register of births which shall have taken place prior to the date of this Ordinance. Persons desiring to have such births as shall have taken place from and after the first day of January, 1863, inserted in such register shall, within two years from the date that this Ordinance shall come into operation, furnish the registrar with a statement, written on a paper bearing the stamp of sixpence, of the births to be registered substantially in the form and with the particulars required in schedule A to this Ordinance annexed, and followed by a declaration of the party that the statement is true and correct. The said registrar shall enter in the register aforesaid the contents of such statement. If any birth shall have taken place before the last-named date which, without fault of the parties entitled to cause the same to be registered, may have been omitted to be registered, or may have been erroneously registered, it shall be lawful to any of such parties, or in case of their death to any of their issue or other lawful representative, within two years from the date on which this Ordinance shall come into operation, to apply in writing, on a paper bearing a stamp of sixpence, to the commissioner of the court of requests having jurisdiction over the district within which the birth took place, to have such birth properly registered; and the commissioner of such court shall cause the Registrar-General and the district registrar, and such other parties as to him shall appear expedient, to be noticed to show cause why such application should not be granted. If no sufficient cause be shown to the contrary, and the court shall be satisfied after hearing such evidence as the parties may have it in their power to adduce that such birth has been proved, and that it is no fault of the said party that the same had not been registered, it shall certify the same to the Registrar-General, who shall cause such birth to be duly registered substantially in the form and with such particulars thereof as are contained in the said schedule A, and which said particulars it shall be the duty of the party applying to furnish in his application.

IV.—Future Births.

Registrars to inform themselves of births and deaths.

10 Every district registrar shall be authorized, and is hereby required, to inform himself carefully of every birth and every death that shall happen in his district after the commencement of this Ordinance, and to learn and register, as soon after the event as conveniently may be, the particulars required to be registered according substantially to the forms A and B in the schedule respectively, touching every such birth or every such death, as the case may be, which shall not have been already registered, every such entry being made in order from the beginning to the end of the book; and he shall also register the said particulars in the counter-foil certificate, and then separate the certificate from the register book, and transmit the same by the next convenient post or opportunity to the Registrar-General; and if no birth or death shall have been registered during any calendar month, the said registrar shall at the end of that month certify such fact under his hand, and such certificate shall be transmitted as aforesaid; and the said registrar shall keep the register books safe.

Parents and others to give notice of births.

11 The father or mother of every child born in Ceylon after the commencement of this Ordinance, or, in case of the death, illness, absence, or inability of the father and mother, the occupier or an inmate of the house in which such child shall have been born, shall, within three months next after the day of every such birth, give information to the district registrar, according to the best of his knowledge and belief, of the several particulars hereby required to be known and registered touching the birth and name of such child.

Registration of Births and Deaths.

12 For the purposes of this Ordinance the master or keeper of every gaol, prison, hospital, lunatic asylum, or public or charitable institution, shall be deemed the occupier thereof.

Keepers of gaols deemed occupiers.

13 After the expiration of three months following the day of the birth of any child, subsequent to the commencement of this Ordinance, it shall not be lawful for any district registrar to register such birth: Provided that, in case the birth of any child shall not have been registered according to the provisions hereinbefore contained, it shall be lawful for any person present at the birth of such child, or for the parent or guardian thereof, at any time within two years next after the birth, to make a solemn declaration before the commissioner of the court of requests of the district in which such registration should take place, of the particulars required to be known touching such birth and name, according to the best of his knowledge and belief, and it shall thereupon be lawful for the said commissioner to issue a certificate of the said declaration on a stamp of two shillings; and the said registrar shall, on production of such certificate, register the birth of the said child according to the information of the person making the said declaration, and shall sign the same; and no register of births shall be given in evidence to prove the birth wherein it shall appear that three months have intervened between the day of the birth and the day of the registration of the birth of such child, unless such certificate shall be attached thereto; and every person who shall knowingly register or cause to be registered the birth of any child, otherwise than hereinbefore is last mentioned, after the expiration of three months following the day of the birth of such child, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

As to registry after the expiration of three months from the birth of the child.

14 After two years following any birth which shall have taken place after the commencement of this Ordinance no registrar shall register such birth, and no register of births shall be given in evidence to prove the birth of any child in Ceylon wherein it shall appear that two years have intervened between the birth and the registration of such child; and every person who shall knowingly register or cause to be registered any birth after two years from the day of the birth, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

Births not to be registered after two years.

15 If any child born in Ceylon whose birth shall have been registered as aforesaid shall, after it shall have been so registered, have any name given to it, the parent or guardian of such child, or other person procuring such name to be given, may, within fourteen days after such name shall have been given, and not more than six months after the birth of the child, procure and deliver to the registrar in whose custody the register of the birth of the child may then happen to be, a statement setting out the particulars of the birth of the child according to the form A in the schedule with the name given to such child, and the said registrar shall enter forthwith such name in the statement already registered of the birth of such child, and certify the same to the Registrar-General.

Registration of Births and Deaths.

Registrar may call for marriage certificate.

16 It shall be competent to the registrar, if he shall see reason to doubt the legitimacy of any child whose birth he may have to register, or to apprehend that a fraud is about to be committed on any party by any registration, to call for a certificate of the registry of the marriage of the alleged parents of the child. If no certificate be produced, or the absence thereof be not duly accounted for, it shall be the duty of the registrar to enter in the column set apart for that purpose that such certificate has not been produced or accounted for, and the nature briefly of the explanation given in respect thereof, and to give to the parties who shall have applied for the registration a copy of such entry. The registrar shall also give notice of such entry to the parties whose rights are likely to be affected by the registration.

Remedy to persons interested in any registration or entry.

17 Any person who may have an interest in the property of the alleged parents of a child whose birth may be registered, or who shall feel aggrieved by any such entry as in the preceding section prescribed, shall be entitled to apply to the district court of the district within which the registry may be kept, to cause such registration or entry to be rectified; and the judge of such court shall cause the Registrar-General, and the registrar of the district, and such other parties as to him shall appear expedient, to be noticed to show cause why such application shall not be granted, and after hearing the parties and their witnesses shall make such order thereon as the justice of the case shall seem to require; and the district court shall cause a certified copy of the order to be served on the Registrar-General, who shall cause the registration or entry to be rectified accordingly. All orders made by a district court under this section shall be subject to appeal: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to prevent any person from questioning in due course of law the correctness of any registration or entry, though he shall not have betaken himself, in the first instance, to the summary remedy herein provided.

V.—Deaths.

Some person present at the death, or occupier of the house, required to give particulars of death so far as known.

18 The nearest male relative present at the death or attending the last illness of any person dying in Ceylon, or in case none such shall be present the occupier of the house or tenement, or, if the occupier shall be the person who shall have died, some inmate of the house or tenement in which such death shall have happened, or (in case such death shall have happened in any estate or plantation) the superintendent for the time being of such estate or plantation, shall, within eight days next after the day of such death, give information to the district registrar, according to the best of his knowledge and belief, of the several particulars hereby required to be known and registered touching the death of such person.

Registration of Births and Deaths.

19 It shall be the duty of all police and peace officers and officers of the law, and headmen, to inquire into every death within their respective districts, localities, and villages, and to give notice thereof to the district registrar, and also respecting the aforesaid person present at the death or in attendance during the last illness of any deceased person, or respecting the occupier aforesaid, or the inmate aforesaid, as the case may require.

Constables and headmen to give registrar notice of deaths.

20 Any police and peace officer, officer of the law, or headman, who shall have for that purpose been informed of any death, and who shall neglect to report the same within forty-eight hours to the district registrar, unless prevented by the impassability of the roads or other unforeseen circumstance, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding forty shillings; and every person liable to report deaths under sections 18 and 19 who shall wilfully omit to report any which shall have taken place shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds: Provided that it shall be lawful for such person to make such report by writing in a letter sent through the post or otherwise.

Constable and headmen failing to give notice to be punished.

21 Every district registrar, within three days of receiving any report of death from police or peace officer of the law or headman, or being otherwise informed of any death, shall give notice to the person liable to give information touching the death, to furnish, within four days from the time of his being so called upon, such information at the office of the said registrar.

Registrar to give notice to the proper person to furnish information.

22 Any district registrar neglecting to issue such notice in the manner aforesaid, or any person neglecting or refusing to give information as aforesaid, after notice so to do, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty for not giving notice or furnishing information.

23 In every case in which an inquest shall be held on any dead body the jury shall inquire into the particulars herein required to be registered concerning the death, and the coroner shall inform the district registrar of the finding of the jury, and the said registrar shall make the entry accordingly.

Coroners to inform registrar.

VI.—Miscellaneous.

24 Every person by whom the information contained in any register of births or deaths under this Ordinance shall have been given shall sign in the register a statement of his name, description, and place of abode. If such person cannot conveniently attend the office of the district registrar, it shall be competent to him to send a declaration setting out that he is the informant, and giving his name, description, and place of abode. The said registrar shall then certify those particulars in the registry, and shall preserve the declaration forwarded to him. No register of births or deaths according to this Ordinance shall be given in evidence which shall not be signed by some person professing to be the Registrar to be signed by the informant.

Registration of Births and Deaths.

informant, or shall be certified by the registrar as aforesaid, and to be such party as is herein required to give information to the district registrar.

Searches may be made, and certificates may be given by registrars.

25 The district registrar shall at all reasonable times, upon an application written on a stamp of sixpence, allow search to be made of any birth or death register book in his keeping, and shall give a copy, certified under his hand, of any entry in the same, upon payment to him for every search and extract of such fee as the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may from time to time direct.

Searches at and copies from the General Register office.

26 Every person shall be entitled, on an application to be written on a stamp of the respective values hereinafter mentioned, to search the abstracts and indices in the Registrar-General's office, or any thombo or register in his the said Registrar-General's keeping, or in the keeping of any provincial registrar, at all reasonable times, and to have a certified copy (under the hand of the Registrar-General or provincial registrar, or any of their assistants) of any entry therein; and every application for a general search shall be on a stamp of five shillings, and for every particular search for any given year on a stamp of one shilling, and every certified copy of an entry shall be on a stamp of one shilling.

Certificate to be primâ facie evidence.

27 All copies of entries purporting to be certified by the Registrar-General shall be received as primâ facie evidence of the birth or death to which the same relates, without any further or other proof of such entry.

Penalty for not duly registering births and deaths, and for losing or injuring the registers.

29 Every registrar who shall refuse, or without reasonable cause omit, to register any birth or death of which he shall have had due notice as aforesaid, and every person having the custody of any register book, or any part thereof, who shall carelessly lose or injure the same, or carelessly allow the same to be injured whilst in his keeping, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds for every such offence.

Accidental errors may be corrected.

31 No registrar who shall discover any error to have been committed in the form and substance of any entry shall be liable to any of the penalties aforesaid, if within one calendar month next after the discovery of such error he shall correct the erroneous entry according to the truth of the case, by entry in the margin, without any alteration of the original entry, and shall sign the marginal entry, and add thereunto the date when such correction shall be made, and immediately notify such correction to the Registrar-General: Provided that such corrections shall be made in the presence of the parents of the child whose birth may have been so registered, or the parties aforesaid, or of two persons attending upon any person in his or her last illness whose death may have been so registered, or on the evidence of two credible witnesses, and in the presence of the nearest commissioner of the court of requests.

*Validity of certain Marriages.No. 20 of 1867.

An Ordinance to provide for the validity of certain Marriages solemnized and registered by Bogahakumbure Disanayaka Mudiyanseilage Appuhami, and to indemnify him from penal consequences.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by the Ordinance No. 13 of 1859, entitled "An Ordinance to amend the Laws of Marriage in the Kandyan Provinces," it is provided that the Governor shall appoint such persons as he should think fit to be the registrars of the districts into which the Kandyan provinces were to be divided for the purposes of registration under that Ordinance: And whereas Bogahakumbure Disanayaka Mudiyanseilage Punchirala was appointed by the Governor registrar for the district of Wiyaluwa, in the Central Province: And whereas, during the illness of the said Bogahakumbure Disanayaka Mudiyanseilage Punchirala, his brother, Bogahakumbure Disanayaka Mudiyanseilage Appuhami, was allowed by the then assistant agent of Badulla on the 9th day of August, 1864, to act as registrar aforesaid, and he has acted as such registrar at various times since that date: And whereas, owing to inadvertence, the name of the said Bogahakumbure Disanayaka Mudiyanseilage Appuhami was never formally submitted to the Governor for approval, so that he was not duly appointed by the Governor as registrar of Wiyaluwa, as is by the said Ordinance required: And whereas the said Bogahakumbure Disanayaka Mudiyanseilage Appuhami, being advised and bonâ fide believing that he was qualified to act as registrar, solemnized and registered several marriages during the times he so acted as aforesaid: And whereas it is expedient to remove all doubts as to the validity of such marriages, and to indemnify the said Bogahakumbure Disanayaka Mudiyanseilage Appuhami from all penal consequences: It is therefore hereby enacted as follows:

Marriages solemnized by the said person declared valid.

1 That all marriages solemnized before and registered by the said Bogahakumbure Disanayaka Mudiyanseilage Appuhami, and which said marriages, with the dates and particulars thereof, are given in the schedule hereto annexed, have been, are, and shall be valid and good to all intents and purposes as if the said Bogahakumbure Disanayaka Mudiyanseilage Appuhami had been duly appointed registrar, as is by the said Ordinance required, prior to the said marriages having been solemnized before and registered by him: Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be held to prevent parties questioning the said marriages on grounds other than the non-appointment of the said Bogahakumbure Disanayaka Mudiyanseilage Appuhami, and on which said other grounds the court before which the question shall arise shall determine as if this Ordinance had not been passed.

Proviso.

Validity of certain Marriages.

2 The said Bogahakumbure Disanayaka Mudiyansele Appuhami shall be and is hereby indemnified, freed from and against all penalties, forfeitures, and disabilities whatsoever (if any) incurred or to be incurred by him for or by reason of any infringement by him of the provisions of the said Ordinance or any other Ordinance relating to Kandyan marriages by acting as a registrar of marriages thereof.

The said person indemnified from all penal consequences.

3 Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, and of all bodies politic and corporate, and of all other persons, excepting those at whose instance or for whose special benefit this Ordinance has been passed, and those claiming by, from, through, and under them.

No. 1 of 1869.

An Ordinance relating to the supply of Gas for Municipal Towns in this Island.

(See No. 3 of 1871.)

WHEREAS the municipal councils established under the authority of "The Municipal Councils' Ordinance, 1865," are authorized to make provision, with the sanction of the Governor and Executive Council, for the supply of any municipal town with gas : And whereas the Municipal Council of the town of Colombo are under treaty with the Colombo Gas and Water Company, Limited (a joint stock company duly registered in England under "The Companies' Act, 1862"), to supply the town of Colombo with gas, and have applied to the Government for an Ordinance to give the said company, or any other person or company with whom or with which the Council may be able to make satisfactory terms, the necessary powers and facilities to supply the towns with gas, and to construct the necessary works therefor : It is therefore hereby enacted :

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Gas Ordinance, 1869."

Short title.

Gas.

Commencement.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the date of the passing thereof.

Interpretation clause.

3 The following words and expressions in this Ordinance shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction :

The word "street" shall include any square, court, alley, highway, lane, thoroughfare, or public passage or place :

The word "magistrate" shall include any police magistrate or bench of magistrates :

The word "company" shall include a person.

Company may be empowered to construct the necessary gasworks.

4 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, if it shall appear to their satisfaction that a company is in a position to undertake, with advantage to the public, to supply any municipal town in this island with gas, to empower, by Proclamation to be for that purpose issued and published in the Government Gazette, such company to construct the necessary works for supplying any town named in the said Proclamation with gas.

Power to break up streets, &c., under superintendance, and to open drains.

5 The said company so proclaimed, and its agents, servants, and workmen, shall thereupon be entitled to open and break up the soil and pavement of the several streets and bridges in the town or place in which it is declared entitled, by the said Proclamation, to establish gasworks, and to open and break up any sewers, drains, or tunnels within or under such streets and bridges, and lay down and place within the same pipes, conduits, service pipes, and other works, and from time to time repair, alter, or remove the same, and also make any sewers that may be necessary for carrying off the washings and waste liquids which may arise in the making of the gas ; and for the purposes aforesaid to remove and use all earth and materials in and under such streets and bridges ; and in such streets to erect any pillars, lamps, and other works, and do all other acts which the said company shall from time to time deem necessary for supplying gas to the inhabitants of the said town or place and its environs, doing as little damage as may be in the execution of the powers hereby granted, and making compensation for any damage which may be done in the execution of such powers.

Not to enter on private land without consent.

6 Provided always that nothing herein shall authorize or empower the said company to lay down or place any pipe or other works into, through, or against any building, or in any land not dedicated to public use, without the consent of the owners and occupiers thereof, except that the said company may at any time enter upon and lay or place any new pipe in the place of an existing pipe in any land wherein any pipe has been already lawfully laid down or placed in pursuance of this Ordinance, and may repair or alter any pipe so laid down.

Gas.

7 Before the said company proceed to open or break up any street, bridge, sewer, drain, or tunnel they shall give to the municipal council for the town proclaimed as aforesaid, or other persons under whose control or management the same may be, or to their clerk, surveyor, or other officer, notice in writing of their intention to open or break up the same not less than three clear days before beginning such work, except in cases of emergency arising from defects in any of the pipes or other works, and then so soon as is possible after the beginning of the work, or the necessity for the same shall have arisen.

Notice to be served on persons having control, &c., before breaking up streets or opening drains.

8 No such street, bridge, sewer, drain, or tunnel shall, except in the cases of emergency aforesaid, be opened or broken up except under the superintendence of the persons having the control or management thereof, or of their officer, and according to such plan as shall be approved of by such persons or their officer, or in case of any difference respecting such plan, then according to such plan as shall be determined by the municipal council of the town or place; and such council may, on the application of the persons having the control or management of any such sewer or drain, or their officer, require the said company to make such temporary or other works as they may think necessary for guarding against any interruption of the drainage during the execution of any works which interfere with any such sewer or drain: Provided always that if the persons having such control or management as aforesaid, and their officer, fail to attend at the time fixed for the opening of any such street, bridge, sewer, drain, or tunnel, after having had such notice of the said company's intention as aforesaid, or shall not propose any plan for breaking up or opening the same, or shall refuse or neglect to superintend the operation, the said company may perform the work specified in such notice without the superintendence of such persons or their officer.

Streets or drains not to be broken up except under superintendence of persons having control of the same.

If persons having the control fail to superintend company may proceed with the work.

9 When the said company open or break up the road or pavement of any street or bridge, or any sewer or tunnel, they shall, with all convenient speed, complete the work for which the same shall be broken up, and fill in the ground, and reinstate and make good the road or pavement, or the sewer, drain, or tunnel so opened or broken up, and carry away the rubbish occasioned thereby; and shall at all times, whilst any such road or pavement shall be so opened or broken up, cause the same to be fenced and guarded, and shall cause a light sufficient for the warning of passengers to be set up and maintained against or near such road or pavement where the same shall be open or broken up, every night during which the same shall be continued open or broken up; and shall keep the road or pavement which has been so broken up in good repair for three months after replacing and making good the same, and for such further time, if any, not being more than twelve months in the whole, as the soil so broken up shall continue to subside.

Streets broken up to be reinstated without delay.

Gas.

Penalty how to delaying in reinstating streets.

10 If the said company open or break up any street or bridge, or any sewer, drain, or tunnel, without giving such notice as aforesaid, or in a manner different from that which shall have been approved of or determined as aforesaid, or without making such temporary or other works as aforesaid, when so required, except in the cases in which the said company are hereby authorized to perform such works without any superintendence or notice; or if the said company make any delay in completing any such work, or in filling in the ground or reinstating and making good the road or pavement, or the sewer, drain, or tunnel so opened or broken up, or in carrying away the rubbish occasioned thereby; or if they neglect to cause the place where such road or pavement has been broken up to be fenced, guarded, and lighted, or neglect to keep the road or pavement in repair for the space of three months next after the same shall have been made good, or such further time as aforesaid, they shall forfeit to the persons having the control or management of the street, bridge, sewer, drain, or tunnel in respect of which such default is made a sum not exceeding five pounds for every such offence, and they shall forfeit an additional sum not exceeding five pounds for each day during which any such delay as aforesaid shall continue after they shall have received notice thereof.

In case of delay, other parties may reinstated and recover the expense.

11 If any such delay or omission as aforesaid take place, the persons having the control or management of the street, bridge, sewer, drain, or tunnel in respect of which such delay or omission shall take place may cause the work so delayed or omitted to be executed, and the expense of executing the same shall be repaid to such persons by the said company; and the amount of such expense shall, in case of any dispute about the same, be ascertained by the municipal council of the town or place, and shall be certified to by the chairman or secretary thereof, and if the company should fail to pay the same within a week after notice thereof, the amount appearing in the certificate shall be recovered by the police court or bench of magistrates as if it were a fine imposed by such court or bench, whether or not such amount shall exceed the sum which the police court has jurisdiction to award by way of fine.

Expense how to
and recovered.

12 The clerk, engineer, or other officer duly appointed for the purpose by the said company may at all reasonable times enter any building or place lighted with gas supplied by the said company in order to inspect the meters, fittings, and works for regulating the supply of gas, and for the purpose of ascertaining the quantity of gas consumed or supplied; and if any person hinder such officer as aforesaid from entering and making such inspection as aforesaid at any reasonable time, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit to the said company a sum not exceeding five pounds.

Power to enter buildings for ascertaining quantity of gas consumed.

13 If any person supplied with gas, or any person to whom any meter or fitting shall have been let for hire by the said company, neglect to pay the rent due for the same to the said company, the said company may stop the gas from entering the premises of such person, by cutting off the service pipes, or by such means as the said company shall think fit, and recover the rent due from such person, together with the expenses of cutting off the gas, by action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

14 In all cases in which the said company are authorized to cut off and take away the supply of gas from any house or building or premises under the provisions of this Ordinance, the said company, their agents or workmen, after giving twenty-four hours' previous notice to the occupier, may enter into any such house, building, or premises, between the hours of nine in the forenoon and four in the afternoon, and remove and carry away any pipe, meter, fittings, or other works, the property of the said company.

Power to take away pipes when supply of gas discontinued.

15 Any meter or fitting let for hire by the said company shall not be subject to distress for rent or revenue or any rate due upon the premises where the same may be used, nor be taken in execution under any process of a court or any proceeding in insolvency against the person in whose possession the same may be.

Meters not liable to distress for rent. &c.

16 Every person who shall lay, or cause to be laid, any pipe to communicate with any pipe belonging to the said company, without their consent, or shall fraudulently injure any such meter as aforesaid, or who, in case the gas supplied by the said company is not ascertained by meter, shall use any burner other than such as has been provided or approved of by the said company, or of larger dimensions than he has contracted to pay for, or shall keep the lights burning for a longer time than he has contracted to pay for, or shall otherwise improperly use or burn the gas, or shall supply any other person with any part of the gas supplied to him by the said company, shall forfeit to the said company the sum of five pounds for every such offence, and also the sum of two pounds for every day such pipe shall so remain, or such works or burner shall be so used, or such excess be committed or continued, or such supply furnished; and the said company may take off the gas from the house and premises of the person so offending, notwithstanding any contract which may have been previously entered into.

Penalty for fraudulently using gas.

17 Every person who shall wilfully remove, destroy, or damage any pipe, pillar, post, plug, lamp, or other work of the said company for supplying gas, or who shall wilfully extinguish any of the public lamps or lights, or waste or improperly use any of the gas supplied by the said company, shall for each such offence forfeit to the said company any sum not exceeding five pounds in addition to the amount of the damage done.

Penalty for wilfully damaging pipes.

18 Every person who shall carelessly or accidentally break, throw down, or damage any pipe, pillar, or lamp belonging to the said company, or under their control, shall pay such Satisfaction for accidentally damaging pipes.

Gas.

sum of money by way of satisfaction to the said company for the damage done, not exceeding five pounds, as any police court or bench of magistrates shall think reasonable.

Penalty for causing water to be corrupted.

19 If the said company shall at any time cause or suffer to be brought or to flow into any stream, reservoir, aqueduct, pond, or place for water, or into any drain communicating therewith, any washing or other substance produced in making or supplying gas, or shall wilfully do any act connected with the making or supplying of gas whereby the water in any such stream, reservoir, aqueduct, pond, or place for water shall be fouled, the said company shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds; and they shall forfeit an additional sum not exceeding fifty pounds for each day during which such washing or other substance shall be brought or shall flow, or the act by which such water shall be fouled shall continue, after the expiration of twenty-four hours from the time when notice of the offence shall have been served on the said company by the person into whose water such washing or other substance shall be brought or shall flow, or whose water shall be fouled thereby; and such penalties shall be paid to such last-mentioned person.

Daily penalty during the continuance of the offence.

20 Whenever any gas shall escape from any pipe laid down or set up by or belonging to the said company, they shall immediately after receiving notice thereof in writing prevent such gas from escaping; and in case the said company shall not, within twenty-four hours next after service of such notice, effectually prevent the gas from escaping and wholly remove the cause of complaint, they shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of five pounds for each day during which the gas shall be suffered to escape after the expiration of twenty-four hours from the service of notice.

Daily penalty during escape of gas after notice.

21 Whenever any water shall be fouled by the gas of the said company they shall forfeit, to the person the water used by whom shall be so fouled, for every such offence a sum not exceeding twenty pounds, and a further sum not exceeding ten pounds for each day during which the offence shall continue after the expiration of twenty-four hours from the service of notice of such offence.

Penalty if water be fouled by gas.

22 For the purpose of ascertaining whether such water be fouled by the gas of the said company, the person to whom the water supposed to be fouled shall belong may dig up the ground and examine the pipes, conduits, and works of the said company; provided that such person, before proceeding so to dig and examine, shall give twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the said company of the time at which such digging and examination is intended to take place, and shall give the like notice to the persons having the control or management of the road, pavement, or place where such digging is to take place, and they shall be subject to the like obligation of reinstating the said road and pavement, and the same penalties for delay, or any nonfeasance or misfeasance

Power to examine gas pipes to ascertain cause of water being fouled.

therein, as are hereinbefore provided with respect to roads and pavements broken up by the said company for the purpose of laying their pipes.

23 If upon any such examination it appear that such water has been fouled by any gas belonging to the said company the expenses of the digging, examination, and repair of the street or place disturbed in any such examination shall be paid by the said company; but if upon such examination it appear that the water has not been fouled by the gas of the said company, the person causing such examination to be made shall pay all such expenses, and shall also make good to the said company any injury which may be occasioned to their works by such examination.

Expenses to abide result of examination.

24 The amount of the expenses of every such examination and repair, and of any injury done to the said company, shall, in case of any dispute about the same, together with the costs of ascertaining and recovering the same, be ascertained and recovered in the manner prescribed for the ascertainment and recovery of expenses in section 11 of this Ordinance.

How expenses to be ascertained.

25 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall prevent the said company from being liable to an indictment for nuisance or to any other legal proceedings to which they may be liable in consequence of making or supplying gas.

Liability to indictments for nuisance.

26 A copy of the original deed of association of the company formed as aforesaid, and of every other instrument registered under the said Joint Stock Companies' Act, under which such company may be formed as constituting the regulations of the said company, and a copy of every special resolution of a general meeting whereby any change shall have been or at any time shall be made in the regulations of the said company, shall be kept at the office of the said company in the town or place where the gasworks are established, and shall there be open to the inspection of all persons during the usual hours of business of the said office; and a copy of such original deed of association, and of every other such instrument, and of every special resolution as aforesaid, shall also be deposited by the said company as soon as it can be done after the passing of this Ordinance, or after the making of any such special resolution hereafter to be made, in the office of the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, or, if there be no such officer, in the office of the Registrar of the Supreme Court, and shall there be filed; and an examined copy of any such filed copy as aforesaid, certified by and under the hand of the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, or of the keeper of the records of the said Supreme Court, shall be good and sufficient evidence of each such original deed, instrument, or special resolution in all actions, suits, and proceedings whatsoever, whether civil or criminal, to be had in any court of justice, or before any magistrate or revenue or other officer, and whether acting judicially or in any proceeding preliminary to a judicial inquiry throughout this island.

Copies of the original deed of association, and of all rules, &c., to be kept for inspection at the office of the company in the town or place where the gasworks are established, and in the office of the registrar of joint stock companies, or the keeper of the records of the Supreme Court.

No. 15 of 1869.

An Ordinance to declare the consent of the Legislature of this Colony to the erection of a Lighthouse on the Great Basses Rocks, and to the collection of Dues in respect thereof.

Preamble.
18 & 19 Vict.
c. 91.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," it is enacted, that in any case in which any lighthouse has been or is hereafter erected on or near the coasts of any British possession, by or with the consent of the legislative authority of such possession, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the owner or master of every ship which passes the same or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may in like manner from time to time increase, diminish, or repeal such dues, and from the time specified in such order for the commencement of the dues thereby fixed, increased, or diminished, the same shall be leviable throughout Her Majesty's dominions in manner in the said Act mentioned; and that no such dues shall be levied in any colony unless and until the legislative authority in such colony has, either by address to the Crown, or by an Act or Ordinance duly passed, signified its opinion that the same ought to be levied in such colony: And whereas a lighthouse is about to be erected on the Great Basses Rocks near the south-east coast of this colony, and it is expedient that the Legislature thereof should declare, by Ordinance, its consent to the erection of such lighthouse, and its opinion that such dues as Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix in respect thereof, pursuant to the said Act, ought to be levied in this colony: It is therefore declared and enacted:

That the lighthouse about to be erected on the Great Basses Rocks, near the south-east coast of this island, is erected with the consent of the said Governor and Council, and that any dues which may hereafter be fixed by Her Majesty, by Order in Council, in respect of the said lighthouse, ought to be and may be levied in this colony, in manner provided by the said Act, on all ships arriving or touching at any port or place therein, after or before passing the said lighthouse, or deriving benefit therefrom.

15th December, 1869.

Consent of Ceylon Legislature to erection of lighthouse on the Great Basses Rocks; and to the collection in this colony of dues on ships touching at any port thereof, which may be fixed by Order in Council.

No. 17 of 1869.

(As amended by No. 1 of 1871 and No. 1 of 1875.)

An Ordinance for the General Regulation of Customs in the Island of Ceylon.

(See No. 14 of 1871, No. 39 of 1884, No. 8 of 1885, No. 16 of 1887, No. 11 of 1891, No. 5 of 1892, and No. 20 of 1892.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the management and collection of the customs and customs duties in the island of Ceylon, and to consolidate into one Ordinance the laws at present relating thereto: It is hereby enacted as follows:

Preamble.

Section I.

1 From and after the commencement of this Ordinance, the several Ordinances and parts of Ordinances set forth in schedule A hereto annexed are hereby repealed, except in so far as respects any duties or arrears of duties which shall have become due or payable, or any offences already committed, or any fines, penalties, dues, forfeitures, or liabilities already incurred; and except as relates to bonds taken, licenses granted, and acts done under the authority or in pursuance of any such Ordinances, which said bonds, licenses, and acts shall be valid and effectual to all intents and purposes as if this Ordinance had not been passed.

Ordinances and parts of Ordinances set forth in schedule repealed; except as to penalties incurred or offences committed.

*Customs.*II.—Interpretation of Terms used in this Ordinance.

Interpretation of terms.

2 Whenever the several terms or expressions following shall occur in this Ordinance, or in any other Ordinance relating to the customs, the same shall be construed respectively in the manner hereinafter directed, unless there is anything in the context repugnant to such construction; that is to say,

“British possession” shall include colony, plantation, island, territory, or settlement belonging to Her Majesty :

“Coastwise” shall mean the trade by sea from any one part of the island of Ceylon to any other part thereof :

“Collector” shall mean the Principal Collector, collector, deputy, assistant, sub-collector, or other principal acting officer of customs of any port or place :

“Foreign” shall mean the trade by sea to or from any part or place beyond the limits of the island of Ceylon :

employed or who shall hereafter be employed in the service of the customs, such securities for his good conduct as he shall deem necessary, and the Principal Collector of Customs shall, throughout Ceylon, have the general superintendence of all matters relating to the customs.

Principal Collector.

4 Every person employed on any duty or service relating to the customs within this island, by the orders or with the concurrence of the Governor or the collector, whether previously or subsequently expressed, shall be deemed to be the officer for that duty or service, and every act, matter, or thing required by any law at any time in force to be done or performed by, to, or with any particular officer nominated in such law for such purpose, being done or performed by, to, or with any person appointed by the Governor or the collector to act for or in the behalf of such particular officer, shall be deemed to be done or performed by, to, or with such particular officer; and every act, matter, or thing required by any law at any time in force to be done or performed at any particular place within any port, being done or performed at any place within such port appointed by the Governor for such purpose, shall be deemed to be done or performed at the particular place so required.

Persons employed by customs deemed officers for such service.

5 If any officer or other person acting in any office or employment in or belonging to the customs shall take or receive any fee, perquisite, gratuity, or reward, whether pecuniary or of any other sort or description whatsoever, directly or indirectly from any person (not being a person duly appointed to some office in the customs) on account of anything done, to be done, or omitted to be done by him in any way relating to his said office or employment, except such as he shall receive under any order or permission of the Governor or collector, such officer or other person so offending shall, on proof thereof, be dismissed from his office, and he shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds; and if any person, not being a person duly appointed to some office in the customs, shall give, offer, or promise to give any such fee, perquisite, gratuity, or reward, such person shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Officer taking any fee or reward not allowed shall be dismissed.

Penalty for offering fee.

6 No officer of customs, nor person employed in the collection or management of or accounting for the revenue of customs, or any part thereof, nor any other person acting under him, shall, during the time of his acting as such officer, or of his being so employed as aforesaid, be compelled to serve in any other public office or employment, or to serve on any jury or inquest, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Officers of customs not liable to serve in other local offices.

7 It shall be lawful for the Principal Collector, with the sanction of the Governor, from time to time to appoint the hours of general attendance of the respective officers and other persons under his survey at their proper offices and places of employment.

Collector authorized to administer oaths.

9 In all cases wherein proof on oath shall be required by any law, or shall be necessary in any matter relating to the customs, the same may be made before the collector or other principal officer of customs, or before the persons acting for them respectively, who are hereby authorized and empowered to administer the same.

Collector, &c., may examine witnesses on oath.

10 Upon examination and inquiries made by the collector or other principal officer of the customs, or other persons appointed by the Governor to make such examinations and inquiries, for ascertaining the truth of statements made relative to the customs, or the conduct of officers or persons employed therein, any person examined before him or them as a witness shall deliver his testimony on oath, to be administered by such collector or other principal officer, or such other persons as shall examine any such witness, who are hereby authorized to administer such oath; and if such person shall be convicted of giving false evidence on his examination on oath before such collector or other principal officer of customs, or such other person in conformity to the directions of this Ordinance, every such person so convicted as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be liable to the pains and penalties to which persons are liable for wilful and corrupt perjury.

False oath deemed perjury.

IV.—Levying of Customs Duties.

Duties to be levied.

11 From and after the commencement of this Ordinance, the several duties of customs, as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in figures in the table of duties (schedule B) hereto annexed, shall be levied and paid upon all goods, wares, and merchandise imported into this island: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time to alter and amend the official rated valuation on which the duty is assessed on cotton piece goods and yarns by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, not less than three months before such alteration shall come into force; such Proclamation shall have the same effect in law as if it formed part of this Ordinance.

Goods in warehouse to be liable to the duties imposed by this Ordinance.

12 All goods whatsoever which shall have been warehoused without payment of duty upon the first importation thereof, and which shall be in the warehouse when this Ordinance comes into force, shall become liable to the duties imposed by this Ordinance, in lieu of all former duties.

Power to charge rent.

13 On all goods lodged in any Queen's warehouse, warehouse, or place of deposit provided by Government, it shall be lawful for the collector to charge, demand, and receive warehouse rent for all such time as the same shall remain in such warehouse, at such rates and under such regulations as may from time to time be fixed by the Governor, as warehouse rent payable on goods so lodged, and no goods upon which warehouse rent may be due shall be removed until the same be paid.

or exportation, whether inwards, outwards, or coastwise in this colony, it shall become necessary to determine the precise time at which an importation or exportation of any goods made and completed shall be deemed to have had effect, such time, in respect of importation, shall be deemed to be the time at which the ship importing such goods had actually come within the limits of the port at which such ship shall in due course be reported and such goods be discharged; and such time, in respect of exportation, shall be deemed to be the time at which the goods had been shipped on board the ship in which they had been exported; and if such question shall arise upon the arrival or departure of any ship, in respect of any charge or allowance upon such ship, exclusive of any cargo, the time of such arrival shall be deemed to be the time at which the report of such ship shall have been or ought to have been made; and the time of such departure shall be deemed to be the time of the last clearance of such ship with the collector for the voyage upon which she had departed.

15 All duties of customs, as well as all penalties and forfeitures incurred under this Ordinance, shall be paid and received in the several descriptions of money herein enumerated, and at the rates of exchange specified, viz., in British gold or silver money, or in such other description of money and at such rate of exchange as may from time to time be established by the Governor, and according to the standard weights and measures of this island; and that in all cases, when such duties are imposed and allowed according to any specific quantity or any specific value, the same shall be deemed to apply in the same proportion to any greater or less quantity or value; and the produce of all duties of customs shall be paid by the collector into the hands of the Treasurer or the sub-accountants of the colony, in such manner and at such periods as may be directed by the Governor.

16 No duty or other customs dues or charges which shall have been charged and paid, and of which, or of a portion of which, repayment is claimed in consequence of the same having been charged or paid under an erroneous construction of law or from other error, shall be returned,* unless such claim is made within twelve months from the date of such payment, and the collector shall, within the period above specified, repay the duties, dues, or charges so overpaid or paid in error out of moneys received as duties; and when any duties or other customs dues or charges have been short levied through inadvertence, error, or misconstruction on the part of the officers of customs, the person chargeable therewith shall pay the deficiency, provided that the same shall be demanded within twelve months from the date of such short levy; and it shall be lawful for the officers of customs to refuse to pass any goods belonging to such person until the said deficiency be paid.

Customs.V.—Port Dues.

Port dues.

17 Port dues shall be leviable and payable for entry inwards, and for clearance outwards, on all ships arriving at or departing from any port of this island, according to the table of port dues set forth in figures in schedule D hereto attached: Provided always that when a vessel has paid port dues inwards or outwards, she shall not be liable for additional port dues for goods carried coastwise during the same voyage.

Composition for dues.

18 Any coastwise ship shall be allowed to compound for port dues for twelve months at the rate of one shilling per ton of the registered tonnage, and on payment thereof the collector or other principal officer shall grant a certificate which shall exempt such vessel while so employed from any further demand for port dues during the period stated in such certificate.

Tonnage of ship how ascertained.

19 The tonnage or burthen of every British ship, within the meaning of this Ordinance, shall be the tonnage set forth in the certificate of registry of such ship, and the tonnage or burthen of every other ship shall for the purposes of this Ordinance be ascertained in the same manner as the tonnage of British ships is ascertained.

VI.—Regulations Inwards.

No goods to be landed nor bulk broken before report.

20 And whereas it is expedient that the officers of customs should have full cognizance of all ships coming into any port or place in this island, or approaching the coast thereof, and of all goods on board or which may have been on board such ships, and also of all goods unladen from any ships in any port or place in this island: It is enacted that no goods shall be unladen from any ship arriving from parts beyond the seas at any port or place in this island, nor shall bulk be broken after the arrival of such ship within one league of the coast thereof, before due report of such ship and sufferance granted, in manner hereinafter directed; and that no goods shall be so unladen except at such times and places and in such manner and by such persons and under the care of such officers as hereinafter directed; and that all goods not duly reported, or which shall be unladen contrary hereto shall be forfeited; and if bulk be broken contrary hereto the master of such ship shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds; and if after the arrival of any ship within one league of the coasts of this island any alteration be made in the stowage of the cargo of such ships so as to facilitate the unloading of any part of such cargo, or if any part be staved, destroyed, or thrown overboard, or any package be opened, such ship shall be deemed to have broken bulk: Provided always that coin, bullion, cattle, and other live stock, and passengers with their baggage, may be landed previous to report, entry, or sufferance.

24 Officers of the customs may be stationed on board any ship while within the limits of any port or place in this island, and the master of every ship on board of which any officer is so stationed shall provide every such officer with suitable shelter and accommodation while on board, and in case of neglect or refusal so to do shall be liable to forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

25 If any ship shall arrive at any port in this island without a clearance or other paper which it is usual to grant at the place or places from which such ship shall have come, the master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, or if any goods entered on any clearance, or other paper granted at the place from which any ship shall have come, shall not be found on board such ship, or if the quantity found be short, and the deficiency be not duly accounted for, or if goods sent out of the ship be not landed at the appointed places, the master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for every missing or deficient package of unknown value, and twice the amount of duty chargeable on the goods deficient and unaccounted for, if the duty can be ascertained, and the collector is authorized to require the payment of such fine and dues, and to decline the granting of a clearance outwards to the master of any vessel so liable, and refusing to pay such fines and dues: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the collector from accepting explanation in the absence of clearance, or from permitting at his discretion the master of any ship to amend obvious errors, or to supply omissions from accidents or inadvertence by furnishing an amended report.

26 No goods shall be unshipped or carried from the importing ship to any wharf or other place, except under such rules, regulations, and restrictions as the collector may from time to time direct and appoint; and all goods unshipped or carried contrary to such rules, regulations, and restrictions, or any of them, shall be forfeited, together with the boat or other means used for the conveyance of such Goods landed to be taken to the Queen's warehouse.

Subsequent entry.

Goods not removed or warehoused within three clear days from the date of landing subject to double rent.

Goods landed contrary to or without sufferance forfeited.

28 The master of any ship from which goods or cargo shall be unladen before the hours of six in the morning or later than four o'clock in the afternoon, or on any day when the custom house is closed for business, without permission in writing from the collector, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, and the boat and other means used for the conveyance of such goods shall be liable to be forfeited.

No goods to be unladen except during the legal hours and days of business.

Forfeiture.

29 Except in special cases sanctioned by the collector of customs, ten days, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, shall be allowed for the discharge of the import cargoes of vessels not exceeding 150 tons burthen, and twenty-five days for vessels exceeding that burthen; and the said period shall be calculated from the date on which the vessel was admitted to entry and sufferance granted; and if any goods remain on board after the periods above fixed the collector may order such goods to be at once landed, and in case of neglect of such directions or of unnecessary delay or other unwarranted cause the collector may authorize the landing of the cargo and its conveyance to the Queen's warehouse; and if the duties, warehouse rent, and charges of landing and freight due upon any goods so landed shall not be paid within one month after such landing, the same shall be sold and the produce thereof applied, first to the payment of freight and landing charges, next of duties and warehouse rent, and the overplus, if any, shall be paid to the owner of the goods, if claimed within twelve months from the date of such sale, otherwise such surplus shall be brought to account as revenue: Provided that it shall Perfect entry to be made within three days.

In default goods to be sold after one month.

41 No entry nor any warrant for the delivery of any goods, or for the taking of any goods out of any warehouse, shall be valid unless the particulars of the goods and packages in such entry shall correspond with the particulars of the goods and packages purporting to be the same in the report of the ship, and in the manifest, where a manifest is required, and in the certificate or document, where any is required, by which the importation or entry of such goods is authorized, nor unless the goods shall have been properly described in such entry by the denominations, and with the characters and circumstances according to which such goods are charged with duty, or may be imported, either to be used in the island, or to be warehoused for exportation only; and any goods taken or delivered out of any ship, or out of any warehouse, or for the delivery of which, or for any order for the delivery of which, from any warehouse, demand shall have been made, not having been duly entered, shall be forfeited.

Entry to agree with manifest, &c.

Goods not duly entered forfeited.

42 In all cases when the duties imposed upon the importation of articles are charged, not according to the weight, tale, gauge, or measure, but according to the value thereof, the respective value of each of such articles shall be stated in the entry, together with the description and quantity of the same, and such respective value shall be affirmed by the declaration of the importer of such articles, or his known agent, in manner and form following; (that is to say,) with the duties paid upon such goods, to be paid to the importer or proprietor of such goods in full satisfaction for the same, and shall dispose of such goods for the benefit of the Crown, and if the produce of such sale shall exceed the sums so paid and all charges incurred by the Crown, one moiety of such surplus shall be paid to a separate fund at the disposal of the Governor, and be distributed by him at such periods and in such proportions to or amongst such meritorious officers as the Principal Collector shall submit as most deserving, and the other moiety shall be accounted for, paid, and carried to account as duties of customs.

VII.—Entry of Goods re-imported.

Entry of re-imported goods by bill of store.

44 All goods, the produce or manufacture of Ceylon, re-imported, shall be deemed and taken to be and be entered as foreign produce or manufacture, and shall be liable to the same duties, rules, regulations, and restrictions as such goods of foreign produce and manufacture would be liable to on importation thereof, unless the same shall be re-imported within two years after the exportation thereof, and unless it be proved to the satisfaction of the proper officers that the property in such goods has continued and still remains in the person by whom or on whose account the same have been exported, the same may be entered as goods, the produce or manufacture of Ceylon, by bill of store containing such particulars, and in such form and manner as the collector may direct.

Bill of store may be issued by the proper officer.

45 The person in whose name any goods re-imported were entered for exportation shall deliver to the proper officer of customs an exact account signed by him of the particulars of such goods, referring to the entry and clearance outwards, and to the return inwards of the same, with the marks and numbers of the packages, both inwards and outwards; and thereupon the officer finding that such goods had been legally exported shall grant a bill of store for the same; and if the person in whose name such goods were entered for exportation was not the proprietor thereof, but his agent, he shall declare in such bill of store the name of the person by whom he was employed as such agent; and if the person to whom such returned goods are consigned shall not be such proprietor and exporter, he shall make and subscribe a declaration in such bill of store of the name of the person for whose use such goods have been consigned to him, and the real proprietor ascertained to be such shall make and subscribe a declaration upon such bill of store to the identity of the goods so exported and so returned; and that he was at the time of exportation and of re-importation the proprietor of such goods; and that the same had not during such time been sold or disposed of to any other person, and such declaration shall be made before the collector, and thereupon the collector shall admit such goods to entry by bill of store, and grant his warrant accordingly.

Agent to declare name of employer. Consignee to declare who is proprietor.

Proprietor to declare to identity and property unchanged.

The entry by bill of store to be granted.

*Customs.VIII.—Removal of Goods by Sea or Inland Carriage.

46 Goods may be removed or carried from one port of this island to any other port therein by sea or inland carriage previous to payment of duties, on the owner or his agent duly entering the same, and giving bond to the satisfaction of the collector for the due delivery thereof at the custom house of the port to which such goods are to be removed ; and if the seals of office attached to such packages be broken, or if the contents shall not be found to agree with the particulars of entry and advice from the port of removal, such packages, with their contents, shall be forfeited, and the bond given for the safe and due delivery of the goods enforced. The Governor may from time to time direct and appoint rules, regulations, and restrictions in respect to the said removal of goods, and all goods carried or removed contrary thereto shall be forfeited.

Goods may be removed by land, or from one sea port to another in the island.

IX.—Regulations Outwards.

47 And whereas it is expedient that the officers of customs should have full cognizance of all ships departing from any port or place in this island and of all goods taken out of this island : It is enacted that the master of every ship shall, before any goods be laden therein, deliver to the collector a certificate from the proper officer of the due landing of the inward cargo of such ship, of her last voyage, and also an entry outwards under his hand, stating her name, country, and tonnage, the port of registry, the name of the master and of the owners, and the number of the crew and passengers, and the destination of such ship. If any goods be laden on board any ship before such entry be made, the master of such ship shall forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty pounds.

Ship to be entered and goods cleared before shipment.

48 No goods shall be laden, put off, or waterborne to be shipped for exportation or coastwise, or shipped on board any vessel, except on days not being Sundays or holidays, nor before six in the morning, nor later than four in the afternoon, nor from any place except some legal quay or other duly appointed place, nor without the presence or authority of the proper officer of customs, nor before due entry outwards of such ship, nor before such goods shall have been duly entered and duly cleared for shipment by such officer, who may open all packages and fully examine all goods brought and intended for shipment ; and all goods laden, waterborne, or shipped contrary to such regulations, or shipped on board any vessel not duly entered outwards, may be re-laden by the proper officers of customs, and shall be forfeited, together with the means of conveyance.

Periods and hours of shipment of goods.

49 When it shall become necessary to lade heavy goods on board any ship before the whole of the inward cargo is discharged, the collector may, previous to the entry outwards of the ship, issue a stiffening order, sanctioning the shipment of the goods.

Stores.

50 On due requisition by the master the collector may allow for the use of such ship such stores as may appear necessary according to the voyage upon which she is about to depart, but no articles taken on board any ship shall be deemed to be stores unless duly shipped as such by entry or by permit of the collector or other proper officer.

Collector may grant general sufferance for the shipping of goods.

51 On the entry outwards of any ship the collector shall grant a general sufferance for the shipment and lading of any sort of goods, the produce or manufacture of this island, except such as shall be expressly excepted therein: Provided always that before the clearing outwards of such ship, the exporter of any goods on board the same shall deliver to the collector an entry, containing an accurate specification of the quantity, quality, and value of such goods; and if such declaration be false, or if he fail to make such entry before the content of the ship is delivered in by the master, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds; and the collector may refuse to certify such shipment on the clearance of such ship.

Subsequent entry and penalty on failure.

Master to deliver content.

52 Before any ship, whether laden or in ballast, shall be cleared outwards at any port in this island, the master shall deliver a content of such ship, setting forth the name and tonnage of such ship and the place or places of her destination, and the name of the master, the number of passengers, also, if laden, an account of the goods shipped on board, and of the packages containing such goods, and of the marks and numbers upon such packages, and a like account of the goods on board, if any, which had been reported inwards for exportation in such ship, so far as any of such particulars can be known by him, and the master of the ship shall furnish such content in duplicate, and shall make and sign a declaration before the collector to the truth of such content, and shall also answer such questions concerning the ship, the cargo, and the intended voyage, as the collector shall demand of him, and, if required by the collector, shall produce to him any bill or bills of lading, or a true copy thereof, for any and every part of the cargo laden on board, and thereupon the collector or other proper officer shall make out and give to the master a certificate of the clearance of such ship for her intended voyage, containing an account of the total quantities of the several sorts of goods laden therein, or a certificate of her clearance in ballast, as the case may be; and if the ship shall depart without such clearance, or if the master shall deliver a false content, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds.

answer questions, and produce bills of lading.

Certificate of clearance.

Officers may board vessels after clearance.

53 It shall be lawful for the officers of the customs to go on board any ship before and after clearance outwards within the limits of any port in this island, or within two leagues of the coast thereof, and to demand the certificate of clearance and the victualling bill, and if there be any goods on board subject to duty and not duly entered outwards, such goods shall be re-landed and forfeited; and if any goods contained in such clearance or victualling bill be not on board, the master shall forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds for every package or parcel of goods contained in such clearance or victualling bill and not on board.

X.—Trade by Vessels of less than 15 tons burthen.

54 No goods shall be imported into or exported from this island from or to parts beyond the seas in any ship of less burthen than fifteen tons, and any goods so imported or exported shall be forfeited: Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by any Proclamation to be by him issued and published in the Government Gazette, to allow ships or boats under fifteen tons burthen to import or export any goods from or to parts beyond the seas, at such ports or places, and during such periods or times, and in such manner as may be deemed expedient, upon any pearl fishery or other occasion appearing to require the same.

No goods to be imported or exported in vessels of less than 15 tons.

Unless by Proclamation of the Governor.

XI.—Regulations Coastwise.

55 All ships conveying goods coastwise, and all goods imported or exported coastwise, shall be liable to the like cognizance of the customs, and be subject to the same prohibitions, restrictions, regulations, fines, forfeitures, and penalties as goods imported from or exported to parts beyond the seas, and it shall be lawful for the Governor to make and appoint such other regulations, by any Proclamation to be by him issued and published in the Government Gazette, for the carrying coastwise of any goods, as to him shall appear expedient, and such Proclamation shall have the same effect in law as if it had formed part of this Ordinance.

Coastwise trade.

56 No goods shall be carried in any coasting ship except such as shall be laden to be so carried at some port or place in this island, and if any goods shall be taken into or put out of any coasting ship at sea, or over the sea, or if any coasting ship shall touch at any place over the sea, or deviate from her voyage, unless forced by unavoidable circumstances, or if the master of any coasting ship which shall have touched at any place over the seas shall not declare the same in writing under his hand to the collector at the port in this island where such ship shall afterwards first arrive, the master of such ship shall be liable to forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds.

What goods shall be carried coastwise.

XII.—Warehousing of Goods.

57 The Governor may, by Proclamation from time to time, appoint the ports in this island which shall be warehousing ports for the purposes of this Ordinance, and the collectors of such ports may from time to time, by notice in writing under their hands, approve and appoint warehouses or places of security in such ports, and direct in what different parts or divisions of such warehouse or places, and in what manner, and under what regulations, any and what sort of goods may be warehoused, kept, and secured without payment of duty upon the first entry thereof, and may also direct in what cases, and with what sureties, and to what amount, security by bond shall be required in respect of any warehouse so approved or appointed as aforesaid, or in respect of any goods deposited therein, or for the security of the duties due thereon ; and such collectors may by a like notice revoke or alter any such appointments or declarations ; but every such notice of the appointment of warehouses, or of the revoking thereof, shall be subject to the Governor's approval, and shall be published in such manner as he may direct.

Warehouse keeper to give security.

58 The proprietor or occupier of every warehouse approved of and appointed as aforesaid, or some one on his behalf, shall give or procure to be given security by bond with two sufficient sureties, or such other security as the collector may approve, for the payment of the full duties of importation on or for the due entry for exportation of all such goods as shall at any time be warehoused therein, and no goods shall be warehoused in any such warehouse until such security shall have been given.

Importer under certain restrictions may warehouse goods.

59 The importer of any goods into any warehousing port may warehouse the same in warehouses appointed as aforesaid, or in any public warehouse, without payment of any duty on the first entry thereof, subject to the regulations, restrictions, and conditions hereinafter mentioned, and from time to time directed by the collector ; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to render it incumbent on Government to provide accommodation for the warehousing of goods, or for the deposit of salt, which shall be warehoused only in private warehouses.

Entry for the warehouse.

60 The importer of any goods intended to be warehoused without payment of duty on the first entry thereof, or his agent, shall deliver to the collector a bill of entry of such goods in the same manner and form and containing the same particulars as are hereinbefore required on the entry of goods to be delivered for home use, as far as the same shall be applicable, and the name and description of the warehouse in which such goods are intended to be warehoused, and the name of the person in whose name they are to be so warehoused, and such bill of entry when signed by the collector or other authorized officer shall be transmitted to the proper officer of customs and be the warrant for the examination and due warehousing of such goods, and all goods not duly entered shall be liable to forfeiture ; but the collector may, if he see fit in any case so to do, require bond to be given by the importer or consignee in treble the amount of duties due thereon for the safe deposit and due clearance of such goods.

Carrying goods to and from warehouse.

62 If any goods entered to be warehoused shall not be duly warehoused in pursuance of such entry, or being duly warehoused shall be fraudulently concealed in or removed from the warehouse, or abstracted from any package, or transferred from one package to another, or otherwise, for the purpose of illegal removal or concealment, they shall be forfeited, together with the goods with which they shall have been so packed, and the packages in which they shall have been concealed.

Goods not duly warehoused or fraudulently concealed or removed, forfeited.

63 If the warehouse keeper of any warehouse shall not produce to any authorized officer of customs on his request any goods deposited in such warehouse which shall not have been duly cleared and delivered therefrom, such warehouse keeper shall for every such neglect forfeit the sum of five pounds in respect of every package or parcel not so produced.

Warehouse keeper neglecting to produce goods deposited when required, to forfeit £5.

64 If the warehouse keeper of any warehouse, or the importer or proprietor of any goods warehoused therein, or any person in his employ, shall clandestinely open the warehouse, or gain access to the goods except in the presence of the proper officer of customs acting in the execution of his duty, such warehouse keeper, importer, or proprietor shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Importer or proprietor clandestinely gaining access to warehoused goods, to forfeit £100.

65 If any goods shall be taken out of any warehouse without due entry of the same with the proper officer of customs, the warehouse keeper of such warehouse shall forthwith pay the duties due upon such goods, and every person so taking out any goods without payment of duty, or who shall aid, assist, or be concerned therein, and every person who shall wilfully destroy or embezzle any goods duly warehoused, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall upon conviction suffer the punishment by law inflicted in cases of misdemeanour; but if such person shall be an officer of customs not acting in the due execution of his duty, and shall be prosecuted to conviction by the importer, consignee.

or proprietor of such goods, no duty shall be payable for or in respect of such goods, and the damage occasioned by such waste, spoil, or embezzlement shall, with the sanction of the Governor, be repaid or made good to such importer, consignee, or proprietor by the collector of customs.

Collector may remit duties on warehoused goods lost or destroyed.

66 If any goods entered to be warehoused, warehoused, or entered to be delivered from the warehouse, shall be lost, damaged, or destroyed by unavoidable accident, either in receiving into the warehouse or in the warehouse, the collector may remit the duties due thereon.

Landing account to be taken of goods for the warehouse.

67 Upon the entry and landing of any goods to be warehoused the proper officer of customs shall take a particular account of such goods at the quay, wharf, or warehouse at which they shall be so landed, and shall enter in a book prepared for that purpose the name of the importing ship, and of the person in whose name they are entered, the marks, numbers, and contents of every such package, the description of the goods, and the warehouse in which the same shall be deposited, and when the same shall have been so deposited with the authority of such officer, he shall certify that the entry and warehousing of such goods is complete, and such goods shall from that time be considered goods warehoused; and if any such goods shall be delivered, withheld, or removed from the proper place of examination before the same shall have been duly examined and certified by such officer, such goods shall be deemed to be goods not duly entered or warehoused, and shall be liable to be forfeited.

Contents to be marked on packages and in landing book.

68 The account of goods so taken as aforesaid shall be the account upon which the duties payable upon such goods shall be ascertained, when the same shall ultimately come to be delivered upon due entry for that purpose, and the same shall be entered and the full duties due thereon be paid, according to the quantity taken in such account, without any abatement for any deficiency except as herein-after provided.

Goods to be entered and duties paid according to landing account.

Goods to be cleared within two years.

69 All warehoused goods shall be cleared either for home use or exportation within two years from the date on which the same were warehoused, or within such further period as the collector shall allow, in which case the goods shall be examined by the proper officers, and the duties due upon any deficiency or difference between the quantity ascertained on landing, and the quantity found to exist on such examination, together with the warehouse rent and necessary expenses attendant thereon, shall, subject to such allowances as are by law permitted in respect thereof, be paid down, and the quantity so found shall be re-warehoused in the name of the then owner or proprietor thereof, in the same manner as on first importation.

Bill of entry for warehoused goods delivered for home use.

73 Upon the entry of any goods to be cleared from the warehouse for home use, the person entering such goods shall deliver a bill of entry, and duplicates thereof, in like manner and form and containing the same particulars as hereinbefore required on the entry of goods to be delivered for home use on the landing thereof, as far as the same may be applicable, and shall at the same time pay down to the proper officer of customs the full duties payable thereon, not being less in amount than according to the account of the quantity taken by the landing waiter or other proper officer on the first entry and landing thereof, except as to the following goods, viz., rice, wine, beer, spirits, and sugar, the duties whereon when cleared from the warehouse for home use shall be charged upon the quantity of such goods ascertained by weight, measure, or gauge at the time of actual delivery thereof, unless there is reasonable ground to suppose that any portion of the deficiency or difference between the weight, measure, or gauge ascertained on landing and first examination of any such last-mentioned goods and that ascertained at the time of actual delivery has been caused by illegal or improper means, in which case the proper officer of customs shall make such allowance only for loss as he may consider fairly to have arisen from natural evaporation or other legitimate cause.

Duties to be paid according to landing account, except in certain cases when duties are to be charged on ascertained quantity on delivery, unless deficiency has been caused by improper means.

Value of goods for allowance on deficiencies to be estimated at market price.

74 When any deficiency occurs in goods chargeable to pay duty according to the value thereof, the value thereof shall be estimated as nearly as conveniently may be by the officers of customs according to the market price of the like sort of goods.

Deficiencies on goods exported not to be charged with duty unless fraudulent.

75 No duty shall be charged in respect of any deficiency in goods entered and cleared from the warehouse for exportation, unless the officers of customs have reasonable ground to suppose that such deficiency, or any part thereof, has arisen from illegal abstraction.

On entry outward bond for due shipment and landing shall be given.

76 Before any warehoused goods subject to duties of customs shall be permitted to be exported, the exporter or his agent shall give security by bond to be approved of by the collector in treble the amount of duty payable by law upon the importation of such goods, with one sufficient surety, if required by the collector, that such goods shall be duly shipped and exported, and shall be landed at the place for which they are entered outwards or otherwise accounted for, to the satisfaction of the collector, and shall, if required, produce a certificate, under the hands of the proper officers at the port of landing, of the due landing of the goods at such port as aforesaid.

General bond for warehoused goods exported.

77 The collector may, in such instances as he shall deem advisable, accept, in lieu of separate bonds as aforesaid, from the known resident exporters and shippers of goods, general bonds with one or two sufficient securities or such other security as the collector may approve of, to such an amount as shall be necessary for the due shipment, exportation, and landing at the place for which they are entered outwards of all warehoused goods exported by such persons, but such general bonds shall only be in force for two years, and may be revoked and cancelled whenever the collector shall see fit.

78 It shall be lawful for the Governor, after notice published in the Government Gazette, to direct that after the expiration of twelve months from the date of such notice no goods or merchandise shall be warehoused in any public warehouse or premises, and to convert all or any of such warehouses or premises in use as bonding warehouses at the time of such notice to other purposes of customs accommodation, and any goods not cleared from such public warehouse by removal to other approved bonding warehouse, or by entry for home consumption or exportation, at the expiration of such notice aforesaid, shall be sold by the collector in like manner as is provided for the sale of unclaimed goods.

Governor may close bonded warehouse.

78 (1) The collector of customs may, upon an application in writing by the owner, importer, or consignee of any goods duly warehoused in any Queen's warehouse, or other place of deposit provided by Government, issue to such owner, importer, or consignee warrants under his hand substantially in the form to this Ordinance annexed.

Collector may issue warrants.
[§ 1, 1 of 1871]

(2) Such warrants shall be transferable once or oftener by the endorsement of the owner, importer, or consignee of the goods or of the holders of the said warrants, and the right and title to the goods enumerated in such warrants shall vest in the possessors thereof without any endorsement save that of the original grantee. The collector shall, upon production and surrender of such warrants, but not otherwise, deliver the goods to the holders of the warrants on due entry of the goods for home consumption or exportation, and upon payment of all duties and charges due on the said goods.

Goods transferable by endorsement and deliverable to the holders of warrants.
[§ 2, 1 of 1871]

(3) It shall be lawful for the keeper of any bonded warehouse to issue to the owner, importer, or consignee of any goods duly warehoused in his bonded warehouse, warrants substantially in the form to this Ordinance annexed. Such warrants shall be transferable, once or oftener, by the endorsement of the owner, importer, or consignee of the goods, or of the holders of the said warrants; and the right and title to the goods enumerated in such warrants shall vest in the possessors thereof without any endorsement save that of the original grantee. The keeper of such warehouse shall, upon production and surrender of such warrants, but not otherwise, deliver the goods to the holders of the warrants on due entry of the goods for home consumption or exportation, and upon payment of all duties and charges due on the said goods. Provided that it shall not be lawful for the keeper of any bonded warehouse to issue warrants for goods in which he has any share or interest as owner, importer, or consignee.

Warrants by private warehouse keepers.
[§ 3, 1 of 1871]

(4) Every warrant, whether issued by a collector of customs or by the keeper of a bonded warehouse, shall bear a stamp duty of five cents, and such duty shall be denoted by adhesive stamps to be provided by the Commissioner of Stamps for that purpose and to be affixed to such warrants. And such warrants shall be liable, in all matters relating to stamp duty, to the provisions of the Ordinances relating to stamp duties, so far as the same shall be applicable thereto.

[§ 9, 1 of 1871]

(5) Provided that the holder of any warrant issued by the collector of customs shall have no claim on the Crown to compensation for loss of any goods by fire, theft, damage, or other cause, except such loss be caused by the wilful embezzlement, waste, spoil, or destruction on the part of any officer of customs, and such officer shall have been prosecuted to conviction within one year from the date of such embezzlement, waste, spoil, or destruction. The holder of a warrant issued by a bonded warehouse keeper shall have no claim on the Crown to compensation on any ground or pretext whatsoever.

(6) Provided further that the collector of customs shall be in no way answerable for the correctness of the particulars of the contents or value of the goods specified in any warrant issued as aforesaid, and that the said goods shall be in every respect liable to the provisions of the laws and regulations relating to the customs in force at the time such goods shall be in deposit at the Queen's warehouse or other place of deposit provided by Government.

(7) Any keeper of a bonded warehouse who shall fraudulently issue a warrant for goods not in his warehouse, or who shall fraudulently issue two or more warrants for the same goods, or who shall fraudulently issue warrants for goods in which he has any share or interest as owner, importer, or consignee, or who shall aid and assist any other person to do so, and any keeper of such warehouse or other person who shall in any way use any warrant granted under the provisions of this Ordinance for the purposes of defrauding or injuring any person, company, or corporation, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour not exceeding three years, and in addition thereto, at the discretion of the judge, to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds.

(8) It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time to make regulations as to him shall appear expedient for any of the following purposes :

- (a) For preventing accidents by fire, and as to the lighting or using of candles, fires, and lamps, and as to the smoking of tobacco or herbs within the customs premises ;
- (b) For governing and regulating porters, coolies, cartmen, and others carrying goods or using or driving horses, mules, bullocks, trucks, carts, sledges, or other carriages within the customs premises ;
- (c) For preventing damage being done to any goods.

And such regulations shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall have the force of law. Any person who shall disobey the same shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

(9) If the owner, consignee, or person having charge of any tar, pitch, spirituous liquor, turpentine, oil, aqua fortis, lucifer matches, or any other article of a combustible or dangerous nature whatsoever, shall suffer the same to remain in the customs premises beyond the space of five hours after he shall have been required by any officer of customs to remove the same therefrom, then and in every such case every person so offending shall for every such offence be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds, and not less than one pound for every hour that any of the said articles or goods shall be or remain in the place aforesaid after the expiration of the said five hours.

Customs.

(10) No goods warehoused in any Queen's warehouse or other place of deposit provided by Government, or in any bonded warehouse, shall be delivered out of such Queen's warehouse or other place of deposit provided by Government, or bonded warehouse, except upon surrender of the warrant in which such goods are enumerated, to the collector of customs or to the keeper of such bonded warehouse, as the case may be; every such warrant, after being so surrendered, shall be defaced, and no such warrant, after being so surrendered, shall be re-issued.

No goods warehoused in Government or bonded warehouses to be delivered, save on surrender of the warrant, and no warrant once surrendered to be re-issued.

[§ 1, 1 of 1875]

Provided that whenever the holder or holders of any warrant issued under the 1st or 3rd sections of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1871, or under this present provision, shall be desirous of obtaining delivery of a part only of the goods enumerated in such warrant, it shall be lawful for the collector of customs or keeper of the bonded warehouse, as the case may be, upon the surrender of such warrant, to issue to the holder or holders by whom the same was surrendered, a new warrant in respect of the goods remaining undelivered.

But where partial delivery taken, a new warrant may be issued in respect of the goods remaining undelivered.

(11) Any person who shall deliver any goods warehoused as mentioned in the first section of this Ordinance, out of the place in which the same shall have been so warehoused, except upon the surrender as therein mentioned of the warrant in which such goods are enumerated, and any person who shall re-issue any warrant surrendered as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty on infringement of section 1.

[§ 2, 1 of 1875]

(12) The power of making regulations created by the 8th section of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1871 shall be deemed to extend to the making from time to time of regulations prescribing new forms for the warrants mentioned in this Ordinance and the Ordinance No. 1 of 1871, and the manner in which such warrants are to be defaced, as hereinbefore mentioned.

Power to make regulations as to form of warrants and manner of defacing.

*Customs.XIII.—General Regulations.

Special regulations for steamers.

79 Whereas it is desirable to facilitate the despatch of steamers, it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make special regulations from time to time relating to the entry inwards and outwards of such steamers, and the landing, shipping, and transhipping of goods by them, and such regulations, when duly published, shall have the same effect in law as if they formed part of this Ordinance.

Goods lodged in Queen's warehouse liable to claims for freight, &c.

80 All goods or merchandise which shall be lodged in any Queen's warehouse under the provisions of this Ordinance, not being goods seized as forfeited to Her Majesty, shall, when landed, continue and be subject and liable to such and the same claim for freight and general average in favour of the master, owner, or agent of the respective ship, or of any other person interested in the freight or general average from which such goods or merchandise shall have been so landed, as such goods or merchandise respectively were subject and liable to before the landing thereof.

Collector required to detain goods for freight, &c.

The collector is hereby authorized and required, upon due notice in writing given to him by such master, owner, agent, or other persons as aforesaid, specifying the particulars of the goods, and the amount of freight or general average to which they are liable, to detain and keep the whole or such portions of such goods and merchandise, not being seized as forfeited to Her Majesty, in the Queen's warehouse as will cover the amount of freight, general average, and the landing charges due, until proof of payment of the same, or until a deposit shall have been made by the owner or consignee of such goods or merchandise equal in amount to the claim or demand made by the master, owner, or agent of the respective ship, or other persons as aforesaid, for or on account of freight, general average, and charges as aforesaid, upon such goods or merchandise.

Collector to receive deposit for freight, &c.

The collector is hereby authorized and directed to receive and hold in trust such deposit until the claim or demand for freight, general average, and charges as aforesaid upon such goods shall have been satisfied or withdrawn, upon proof of which, and demand made by the person by whom the said deposit shall have been made, the said deposit shall be returned by the collector; but if settlement of such claim for freight, general average, and charges as aforesaid shall not be made, or the claim withdrawn by parties making such deposit within ninety days from the date of deposit, it shall be lawful for the collector to pay to the master, owner, agent, or other person as aforesaid the amount so deposited in liquidation of the claim made for freight, general average, and charges as aforesaid at the time of the detention of the goods liable thereto.

Claim to be settled within ninety days.

Notice of action may be given.

If the person making such deposit as aforesaid shall within thirty days serve on the collector notice that he has brought his action to recover the money the liability to which is disputed, the collector shall immediately pay into court, as a deposit in the said action, the sum the liability to pay which is disputed.

Customs.

If any portion of the amount deposited with the collector is admitted by such notice to be payable to the master, owner, agent, or other person as aforesaid, the collector shall pay such portion; the court shall receive the sum deposited by the collector, to be paid over to the party who shall be declared ultimately entitled to the same.

The collector shall not be bound to see to the validity of any lien claimed by any master, owner, agent, or other person as aforesaid.

If any goods or merchandise deposited as aforesaid be left in any custom house or Queen's warehouse for a longer period than ninety days from the date of landing, such goods shall, after public advertisement, be sold by public auction either for home use or exportation, and the proceeds thereof applied first to the payment of the duties due thereon, the warehouse rent, and expenses of sale, then to the payment of the freight, general average, and charges claimed as aforesaid, and the overplus, if any, shall be paid to the proprietor of the goods; but if there be no such proprietor, such overplus shall be paid into the Treasury, and if not claimed within one year from the date of the sale of such goods such overplus shall be brought to account as revenue: Provided that goods of a perishable nature or in a damaged condition may, after public advertisement, be sold forthwith, and if not saleable may be destroyed, and neither the proprietor nor claimant of the freight, general average, and charges as aforesaid, due on any goods sold or destroyed as aforesaid, shall have any claim on the collector for or on account thereof. The collector shall not be required to detain for freight, general average, or charges as aforesaid, horses, cattle, or other live stock, unless proper provision be made by the person detaining the same for the feeding, care, and housing of such live stock.

81 All bonds relating to the customs required to be given in respect of goods or ships shall be taken by the collector for the use of Her Majesty, and after the expiration of three years from the date thereof, or from the time, if any, limited therein for the performance of the condition thereof, every such bond upon which no prosecution or suit shall have been commenced shall be void, and may be cancelled and destroyed.

82 If any goods, packages, or parcels shall be landed, taken, or passed out of any ship, or out of any warehouse, not having been duly entered, the same shall be forfeited: Provided always that no entry shall be required in respect of the baggage of passengers, which may be landed, examined, and delivered under such regulations as the collector may direct; but if any prohibited or uncustomed goods shall be found concealed therein, either before or after landing, the same shall be forfeited, together with the contents of the packages and the packages containing the same.

Goods in any warehouse to be at risk of the owner.

83 All goods lodged or deposited in any Queen's warehouse or other place of deposit provided by Government shall be so deposited at the risk of the owner, importer, or consignee, who shall have no claim on the Crown to compensation for loss by fire, theft, damage, or other cause, except such loss be proved by the prosecution to conviction (within one year from the date at which such wilful embezzling, waste, spoil, or destruction is alleged to have taken place) of the offending party to have been caused by the wilful embezzlement, waste, spoil, or destruction of any officer of customs, and in which case no duty shall be leviable on such goods.

Power to sell goods not cleared within three months.

84 All goods left in any Queen's warehouse or on the customs premises for a longer period than three months, unless permitted to remain by the special permission of the collector, shall, after public advertisement, be sold by auction to answer the duties, warehouse rent, or other charges due thereon, and any overplus shall be paid, if claimed within twelve months from the date of sale, to the owner of such goods, who shall have no further claim touching the same, but if there be no claimant such overplus shall be brought to account as revenue : Provided that any goods of a perishable nature which shall be left in the warehouse or customs premises, or in any bonded warehouse, uncleared, may be sold forthwith, or if not saleable may be destroyed, and the proprietor of any goods sold or destroyed as aforesaid shall have no further claim for or on account thereof.

Proviso.

Government may appoint ports and quays, and alter or annul the same.

85 The Governor may by Proclamation appoint any place to be a haven, creek, port, or warehousing port in this colony, and declare the limits thereof, and appoint proper places within the same to be legal quays for the lading and unlading of goods, and declare the bounds and extent of any such quays, or annul the limits of any port, haven, creek, or legal quay already appointed, or to be hereafter appointed, and declare the same to be no longer a port, warehousing port, haven, creek, or legal quay ; and all ports, warehousing ports, havens, and creeks, and the respective limits thereof, and all legal quays appointed, set out, and existing as such at the time of the passing of this Ordinance shall continue to be such ports, havens, creeks, and quays until annulled or altered as aforesaid.

Existing ports to continue.

Collector to appoint wharves.

86 The collector may from time to time, by any order under his hand, and under such restrictions and regulations as he shall see fit, appoint proper places for the lading and unlading of goods.

Officers may refuse master of ship, unless his name is endorsed on registry.

87 The officers of customs may refuse to allow any person to do any act as master of any British ship, unless his name is inserted in or endorsed upon the certificate of registry of such ship as being the master thereof.

Customs.

88 The collector may and he is hereby authorized to grant licenses in such form and manner and to such persons as he shall think fit, to act as agents for transacting business which shall relate to the entry or clearance of any ship, or of any goods, or of any baggage, in any of the ports or places in this island, and only persons so appointed shall act as agents as aforesaid, and the collector may cancel or revoke for fraud or misconduct any license so granted to any such person : Provided that such license shall not be required by the clerk, servant, or known and accredited agent of any person or mercantile firms for transacting business at the custom house, on account of such person or firm ; but whenever any person shall make any application to any officer of the customs to transact any business on behalf of any other person, it shall be lawful for such officer to require the person so applying to produce a written authority from the person on whose behalf such application shall be made, and in default of the production of such authority to refuse to transact such business.

Collector to grant licenses to custom house agents.

Parties applying to transact business for others to produce written authority for so doing.

89 No ship or boat shall be hauled on shore at any public wharf, quay, beach, or landing place in this colony, for the purpose of repairs or otherwise, without permission from the collector, and no boat shall remain alongside of any wharf or landing place after the owner or person in charge shall be directed to remove the same by the proper officer of customs ; and any person hauling any ship or boat on shore without such permission as aforesaid, and the owner or person in charge of any boat refusing or neglecting to remove the same when ordered as aforesaid, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds, and such ship or boat may be detained by the collector until payment of the fine imposed.

No vessel to be hauled on shore without permission.

Boat to be removed from wharf when directed.

Penalty.

90 If any timber or other heavy or bulky articles be left on any public quay, jetty, wharf, beach, or landing place in this colony for more than one day, so as to interrupt or hinder the free use thereof, it shall be lawful for the collector, after twelve hours' notice in writing given to the owner thereof or to his agent, to remove the same ; and such owner shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and such goods shall not be delivered up to the owner thereof until after payment of the said penalty, together with the charges attending the removal of the same ; and if such goods shall not be removed within six days after notice given as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the collector to sell the same by public auction, and to deduct from the proceeds the amount of such penalty, and all charges which may have been incurred on account of such goods, and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the owner.

No timber, &c., to be left on wharf for more than one day.

91 It shall be lawful for the officers of customs to go on board any ship in any port or place in this colony, or hovering within one league of the coast thereof, and to rummage and search all parts of such ship for prohibited and uncustomed goods, and freely to stay on board such ship so long as she shall remain in such port or place or within such distance ; and if any such ship shall be bound elsewhere, and shall continue so hovering for the space of twenty-four hours after the master shall have been required to depart, it shall be lawful for the officers of customs to bring such ship into port, and to search and examine her cargo, and to examine the master touching the cargo and voyage ; and if there be any goods on board prohibited to be imported into this island, and if the master shall not truly answer the questions which shall be demanded of him on such examination, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Making false declaration.

Signing false documents and untruly answering questions.

Counterfeiting and using false documents.

Penalty.
Proviso.

Bond entered into with the collector for the due performance of anything relating to the customs, to be valid in law.

Export, &c., of military and naval stores may be prohibited.

92 If any person shall make and subscribe any declaration, certificate, or other instrument required by this Ordinance to be verified by signature only, the same being false in any particular ; or if any person shall make or sign any declaration made for the consideration of the collector or the proper officer of customs on any application presented to him, the same being untrue in any particular ; or if any person required by this or any other Ordinance relating to the customs to answer questions put to him by the officers of customs, shall not truly answer such questions ; or if any person shall counterfeit, falsify, or wilfully use when counterfeited or falsified, any document required by this or any Ordinance relating to the customs, or by or under the directions of the collector of customs, or any instrument used in the transaction of any business or matter relating to the customs, or shall fraudulently alter any document or instrument, or counterfeit the stamp, seal, signature, initials, or other mark of or used by the officers of the customs for the verification of any such document or instrument, or for the security of goods, or any other purpose, in the conduct of business relating to the customs, every person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds : Provided always that this penalty shall not attach to any particular offence for which any other penalty shall be expressly imposed by any law in force for the time being.

93 And whereas it frequently occurs that certain indulgences are granted to merchants and others by the collector of customs on bond being given for the security of the revenue, and as doubts may arise whether such bonds would in law be valid : It is therefore enacted and declared that in all cases where bonds shall be entered into with the collector of customs for the due performance of any order, matter, or thing relative to the customs, such bonds shall be valid in law, and upon breach of any of the conditions thereof may be sued and proceeded upon in like manner as any other bond entered into by virtue of this Ordinance.

95 The following goods may, by Proclamation made by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, be prohibited either to be exported or carried coastwise ; namely, arms, ammunition and gunpowder, military and naval stores, and any articles which the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall judge capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the quantity of military or naval stores, provisions, or any sort of victual which may be used as food by man ; and if any goods so prohibited shall be exported from Ceylon or carried coastwise, or be waterborne to be so exported or carried, such goods may be seized and shall be forfeited.

96 All machinery for the improvement of the communications and for the development of the resources of this island may be imported free of duty.

Machinery.

97 The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, may from time to time alter and extend the list of machinery named in schedule B hereto annexed, and which comes within the definition contained in the preceding clause. All such alterations and extensions shall be published in the Government Gazette.

Power to the Governor to alter list.

98 Every person who shall make or cause to be made an entry inwards or entry outwards of any goods, not being duly authorized thereto by the proprietor or consignee or exporter of such goods, shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Unauthorized persons not permitted to make entries.

99 It shall be lawful for the collector to authorize the officers of customs to take samples of goods for the purpose of ascertaining the duties payable on such goods, and such samples shall be accounted for in such manner as the collector may direct.

Samples.

100 The collector may refuse to grant clearance to any ship until the owner, agent, or master of that ship, or some other person, shall have paid all port dues, fees, fines, penalties, or charges to which such ship or the owner or master of such ship in respect thereof shall be liable under this or any other Ordinance : Provided such port dues, fees, fines, penalties, or charges shall have been incurred during her present voyage inwards or outwards.

Collector may refuse clearance.

XIV.—Smuggling, Seizures, and Prosecutions generally.

101 All goods and all ships and boats which by this Ordinance are declared to be forfeited shall and may be seized by any officer of the customs ; and such forfeiture of any ship or boat shall include the guns, tackle, apparel, and furniture of the same, and such forfeiture of any goods shall include all other goods which shall be packed with them, as well as the packages in which they are contained ; and all carriages or other means of conveyance, together with all horses and all other animals, and all other things made use of in any way in the concealment or removal of any goods liable to forfeiture under this Ordinance shall be forfeited.

Smuggling, seizures, and prosecutions generally.

Forfeiture of ship to include tackle, &c.

102 It shall be lawful for any officer of customs, or other person acting in his aid or assistance, or duly employed for the protection of the revenue, upon reasonable suspicion, to stop and examine any cart, carriage, or other means of conveyance, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any smuggled goods are contained therein ; and if no such goods shall be found, then and in such case the officer or other person so stopping and examining such cart, carriage, or other conveyance, having had probable cause to suspect that such cart, carriage, or other conveyance had smuggled goods contained therein, shall not on account of such stoppage and search be liable to any prosecution or action on account thereof ; and all persons driving or conducting such cart, carriage, or other conveyance, refusing to stop when required so to do in the Queen's name, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Writ of assistance to search for and seize goods liable to forfeiture.

103 Under authority of a writ of assistance granted by the Chief Justice or any judge of the Supreme Court (who are hereby authorized and required to grant such writ of assistance upon application made to them for that purpose by the collector of customs), it shall be lawful for any officer of the customs, taking with him a peace officer, to enter into and search any building or other place in the daytime ; and in case of resistance to break open doors, chests, trunks, or other packages, there to seize and from thence to bring any uncustomed or prohibited goods, and to put and secure the same in the Queen's warehouse ; and all writs of assistance so issued shall continue and be in force during the whole of the reign in which such writs shall have been granted, and for twelve months from the conclusion of such reign.

Duration of writs of assistance.

Persons concerned in importing prohibited or restricted goods, whether unshipped or not, and persons unshipping, harbouring, or having custody of such goods, to forfeit treble the value, or £100.

104 Every person who shall be concerned in importing or bringing into the island any prohibited goods, or any goods the importation of which is restricted, contrary to such prohibition or restriction, and whether the same be unshipped or not, and every person who shall unship or assist, or be otherwise concerned in the unshipping of any goods which are prohibited, or of any goods which are restricted and imported contrary to such restriction, or of any goods liable to duty the duties for which have not been paid or secured, or who shall knowingly harbour, keep, or conceal, or shall knowingly permit, or suffer, or cause, or procure to be harboured, kept, or concealed, any such goods, or any goods which have been illegally removed without payment of duty from any warehouse or place of security in which they may have been deposited, or into whose hands and possession any such goods shall knowingly come, or who shall assist or be concerned in the illegal removal of any goods from any warehouse or place of security in which they shall have been deposited as aforesaid, or who shall be in any way knowingly concerned in conveying, removing, depositing, concealing, or in any manner dealing with any goods liable to duties of customs, with intent to defraud the revenue of such duties or any part thereof, or who shall be in any way knowingly concerned in any fraudulent evasion or attempt at evasion of such duties or any part thereof, shall in each and every of the foregoing cases forfeit either treble the value of the goods or the penalty of one hundred pounds, at the election of the collector of customs.

Customs.

105 Every person who shall remove any goods imported into the island from any ship, quay, wharf, or other place previous to the examination thereof by the proper officer of customs, unless under the care or authority of such officer, or who shall remove or withdraw from any quay, wharf, or other place any goods entered to be warehoused after the landing thereof, so that no sufficient account is taken thereof by the proper officer, or so that the same are not duly warehoused, and every person who shall assist or be otherwise concerned in such removal or withdrawal, or shall knowingly harbour, keep, or conceal, or shall knowingly permit or suffer, or cause or procure to be harboured, kept, or concealed any such goods, or into whose possession any such goods shall knowingly come, every such person shall forfeit either treble the value thereof, or the penalty of one hundred pounds, at the election of the collector of customs.

If goods removed prior to examination, penalty upon parties concerned in the removal.

106 Every person who shall assist or be otherwise concerned in the unshipping, landing, or removal, or in the harbouring of such goods, or into whose hands or possession the same shall knowingly come, shall forfeit treble the value thereof, or the penalty of one hundred pounds, at the election of the collector of customs; and the averment in any information to be exhibited for the recovery of such penalty that the collector of customs has elected to sue for the sum mentioned in the information shall be deemed sufficient proof of such election, without any other or further evidence of such fact.

Persons assisting in unshipping or harbouring such goods liable to treble the value, or £100.

107 In all cases where any penalty, the amount of which is at any time to be determined by the value of any goods, is directed to be sued for under this Ordinance, such value shall be deemed and taken to be according to the rate and price which goods of the like sort or denomination, and of the best quality, bear at such time at the place of importation, and upon which the duties due upon importation have been paid.

How value to be ascertained.

108 All goods, and all ships and boats, and all carriages and all cattle, liable to forfeiture under this Ordinance, shall and may be seized in any place, either by land or water, by any officer of the customs or police, or by any headman, or by any person employed for that purpose, by or with the concurrence of the Governor; and every person who shall in any way hinder, oppose, molest, or obstruct any officer of the customs or police, or any headman, or any person so employed as aforesaid in the exercise of his office, or any person acting in his aid or assistance, or shall rescue, or cause to be rescued, any goods which have been seized, or shall attempt or endeavour to do so, or shall before or at or after any seizure stave, break, or otherwise destroy any goods to prevent the seizure thereof, or shall rescue the same, then and in any such case the party so offending shall be guilty of an offence, and shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Goods, vessels, &c., liable to forfeiture may be seized by officers, &c.

Persons resisting officers, or rescuing or destroying goods to prevent seizure, to forfeit £100.

Customs.

Goods stopped or taken by police officer.

109 If any goods liable to forfeiture under this Ordinance shall be stopped or taken by any police officer or headman, such goods shall be conveyed to the custom house nearest to the place where the goods were stopped or taken, and there delivered to the proper officer appointed to receive the same, within a reasonable time after the said goods were stopped and taken; and in case any police officer or headman stopping such goods shall neglect to have the same conveyed to such custom house within a reasonable time, such police officer or headman shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds.

Officers making collusive seizures, or taking bribes, and persons giving bribes, subjected to penalties.

110 If any officer of the customs, or any person employed for the protection of the revenue, shall make any collusive seizure, or deliver up, or make any agreement to deliver up, or not to seize any ship, boat, or goods liable to forfeiture under this Ordinance, or shall take any bribe, gratuity, recompense, or reward for the neglect or non-performance of his duty, every such officer or other person shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding £100, and be rendered incapable of serving this Government in any office whatever; and every person who shall give or offer, or promise to give or procure to be given any bribe, recompense, or reward to, or shall make any collusive agreement with, any such officer or person as aforesaid, to induce him in any way to neglect his duty, or to do, conceal, or connive at anything whereby the provisions of this Ordinance may be evaded, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Officers may search persons on board or on shore in certain cases.

111 It shall be lawful for any officer of customs to go on board any ship which shall be within the limits of any port in this colony, and search any person on board, and it shall be lawful for him to search any person who shall have landed from any ship, or any person passing or having passed through the custom house, provided such officer shall have good reason to suppose that such person shall have any uncustomed or prohibited goods secreted about his person; and if any person shall obstruct any such officer in the performance of any such duty, every such person shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Penalty for obstructing the officer.

Before such search the person may require to be taken before a justice of the peace or a superior officer of the customs.

112 Before any person shall be searched by any such officer as aforesaid it shall be lawful for such person to require such officer to take him before a justice of the peace, or before the collector or other superior officer of customs, who shall determine whether there is reasonable ground to suppose that such person has any uncustomed or prohibited goods about his person; and if it shall appear to such justice, collector, or other superior officer of customs that there is reasonable ground to suppose that such person has any uncustomed or prohibited goods about his person, then such justice, collector, or other superior officer of customs shall direct such person to be searched in such manner as he shall think fit; but if it shall appear to such justice, collector, or other superior officer of customs that there is not reasonable ground to suppose that such person has any uncustomed or prohibited goods about his person, then such justice, collector, or other superior officer of customs shall forthwith discharge such person, who shall not in such case be liable to be searched; and every such officer as aforesaid is hereby authorized and required to take such person, upon demand, before any such justice, collector, or other superior officer of customs, detaining him in the meantime: Provided that no person being a female shall be searched by any other person than a female duly authorized for that purpose by the collector of customs.

Customs.

Proviso.

113 If any such officer shall not take such person with reasonable despatch before such justice, collector, or other superior officer of customs when so required, or shall require any person to submit to be searched by him, not having reasonable ground to suppose that such person has any uncustomed or prohibited goods about his person, such officer shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding ten pounds.

Penalty on officers for misconduct with respect to search.

114 If any passenger or other person on board any ship or boat, or after landing therefrom, shall upon being questioned by any officer of the customs whether he has any foreign goods upon his person or in his possession, deny the same, and any such goods shall, after such denial, be discovered upon his person or in his possession, such goods shall be forfeited, and such person shall forfeit treble the value of such goods.

Penalty on persons on board falsely denying having foreign goods about them.

115 All penalties and forfeitures which shall be incurred under this Ordinance shall and may be sued for and recovered in the name of the Queen's Advocate in the respective courts of this island, in like manner as other revenue cases: Provided, however, that in case of any person committing an offence or act under this Ordinance, and which offence or act could not otherwise be cognizable by a police court by reason of the punishment to which the same is subject, it shall be competent for the police court, upon a certificate being presented to such court, signed by the Queen's Advocate or by some competent deputy Queen's advocate, that such officer is content that such offence or act shall be prosecuted before such court, to take cognizance of such offence or act, and to award in respect thereof so much of the punishment assigned thereto as police courts are empowered by law to award.

Recovery of penalties.

116 In any information or other proceeding for any offence against this Ordinance the averment that such offence was committed within the limits of any port shall be sufficient, without proof of such limits, unless the contrary be proved.

Averment of offence.

117 When any penalty is imposed upon any person committing or concerned in the act by which such penalty is incurred, and such offence shall have been committed by several persons jointly, or several persons shall have been concerned in the same, such several persons shall jointly and severally incur every such penalty; and it shall be lawful to proceed against such persons to recover such penalty, jointly by one information, or severally by separate informations, as the Queen's Advocate may deem expedient.

118 If any goods shall be seized for nonpayment of duties or any other cause of forfeiture, and any dispute shall arise whether the duties have been paid for the same, or whether the same have been lawfully imported, or lawfully laden or exported, the proof thereof shall lie on the owner or claimer of such goods, and not on the Queen's Advocate or the officer who shall seize or stop the same.

119 All forfeitures and penalties recovered under this Ordinance shall be paid into the hands of the collector of customs at the port or place where or nearest to which the same shall have been recovered, and shall be divided, paid, and applied (after deducting any expenses incurred) as follows, that is to say, one moiety to the Colonial Treasurer, for the purpose of the general revenue of the island, and the other moiety to the seizing officer, or informer, or both, in such manner as the collector may direct.

120 All ships, boats, goods, and other things which shall have been or shall hereafter be seized as forfeited under this Ordinance, shall be deemed and taken to be condemned, and may be dealt with in the manner directed by law in respect to ships, boats, goods, and other things seized and condemned for breach of such Ordinance, unless the person from whom such ships, boats, goods, and other things shall have been seized, or the owner of them, or some person authorized by him, shall, within one month from the date of seizure of the same, give notice in writing to the collector or other chief officer of customs at the nearest port that he intends to enter a claim to the ship, boat, goods, or other things seized as aforesaid, and shall further give security to prosecute such claim before the court having jurisdiction to entertain the same, and to restore the things seized or their value, and otherwise to satisfy the judgment of the court and to pay costs. On such notice and security being given in such sum as the collector or proper officer of customs at the port where or nearest to which the seizure was made shall consider sufficient, the ship, boat, goods, or other things seized shall, if required, be delivered up to the claimant; but if proceedings for the recovery of the ship, boat, goods, or other things so claimed be not instituted in the proper court within thirty days from the date of notice and security as aforesaid, the ship, boat, goods, or other things seized shall be deemed to be forfeited, and shall be dealt with accordingly by the collector or other proper officer of customs.

121 No claim to anything seized under this Ordinance shall be admitted by such court, unless such claim be entered in the name of the owner, with his residence and occupation, nor unless oath to the property in such thing be made by the owner, or by his attorney or agent, by whom such claim shall be entered, to the best of his knowledge and belief, nor unless the claimant shall at the time of filing his libel or plaint to establish his claim satisfy the court that he has given notice and security as in the preceding section enacted. •

Customs.

122 No summons shall be sued out against, nor a copy of any process served upon, any officer of the customs or other person as aforesaid, for anything done in the exercise of his office, until fifteen days after notice in writing shall have been delivered to him, or left at his usual place of abode, by the party who intends to sue out such summons or process, his attorney or agent, in which notice shall be clearly and explicitly stated the cause of the action, the name and place of the abode of the person who is to bring such action, and the name and place of abode of the attorney or agent; and no evidence of the cause of such action shall be produced except of such as shall be stated in such notice; and no judgment shall be given for the plaintiff unless he shall prove on the trial that such notice was given; and in default of such proof the defendant shall receive in such action a judgment and costs.

Fifteen days' notice to be given to officers.

123 Every such action as in the last section referred to shall be brought within two months after the cause thereof, and shall be laid and tried in the district where the facts were committed; and if the plaintiff shall become non-suited, or shall discontinue the action, or if judgment shall be given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall receive the costs of suit.

Actions to be brought within two months of the cause of them.

124 It shall be lawful for such officer or other person as aforesaid, within one month after such notice, to tender amends to the party complaining, or to his agent, and to plead such tender in bar to any action, together with other pleas; and if the court shall find the amends sufficient, it shall give judgment for the defendant; and in such case, or in case the plaintiff shall become non-suited, or shall discontinue his action, or judgment shall be given for the defendant, such defendant shall be entitled to costs as in the preceding section mentioned: Provided always that it shall be lawful for such defendant, by leave of the court where such action shall be brought at any time before issue joined, to pay money into court as in other actions.

Officer may tender amends.

125 In case any information shall be brought to trial on account of any seizure made under this Ordinance, and a judgment shall be given for the claimant thereof, and the court before which the cause shall have been tried shall certify on the record that there was probable cause of seizure, the claimant shall not be entitled to any costs of suit, nor shall the person who made such seizure be liable to any action or prosecution on account of such seizure; and if any action shall be brought to trial against any person on account of such seizure, wherein a judgment shall be given against the defendant, if the court before Judge may certify probable cause of seizure.

Customs.

which such information shall have been tried shall have certified on the said record that there was a probable cause for such seizure, the plaintiff shall only be entitled to a judgment for the things seized, or the value thereof, and not to any damages, nor to any costs of suit.

Limitation of suits.

126 All actions or prosecutions for the recovery of any of the penalties or forfeitures imposed by this Ordinance may be commenced or prosecuted at any time within three years after the offence committed by reason whereof such penalty or forfeiture shall be incurred, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons employed for the protection of the revenue to be deemed to be duly employed.

127 All persons employed for the protection of the revenue under the direction of the Governor or of the collector shall be deemed and taken to be duly employed for the protection of the revenue; and the averment in any information that such person was so duly employed shall be sufficient proof thereof, unless the defendant in such information shall prove to the contrary.

Vessels and goods seized and condemned may be disposed of as the collector, &c., shall direct.

128 All ships and boats, and all goods whatsoever, which shall have been seized and condemned for a breach of this Ordinance, shall be disposed of as soon as conveniently may be after the condemnation thereof, in such manner as the collector or other proper officer of customs shall direct: Provided that all horses, cattle, or goods of a perishable nature may be sold forthwith.

Collector in certain cases may mitigate forfeiture or penalty.

129 In all cases in which under this Ordinance any ships, boats, conveyances, goods, or other things have become liable to forfeiture, or shall have been forfeited, and in all cases in which the master or any person in charge of a ship, or employed in landing or shipping goods, or passing them through the custom house, shall have become liable to any penalty, it shall be lawful for the collector, should he deem such forfeiture or penalty unduly severe, to mitigate the same; but all cases so determined by the collector shall nevertheless be liable to revision by the Governor.

Restoration of seized goods, ships, &c.

130 In case any goods, ships, or boats shall be seized as forfeited, or detained as undervalued, by virtue of this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the Governor to order the same to be restored in such manner and on such terms and conditions as he shall think fit to direct; and if the proprietor of the same shall accept the terms and conditions prescribed by the Governor, he shall not have or maintain any action for recompense or damage on account of such seizure or detention; and the person making such seizure shall not proceed in any manner for the purpose of obtaining the condemnation thereof.

The Governor may restore seizures, and mitigate or remit punishments and penalties.

131 The Governor may, by any order made for that purpose, direct any ship, boat, goods, or other commodities whatever, seized under this Ordinance, to be delivered to the proprietor thereof, whether condemnation shall have taken place or not, and may also mitigate or remit any penalty or fine or any part of any penalty or fine incurred under this Ordinance, or may release from confinement any person committed under this Ordinance, on such terms and conditions as to him shall appear to be proper: Provided always that no person shall be entitled to the benefit of any order for such delivery, mitigation, remission, or release, unless such terms and conditions are fully and effectually complied with.

Customs.

132 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such day as shall be named by the Governor in a Proclamation to be by him for that purpose issued.*

No. 19 of 1869.

To make provision relating to the possession and use of Firearms.

(See No. 3 of 1890.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision respecting the possession and use of firearms in this island : It is therefore hereby enacted as follows :

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the passing thereof.

Ordinance when to take effect.

2 In the construction of this Ordinance the word "arms" shall be deemed and construed to include every description of firearms and air-guns, and every separate gun or pistol, barrel or stock, and no other weapon whatever.

Interpretation clause.

Firearms.

License to possess firearms.

3 It shall not be lawful for any person to have in his custody or possession any arms without having obtained a license for such arms; and any party who shall have in his custody or possession any arms without having obtained such license shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding two pounds, and all such arms shall be forfeited to the use of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, if the court before which such conviction shall take place shall so adjudge: Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to apply or extend to any licensed manufacturer of or dealer in arms, nor to any person while actually employed by any such manufacturer of or dealer in arms to carry or convey arms for the purposes of his trade, nor to any person while entrusted by a person, having any such license, with the temporary use or custody (whether as the servant of the owner, or by way of security for any debt or otherwise) of any arms for which a license has been obtained; and provided also that no member of the family of a deceased person who had at the time of his decease a license to keep arms shall be liable to any fine for having such arms until after the expiration of one calendar month from the death of such licensed person.

Penalty.

Proviso.

Licenses issued under former Ordinances to remain in force.

4 Every license duly obtained under and in virtue of the provisions of the Ordinance No. 13 of 1847, or the Ordinance No. 22 of 1848, shall be and continue in full force and effect so long as the arms for which the same was granted shall remain in the custody and possession of the person to whom such license was issued.

License how obtained.

5 Any person who may be desirous to obtain any license under the provisions of this Ordinance shall make an application verbally or in writing to that effect to the government agent or some assistant government agent of the province within which such person resides, specifying the name and residence of such person, and the number and description of arms for which licenses are required; and such government agent or assistant government agent shall issue to the person making the same a license for each gun, pistol, or other description of arms specified, as near as is material, according to the form in the schedule A hereto, which license shall be on a stamp of two shillings and sixpence: Provided always, however, that when any person shall apply for a license for any arms for which a license has been previously obtained by the former owner thereof, it shall be lawful for the government agent or assistant government agent, and he is hereby required, to issue such license on a stamp of one shilling only.

Firearms may be marked by the government agent, if necessary.

6 Whenever any such arms are not marked with such names or figures, or in such other manner as that the same may be readily identified, it shall be lawful for the government agent or assistant government agent to whom the application is made, before granting the license applied for, to require the applicant to produce to him any such arms, and Firearms.

thereupon to cause the same to be marked, either on the stock or barrel, with some permanent mark, whereby the same may afterwards be known and identified, but in such manner as not to injure or disfigure the same; and such arms when duly marked shall, with the license relating thereto, be delivered to the said applicant; and the expenses attendant on such marking shall be defrayed by the government agent or assistant government agent out of the public funds; and if any person shall wilfully obliterate or deface, or shall alter, counterfeit, or forge any such mark, or any mark put on any arms under the provisions of the Ordinance No. 13 of 1847 or the Ordinance No. 22 of 1848, or shall mark any arms with any mark resembling or intended to resemble any mark used by such government agent or assistant government agent, under the provisions of this Ordinance or of the Ordinances above specified, with intent thereby to expose any person to any fine, or to defraud Her Majesty of any stamp duty, or to commit any other fraud, every such offender shall forfeit for each offence a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty for fraudulently oblitterating or forging mark.

7 Every government agent and assistant government agent shall register all such licenses so granted in a book to be kept for that purpose; and it shall be lawful for any person, at any time during office hours, to demand inspection of the said book, and also to take any copy or extract therefrom.

Register of licenses.

8 If any such license granted under the provisions of this Ordinance, or of the Ordinances above specified, shall be by any casualty destroyed, defaced, or lost, it shall be lawful for the person to whom the same shall have been granted to report the same to the government agent or any assistant government agent for the province wherein such person resides; and if such government agent or assistant government agent shall be satisfied of the fact of such casualty or loss, he shall grant to such person a certificate in substantially the form B in the schedule hereto, reciting such loss, and setting out the purport and effect of the license so lost, defaced, or destroyed, and such certificate shall be in lieu thereof, and of like force and effect.

Proceedings where license is lost, &c.

9 The occupier of any house or premises in which any arms shall be found shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be deemed and taken to be the possessor of such arms.

Proof of ownership.

10 No person shall make or keep for or expose to sale in this island, by way of auction or otherwise, any arms or any part of any arms without a license from the government agent or some assistant government agent of the province within which such person resides, which license shall be substantially according to the form C in the schedule hereto, and shall be on a stamp of one pound; and if any person shall have in his custody or possession, for the purpose of his trade as a manufacturer of or dealer in arms, any arms, or part thereof, without being so licensed, every such offender shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds: Provided always that nothing

Limitation of prosecutions.

Ordinance not to extend to military and naval persons.

herein contained shall be construed to prevent any person licensed to possess arms under the Ordinances above specified or under this Ordinance, from selling any arms for which he has obtained a license : Provided also that every license to manufacture or sell arms duly obtained under and in virtue of the provisions of the Ordinances shall be and continue in full force and effect so long as the person to whom the same was granted shall continue to exercise his trade as a manufacturer of or dealer in arms.

11 If any headman or officer of police, or any peace officer whomsoever, shall fail to inform against any person guilty of possessing or using arms without a license, and whom he shall have good reason to know or to believe to be guilty thereof, such headman, officer of police, or peace officer shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds in respect of every failure to inform against any such person as aforesaid.

12 It shall be lawful for any magistrate to direct that any sum not exceeding one-half of the fines actually recovered and realized under the provisions of this Ordinance shall go to the informer.

13 Whenever any person shall be charged before a competent court with possessing or using arms without a license, the party complaining shall not be required to prove the want of license, but the proof that such person is licensed shall be upon the accused : Provided that it shall be lawful for the court to award a reasonable sum in lieu of costs to the accused against any person who may have made a vexatious complaint, and such sum shall be recovered in like manner as any fine imposed under the provisions of this Ordinance.

14 No prosecution shall be instituted against any person for any offence committed against any of the provisions of this Ordinance cognizable by a police court, unless the same shall be commenced within one month from the time of the commission of such offence.

15 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall apply to or affect any person serving in Her Majesty's forces, or in any police force, or in any corps of pioneers in this island, in respect of any arms intrusted to or used by any such person in such capacity.

No. 1 of 1870.

An Ordinance relating to the Fixed Civil Establishments of the Colony.

(See No. 8 of 1872.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to revise and consolidate the laws relating to the fixed civil establishments of the colony : It is enacted as follows :

Preamble.

1 The Ordinances No. 1 of 1858, entitled "An Ordinance for establishing permanently certain Public Expenditure," No. 11 of 1859, entitled "An Ordinance for amending the Fixed Establishment of the Northern Province," and No. 14 of 1864, entitled "An Ordinance for amending the Ordinances No. 1 of 1858 and No. 11 of 1859," shall be and they are hereby repealed.

Repeal of Ordinances 1 of 1858, 11 of 1859, and 14 of 1864.

2 The Governor is hereby authorized and empowered to issue, from year to year, his warrant for the payment of the several yearly salaries and allowances, as appropriated in the schedule A hereto annexed.

Governor may authorize payment of salaries as per schedule A.

3 The persons enumerated in the second column of schedule B to this Ordinance shall consist of all the officers of the several departments named in the first column, excepting such as are specified in schedule A.

Salaries of subordinate officers provided for in schedule B.

4 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, to determine the number of officers included in schedule B to be attached to each office, as also the payment to be awarded to each officer,

5th January, 1870.

No. 3 of 1870.An Ordinance to amend the Laws of Marriage in the Kandyan Provinces.(See No. 9 of 1870, No. 10 of 1892, and No. 11 of 1892.)*

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the laws of marriage in the Kandyan provinces of this island : It is therefore hereby enacted as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Amended Kandyan Marriage Ordinance, 1870."

Commencement.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such day as the Governor shall, by Proclamation, appoint.*

Repeal of former Ordinances.

3 The Ordinances set out in the schedule A hereto are hereby repealed, except so far as respects rights which shall have accrued, acts which shall have been done or shall have been declared valid, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place before this Ordinance shall come into force, and except so far as such repeal would be inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance.

Interpretation clause.

4 The following words and expressions in this Ordinance shall have the meaning hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction :

* Proclaimed the 1st day of January, 1871.

Kandyan Marriages.

The expression "Kandyan provinces" shall mean the provinces enumerated in the schedule B hereto annexed :

"Kandyan provinces."

The word "marriage" shall mean marriage contracted by and between residents in the Kandyan provinces, other than marriages under the Marriage Ordinances in force in the Maritime provinces of this island, or marriages between persons commonly known as Europeans or their descendants, or persons commonly known as Burghers, or marriages between any such persons and any Siphalese (whether of the Maritime or Kandyan provinces), or marriages between persons professing the Mohammedan faith.

"Marriage."

Department.

5 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation, to divide the Kandyan provinces into districts, for the purposes of the registration of marriages under this Ordinance, and from time to time to alter and amend such division : Provided that the division made under the Ordinance No. 13 of 1859 shall continue in force until the same shall be so altered.

Division of Kandyan provinces into districts.

6 For the purposes of this Ordinance, the Registrar-General, appointed under the Marriage Ordinances in force in the Maritime provinces, shall also be and act as Registrar-General, the government agent of any existing province which includes within its limits any portion of the old Kandyan provinces shall be and act as provincial registrar for such portion as aforesaid, and the assistant government agent of each district which includes within its limits any portion of such old Kandyan province shall be assistant provincial registrar for such portion as is last aforesaid. It shall further be lawful for the Governor from time to time to appoint one or more registrars for each district into which the Kandyan provinces may be divided under the preceding section, and such registrars so appointed at pleasure to remove : Provided that the provincial registrar shall also be deemed to be and shall exercise the powers of registrar in every such district as shall belong to his revenue province as government agent, and the assistant provincial registrar shall also be deemed to be and shall exercise the powers of registrar in every such district as shall belong to his revenue district as assistant government agent : Provided further, that the persons heretofore appointed registrars for districts under the Ordinance No. 13 of 1859 shall continue to act (at pleasure as aforesaid) as such under the present Ordinance.

Appointment of Registrar-General, provincial registrar, and district registrar.

7 Each registrar (other than the provincial and assistant provincial registrars) shall dwell within the district of which he is registrar, and shall cause his name and office to be placed in some conspicuous place, in the English and Siphalese languages, on or near the outer door of the house appointed by the government agent as the office of the registrar of that district.

Residence and office of district registrars.

Kandyan Marriages.Marriages before the Ordinance No. 13 of 1859.

Marriages contracted before the Ordinance
No. 13 of 1859
declared valid.

8 All marriages contracted in any district before the Ordinance No. 13 of 1859 came into operation in such district shall be deemed to have been valid, if they were contracted according to the laws, institutions, and customs in force amongst the Kandyans at the time of the contract.

Registration of such marriages.

9 It shall be lawful for the provincial registrar or the assistant provincial registrar, in his capacity as district registrar, and he is hereby required, on being applied thereto by the parties, to register any such marriage, if it be shown to his satisfaction that the same was contracted according to the laws, institutions, and customs in force amongst the Kandyans at the time of the contract, and that the man and woman, parties to such marriage, have respectively no other wife or husband living except the wife or husband with whom they desire to register their marriage.

Certain past registrations
made valid.

10 The registrations of such marriages heretofore made by registrars without the legal proof of marriage required by the 19th section of the Ordinance No. 13 of 1859 shall be deemed good and valid registrations, anything in the said section of the Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

Marriages since the Ordinance No. 13 of 1859.

Marriage not valid unless registered.

11 Except as is hereafter provided, no marriage contracted since the Ordinance No. 13 of 1859 came into operation, or to be hereafter contracted, shall be valid unless registered in manner and form as is hereinafter provided in the presence of any registrar for the district where such marriage is contracted, and at the appointed office of the registrar, or at such other place as the provincial or assistant provincial registrar shall, in any special case, direct and appoint.

What deemed full age.

12 No such marriage shall be valid to which the male party is under sixteen years of age, or the female under twelve years of age; but if the parties shall have continued to cohabit as husband and wife for one year after they shall have attained these ages respectively, or if a child shall have been born to them during the non-age of both or either of them, such marriage shall, in either case, cease to be impeachable and invalid on the ground of non-age.

Consent.

13 The father, if living, of any male under eighteen years of age not being a widower, and of any female under sixteen years of age not being a widow; or, if the father shall be dead, the mother; or if both father and mother shall be dead, the guardian or guardians of the party so under age, or one of them, shall have authority to give consent to and to forbid the registering of such marriage in respect of such party; and such consent is hereby required for the marriage of such party so under age. In case any party whose consent is hereby made necessary as aforesaid to the marriage of such party or parties shall be non compos mentis, or in parts beyond the island, or shall, without good reason, withhold his or her consent, then it shall and may be lawful for the person desiring to marry to apply to the provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar, who is hereby empowered, after summary inquiry, to give or withhold his consent, as to him shall appear right; then no consent shall be deemed to be required: Provided that after any marriage shall have been contracted it shall not be necessary in support of any such marriage to give any proof of the consent of any party whose consent thereunto is required by law; nor shall any evidence be given to prove the contrary in any suit touching the validity of such marriage.

14 No such marriage shall be valid where either party shall be directly descended from the other; or where the female shall be the sister of the male, either by the full or the half blood, or the daughter of his brother or of his sister by the full or the half blood, or a descendant from either of them, or the daughter of his wife by another father, or his son's, or grandson's, or father's, or grandfather's widow; or where the male is the son of the brother or sister of the female by the full or half blood, or a descendant from either of them, or the son of her husband by another mother, or her deceased daughter's, granddaughter's, mother's, or grandmother's husband; and any marriage or cohabitation between parties standing towards each other in any of the above-enumerated degrees of relationship shall be deemed to be an act of incest, and shall be punishable with imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding one year.

Consanguinity

Incest.

15 In every case of intended marriage each of the parties shall give notice of such intention to some registrar of the district in which he or she shall have dwelt for not less than twenty-one days then next preceding, and every such notice shall set forth fully and truly all the names of each such party, and the names (where they shall be different) by which they are commonly known, and their respective places of abode, and whether the marriage is to be contracted in Bina or Diga, and shall be substantially according to the form in the schedule C hereto; and every registrar is hereby required to give gratis a form of such notice to each party applying for the same; and every party giving such notice shall subscribe his or her signature or mark to the same, in the presence of two or more witnesses who shall be known to him or her: Provided that in all cases of marriage intended to be registered, where both of the parties shall be resident in the same district, one notice subscribed by both the parties shall be sufficient.

Notice of marriage.

16 The registrar shall, on receiving such notice as aforesaid, forthwith file such notice, and keep it with the records of the office, and shall at the same time enter a fair copy of it in a book to be called "The Marriage Notice Book."

Registrar to file notice.

17 The registrar shall cause publication of every such entry of notice to be made within seven days after such entry, by affixing a copy thereof at some conspicuous place in his office, and by continuing the same so affixed for at least fourteen days ; and every person wilfully removing, altering, defacing, or destroying any such copy so affixed, within such period, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Proceeding where the marriage is forbidden.

18 If the registration of any marriage shall be forbidden, the registrar shall forthwith make report thereof to the provincial or assistant provincial registrar, and shall suspend such registration until it shall have been decided whether such marriage ought to take place or not ; on the receipt of such report it shall be the duty of such provincial or assistant provincial registrar to issue notices to the person who forbade the intended marriage, and to the parties intending to marry, to appear, with their witnesses, on a day to be named in such notice, and which shall not be more than seven days from the day of the receipt of the report. On the day named, or any other day to which the said provincial or assistant provincial registrar shall, for good cause shown, adjourn the inquiry, he shall, after hearing the parties, and, if need be, their witnesses, decide whether such marriage shall take place or not. If he shall decide that the marriage shall not take place, then the notice of marriage and all proceedings thereupon shall be null and void ; and if he shall decide that there exist no grounds for stopping such marriage, then the notice of marriage and all other proceedings relating thereto shall be held to be valid and sufficient, and the district registrar shall forthwith, or as soon as twenty-one days shall have elapsed since the entry of notice of marriage as aforesaid, register such marriage.

Marriage where and when registered.

19 No registrar shall register any marriage except at the office of the registrar, or such other place as may be appointed in pursuance of the provision in section 11, nor except between the hours of eight in the morning and six in the afternoon.

Particulars to be asked of the parties.

20 The registrar by whom any marriage is to be registered under this Ordinance shall ask of the parties to be married the several particulars required to be registered touching such marriage, that is to say, their names, age, rank or calling, residences at time of the marriage, the nature of the marriage (whether contracted in Díga or in Bína). Nothing appearing to hinder the registration of the marriage, the registrar shall, in the presence of the witnesses, say to the man in the language of the parties, and causing him to take the woman by the hand :

“Do you take this woman to be your wedded wife ?”

On the man answering in the affirmative, the registrar shall say to the woman in the language of the parties, and causing her to take the man by the hand :

“Do you take this man to be your wedded husband ?”

As to the form of and particulars to be entered into

And on the woman also answering in the affirmative, the registrar shall forthwith proceed to register, in duplicate, in two of the marriage register books, the several particulars relating to such marriage, substantially according to the form D in the schedule hereto, and shall sign every such entry himself, and shall cause the parties married and two witnesses to sign, or, if they cannot sign, to affix their mark thereto. Every such entry shall be made in the same order from the beginning to the end of each book, and the number of the place in each duplicate marriage register book shall be the same, and a copy of such entry shall be furnished to each of the parties to such marriage, at the time of the said marriage, with the certificate in schedule E hereto.

the books of registry.

21 In all cases where the registrar ascertains, or has good reason to believe, that any marriage proposed to be registered will be void, it shall be lawful for him to refuse to register such marriage, but he shall in that case forthwith refer the matter to the provincial or assistant provincial registrar, to whom it shall be competent, after due inquiry made, and if he see fit, to register such marriage, or to cause the same to be registered by the registrar for the district.

Power to refuse to register marriage.

22 Any person contracting such marriage which, without fault of the parties to the marriage, may have been omitted to be registered, or may have been erroneously registered, may at any time before any suit in respect of such marriage, or property affected thereby, or after suit, demand to have such marriage correctly registered; and the registrar of whom such registration is demanded shall refer such question also to the provincial or assistant provincial registrar, to whom it shall be competent, after due inquiry, to register such marriage or to cause the same to be registered by the registrar for the district.

Registration of future marriages omitted to be registered.

Dissolution of Marriages.

23 The following shall be the grounds for granting a dissolution of marriage :

Dissolution of marriage.

- (1) Adultery by the wife after marriage :
- (2) Adultery by the husband, coupled with incest or gross cruelty :
- (3) Complete and continued desertion for two years :
- (4) Inability to live happily together, of which actual separation from bed and board for a year shall be the test :
- (5) Mutual consent.

Either party who has a right to apply for such dissolution on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th grounds, or both parties who may desire to apply on the 5th ground, may make such application to the provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar, and if such provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar shall, upon inquiry, be satisfied of the existence of good cause for the dissolution of marriage, he shall order such dissolution, and make an entry thereof in substantially the form F to the schedule hereto annexed in a book to be called "The Register of Dissolutions," to be by him kept for that purpose in the registry of the said district; and the marriage of the parties shall from that time be held to be dissolved, without prejudice, however, to the children of such marriage born subsequent to its dissolution. If the parties to such dissolution shall have agreed upon any compensation to be made to either or both, owing to such dissolution, it shall be the duty of the provincial or assistant provincial registrar to enter the same in the register of dissolutions; and the entry so made shall have all the effect of the order or decree of a competent court and may be enforced as such.

Kandyan Marriages.

Case of parties to existing marriages who, from ignorance, have registered marriages with others without obtaining a decree from the district court.

24 And whereas it is made manifest that parties to unions which were declared valid by section 28 of the Ordinance No. 13 of 1859 have, from ignorance of the provisions of the said Ordinance, separated from each other since that Ordinance came into operation, and have caused marriages to be registered between them and others, without having previously obtained a decree of divorce from the district court, as required by that Ordinance, and it is expedient to save them and the issue of the subsequent connection from the consequences of such their acts, so far as the same can be legitimately done: It is enacted that in all cases in which either party to an existing marriage under the said section 28 of the said Ordinance, and not dissolved by the decree of a district court as required by section 30 thereof, has registered another marriage either as "existing" or "future," mutual consent to the dissolution of the existing marriage shall be presumed, and such registration shall be held to operate also as a dissolution of their previous existing marriage; and the registered marriage shall be deemed to be and to have been valid, and the issue thereof legitimate, whether procreated before or after registration.

Marriages void owing to non-registration or invalid registration, are made valid.

Proviso.

25 In all cases where a marriage has been contracted since the Ordinance No. 13 of 1859 came into force, according to the laws, institutions, and customs in force in Kandy before that date, and which is void in consequence either of the want of registration or of invalid registration, such marriage shall be deemed and taken to have been a good and valid marriage, and to operate as a dissolution of any former marriage: Provided that no person who shall have heretofore lawfully come into possession of any property, movable or immovable, by reason of the non-registration or of the invalid registration of any marriage, shall be dispossessed thereof, and that the rights of such person, and of all others claiming under him, shall not be in any way affected by reason of such marriage being by this Ordinance made good and valid.

General Provisions.

Polygamy, &c., illegal.

26 Any marriage which shall be contracted during the life of a former husband or wife shall for all purposes be illegal and void, except where the party to such second marriage shall have been divorced from the bond of the first marriage, or where the first marriage shall have been declared void by the decree of some competent court.

Penalty on polygamy, &c.

27 Any person resident in the Kandyan provinces, being married, who shall marry any other person during the life of the former husband or wife, whether the second marriage shall have taken place in such Kandyan provinces or elsewhere, and every person counselling, aiding, and abetting such offender shall be guilty of an offence, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding three years; and any such offence may be dealt with, inquired of, tried, determined, and punished in the district where the offender shall be apprehended or be in custody, as if the offence had been actually committed in that district: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall extend to any second marriage contracted out of Ceylon by any other than a subject of Her Majesty, or to any person marrying a second time whose husband or wife shall have been continually absent from such person for the space of seven years then last past, and shall not have been known by such person to be living within that time, or shall extend to any person who at the time of such second marriage shall have been divorced from the bond of the first marriage, or to any person whose former marriage shall have been declared void by the sentence of any court of competent jurisdiction.

Where polygamy may be punished.

28 The provincial registrar is empowered to suspend any registrar for any breach or neglect of duty or other act that he may deem deserving of suspension; and on suspending any registrar he shall immediately report the suspension and the reasons thereof to the Governor; and the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall have power to remove such suspension, or to continue the same for a period, or to dismiss him.

Suspension and dismissal of
registrar

29 Any registrar carelessly losing or injuring any register book, or carelessly allowing a register book to be injured while in his keeping, or registering any marriage before all or any of the formalities or matters required by this Ordinance have been duly complied with, or contrary to any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or neglecting to perform any duty hereby imposed upon him, and for which no punishment is otherwise specially provided, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds. Any registrar wilfully destroying or injuring any register book, or wilfully permitting or causing any such book to be destroyed or injured, or falsely making or counterfeiting, or permitting or causing to be falsely made or counterfeited, any part of a register book, or wilfully inserting or permitting or causing to be inserted, in any register book, or certified copy thereof, any false entry, or wilfully giving a false certified copy of a register book, or permitting or causing any such false certified copy to be given, or certifying any writing to be a copy or extract of a register book, or permitting or causing such false certified copy to be given, or certifying any writing to be a copy or extract of a register book, knowing the said portion so copied or extracted to be false in any part thereof, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding seven years: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to absolve the registrar from any civil responsibility in damages to any person who may be aggrieved

Penalties for

in consequence of any negligence, irregularity of proceeding, abuse of authority, or other act of commission or omission on his part.

Children legitimized by subsequent marriage of parents.

30 Every marriage registered under the provisions of this Ordinance shall render legitimate any children who may have been procreated by the parties thereto previous to their intermarriage, and such children shall become and be entitled to the same and the like rights as if they had been procreated by the said parties subsequent to their intermarriage.

No. 6 of 1847, &c., of no force in Kandyan provinces.

31 Nothing in the Ordinance No. 6 of 1847, intituled "An Ordinance to amend in certain respects the law of Marriages, and to provide for the better registration of Marriages, Births, and Deaths," or in any other Ordinance relating to marriages in the Maritime provinces, shall be deemed to extend or to have at any time extended to marriages contracted in the Kandyan provinces by residents thereof according to the laws, manners, and customs existing and in force amongst the Kandyans.

Provincial and sub-provincial registrars empowered to enforce attendance and evidence of persons to be examined.

32 Whenever it shall be necessary for provincial and assistant provincial registrars to make any inquiry under the provisions of this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for them, and they are hereby empowered, to enforce the attendance of any persons whom they may desire to examine by summons and warrant, and to examine them on oath; and any person failing or refusing to attend, or having attended refusing to be sworn, or to give information, or giving false information, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding one year, or to both; and it shall be lawful for the provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar to order the payment of any fine to be made in the police court of the district in which such person resides; and if such payment shall not be made as directed, the said police court shall proceed to enforce the same, and the charges relating to the recovery thereof, and to deal with the person liable to make the same in such manner as if the said fine had been imposed by such court.

Register Books, Extracts, Returns, &c.

Register books.

33 The provincial registrar shall cause to be printed a sufficient number of books for making entries of notices and marriages and dissolutions, according to the forms in the schedule hereto; and such register books shall be of durable materials, and in them shall be printed on each side of every leaf the heads of information herein required to be known and registered; every page of each book shall be numbered progressively from beginning to end, beginning with number one; and every place of entry shall be also numbered from the beginning to the end, beginning with number one, and every entry shall be divided from the following entry by a printed line. Each registrar shall be furnished with books of registry in duplicate, and a sufficient number of forms of certified copies thereof, according to the forms in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed.

Kandyan Marriages.

34 Each registrar shall in the months of January, April, July, and October respectively, make and deliver to the provincial or assistant provincial registrar a true copy, certified by him under his hand, as in schedule G hereto annexed, of all the entries of marriages in the registry book kept by him since the last certified copy. If there shall be no marriage entered in a register book before the first day of the above-mentioned months, after this Ordinance shall have been brought into operation in any particular districts, or in subsequent periods since the last certified copy, the registrar shall at the time aforesaid certify the same under his hand to the provincial or assistant provincial registrar.

Duplicates, extracts, and returns to be made by registrars to the provincial registrar.

35 It shall be lawful for the provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar to inspect the registry books from time to time, and to cause any mere clerical errors therein, or in any copy furnished to him, to be amended.

Provincial registrar may inspect books and amend errors.

36 The registrar shall keep the marriage book safely, in duplicate, and when the register books are filled the registrar shall deliver one of the books to the provincial registrar or assistant provincial registrar, and the other he shall keep safely in the place appointed as his office.

Books how disposed of.

37 It shall be lawful for the Governor from time to time, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make regulations for the direction of the registrars in the discharge of their duties, and for the maintenance of such officers or establishments as may be necessary thereto, and from time to time to amend the forms given in the schedules to this Ordinance annexed.

The Governor to make regulations.

38 Every person claiming interest in any marriage shall be entitled at all reasonable hours to inspect the books of the registrar on payment of threepence, and to obtain a certified copy of any entry therein on payment of sixpence.

Inspection and copies of registry books, &c.

39 The entry as aforesaid in the register of marriages and in the register of divorces shall be the best evidence of the marriage contracted or dissolved by the parties, and of the other facts stated therein. If it does not appear in the register whether the marriage was contracted in Bina or in Diga, such marriage shall be presumed to have been contracted in Diga until the contrary be shown.

Entries in registry to be the best evidence.

Presumption if registry silent as to nature of marriage.

Service Tenures. ●No. 4 of 1870.*An Ordinance to define the Services due by the Praveni Tenants of Wiharagama, Dewalagama, and Nindagama Lands, and to provide for the Commutation of those Services.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by an Order of his late Majesty King William the Fourth in Council, bearing date the Twelfth day of April, 1832, the liability of the native and Indian inhabitants of this island to render various services to the Government in respect of the tenure of their lands, or in respect of their caste or otherwise, was abolished, but it was thereby provided that nothing therein contained should be construed to affect the services which the tenants of any lands in any royal villages in the Kandyan provinces were bound to render so long as they continued tenants of such lands upon such tenures, or the services which the tenants of any lands in any temple villages in the said Kandyan provinces were bound to render to any temple so long as they continued tenants of such lands, or the services which the tenants of lands in any other villages in the said Kandyan provinces were bound to render to the proprietors of such villages so long as they continued tenants of such lands : And whereas the enforcement of services for lands in the royal villages has been long since abandoned by the Government, and there is much in the nature of the services which are still retained which is repugnant to the constitution of the colony, and which tends to check its advancement and improvement, and it is desirable to take steps to encourage their commutation : It is hereby enacted as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as “The Service Tenures Ordinance, 1870.”

Commencement.

2 That this Ordinance shall come into operation on such day as the Governor shall by Proclamation appoint.*

Interpretation clause.

3 The following words and expressions in this Ordinance shall have the meaning hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction :

The word “temple” shall include wihára and déwála :

The expression “pravéni pangu” shall mean an allotment or share of land in a temple or nindagama village held in perpetuity by one or more holders, subject to the performance of certain services to the temple or nindagama proprietor :

The expression “máruwena pangu” shall mean an allotment or share of land in a temple or nindagama village held by one or more tenants at will :

* Proclaimed the 1st day of February, 1870.

Service Tenures.

The expression "wiháragama proprietor" or "dévála-gama proprietor" shall include the officer of any wihára or déwála respectively entitled to demand services from any pravéni nilakárayá or máruwena nilakárayá, for and in respect of a pravéni pangu or máruwena pangu held by him :

The expression "nindagama proprietor" shall mean any proprietor of nindagama entitled to demand services from any pravéni nilakárayá or máruwena nilakárayá, for and in respect of a pravéni pangu or máruwena pangu held by him :

The expression "pravéni nilakárayá" shall mean the holder of a pravéni pangu in perpetuity, subject to the performance of certain services to the temple or nindagama proprietor :

The expression "máruwena nilakárayá" shall mean the tenant at will of a máruwena pangu :

The expression "government agent" shall include the assistant government agents of the revenue districts into which the province may be divided, and to which said revenue districts the village or villages thereof in which services are to be defined under this Ordinance may belong.

I.—Department and Officers.

4 It shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint one or more persons, not exceeding three in number, to be the commissioner or commissioners for each district specified in such appointment, for carrying into effect the provisions of this Ordinance, and for executing the several powers hereby conferred upon him or them, and to appoint such clerks or other ministerial officers as to him may appear necessary, and to direct to be paid out of the colonial treasury to such commissioners, clerks, and other officers, or any of them, such reasonable remuneration as to the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall seem fit. The powers and duties hereby conferred and imposed upon the commissioners may be exercised and performed by any one of them.

Governor to appoint commissioners to carry this Ordinance into effect.

Clerks and other ministerial officers.

Any one commissioner competent to act.

5 Every such commissioner shall, before proceeding to execute any of the powers and duties hereby conferred and imposed upon him, take and subscribe the oath of allegiance and the official oath.

Oath.

6 No such commissioner, clerk, or other officer shall be capable, whilst such commission is being held, of being a purchaser, either in his own name or in the name or names of any other person, of any lands belonging to any temple or nindagama proprietor or pravéni pangukárayá.

Commissioner not to be purchaser of land.

7 The proceedings of the commissioners in the investigation of any claims and in the settlement of any disputes in virtue of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be carried on, and the decisions and orders of such commissioners shall be reduced to writing and shall be pronounced and declared with open doors.

II.—Investigation and Settlement of Claims.

Commissioners to call upon headmen and temple and nindagama proprietors for lists of pangus held by them.

8 So soon as reasonably may be after this Ordinance shall come into operation, the commissioners appointed by virtue hereof for any district shall cause notice to be published in any village in such district specified in the notice, calling upon the headmen of such village or district, and upon the wiháragama, déwálagama, and nindagama proprietors of all pravéni or máruwena pangus in such village, to produce or forward to them at such times and places as they shall appoint a list of all the pravéni or máruwena pangus held by such proprietors, with an enumeration of the services in detail of the pravéni pangus, setting forth the names (so far as the same can be ascertained) of the proprietors and holders, and the nature and extent of the services due for each pravéni pangu: Provided that it shall be lawful for any proprietor, instead of producing or transmitting such lists, to state verbally to such commissioners the particulars of his claim; and it shall be the duty of such commissioners thereupon to take down in writing such particulars, and to require such person to sign the same, or, in case of inability, the same shall be signed by the commissioner by whom such claim has been reduced to writing.

Notice by commissioners that they will inquire into claims, and calling upon all parties interested to appear.

9 It shall be the duty of the commissioners, within a reasonable time after the expiration of the time fixed in such notice for the receipt of the lists from the wiháragama, déwálagama, and nindagama proprietors, to cause further notice to be published in such village of their intention to inquire, on a day to be named in such notice, into the nature of the tenure of each pangu therein subject to service, whether it be pravéni or máruwena, and into all claims for services in respect of the pravéni pangus in such village, and calling upon all proprietors and nilakárayás and persons claiming interest in the pangus in such village, for or in respect of which services may be due, whether as pravéni nilakárayás or by máruwena nilakárayás, to appear before them at the place and on the day and days named in such notice, with a view to such inquiry. It shall further be the duty of the commissioners to cause personal notice to be served on all proprietors and nilakárayás of such intention, and if personal notice cannot be served owing to the absence of any of them from such village or district, then to cause notice to be left at the known place of abode, and, if practicable, with some adult member of his family. The commissioners shall also serve on the holders of each pangu, with such notice, a copy of particulars touching such pangu furnished by the proprietors and headmen.

Personal notice.

Copy of particulars.

Commissioners to inquire into claims.

10 On the day appointed in such notice the commissioners shall enter into their inquiries, and shall then, or on such other early day as they shall then and there from time to time publicly appoint, shear, try, and determine as follows:

Service Tenures.

- (1) The tenure of each pangu subject to service in the village, whether it be pravéni or máruwena :
- (2) The names, so far as the same can be ascertained, of the proprietors and holders of each pravéni pangu :
- (3) The nature and extent of the services due for each pravéni pangu :
- (4) The annual amount of money payment for which such services may be fairly commuted at the time the registries are made.

And their determination shall be final and conclusive in that or any future proceeding, whether before the said commissioners or any other judicial tribunal, as to the tenure of the pangus in such village, whether it be pravéni or máruwena, the nature of the service due for and in respect of each pravéni pangu, and the annual amount of money payment for which the services due for each pravéni pangu may be fairly commuted at the time those registries are made.

Their determination shall be final.

11 So soon as the commissioners shall complete their inquiry into the claims in any village, they shall cause to be numbered and entered in a book of registry a list of pravéni pangus in such village, and shall further cause to be entered the names, so far as the same can be ascertained, of the proprietors and tenants of each pangu, the nature and extent of the services due for such pangu, and the annual amount of money payment for which such services may be fairly commuted at the time the registry is made, and shall duly sign such registry and transmit the same to the kachchéri of the district. It shall be the duty of the government agent to cause all these registries to be safely kept and preserved in such kachchéri, and to grant inspection and certified copies thereof on the application (written on a stamp of two shillings) of parties interested in such inquiry ; and registries and certified copies, signed by the government agent, shall form thereafter the best evidence of the tenure of each pangu, of the nature and extent of the services due for such pangu, and the annual amount of money payment for which such services may be fairly commuted at the time the registry is made.

Registries of claims.

Inspection and certified copies.

12 It shall not be necessary for the validity of any proceeding for the investigation and settlement of claims under this Ordinance that all the holders and all the proprietors shall have joined or should be named therein. The finding of the commissioners shall be binding and conclusive as respects only the services due for and in respect of the pangu and the money value of such services, but shall not affect the liability of holders to perform service as between themselves, or the right of proprietors as between themselves to exact such services or their value, in case the services shall have been declared commuted.

Joinder of all the proprietors and holders not necessary.

Service Tenures.

Commissioners may limit time and area within which service is to be rendered.

13 It shall be lawful for the commissioners in defining the services to limit the time and area within which personal services may be exacted, and an entry of such limitation when made shall in all cases be entered in the registry.

III.—Commutation.

Application to commute to be made to commissioners pending commission, or to the agent at close of commission.

14 If any pravéni nilakárayá shall be desirous of commuting any service as aforesaid for a money payment, he shall, during the pendency of the commission (and the commission shall be held to be pending until the Governor shall declare it to be at an end by notice in the Government Gazette), transmit to the commissioners, and, after the close of the commission, to the government agent of the district in which the pravéni pangu is situated, an application in writing to that effect, which application shall set forth the name of the party making it, the name and number of the pangu in respect of which such service may be due, and the name of the village in which the same is situated. If there be more than one pravéni nilakárayá in any pravéni pangu, the application to commute must be made or acquiesced in by a majority of the entire number of nilakárayás who shall have attained the age of sixteen years. The commissioners or the government agent to whom such application shall be made shall issue a notice to the proprietor of the pangu, informing him that, on a day to be named in such notice, the application will be considered and determined upon. A copy of the application must be served with the notice.

The commissioners or agent to ascertain summarily whether all nilakárayás have joined, and the value of the services.

15 On the returnable day of the said notice the commissioners or government agent to whom such application shall be made shall proceed summarily to ascertain whether the nilakárayás of the pangu who shall have attained the age of sixteen years have all joined or acquiesced in the application and (if three years shall have expired since the date of the registry of the pangu) whether the services may still be fairly commuted at the amount fixed in the registry, or whether they have risen or fallen in value, and to what extent. Having satisfied themselves or himself on this point, they shall proceed to order that the services for and in respect of the land shall stand commuted (if three years shall not have expired since the date of the registry) for the annual money payment appearing in such registry, or (if three years shall have expired since such date) for the same or such other sum as the said commissioners or government agent may consider just or reasonable. The order so made under this section shall be final and conclusive and binding upon all the proprietors and nilakárayás (even though they may not be parties to the application, in that or any future proceeding, whether before the said commissioners, government agent, or any judicial tribunal), as to the liability of the nilakárayás to pay commuted dues and not to render services for such pangu; and all right to service from the nilakárayás of such pangu shall thereupon for ever cease and be at an end, and the said nilakárayás shall be thenceforth liable to pay to the proprietors, in equal half-yearly instalments, the dates whereof shall be fixed by the commissioners or court, the annual amount of money payment due for and in respect of the said services; and such commuted dues shall thenceforth be deemed to be a head rent due to the proprietor for and in respect of the pangu, and shall be recoverable in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

16 The commissioners (if the commission shall be still pending), or (if the commutation shall be ordered by the government agent) the government agent, shall make an entry of the commutation, and of the terms thereof, in the registers of the commission; and the government agent shall allow inspection of such entries and certified copies thereof, on the application (written on a stamped paper of two shillings) of parties interested therein, and such entries or certified copies thereof shall form thereafter the best evidence of the liability of the nilakárayás of the said pangu to pay commuted dues and not to render services for such pangu.

17 No commutation of any nindagama pangu, liable to pay tithe to Government, shall have the effect of relieving the pangu from its liability for such tithe as a primary charge thereon: Provided always that no pravéni nilakárayá shall be liable to pay both tithe to the Government and the whole of the commuted dues to the proprietor; and provided also that in cases in which the service and the tithe have both been commuted, it shall be competent to the nindagama proprietor, should he desire to do so, to transfer to the holder the payment of the tithe to Government, retaining only the difference, if any, between the commuted tithe and the commuted services.

V.—General Provisions.

18 In the execution of the powers vested in such commissioners or the government agent by virtue of this Ordinance, they shall be guided by equity and good conscience only, and by the best evidence that can or may be procured, although not such as would be required or be admissible in ordinary cases; nor shall they be bound by the strict rules of law in any case, or by any technicalities or legal forms whatever; and it shall be lawful for the said commissioners or government agent, if they think proper, to examine on oath the parties, or any of them, making or opposing any claim investigated or inquired into by such commissioners, touching any of the matters in dispute.

19 It shall be lawful to and for the said commissioners and government agent from time to time, as they shall see occasion by any writing under their hands, to summon and require any person to appear before them at any time and place in such writing to be appointed, to testify the truth touching any claim or any matter in dispute between any proprietors and tenants, or otherwise relating to the execution of the powers given by this Ordinance, and to produce in Commuted dues to be thenceforth deemed head rent.

Entry of commutation in registries.

Inspection, entries, and certified copies of registries.

Provision for the payment of tithe to Government, where such tithe is due for any pangu commuted.

Commissioners and government agent to be guided by equity, and not bound by the strict rules of law;

and may examine the parties on oath.

Commissioners, &c., to have powers to summon witnesses.

Service Tenures.

evidence all deeds, instruments, surveys, or writings in the possession or control of any such person, in so far as the same shall be necessary for the due investigation of any such claim or dispute, or for enabling the said commissioners and government agent duly to execute the powers given by this Ordinance; and to cause a copy of such writing to be served on such person required to give evidence, or to produce such deeds, instruments, surveys, or writings, or to be left at his usual and last place of abode; and every person so summoned who shall not appear before such commissioners or government agent pursuant to such summons (without assigning some reasonable excuse for not appearing), or appearing shall without sufficient cause refuse to be sworn or examined on oath (which such commissioners or government agent are hereby empowered and required to administer), or shall without sufficient cause refuse or wilfully neglect to produce any such deeds, instruments, surveys, or writings, shall for every such neglect or refusal forfeit and pay such sum of money not exceeding five pounds sterling as such commissioners or government agent shall think fit and order; and it shall be lawful for the commissioners or government agent in such order to direct payment of any such fine to be made into the police court of the district in which such person resides; and if payment should not be made as directed, the said police court shall proceed to enforce the same and the charges relating to the recovery thereof, and to deal with the person liable to make the same in such manner as if the said fine had been imposed by such court.

Penalty for not obeying the summons.

Evidence to be reduced to writing, and signed.

Persons swearing falsely to be deemed guilty of perjury.

20 All evidence given before such commissioners or government agent shall be taken down in writing in presence of the witnesses respectively giving the same, and shall at the time of their examination be signed by them, or in case of their refusal or inability to sign by the commissioner or government agent by whom the same has been reduced to writing; and if any person shall in any examination, affidavit, or deposition to be had or taken in pursuance of this Ordinance before any such commissioners or government agent, knowingly and wilfully swear to any matter or thing which shall be false, every such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall on conviction suffer the like pains and penalties as persons guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury are now subject and liable to.

Notices how published.

21 All notices required to be given under this Ordinance shall be published in the village referred to in them by beat of tom-tom, once or oftener, by the affixing of copies on some conspicuous places in the village and on the walls of the nearest kachchéri and court house, by being proclaimed once or oftener in the presence of the suitors and others in the court, and by such other means as may secure the greatest publicity thereto. If the notice is directed to any proprietor or nilakárayá, it shall be served personally, or if personal service cannot be secured by affixing the same to his last known place of abode.

Service Tenures.

22 It shall be lawful to the commissioners to adjourn their sittings and inquiries once or oftener, if necessary.

Adjournments.

23 Any person aggrieved with the determination of the commissioners under section 10, or of the commissioners or agent under section 15, shall be entitled to apply to the Governor for relief at any time within one month after such determination shall be made known to him. It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, upon such application, to confirm the determination of the commissioners or agent, or to alter or modify the same, as to them shall appear right, and to cause his decision to be entered in the register, and such decision, so entered, shall be deemed the determination as respects the pangu to which it relates.

Aggrieved persons may apply to the Executive Government for relief.

24 Arrears of personal services in cases where the pravéni nilakárayá shall not have commuted shall not be recoverable for any period beyond a year; arrears of commuted dues, where the pravéni nilakárayá shall have commuted, shall not be recoverable for any period beyond two years. If no services shall have been rendered, and no commuted dues be paid for ten years, and no action shall have been brought therefor, the right to claim services or commuted dues shall be deemed to have been lost for ever, and the pangu shall be deemed free thereafter from any liability on the part of the nilakárayás to render services or pay commuted dues therefor: Provided, however, that if at the time of such right of action accruing the proprietor shall not be resident within this island, or if by reason of his minority or insanity he shall be disabled from instituting such action, the period of prescription of such action shall begin to run, in every such case, from the time when such absence or disability shall have ceased.

Arrears of personal services prescribed in a year.

Arrears of commuted dues in two years.

If no services rendered or commutation paid for ten years, right to claim services or dues lost for ever.

Proviso in case of absence or disability.

25 It shall be lawful for any proprietor to recover damages in any competent court against the holder or holders of any pravéni pangu who shall not have commuted, and who shall have failed to render the services defined in the registry hereinbefore referred to. In assessing such damages it shall be competent for the court to award not only the sum for which the services shall have been assessed by the commissioners for the purpose of perpetual commutation, but such further sum as it shall consider fair and reasonable to cover the actual damages sustained by the proprietor through the default of the nilakárayá or nilakárayás to render such personal services at the time when they were due; but it shall not be lawful for any proprietor to proceed to ejection against his pravéni nilakárayá for default of performing services or paying commuted dues; the value of those services or dues shall be recoverable against such nilakárayá by seizure and sale of the crop or fruits on the pangu, or, failing these, by the personal property of such nilakárayá, or, failing both, by a sale of the pangu subject to the personal services, or commuted dues in lieu thereof, due thereon to the proprietor. No. 1 of 1871.

An Ordinance to amend the Customs Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, and to provide for the issue of Warehouse Warrants.

(See No. 17 of 1869.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, entitled "An Ordinance for the General Regulation of Customs in the Island of Ceylon," and to provide for the issue of warehouse warrants: It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Collector may issue warrants.

1 The collector of customs may, upon an application in writing by the owner, importer, or consignee of any goods duly warehoused in any Queen's warehouse, or other place of deposit provided by Government, issue to such owner, importer, or consignee, warrants under his hand substantially in the form to this Ordinance annexed.

Warehouse Warrants.

2 Such warrants shall be transferable once or oftener by the endorsement of the owner, importer, or consignee of the goods or of the holders of the said warrants, and the right and title to the goods enumerated in such warrants shall vest in the possessors thereof without any endorsement save that of the original grantee. The collector shall, upon production and surrender of such warrants, but not otherwise, deliver the goods to the holders of the warrants, on due entry of the goods for home consumption or exportation, and upon payment of all duties and charges due on the said goods.

Goods transferable by endorsement and deliverable to the holders of warrants.

3 It shall be lawful for the keeper of any bonded warehouse to issue to the owner, importer, or consignee of any goods duly warehoused in his bonded warehouse, warrants substantially in the form to this Ordinance annexed. Such warrants shall be transferable, once or oftener, by the endorsement of the owner, importer, or consignee of the goods, or of the holders of the said warrants; and the right and title to the goods enumerated in such warrants shall vest in the possessors thereof without any endorsement save that of the original grantee. The keeper of such warehouse shall, upon production and surrender of such warrants, but not otherwise, deliver the goods to the holders of the warrants on due entry of the goods for home consumption or exportation, and upon payment of all duties and charges due on the said goods. Provided that it shall not be lawful for the keeper of any bonded warehouse to issue warrants for goods in which he has any share or interest as owner, importer, or consignee.

Warrants by private warehouse keepers.

5 Provided that the holder of any warrant issued by the collector of customs shall have no claim on the Crown to compensation for loss of any goods by fire, theft, damage, or other cause, except such loss be caused by the wilful embezzlement, waste, spoil, or destruction on the part of any officer of customs, and such officer shall have been prosecuted to conviction within one year from the date of such wilful embezzlement, waste, spoil, or destruction. The holder of a warrant issued by a bonded warehouse keeper shall have no claim on the Crown to compensation on any ground or pretext whatsoever.

Crown when liable to make compensation for loss in any Queen's warehouse.

Crown not liable for loss in any bonded warehouse.

6 Provided further, that the collector of customs shall be in no way answerable for the correctness of the particulars of the contents or value of the goods specified in any warrant issued as aforesaid, and that the said goods shall be in every respect liable to the provisions of the laws and regulations relating to the customs in force at the time such goods shall be in deposit at the Queen's warehouse or other place of deposit provided by Government.

Goods otherwise liable to customs laws and regulations.

7 Any keeper of a bonded warehouse who shall fraudulently issue a warrant for goods not in his warehouse, or who shall fraudulently issue two or more warrants for the same goods, or who shall fraudulently issue warrants for goods in which he has any share or interest as owner, importer, or consignee, or who shall aid and assist any other person to do so, and any keeper of such warehouse or other person who shall in any way use any warrant granted under the provisions of this Ordinance for the purposes of defrauding or injuring any person, company, or corporation, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour not exceeding three years, and in addition thereto, at the discretion of the judge, to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Governor to make regulations for certain purposes.

8 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time to make regulations as to him shall appear expedient for any of the following purposes :

- (1) For preventing accidents by fire, and as to the lighting or using of candles, fires, and lamps, and as to the smoking of tobacco or herbs within the customs premises ;
- (2) For governing and regulating porters, coolies, cartmen, and others carrying goods or using or driving horses, mules, bullocks, trucks, carts, sledges, or other carriages within the customs premises ;
- (3) For preventing damage being done to any goods.

And such regulations shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall have the force of law. Any person who shall disobey the same shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

Goods of dangerous quality.

9 If the owner, consignee, or person having charge of any tar, pitch, spirituous liquor, turpentine, oil, aqua fortis, lucifer matches, or any other article of a combustible or dangerous nature whatsoever, shall suffer the same to remain in the customs premises beyond the space of five hours after he shall have been required by any officer of customs to remove the same therefrom, then and in every such case every person so offending shall for every such offence be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds, and not less than one pound for every hour that any of the said articles or goods shall be or remain in the place aforesaid after the expiration of the said five hours.

Time for instituting claims under 120th section of Ordinance 17 of 1869 extended to one month.

10 The time given for the institution of proceedings in court by the 120th section of the said Ordinance No. 17 of 1869 is hereby extended from fifteen to thirty days from the date of the notice and security required by the said section.

Ordinance 17 of 1869 and this Ordinance to be deemed one.

11 This Ordinance and the Ordinance No. 17 of 1869 shall be read and construed as if they formed one Ordinance.

Commencement of Ordinance.

12 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such day as shall be appointed by the Governor by Proclamation in the Government Gazette.*

*Gas Meters.No. 3 of 1871.*An Ordinance for regulating Measures used in sales of Gas.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Ordinance No. 1 of 1869 makes due provision for giving all necessary powers and facilities to any company which may be empowered by Proclamation to supply any municipal town with gas; and whereas it is expedient that the measurement used in sales of gas for lighting, heating, and other purposes in such towns should be regulated by one uniform standard: It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Gas Meter Ordinance, 1871."

Commencement of Ordinance.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the date of the passing thereof.

Interpretation clause.

3 In construing this Ordinance the following terms shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to or inconsistent with such construction:

The word "meter" shall mean gas meter, and shall include every kind of machine used for measuring gas.

The word "company" shall include a person.

The words "police court" shall include the court of the bench of magistrates.

Standard measure.

4 From and after the date on which this Ordinance shall come into operation the only legal standard or unit of measure for the sale of gas by meter shall be the cubic foot containing 63·321 pounds, avoirdupois weight, of distilled or rain water, weighed in air at the temperature of sixty-two degrees of Fahrenheit's thermometer, the barometer being at thirty inches.

Models to be kept by municipal councils for inspection.

5 And for the purpose of enabling every person to ascertain with certainty whether any meter in use, or intended for use, conforms to the standard hereby established, the chairman of the municipal council of any municipal town which is supplied with gas shall preserve with care at his office models of gas-holders, measuring the said cubic foot and such multiples and decimal parts thereof, as the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, may from time to time proclaim as expedient, together with proper balances, indices, and apparatus for testing the measurement and registration of meters; and every person shall be at liberty, on giving reasonable notice, to inspect the said models, or any of them, and to compare any other meter therewith.

Meters to be stamped.

6 In all contracts, bargains, sales, and dealings which shall be made or had in respect of the supply of gas, no meter shall be used within any town which shall not have been stamped by the municipal council thereof, in token of the same having been tested and verified by them in accordance with the standard hereby established. Provided that a meter, duly stamped as aforesaid, shall not be liable to be re-stamped, although the same be used in any other town than that at which the same was originally stamped, but shall be considered as a legal meter unless found to be incorrect within the meaning of this Ordinance.

Gas Meters.

Proviso.

7 No meter shall be stamped by any municipal council testing the same, which shall be found to register, or be capable of being made, by any contrivance for that purpose, or by increase or by decrease of the water in such meter, or by any other means practically prevented in good meters, to register quantities varying from the true standard measure of gas more than two per centum in favour of the seller, or three per centum in favour of the consumer; and every meter which shall be found by such municipal council to register, or be so capable of being made to register, quantities varying beyond the limits aforesaid, shall be deemed incorrect within the meaning of this Ordinance; and every meter which shall be found to measure and register quantities accurately, or not varying beyond the limits aforesaid, and shall be found incapable by any such means as aforesaid, of being made to register quantities varying beyond the limits aforesaid, shall be considered to be correct, and be stamped in such manner and on such part of the meter as such municipal council may deem best to prevent fraud.

Meters to be tested before being stamped.

8 The following rules shall be observed by any municipal council who are hereby required to undertake the testing of meters:

Rules for testing.

Firstly, the meter shall be tested for soundness or leakage only, and not for percentage of error, when fixed on a horizontal base, and with gas under a pressure equal to a column of water three inches high, with a light or lights consuming not more than one-twentieth part of its measuring capacity per hour marked thereon, nor less than one-half of a cubic foot per hour, for all meters of a measuring capacity not exceeding one hundred cubic feet per hour, and not more than one-fortieth part of its said measuring capacity per hour for all meters of any greater measuring capacity per hour than one hundred cubic feet; and all meters found to work under such test shall be deemed sound meters, and any meter found not to work under such test shall not be stamped.

The meter to be tested for percentage of error shall be fixed on a horizontal base, and shall be tested at a pressure equal to a column of water five-tenths of an inch high, and passing the quantity of gas or atmospheric air per hour which shall be marked thereon as its measuring capacity per hour; and the water used in such testing, and the air of the room in which such testing shall be made, shall be, as nearly as practicable, of the same temperature as the gas or air passed through the meter.

Gas Meters.

Municipal councils to appoint inspectors of meters.

9 It shall be lawful for the municipal council of any municipal town which is supplied with gas, to appoint such person or persons as they may deem qualified thereto, for the purpose of examining, testing, and stamping meters ; and in case any such person or persons shall stamp any meter without duly testing and finding the same to be correct, or shall refuse, or for three days after being so required neglect, without lawful excuse, to test any meter, or to stamp any meter found to be correct on being so tested, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Municipal councils may enter houses, &c., for inspecting meters.

10 It shall be lawful for the municipal council of any municipal town that is supplied with gas, or any person or persons appointed by them for that purpose, at all reasonable times and with all necessary workmen and appliances and other means, to enter any house or shop, store, warehouse, still, yard, or place whatsoever within their jurisdiction, wherein such municipal council may have reason to believe that there is any incorrect meter fixed or used, and to examine and test the same, and if necessary for such purpose to remove such meter, doing as little damage thereby as may be ; and if upon such examination and testing it shall appear that any such meter is incorrect within the meaning of this Ordinance, or fraudulent, the same shall not be re-fixed or used again unless and until altered and repaired so as to measure and register correctly ; and the fees on such removal, examination, and testing of a meter, whether corrected and replaced or not, shall be double the fees hereinafter made payable for testing and stamping, and shall be payable by the buyer or seller of gas, as the municipal council shall determine. Provided that any person duly authorized by any company or person selling gas by meter may supply water to any meter, so as to keep the water at the correct level.

PROVISO.

Consumers may use any stamped meters.

11 Every consumer of gas may purchase and use for the measurement of the gas supplied to him any meter duly stamped under the authority of this Ordinance, provided that the gas to be consumed per hour shall not exceed the quantity per hour the meter is intended to measure, so marked on the outside thereof as aforesaid.

Fees for testing and stamping meters.

12 The fees for examination, comparison, and testing, with or without stamping meters, shall be sixpence for each meter delivering a cubic foot of gas in four or more revolutions or complete repetitions of the action of the meter, and one shilling for each meter delivering a cubic foot of gas by any less number of revolutions or complete actions, or one revolution or complete action ; and for each meter delivering more than one cubic foot of gas by one revolution or complete action the further sum of one shilling for every cubic foot of gas delivered at one revolution or complete action beyond the first cubic foot.

paid out of the lighting rates.

14 Whosoever shall commit any of the following offences shall be liable to the fines hereinafter set forth :

Offences under this Ordinance.

(1) Whosoever shall make, except under the authority of this Ordinance, or forge, or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be made, except as aforesaid, or forged or counterfeited, or knowingly act or assist in the making, except as aforesaid, or forging or counterfeiting any stamp or mark which may be used for the stamping or making of any meter under this Ordinance, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds and not less than ten pounds.

Counterfeiting stamps.

(2) Whosoever shall knowingly sell, alter, or dispose of, let, lend, or expose for sale any meter with such forged stamp or mark thereon, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds and not less than two pounds. Provided that all meters with such forged or counterfeited stamps shall be forfeited and destroyed.

Selling or uttering meters with forged stamps.

(3) Whosoever shall knowingly repair or alter, or cause to be repaired and altered, or tamper with or do any other act in relation to any stamped meter, so as to cause such meter to register unjustly or fraudulently, or who shall prevent or refuse to allow lawful access to any meter in his possession or control, or the supply of water thereto as hereinbefore provided, or shall obstruct or hinder any examination or testing authorized by this Ordinance of any such meter, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifteen pounds. Provided that the payment of any such penalty as aforesaid shall not exempt the party offending from liability to indictment or other proceeding at law to which he would otherwise be liable, or deprive any person of the right to recover damages for any loss or injury sustained by such act or default ; and provided further that the party offending shall pay the fees for removing and testing and the expense of purchasing and fixing a new meter.

Tampering with meters, obstructing inspectors, &c.

Proviso.

15 All disputes between the buyer and seller of gas by meter, or between any owner of a meter and any person or persons appointed under this Ordinance to test meters, respecting the correctness of any meter, shall be referred to the said municipal council, whose decision thereon shall be final.

Settlement of disputes affecting meters.

16 And in all cases where fees or expenses are by this Ordinance directed to be paid, the amount, if certified to by the chairman or secretary of the said municipal council, shall be recovered, in the event of the party liable thereto failing to

No. 7 of 1871.

An Ordinance to amend the Law of Property, and to relieve Trustees.

(See No. 2 of 1889.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law of property, and to grant relief in certain cases to trustees, executors, and administrators: It is enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Property and Trustees' Ordinance, 1871."

Persons entitled to assign property to themselves and others.

2 Any person shall have power to assign and convey movable and immovable property, now by law assignable, directly to himself and another person, or other persons or corporation, by the like means as he might assign or convey the same to another. And no transfer or assignment of movable or immovable property heretofore made or executed by a person to himself and another person or persons or corporation shall be deemed to be in any manner invalid by reason of its being a transfer or assignment by a person to himself and another person or persons or corporation: Provided that nothing in this section contained shall give any validity to any assignment or conveyance which would have been heretofore by any law or custom invalid by any other reason than by reason of its being an assignment or conveyance by a person to himself and any other person or persons or corporation.

Property vested in trustees as such to be held with the quality of survivorship.

3 All property, whether movable or immovable, which any persons shall be possessed of, or entitled to, in equal undivided shares, as trustees, shall be held by such persons as joint tenants, with the right or quality of survivorship between or amongst them, in the same manner as subsists between or amongst joint tenants by the Law of England, unless otherwise provided by the deed or instrument creating or establishing the trusts upon which such property is to be held; anything by the Ordinances No. 21 of 1844 and No. 10 of 1863 to the contrary provided notwithstanding.

Trustees.

4 That any district court in this colony, within the jurisdiction of which any property, movable or immovable, which is subject to any trust, may be situated, may, on petition from any person having any interest, present or future, in such trust property, or from any trustee or trustees thereof, nominate a trustee or trustees to have control thereof, either solely or jointly with any previous trustee or trustees, and either in addition to or in the place of any such previous trustee or trustees, as circumstances may require in any of the cases following, that is to say:

District court may nominate trustees in certain cases.

- (1) Where the deed or instrument creating the trust shall contain no adequate provision for the appointment of a new trustee or trustees, and the trustee, or one or more of the trustees originally appointed or nominated under the powers by this Ordinance created, may have died, or become incapable of acting, or may have left the colony and be residing elsewhere, or may be desirous of being relieved from the duties thereof.
- (2) Where any such trustee shall neglect or refuse to act in the duties of his office, or shall misconduct himself in the discharge thereof, whether the said deed or instrument shall contain an adequate provision for the appointment of new trustees or not.
- (3) Where the said deed or instrument does contain such provision, but the sole remaining trustee or trustees thereof shall be incapable of acting or of making a sufficient transfer and assignment of the trust property by reason of lunacy or infancy, or where the remaining trustee or trustees may be resident out of the colony, or where all the trustees may be dead, and the heirs of the last survivor incapable, for any of the reasons aforesaid, of making a valid transfer, or where such heirs, or any of them, may be resident out of the colony, or where there may be a difficulty in discovering them, or where it may be doubtful which of several trustees is the survivor.
- (4) Where the said deed or instrument contains an adequate provision for the appointment of a trustee in the room of any retiring trustee, but the person in whom such appointment is vested by virtue of such provision shall refuse or neglect for the space of twenty-eight days after being requested so to do by any trustee desiring to retire, to make any such fresh appointment: but in this case the petition of the retiring trustee shall be accompanied by a statement in writing of all trust property then under his control, and such an account or statement as may satisfy the court that he has duly discharged his office and duty as trustee.

5 That when and so soon as such nomination shall be made by such district court, all the property, movable and immovable, which may be subject to the trusts aforesaid, and situate within this colony, whether within the jurisdiction of the said court or not, shall become vested in the trustee or trustees so nominated, either solely or jointly with the continuing trustee or trustees, as fully and effectually as if the same had been conveyed and assigned to them or him by the person or persons in whom the same was vested, and such newly nominated trustee or trustees shall thenceforth possess and enjoy all the powers of a trustee or trustees, in the same manner as if he or they had been nominated or appointed in and by the original deed or instrument creating the trust, and as well in respect of property in the colony situated out of as in respect of property within the jurisdiction of the court making the nomination.

Vesting of property in new trustees.

Lists of trustees to be kept in Land Registry Office in Colombo.

6 The secretary of the court making such nomination of a trustee shall give information thereof forthwith to the Registrar-General of Lands, who shall cause an alphabetical list of all persons appointed trustees by any district courts to be made out, showing the courts by which they were appointed, and the number of the record in which the appointments have been made. And such list shall be preserved in the Land Registry Office in Colombo, and shall, at all reasonable hours, upon a written application in that behalf, duly stamped, be open to the inspection and perusal of all persons.

Appeals from orders of district courts.

9 All orders made by any district courts in pursuance of the powers hereinbefore contained shall be subject to appeal to the Supreme Court on the part of any person having or claiming to have any interest in the trust property, or any part thereof, and such appeals shall be subject to the same rules, regulations, and practice as exist with respect to interlocutory appeals from district courts.

Power of trustees to give valid receipts.

13 The receipts in writing of any trustees or trustee for any money payable to them or him by reason or in the exercise of any trusts or powers reposed or vested in them or him shall be sufficient discharges for the money therein expressed to be received, and shall effectually exonerate the persons paying such money from seeing to the application thereof, or from being answerable for any loss or misapplication thereof.

Commencement of Ordinance.

14 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the date of the passing thereof.

14th January, 1871.

No. 8 of 1871.

An Ordinance to amend in certain respects the Law of Mortgage and Hypothec.

(See No. 21 of 1871.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain respects the law of mortgage and hypothec in this colony: It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof :

Mortgage and Hypothec.

1 No conventional general mortgage, executed after this Ordinance shall come into operation, shall be valid and effectual, so as thereby to give the mortgagee any lien, charge, claim, or priority over or in respect of any property, movable or immovable.

General mortgages abolished.

2 No pledge or conventional hypothecation or bill of sale of any movable property, effected after this Ordinance shall come into operation, shall be valid and effectual, so as thereby to give the pledgee, mortgagee, or transferee any lien, charge, claim, right, or priority over, to, or in respect of such property :

Mortgage of movable property to be effected by actual delivery ;

Unless the said property shall have been actually delivered over into the custody and possession of the pledgee, mortgagee, or transferee, or some person on behalf of such pledgee, mortgagee, or transferee, and shall continue and remain ostensibly and bonâ fide in such custody and possession from the date of such pledge, hypothecation, or bill of sale, until the time when the pledgee, mortgagee, or transferee shall make his claim at law to, over, or in respect of such property ; or

Unless such pledge, hypothecation, or bill of sale shall have been created by writing signed by the person effecting the same, or by some person thereto lawfully authorized by him, and unless such writing shall within fourteen days (exclusive of Sundays and public holidays) from the date thereof have been duly registered in the office of the registrar of lands for the district in which such property shall be at the time of such pledge, hypothecation, or bill of sale, or in the office of the said registrar for each of such districts, when such property is at the time of such pledge, hypothecation, or transfer in more than one district.

or by deed duly registered.

[§ 3, 21 of 1871]

3 No transfer or assignment, made after this Ordinance shall come into operation, of any pledge, conventional hypothecation, or bill of sale of any movable property, shall be valid and effectual, so as thereby to give the transferee or assignee any lien, charge, claim, right, or priority over, to, or in respect of such property, unless such transfer or assignment shall be in writing, signed by the person transferring the same, or by some person thereto lawfully authorized by him, and shall within fourteen days (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) from the date thereof have been registered in manner aforesaid.

Transfer or assignment of hypothecations to be also by deed, and registered.

[§ 3, 21 of 1871]

4 No pledge, conventional hypothecation, or bill of sale of any movable property heretofore effected by any writing, and no transfer or assignment thereof, shall be valid and effectual, so as thereby to give the pledgee, mortgagee, transferee, or assignee any lien, charge, claim, right, or priority over, to, or in respect of such property, unless such pledge, hypothecation, bill of sale, transfer, or assignment shall be duly registered as aforesaid within three months from the Existing pledges, &c., to be also duly registered.

Mortgage and Hypothec.

date of this Ordinance coming into operation, or shall have been heretofore registered in pursuance of the provisions of the Lands Registration Ordinances, No. 8 of 1863 and No. 3 of 1865.

Registrars to keep lists of such writings; inspection, extracts, certificates, &c.

5 It shall be the duty of the registrar of lands to prepare and keep special and proper lists and indexes of all writings required by this Ordinance to be registered; and all such lists, indexes, and the writings to which they refer shall, at all reasonable hours, upon a written application in that behalf, be open to the inspection and perusal of all persons who may desire to inspect and peruse the same; and such persons shall be entitled to demand and receive copies of any entries in such register, or extracts from any such entries. And such registrar shall, immediately after the registration of any writing required by this Ordinance to be registered, deliver to the party effecting the same a certificate thereof, signed by such registrar, and shall also (if required) make and sign an endorsement thereof on the writing produced for registration. And every such certificate, application, copy, and extract as aforesaid shall be subject to the same stamp duties as if the writing registered was a mortgage or transfer of immovable property, registered under the Land Registration Ordinances, No. 8 of 1863 and No. 3 of 1865, or any other Ordinance hereafter to be passed respecting the registration of deeds relating to immovable property.

Meaning of "bill of sale."

6 The words "bill of sale" shall include bills of sale, assignments, transfers, declarations of trust without transfer, and other assurances of movable property, and also powers of attorney and authorities or licenses to take possession of personal property as security for any debt.

Proviso as to mortgage of ships, &c.

7 Nothing in this Ordinance shall be taken to apply to hypothecations of any ship or vessel, or any share thereof; nor to hypothecations of goods in any foreign parts or at sea; nor to property represented by bills of lading, dock warrants, warehouse-keepers' certificates, warrants or orders for the delivery of goods, or any other documents used in the ordinary course of business as proof of the possession or control of goods, and authorizing or purporting to authorize either by endorsement or by delivery the possessor of such document to transfer or receive goods thereby represented; nor to any shares or interests in the stock funds or securities of any Government, or in the capital or property of any incorporated or joint stock company; nor to choses in action; nor to any crops or produce growing or to be grown on any lands or plantations.

Repeal of 66th section of Ordinance No. 16 of 1865.

8 The 66th section of the Ordinance No. 16 of 1865, entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the establishment and regulation of a Police Force in this Island," is hereby repealed.

Commencement of Ordinance.

9 This Ordinance shall come into operation at the date of the passing thereof.

14th January, 1871.

Tolls.

Customs Duties.

No. 9 of 1871.

An Ordinance to amend "The Tolls Ordinance," No. 14 of 1867.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Ordinance No. 14 of 1867, entitled "An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Law in respect to the collection of Tolls:" It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1 From and after the passing of this Ordinance, the tolls imposed in respect of ferries shall be due and leviable whether the ferry boats provided for carrying passengers or conveying vehicles or goods across the ferries be used or not.

Preamble.

Tolls in respect of ferries shall be due whether the ferry boats be used or not.

2 From and after the passing of this Ordinance, the proviso to the 4th section of the Ordinance No. 14 of 1867, imposing a higher rate of tolls on vehicles for goods with narrow tires than that imposed on such vehicles with broad tires, shall be repealed.

Repeal of proviso to the 4th section of Ordinance No. 14 of 1867.

3 From and after the First day of January, 1872, vehicles and boats loaded with cocoanut husks in an unmanufactured condition, and with no other goods or merchandise except the necessary tackle, apparel, and provision of such boat and the crew thereof, shall pass as and pay the tolls of unloaded vehicles and boats only. If such vehicles and boats shall pass more than once the same day, loaded as aforesaid, no further tolls shall be demanded or taken for or in respect of them, but they shall pass free.

Vehicles and boats loaded with cocoanut husks to pay as unloaded vehicles and boats, and to pay only once

4 This Ordinance and the Ordinance No. 14 of 1867 shall be read and construed as if they formed one Ordinance.

This and Ordinance No. 14 of 1867 to be deemed one.

14th January, 1871.

No. 14 of 1871.

An Ordinance to adjust Customs Duties to the Currency of Rupees and Cents.

(See No. 17 of 1869.)

WHEREAS the currency of this island will, on the 1st January, 1872, be changed from pounds, shillings, and pence to rupees and cents; and it has in consequence become necessary to adjust to the new currency certain customs duties whose exact equivalents in cents involve impracticable fractions of cents: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

Customs Duties.

Commencement
of Ordinance.

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation on 1st January, 1872.

New schedules of duties.

2 The schedules marked B, C, and D hereto annexed shall be substituted for those marked B, C, and D, respectively, annexed to the Ordinance No. 17 of 1869. But these substituted schedules shall not affect any duties, or arrears of duties, which shall be due or payable at the date when this Ordinance shall have come into operation.

This Ordinance and
No. 17 of 1869 to be read as one.

3 This Ordinance and No. 17 of 1869 shall be read and construed as one Ordinance.

No. 19 of 1871.

An Ordinance to provide for the reduction in certain places of the minimum rates payable for maintenance of Police.

(See No. 18 of 1865.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the reduction in certain cases of the minimum rate payable for the maintenance of the police: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to reduce, in any place where a police force is now or may hereafter be stationed, the minimum rate payable to meet the expenses defrayable by the inhabitants of such place for the maintenance of such police force, from the sum of two shillings yearly to fifty cents, if, owing to the poverty of the inhabitants or any other cause, such reduction shall appear to them reasonable. The rate, where such reduction is made, shall be assessed and payable half-yearly, and not quarterly.

Minimum rates may be reduced in certain places from two shillings to fifty cents.

2 This Ordinance and "The Police Ordinance, 1865," shall be read and construed as if they formed one Ordinance.

This Ordinance and "Police Ordinance, 1865," to be deemed one.

3 This Ordinance shall come into effect on the First day of January, 1872.

Commencement of Ordinance.

19th December, 1871.

No. 21 of 1871.

An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 8 of 1871, entitled "An Ordinance to amend in certain respects the Law of Mortgage and Hypothec."

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Ordinance No. 8 of 1871, entitled "An Ordinance to amend in certain respects the Law of Mortgage and Hypothec:" It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 No pledge, conventional hypothecation, or bill of sale, heretofore effected or hereafter to be effected, of any movable property, and no transfer or assignment, heretofore effected or hereafter to be effected, of such pledge, conventional hypothecation, or bill of sale, shall be deemed to be invalid or in any respect ineffectual for want of registration under the provisions of the said Ordinance No. 8 of 1871, if such pledge, conventional hypothecation, bill of sale, transfer, or assignment shall have been or shall be effected by any instrument which also contains any mortgage or assurance of any immovable property, or any transfer or assignment of such mortgage or assurance; and if such mortgage or Pledges, &c., of movable property, contained in mortgages duly registered or assurances of immovable property, need not be registered.

Prescription.

assurance of immovable property, or transfer or assignment thereof, shall have been or shall be duly registered in pursuance of the Land Registration Ordinances, No. 8 of 1863 and No. 3 of 1865, or either of these.

One certificate of registration may be given on an instrument containing a mortgage, &c., of immovable and movable property.

2 It shall be competent to the registrar to deliver to the party effecting a registration of any such instrument, one certificate setting out the mortgage of assurance of immovable property, and the pledge, conventional hypothecation, or bill of sale of movable property, instead of two separate certificates.

Time for registering such instruments extended from seven to fourteen days.

3 The time prescribed by sections 2 and 3 for registering any pledge, hypothecation, or bill of sale of movable property created by writing, or a transfer or assignment thereof, is hereby extended from seven to fourteen days, exclusive of Sundays and public holidays. Any such pledge, hypothecation, or bill of sale, or transfer or assignment thereof, heretofore created and registered within fourteen days from the date of the writing creating the same, shall be deemed good and valid, anything in the said Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

Marriage settlements declared not to be under operation of said Ordinance.

4 And, in order to remove all doubts on the subject, it is declared and enacted that marriage settlements and assignments thereof do not come within the definition of bill of sale in section 6, or within any other section of the said Ordinance.

Commencement of Ordinance.

5 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

This Ordinance and Ordinance No. 8 of 1871 to be deemed as one Ordinance.

6 This Ordinance and the Ordinance No. 8 of 1871 shall be read as one Ordinance.

23rd December, 1871.

No. 22 of 1871.

An Ordinance to amend the Laws regulating the Prescription of Actions.

(See No. 2 of 1889.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the laws now in force regulating the prescription of actions: It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Repeal of former Ordinance.

1 The Ordinance No. 8 of 1834, entitled "An Ordinance to assimilate, amend, and consolidate the Laws now in force in different parts of the Island, regulating the Prescription of Actions," is hereby repealed, except so far as respects all rights which shall have accrued, liabilities which shall have been incurred, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place before this Ordinance shall come into force.

Prescription.

2 In the interpretation of this Ordinance the following words and expressions shall have the meaning hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction :

Interpretation clause.

The expression "immovable property" shall be taken to include all shares and interest in such property, and all rights, easements, and servitudes thereunto belonging or appertaining.

Immovable property.

3 Proof of the undisturbed and uninterrupted possession by a defendant in any action, or by those under whom he claims, of lands or immovable property, by a title adverse to or independent of that of the claimant or plaintiff in such action (that is to say, a possession unaccompanied by payment of rent or produce, or performance of service or duty, or by any other act by the possessor, from which an acknowledgment of a right existing in another person would fairly and naturally be inferred) for ten years previous to the bringing of such action, shall entitle the defendant to a decree in his favour with costs. And in like manner, when any plaintiff shall bring his action, or any third party shall intervene in any action for the purpose of being quieted in his possession of lands or other immovable property, or to prevent encroachment or usurpation thereof, or to establish his claim in any other manner to such land or other property, proof of such undisturbed and uninterrupted possession, as hereinbefore explained, by such plaintiff or intervenient, or by those under whom he claims, shall entitle such plaintiff or intervenient to a decree in his favour with costs. Provided that the said period of ten years shall only begin to run against parties claiming estates in remainder or reversion from the time when the parties so claiming acquired a right of possession to the property in dispute.

Term of prescription for lands or immovable property.

Saving in case of reversioners and remainder men.

4 It shall be lawful for any person who shall have been dispossessed of any immovable property otherwise than by process of law, to institute proceedings against the person dispossessing him at any time within one year of such dispossession. And on proof of such dispossession within one year before action brought, the plaintiff in such action shall be entitled to a decree against the defendant for the restoration of such possession without proof of title. Provided that nothing herein contained shall be held to affect the other requirements of the law as respects possessory cases.

Possessory action may be brought within one year of ouster.

6 No action shall be maintainable for the recovery of any sum due upon any hypothecation or mortgage of any property, or upon any bond conditioned for the payment of money, or the performance of any agreement or trust, or the payment of penalty, unless the same be commenced, in the case of an instrument payable at, or providing for the performance of its condition within, a definite time, within ten years from the expiration of such time, and in all other cases within ten years from the date of such instrument of mortgage or hypothecation, or of last payment of interest thereon, or of the breach of the condition.

Mortgage debt or bond prescribed after ten years.

Prescription.

Term in case of partnership deeds, written promise, contract, bargain, agreement, or security, or upon promissory note, bill of exchange, &c.

7 No action shall be maintainable upon any deed for establishing a partnership, or upon any promissory note or bill of exchange, or upon any written promise, contract, bargain, or agreement, or other written security not falling within the description of instruments set forth in the 6th section, unless such action shall be brought within six years from the date of the breach of such partnership deed or of such written promise, contract, bargain, or agreement, or other written security, or from the date when such note or bill shall have become due, or of the last payment of interest thereon.

Terms in cases of action to recover goods, rent, money lent, &c., without written security.

8 No action shall be maintainable for the recovery of any movable property, rent, or mesne profit, or for any money lent without written security, or for any money paid or expended by the plaintiff on account of the defendant, or for money received by defendant for the use of the plaintiff, or for money due upon an account stated, or upon any unwritten promise, contract, bargain, or agreement, unless such action shall be commenced within three years from the time after the cause of action shall have arisen.

Term in cases for goods sold, shop bill, book debt, or work and labour.

9 No action shall be maintainable for or in respect of any goods sold and delivered, or for any shop bill or book debt, or for work and labour done, or for the wages of artisans, labourers, or servants, unless the same shall be brought within one year after the debt shall have become due.

Term in case for damages.

10 No action shall be maintainable for any loss, injury, or damage, unless the same shall be commenced within two years from the time when the cause of action shall have arisen.

Term in case of actions not hereinbefore provided for.

11 No action shall be maintainable in respect of any cause of action not hereinbefore expressly provided for, or expressly exempted from the operation of this Ordinance, unless the same shall be commenced within three years from the time when such cause of action shall have accrued.

Claims in reconvention not to be allowed where action is barred.

12 No claim in reconvention or by way of set-off shall be allowed or maintainable in respect of any claim or demand after the right to sue in respect thereof shall be barred by any of the provisions hereinbefore contained.

No acknowledgment to take a case out of the operation of this Ordinance unless in writing.

13 In any of the forms of action referred to in sections 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, and 12 of this Ordinance, no acknowledgment or promise by words only shall be deemed evidence of a new or continuing contract, whereby to take the case out of the operation of the enactments contained in the said sections, or any of them, or to deprive any party of the benefit thereof, unless such acknowledgment shall be made or contained by or in some writing to be signed by the party chargeable, or by some agent duly authorized to enter into such contract on his behalf; and that where there shall be two or more joint contractors, or heirs, executors, or administrators of any contractor, no such joint contractor, or heir, executor, or administrator shall lose the benefit of the said enactments, or any of them, by reason of any written acknowledgment or promise made by any other or others of them. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall alter or take away, or lessen the effect of any payment of any principal or interest made by any person whatsoever. Provided also that in actions to be commenced against two or more such joint contractors or heirs, executors, or administrators, if it shall appear at the trial or otherwise that the plaintiff, though barred by any of the provisions contained in the said sections as to one or more of such joint contractors, heirs, executors, or administrators, shall nevertheless be entitled to recover against any other or others of the defendants, by virtue of a new acknowledgment or promise, or otherwise, judgment may be given for the plaintiff as to such defendant or defendants against whom he shall recover, and for the other defendant or defendants against the plaintiff.

14 Provided, nevertheless, that if at the time when the right of any person to sue for the recovery of any immovable property shall have first accrued, such person shall have been under any of the disabilities hereinafter mentioned—that is to say, infancy, idiocy, unsoundness of mind, lunacy, or absence beyond the seas—then and so long as such disability shall continue the possession of such immovable property by any other person shall not be taken as giving such person any right or title to the said immovable property, as against the person subject to such disability or those claiming under him, but the period of ten years required by the 3rd section of this Ordinance shall commence to be reckoned from the death of such last named person, or from the termination of such disability, whichever first shall happen; but no further time shall be allowed in respect of the disabilities of any other person. Provided also that the adverse and undisturbed possession for thirty years of any immovable property by any person claiming the same, or by those under whom he claims, shall be taken as conclusive proof of title in manner provided by the 3rd section of this Ordinance, notwithstanding the disability of any adverse claimant.

Proviso in case of disabilities with reference to claims for land.

Proviso.

15 Provided also that if at the time when the right of action in respect of any of the causes referred to in sections 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, and 12 of this Ordinance shall accrue, the person so entitled to sue shall be subject to any of the said hereinbefore mentioned disabilities, then the several periods of limitation hereinbefore provided shall not commence to run until the removal of such disability or the death of such person, whichever first shall happen; but no further time shall be allowed in respect of the disability of any other person.

Proviso in case of disabilities affecting claims other than those for lands.

16 Nothing herein contained shall in any way affect the rights of the Crown, or shall be taken to apply to any proceedings in any action for divorce, or to any case in which special provision has been or may hereafter be made for Act not to affect Crown or causes matrimonial.

23rd December, 1871.

No. 28 of 1871.

An Ordinance to provide for the registration of Domestic Servants.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the registration of domestic servants : It is enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Commencement of Ordinance.

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation in such towns or districts of the island, and from such date or dates, as may from time to time be prescribed by the Governor, by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette.

Interpretation clause.

2 The following words and expressions in this Ordinance shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction :

“Master” shall include every person having servants in his employ.

“Servants” shall mean domestic servants, hired by the month or receiving monthly wages, and shall include head and under servants, female servants, cooks, coachmen, horsekeepers, and house and garden coolies.

Domestic Servants.

3 It shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time as occasion may require, to appoint for the island of Ceylon, or for any town or district in which this Ordinance may be brought into operation, a registrar of domestic servants, who shall be under the general supervision and control of the Inspector-General of Police.

Governor shall appoint registrar who shall be under supervision of the Inspector-General of Police.

Existing Servants.

4 Within one month of this Ordinance coming into operation in any town or district, it shall be the duty of every employer of domestic servants to cause such servants in his employment to be registered in the register of servants for such town or district, and for this purpose he shall furnish to the registrar in writing a list showing the names, capacity in which employed, and date of engagement of each of his servants.

Masters to cause servants to be registered.

To supply lists to registrar.

5 It shall be the duty of every servant to attend personally, within three months after the coming into operation of this Ordinance, before the registrar, and furnish him with information as regards his age, country, previous service, and such other particulars as the registrar may require.

Servants to attend personally.

6 The registrar shall, on such servant so attending, hand to him a pocket register, in which shall be entered the particulars of his or her present engagement, and such memorandum of previous service or antecedents of the applicant as he or she may desire to have recorded in the register. Provided that the registrar shall not make any such antecedent entry without satisfying himself of the credibility of the statements tendered to him for entry.

To procure pocket register.

7 If any servant, returned by any master to the registrar as provided for in section 4, shall leave the service of such master within three months of the coming into operation of this Ordinance, and before obtaining his pocket register, such master shall transmit to the said registrar a memorandum of date and cause of such servant quitting his employment.

Servants quitting employment before pocket registers supplied.

Intending Servants.

8 It shall be the duty of the registrar to receive applications from persons desirous to enter domestic service. He shall satisfy himself that there are reasonable grounds to believe such applicants to be fit and proper persons to enter domestic service; and if so satisfied, shall register them in the general registry, recording what he has been able to learn respecting their antecedents and the names of any persons who certify to their respectability. And he shall thereupon issue pocket registers to such applicants, which shall contain the particulars of the record in the general registry.

Applicants for domestic service.

9 If the applicant can produce no sufficient evidence as to his fitness for domestic service, the registrar may grant provisional registration, to be thereafter converted into confirmed registration, according to the result of subsequent service.

Registrar may grant provisional registration.

Domestic Servants.

Registrar may refuse, but must report refusal to Inspector-General of Police.

10 If the registrar be satisfied that the applicant is not a fit and proper person, he may withhold registration altogether ; but it shall be his duty in such case to submit the same to the Inspector-General of Police for his approval.

Registration to be refused to convicted offenders, &c.

11 The registrar shall not grant registration to any convicted thief or associate of thieves, or to any person known to the police to be leading a disorderly or disreputable life, or who shall have been convicted of any infamous crime. Provided that the registrar may grant registration to any person from whom it may have been so withheld, on application of any householder who may be willing to give such person a trial ; provided that the registrar is satisfied of the respectability of such householder, and that the intention to engage such person as a domestic servant is a bonâ fide one.

Proviso.

General Regulations.

Master shall not engage unregistered servant.

12 After the coming into operation of this Ordinance in any town or district no master resident therein shall engage a servant who shall fail to produce his pocket register in evidence of his being registered, or whose pocket register shall not record the termination of his last previous service, if any.

Master to enter engagement in pocket register.

13 On engaging a servant, every master shall forthwith enter in the pocket register the date and capacity in which such servant is engaged, and shall cause the servant to attend personally at the registrar's office, to have the entry inserted in the general registry.

Master to enter discharge.

14 Every master who shall discharge a servant shall thereupon insert in the pocket register the date and cause of discharge and the character of the servant. Provided that if for any reason he be unwilling to give the servant a character, or to state the cause of discharge, he may decline to do so ; but in that case he shall furnish to the registrar in writing his reasons for so refusing. Provided further that if the master be unable to enter the cessation of the engagement, through failure of servant to produce pocket register, he shall report the fact to the registrar.

Proviso.

Proviso.

Servants to attend at office of registrar for pocket register entries to be transferred to general registry.

15 Every servant shall, within fifteen days after the date of any entry in his pocket register, attend personally at the office of the registrar of servants, for the purpose of having such entry recorded in the general registry.

Servants to exhibit pocket registers to police.

16 It shall be the duty of every registered servant to produce his pocket register when called upon to do so by the police.

Registered servants entering service in places not brought under Ordinance.

17 Every servant registered under the provisions of this Ordinance shall, if he subsequently enter service in any place not under its operation, attend personally at the nearest police station on his entering or leaving such service, and produce his pocket register to the principal officer of police at such station : and the said officer of police shall record such commencement or termination of service, and communicate the same to the registrar of servants for the town or district in which such servant was originally registered.

Domestic Servants.

18 It shall be the duty of any employer of domestic servants not resident in any town or district under the operation of this Ordinance, who shall engage or discharge a registered servant, forthwith to enter the engagement or discharge of such servant in the pocket register, in the manner prescribed in the 13th and 14th sections of this Ordinance, relating to the engagement or discharge of servants in places brought within the operation of this Ordinance.

Master in places not under Ordinance.

19 It shall be lawful to the registrar to issue duplicate pocket registers to replace the originals, which may have become worn out, or which may have been lost or destroyed.

Duplicate pocket registers.

Penalties.

20 The following penalties are hereby imposed for any of the following acts :

Penalties.

No. 9 of 1872.

An Ordinance to empower Commissioners, appointed by the Governor to inquire into any matter referred to them for inquiry, to hear evidence thereon.

WHEREAS it is frequently necessary for the Governor to issue commissions appointing one or more persons named therein to inquire into and report upon any matter upon which information, in the opinion of the Governor, is necessary, and it is expedient that commissioners so appointed should have the power to hear evidence with a view to such inquiry and report: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 Whenever the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall issue a commission under the seal of this island, appointing one or more persons to inquire into and report upon any matter stated in such commission upon which information is, in his opinion, necessary, it shall be lawful for the commissioners so appointed, by a summons under the hand of their chairman, or if there be only one commissioner, of such commissioner, to require the attendance before them, at a time and place to be mentioned in the summons, of any person whose evidence shall, in the judgment of the commissioners, be material to the subject-matter of the inquiry referred to them, and to Commissioners so appointed may issue summons to any person named therein to appear before them and to produce documents.

Commissioners of Inquiry.

require all persons to bring before them such books, papers, deeds, and writings as to the said commissioners shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth touching such subject-matter.

Commissioners to have all the powers of district courts as respects persons failing to appear, or to be sworn, or to answer questions, or to produce documents.

2 If any person upon whom any such summons shall be served by the delivery thereof or by the same being left at his usual place of abode, shall, without reasonable cause, of which the commissioners shall be the judges, fail to appear before them at the time and place mentioned in the summons, or shall refuse to be sworn, or shall not make answer to such questions as shall be put to him touching the matters which the commissioners are directed to inquire into, and which he is legally bound to make, or shall refuse or fail without reasonable cause, of which the commissioners shall be the judges, to produce and show to the said commissioners any such papers, books, deeds, or writings, being in his possession or under his control, as to the said commissioners shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the things which they are directed to inquire into, the commissioners shall have the same powers touching any such person so failing to appear, or refusing to be sworn, or not answering such questions as shall be put to him, or refusing to produce any such papers, books, deeds, or writings as aforesaid, as any district court may by law exercise against any person for making default of appearance, or for refusing to be sworn, or to give evidence, or to produce documents at the trial of any action depending in such court. Provided, however, that it shall not be lawful for such commissioners to exercise any of the said powers without first reporting to the Governor the case which renders, in their opinion, the exercise of them, or any of them, necessary, with full particulars, and obtaining the sanction of the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council.

Commissioners empowered to administer oath. False swearing before them made perjury.

3 The commissioners so appointed are hereby empowered to administer oaths to all persons who shall be examined before them, and every person who, upon examination upon oath before the said commissioners, shall wilfully give false evidence, shall be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury.

Processes issued by commissioners exempt from stamp and schedule duty. Fiscals bound to execute processes and commands of commissioners.

4 No stamp duty shall attach to or be payable for any process issued by the commissioners under the provisions of this Ordinance; nor shall it be necessary to attach schedules to processes issued to the fiscal under such provisions. Fiscals shall be bound to serve and execute all lawful processes and commands issued by the said commissioners.

20th December, 1872.

No. 1 of 1873.

(As amended by No. 3 of 1882.)

An Ordinance relating to the care and custody of Persons of unsound mind, and their Estates.

(See ch. XXXIII. of No. 3 of 1883, No. 2 of 1889, and No. 10 of 1889.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to make further and better provision relating to the care and custody of persons of unsound mind and their estates : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation at the date of the passing thereof.

Commencement of Ordinance.

2 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Lunacy Ordinance, 1873."

Short title.

3 The Ordinance No. 11 of 1840, entitled "An Ordinance to amend the Law relative to the establishment of Lunatic Asylums, and to make further general provisions for the proper care and custody of Insane Persons," and section 3 of the Rules and Orders for regulating the form of proceedings in district courts, headed "Jurisdiction over Idiots and Lunatics," are hereby repealed. Provided that such repeal shall not affect acts and proceedings which shall have been already performed, or commenced, under the said Ordinance or Rules and Orders.

Repeal of Ordinance 11 of 1840, and section 3 of rules and orders relative to jurisdiction over idiots and lunatics.

Proviso.

4 For the purposes of this Ordinance—

(1) Every person shall be deemed to be of unsound mind who is so far deranged in mind as to render it necessary that he, either for his own sake or that of the public, should be placed under control; and qualification of medical practitioner.

(2) No one shall be deemed a medical practitioner except such as shall have received a collegiate medical education, or shall hold a certificate of competency from the Principal Civil Medical Officer.

Any officer of police or headman or private person may apply for inquiry into the state of mind of a person suspected to be of unsound mind. Application of private person should be supported by certificate from medical practitioner.

5 Any officer of the police force, or headman, or any private person having reason to believe that a person is of unsound mind may apply in writing to the district court having jurisdiction over the place in which such person so suspected is found, that his state of mind be inquired into. An application by a private person should be accompanied by a certificate from a medical practitioner that the person so suspected has been under his observation, and that he believes him to be of unsound mind.

Proceedings
thereupon by the district court.

6 The district court shall thereupon, with as little delay as possible, cause such person so suspected to be of unsound mind (hereafter called suspected person) to be brought before it, and, either then or at some other day for which the court may see reason to adjourn the inquiry, proceed to view and examine the said person, and, if need be, to hear evidence, to enable it to determine as to the state of mind of the said person. If upon such view and examination, or other proof, the district court shall be satisfied that such person is or is not of unsound mind, it shall adjudicate accordingly. Provided that it shall be lawful for the court, should it deem it necessary to subject the suspected person to further observation, to remand the suspected person once or oftener for such reasonable time as shall be specified in the order of remand to the custody of the fiscal. And provided further, that it shall be the duty of the court so to remand such person in all cases where the court considers that the said person is of sound mind but two medical practitioners certify to the contrary. At the expiration of the time fixed for the remand the court shall hear evidence and find the said person of sound or of unsound mind as to it shall seem fit, and shall accordingly either discharge him or direct his further detention, as in section 8 provided. All persons so remanded shall be kept in such place as the Governor shall appoint, and shall be subject to the inspection of such persons as the Governor shall nominate.

If no relative or friend will undertake custody of such person,
he shall be sent to the lunatic asylum.

8 If any fit relative or friend is prepared to undertake to enter into sufficient security for the proper custody, care, and maintenance of the person adjudged to be of unsound mind, it shall be lawful for the court to order that the person so adjudged should be placed in his charge and under his control. But if no fit relative or friend will undertake as aforesaid, the district court shall order that such person be kept in custody until the Governor's pleasure shall be known; whereupon the Governor may issue his warrant to order the removal of such person to a lunatic asylum, and may give such further order for the safe custody of such person in such place or manner as to the Governor shall seem fit. Provided that it shall be lawful for any relative or friend who shall have undertaken to enter into security as aforesaid, or who shall have entered into such security, to surrender such person to the court, whereupon it shall be the duty of the court to order that such person be kept in custody until the Governor's pleasure shall be known. Until the Governor's warrant shall be received it shall be the duty of the fiscal to detain such person in the place appointed by the Governor for the reception of persons under remand for further observation.

9 It shall be lawful for the Governor upon any petition being presented by any guardian or relative or friend of any person of unsound mind, requesting that such person may be admitted into a lunatic asylum, and offering to enter into security for the expenses of his care and maintenance, to issue his warrant to the superintendent of such lunatic asylum to direct that such person shall, on being brought to such lunatic asylum, be examined by two medical practitioners named in such warrant, and upon their granting a certificate of such person being of unsound mind, that he shall be thereupon admitted into the lunatic asylum, to be therein taken care of and maintained until his recovery, or until application be made for his discharge by any relative or friend, as hereinafter provided, or failure of payment of the rate hereinafter required. Provided always that a bond with such security as the Governor shall require, previous to the admission of any such person, be given by his relative or friend for the due payment of such daily rate or allowance as may be fixed and declared payable by the general regulations of such lunatic asylum, on the reception therein of such person, together with all other expenses contingent upon the maintenance and care of such person during his continuance in such lunatic asylum, as well as for the removal of such person within fourteen days after due notice given in writing by the superintendent of such lunatic asylum to the said relative or friend of such person, or at his last place of abode; and in default of any of the conditions of the said bond being duly performed, the amount due under such bond shall be deemed a debt to the Crown, and shall be recoverable as other debts due to the Crown.

10 When application at any time by any guardian or relative or friend of a person of unsound mind confined in any lunatic asylum, or in the custody of the fiscal for the purpose of being transferred to a lunatic asylum (not being under any criminal warrant), shall be made to the Governor, requesting that such person may be delivered over to the care and maintenance of such relative or friend, it shall be lawful for the Governor, if he shall see fit to do so, and upon such reasonable security as may be required being given by such guardian or relative or friend to take care of and maintain such person, to direct the immediate discharge of such person. Upon the recovery of any person confined in a lunatic asylum (not being under any criminal warrant) and such recovery being certified by the medical officer in charge of such asylum, he shall be discharged by order of the Governor may, on petition of relatives, admit such persons (not being paupers) into lunatic asylum.

Proviso for bond to pay the daily allowance or rate and contingent expense of such person.

On application and security, relatives may take persons confined in lunatic asylums under their own care.

Discharge on recovery.

Proviso as to paupers.

Governor ; and in all cases where any such person, being a pauper, shall have been removed under the provisions of this Ordinance to any lunatic asylum out of the province to which he belongs, such person shall, upon being discharged from such lunatic asylum, upon his recovery, be conveyed back by Government to his own village or usual place of former residence, or be allowed such reasonable batta or sum for his travelling expenses thereto as shall be approved by the Governor under any rule or order to be issued for that purpose.

Prisoners under sentence in jail on becoming of unsound mind to be removed to lunatic asylum.

12 If any person under imprisonment in any jail shall become of unsound mind, and a report shall be made to the Governor by the fiscal of the province wherein the said jail is situated, with a certificate of the medical officer thereof, that such person is of unsound mind, it shall be lawful for the Governor to direct by warrant under his hand that such person shall be removed to the lunatic asylum named in such warrant, to be there detained until the expiration of the sentence under which such person may have been imprisoned. If any person shall become of sound mind before the expiration of his sentence, of which the period of his detention in such lunatic asylum shall be reckoned as part, the Governor shall thereupon issue his warrant to the superintendent of the lunatic asylum, directing that such person shall be removed back from thence to the jail or other place of confinement from whence he shall have been taken, or shall give such other orders thereon as to the Governor shall seem fit. And the fiscal from whose custody any person shall be removed to such lunatic asylum shall, at the time of delivering over such person, furnish the superintendent of such asylum with a copy of the sentence under which such person shall have been imprisoned.

If they recover before expiration of sentence, they shall be re-transferred to jail.

Further proceeding at expiration of sentence, if the person shall not have recovered.

13 The superintendent of any lunatic asylum to which any person shall have been removed under the provisions of the preceding clause, and who shall not have recovered, shall, at least fourteen days before the expiration of the sentence under which such person shall have been imprisoned, report the same to the district court of the district in which such lunatic asylum shall be situated. And if the said district court shall, upon inquiry, be satisfied that such person is still of unsound mind, and that it is necessary to continue to keep him under control, the said district court may order such person to be detained in the lunatic asylum until discharged therefrom by order of the Governor.

Property of persons of unsound mind to be applied for their maintenance in lunatic asylums.

14 In all cases where any person shall be kept in custody as a person of unsound mind, and shall be transferred to any lunatic asylum, the district court shall make summary inquiry into his circumstances and as to his property, and if it shall appear that such person is possessed of sufficient property which can be applied for his maintenance, the district court shall order and direct so much of the same as shall be necessary to be applied to pay and satisfy the expenses of the maintenance and care of such person according to such usual allowance or rate as may be fixed and declared to be payable under the general regulations to be made by the Governor for such lunatic asylum.

15 (1) Every order made by a district court under the provisions of "The Lunacy Ordinance, 1873," shall be subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court.

(2) Such appeal may be prosecuted by, or at the instance of (1) the person suspected or adjudged to be of unsound mind, or (2) of any relative or friend of his, or (3) of the Queen's Advocate or of any deputy Queen's advocate, or (4) of the Inspector-General of Police, or (5) of the Principal Civil Medical Officer, or (6) of the Inspector-General of Prisons, or (7) of any medical practitioner who shall have certified or testified to the state of mind of the person suspected or adjudged to be of unsound mind.

(3) The time for, the rules of, and the practice relating to the filing and forwarding of an appeal from an interlocutory order of the district court shall apply to appeals prosecuted under this enactment.

(4) The Supreme Court shall take cognizance of such appeal and deal with the same as an appeal from an interlocutory order of the district court, and make such order thereon as to the Supreme Court shall seem fit. And it shall be the duty of the district court to conform to and execute such order.

16 No stamp duty shall attach or be payable for any application, process, or other document filed in court under the provisions of this Ordinance. Nor shall it be necessary to attach schedules to processes issued to the fiscal under such provisions.

17 It shall be lawful for the Governor to nominate and appoint one or more fit and proper persons to be visitors of any lunatic asylum, and any visitor so appointed to remove and to appoint another in his stead. Every visitor so appointed shall be at liberty to enter at all times any such asylum, and to make such inquiries or examination therein as to him shall appear necessary; and visitors are hereby required to visit such asylum at least once in every month, unless prevented by illness or other sufficient cause, and from time to time to make such reports to the Colonial Secretary as may be required by order of the Governor. Any superintendent or keeper of such asylum, or other person, who shall at any time refuse admittance to any such visitor, or offer to him any hindrance or obstruction, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

18 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make from time to time such regulations as to him shall seem expedient for the management and conduct of any lunatic asylum established in this island, and of the officers and visitors thereof.

Right of appeal from order of district court given—to person affected thereby, to his relatives, to the Queen's Advocate, Inspector-General of Police, Principal Civil Medical Officer, or any medical practitioner concerned.
[§ 2, 3 of 1882]

[§ 3, 3 of 1882]

Appeal to follow rules for appeals from interlocutory orders.
[§ 4, 3 of 1882]

Duty of Supreme and district courts in case of appeal.
[§ 5, 3 of 1882]

Proceedings exempt from stamp and schedule duty.

*Tramways.No. 5 of 1873.*An Ordinance to facilitate the construction and regulate the working of Tramways in Ceylon.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Municipal Council of the town of Colombo are under treaty with the promoters of a tramway scheme for that town, and it is expedient to pass an Ordinance to give the said promoters, or any other person or company, the necessary powers and facilities to make tramways, and to construct the necessary works therefor, and regulate the working thereof: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Commencement.

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the date of the passing thereof.

Interpretation clause.

2 The following expressions in this Ordinance shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction:

- (1) "Government" shall mean the Governor of this island, acting with the advice of the Executive Council.
- (2) "Promoters" shall mean any person, corporation, or company, authorized by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to be issued by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, for that purpose, to construct and work tramways in any part of this island, and any person, corporation, or company claiming under the said promoters.
- (3) "Council" shall mean any municipal council in this island.
- (4) "Road" shall mean any carriage-way being a public highway, and the carriage-way of any bridge forming part of or leading to the same.
- (5) "Road authority" shall mean the local authority, board, council, committee, or other body or persons in whom a road is vested, or who have the power to repair such road.

Power to break up streets, &c.

3 The promoters from time to time, for the purpose of making, forming, laying down, maintaining, and renewing any tramway duly proclaimed, or any part or parts thereof respectively, may open and break up any road, subject to the following regulations:

- (1) They shall give to the road authority notice of their intention, specifying the time at which they will begin to do so, and the portion of road proposed to be opened or broken up, such notice to be given fourteen days at least before the commencement of the work;

Tramways.

- (2) They shall not open, or break up, or alter the level of any road, except under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the road authority, unless that authority refuses or neglects to give such superintendence at the time specified in the notice, or discontinues the same during the work ;
- (3) They shall pay all reasonable expenses to which the road authority is put on account of such superintendence ;
- (4) They shall not, without the consent of the road authority, open or break up at any one time a greater length than one hundred yards of any road which does not exceed a quarter of a mile in length, and in the case of any road exceeding a quarter of a mile in length, the promoters shall leave an interval of at least a quarter of a mile between any two places at which they may open or break up the road, and they shall not open or break up at any such place a greater length than one hundred yards.

4 When the promoters have opened or broken up any portion of any road, they shall be under the following further obligations ; namely,

Completion of works and re-instatement of road.

- (1) They shall, with all convenient speed, and in all cases within four weeks at the most (unless the road authority otherwise consent in writing), complete the work on account of which they opened or broke up the same, and (subject to the formation, maintenance, or renewal of the tramway) fill in the ground and make good the surface, and, to the satisfaction of the road authority, restore the portion of the road to as good a condition as that in which it was before it was opened or broken up, and clear away all surplus paving or metalling, material, or rubbish occasioned thereby ;
- (2) They shall in the meantime cause the place where the road is opened or broken up to be fenced and watched, and to be properly lighted at night ;
- (3) They shall bear or pay all reasonable expenses of the repair of the road for six months after the same is restored, as far as those expenses are increased by the opening or breaking up.

If the promoters fail to comply in any respect with the provisions of the present section, they shall for every such offence (without prejudice to the enforcement of specific performance, or to any other remedy against them) be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees, and to a further penalty not exceeding fifty rupees for each day during which any such failure continues after the first day on which such penalty is incurred.

5 The promoters shall, at their own expense, at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair, with such materials and in such manner as the road authority shall direct, and to their satisfaction, so much of any road whereon

Repair of part of road where tramway is laid.

Tramways.

any tramway belonging to them is laid as lies between the rails of the tramway and (where two tramways are laid by the same promoters in any road at a distance of not more than four feet from each other) the portion of the road between the tramways, and in every case so much of the road as extends eighteen inches beyond the rails of and on each side of any such tramway. If the promoters (with the consent of the council under treaty with whom such tramway shall have been laid down, or the Government) abandon their undertaking, or any part of the same, and take up any tramway, or any part of any tramway belonging to them, they shall with all convenient speed, and in all cases within six weeks at the most (unless the road authority otherwise consent in writing), fill in the ground and make good the surface, and, to the satisfaction of the road authority, restore the portion of the road upon which such tramway was laid to as good a condition as that in which it was before such tramway was laid thereon, and clear away all surplus paving or metalling, material, or rubbish occasioned by such work; and they shall in the meantime cause the place where the road is opened or broken up to be fenced and watched, and to be properly lighted at night. Provided always that if the promoters fail to comply with the provisions of this section, the road authority, if they think fit, may themselves at any time, after seven days' notice to the promoters, open and break up the road, and do the works necessary for the repair and maintenance or restoration of the road, to the extent in this section above mentioned, and the expense incurred by the road authority in so doing shall be repaid to them by the promoters.

Penalty for obstruction of promoters in laying out tramway.

6 If any person wilfully obstructs any person acting under the authority of any promoters in the lawful exercise of their powers in setting out or making, forming, laying down, repairing, or renewing a tramway, or defaces or destroys any mark made for the purposes of setting out the line of the tramway, or damages or destroys any property of any promoters, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty for wilful injury or obstruction to tramways, &c.

7 If any person without lawful excuse (the proof whereof shall lie on him) wilfully—

- (1) Interferes with, removes, or alters any part of a tramway or of the works connected therewith; or
- (2) Places or throws any stones, dirt, wood, refuse, or other material on any part of a tramway; or
- (3) Does or causes to be done anything in such manner as to obstruct any carriage using a tramway; or to endanger the lives of persons therein or thereon; or
- (4) Knowingly aids or assists in the doing of any such thing;

he shall for every such offence be liable (in addition to any proceeding by way of indictment or otherwise to which he may be subject) to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees.

Tramways.

8 If any person travelling or having travelled in any carriage on any tramway avoids or attempts to avoid payment of his fare, or if any person having paid his fare for a certain distance knowingly and wilfully proceeds in any such carriage beyond such distance, and does not pay the additional fare for the additional distance, or attempts to avoid payment thereof, or if any person knowingly and wilfully refuses or neglects on arriving at the point to which he has paid his fare to quit such carriage every such person shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty rupees.

Penalty on passengers practising frauds on promoters.

9 It shall be lawful for any officer or servant of the promoters of any tramway, and all persons called by him to his assistance, to seize and detain any person discovered either in or after committing or attempting to commit any such offence as in the next preceding section is mentioned, and whose name or residence is unknown to such officer or servant, until such person can be conveniently taken before a justice of the peace, or until he be otherwise discharged by due course of law.

Transient offenders.

10 No person shall be entitled to carry, or to require to be carried, on any tramway, any goods which may be of a dangerous nature, and if any person send by any tramway any such goods without distinctly marking their nature on the outside of the package containing the same, or otherwise giving notice in writing to the book-keeper or other servant with whom the same are left at the time of such sending, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence, and it shall be lawful for such promoters to refuse to take any parcel that they may suspect to contain goods of a dangerous nature, or require the same to be opened to ascertain the fact.

Penalty for bringing dangerous goods on the tramway.

11 If any person (except under a lease from or by agreement with the promoters) uses a tramway or any part thereof with carriages having flange wheels, or other wheels suitable only to run on the rail of such tramway, such person shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees.

Penalty for persons using tramways with carriages with flange wheels, &c.

12 The promoters shall be answerable for all accidents, damages, and injuries happening through their act or default or through the act or default of any person in their employment, by reason or in consequence of any of their works or carriages, and shall save harmless all road and other authorities, companies, or bodies, collectively and individually, and their officers and servants, from all damages and costs in respect of such accidents, damages, and injuries.

Promoters, &c., to be responsible for all damages.

13 Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance contained, the promoters of any tramway shall not acquire or be deemed to acquire any right other than that of user of any road along or across which they lay any tramway, nor shall anything contained in this Ordinance exempt the promoters of any Right of user only.

Tramways.

tramway, or any other person using such tramway, from the payment of such tolls as may be levied in respect of the use of such road.

Power of road authority to widen road reserved.

14 Nothing in this Ordinance shall take away or affect any power which any road authority, or the owners, commissioners, undertakers, or lessees of any railway, tramway, or inland navigation, may have to widen, alter, divert, or improve any road, railway, tramway, or inland navigation.

Power of local police to regulate traffic reserved.

15 Nothing in this Ordinance shall limit the powers of the police or of the officers of the municipal council in any district to regulate the passage of any traffic along or across any road along or across which any tramways are laid down, and such police or officers as aforesaid may exercise their authority as well on as off the tramway, and with respect as well to the traffic of the promoters as to the traffic of other persons.

Right of public to use road reserved.

16 Nothing in this Ordinance shall take away or abridge the right of the public to pass along or across every or any part of any road along or across which any tramway is laid, whether on or off the tramway, with carriages not having flanged wheels or wheels suitable only to run on the rail of the tramway.

Specification of offences and penalties to be affixed to carriages.

17 The promoters shall be bound to affix to some conspicuous part of their carriages a paper in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages, specifying the offences and penalties created by the 8th, 9th, and 10th clauses of this Ordinance, together with the table of fares.

Power of sale.

18 It shall be lawful for the promoters, with the consent of the Government, but not otherwise, to sell their undertaking to any person, corporation, or company; and when any such sale has been made, all the rights, powers, authorities, obligations, and liabilities of such promoters in respect to the undertaking sold shall be transferred to, vested in, and may be exercised by, and shall attach to the person, corporation, or company to whom the same has been sold, in like manner as if such tramway was constructed by such person, corporation, or company, and in reference to the same they shall be deemed to be the promoters.

Proceeding if promoters discontinue working of tramway, or of insolvency of promoters.

19 If at any time after the opening of any tramway for traffic the promoters discontinue the working of such tramway, or of any part thereof, for the space of three months (such discontinuance not being occasioned by circumstances beyond the control of such promoters, for which purpose the want of sufficient funds shall not be considered a circumstance beyond their control), and such discontinuance is proved to the satisfaction of the Government, or, if at such time as aforesaid, it appears to the Government that the promoters are insolvent, so that they are unable to maintain such tramway, or work the same with advantage to the public, the said Government, if they think fit, may by order declare that the powers and privileges of the promoters in respect of such tramway or the part thereof so discontinued, or of such promoters so become insolvent, shall, from the date of such order, be at an end, and thereupon the said powers of the promoters shall cease and determine. Where any such order has been made, the Government (or if the tramway shall have been laid down in a municipal town under treaty with the council thereof, such council) may, with the sanction of Government, at any time after the date of such order take up and work the tramway, or cause the same to be removed, as it may consider right in the interests of the public. If the removal of the tramway or part thereof be determined upon, the Government or council as aforesaid shall cause the same to be removed, and the promoters shall pay to such Government or council the cost of such removal and of making good the road, and any damage sustained in consequence of any such discontinuance. Such cost shall be certified by some officer authorized by the Government, whose certificate shall be final and conclusive, and shall form a first charge on the property of the promoters; and if the promoters fail to pay the amount so certified within one month after delivery to them of such certificate or a copy thereof, the road authority may, without any previous notice to the promoters (but without prejudice to any other remedy which they may have for the recovery of the amount), sell and dispose of the materials of the tramway or part of the tramway removed, either by public auction or private sale, and for such sum, and to such person, as the Government or council may think fit, and may out of the proceeds of such sale pay and reimburse themselves the amount of the cost, certified as aforesaid, and of the cost of sale; and the balance (if any) of the proceeds of the sale shall be paid over by the road authority to the promoters.

20 If the Government or council determine upon working the said tramway, as provided in the preceding section, such Government or council shall pay to the promoters the value (exclusive of any allowance for past or future profits of the undertaking or other consideration whatsoever) of all lands, buildings, works, materials, and plant of the promoters suitable to and used by them for the purposes of their undertaking; such value to be, in case of difference, determined by two arbitrators, one to be chosen by the Government or council taking over the tramway, and the other to be chosen by the promoters, and in case of difference between the arbitrators, of an umpire to be chosen by them. And for the purposes of such arbitration the provisions of "The Arbitration Ordinance, 1866" (or any other Ordinance to be hereafter enacted in its stead), so far as the same are applicable hereto, shall be deemed to be in force and applicable to such arbitration as if the same were inserted herein.

Value how to be determined.

21 Nothing in section 19 contained shall be held to prevent the Government, or, with its sanction, the council under treaty with whom any tramway shall have been laid down (if the Government shall be satisfied that it will be for the convenience of the public that it should continue to work the tramway), to assume charge of and work such tramway, at the expense of the promoters and on their account, immediately any tramway or part thereof is discontinued, or immediately the Government has reason to believe that the promoters of any tramway are insolvent, so that they are unable to maintain such tramway or work the same with advantage to the public, and until the expiration of the three months in the said section specified. And the promoters shall pay to the Government or council, as the case may be, the cost of such working, which said cost shall be certified by some authorized officer of the Government, whose certificate shall be final and conclusive, and shall form a first charge on the property of the promoters; and if the promoters fail to pay the amount so certified within one month of the delivery to them of such certificate or a copy thereof, the Government may (but without prejudice to any other remedy which they may have for the recovery of the amount) seize and sell and dispose of any property of the promoters not wanted for the working of the said tramway, and reimburse themselves the cost of the working certified as aforesaid, and of the cost of sale; and the balance, if any, of the proceeds of the sale shall be paid over by the road authority for and on account of the promoters.

Government to make regulations.

22 It shall be lawful for the Government, from time to time, to make such regulations as shall be necessary for the due working of tramways, and the traffic connected therewith, and the prevention of accidents.

*Public Defaulters.No. 6 of 1873.An Ordinance to prescribe the order in which the property of Public Defaulters may in certain cases be seized and sold.(See No. 5 of 1876.)

WHEREAS "The Police Ordinance, 1865," and the Ordinance No. 5 of 1866, entitled "An Ordinance to facilitate the recovery of moneys due as commutation of the Paddy Tax and of the performance of Labour," authorized the seizure and sale of the property of persons making default in the payment of the tax for the maintenance of the police, or the commutation of the paddy tax, or the commutation for the performance of labour, and it is expedient to prescribe the order in which such property may be seized and sold : It is therefore hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 Whenever it shall be necessary to seize and sell the property of any person making default in the payment of the said tax or commutation, it shall be the duty of the officer authorized by the said Ordinances to seize and sell property to observe the following order in carrying out such seizure and sale :

- (1) The movable property of the defaulter, wheresoever the same may be found, sufficient in the opinion of the officer seizing and selling the property to cover the amount of the tax due and the charges incurred in the recovery of the same. Provided that in the case of default in the payment of the tax due for the maintenance of the police under "The Police Ordinance, 1865," any movable property, to whomsoever the same may belong, which shall be found in or upon any house, building, land, or tenement for which such tax shall be due, may be seized and sold. But it shall not be lawful to seize any movable property which may be found in or upon any house, building, land, or tenement, in respect of which such tax shall be due, for any arrears of tax due beyond two quarters next preceding such seizure, unless such movable property shall belong to any person who was the owner or a joint owner of the said house, building, land, or tenement at the time the arrears beyond such two quarters accrued and became due ; or unless such movable property shall belong to any person who shall have occupied the said house, building, land, or tenement at the time when the said last-mentioned arrears accrued and became due.

Preamble.

Order to be observed in seizing and selling property for recovery of tax or commutation.

Movables of defaulter wherever found, and, in the case of the police tax, of any person in the premises for which tax is due.

Proviso : property of others may not be seized for arrears of tax beyond two quarters.
Exceptions.

Public Defaulters.

Rents and profits.

- (2) Failing such movable property, the rents and profits of the house, building, land, or tenement for which such tax or commutation shall be due, for a term sufficient, in the opinion of the officer seizing and selling the property, to cover the amount of the tax or commutation due and the charges incurred in the recovery of the same.

Building materials and timber.

- (3) Failing such rents and profits, the materials of any house or building standing on the land for which such tax or commutation shall be due, and the timber growing thereon, sufficient, in the opinion of the officer seizing and selling the property, to cover such tax or commutation and the charges as aforesaid. And the purchaser of such materials or timber shall be entitled to pull down or cut and remove the same within the time allowed him for that purpose by the officer carrying out such seizure and sale.

Premises on which tax is due, or a portion thereof.

- (4) Failing such building materials and timber, the house, building, land, or tenement for which such tax or commutation shall be due, or, if a portion thereof, sufficient to cover such tax or commutation and the charges as aforesaid can, in the opinion of the officer seizing and selling the property, be conveniently separated from the rest, such portion only.

Proviso.

Provided, however, that no officer shall be liable in damages by reason of his not duly observing such order, unless the person claiming such damages shall establish to the satisfaction of the court that the defaulter, or some person on his behalf, pointed out to such officer at the time he was making the seizure of such defaulter's property, free and unclaimed property sufficient to cover the amount of the tax or commutation, and charges as aforesaid, which was liable to seizure, in the first instance, according to the order hereby established, but which such officer nevertheless failed to seize.

Commencement of Ordinance.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation at the date of the passing thereof.

*Public Museum.No. 11 of 1873.*An Ordinance to provide for the establishment and regulation of a Public Museum in Colombo.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the establishment and regulation of a public museum in Colombo for the instruction and recreation of the people, and this Council has voted a sum of money for such purpose: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Museum Ordinance, 1873."

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such day as shall be named by the Governor in a Proclamation to be by him for that purpose issued.

3 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from such sums as shall be voted for such purpose by the Legislative Council, to establish a public museum in Colombo, to be called "The Colombo Museum," to be devoted to the illustration of the archæology, natural history, and products of Ceylon, and to the collection of a library of books of general information, and to appoint a curator, and to make such rules and regulations for the safety and use of the said museum, for the admission of visitors and others, for the payment of fees, and for such other matters in connection with the said museum as to them shall seem fit.

4 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from such votes as aforesaid, to purchase books, medals, coins, specimens of natural history, and other objects for the use of the said museum, and, if need be, to allow them to be exchanged for other books and other objects of interest, or to direct such books and objects to be sold, and the money arising from such sales to be employed in the purchase of other books or objects that may be proper to the said museum.

5 The curator shall lay annually before the Governor, on or before the thirty-first day of March in each year, a general report of the condition and progress of the museum during the preceding year, together with a catalogue of the various objects acquired, and also an account of all moneys received and expended during the said period. Such report, catalogue, and account shall be annually published.

6 Should the branch of the Royal Asiatic Society established in Ceylon desire to transfer their collections and library to the said museum, such of the objects and books of the said society as shall be considered by the curator as proper to the museum may be transferred to the said museum.

Members of the society to have access to museum, and the use of a room for meetings, &c. Collections so transferred to be labelled and inventoried, but kept in charge of curator.

7 In case of the transfer of the collections and books of the said branch to the said museum, the members of the said branch shall have access to the museum on all days of the week within the hours which shall be fixed by by-laws, and they shall have the use of a room for the regular meetings of the branch. The collections and books transferred shall be labelled as belonging to the branch, and an inventory shall be kept of the same, but they shall be under the sole charge of the curator, and shall not be removed from the museum excepting in pursuance of the rules and regulations made for the museum as hereinbefore provided; and should the said branch be dissolved, the books and collections belonging to it shall be considered as appertaining to the museum. Provided that the curator shall, with the consent of the Governor, have power from time to time to remove such specimens as may no longer be required, in which case they shall be re-transferred to the branch.

Rules and regulations to be published in Gazette.

8 The rules and regulations made and fees established under section 3 shall be published in the Government Gazette, and, on such publication, they shall have the same force and effect as if they were embodied herein, and shall be binding upon and observed by all parties, and taken judicial notice of by courts, judges, and magistrates. Any breach of such rules and regulations shall subject the offender to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Breaches of rules.

Fine for injuring any work of art, or object, or book, or other property of museum.

9 Any person damaging any work or object of art, or book, or other property appertaining to the said museum, shall be civilly liable to pay double the value of such work, object, book, or other property; and if the damage shall be shown to be wilful, he shall be further liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to both.

*Kataragama Pilgrimage.No. 14 of 1873.*An Ordinance relating to the annual Pilgrimage to Kataragama.

WHEREAS the collection of a large number of persons to proceed annually in a pilgrimage to Kataragama, and their march thither from different places in the island, are proving a source of danger to the pilgrims themselves, and to the inhabitants of the villages and towns through which the pilgrims pass; and the efforts of Government to induce the pilgrims and others promoting or connected with such pilgrimage to submit voluntarily to such restrictions as are necessary to prevent the spread of contagious diseases have proved ineffectual: It is therefore hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time by notification in the Government Gazette, to make orders for any of the following purposes, and to appoint officers to enforce the observance of such orders:

Government empowered to make certain orders, and to appoint officers to enforce them.

- (1) To restrict the number of persons who shall be allowed to proceed in such pilgrimage from the different parts of this island, and the period of their stay at Kataragama.
- (2) To regulate the collection of people at the different starting and halting places, and their march to and from Kataragama.
- (3) To impose such conditions and restrictions as may be necessary to promote cleanliness, and to check the breaking out and spread of infectious diseases.

2 If any person shall knowingly and wilfully disobey or contravene any such order given under the authority of the preceding section, or shall obstruct, hinder, or resist any officer appointed to enforce any such order, he shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year.

Disobedience of such orders, or obstructing officers enforcing them, made penal.

3 It shall be the duty of the officers appointed to enforce the orders given under the authority of the preceding section, and of all officers of the police force, and of all headmen, police, and peace officers generally, to aid and assist in the prevention of offences against this Ordinance or the orders made thereunder; and every officer or headman who, being made cognizant of any such offence, shall fail to make complaint thereof, or shall fail to act promptly and vigorously thereupon, or who shall wantonly exceed or abuse his authority in the execution of any act, or the exercise of any power under this Ordinance, or the orders made thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Officers to assist in enforcing orders.

Liability of such officers.

Carriages and Coaches.

Cases may be tried before police courts, though otherwise out of their jurisdiction.

4 Whereas the punishments assigned to offences under this Ordinance are beyond the jurisdiction of police courts, but it would be frequently more advantageous that such offences should be brought to trial before such courts in order that the punishment of offenders may be more prompt, even though it should be less severe, it is therefore enacted that it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace before whom the offender shall be brought to direct that any offence committed under this Ordinance, or the orders made thereunder, may be prosecuted before a police court, and such court shall thereupon take cognizance of such offence or act, and award in respect thereof so much of the punishment assigned thereto as police courts are empowered by law to award.

5th November, 1873.

No. 17 of 1873.

An Ordinance relating to Carriages let for hire, and to Coaches.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to carriages let to hire, and to coaches, and for the licensing and regulating thereof: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Ordinance to be in force on such date and at places as shall be hereafter proclaimed.

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such day and at such town or place or along such line of road as the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by any Proclamation to be by him for that purpose issued, shall from time to time appoint.

Short title.

2 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Carriage Ordinance, 1873."

Repeal of Ordinances No. 7 of 1848, No. 1 of 1853, and No. 7 of 1870.

3 The Ordinance No. 7 of 1848, "For registering Palanquens and other Carriages let to hire," the Ordinance No. 1 of 1853, "To extend to the town of Kandy the provisions of the Ordinance No. 7 of 1848," and the Ordinance No. 7 of 1870, entitled "An Ordinance to extend the provisions of the Ordinance No. 7 of 1848," are hereby repealed, except as to liabilities which shall have been incurred, acts which shall have been done, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place before this Ordinance comes into operation.

Interpretation clause.

4 The following expressions shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be anything in the context repugnant to such construction:

"Carriage" shall mean any carriage or vehicle for the conveyance of passengers for hire, but not coaches under the Ordinance No. 14 of 1865.

Carriages and Coaches.

“Coach” shall mean any mail coach, or other public conveyance by land for the conveyance of passengers or goods.

“Government agent” shall mean the government agent of the province, or the assistant government agent of the district, in any town or place in which carriages shall be licensed to be let to hire.

5 It shall not be lawful for any person to let for hire by the job to any person any carriage at any town or place or line of road in which this Ordinance shall be in force, or to convey thereby for hire any person in such carriage, or to keep the same for the purpose of letting it for hire by the job or conveying any person as aforesaid, in such town or place or line of road, unless such person shall have had a license in manner hereinafter mentioned.

No person to let for hire a carriage without license.

6 It shall be lawful for the chairman of the municipal council, acting on behalf of the said council, in any town or place or along any line of road in which such council shall be established, and, where no such council is established, for the government agent, to issue licenses to authorize any person to let or convey for hire any person in a carriage in any town or place or along any line of road in which this Ordinance shall be in force; and such license shall be subject to the following provisions :

Who shall license.

(1) Each license for a carriage or vehicle other than a hackery shall be on a stamp of ten rupees, and for a hackery five rupees : such stamp to be supplied by the party applying for the same. It shall be substantially in the form in the schedule A hereto annexed, and shall be numbered consecutively, commencing at the beginning of every year with the number one. Each license shall be in force until the thirty-first day of December in the year in or for which the same shall be granted and no longer.

Stamp on license.

Form A.
Number.

Duration.

(2) Before any license shall be granted a declaration of ownership, substantially in the form B in the schedule hereto annexed, shall be made and signed by the proprietor, or by one of the proprietors, of the carriage in respect of which such license shall be applied for.

Declaration of ownership.

(3) The license shall specify the number of persons whom such carriage may carry.

(4) The said chairman and the government agent shall, and they are hereby required to, keep a book in which shall be registered all the particulars stated in the license granted by them; and every entry in such register shall be numbered in accordance with the number of the license to which it has reference. Any authenticated copy or extract from the register shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Register of license.

Extract therefrom prima facie evidence.

Carriages and Coaches.

Power to refuse or revoke license.

7 It shall be lawful for such chairman or government agent to revoke a license after the same shall have been issued, if the proprietor of any carriage shall not keep it, or the animals drawing it, in good order, or if he shall allow the same to be driven by any person not competent to drive, or if he shall commit any breach of the provisions of this Ordinance or the by-laws made thereunder.

Numbered plates to be affixed to carriages.

8 At the time when any carriage shall be licensed the official empowered to grant the same shall issue to the applicant a plate, on which shall be legibly painted or marked a number corresponding with the number of such carriage mentioned in the license for the same, together with figures or letters denoting the year in which such license has been granted; and the plate shall be placed and fixed upon such carriage in such manner that the number and year shall be at all times plainly and distinctly visible and legible, and shall be kept and continued so fixed during the continuance of such license; and the proprietor of such carriage shall, at the expiration of the period for which the said license shall have been granted, return the said plate to the office from which he received it.

Mode of giving up licenses.

9 When any person to whom any license shall have been granted shall determine to give up such license, and to discontinue letting for hire the carriage referred to therein, such person shall give notice in writing to the office from which he obtained the same, of such his determination; and when the time for giving up such license according to such notice shall have expired, such license shall cease to be any longer in force. And such license shall be returned to the office from which the same was issued.

By-laws as to carriages and coaches.

10 By-laws for any of the following purposes may be made by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, as respects coaches; and by the municipal council in any town where such council shall exist, or by the government agent where there is no municipal council, as respects carriages:

- (1) For regulating the number of persons to be carried in any carriage or coach, the number and description of lights to be carried by such carriage or coach after dark and before daylight, and for the periodical inspection of the condition of such carriages or coaches and of the animals drawing the same.
- (2) For fixing public stands for carriages, the distances to which such carriages may be compelled to take passengers and the persons to attend at such stands, the hours within which carriages are to remain at the stands, and all other matters relating thereto.
- (3) For fixing the rates or fares, as well for time as distance, to be paid for carriages, and for securing the due publication of such fares.
- (4) For forming a table of distances, as evidence for the purpose of any fare to be charged by distance.

Carriages and Coaches.

- (5) For securing the safe custody and re-delivery of any property accidentally left in carriages or coaches, and fixing the charges to be paid in respect thereof, with power to cause such property to be sold or to be given to the finder, in the event of its not being claimed within a stated time.

11 The by-laws, when made by the municipal council or the government agent as aforesaid, shall be transmitted to the Governor, for the approval or disallowance thereof by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and such of the rules as are approved shall be published in the Government Gazette, and thereupon become as legal, valid, and effectual as if the same had been inserted herein.

Rules to be approved, amended, or disallowed by the Government.

12 Such regulations, when published, shall be binding upon and observed by all parties acting under the same; and all courts, judges, and magistrates shall take judicial notice thereof.

By-laws to be binding on all and to be taken judicial notice of.

13 Any person committing a breach of such regulations shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each breach of such regulations, and, in case of a continued breach, further fines not exceeding ten rupees for each day such breach is continued after notice to the offender. And it shall be competent for police courts to try such offences although the aggregate of the fines may exceed the sum which it is competent to police courts in the exercise of their ordinary jurisdiction to award.

Fines may be imposed for breach of by-laws.

14 Any person committing any of the following acts shall be held to be guilty of an offence, and to be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees :

Penalties for commission of certain acts.

- (1) Neglecting or omitting to specify truly in the declaration of ownership, required by section 6, article 2, the name of any person who shall be a proprietor or part proprietor of any carriage;
- (2) Neglecting or omitting to fix the plate issued under section 8 in such manner that the number thereon shall be at all times plainly and distinctly visible and legible, or to keep and continue the same so fixed during the continuance of such license;
- (3) Failing to return the plate to the office from which he received it within six days after the expiration of the period for which the license shall have been granted, or using the said plate, or suffering it to remain fixed on such carriage after such period;
- (4) Letting for hire a carriage without having a license, or after such license shall cease to be in force;
- (5) Refusing, he being a proprietor of a carriage, or having the charge or care thereof, without reasonable cause (the proof of which shall rest on him) to let a carriage to any person desirous of hiring the same, for the legal fare allowed by any regulations issued under the authority of this Ordinance, or exacting or demanding for the hire thereof more than the proper sum allowed by such regulations.

Carriages and Coaches.

(6) Employing, he being a proprietor of a carriage or coach, incompetent persons to drive a carriage or coach.

Misbehaviour of proprietor, driver, horsekeeper, or other person in charge of carriage or coach.

15 If any proprietor, driver, or horsekeeper of any carriage or coach, or any other person having the charge or care thereof, owing to intoxication or wanton or furious driving or running with such carriage, or any other wilful misconduct, injure or endanger any person in his life, limbs, or property; or if any such proprietor, driver, horsekeeper, or other person as aforesaid make use of any abusive or insulting language, or be guilty of other rude behaviour to or towards any person whomsoever, or assault or obstruct any officer of police in the execution of his duty, he shall be held liable to a fine of fifty rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding three months.

Penalty on person refusing to pay the fine, or defacing or injuring any carriage or coach.

16 If any person shall refuse or omit to pay to the proprietor or other person authorized to recover the same the sum justly due for the hire of a carriage or coach, or shall deface or in any manner injure any such carriage or coach, it shall be lawful for the police court having jurisdiction in the place in which any of the acts aforesaid were committed, upon complaint of the proprietor and summary proof of the facts, to award reasonable satisfaction to the party so complaining for his fare, or for his damages and costs, and also a reasonable compensation for his loss of time in attending to make and establish such complaint; and upon the neglect or refusal of such defaulter or offender to pay the same, the same shall be recovered as if it were a fine imposed by such court.

Proof of obtaining license or making declaration of ownership.

18 If in any proceeding under this Ordinance any question shall arise as to whether a license has been obtained, or whether any declaration of ownership has been made, the proof of having obtained such license and made such declaration shall lie on the party against whom such proceeding shall be had.

17th December, 1873.

No. 21 of 1873.

An Ordinance to provide for the collection of the sums due to the Crown on Plumbago.

(See No. 22 of 1877.)

WHEREAS a certain sum in lieu of rent is now levied on all plumbago dug on Crown lands, and a royalty is due to the Crown on all plumbago dug on private lands, and the payment of these dues is largely evaded, and it is expedient to secure the same by collecting them as a royalty at the different ports of shipment: It is enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

1 There shall be raised, levied, and paid, as a royalty upon all plumbago of the produce of this island exported beyond seas, a duty of twenty-five cents per hundredweight.

2 The person entering outwards any plumbago to be exported from any port in this island shall deliver to the collector a bill of the entry thereof, fairly written in words at length, expressing the name of the ship, and of the master, and of the place to which the mineral is to be exported, and of the person in whose name the mineral is to be entered, and the quantity and the value thereof; anything contained in the Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, entitled "An Ordinance for the general regulation of Customs in the Island of Ceylon," to the contrary notwithstanding; and shall at the same time pay down any sums which may be due as royalty upon the exportation of any such plumbago. And such person shall also deliver, at the same time, one or more duplicates of such entry, in which all sums and numbers may be expressed in figures; and the particulars to be contained in such entry shall be written and arranged in such form and manner, and the number of such duplicates shall be such as the collector shall require; and such entry, being duly signed by the collector, shall be the warrant for examination and shipment of such plumbago.

3 If any plumbago, which is subject to any sums due as royalty in respect of exportation, shall be laden, or waterborne to be laden, on board any ship before due entry shall

No. 1 of 1874.An Ordinance to control recruiting in Ceylon for the service of Foreign States.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Governor in Council should exercise full control over recruiting in Ceylon for the service of foreign states: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Title of Ordinance.

1 This Ordinance may be called "The Foreign Recruiting Ordinance, 1874," and shall come into force on the passing thereof.

Definition of "foreign state."

2 In this Ordinance "foreign state" includes any person or persons exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of government in or over any country, colony, province, or people beyond the limits of Ceylon.

Governor empowered to prohibit or restrict attempt at recruiting.

3 If any person obtain or attempt to obtain recruits for the service of any foreign state in any capacity, the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may by Proclamation either prohibit such person from so doing, or permit him so to do, subject to conditions which the Governor in Council as aforesaid may think fit.

Governor empowered to place general prohibition or restriction on recruiting.

4. The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may from time to time, by Proclamation, either prohibit recruiting for the service of any foreign state, or impose upon such recruiting any conditions which he thinks fit.

Branch Roads.

5 The Governor may, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation, rescind or vary any order made under this Ordinance in such manner as he thinks fit. Power to rescind or vary orders.

6 Whoever, in violation of any such prohibition or condition as aforesaid :— Penalties.

(a) Induces or attempts to induce any person to accept or to agree to accept, or to proceed to any place with a view to obtaining, any commission or employment in the service of any foreign state ; or

(b) Knowingly aids in the engagement of any person so induced by forwarding or conveying him, or by advancing money, or in any other way whatever ; shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding seven years, or to fine to such amount as the court by which such offence shall be tried shall think fit, or to both.

7th November, 1874.

No. 6 of 1874.

An Ordinance to amend and consolidate the Law relating to the construction, upkeep, and repair of Branch Roads, and recovery of the sums assessed therefor.

(See No. 28 of 1892.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and consolidate the Ordinance relating to the construction, upkeep, and repair of branch roads : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows : Preamble.

Preliminary.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as “The Branch Roads Ordinance, 1874.” Short title.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on a day to be named by the Governor in a Proclamation to be by him for that purpose issued.* Commencement.

3 In the construction and for the purposes of this Ordinance the word “proprietor” shall mean the sole or any joint owner or lessee of an estate, and the word “estate” shall mean a tract of land exceeding twenty acres, cultivated or uncultivated, belonging to or held by one person or several persons, and forming a separate or distinct property. Provided that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be held to apply to proprietors of paddy lands or land cultivated with paddy or other grain. Interpretation.

* Proclaimed the 4th day of February, 1875.

Branch Roads.

Repeal of former Ordinances.

4 The Ordinances enumerated in the schedule A hereto annexed are hereby repealed, except as to liabilities which shall have been incurred, acts which shall have been done, and all proceedings or matters which shall have taken place before this Ordinance comes into operation.

II.—Construction of Branch Roads.

Application for construction of road.

[§ 2, 28 of 1892]

5 The proprietors of any two or more estates situated in the same district, to which there is no available cart road leading from some convenient principal thoroughfare, may make application in writing to the provincial road committee of the province in which such estates are situated, that the provisions of this Ordinance be extended to the said district, and such application shall set forth, so far as the same may be ascertained, the following particulars :

Particulars to be set out in application.

- (1) The name of the said district ;
- (2) The names of all the estates therein ;
- (3) The names of the proprietors or, if absent from the island, of the resident manager or superintendent, and of the agents, if any, of each estate ;
- (4) The acreage of each estate, so far as is known, with the extent of land under cultivation ;
- (5) The estimated length in miles of the road required to be made to connect the said estates with the most convenient principal thoroughfare.

If estates within two provinces, the Governor to choose the province, the committee of which shall be empowered to act.

If the estates in any district fall within two provinces, it shall be lawful for the Governor to choose the province, the provincial road committee of which shall be empowered to act as provided by this Ordinance ; and upon such choice being made and published in the Government Gazette, the provincial road committee so chosen shall have power to act as hereinafter provided.

Provincial road committee to keep a register of names of proprietors and agents.

6 The provincial road committee shall keep a register of the names of the proprietors and agents (if any) for the time being of all estates in districts which shall have been brought under this Ordinance, and upon any estate being transferred to a new proprietor or the agents of the estate changed, it shall be the duty of the provincial road committee to record such transfer or change in the said register. Provided always that the duty of notifying every such transfer or change shall lie on the transferee or his agents, and until such transfer or change, as the case may be, shall have been notified to the provincial road committee by the proprietor or agents of the estate, all notices to be sent under this Ordinance by the provincial road committee to the proprietor or agents of the estate shall be deemed duly sent if sent to the late proprietor or agents, as the case may be.

Duty of notifying transfers or changes of agency to provincial road committee.

The provincial committee to define limits of district upon day appointed ;

7 On receipt of such application the said provincial road committee shall by publication in three consecutive numbers of the Government Gazette, and by such other means as they may think necessary, give notice of their intention to define the limits of the district, the estates in which will—if the proposal for the construction of such branch road under the provisions of this Ordinance be assented to by the proprietors of two-thirds of the acreage in such district—be assessed for the construction and maintenance of such road. In such notice the said committee shall appoint the time and place at which they will take evidence if necessary, and receive and consider objections, and the said committee, after making such inquiry as they may deem requisite, and considering any such objection, shall proceed to define the limits of such district; or, if need be, shall adjourn such meeting as often as they consider necessary to any day or days to be fixed by them, when they shall upon such adjourned meeting define the limits of such district. And it shall be competent to the said committee from time to time, if occasion arise, to alter and vary such limits so as to include such estates as may have been newly opened, or may have been inadvertently or otherwise excluded, or, if they consider just, to exclude any estate which may have been erroneously included. Provided, however, that the said committee shall, by publication in three consecutive numbers of the Gazette and by such other means as they may think necessary, give notice of their intention to alter and vary the limits of any district, and shall in such notice appoint the time and place for hearing objections, if any, in the same manner as is herein provided for in case of original definition of district; and the limits so altered shall thereupon be the limits of such district, as if they had been originally defined, and the estates included within such limits, altered as aforesaid, shall become bound and be liable to be assessed as if they had been originally included for the construction of such road and for the upkeep and repair thereof.

8 Upon the limits of the district being defined as aforesaid, the chairman of the said committee shall transmit to the proprietor (or, in case of his absence from the colony, to the resident manager or superintendent, or if there be no resident manager or superintendent, to the agent, if any, in this colony, of the proprietor) of every estate within the limits of such district so defined as aforesaid, a requisition calling upon him to declare in writing within such time as shall be therein specified, whether he desires that the provisions of this Ordinance should be extended to such district for the purpose of the construction therein of a branch road. Such requisition shall be in form B of the schedule to this Ordinance, or as near thereto as may be. If there be no known agent the chairman shall cause such requisition to be affixed to some conspicuous part of the estate, and published in three consecutive numbers of the Gazette. If no answer be received at the office of the said committee within the time limited by such requisition, the person to whom the same was forwarded shall be deemed to have assented to the proposal referred to therein.

9 If it shall appear to the said committee, from the replies to such requisition or otherwise, that the proprietors of at least two-thirds of the acreage in any such district are desirous that the provisions of this Ordinance should extend or at any adjourned meeting.

Committee empowered to vary or alter limits, if occasion arise.

Proprietors to be called upon to declare whether they desire to bring district under the Ordinance.

If no agent, requisition to be affixed.

If proprietors of two-thirds of acreage assent, committee to forward application to Governor, with report.

Director of Public Works to report and submit estimates for construction.

Governor may propose a vote of moiety of cost out of public funds : and, if voted, proprietors become liable for the other moiety.

Chairman to convene meeting for election of local committees.

and be applied to the said district for the purpose of constructing therein a branch road, the said committee shall forthwith forward the application to Government, together with their report as to the necessity for the said road, and as to the direction and terminus which they recommend as best adapted for the general convenience of the district, and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Governor to direct the Director of Public Works to examine the said district and to report as to the best mode of giving effect to the proposal, and to frame and submit an estimate of the probable cost of properly constructing and metalling the proposed road in such sections as in that behalf provided in clause 18.

10 Upon receipt of the report of the Director of Public Works, and of the estimate prepared by him as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Governor, if to him, with the advice of the Executive Council, it shall appear expedient so to do, to propose such estimate in the Ordinance for making provision for the contingent expenditure of the colony for the ensuing year, or for any year thereafter, to be brought before the Legislative Council to be dealt with as any other estimate so proposed. And if the estimate so proposed be approved by the Legislative Council, and a sum of money equal to one moiety of the total cost of constructing the proposed road be duly voted by the Legislative Council, the proprietors of all the estates within the limits of such district so defined as aforesaid shall become and be severally bound and liable for their contribution, equal to the other moiety, after the rates to be determined by an assessment as hereinafter provided.

III.—Provincial Road and Local Committees.

11 Upon a vote being passed by the Legislative Council for a moiety of the cost of constructing the said road, and the same communicated to the provincial road committee, the chairman thereof shall, by notice in three consecutive numbers of the Government Gazette, and such other means of publication as he may think necessary, convene at some place within the said district a general meeting of the proprietors or resident managers of the estates within the said district to elect a local committee, which shall consist of not less than three or more than five members, to perform the duties imposed upon such committee by this Ordinance. The general meeting so required for the election of the said committee shall consist of such number of proprietors or resident managers as shall represent not less than two-thirds of the acreage within the district.

12 At such general meeting it shall be lawful for the proprietors, or their representatives present thereat, to elect the persons who are to act as members of such committee. The chairman of the provincial committee, if present, or if he be absent, such proprietor or resident manager as the meeting shall elect, shall act as chairman at such meeting, and it shall be lawful for the meeting, if need be, to adjourn to any other time or place. All questions and resolutions shall be determined by a majority of votes of the proprietors or their representatives as aforesaid. In case of equality of votes the chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his own vote. And if any question shall arise at such meeting as to the right of any person to vote thereat, or the mode of proceeding for the election of persons to serve as members of such committee, the chairman shall determine the same, and his decision shall be final and conclusive. The minutes of such meeting shall be transmitted by the chairman to the provincial committee, with the names of the persons elected as members of the local committee, and the provincial committee shall cause such names to be published in the Government Gazette.

13 The persons elected to act as members of such local committee shall hold office for two years, and shall be eligible for re-election at the end of that term. In case of any member resigning, dying, or leaving the island, or becoming incapable to act, the other members for the time being may, in the manner provided in section 15 of this Ordinance, elect another proprietor or resident manager to serve in his place for the remainder of the term for which the member so resigning, dying, or leaving the island, or becoming incapable to act, was elected.

Members to hold office for two years.

Proceedings in case of vacancy.

14 At the expiration of every two years from the appointment of the first local committee, the chairman of the provincial road committee shall convene, in manner provided in section 11 of this Ordinance, a meeting of proprietors or resident managers for the election of the new local committee. At such meeting the chairman of the provincial road committee, if present, or, if he be absent, such proprietor or resident manager as the meeting shall elect, shall act as chairman, and in all other respects the proceedings at such meeting shall be governed by the provisions of section 12 of this Ordinance.

Biennial meeting for election of local committee.

15 The local committee so elected shall appoint one of its members as chairman, who shall hold office during the said term of two years; and in case of any vacancy the said committee shall elect another member to act as chairman. And it shall be the duty of the said chairman so appointed to convene, by notice in three consecutive numbers of the Government Gazette, and by such other means as he may deem necessary, a meeting of the members, whenever required by the Government or by the provincial road committee, appointing the time and place for such meeting. The chairman, or, if he be absent, such other member of the local committee as the meeting shall elect, shall preside at every such meeting, and shall duly record the proceedings of such meetings and forward the same to the provincial committee.

Appointment of chairman.

16 All acts whatsoever authorized or required to be done by any local committee may and shall be done by the majority of members of such committee present at any meeting convened as aforesaid, or at any adjournment of such meeting; three of them to form a quorum. Provided that when the votes of the members present shall be equally divided, the chairman shall, beside his vote as a member, have a casting vote.

Majority of members to decide all questions.

If members not elected, provincial committee to perform duties imposed upon local committee.

17 If the proprietors or resident managers of estates in any district fail to elect a committee for the district at the meeting convened for that purpose or at the adjourned meeting, or if the members elected shall fail to perform the duties imposed upon them by this Ordinance, the same may be performed by the provincial road committee.

Assessment.

Local committee to convene meetings to determine the assessment of estates, and report to provincial committee.

18 The local committee shall so soon thereafter as they may be required so to do by the provincial road committee, convene, by notice in three consecutive numbers of the Government Gazette, and by such other means as they may deem necessary, a meeting of the proprietors or resident managers of the estates within the said district, at some specified time and place within the district, and the said local committee shall thereat or at any adjourned meeting, after hearing objections, if any, and taking evidence, if necessary, determine and make report to the provincial road committee, on—

- (1) The sections into which the road is to be divided for construction assessments;
- (2) The sections into which the road is to be divided for upkeep assessments;
- (3) The estates which in their opinion are interested in and will use each section of the road or of any part thereof;
- (4) The acreage or reputed acreage of the land belonging to each estate;
- (5) The names of the proprietors, resident managers, or superintendents, and of the agents.

Proviso.

Provided, however, that the sections into which the road is divided for construction assessment shall in no case exceed half a mile in length, that the sections into which the road is divided for upkeep assessment shall in no case exceed one mile in length, and that an estate using any portion of a section shall be assessed for the whole of such section.

Provincial committee to determine objections to assessment proposed by local committee, and to determine proportion due by each estate.

19 On receipt of such report, the provincial committee shall cause a notice to be published in three consecutive numbers of the Government Gazette, and made public by such other means as they may think necessary, appointing time and place for hearing objections, and after hearing such objections, if any, the said committee shall adopt, alter, modify, or confirm such report, and shall proceed to assess the proportion due by each estate by dividing the sum of money equal to a moiety of the total cost of constructing each section of the proposed road by the total number of acres of the estates which in their opinion are interested in and will use such section (subject to the exception in section 20 specified), and thus apportioning the amount due upon and for each acre. And the rate so assessed by the said committee shall (subject to the appeal hereinafter provided) be binding and conclusive on all proprietors of estates in such district. And the chairman of such committee shall thereupon transmit to the proprietor of each estate (or, in case of his absence from the colony, to the resident manager or superintendent, or, if there be no resident manager or superintendent, to the agent, if any, in this colony, of the proprietor) a requisition, calling upon him to pay into the colonial treasury, within such time as shall be therein specified, the amount of the contribution due by him to make up the moiety payable by the proprietors. Such requisition shall be in the form C of the schedule to this Ordinance, or as near thereto as may be. If there be no known agent, the chairman shall cause such requisition to be affixed in some conspicuous part of the estate. The chairman shall also cause a notice to be published in three consecutive numbers of the Government Gazette, and made public by such other means as he may think necessary, specifying the estates which will have to contribute towards the construction of the proposed road, the sum at which each estate is assessed, and the time within which the several contributions are to be paid into the colonial treasury.

Publication of assessment in Gazette.

20 If by reason of any estate, or any portion not less than half of the entire extent thereof, being obviously unfit for cultivation, or having been cultivated and abandoned, or from any other cause, it shall seem to the provincial committee right to exempt such estate or portion thereof from the assessment, it shall be lawful for such committee to do so, and to proceed in its assessment as if there was no such land in the district. Provided that to entitle a proprietor to such exemption, he or some person representing him shall claim the same at the time and place appointed by the provincial committee for hearing objections of proprietors or of agents to estates included within the limits of the district, as provided by section 7, and shall at his own cost and expense satisfy the committee, by such proof as it shall call for, that he is entitled to such exemption. Provided further, that should the proprietor of any such estate or portion thereof, or any person claiming under him, bring such estate or portion thereof into cultivation afterwards, and use the road for the purposes of or with a view to such cultivation, it shall be competent for such provincial committee to call upon such proprietor or person to pay the sum which he would have been liable to pay had such estate or portion thereof not been exempted from the original assessment, or from any subsequent assessment for upkeep and repair, and in default of his paying the same to proceed to recover such sum in the manner herein provided for the recovery of sums assessed. Provided further, that should the proprietor of any estate, who had claimed and obtained exemption upon the ground of such road not being the proper outlet, or other cause, or any person on his behalf, use such road, it shall be competent for such provincial committee to include such Provincial committee to exempt from assessment lands obviously unfit for cultivation, or lands which had been cultivated and abandoned.

Proviso: that the exemption should be promptly claimed.

estate within the limits of the district from which it had been excluded by reason of such claim, and to call upon such proprietor, or any person claiming on his behalf, to pay any amount not exceeding double the sum which he would have been liable to pay had such estate not been exempted from the original assessment for construction, and also any sum not exceeding double the amount of all rates and assessments which he would have been liable to pay for the upkeep and repair of such road, and in default of his paying the same to proceed to recover such sum in the manner herein provided for the recovery of sums assessed.

Application of moneys recovered.

21 Moneys recovered under the preceding section shall be applied as follows, viz. :

Moneys recovered as construction assessment moneys shall be divided amongst the proprietors (at the date of such recovery) of estates which have previously paid construction assessment, in shares proportionate to the sums so previously paid.

Moneys recovered as upkeep or repair assessment moneys shall be retained by the provincial committee and applied towards the future upkeep and repair of the roads.

IV.—Completion and Repair of Branch Roads.

If amount of first estimate prove insufficient, further estimates are to be made, and the rates payable by the estates to be assessed in like manner as the original rates.

22 If, after any road shall have been commenced under the provisions of the Ordinances hereby repealed, or of the present Ordinance, the estimate originally made shall prove insufficient for properly constructing and metalling the same, the estates in the district (including any which may have been opened since the original assessment) shall become and be held liable for a moiety of the further sum or sums required to complete the road, and it shall be lawful for the Governor to direct the Director of Public Works to frame and submit further estimates for the purpose aforesaid. And on such further estimates being prepared, the provincial committee shall proceed, once or oftener, if necessary, to assess the proportion due by the estates in each section of the road, to make up the moiety of such further estimates, and to take the further proceedings prescribed for the original assessment of the proportion due by each estate under section 19 of this Ordinance. And the rate or rates assessed by such committee shall, subject to the appeal hereinafter provided, be binding and conclusive on all proprietors of estates in the districts, and shall be recovered as prescribed herein, and applied, with the other moiety to be contributed by the Government (either by labour under "The Thoroughfares Ordinance, 1861," or money from the treasury), for the completion of the said road.

Further rates for repairs or improvements.

23 Whenever it shall be found necessary at any time to repair or improve any road constructed under the provisions of the Ordinances hereby repealed, or of this Ordinance, the estates in the district (including any which may have been opened since the original assessment) shall become and be held liable for a moiety of the sum or sums required for making the necessary repairs and improvements (provided that the amount of tolls which may be realized on such road shall be deducted from the moiety assessed on the estates), and it shall be lawful for the Governor to direct the Director of Public Works to frame and submit one or more estimates for such repairs. And on such estimates being prepared, the provincial committee shall proceed to assess the proportion due by the estates in each section of the road to make up the moiety of such estimates, less the tolls as aforesaid, and shall take the further proceedings prescribed for the original assessment of the proportion due by each estate under the 19th section of this Ordinance. And the rate or rates so assessed by the committee shall, subject to the appeal hereinafter provided, be binding and conclusive on all proprietors of estates in the district, and shall be recovered as prescribed herein, and applied, with the other moiety to be contributed by the Government (either by labour under "The Thoroughfares Ordinance, 1861," or any other Ordinance to be in that behalf hereinafter enacted, or by money from the treasury), for the purpose of repairing the said road.

V.—Recovery of Sums assessed.

24 If any proprietor or resident manager shall neglect or refuse to pay his proportion of the said moiety, for any of the purposes above specified, within the time fixed for the payment of the same, or shall be in default in the payment of the sums assessed under the Ordinances hereby repealed, or any of them, it shall be lawful for the provincial committee to order proceedings to be taken for the recovery of the same. When the provincial committee shall order proceedings for the recovery of the sum for which any estate shall have been assessed, it shall be lawful for the chairman of such committee, or any person authorized by writing under his hand, to seize and to sell at his discretion, once or oftener, all the crops, live stock, and implements found on such estate, or any other movable property whatsoever belonging to the proprietor, until the full amount due by such estate (including all interest, costs, and charges payable under sections 26, 27, and 28 of this Ordinance) shall be recovered. If there be no crop, live stock, and implements on such estate, or other movable property belonging to the proprietor of the estate in default as aforesaid, or if there shall not be sufficient to realize the sum due by such estate, it shall be lawful for such chairman or other person as aforesaid to cause the timber on the said estate to be cut or the materials of the buildings erected thereon to be removed. And unless the sum due shall be sooner paid, with the interest, costs, and charges as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such chairman, or any person as aforesaid, to sell the property so seized by public auction at any time after thirty days from date of seizure.

Order in which property is to be seized for the payment of assessment moneys.

Branch Roads.

If above insufficient estate may be sold subject to mortgage.

25 If, after seizing and selling property enumerated in the preceding section, the assessment upon the estate shall still remain unsatisfied, it shall be lawful for the chairman of the provincial committee, or the person authorized as aforesaid, to seize the estate or any other immovable property belonging to the proprietor of the estate in default, and sell the same, subject to the existing mortgages and incumbrances thereon, after two months' notice from the date of seizure, but the said committee shall not have the power to take in execution or seize the person of the proprietor in default for the assessment due, or for any balance thereon.

Proviso.

Provided that in the case of a proprietor absent from the island, and not represented by any person therein, the sale shall not take place without notice of sale being published in the Government Gazette for six months previous to the sale, and being affixed in some conspicuous part of the estate.

If the estate cannot be sold, then deficiency to be charged against other proprietors.

If the estate or other property cannot be sold for want of bidders, or from any other cause, or if the same be sold but the proceeds are insufficient to satisfy the assessment and all expenses payable under section 28 of this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the provincial committee to charge the sum still remaining due proportionately against the other proprietors and estates in the district under assessment for the construction and repair of the branch road therein, and, if need be, to enforce the payment thereof as if such proprietors and estates were originally liable therefor. Provided that the right and duty of the provincial committee to recover from the original defaulter, should it subsequently become possible to do so, shall in no way be affected by its proceeding against such other proprietors and estates as aforesaid. And in case the provincial committee shall subsequently recover any moneys from such original defaulter, such moneys, in so far as they may have been so recovered in respect of construction assessment, shall be divided among the proprietors (at the date of such recovery) of the other estates, which paid in lieu of such original defaulter, in proportion to the sum so paid; and so far as such moneys may have been so recovered in respect of upkeep or repair assessment, they shall be retained by the provincial committee and applied towards the future upkeep and repair of the road.

Proviso.

Defaulting proprietors made liable in interest.

26 If any proprietor shall neglect or refuse to pay his proportion of the money due by proprietors for the construction, completion, or repair of branch roads under the said Branch Roads Ordinances hereby repealed, or of the present Ordinance, he shall be liable to pay interest after the rate of nine per centum per annum from the time fixed for such payment, and such interest shall, with the principal and other due costs and charges, be recovered from him in manner prescribed for the recovery of sums assessed.

Keeping a person in charge of property seized.

27 It shall be lawful for the person making the seizure to place and keep a person in possession of the property so seized as aforesaid, pending such sale. Any movable property so seized, as aforesaid, may be removed for safe custody, pending the sale thereof, to such place as the person directing the seizure may think fit.

Branch Roads.

28 It shall be lawful for the chairman of the provincial committee, or any person authorized by him as aforesaid, to demand, take, and receive from the person by whom money may be due as assessment, or from the owner or any joint owner of any property which may be lawfully seized for such non-payment as aforesaid, the under-mentioned expenses :

Costs and charges of seizure and sale.

- (1) The cost of seizure, removal, custody, and sale of any property sold under sections 24 and 25 of this Ordinance.

29 In the event of a sale of property seized, the chairman of the provincial committee at whose instance such seizure was made shall, after deducting the amount due by the defaulter, and also all due costs and charges (which said costs and charges such chairman is hereby authorized to retain), restore the overplus arising from such sale, if any there be, to the owner or joint owner of the property sold.

Return of overplus to owner.

30 If property be sold for non-payment as aforesaid, a transfer in form D in the schedule hereto annexed, or as near thereto as may be, signed by the chairman, shall be sufficient to vest the right, title, and interest of the defaulting proprietor in the purchaser, any law or custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Such transfer shall be liable to stamp duty as a conveyance, and to any registration or other charges authorized by law, such duty and charges being payable by the purchaser.

Certificate of sale.

31 The provincial committee, the chairman of which shall cause property to be seized and sold as aforesaid, shall, in the execution of the authority entrusted to them by this Ordinance, be civilly responsible in damages to any person who shall be aggrieved by reason of any irregularity of proceeding or abuse of authority on the part of such chairman as aforesaid, or on the part of any person specially authorized by him as aforesaid. Provided, however, that no action for such damages shall be brought against the provincial committee or any of its officers after the expiration of three months from the time when the cause of action shall have arisen.

Provincial committees liable in damages.

Proviso.

VI.—General Provisions.

32 Any person aggrieved by any decision or order of the provincial committee in respect of the definition of districts under section 7 of this Ordinance, or the assessment of estates under sections 19, 22, or 23, or any decision or order made under sections 20 or 33 of this Ordinance, may apply to the Governor for relief at any time within twenty-one days after such decision or order shall have been notified to him. It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, upon such application, to make or direct further inquiry, and to confirm the decision or order of the provincial committee, or to alter or modify the same. Provided always that no such appeal as aforesaid shall lie until the person aggrieved as aforesaid shall have paid (subject to the decision of the appeal) any moneys which he may have been required to pay by the decision or order in question.

Costs.

33 If costs shall be incurred in any suit, other than that provided by section 31, brought by or against the committee for anything done under the provisions of this Ordinance, or if a survey be indispensable to enable the provincial committee to act, and such committee shall therefore order one to be made, such costs and the expenses of such survey shall be payable by the proprietors of the estates in the district in proportion to the acreage of such estates. And if any proprietor refuse or neglect to pay his proportion when required to do so, the chairman shall recover the same in the manner and subject to the provisions herein prescribed under the fifth division of this Ordinance relating to "Recovery of Sums assessed."

The grant of the moiety may be made subject to conditions.

34 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make the grant of the moiety voted by the Legislative Council subject to such regulations for ensuring the due outlay and appropriation of the contribution, as well from the public funds as by the proprietors, as the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall think-fit from time to time to establish, either specially in each case or generally applicable to all cases. Provided that no warrant shall be issued to the Treasurer for the payment of any such sum of money, or of any part thereof, from the colonial treasury, nor shall any sum be issued by him from the said treasury, until the other moiety of the estimated cost of constructing or repairing such road, or so much of such moiety as the Governor may think necessary, shall have been deposited in the said treasury by or on behalf of the proprietors of such estates as aforesaid.

Moiety not to be paid by Government till deposit of their moiety or part thereof by proprietors.

Roads for which such grants-in-aid are made to be deemed public roads.

35 Every road towards the construction or repair of which any money shall be issued from the colonial treasury, under the authority of this Ordinance, shall be deemed and taken to be a public thoroughfare to all intents and purposes.

Tolls on branch roads.

36 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to direct that tolls not exceeding those specified in the Ordinance No. 14 of 1867, entitled "An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Law in respect to the collection of Tolls," and No. 9 of 1871, entitled "An Ordinance to amend 'The Tolls Ordinance, No. 14 of 1867,'" or in any Ordinance to be in that behalf hereafter enacted, shall be levied on any of the roads which shall have been made or completed or repaired under the provisions of the Ordinances hereby repealed, or which shall be made or completed or repaired under the provisions of this Ordinance, and to determine at what place the tolls so levied shall be collected, and the places from time to time in like

*Warehouse Warrants.No. 1 of 1875.An Ordinance to amend the Law as to Warehouse Warrants.(See No. 17 of 1869.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Ordinance No. 1 of 1871, entitled "An Ordinance to amend the Customs Ordinance, No. 17 of 1869, and to provide for the issue of Warehouse Warrants:" It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

No goods warehoused in Government or bonded warehouses to be delivered, save on surrender of the warrant, and no warrant once surrendered to be re-issued.

1 No goods warehoused in any Queen's warehouse or other place of deposit provided by Government, or in any bonded warehouse, shall be delivered out of such Queen's warehouse or other place of deposit provided by Government, or bonded warehouse, except upon surrender of the warrant in which such goods are enumerated, to the collector of customs or to the keeper of such bonded warehouse, as the case may be; every such warrant, after being so surrendered, shall be defaced, and no such warrant, after being so surrendered, shall be re-issued.

But where partial delivery taken, a new warrant may be issued in respect of the goods remaining undelivered.

Provided that whenever the holder or holders of any warrant issued under the 1st or 3rd sections of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1871, or under this present provision, shall be desirous of obtaining delivery of a part only of the goods enumerated in such warrant, it shall be lawful for the collector of customs or keeper of the bonded warehouse, as the case may be, upon the surrender of such warrant, to issue to the holder or holders by whom the same was surrendered a new warrant in respect of the goods remaining undelivered.

Penalty on infringement of section 1.

2 Any person who shall deliver any goods warehoused as mentioned in the first section of this Ordinance, out of the place in which the same shall have been so warehoused, except upon the surrender, as therein mentioned, of the warrant in which such goods are enumerated, and any person who shall re-issue any warrant surrendered as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Stamp duty on warrants altered to five cents.

3 The fourth section of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1871 is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof it is hereby enacted as follows:

Every warrant, whether issued by a collector of customs or by the keeper of a bonded warehouse, shall bear a stamp duty of five cents, and such duty shall be denoted by adhesive stamps to be provided by the Commissioner of Stamps for that purpose, and to be affixed to such warrants. And such warrants shall be liable, in all matters relating to stamp duty, to the provisions of the Ordinances relating to stamp duties, so far as the same shall be applicable thereto.

Assessment Rates.

4 The power of making regulations created by the 8th section of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1871 shall be deemed to extend to the making from time to time of regulations prescribing new forms for the warrants mentioned in this Ordinance and the Ordinance No. 1 of 1871, and the manner in which such warrants are to be defaced as hereinbefore mentioned.

Power to make regulations as to form of warrants and manner of defacing.

5 This Ordinance and the Ordinances No. 17 of 1869 and No. 1 of 1871 shall be read and construed as if they formed one Ordinance.

This Ordinance and the Ordinances No. 17 of 1869 and No. 1 of 1871 to be deemed one.

No. 3 of 1875.†

An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 16 of 1865 in respect of the Assessment of certain Rates.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the rates authorized by the Ordinance No. 16 of 1865 should be levied on the gross annual value of the properties therein specified in that behalf: It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

2 For the purposes of the 34th section of the Ordinance No. 16 of 1865 the "bonâ fide annual value" of all houses, buildings, lands, and tenements, as a basis of rating, shall be the gross annual value, without any deduction for expenses, repairs, or other expenses for maintenance or upkeep.

Basis of rating under Ordinance No. 16 of 1865, section 34, to be gross annual value.

3 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Municipal and Police Assessment Ordinance."

Title of Ordinance.

4 This Ordinance shall come into operation from the date of the passing thereof.

*Validity of Deeds.No. 5 of 1875.

An Ordinance to declare the validity of certain Writings, Deeds, and Instruments purporting to be executed in conformity with the provisions of Ordinance No. 17 of 1852, and to amend the said Ordinance.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Ordinance No. 17 of 1852, entitled "An Ordinance to make further provision touching the execution of certain Deeds and Instruments," provides for the execution of certain writings, deeds, and instruments before officers other than notaries, in the manner therein prescribed, and divers writings, deeds, and instruments have since the passing thereof been executed in conformity with its provisions, except that they have been certified under the hand only, and not under the hand and seal of such officers; and whereas doubts have arisen as to the validity of such writings, deeds, and instruments, which it is expedient should be removed; and whereas it is also expedient that writings, deeds, and instruments hereafter to be executed should not be invalidated merely by reason of their having been certified under the hand only and not under the hand and seal of such officers, if in other respects executed in conformity with the provisions of the said Ordinance: It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Writings, &c., otherwise duly executed under the provisions of the Ordinance No. 17 of 1852 declared valid notwithstanding the want of the seal.

1 Every writing, deed, or instrument which shall have been heretofore or shall be hereafter otherwise duly executed in conformity with the provisions of the said Ordinance, shall be deemed and is hereby declared to be valid and effectual to all intents and purposes, so far as relates to the execution thereof, notwithstanding that the same shall not have been certified under the seal of the district judge, commissioner of the court of requests, or justice of the peace specially authorized by the Governor to act in that behalf. Provided that nothing herein contained shall give any validity to any writing, deed, or instrument which may be invalid or ineffectual for any reason other than that arising from the same not being certified under such seal aforesaid, or to any writing, deed, or instrument which has heretofore been declared invalid or ineffectual by any competent court of law, in consequence of the same not having been certified under such seal as aforesaid.

*Colombo Harbour.No. 6 of 1875.

An Ordinance to repeal Ordinance No. 4 of 1874, and to provide for the improvement of the Colombo Harbour.

(See No. 2 of 1876.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal Ordinance 4 of 1874, intituled "The Colombo Harbour Ordinance, 1874," and to make provision for borrowing money from the Public Works Loan Commissioners in accordance with the terms of 37 and 38 Victoria, ch. 4: It is enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Colombo Harbour Ordinance, 1875."

2 Ordinance No. 4 of 1874 is hereby repealed.

3 It shall be lawful for the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice of the Executive Council, to borrow from the Public Works Loan Commissioners in England, for the purpose of improving the harbour of Colombo, upon such terms as those Commissioners may require, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole two hundred and fifty thousand pounds sterling; the amount so borrowed and the interest thereon being charged on and made payable out of the general revenue of this island.

4 The Governor of Ceylon may advance out of the general revenue of the island such sums, not exceeding Rs. 250,000 at any one time, chargeable against the loan to be made by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, as may be required for the purpose of improving the harbour of Colombo; and the instalment of the said loan, which is received next after such payment, shall be applied in the first instance in repaying the sum so advanced.

5 It shall be lawful for the Governor to issue his warrant upon the Treasury from time to time for the payment in sterling, to the Public Works Loan Commissioners, of such an annuity or annuities as will repay the whole sums advanced by the said Commissioners, with interest on the principal sums from time to time remaining unpaid, at the rate of £3. 10s. per cent. per annum, within thirty-five years from the date of the first advance.

6 The money borrowed under the authority of this Ordinance shall be appropriated for the purpose of improving the said harbour of Colombo, and for no other purpose.

7 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to raise by taxation in the colony such additional sums (if any) as may be required to pay the principal of and the interest on the said advances, and, either by taxation or by loan, such further sums as may from time

No. 7 of 1875.

An Ordinance to amend "The Toll Ordinance, 1867."

(See No 14 of 1867.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS the fourth section of "The Toll Ordinance, 1867," provides for exemptions from toll in manner therein appearing : And whereas it is expedient that the Governor should have power, from time to time, by Proclamation, with the advice of the Executive Council, to create further exemptions from toll : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Colombo Harbour.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Toll Ordinance, 1867, Amendment Ordinance."

Short title.

2 It shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to declare an exemption from toll in favour of any substance or substances in use for manuring purposes, and specified in such Proclamation.

Governor may exempt substances from toll.

3 After the publication in the Government Gazette of such Proclamation, no toll shall be demanded or taken for or in respect of any horse, ox, vehicle, boat, or canoe, when employed or going to be or returning from being employed in carrying or conveying only the substance or substances specified for exemption from toll in such Proclamation, or only such substance or substances, together with any other substance or substances exempted from toll by the Toll Ordinance aforesaid, or by any Proclamation in force under this Ordinance, and the necessary implements used for filling manure, and, in the case of boats, the necessary tackle, apparel, and provisions of such boats and the crew thereof.

No toll to be demanded in respect of exempted substances.

4 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by further Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to revoke, alter, or amend any such Proclamation as aforesaid.

Governor may revoke Proclamation.

5 This Ordinance and the Ordinance No. 14 of 1867 shall be read and construed as one Ordinance.

Ordinance to be read with No. 14 of 1867.

27th October, 1875.

No. 1 of 1876.

An Ordinance for the raising by Debentures of a further sum of Four Hundred Thousand Pounds Sterling for the improvement of the Harbour of Colombo.

(See No. 1 of 1881.)

WHEREAS by "The Colombo Harbour Ordinance, 1875," the Government of Ceylon were empowered to borrow from the Public Works Loan Commissioners in England any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, for the purpose of improving the harbour of Colombo, and also to raise, either by taxation or by loan, such further sums as might from time to time be required for the purpose of completing the improvements of, and for maintaining duly the said harbour, the amount borrowed in the case of a loan, together with the interest thereon, being charged on and made payable out of the general revenues of this island : And whereas a further sum is required for the purpose of the said improvements; and it is expedient to raise that sum by the creation and issue of debentures : And whereas by "The Colombo Harbour (Supplemental) Ordinance, 1874," provision was made for raising that sum, but it is expedient that that Ordinance be repealed, and the provisions hereinafter contained substituted therefor : It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Preamble.

Power to borrow £400,000 on debentures

1 It shall be lawful for the Governor of Ceylon to raise by the issue of debentures under this Ordinance any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole four hundred thousand pounds sterling, to be applied exclusively in the construction of a breakwater and in other improvements of the harbour of Colombo, and in the purchase of such material, plant, rolling stock, and other things as may be required for or in connection with those works.

Loan to be a charge upon general revenues.

2 The principal moneys and interest secured by the debentures issued under this Ordinance are hereby charged upon and shall be payable out of the general revenues and assets of the Government of Ceylon.

Amount of each debenture and rate of interest.

3 Every debenture issued under this Ordinance shall be for a sum not less than one hundred pounds sterling, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum.

Issue and signature of debentures.

4 The debentures shall be issued in London on behalf of the Government of Ceylon by the Crown Agents for the Colonies (in this Ordinance referred to as the Crown Agents), and shall be signed by them on that behalf.

Registry of debentures.

5 Every debenture shall, before being issued, be registered in a register book to be kept for that purpose at the office in London of the Crown Agents.

Interest coupons.

6 There shall be attached to every debenture coupons for the payment of the interest to become due in each half-year upon the principal secured by the debenture. The coupons shall be sufficient in number to provide for the payment of the interest either during the whole period for which the debenture has to run, or for such limited period as the Crown Agents, acting on behalf of the Government of Ceylon, may determine.

Form of debentures and coupons.

7 The debentures, and the coupons thereto, may be in such form as the Governor, or the Crown Agents acting on his behalf, may direct or approve.

Debentures and coupons transferable
by delivery.

8 Every debenture and coupon, and the right to receive the principal and interest secured or represented thereby, shall be transferable by delivery.

Mode of providing for payment of interest and principal.

current half-year's interest on the day when it falls due. After the expiration of five years from the day on which the first of the debentures is issued, and so long thereafter as any of the debentures remain outstanding, the Governor shall, in each half-year ending as aforesaid, appropriate out of the revenues and assets of this colony an additional sum equal to ten shillings sterling per centum on the total nominal amount of all the debentures issued on or before the first day of that half-year, including any which may have been redeemed, and remit that sum to the Crown Agents with the remittance hereinbefore mentioned.

10 The Crown Agents shall, subject to the approval of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies for the time being, place and keep the moneys so remitted to them, or so much thereof as may not be required for immediate payments, on deposit at interest in their names with some bank or banks in London or Westminster, and shall hold all such moneys and the accumulations thereon in trust, to apply them in the first place in payment of the interest for the current half-year upon the debentures for the time being outstanding, and in the next place in the formation of a sinking fund.

Application of moneys remitted to Crown Agents.

11 The interest upon the principal secured by each debenture shall run from the day named in that behalf in the debenture, and shall be paid half-yearly, on the days named in that behalf in the debenture, at the office in London of the Crown Agents.

Payment of interest.

12 The sinking fund shall be applied in the first place in payment of all expenses of, or incidental to, the redemption of debentures, including the charges of the notary public attending at any drawing thereof, and the costs and expenses of all notices required by this Ordinance to be given, and in the next place, and subject to the aforesaid payments, in repayment of the principal moneys for the time being secured by the debentures.

Application of sinking fund.

13 The debentures shall, at the option of the Crown Agents, subject to the approval of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies for the time being, be redeemed either by purchase in the open market or by annual drawings, and, subject to the aforesaid payments, the sum to be applied annually to such redemption shall correspond as nearly as may be to, but not exceed, the amount for the time being standing to the credit of the sinking fund.

Debentures to be redeemed by purchase or by annual drawings

14 So long as any of the debentures remain outstanding and unsatisfied, the Crown Agents shall in every year, after the day on which the first of the debentures is issued, unless the whole of the money applicable in that year to the redemption of debentures has been applied in the purchase thereof, appoint a day in that year for the drawing by lot of the debentures to be redeemed.

Appointment of day for drawing of debentures.

15 If a day is appointed for drawing, the Crown Agents shall give, by advertisement in the London Times newspaper, not less than fifteen days' previous notice, specifying

Notice of time and place appointed for drawing.

Colombo Harbour.

the day on which, and the hour and place at which, the drawing will take place, and the nominal amount of the debentures to be redeemed at that drawing.

Mode of drawing.

16 On the day and at the hour and place so specified the Crown Agents shall hold a meeting, at which the holder of any debenture may, if he think fit, be present, and shall then in the presence of such debenture-holders (if any) as may attend, and of a notary public, draw by lot out of the whole number of debentures for the time being outstanding debentures of the specified nominal amount.

Notice of debentures drawn for redemption.

17 The Crown Agents shall thereupon declare the distinguishing numbers of the debentures drawn for redemption, and shall as soon as may be, by advertisement in the London Times newspaper, specify those numbers and appoint a day (not being later as to each debenture than the day on which the then current half-year's interest thereon is payable) on which the principal moneys secured by the debentures so distinguished will be repaid.

Payment of drawn debentures.

18 On the day so appointed the Crown Agents shall, at their office in London, on demand, pay to the holders of the debentures drawn for repayment the principal moneys secured by those debentures with all interest payable thereon up to that day.

Cesser of interest from day appointed for payment of principal.

19 From and after the day appointed for the repayment of any debenture, all interest on the principal moneys secured thereby shall cease and determine, whether payment of the principal have or have not been demanded.

Redeemed debentures to be cancelled.

20 Upon the repayment of the principal moneys secured by any debenture, the debenture with all the coupons thereunto belonging shall be delivered up to the Crown Agents, to be by them cancelled and forwarded to the Government of Ceylon. Any debenture redeemed by purchase shall likewise be so cancelled and forwarded.

Money repaid not to be reborrowed.

21 No money applied in redemption of a debenture shall be reborrowed, and no debenture shall be issued in respect of, or in substitution for, any cancelled debenture.

Repeal of Ordinance No. 5 of 1874.

22 "The Colombo Harbour (Supplemental) Ordinance, 1874," is hereby repealed.

An Ordinance to provide for the Acquisition of Land for Public Purposes.

(See No. 6 of 1877.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the acquisition of land for public purposes, and for determining the amount of compensation to be made on account of such acquisition: It is enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

Land Acquisition.

I.—Preliminary.

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876."

Repeal of Ordinance No. 2 of 1863.

2 The Ordinance No. 2 of 1863, intituled "An Ordinance to enable the Crown to take possession of private lands for public uses, and to survey and assess lands wanted by private proprietors to secure access to their properties through the lands of others," is hereby repealed, except so far as relates to any proceedings or matters which shall have taken place thereunder before this Ordinance shall come into force. All reference made to the said Ordinance No. 2 of 1863 in subsequent Ordinances, orders, or contracts, shall be read as if made to this Ordinance.

Reference to repealed Ordinance to apply to this Ordinance.

Interpretation clause :
"Land."

3 In this Ordinance—

The expression "land" includes any interest in or benefits to arise out of land, and also things attached to the earth or permanently fastened to anything attached to the earth.

"Person interested."

The expression "person interested" includes all persons, corporations, and companies claiming an interest in compensation to be made on account of the acquisition of land under this Ordinance, whether beneficially or in trust for other persons, corporations, or companies, or for charitable, religious, or other purposes.

"Government agent."

The expression "government agent" means the government agent of the province or the assistant agent of the district wherein the land proposed to be taken is situated.

"District judge" and "district court."

The expressions "district judge" and "district court" mean respectively the district judge and district court of the district within which such land is situated.

II.—Acquisition.

Survey of land to be made.

4 Whenever it shall appear to the Governor that land in any locality is likely to be needed for any public purpose, it shall be lawful for the Governor to direct the Surveyor-General or other officer generally or specially authorized by the Governor in this behalf, to examine such land and report whether the same is fitted for such purpose. And it shall thereupon be lawful for the Surveyor-General or such officer and for his servants and workmen—

Power of surveyor.

- (a) To enter upon and survey and take levels of any land in such locality ;
- (b) To dig or bore into the sub-soil ;
- (c) To do all other acts necessary to ascertain whether the land is adapted for such purpose ;
- (d) To set out the boundaries of the land proposed to be taken and the intended line of the work (if any) proposed to be made thereon ;
- (e) To mark such levels, boundaries, and line by placing marks and cutting trenches ;

Land Acquisition.

(f) And, where otherwise the survey cannot be completed and the levels taken and the boundaries and line marked, to cut down and clear away any part of any standing crop, fence, or jungle.

Provided that no person shall enter into any building or upon any enclosed court or garden attached to a dwelling house (unless with the consent of the occupier thereof) without previously giving such occupier or leaving on the premises at least seven days' notice in writing of his intention to do so.

Proviso.

5 The Surveyor-General or other officer so authorized as aforesaid shall pay for all necessary damage to be done as aforesaid, and in case of any dispute as to the sufficiency of the amount to be paid he shall at once refer the dispute to the decision of the government agent, and such decision shall be final.

Compensation to be made for damage done by surveyor.

6 The Surveyor-General or other officer so authorized as aforesaid shall then make his report to the Governor, whether the possession of the land is needed for the purposes for which it appeared likely to be needed as aforesaid. And upon the receipt of such report it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to direct the government agent to take order for the acquisition of the land.

Surveyor's report ; proceedings thereupon.

7 The government agent shall thereupon cause public notice to be published in the Government Gazette, and to be posted at convenient places on the land to be taken, or as near thereto as practicable, stating that the Government proposes to take possession of the land, and that claims to compensation for all interests in such land may be made to him. Such notice shall be published in the English, Singhalese, and Tamil languages respectively, and shall state the particulars of the land so needed, and shall require all persons interested in the land to appear personally or by agent before the government agent at a time and place therein mentioned (such time not being earlier than twenty-one days after the date of publication of the notice), and to state the nature of their respective interests in the land and the amount and particulars of their claims to compensation for such interests.

Notice to be given in Gazette of intention to take possession and hear claims for compensation.

8 On the day so fixed the government agent shall proceed to inquire summarily into the value of the land, and to determine the amount of compensation which, in his opinion, should be allowed therefor, and shall tender such amount to the persons interested, who have attended in pursuance of the notice. For the purpose of such inquiry the government agent shall have power to summon any witnesses he may think fit ; and any witness disobeying such summons without sufficient cause shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees. Provided always that the government agent may for any cause he thinks fit from time to time postpone the inquiry to a day to be fixed by him.

Summary inquiry as to value of land and amount of compensation to be made. Tender of compensation.

Land Acquisition.

Matters to be taken into consideration in determining compensation.

Award of government agent where parties agree.

Reference to the district court in what cases.

After award or reference to court, Government to take possession of the land.

Form of reference to the district court.

9 In determining the amount of compensation the government agent shall take into consideration the matters mentioned in section 21, and shall not take into consideration any of the matters mentioned in section 22.

10 If the government agent and the persons interested agree as to the amount of compensation to be allowed, such agreement shall be recorded in writing and signed by the government agent and the persons interested, and the government agent shall make his award in pursuance thereof. Such award shall be filed in the government agent's office, and shall be conclusive evidence, as between the Government and the persons interested, of the value of the land and the amount of compensation allowed for the same.

11 When the government agent proceeds to make the inquiry as aforesaid, whether on the day originally fixed for the inquiry or on the day to which it may have been postponed—

If no claimant attends ;

Or, if the government agent considers that further inquiry as to the nature of the claim ought to be made by the district court ;

Or, if any person whom the government agent has reason to think interested does not attend ;

Or, if the government agent is unable to agree with the persons interested, or any of them, who have attended in pursuance of the notice, as to the amount of compensation to be allowed ;

Or, if upon the said inquiry any question respecting the title to the land or any rights thereto or interests therein arise between or among two or more persons ;

the government agent shall refer the matter to the determination of the district court in manner hereinafter appearing.

12 At any time after the government agent has made an award under section 10, or a reference to the court under section 11, and has notified the same to the Governor, it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to direct that the land be taken possession of by some officer of the Crown for and on behalf of Her Majesty. And the said officer shall sign a certificate substantially in the form A in the schedule hereto, and the said land shall thereupon vest absolutely in her said Majesty free from all encumbrances.

III.—Reference to Court and Procedure thereon.

13 In making a reference under section 11 the government agent shall state for the information of the district court in writing under his hand—

(a) The situation and extent of the land needed ;

Land Acquisition.

- (b) The names of the claimants or of any other persons whom he has reason to think interested in such land ;
- (c) The amount awarded for damages under section 5, the amount of compensation tendered for the land under section 8, or, if no claimant has attended pursuant to the notice mentioned, or if any claimant has failed to satisfy the government agent that he is entitled to receive the compensation, then the government agent shall state the amount which he is willing to give to the persons interested.

14 The district court shall thereupon cause to be served on each of the persons so named as aforesaid a notice requiring him (if he has not made a claim under section 8) to state to the court on or before a day to be therein mentioned the sum which he claims as compensation for his interest in the land so needed. The court shall also cause a notice to be served on the government agent and each of such persons, requiring them to appoint on or before a day to be therein mentioned two qualified assessors (one to be nominated by the government agent and the other by the persons interested, or, if they cannot agree, by a majority of such persons) for the purpose of aiding the district judge in determining the amount of compensation. Such notice shall be served at least seven days before the day mentioned therein for claims to be made or assessors to be appointed. All persons of respectability who have attained the age of twenty-one years, and are not pecuniarily interested in determining the amount of compensation, are qualified to act as assessors.

Proceedings of court on reference. Notices.

Notice to appoint assessors.

15 If no claimant has attended pursuant to the notice mentioned in section 7, the district court shall cause to be affixed on some conspicuous place on or near the land needed a notice to the effect that, if the persons interested in such land do not, on or before a day to be therein mentioned, appear in court and state the nature of their respective interests in the land and the amount and particulars of their claims to compensation, and nominate an assessor, the court will proceed to determine such amount. Such notice shall be affixed at least seven days before the day mentioned therein for such appearance in court.

Proceeding when no claimant has appeared.

16 In case either party fail to nominate any assessor within the time so specified, the district judge shall himself appoint an assessor in his stead.

Power of judge to appoint an assessor in default of appointment by either party.

17 As soon as the assessors have been appointed the district judge and assessors shall proceed to determine the amount of compensation, having been first duly sworn or affirmed. And all proceedings in any district court had under this Ordinance shall be taken up before any other business of the said court, unless special circumstances of urgency in any particular case call, in the opinion of the judge, for a relaxation of this rule.

Determination of amount of compensation.

Land Acquisition.

Appointment of new assessor in event of death, &c.

18 If before such amount is determined any assessor dies, or desires to be discharged, or refuses, or neglects, or becomes incapable to act, the party by whom he was appointed may appoint some other qualified person to act in his place. If the assessor so dying, or desiring to be discharged, or refusing, or neglecting, or becoming incapable, were appointed by the judge, or, in the case of an assessor appointed by either party, if for the space of seven days after notice from the court for that purpose the party who appointed such assessor fails to appoint another, the judge shall appoint some other qualified person as assessor. Every assessor so substituted shall have the same powers as were vested in the former assessor at the time of his so dying, or desiring to be discharged, or refusing, or neglecting, or becoming incapable.

Proceedings to be in open court.

19 Every proceeding under section 17 shall take place in open court, and any advocate or proctor entitled to practice in such district court shall be entitled to appear, plead, and act in such proceeding.

Proceedings
may be consolidated in certain cases.

20 Where the lands of several different persons are proposed to be taken for the same public purpose, and two or more of such persons agree upon appointing the same assessor, the proceedings in the district court for determining the amount of compensation for the lands of the persons so agreeing may be consolidated and form the subject of one and the same inquiry, where the judge thinks that such a course will simplify or expedite the inquiry.

Matters to be considered in determining compensation.

21 In determining the amount of compensation to be awarded for land acquired under this Ordinance, the district judge and assessors shall take into consideration—

First, the market value at the time of awarding compensation of such land ;

Secondly, the damage (if any) sustained by the person interested at the time of awarding compensation, by reason of severing such land from his own land ;

Thirdly, the damage (if any) sustained by the person interested at the time of awarding compensation, by reason of the acquisition injuriously affecting his other property, whether movable or immovable, in any other manner, or his earnings ; and Fourthly, if in consequence of the acquisition he is compelled to change his residence, the reasonable expenses (if any) incidental to such change.

Matters to be neglected in determining compensation.

22 But the judge or assessors shall not take into consideration—

First, the degree of urgency which has led to the acquisition ;

Secondly, any disinclination of the person interested to part with the land acquired ;

Thirdly, any damage sustained by him, which, if caused by a private person, would not render such person liable to a suit ;

Land Acquisition.

Fourthly, any damage which, after the time of awarding compensation, is likely to be caused by or in consequence of the use to which the land acquired will be put ;

Fifthly, any increase to the value of the land acquired likely to accrue from the use to which it will be put when acquired ;

Sixthly, any increase to the value of the other land of the person interested likely to accrue from the use to which the land acquired will be put ; or Seventhly, any outlay or improvements on such land made, commenced, or effected with the intention of enhancing the compensation to be awarded therefor under this Ordinance.

23 When the person interested has made a claim to compensation pursuant to any notice mentioned in section 7 or in section 14, the amount awarded to him shall not exceed the amount so claimed or be less than the amount tendered by the government agent under section 8, or the amount which the government agent shall have offered to give under section 13. When the person interested has refused to make such claim, or has omitted without sufficient reason (to be allowed by the judge) to make such claim, the amount awarded to him may be less than, and shall in no case exceed, the amount so tendered or so offered as aforesaid. When the person interested has omitted for a sufficient reason (to be allowed by the judge) to make such claim, the amount awarded to him shall not be less than, and may exceed, the amount so tendered or offered as aforesaid.

Rules as to amount of compensation.

24 The opinion of each assessor shall be given orally and shall be recorded in writing by the district judge.

Record of assessors' opinions.

25 In case of any difference of opinion between the judge and assessors, or any of them, upon any question of law or practice or usage having the force of law, or as to the amount of compensation to be awarded, the opinion of the judge shall prevail, subject to the appeal to the Supreme Court hereinafter provided. Provided, however, that if the two assessors agree together as to the amount of compensation, their opinion as to such amount shall be taken as the decision of the court, subject to appeal as hereinafter provided.

When judge and assessors differ, opinion of judge to prevail, subject to appeal.

[§ 2, 6 of 1877]

28 Every assessor appointed under this Ordinance shall receive such fee for his services as the judge shall direct : Provided that such fee shall not exceed two hundred rupees, and such fee shall be deemed to be costs in the proceeding.

Payment of assessors.

29 The costs of all legal proceedings, when there has been a reference to the court, shall be taxed by the court. When the amount awarded does not exceed the sum tendered by the government agent or the sum which the government agent shall have offered to give under section 13, such costs shall be paid by the person or persons who shall have contested the amount. When the amount awarded exceeds the sum so tendered or offered as aforesaid, such costs shall be paid by the government agent. As between several persons interested, the court shall award the costs in such manner as shall appear just.

Costs.

Land Acquisition.

Form of award.

30 Every award made by the court shall be in writing, signed by the district judge and assessors or assessor concurring therein, and shall specify the amount awarded under the first clause of section 21, and also the amounts (if any) respectively awarded under the second, third, and fourth clauses of the same section, together with the grounds of awarding each of the said amounts. It shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the proceedings, and by what person and in what proportions they are to be paid. All costs (not deducted as hereinafter provided by section 38) may be recovered as if they were costs incurred in an ordinary suit, and as if the award were the decree therein.

Appeal against award.

[§ 3, 6 of 1877]

31 If the government agent or any person interested is dissatisfied with any award made by the court under the provisions of this Ordinance, he may appeal therefrom to the Supreme Court. Every such appeal shall be presented within the time and in the manner and subject to the rules and practice provided for and observed in appeals from interlocutory orders of district courts. Provided, however, that no stamp duties shall be required in any proceedings before the Supreme Court relative to such appeal.

Proviso: no stamps required.

Proceedings in district court analogous to those in ordinary civil suits.

32 The proceedings in any district court taken under this Ordinance shall be subject, so far as the same can be made applicable, to the rules, practice, and procedure provided for or observed at the time of such proceedings in ordinary civil suits, save and except that no stamp duties provided for law proceedings shall be required in proceedings taken under this Ordinance.

IV.—Apportionment of Compensation.

Particulars of apportionment to be specified.

33 When there are several persons interested, if such persons agree in the apportionment of the compensation, the particulars of such apportionment shall be specified in the award, and as between such persons the award shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of the apportionment.

Dispute as to apportionment when parties agree as to amount of compensation.

34 When the amount of compensation has been settled under section 10, if any dispute arises as to the apportionment of the same or any part thereof, the government agent shall refer such dispute to the decision of the district court.

Dispute as to apportionment when compensation settled by court.

35 When the amount of compensation has been settled by the court, and there is any dispute as to the apportionment thereof, or when a reference to the court has been made under section 34, the district judge sitting alone shall decide the proportions in which the persons interested are entitled to share in such amount. And such decision shall be subject to appeal to the Supreme Court; and such appeal shall be prosecuted within the time and in the manner and subject to the rules and practice provided for or observed in appeals from interlocutory orders of district courts.

Appeal.

Land Acquisition.V.—Payment.

36 Payment of the compensation shall be made by the government agent according to the award to the persons named therein or, in the case of an appeal, according to the decision on such appeal, and after such payment has been made according to such award or such decision no further claim against the Government in respect of compensation for the land so taken shall be allowed at the instance of any person whomsoever. Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of any person, who may receive the whole or any part of any compensation awarded under this Ordinance, to pay the same to the person lawfully entitled thereto.

Payment of compensation to whom made.

37 When the land taken is subject to any entail, settlement, or fidei commissum, the compensation payable in respect thereof shall be subject to the same entail, settlement, or fidei commissum, so far as the different nature of the property will admit; and such compensation shall be paid into court to abide its further orders as to the disposal or investment thereof. It shall also be lawful for the district judge in any case to require the compensation payable in respect of any land to be paid into court to abide its further orders, if the court shall think such course just or expedient.

38 In addition to the amount of compensation finally awarded, the government agent may, in consideration of the compulsory nature of the acquisition, pay ten per centum on the market value mentioned in section 21. When the amount of such compensation is not paid either to the persons interested or into court on taking possession, the government agent shall pay the amount awarded and the said percentage with interest on such amount and percentage at the rate of six per centum per annum from the time of so taking possession. Provided, however, that the costs (if any) payable to the government agent by the person interested shall be deducted from such amount and percentage. Provided also that in cases where the decision of the district court is liable to appeal, the government agent shall not pay the amount of compensation or the percentage, or any part thereof, until the time for appealing against such decision has expired and no appeal shall have been presented against such decision, or until any such appeal shall have been disposed of.

Percentage on market value to be allowed.

Interest when payment delayed.

Costs to be deducted.

VI.—Miscellaneous.

39 In any district in which the government agent or the assistant government agent may also be district judge, such government agent or assistant government agent shall not act as district judge in any proceedings had under this Ordinance.

40 Whenever it may be practicable, service of any notice under this Ordinance shall be made on the person therein named, or, in the case of his absence from the island, upon his duly constituted attorney or agent. When any person upon whom any such notice has to be served cannot be found, the service may be made on any adult member of his family residing with him; and if no such adult member can be found, the notice may be served by fixing the copy on the outer door of his present or last known place of dwelling or business within this island. When any person interested is out of the island, and the government agent has not, after reasonable inquiry, been able to ascertain whether such person has left any power of attorney or agent duly constituted, personal service of notice shall not be necessary for any of the purposes of this Ordinance.

Penalty for obstructing persons acting under powers given by this Ordinance.

41 Whoever wilfully obstructs any person in the performance of any duty imposed upon him or in the exercise of any power vested in him by, under, or by virtue of any of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding one month, or to fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to both.

42 If the surveyor or any of his assistants or any person acting under his or their orders shall, under the pretence of performing any duty or exercising any privilege imposed on or vested in him by or under this Ordinance, use unnecessary violence, or wantonly do any injury or give uncalled-for and vexatious annoyance, every such officer or person shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to any fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Government not compellable to complete acquisition.

43 It shall not be compulsory on the Government to complete the acquisition of any land, for the acquisition of which any steps have been taken under the provisions of this Ordinance, unless the land has been taken possession of by the Government under section 12. But whenever the Government shall decline to complete such acquisition after any costs have been incurred by any person interested in the land by reason of any proceedings taken under the provisions of this Ordinance, the Government shall pay such costs, after taxation by the district court, to the person so interested.

Part of house or building not to be taken.

44 The provisions of this Ordinance shall not be put in force for the purpose of acquiring a part only of any house, manufactory, or other building, if the owner desire that the whole of such house, manufactory, or building shall be so acquired.

45 No informality or irregularity occurring in any proceedings taken under this Ordinance shall be held to invalidate or affect the title of the Government to any land taken under this Ordinance.

SCHEDULE.

Form A.

I hereby certify that I have this day taken possession, for and on behalf of Her Majesty, under and by virtue of the provisions of the Ordinance No. _____ of _____, entitled _____, of the land and premises situated at _____, and bounded on the _____, and more particularly described in the annexed survey thereof.

Date: _____.

*Valid Registration of certain Births and Deaths.No. 4 of 1876.

An Ordinance to provide for the validity of the registration of certain Births and Deaths made by Asan Lebbe Mohammadu Tambi and Kasi Lebbe Usubu Lebbe, respectively.

WHEREAS by the Ordinance No. 18 of 1867, intituled "An Ordinance relating to the registration of Births and Deaths," it is provided that the Registrar-General, the provincial registrars, and the district registrars of marriages shall also respectively be and act as Registrar-General, provincial and district registrars of births and deaths; and that the division of each province of this island into districts for the registry of marriages shall also form the division for the registry of births and deaths: And whereas provision is further made by the said Ordinance for the registration by district registrars of births and deaths occurring within the several districts respectively: And whereas Asan Lebbe Mohammadu Tambi was appointed registrar of births and deaths for the town and gravets of Negombo, and after his decease Kasi Lebbe Usubu Lebbe was appointed such registrar in his place: And whereas each of them, the said Asan Lebbe Mohammadu Tambi and Kasi Lebbe Usubu Lebbe, on divers occasions, owing to inadvertence, acted as registrar of births and deaths which occurred out of his jurisdiction (to wit), in the Dásiya pattu and the Dúnagaha pattu, situate in Alutkúra kóralé in the district of Negombo, Western Province, and did register as such registrar divers of such births and deaths: And whereas it is expedient to remove all doubts as to the validity and sufficiency for all purposes of such registration, notwithstanding such irregularity as aforesaid: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 The registration of all births and deaths which have occurred in the said Dásiya pattu and Dúnagaha pattu, and have been registered either by the said Asan Lebbe Mohammadu Tambi or the said Kasi Lebbe Usubu Lebbe, shall be as valid and effectual for all purposes intended by or relating to or connected with the provisions of the said Ordinance No. 18 of 1867, as if the said Asan Lebbe Mohammadu Tambi and the said Kasi Lebbe Usubu Lebbe had been respectively duly appointed registrars of the district wherein the said Dásiya pattu and Dúnagaha pattu are situate, at the respective dates of such registration.

Irregular registration of births and deaths by the said persons declared valid.

2 It shall be the duty of the Registrar-General to remove from the registers of births and deaths kept for the town and gravets of Negombo all the entries therein of the said births and deaths so irregularly registered as aforesaid, and to cause the same to be inserted in the registers for the said districts of Dásiya pattu and Dúnagaha pattu respectively.

Registrar-General to rectify registers.

Sale of Poisons.

No other defect cured in such registration.

3 Nothing herein contained shall give any validity to the registration of the said births and deaths so irregularly registered as aforesaid, except so far as relates to defects thereof caused by the non-appointment of the said Asan Lebbe Mohamradu Tambi and the said Kasi Lebbe Usubu Lebbe to act as registrars respectively for the said districts of Dásiya pattu and Dúnagaha pattu.

11th October, 1876.

No. 6 of 1876.An Ordinance to regulate the sale of Poisons in Ceylon.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient for the safety of the public that due provision should be made to regulate the sale of poisons in this island: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Sale of Poisons Regulation Ordinance, 1876," and shall come into operation on such day as the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, shall by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette appoint.

What are to be deemed poisons under this Ordinance.

2 The several articles mentioned in the schedule A to this Ordinance annexed shall be deemed to be poisons within the meaning of this Ordinance; and the Governor may, from time to time, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, declare that any article other than those mentioned in the said schedule shall be deemed a poison within the meaning of this Ordinance, and on the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the publication of such Proclamation the article therein named shall be deemed to be a poison within the meaning of this Ordinance.

No person to sell poison without a license.

To whom such license may be granted.

3 It shall be unlawful for any person to sell any poison either by wholesale or retail in any province of this island without a license from the government agent of the province. Such license shall be granted to such persons only as the said government agent shall, after inquiry, be satisfied are persons of respectability; and the right of selling thereunder shall be made subject to such restrictions as the government agent shall deem expedient, having regard to the safety of the public. Such restrictions shall be inserted in and form part of the license.

License to be operative for one year from date thereof.
Form of, and stamp on.

4 Every such license shall be in force for one year from the date thereof, shall set out the name and place of abode of the licensee, the house or shop in which the poisons may be sold, and the name of the poisons to be sold; and shall bear a stamp of five rupees.

Sale of Poisons.

5 It shall be unlawful to sell any poison either by wholesale or retail, unless it be contained in some box, bottle, vessel, wrapper, or cover, or other receptacle, distinctly labelled—Poison—in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages, and also labelled in one of those languages at least with the name of the article and the name and address of the seller; and it shall be unlawful to sell any of the poisons which are named in the first part of the schedule A hereto annexed, or which may hereafter be added thereto under section 2 of this Ordinance, to any person unknown to the seller, unless such person is introduced by some person known to the seller. Any person introducing a purchaser under this clause without bonâ fide knowing the name and place of abode of the person so introduced shall be guilty of an offence, and liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees. And in the event of any person being prosecuted under this clause the burden of proof shall be thrown upon the person so introducing a purchaser as aforesaid, to establish that he bonâ fide knew the person so introduced.

Receptacle of poison to be labelled.

Poison in first part of schedule not to be sold to persons unknown.

6 On every sale of any poison the seller shall before delivery make or cause to be made an entry in a book to be kept for that purpose, stating in the form set forth in the schedule B hereto annexed the date of the sale, the name and quantity of the article sold, and the purpose for which it is stated by the purchaser to be required; to which the signature of the purchaser and of the person (if any) who introduced him shall be affixed.

Sale to be entered in book.

7 Any person selling poison without a license or contrary to the terms of his license, or in any manner otherwise than is by this Ordinance provided, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to forfeiture of his license and to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for the first offence, and to a like forfeiture and fine, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding three months, or to both, for the second or any subsequent offence. For the purposes of this Ordinance the person on whose behalf any sale of poison is made by any shopman or servant in his employ, as well as such shopman or servant, shall be deemed a seller of such poison.

Penalty for selling poison contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance.

8 Nothing contained in this Ordinance shall apply to any articles to be exported from Ceylon by wholesale dealers, nor to sales by wholesale to retail dealers in the ordinary course of wholesale dealing, nor to any medicine supplied by or on the written prescription of any person who has been duly qualified by any university, college, or body having legal authority in this behalf, in any part of the United Kingdom or any colony or dependency thereof, to practise as a physician, surgeon, medical practitioner, or veterinary surgeon, or who has received a certificate of competency from the Principal Civil Medical Officer or any colonial surgeon of this island authorized by the Principal Civil Medical Officer to grant such certificates; provided such medicine be distinctly labelled with the name and address of the seller,

Poison sold on medical prescription exempted from the Ordinance.

Sale of Poisons.

and the ingredients thereof be entered, with the name of the person to whom it is sold or delivered, in a book to be kept by the seller for that purpose.

Medicines supplied by hospitals
exempted.

9 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall apply to any medicine dispensed or supplied in or by any Government or military hospital or dispensary, or any dispensary established in pursuance of the Ordinance No. 14 of 1872, intituled "An Ordinance to provide for the Medical Wants of the Coffee Districts," or licensed by Government for the sale of medicines.

Limitation of prosecution.

10 No prosecution shall be entertained for any offence under this Ordinance unless instituted within two months from the date of the commission of the offence.

SCHEDULE A.

Part I.

Arsenic and its preparations ; prussic acid ; cyanides of potassium and all metallic cyanides ; strychnine and all poisonous vegetable alkaloids and their salts ; aconite and its preparations ; emetic tartar ; corrosive sublimate ; cantharides ; savin and its oil ; ergot of rye and its preparations.

Part II.

Oxalic acid ; chloroform ; belladonna and its preparations ; essential oil of almonds, unless deprived of its prussic acid ; laudanum ; preparations of corrosive sublimate ; preparations of morphine ; red oxide of mercury (commonly known as red precipitate of mercury) ; ammoniated mercury (commonly known as white precipitate of mercury) ; every compound containing any of the poisons mentioned in this schedule, when prepared or sold for the destruction of vermin ; the tincture and all vesicating liquid preparations of cantharides.

*Local Boards.No. 7 of 1876.An Ordinance to provide for the establishment of Local Boards of Health and Improvement in certain Localities.(See No. 6 of 1882, No. 9 of 1887, and No. 27 of 1890.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the establishment of local boards of health and improvement in certain towns, and to invest such boards with certain powers for the maintenance of public health therein and the general improvement and conservancy thereof: It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Preamble.

I.—Preliminary.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as “The Local Board of Health and Improvement Ordinance, 1876.”

Short title.

2 The following words and expressions used in this Ordinance shall have the meaning hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction :

Interpretation clause :

The expression “government agent” in any section shall mean the government agent of the province wherein the town, to which such section is applied, is situated.

“Government agent.”

The expression “assistant government agent” in any section shall mean the assistant government agent for the district wherein the town, to which such section is applied, is situated.

“Assistant government agent.”

The expression “annual value” shall mean the gross annual value without any deduction for expenses of repair, maintenance, or upkeep.

“Annual value.”

The word “street” shall mean any road, street, square, court, alley, or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not, over which the public have a right of way, and also the roadway over any public bridge or causeway within the town.

“Street.”

The word “board” used with reference to any town shall mean the local board of health and improvement constituted under this Ordinance for such town.

“Board.”

The word “bridge” shall include all bridges, culverts, sluices, dams, and bunds.

“Bridge.”

The word “person” shall include any association of persons, whether incorporated or not.

“Person.”

II.—Creation and Constitution of Local Boards.

3 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation to be for that purpose published in the Government Gazette, to bring any town or towns under the operation of this Ordinance, and to define the limits of such town or towns respectively for the purpose of this Ordinance, and such Proclamation to amend, alter, or revoke, as and whenever the Governor shall, with like advice, determine.

[§ 2, 9 of 1887]

Boards how constituted.

[§ 1, 27 of 1890]

4 In every town brought under the operation of this Ordinance as aforesaid, there shall be a local board of health and improvement consisting of three official and three unofficial members. The official members shall consist of the government agent and two other persons to be appointed by the Governor. Provided, however, that the resident assistant government agent (if any), or (if none) then some person to be appointed in writing by the government agent in that behalf, may, whenever so directed by the government agent, exercise all the powers conferred and perform all the duties imposed upon the government agent by this Ordinance. All official members appointed by the Governor shall hold office during the Governor's pleasure. The unofficial members shall be elected or appointed as hereinafter provided.

Qualification of unofficial members.

5 Every male inhabitant of any town brought under the operation of this Ordinance, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who is possessed of immovable property situate therein of the value of not less than one thousand rupees, and who does not hold any office of emolument under Government, and who has not been convicted of any infamous crime, shall be eligible as an unofficial member of the board for such town.

Qualification of electors.

6 Every occupier of any house within any such town, either as proprietor or tenant, of the annual value or rent of not less than fifty rupees, or who shall be the husband of a wife or the eldest son of a widow, who is the proprietor or tenant of any such house, shall be entitled to vote at any election of unofficial members for the board for such town: Provided that when any such house as aforesaid shall be jointly occupied by more persons than one, as proprietors or tenants, each of such joint occupiers, the annual value of whose share (if a proprietor) amounts to not less than fifty rupees, or who (if a tenant) pays fifty rupees or more per annum for his occupation, shall be entitled to vote. If the annual value or rent of the entire house be not worth more than fifty rupees, the joint occupiers will elect among themselves one to vote for the rest, and if they cannot agree in electing one they shall not be entitled to vote at all. Provided also that no male under the age of twenty-one years shall be entitled to vote, nor any female.

Notice of election to be published.

7 As soon as convenient after the publication of the Proclamation bringing any town under the operation of this Ordinance, the government agent shall give public notice of his intention to hold an election of unofficial members of the board of health and improvement for such town. Such notice shall be published in the English, Siphalese, and

Local Boards.

Tamil languages not less than one calendar month before the day for holding the election, and shall be affixed on the walls of the kachchéri and district court (if any) and on such other conspicuous places in the said town, as the said government agent may think fit with a view to ensuring publicity. Such notice shall state the time and place of election.

8 The government agent shall be authorized to investigate and determine any claim to be entitled to vote at any election held under the provisions of this Ordinance, and shall have power to administer an oath or affirmation to any person whom he shall think fit to examine with reference to such claim. Any person giving false evidence on oath or affirmation at such investigation shall be liable to be prosecuted and punished for perjury. The decision of the government agent on any claim to be entitled to vote shall be final.

Government agent to inquire into qualification of electors. May administer oath.

9 The government agent shall preside at the meeting for any election held under this Ordinance, and shall determine the mode of voting. Every candidate shall be proposed at the said meeting by some person duly qualified to vote thereat, and shall be seconded by some other such qualified person. Every vote which at such election shall be given to any person who has not been so proposed and seconded, shall not be taken into account in such election, but shall be wholly void and ineffective. Each elector shall have as many votes as there are unofficial members to be elected; and the candidates or candidate (as the case may be) having the highest number of votes shall be elected. Provided that when, by reason of any two or more candidates having obtained an equal number of votes, any voting shall be indecisive as to them, such candidates shall forthwith be voted for a second time, and he who shall obtain the greatest number of votes shall be elected the member; but if such second voting shall also be rendered indecisive by reason of such equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall decide the election by his casting vote.

Mode of election

10 The first members elected under this Ordinance shall go out of office on the last day of December of the second year from their election, and in place of such members so going out of office a like number of other members to be elected as hereinafter provided shall come into office and remain in office during the next ensuing two years, and at the expiration of such period of two years shall in like manner go out of office and be succeeded by other members for a like term of two years, and so on during the continuance of this Ordinance. Provided that any outgoing members may be re-elected.

Members of board to be elected biennially.

Outgoing members may be re-elected.

11 On the first day of December which shall precede the day on which any such term of two years shall expire, unless such day be Sunday, and then on the Monday following, a meeting shall be holden for the election of members for the

[§ 2, 27 of 1890]

12 Any unofficial member who shall cease to be qualified as required by this Ordinance, or shall be absent from the town or from the meetings of the board, for which he is a member, for more than three months at one time, or shall be declared a bankrupt or insolvent, or shall be convicted of any infamous crime, or shall become incapacitated from fulfilling the duties of his office by mental or bodily infirmity or disease, or who shall accept any office of emolument under the board, or become directly or indirectly interested in any contract with the board, shall ipso facto vacate his office; and in case any person elected a member shall die or become disqualified or vacate his office in manner aforesaid, or shall resign or refuse to accept the office of a member, or in case of any casual vacancy happening in any other manner whatever in such office, the chairman shall forthwith call a meeting of electors for the purpose of filling up such vacancy, and the person then elected shall serve until the next general election of members.

Mode of filling casual vacancies.

Irregular election to be again holden.

13 If by reason of any failure or neglect, or any other cause whatever, any meeting for the election of members shall not be duly and regularly holden, or if at any such meeting a member shall not be duly elected, then and in every such case the chairman, as soon as convenient after any such event shall have been notified to him, upon being satisfied that the said election was not duly and regularly holden or any member not duly elected, shall, according to the circumstances of each case, either declare the election void altogether or void as to any particular member or members, and shall by a notice of not less than seven nor more than fourteen days call a meeting of electors for the purpose of electing a member, in the same manner as is hereinbefore directed. No objection to any election shall be entertained after the lapse of fourteen days from the holding of the same.

No objection to an election to be entertained after 14 days.

On failure of people to elect,
Governor may appoint the unofficial members.

14 (1) In case the electors shall, after due notice of election has been given as provided by this Ordinance, fail to elect the requisite number of unofficial members, it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint any person or persons, whether holding any office of emolument under Government or not, to be a member or members in order to make up the number of unofficial members required for the board. Members so appointed shall be deemed to be unofficial members for the purposes of this Ordinance. Provided, however, that in case the electors fail to elect as aforesaid, it shall not be incumbent upon the Governor to appoint any unofficial member or members, but the board shall be complete for all the powers, functions, and purposes of this Ordinance, notwithstanding the non-election or non-appointment of any unofficial members or member.

Local Boards.

(2) The unofficial members appointed by the Governor shall cease to hold office on the thirty-first day of December of the year in which a general election of members is held as provided in section 11, provided that such members or any of them may, if necessary, be re-appointed by the Governor under the provisions hereinbefore contained.

Duration of office of unofficial members. [§ 3, 27 of 1890]

15 No member of any board shall have or receive any salary, or shall exact, take, or accept any fee or reward whatsoever for or on account of anything done or to be done by him by virtue of this Ordinance, or on any account whatsoever relative to this Ordinance, or shall have any direct or indirect interest in any contract with the board.

No member to receive any salary or reward for his services.

16 The government agent shall be ex-officio chairman and treasurer of the board, and shall, when present, preside at every meeting thereof. In his absence the resident assistant government agent (if any), or (if none) then the person appointed by the government agent as provided for by section 4, shall preside at the meeting as ex-officio chairman. If the ex-officio chairman is absent at any meeting, the members present shall appoint their own chairman to preside at such meeting.

Government agent to be ex-officio chairman and treasurer. When ex-officio chairman absent members to appoint their own chairman.

III.—Meetings of the Board.

17 Meetings of the board shall be held for the despatch of business upon such day or days in every month as shall be fixed by any general by-law to be made by the board as hereinafter provided. Provided that it shall be lawful for the ex-officio chairman to convene a special meeting whenever he shall consider such desirable; and it shall be incumbent upon him to convene a special meeting whenever so requested in writing by any two or more members of the board. Two days' notice of the day appointed for any such special meeting shall be given to or left at the residence of each member of the board.

Meetings of the board how and when convened.

18 All acts whatsoever authorized or required by virtue of this Ordinance to be done by any board may and shall be decided upon and done by the majority of members present at any duly convened meeting thereof, such members being not less than three in number when the board consists of more than four members, and not less than two in number when the board consists of less than four members, unless when by any of the provisions of this Ordinance one member is expressly empowered to decide upon and do any act, matter, or thing. Provided that when the votes of the members present in regard to any question shall be equally divided, the chairman shall, besides his vote as a member, have a casting vote.

Powers of board to be vested in the majority.

be adopted for assessment under this Ordinance.

27 It shall be lawful for each board, and it is hereby authorized, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, once a year, if it shall think necessary, to make and assess, with the sanction of the Governor and Executive Council, any rate or rates on the annual value of all houses and buildings of every description and all lands and tenements whatsoever within the town, for which such board is constituted; such rate or rates to endure for any period not exceeding twelve months. Provided that such rates shall not exceed the sum of two and one-half per centum per annum on such annual value over and above the sum necessary for the maintenance of the police for such town. Provided also that all buildings appropriated to religious or educational purposes or in charge of military sentries shall be exempted from the payment of such rates. Provided also that it shall be lawful for the board to exempt from payment on the ground of poverty the owner of any house, land, or building rateable under this Ordinance.

28 In any town in which a police force shall be established the valuation of lands, houses, and tenements, which shall have been made or shall hereafter from time to time be made for the purposes of police assessment tax under the Ordinances No. 16 of 1865 and No. 7 of 1866, or any Ordinance or Ordinances hereafter in that behalf to be enacted, shall be taken as the valuation for the purposes of assessment under this Ordinance.

Local Boards.

29 The assessment rate imposed under this Ordinance shall be paid and recovered in the same manner as the police tax is directed to be paid and recovered under the Ordinances No. 16 of 1865, No. 7 of 1866, and No. 6 of 1873, and shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the said last mentioned Ordinances relating to the payment and recovery of such police tax. The government agent shall collect and recover the assessment rate payable under this Ordinance, together with the police tax, and shall pay such assessment rate over to the board.

Assessment rate under this Ordinance to be paid and recovered in the same manner as police assessment tax.

30 From and after the day on which this Ordinance comes into force in any town, it shall be lawful for any board, acting under the authority of this Ordinance, to impose and enforce an annual tax payable in six days' labour, or in money not exceeding two rupees and fifty cents in commutation of such labour, upon all persons residing within the limits of the town who would have been liable under the provisions of the Ordinance No. 10 of 1861 to the performance of labour for the maintenance of the roads or other public means of communication by land or by water, if the principal Ordinance^e had not been passed.

necessary ; and the money arising from such sale shall be applied towards the purposes of this Ordinance.

Public streets and bridges to be vested in board.

33 All public streets and bridges and public markets, and the lands used as such within each town brought under the operation of this Ordinance (except such streets and bridges as shall be specially exempted by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation to be for that purpose from time to time issued), and the pavements, stones, and other materials thereof, and also all erections, materials, implements, and other things provided for such streets, shall be vested in the board of such town for the purposes of this Ordinance.

VIII.—Powers, Duties, and Functions of Boards.

Powers given to boards of health under Ordinances No. 15 of 1862 and No. 8 of 1866 to be vested in these boards.

34 From and after the time when this Ordinance shall come into operation in any town, all the powers, duties, and authorities vested or expressed to be vested in the board of health by "The Nuisances Ordinance, 1862," and the Ordinance No. 8 of 1866, intituled "An Ordinance to prevent the spread of Contagious Diseases in this Island," or either of them, or by any by-law made in pursuance or by authority of those Ordinances or either of them, shall, so far as respects such town, be transferred to and become vested in and be exercised by the board of such town.

Power to make by-laws.

35 In addition to the power of enacting by-laws expressed to be conferred upon the board of health by the 5th section of "The Nuisances Ordinance, 1862," and now vested in the board, it shall be lawful for every board from time to time to make such by-laws as it may deem expedient for any of the following purposes :

- (1) For regulating the time and place of its own meetings, and the order to be observed thereat ;
- (2) For making, repairing, cleaning, watering, and lighting the streets, roads, canals, and bridges of the town ;
- (3) For regulating weights and measures ;
- (4) For the assize of bread ;
- (5) For the establishment and regulation of markets ;
- (7) For the regulation of dangerous or offensive trades ;
- (8) For the seizure and forfeiture of unwholesome flesh, fish, or other provisions introduced into the town or exposed for sale therein ;
- (9) For the suppression of cruelty to animals ;
- (10) For regulating the mode and times of fishing ;
- (11) For taking care of waste or public lands ;
- (12) For the putting up and preservation of boundaries and fences of lands, whether public or private ;
- (13) For the setting apart and regulation of bathing places ;

(14) For the destruction of dogs ;

(15) For—

[§ 4, 9 of 1887]

- (a) Determining the amount to be paid in commutation of the labour due under section 30 of this Ordinance, and for enforcing the recovery of such commutation ;
- (b) Calling out and compelling the performance of such labour ;
- (c) Enforcing in case of default the performance of increased or double labour, or the payment of increased or double commutation, and costs ; and
- (d) Recovering all other taxes payable under the principal Ordinance.*

Provided that such increased or double labour as aforesaid shall not exceed in the aggregate twelve days' labour, and such increased or double commutation in lieu of the same, exclusive of costs, shall not exceed five rupees from any person in one year.

Provided further, that until such by-laws are made by any board under sub-sections (a), (b), and (c) of this section, the provisions of the Ordinance No. 10 of 1861 and of the Ordinance No. 31 of 1884 shall, so far as the same may be made applicable, be acted upon and deemed of force as if the same were inserted herein, and that all the powers and authorities vested under the said Ordinances in the chairman of any district or provincial road committee shall, so far as respects any town, be vested in and exercised by the chairman of the board of such town.

(16) For fixing and levying charges for the occupation of pounds for stray cattle and the cost of the keep of the animals impounded ;

(17) For regulating the dimensions and ventilation of huts and houses to be constructed ;

(17 a) For levying fees for and regulating the grazing of cattle on waste and other lands not being private property ;

[§ 6, 27 of 1890]

(17 b) For protecting fish, game, and wild birds, and for regulating the use of firearms within the town ;

(18) For every other purpose which may be necessary or expedient for the due conservancy of the town, the preservation of the public health therein, and the promotion of the comfort and convenience of the people thereof.

Provided that such by-laws shall not be contrary to any of the provisions of this Ordinance. Provided also that such by-laws shall not be of any force or effect until they have been submitted to and confirmed by the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, who is hereby empowered, with such advice, to confirm or disallow the same. The by-laws, when allowed, shall be published in the Government Gazette in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages respectively, and shall thereupon become as legal, valid, and effectual as if they had been enacted in this Ordinance ; and all courts, judges, and magistrates shall take judicial notice thereof. Provided also that until the board of any town shall have made by-laws relative to the calling out and performance of labour, and the commutation thereof, the provisions of the Ordinance No. 10 of 1861 shall, so far as the same can be made applicable, be acted upon with reference to the calling out and performance of labour in such town and the commutation thereof, anything in section 30 of this Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding ; and all powers vested or expressed to be vested in provincial and district committees by the said Ordinance No. 10 of 1861 shall, so far as relates to any town brought under the operation of this Ordinance and the inhabitants thereof, be vested in the board, and all powers vested or expressed to be vested in division officers by the said Ordinance shall be vested in such persons as may be appointed by the board in this behalf.

Board may appoint secretary and other officers.

36 It shall be lawful for the board of any town to appoint a secretary and such other officers or servants as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Ordinance, and to pay such secretary, officers, and servants out of the local fund such salary or wages as to such board may seem fit.

Power of the board to improve streets and levy and sell lands and buildings.

37 It shall be lawful for the board, with the sanction of the Governor and Executive Council, to do any of the things following :

(1) To build and construct bridges and tunnels, and to turn, divert, discontinue, stop up, widen, open, enlarge, or otherwise improve any street, making due compensation out of the local fund to the owners or occupiers of any property required for such purposes, or injured by the carrying out thereof ;

To purchase and sell lands.

(2) To purchase or take on lease land or buildings for the purposes of this Ordinance and pay for the same out of the local fund, and sell the same or any other property vested in the board ;

To tax dogs.

(3) To levy a tax upon dogs.

If necessary, land may be acquired under the law for the acquisition of land for public purposes.

38 When there is any hindrance to the acquisition by purchase of any land or building required for the purpose of this Ordinance, the Governor, upon the application of the board, and after such inquiry as may be thought proper, may declare that the land or building is needed for a public purpose, and may order proceedings for obtaining possession of the same for Government, and for determining the compensation to be paid to the parties interested, according to any laws now or hereafter to be in force for the acquisition of private land for public purposes ; and the Governor may vest such land or building in the board on its paying the compensation awarded.

Other powers of the board.

39 It shall be lawful for the board, in addition to any other powers vested in it, to do any of the things following :

Local Boards.

- (1) To water the streets ;
- (2) To remove encroachments and obstructions in or upon any street ;
- (3) To paint up the names of streets and the numbers of houses or tenements on any private property ;
- (4) To shut up and secure deserted houses ;
- (5) To provide and maintain common latrines ;
- (6) To construct wells and provide bathing places ;
- (7) To erect lamps and light the town or any part thereof ;
- (8) To make and repair main and other drain sewers ;
- (9) To establish pounds for stray cattle.

40 It shall be the duty of the board to abate all nuisances in the town, to cleanse and keep and maintain in proper cleanliness, order, and repair all public streets and bridges (except such as shall be exempted by the Governor under section 33) and all public wells and tanks within the limits of the town.

Duties of the board to abate nuisances and cleanse and keep in repair streets, &c.

41 It shall be lawful for the board to grant permission for any religious or public procession or the performance of any music in the streets of the town, and to regulate and restrict such processions and music in such manner as the board shall think fit, regard being had to the comfort and convenience of the inhabitants.

Board may regulate processions and music in the streets.

42 All powers, duties, and responsibilities vested or expressed to be vested in provincial and district committees respectively, or in the chairman or secretary thereof, under or by virtue of "The Road Ordinance, 1861," shall be vested in the board, within and so far as relates to any town brought under the operation of this Ordinance, and the inhabitants thereof, except so far as such powers, duties, and responsibilities are inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Ordinance.

Powers of provincial and district committees vested in board.

43 It shall not be lawful for any person to erect any range or block of huts or sheds or buildings, whether to be used as dwellings or stables or for any other purposes, on any plot or parcel of ground not previously built upon, or on which no buildings are standing, or to add any hut, shed, or building to any range or block of huts, sheds, or buildings already existing when this Ordinance comes into operation, without previous notice to the board ; and the board may require such huts, sheds, or buildings to be built so that they may stand in regular lines, with a free passage or way in front of each line of such width as the board may think proper for salutary ventilation and for facilitating scavenging, and at such a level as will admit of sufficient drainage, and may require such huts, sheds, or buildings to be provided with latrine or latrines, which must be maintained in proper order. And if any such huts, sheds, or buildings be built without giving such notice to the board, or otherwise than as required by the board, the board may give notice to the Erection of new huts to be under the control of the board.

builder or builders thereof to take down and remove the same within one month, and if such huts or buildings be not taken down or removed according to such notice, the board may cause the same to be taken down and removed, and the expenses incurred in doing so shall be paid by the said builder or builders and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Power of the board as to existing huts.

44 Whenever the board is satisfied that any huts, sheds, or buildings, whether used as dwellings or stables or for any other purposes, and whether existing at the time when this Ordinance comes into operation or subsequently erected, are by reason of the manner in which they are crowded together, or of the want of drainage and the impracticability of scavenging, attended with risk of disease to the inhabitants of the neighbourhood, it shall cause a notice to be affixed to some conspicuous part of such huts, sheds, or buildings requiring the owners or occupiers thereof, or, at its option, the owner of the land on which such huts, sheds, or buildings are constructed, within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the board for that purpose, to execute such operations as the board may deem necessary for the avoidance of such risk. And in case such owners or occupiers shall refuse or neglect to execute such operations within the time appointed, any officer appointed by the board in that behalf may cause the said huts, sheds, or buildings to be taken down or such operations to be performed in respect thereof as the board may deem necessary to prevent such risk. If such huts, sheds, or buildings be pulled down, the said officer shall cause the materials of each hut, shed, or building to be sold separately, if such sale can be effected, and the proceeds shall be paid to the owner of the hut, shed, or building, or if the owner be unknown, or the title disputed, shall be held in deposit by the treasurer, until the person interested therein shall obtain the order of a competent court for the payment of the same. Provided always that in case any huts, sheds, or buildings existing at the time when this Ordinance comes into operation should be pulled down under this section by order of the board, or in pursuance of its notice, compensation shall further be made to the owner thereof, and the amount thereof in case of dispute shall be ascertained and determined as hereinafter provided.

Proviso.

Houses in a ruinous and dangerous state.

45 If in any street any house, building, or wall or any thing affixed thereon be deemed by the board to be in a ruinous state, or likely to fall, or in any way dangerous to the inhabitants of such house or building, or to the neighbouring houses or buildings, or the occupiers thereof, or to passengers, it shall immediately, if it appears to be necessary, cause a proper board or fence to be put up for the protection of passengers, and shall cause notice in writing to be given to the owner or occupier forthwith to take down, secure, or repair such house, building, wall, or thing affixed thereon, as the case shall require, and if such owner or occupier do not begin to repair, take down, or secure the same within three days after such notice, and complete such work with due diligence, the board shall cause all or so much of such house, building, wall, or thing as it shall think necessary to be taken down, repaired, or otherwise secured; and all the expenses incurred by the board shall be paid by the owner or occupier of the premises, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Local Boards.

46 If any such house, building, or wall, or any part of the same, be pulled down by virtue of the powers aforesaid, the board may sell the materials thereof, or so much of the same as shall be taken down, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred, and shall, on demand, restore any overplus arising from such sale to the owner of such houses, building, or wall. Provided always that, in case no demand for such overplus as aforesaid shall within twelve months be made by any person entitled to call for the same, the board shall be at liberty to pay the amount of such overplus to the credit of the local fund, and shall be freed from any liability to pay or answer for or in respect of such unclaimed overplus. The board, although it sells such materials for the purposes aforesaid, shall have the same remedies for compelling the payment of so much of the said expenses as may remain due after the application of the proceeds of such sale, as by this Ordinance are given to it for compelling the payment of the whole of the said expenses.

Sale of materials of ruinous houses.

Proviso.

47 Whenever it shall appear to the board that any house is so overcrowded as to be dangerous or prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants thereof, or of the neighbourhood, and the inhabitants shall consist of more than one family, the board shall cause proceedings to be taken before the police court to abate such overcrowding, and the said court shall thereupon make such order as it may think fit; and each of the persons permitting such overcrowding shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten rupees for each day after the date of such order during which such overcrowding shall continue.

Overcrowding of houses.

48 It shall be lawful for the board at any time between sunrise and sunset by any of its officers (on giving six hours' notice) to enter into and inspect all houses and buildings, and by an order in writing to direct all or any part thereof to be forthwith internally and externally limewashed or otherwise cleaned for sanitary reasons; and if the owner or occupier of such house or building neglect to comply with such direction within two days from the time when the order shall have been served upon him, the board may cause the same to be done, and the expenses incurred shall be paid by the owner or occupier, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Power of

it may think fit; and all the expenses incurred thereby shall be paid by the person making such drain, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Buildings over sewers, &c., not to be erected without consent of board.

50 No building shall be newly erected over any public sewer, drain, culvert, gutter, or watercourse without the written consent of the board; and if any building be so erected, the board may cause the same to be pulled down or otherwise dealt with as it may think fit; and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person offending, and be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Board may order or cause additional latrines to be constructed.

51 In case the board shall be of opinion that any latrine or latrines or additional latrine or latrines shall be necessary to be attached to or provided for any house or building or land, the owner of such house or building or land shall within fourteen days after notice in this behalf by the board cause such latrine or latrines to be constructed in accordance with the requisition of such notice, and in case the requisitions of such notice shall not have been complied with to the satisfaction of the board by such owner within the period aforesaid, the board shall be at liberty to cause such latrine or latrines to be constructed, and the expense incurred in such construction shall be payable by such owner, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Board may cause persons employing large numbers of men to provide and maintain latrine or latrines, &c.

52 It shall be lawful for the board to compel any person employing large bodies of workmen or labourers to provide and maintain such latrine or latrines as may to it seem fit, and to cause the same to be kept in proper order and to be daily cleaned. And should such person neglect to provide and maintain such latrine or latrines, or to keep the same clean and in proper order, the board may construct and cause such latrine or latrines to be kept in good order and cleaned, and the expense incurred by the board in respect thereof shall be paid by the person aforesaid, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Neglecting to enclose private latrine.

53 The owner or occupier of any house or building or land having a latrine on his premises shall have such latrine shut out by a sufficient roof and wall or fence from the view of persons passing by or residing in the neighbourhood, and it shall not be lawful for any owner or occupier to keep any latrine open with a door or trap-door opening on to any street. Every owner or occupier who shall omit to comply with, or shall commit any breach of, any of the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a fine of five rupees a day for each day of default or breach. Provided that the board may, in its discretion, permit the continuance for such time as it may think fit of any such latrine open or with a door or trap-door opening on to any street, where such latrine already exists and does not create a nuisance.

Proviso.

If owners neglect to keep drains, &c., in good order,

54 All drains, latrines, and cesspools within the town shall be under the survey and the control of the board, and shall be altered, repaired, and kept in proper order at the cost and charges of the owners of the land and buildings to which the same belong, or for the use of which they are constructed or continued ; and if the owner of any land or buildings to which any such drain, latrine, or cesspool belongs neglects, during eight days after notice in writing for that purpose, to alter, repair, and put the same in good order in the manner required by the board, the board may cause such drain or latrine or cesspool to be altered, repaired, and put in good order in the manner required ; and the expense incurred by the board in respect thereof shall be paid by the owner, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Local Boards.

board may cause the same to be done and charge the owner with the expenses.

55 If any such drain or latrine or cesspool be constructed after this Ordinance comes into operation, contrary to the direction and regulations of the board, or contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, or if any person, without the consent of the board, construct any new drain or latrine or cesspool, or construct, rebuild, or unstop any drain or latrine or cesspool which has been ordered by the board to be demolished or stopped up, or not to be made, every person so doing shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, and the board may cause such amendment or alteration to be made in any such drain or latrine or cesspool as it may think fit, and the expenses thereof shall be paid by the person by whom such drain or latrine or cesspool was improperly constructed, rebuilt, or unstopped, and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided.

Penalty for persons making or altering drains, &c., contrary to the orders of the board.

56 The board or any officer appointed by it for that purpose may, subject to the restrictions of this Ordinance, inspect any such drain or latrine or cesspool, and for that purpose at any time may enter upon any lands and buildings, with such assistants and workmen as are necessary, and cause the ground to be opened, where such board or officer may think fit, doing as little damage as may be ; and if upon such inspection it appears that the drain or latrine or cesspool is not in good order and condition, or that it has been constructed after this Ordinance comes into operation contrary to the provisions thereof, the expenses of such inspection shall be paid by the person to whom such drain or latrine or cesspool may belong, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided ; but if such drain or latrine or cesspool be found to be in proper order and condition, and not to have been constructed in violation of the provisions of this Ordinance, the board or officer as aforesaid shall cause the ground to be closed and made good, as soon as may be, and the expenses of the opening, closing, and making good such drain or latrine or cesspool shall in that case be defrayed by the board.

Inspection of drains and latrines.

57 When any private tank or low marshy ground or any waste or stagnant water, being in any private land, appears to the board to be injurious to health or to be offensive to the neighbourhood, the board shall, by notice in writing, require the owner of the said premises to cleanse or fill up such tank or marshy ground, or to drain off or remove such stagnant water ; and if the said owner shall refuse or neglect to comply with such requisition during seven days from the service thereof, the board or its officers and workmen may enter into the said premises and do all necessary acts for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, and the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the owner of such premises, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Place of deposit for filth.

58 The board from time to time shall provide places convenient for the deposit of the night soil, dung, and other filth, and the dust, dirt, ashes, and rubbish collected and removed under the authority of this Ordinance, and for keeping all cattle, carts, implements, and other things required for the above or any of the purposes of this Ordinance. Provided that no such dust, dirt, ashes, rubbish, night soil, dung, and other filth collected and removed under the authority of this Ordinance shall be deposited in the neighbourhood of populous localities nor within the limits of the town.

Proviso.

All rubbish, &c., collected to be the property of board.

59 All dirt, dust, ashes, rubbish, sewage, soil, dung, and filth collected from streets, houses, latrines, sewers, and cesspools shall be the property of the board, and the board shall have power to sell or dispose of the same as it may think proper; and the money arising from the sale thereof shall be paid to the credit of the local fund.

IX.—Miscellaneous.

Board may enter into contracts.

60 It shall be lawful for any board from time to time to enter into any contract with any person for any work to be done or materials to be furnished for carrying out any of the purposes of this Ordinance. Such contracts shall be signed by the chairman and one or more of the members and by the other party contracting; but no contract above the value of five hundred rupees shall be entered into unless fourteen days' notice be previously given in one or more of the public newspapers published in this island calling for tenders for the execution of such work or the supply of such materials. Provided always that it shall not be compulsory on the board to accept the lowest or any tender.

Governor may contribute any portion of the cost of any special work estimated at more than 100 rupees.

61 In the event of any special work of local improvement being undertaken by any board, which shall be estimated to cost more than one hundred rupees, the Governor may, with the advice of the Executive Council, contribute from the general revenue such proportion of the cost thereof as he may think fit.

Service of notice on owners and occupiers of buildings and lands.

62 When any notice is required by this Ordinance to be given to the owner or occupier of any house, building, or land, such notice, addressed to the owner or occupier, as the case may require, may be served on the occupier of such house, building, or land, or left with some adult member or servant of his family, or, if the notice cannot be so served, or if there be no occupier, may be put up on some conspicuous part of such house, building, or land, and it shall not be necessary in any such notice to name the occupier or the owner. Provided always that, when the owner and his residence are known to the board, it shall be its duty, if such owner be residing within the town, to cause every such notice to be given to the owner ; and if he be not resident within the town, it shall send every such notice by the post addressed to his residence.

Local Boards.

Proviso.

63 Whenever under the provisions of this Ordinance any work is required to be executed by the owner or occupier of any house, building, or land, and default is made in the execution of such work, the board, whether any penalty is or is not provided for such default, may cause such work to be executed, and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the person by whom such work ought to have been executed, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Board, in default of owner or occupier, may execute works and recover expenses.

64 If the defaulter be the owner of the house, building, or land, the board may, by way of additional remedy, whether an action or proceeding has been brought or taken against any such owner or not, require the payment of all or any part of the expenses payable by the owner for the time being, from the person who then or at any time thereafter occupies the house, building, or land under such owner ; and in default of payment thereof by such occupier on demand, the same shall be levied by distress of the goods and chattels of such occupier ; every such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to his landlord so much as is so paid by or recovered from such occupier in respect of any such expenses, and to retain possession until such expenses shall be fully reimbursed to him.

Power to levy charges on occupier, who may deduct the same from his rent.

65 No occupier of any house, building, or land shall be liable to pay more money in respect of any expenses charged by this Ordinance on the owner thereof than the amount of rent due from him for the premises in respect of which such expenses are payable at the time of the demand made upon him, or which at any time, after such demand and notice not to pay the same to his landlord, has accrued and become payable by him, unless he neglect or refuse, upon application made to him for that purpose by the board, truly to disclose the amount of his rent and the address of the person to whom such rent is payable ; but the burden of proof that the sum demanded of any such occupier is greater than the rent which was due by him at the time of such demand, or which has since accrued, shall be upon such occupier. Provided further that nothing herein contained shall be taken to affect any special contract made between any owner and occupier respecting the payment of the expense of any such works as aforesaid.

Occupiers not to be liable to more than the amount of rent due.

Proviso.

66 Whenever default is made by the owner of any house, building, or land in the execution of any work required to be executed by him, the occupier of such house, building, or

Occupier in default of owner may land may, with the approval of the board, cause such work to be executed, and the expense thereof shall be paid to him by the owner, or the amount may be deducted out of the rent from time to time becoming due from him to such owner. The owner shall not be entitled to eject the occupier until such expense shall have been fully paid or deducted as aforesaid.

Proceedings if an occupier opposes the execution of the Ordinance.

67 If the occupier of any house, building, or land prevent the owner thereof from carrying into effect, in respect of such house, building, or land, any of the provisions of this Ordinance after notice of his intention so to do has been given by the owner to such occupier, the board, upon proof thereof, and upon application of the owner, may make an order in writing requiring such occupier to permit the owner to execute all such works with respect to such building or land as may be necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this Ordinance, and may also, if it think fit, order the occupier to pay to the owner the costs relating to such application or order, and if, after the expiration of eight days from the date of the order, such occupier continue to refuse to permit such owner to execute such works, such occupier shall, for every day during which he so continues to refuse, be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees, and every such owner, during the continuance of such refusal, shall be discharged from any penalties to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of his default in executing such works.

Remedy if neither the owner nor occupier be able to pay.

68 If neither the owner nor the occupier be able to pay the expenses incurred by the board, the same shall be a charge upon the house, building, or land in respect of which the expenses were incurred, and payable as a debt due to the board.

Right of entry in houses.

69 Whenever under the provisions of this Ordinance the board or others acting under their orders or authority, or having themselves authority under this Ordinance, shall have occasion to enter into any house for the purpose of inspection or for the purpose of performing or executing any duty or power vested in them under this Ordinance, they shall be empowered to do so.

Board may direct prosecution.

70 The board may direct any prosecution for any nuisance whatsoever, and may order proceedings to be taken for the recovery of any penalties and for the punishment of any persons offending against the provisions of this Ordinance, and may order the expenses of such prosecution or other proceedings to be paid out of the local fund.

No action to be instituted against board until after one month's notice or three months after cause of action.

71 No action shall be instituted against the board or members or any of the officers of the board or any person acting under the direction of the board for anything done or intended to be done under the powers of this Ordinance until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing shall have been given to the board or to the defendant, stating with reasonable certainty the cause of such action and the name and the place of abode of the intended plaintiff and of his proctor or agent, if any, in the cause; and upon the trial of any such action the plaintiff shall not be permitted to go into evidence of any cause of action, except such as is stated in the notice so delivered, and unless such notice be proved the court shall find for the defendant; and every such action shall be commenced within three months next after the accrual of the cause of action and not afterwards; and if any person, to whom such notice of action is given, shall before action brought, tender sufficient amends to the plaintiff, such plaintiff shall not recover in any such action, when brought, and the defendant shall be entitled to be paid his costs by the plaintiff; and if no such tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the defendant in such action, by leave of the court where such action shall be pending, at any time before issue joined to pay into court such sum of money as he shall think fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into court.

Local Boards.

72 The board may make compensation out of the local fund to all persons sustaining any damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested in the board, its officers, or servants, under and by virtue of this Ordinance.

Board may make compensation out of local fund.

73 Except as herein otherwise provided, in all cases when compensation, damages, costs, or expenses are by this Ordinance directed to be paid, the amount and, if necessary, the apportionment of the same in case of dispute, may be summarily ascertained and determined by any court having jurisdiction in the matter.

Compensation, damages, and costs to be determined by court.

74 If the amount of compensation, damages, costs, or expenses be not paid by the party liable to pay the same within seven days after demand, such amount may be reported to such court, and recovered in the same way as if it were a fine imposed by such court.

Recovery of damages.

75 No person shall be liable to any fine or penalty under this Ordinance, unless the complaint shall have been made before a competent court within one month next after the commission of the offence.

No person liable to fine or penalty unless complaint be made one month after the offence is committed.

76 If through any act, neglect, or default, on account whereof any person shall have incurred any penalty imposed by this Ordinance, any damage to the property of the board shall have been committed by such person, he shall be liable to make good such damage, as well as to pay such penalty, and the amount of such damage shall in case of dispute be determined by the court by which the party incurring such penalty shall have been convicted, and the amount of such damage shall be recovered as if it were a fine imposed by the court.

Damage to property of board to be made good in addition to penalty.

77 When the board shall have incurred any expense in executing any of the works, which under this Ordinance the owner of any houses, buildings, or lands is required to execute, the board may either recover the amount of such expenses in the manner hereinbefore provided, or, if it think fit, may take engagements from the said owners for the payment by instalments of such sums as will be sufficient to defray the whole amount of the said expenses, with interest thereon at the rate of nine per centum per annum, within a period not exceeding five years, and such sums when due may be recovered by the same process by which rates payable under this Ordinance may be recovered.

Acts and notices may be done and given by secretary or any other officer authorized thereunto.

78 All acts and notices which the board or members are empowered to do or give by this or any other Ordinance may be done and given by the secretary of the board or by any other of its officers, he or they being authorized thereunto by the board.

Punishment for breach of by-laws.

79 The breach of any by-law made under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be an offence, and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding twenty rupees, and in the case of a continuing offence by a further fine not exceeding five rupees for each subsequent day on which such offence is committed. Such offence shall be cognizable by a police court, and such court shall have power to inflict the full amount of fine to which the offender shall be liable, notwithstanding that such fine may exceed in amount the ordinary jurisdiction of such court.

Penalty for misuse of powers by officers.

81 Every person acting under the authority of this Ordinance who shall, under pretence of performing any act under the authority of this Ordinance, use any unnecessary violence, or give any uncalled for and vexatious annoyance, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Ordinance No. 6 of 1882.

Local board may cancel, alter, or amend any
by-laws.

2 It shall be lawful for the local boards of health from time to time to add to, cancel, alter, or amend any existing by-law or any by-law which may hereafter be made by them, provided that the said additions, cancellations, alterations, or amendments, as the case may be, shall be within the power, scope, and authority of local boards of health as declared and defined by the said Ordinance, and shall be in all respects dealt with and decided upon in the same manner as is directed and provided in the said Ordinance with respect to the original by-laws in the 35th section of the said Ordinance: and all additions, cancellations, alterations, or amendments heretofore made by any local board in respect of any by-law since the passing of the said Ordinance, and confirmed by the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, and published in the Gazette, shall for all purposes of the said Ordinance be binding and effectual, and have the same force and virtue as the same would have had had they been made after the passing of this Ordinance.

Cancellations

*Local Boards.Ordinance No. 27 of 1890.

8 The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may by Proclamation in the Government Gazette exempt the inhabitants of any town from payment of the police tax, and order the withdrawal of the whole or any part of the police force therein, and may with the like advice revoke such exemption and order of withdrawal. After such revocation the liability of the inhabitants to pay the police tax shall be revived.

The Governor may exempt any town from the police tax and withdraw the police wholly or in part.

9 (1) In any town the inhabitants of which are so exempted as aforesaid, and from which the police force shall have been withdrawn wholly or in part, it shall be lawful for the board, and it is hereby authorized, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, and with the sanction of the Governor in Executive Council, to levy an assessment rate on the annual value of all houses, buildings, lands, and tenements whatsoever within such town.

Board may levy an assessment rate up to five per cent.

(2) Such rate shall endure for any period not exceeding twelve months, shall not exceed five per centum per annum on such annual value, and shall be recovered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Provided that all buildings appropriated exclusively to religious or educational purposes, or in charge of military sentries, shall be exempted from the payment of such rate.

Provided also that it shall be lawful for the board to exempt from payment, on the ground of poverty, the owner of any house, building, land, or tenement rateable under this Ordinance.

(3) The valuation of houses, buildings, lands, and tenements on which such assessment rate shall be levied shall be made in manner provided in the Ordinances No. 16 of 1865 and No. 7 of 1866, for the purpose of creating a fund for the maintenance of a police force in any town.

(4) The last valuation which shall have been made in any town to which the principal Ordinance applies for the purposes of the police tax prior to the date of the inhabitants of such town being exempted from the said tax, shall be taken to be the first valuation for the purposes of the assessment rate.

(5) The assessment rate under this section shall be paid and recovered in the same manner as the police tax is directed to be paid and recovered under the Ordinances No. 16 of 1865, No. 7 of 1866, and No. 6 of 1873, and shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the said Ordinances relating to the payment and recovery of such police tax. The government agent shall collect and recover the assessment rate payable under this section, and shall pay such rate over to the board.

10 If in any town from which the police shall be withdrawn, wholly or in part, special police protection is in the opinion of the Governor requisite on any particular occasion, the Inspector-General of Police may by order of the Governor provide such protection, and the board shall pay from the local fund the entire cost thereof, or such portion as the Governor in Executive Council may consider equitable.

Cost of special police protection chargeable to local fund.

11 The board may provide the town with a supply of drinking water, and for that purpose may, from time to time, with the approval of the Governor in Executive Council, contract with any person whomsoever, or purchase, take upon lease, hire, or construct and maintain such waterworks, and do and execute all such works, matters, and things as shall be necessary and proper.

Waterworks.

Local Boards.

No. 27 of 1890—*contd.Water-rate.

12 (1) To provide for the cost and maintenance of such waterworks, it shall be lawful for the board to levy a water-rate on such annual value of all houses, buildings, lands, and tenements within the limits of the town, as shall be determined for the purposes of the assessment rate levied under this or under the principal Ordinance.

(2) Such water-rate shall be fixed from time to time by the Governor in Executive Council, but shall in no case exceed six per centum on such annual value as aforesaid, and shall be collected, recovered, and paid over to the board by the government agent in the same manner as the assessment rate levied under this or under the principal Ordinance.

(3) The Governor in Executive Council may, by notification in the Government Gazette, exempt either wholly or partially from the water-rate any premises which, in his opinion, are not sufficiently supplied with water from such waterworks, and may from time to time revoke such exemption.

Ratepayer entitled to water free of charge from public standpipes.

13 (1) Every person paying such water-rate shall be entitled to have free of further charge in respect thereof a supply of water from the public standpipes for the domestic use of himself and his household.

For domestic purposes.

(2) A supply of water for domestic purposes shall not include a supply of water for horses or cattle or for washing vehicles, where such horses, cattle, or vehicles are kept for sale or hire, or a supply for any trade, manufacture, or business, or for fountains or swimming baths, or for any ornamental or mechanical purpose, or for purposes of irrigation.

Contract for private service and for supply of water for other than domestic purposes.

(3) The board may supply water for other than domestic purposes, or allow a private service of water to any house for domestic purposes, in such quantities and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between them and the persons desirous of being so supplied.

By-laws.

14 (1) It shall be lawful for the board to make, and when made to amend or revoke, by-laws for preventing waste, misuse, undue consumption, or contamination of the water supplied, and for every other purpose relating to the due preservation and maintenance of the waterworks.

(2) No by-law, or amendment or revocation of any by-law, shall have effect until the same is sanctioned by the Governor in Executive Council, and notice of such sanction is given by notification in the Government Gazette.

No assessment, valuation, &c., to be impeached for want of form.

15 No assessment or valuation, and no charge or demand of any rate or tax under the authority of this or of the principal Ordinance, and no seizure and sale, shall be impeached or affected by reason of any mistake in the name of any person liable to pay the rate or tax, or in the description of any property or thing liable to such rate or tax, or any mistake in the amount of assessment or the mode of seizure and sale, provided the directions of this and of the principal Ordinance or of any by-law lawfully made by the board be in substance and effect complied with; and no proceedings under this or the principal Ordinance shall be quashed or set aside in any court of justice for want of form.

The board may borrow on security of rates and taxes.

16 It shall be lawful for the board, with the sanction of the Governor in Executive Council, to borrow from the Ceylon Government, or from any person or body of persons, whether incorporated or not, such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for carrying out any waterworks or any work of a permanent character undertaken under the provisions of this or of the principal Ordinance. Every such loan shall be subject to such rate of interest and to such conditions for the repayment thereof as the Governor in Executive Council may sanction. And for the purpose of securing the repayment of the sum or sums so borrowed, and the interest accruing thereon, the board may mortgage and assign over to the lender or lenders by or on whose behalf such sum or sums or any part thereof may be lent, the rates and taxes imposed and levied under this or the principal Ordinance, or any portion thereof. Provided that any loans raised under the authority of this Ordinance shall not at any time exceed in the aggregate ten times the fair average annual income received by the board from all rates and taxes for the preceding five years.

Proviso.

17 Every mortgage of rates or taxes authorized to be made under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be by deed, free from stamp duty, in which the consideration shall be truly stated, and every such deed shall be signed by the chairman and any two members of the board, and shall be in the form in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed, or to the like effect.

Mortgages to be by deed.

18 If the board can at any time borrow or take up any sum of money at a lower rate of interest than any securities given by them and then being in force shall bear, they may borrow such sum at such lower rate as aforesaid in order to pay off and discharge the securities bearing such higher rate of interest, and may charge the rates and taxes which they are authorized to mortgage under this Ordinance or any part thereof with payment of such sum and such lower rate of interest, in such manner and subject to such regulations as are hereinbefore contained.

When and how board may pay off securities.

19 In order to discharge the principal money borrowed as aforesaid on security of any rates or taxes, the board shall every year appropriate and set apart out of such rates and taxes respectively a sum equal to at least one-fiftieth part of the sums so borrowed respectively as a sinking fund, to be applied in paying off the respective principal moneys so borrowed, and shall from time to time cause such sinking fund to be invested in the purchase of Imperial, Indian, or Colonial Government securities, to be approved by the Governor in Executive Council, and to be increased by accumulation in the way of compound interest or otherwise, and which interest shall, when it amounts to a sufficient sum, in like manner be invested until the principal sum and interest respectively shall be of sufficient amount to pay off the principal debts respectively to which such sinking fund shall be applicable, or some part thereof which the board shall think ought then to be paid off, when the same shall be so applied in paying off the said principal debts or part thereof in manner hereinafter mentioned.

Sinking fund for payment of debts.

20 Whenever the board shall be enabled to pay off one or more of the mortgages which shall be then payable, and shall not be able to pay off the whole of the same class, they shall decide the order of payment by lot among the class to which such one or more of the mortgages belong, and shall cause a notice signed by the chairman to be given to the persons entitled to the money to be paid off pursuant to such lot, and such notice shall express the principal sum proposed to be paid off, and that the same will be paid together with the interest due thereon at a place to be specified, at the expiration of six months from the date of giving such notice.

Order of payment of mortgages may in certain cases be decided by lot.

21 All licenses to carry on the trade of a butcher within the limits of the town shall be issued by the chairman of the board, anything in the Ordinance No. 14 of 1859 to the contrary notwithstanding.

Butchers' licenses.

Local Boards.

No. 27 of 1890—contd.

No assessment rate or police tax leviable on fields and lands subject to other taxation.

22 From and after the passing of this Ordinance no assessment rate and no police tax shall be made, assessed, or levied, under this or the principal Ordinance, in respect of any field or land situate within the limits of a town in which a local board is or may hereafter be established, if such field or land or the produce thereof is liable to any tax, duty, or Government share, or any annual or crop commutation under any law, usage, or custom which is now or which may hereafter be in force. Provided that nothing herein contained shall have the effect of exempting any house or building on such field or land from the assessment rate or police tax.

Construction of principal Ordinance.

23 The principal Ordinance shall, as from the commencement of this Ordinance, take effect subject to the additions, omissions, and substitutions required by this Ordinance, but nothing in this Ordinance shall affect the validity of any act done, right acquired, or liability incurred under the principal Ordinance before the commencement of this Ordinance.

Short title.

24 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Local Boards Amendment Ordinance, 1890," and shall be read as one with the principal Ordinance.

*Weights and Measures.No. 8 of 1876.An Ordinance to amend the Law as to Weights and Measures, and to provide for the more effectual prevention of False Weights, Measures, and Balances.(See No. 14 of 1878.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law as to weights and measures, and provide for the more effectual prevention of false weights, measures, and balances : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Preamble.

1 From and after the time when this Ordinance shall come into operation within every part of the island of Ceylon the imperial standard yard established by the Statute of the British Legislature of the 18th and 19th Vict., c. 72, intituled "An Act for legalizing and preserving the restored standards of Weights and Measures," shall be and is hereby declared to be the only standard measure of extension, from which all other measures of extension, whether lineal, superficial, or solid, shall be derived and computed ; and the imperial standard pound avoirdupois by the said Statute established shall be and is hereby declared to be the only standard measure of weight, from which all other weights shall be derived and computed ; and one equal seven-thousandth part of such pound avoirdupois shall be a grain, and 5,760 such grains shall be and be deemed to be a pound troy ; and the imperial standard gallon established by the Statute of the British Legislature of the 5th George IV., c. 74, intituled "An Act for ascertaining and establishing uniformity of Weights and Measures," shall be and is hereby declared to be the only standard measure of capacity, from which all other measures of capacity shall be derived and computed ; and the parts or multiples or proportions of the said standards shall be respectively computed according to the schedule to this Ordinance annexed.

Imperial standard weights and measures declared to be the standards in this island.

2 For the purpose of enabling every person to ascertain with certainty whether any weights and measures in use or intended for use do conform to the standards hereby declared, copies of the standard weights and measures of brass, or of some other material or materials best adapted for preserving accuracy in the climate of this island, shall be provided by Government and shall be preserved as hereinafter provided ; (that is to say,)

Copies of imperial standards to be preserved in municipalities by the municipal chairman ; in towns incorporated under the Local Health and Improvement Ordinance by the chairman of the local health and improvement board ; and at all kachcheries.

For each municipality, such standard weights and measures shall be preserved by the chairman of the municipal council at the office of the municipality.

For any town possessing a local health and improvement board established under the provisions of "The Local Health and Improvement Ordinance, 1876," such standard weights and measures shall be preserved by the chairman of such board at the office of such board.

Weights and Measures.

And the government agent of each province shall likewise preserve such standard weights and measures at each and every kachchéri of his province.

3 Every person shall be at liberty, on giving reasonable notice, to have any weights or measures, which he may bring for that purpose, tested by comparison with the standards aforesaid and duly stamped in manner hereinafter provided.

4 It shall be lawful for the Governor, by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time to prescribe fees to be paid for the testing and stamping of weights and measures in any place as provided by this Ordinance; and any such Proclamation from time to time, with the like advice, to amend, alter, or revoke. Provided that such fees shall in no case exceed 25 cents for each weight or measure tested and stamped, and that in the absence of any Proclamation prescribing such fees, or in so far as any such Proclamation may not extend, such testing and stamping shall be free of charge.

5 All contracts and dealings, which shall be made or had within any part of this island for any work to be done, or for any articles or things to be sold, delivered, done, or agreed for by weight or measure, where no special agreement shall be made to the contrary, shall be deemed to be made and had according to the standard weights and measures hereby established; troy weight being the measure of weight applicable to contracts and dealings relating to gold, silver, platina, diamonds, and other precious stones; apothecaries' weight applicable to contracts and dealings relating to the sale by retail of drugs; and avoirdupois weight applicable to contracts and dealings relating to all other articles.

6 All weights representing or intended to represent or be used as any of the weights mentioned in the schedule hereto, which shall be made after this Ordinance comes into operation, of the weight of one ounce avoirdupois or more, shall have the number of pounds or aliquot parts or multiples thereof contained in every such weight stamped or cast on the top or side thereof in legible figures and letters in the English, Sinhalese, or Tamil language; and all measures of capacity representing or intended to represent or be used as any of the measures of capacity mentioned in the said schedule shall, if made after this Ordinance comes into operation, have their contents denominated, stamped, or marked on the outside of such measures in legible figures and letters in the English, Sinhalese, or Tamil language.

7 From and after the passing of this Ordinance examiners of weights and measures shall be appointed as follows:

The examiners for any municipality shall be appointed by the chairman of the municipal council thereof.

The examiners for any town possessing a local health and improvement board incorporated under the provisions of "The Local Health and Improvement Ordinance, 1876," shall be appointed by the chairman of such board.

Liberty to the public to have weights and measures tested by the standards.

Power to the Governor in Executive Council to prescribe fees for testing weights and measures.

In the absence of any Proclamation prescribing fees, testing to be gratis.

Contracts to be construed with reference to standard weights and measures except where the contrary is specified.

Contents of weights and measures to be stamped on them.

Examiners may be appointed.

Examiners in municipalities to be appointed by the chairman, in towns incorporated under the Local Health and Improvement Ordinance by the chairman of the local health and improvement

The examiners for any other locality shall be appointed by the government agent of the province within which such locality may be situated.

board, and in other towns by the government agent.

The number of examiners for any municipality, town, or other locality shall be in the discretion of the authority empowered to appoint them, and may from time to time be increased or diminished at such discretion.

8 An examiner appointed under the 7th section of this Ordinance may be removed by the authority by which he was appointed.

Removal of examiners.

9 Good and sufficient stamps or dies of a pattern to be approved of by the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, for the stamping or sealing weights and measures, shall be provided and kept by the municipal council of every municipality, and by the local health and improvement board in every town possessing such board, and at every kachchéri; and all weights and measures representing or intended to represent or be used as any of the weights or measures mentioned in the schedule hereto, or any multiple or aliquot part thereof (except as hereinafter excepted), which shall be used for buying, selling, or receiving any goods or merchandise by weight or measure, shall be examined and compared with one or more of the copies of the standard weights and measures, provided under the authority of this Ordinance, by such examiners aforesaid, or by such other persons as shall be authorized in that behalf by such municipal council or local board or by the government agent of the province in places therein situate, where there is no municipality or local board, and such examiners or other authorized persons shall stamp in such manner as best to prevent fraud such weights and measures when so examined and compared, if found to correspond with the said copies. Provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to require any single weight above fifty-six pounds to be inspected or stamped; and that nothing herein contained shall extend to require any wicker measure used in the sale of lime or other articles of a like nature, or any jug or drinking cup made of glass or earthenware or partly of metal and partly of glass or earthenware, though represented as containing the amount of any imperial measure or of any multiple or aliquot part thereof, to be stamped; but any person buying by any vessel represented as containing the amount of any imperial measure or of any multiple or aliquot part thereof is hereby authorized to require the contents of such vessel to be ascertained by a comparison with a stamped measure, such stamped measure to be found and provided by the person who shall use such wicker measure, glass jug or drinking cup as aforesaid; and in case the person who shall use the last mentioned measure or vessel shall refuse to make such comparison, or if, upon such comparison being made, such wicker measure, glass jug or drinking cup shall be found to be deficient in quantity, the person who shall use the same shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction be subject to the forfeitures and punishment hereinafter imposed on any person using light or unjust or unstamped weights or measures. Provided also that nothing herein contained shall extend to require any weights or measures to be re-stamped, if the same shall have been constructed in England and shall bear the imperial stamp as provided by the 21st section of the Imperial Statute 5 and 6 William IV., c. 63, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act of the fourth and fifth year of his present Majesty relating to Weights and Measures, and to make other provisions instead thereof," or any other Imperial Statute to be enacted in that behalf.

False weights and measures to be forfeited and broken up.

12 Upon any such conviction as in the preceding section mentioned, the court shall order the defective weight or measure, or weights or measures, or the false or unequal balance or balances, as the case may be, to be forfeited; and all weights or measures or balances so forfeited shall be broken and rendered useless.

Penalty on examiners who are guilty of a breach of duty.

13 Any examiner of weights and measures, and any person legally authorized to examine and stamp any weights or measures, who shall stamp any weights or measures without duly verifying the same by comparison with a copy of the imperial standard in manner aforesaid, or shall be guilty of a breach of any duty imposed upon him by this Ordinance, or shall otherwise misconduct himself in the execution of his office, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for each offence.

Penalty on counterfeiting stamps, weights, or measures.

14 Any person or persons who shall make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be made, forged, or counterfeited, or knowingly act or assist in the making, forging, or counterfeiting any stamp which may be used for the stamping or marking of any weights or measures under this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding one year, or to both; and any person who shall knowingly sell, utter, dispose of, or expose to sale any weight or measure with such forged or counterfeit stamp or mark thereon, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months, or to both; and all weights and measures with such forged or counterfeited stamps or marks shall be forfeited and broken up.

Repeal of Ordinance No. 2 of 1836.

15 The Ordinance No. 2 of 1836 is hereby repealed.

Date of operation and short title.

16 This Ordinance shall come into operation on such a day as the Governor shall, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation,* appoint, and may be cited for all purposes as "The Weights and Measures Ordinance, 1876."

*Cattle Trespass.No. 9 of 1876.*An Ordinance to amend the Law relating to Cattle Trespass.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to cattle trespass: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Cattle Trespass Ordinance, 1876."

Repeal of Ordinances No. 2 of 1835 and No. 5 of 1849.

2 The Ordinance No. 2 of 1835, intituled "To provide for the protection of cultivated and enclosed lands and of public roads and canals against the trespass and depredations of stray cattle, goats, sheep, and pigs," and the Ordinance No. 5 of 1849, intituled "To give jurisdiction to the Police Courts in cases of Cattle Trespass," are hereby severally repealed, except so far as they or either of them repeal other Ordinances or parts thereof, and except so far as relates to any acts which may have been done, liabilities incurred, or proceedings had or commenced before this Ordinance comes into operation,

Interpretation clause:
"Cattle."
"Animal."

3 The word "cattle," when used in this Ordinance, means bulls, cows, oxen, heifers, calves, and buffaloes:

The word "animal" means, except when it is otherwise expressed, cattle, sheep, goats, and swine:

"Irrigation works."

The expression "irrigation works" means tanks, bunds, anicuts, sluices, channels, and other works used for irrigation purposes:

"Duly authorized person."

The expression "duly authorized person" means any person specially or generally authorized to act under the provisions of this Ordinance by the government agent for the province or the assistant government agent for the district, wherein such person resides.

Cattle trespassing on fenced or cultivated lands may be seized.

4 It shall be lawful for any proprietor or occupier (or any other person by his direction) of any land, which shall be fenced in such manner as the local custom may prescribe, and of any land under cultivation, whether fenced or not, if by local custom no fence is prescribed, to seize any animals found trespassing therein or thereupon, and to tie up and detain them until the damages, if any, occasioned by such trespass, assessed in manner hereinafter mentioned, and the fair expense of the keep of such animals during their lawful detention, shall be paid or recovered as hereinafter mentioned.

Cattle found trespassing on irrigation works may be seized or pursued off the works and seized.

5 It shall be lawful for any duly authorized person to seize any animals found trespassing in or upon any irrigation works, and, if unable to seize them while so trespassing, to pursue and seize them elsewhere and to tie them up and detain them, until the damages, if any, occasioned by such trespass, assessed in manner hereinafter mentioned, and the fair expense of the keep of such animals during their lawful detention, shall be paid or recovered as hereinafter mentioned.

Cattle Trespass.

6 The owner or person in charge of any animals trespassing as aforesaid shall, in the case of such private lands as aforesaid, be liable to pay to the proprietor or occupier thereof, and in the case of such irrigation works as aforesaid, be liable to pay to the government agent of the province or the assistant government agent of the district within which such works are situated, the full amount of damages arising by reason of such trespass; and if such trespass shall have been committed in the night time, he shall be further liable to pay a fine to Her Majesty equal to the amount of the damages awarded.

Liability of owner of stray cattle for damages, and penalty.

7 Notice of the seizure of such animals shall, with as little delay as possible, be given to some police constable or local headman having jurisdiction in the district, who shall, as soon as may be, inspect the spot where the damage has been done, and the animals which have been seized, and with the assistance of three or more respectable persons of the neighbourhood, if their attendance can be procured (otherwise, without such assistance), endeavour to ascertain to whom the animals belong, and assess the amount of damages sustained by such trespass, and shall forthwith, in the case of trespass upon private lands, furnish the proprietor or occupier thereof or some other person in his behalf, and in the case of irrigation works, furnish some duly authorized person or some other person on his behalf, with a report of the particulars of the trespass, the amount of such assessment, and the names of the owners of the animals, if such have been ascertained, and also the names of the persons by whom such assessment shall have been made. The police constable or headman shall, unless the amount of the assessment be immediately paid, take charge of the animals so seized, and if the owner or person entitled to the charge thereof at the time of the trespass shall not, within forty-eight hours from the time of the police constable or headman so taking charge, tender the amount of damages so assessed as aforesaid and the fair and reasonable cost of keeping the said animals during detention, the proprietor or occupier of the land so trespassed upon, or, in the case of trespass upon irrigation works, some duly authorized person, shall produce before the police court or village tribunal, if any, having jurisdiction in the district, the aforesaid report, which, if verified by the oath or affirmation of such constable or headman in open court, shall be received in evidence; and the said court or village tribunal, after causing such notice to be served upon or left at the last known place of abode of the owner of the animals when such owner has been ascertained, as such court or village tribunal shall deem reasonable, or, if such owner has not after reasonable inquiry been ascertained, then without any notice, summarily inquire into the case and, after hearing such evidence as to the court or village tribunal may seem expedient, shall award such damages as shall have been proved to have been sustained, together with the fair and reasonable costs and charges for keep during the detention, and further a fine of an amount equal to such Procedure.

damages, in case the trespass shall have been committed in the night time; and the said damages, charges, and penalty, unless within twenty-four hours paid, shall be levied by sale of the animals so seized, and, if necessary, by distress on the other property of the person liable to pay the same as aforesaid, and shall be paid to the person or persons entitled thereto.

In cases where no damages have been proved, a fine may be imposed.

8 In any case when any trespass by animals shall be proved to have been committed as aforesaid, whether any damage shall be proved to have been sustained in consequence of such trespass or not, it shall be lawful for the police court or village tribunal to award a fine not exceeding five rupees for each animal which shall be proved to have been trespassing, to be paid by the owner or person in charge thereof; and it shall be competent for such court or tribunal in its discretion, in the case of trespass on private land, to direct that a share, not exceeding one-half of such fine, be paid to the owner or occupier of the land and the remainder to Her Majesty.

Liability of owners of stray cattle which are not seized.

9 When, in the case of trespass on any private land, the proprietor or occupier thereof or other person acting in his behalf, and when, in the case of any trespass on any irrigation works, the person in charge thereof or other duly authorized person, is unable to seize and secure animals trespassing as aforesaid, but can prove the trespass, and whose or in whose charge the said animals were at the time of such trespass, the owners or persons in charge thereof shall be liable, notice being given of the trespass in the manner directed in section 7 of this Ordinance, to the same penalty, cost, and damages as in the case of seizure, and the course of proceeding in respect thereof shall be similar, as far as the circumstances admit, to that prescribed by section 7.

All rights under Ordinance forfeited unless due notice is given to headman.

10 All right to the benefit of any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be forfeited unless the notice required by section 7 shall have been given within forty-eight hours from the time of seizure (if any) or of trespass (if no seizure) to some police constable or local headman having jurisdiction in the district, if any such shall be resident within ten miles, or if no police constable or headman be resident within that distance, then within a reasonable period after such seizure or trespass. And nothing herein contained shall be held to apply to any trespass on any private land which shall not be protected by such fence as the local custom prescribes, if such custom prescribes any fence. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be held to take away or affect any right which the Crown or any person may have at common law for redress in respect of any damage sustained by trespass of animals.

Ordinance not to apply to unfenced lands, where custom requires a fence.

Common law right reserved.

All cattle over eighteen months old to be branded.

11 Every person possessing cattle not already branded, and being eighteen months old or upwards, shall cause the same to be branded, and shall furnish in the month of January of every year a correct description of the mark or marks with which his cattle are branded, to the chief

Cattle Trespass.

headman of the district wherein he resides, and in default thereof shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five cents for every head of cattle not branded, and to a penalty not exceeding two rupees for every omission to furnish such description. It shall be the duty of such chief headman of the district to cause the description of such brandmarks and the names of the persons using the same to be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, which book shall be transmitted to the kachchéri of his province on or before the 1st of March in each year. The moiety of any penalty recovered under this section shall go to the informer. Provided always that nothing in this section contained shall extend or be applicable to any chief headman's division or part thereof which shall be within the operation of "The Village Communities' Ordinance, 1871."

12 Any person without lawful right removing or taking away or causing to be removed and taken away any cattle from the custody of the person entitled to keep or detain the same under the provisions of the Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to such punishment as a police court has jurisdiction to award.

Penalty for unlawful removal.

13 Any person without lawful right driving any animals upon any land in the occupation of or cultivated by others, with intent that such animals should feed upon or otherwise injure any growing crop or produce thereof; and any person driving any animals into or upon any irrigation works; and any person driving the animals of others upon his own land or conniving at such animals being so driven, with intent to take proceedings for cattle trespass under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to such punishment as a police court has jurisdiction to award.

Penalty on causing animals to trespass.

14 It shall be lawful for the government agent or the police magistrate to grant permission in writing for the shooting of any stray cattle within his province or district, if it shall be shown to his satisfaction that stray cattle are in the habit of trespassing upon or in any such private land as aforesaid, or any irrigation works, and cannot be seized or identified, so that the owner or owners thereof may be ascertained and proceeded against; and thereupon such government agent or police magistrate may, at his discretion, direct some fit person to proceed to such land or irrigation works; and such person, if after every reasonable exertion he shall find it impracticable to seize or identify such animals, then and not otherwise shall shoot or otherwise destroy the same or cause the same to be shot or otherwise destroyed in his presence; and this notwithstanding that in the endeavour to seize the animals they may have been driven off such land or irrigation works. Provided that such order shall not be in force for more than one month from the date thereof. Provided further, that it shall at all times be lawful for any proprietor or occupier of any cultivated field or enclosed garden, or any other person by his direction, to destroy any pigs found straying therein; and for any duly authorized person to destroy any pigs found straying in or upon any irrigation work or any land set apart or lawfully used for the recreation of the public.

Disposal of carcase.

15 The carcase of any stray animal shot under the provisions of the preceding clause shall be the property of the owner of such animal, and he shall be entitled to remove the same; but if no owner be found, nor any claim made therefor by any person entitled to it, then the carcase shall be sold by the local headman where such animal was shot, and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid to the nearest kachchéri to be carried to the credit of the general revenue.

Wild buffaloes trespassing on irrigation works may be shot at all times without a license.

16 It shall be lawful for any duly authorized person to shoot or otherwise destroy, at all times of the year and without any license, any elephants or wild buffaloes found trespassing in or upon any irrigation work, anything in the Ordinance No. 13 of 1869, entitled "An Ordinance to prevent the wanton destruction of Elephants," or in Ordinance No. 6 of 1872, intituled "An Ordinance to prevent the wasteful destruction of Buffaloes and Game throughout the Island," to the contrary notwithstanding.

Police court or village tribunal may impose full amount of damages or penalty.

17 It shall be competent for the police court or village tribunal, taking cognizance of any case of trespass by animals under the provisions of this Ordinance, to award and impose the full amount of the damages, charges, and penalties payable under the 7th, 8th, and 9th sections hereof or any of them, notwithstanding that such amount might otherwise be beyond the jurisdiction of such court or tribunal to award or impose.

20th November, 1876.

No. 10 of 1876.

An Ordinance to repeal "The Wharf and Warehouse Ordinance, 1865," and to make further provision for the establishment in Colombo and regulation of a Company to perform the duties of Wharfingers and Warehousemen.

(See No. 3 of 1890.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS a company called "The Wharf and Warehouse Company, Limited," has been formed in Colombo under the provisions of "The Wharf and Warehouse Ordinance, 1865," and has been duly incorporated with limited liability under the provisions of "The Joint Stock Companies' Ordinance, 1861," and has already commenced to carry on the business of wharfingers and warehousemen in Colombo: And whereas by a deed of lease dated the 4th day of March, 1875, and made between the Government of this island of the one part and the said company of the other part, certain warehouses, sheds, offices, and other buildings and property belonging to our Lady the Queen, and formerly used by the customs department of this island, have been demised by the said Government to the said company, upon certain conditions and stipulations in the said deed contained, from the respective dates therein mentioned until the 30th day of June, 1880, or until the date of a breach by the said company of the said stipulations therein contained or any of them: And whereas the said "Wharf and Warehouse Ordinance, 1865," has never come into operation, the same never having been proclaimed as provided by the second section thereof: And whereas in view of the alteration in the law relating to the customs, which has taken place since the said last mentioned Ordinance was passed, and for divers other reasons, it is inexpedient now to bring the said Ordinance into operation: And whereas it is expedient to amend the law and to make certain other provisions for the establishment and regulation of the said company and for the carrying on of its business of wharfingers and warehousemen as aforesaid: It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Wharf and Warehouse Company.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Wharf and Warehouse Ordinance, 1876." Short title.

2 "The Wharf and Warehouse Ordinance, 1865," and the Ordinance No. 4 of 1875, intituled "An Ordinance to amend the Wharf and Warehouse Ordinance, 1865," are hereby severally repealed. Repeal of Ordinances Nos. 26 of 1865 and 4 of 1875.

3 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the date of the passing thereof, and shall continue in force until the 30th day of June, 1880. Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation, to terminate the operation of this Ordinance before the said 30th day of June, 1880, in the event of a breach of any of the stipulations contained in the said hereinbefore mentioned deed of lease of the 4th day of March, 1875, being committed by the said company. Operation of Ordinance.

4 The following terms used in this Ordinance shall have the respective meanings hereby assigned to them, if not inconsistent with the context or subject-matter; that is to say, Interpretation of terms.

The word "company" shall mean the aforesaid Wharf and Warehouse Company, Limited.

The word "goods" shall include every description of goods, wares, and merchandise.

The word "premises" shall mean all lands and buildings used by the said company for the carrying on of their business as wharfingers, warehousemen, and carriers.

The word "wharf" shall include all wharves and quays used by the said company, in or upon which any goods, when landed from vessels or brought for shipment, may be lawfully placed.

Wharf and Warehouse Company.

The word "warehouse" shall include all warehouses, buildings, and premises used by the said company in which goods, when landed from vessels or brought for shipment, may be lawfully placed.

The word "shipowner" shall include the master of the ship and every other person authorized to act as agent for the owner or entitled to receive the freight, demurrage, or other charges payable in respect of such ship.

The word "entry" shall mean the entry required by any Customs laws to be made for the delivery of goods.

The expression "owner of goods" shall include every person who is for the time being entitled, either as owner or agent for the owner, to the possession of the goods, subject in the case of lien, if any, to such lien.

Company's power and responsibilities to be deemed to have commenced on 1st January, 1876.

5 The company shall be deemed to have lawfully commenced business as wharfingers and warehousemen on the first day of January last; and all powers, duties, and responsibilities vested in the company under or by virtue of this Ordinance shall be deemed to have been vested in them on and since the said first day of January last; and all rates and charges imposed by the company in respect of any goods entrusted to or taken charge of by them, and all acts, matters, and things done by the company or the directors thereof, on and since the said first day of January last, shall be as valid and binding on all persons, corporations, and companies concerned therewith or affected thereby, as if this Ordinance had come into operation on the said first day of January last.

Rules and regulations.

6 The company shall be entitled to act as wharfingers and warehousemen, and the directors thereof for the time being shall be empowered to make, ordain, and establish rules and regulations, as to them shall seem expedient, for any of the following purposes:

- (1) For the good government of the company and its officers.
- (2) For the regulating, conducting, governing, and managing the business of the company and the several works from time to time carried on by them.
- (3) For the safe and convenient shipping and lading, landing and discharging, carrying and conveying, laying, warehousing, and depositing of goods upon, to, or from the quays, wharves, and premises of the company.
- (4) For regulating the hours during which the premises of the company shall be open.
- (5) For preventing accidents by fire, and in particular as to the lighting or using of candles, fires, and lamps, and as to the smoking of tobacco or herbs within the premises of the company.

Wharf and Warehouse Company.

(6) For governing and regulating porters, coolies, cartmen, and others carrying goods or using or driving horses, bullocks, trucks, carts, sledges, or other carriages within the premises of the company.

(7) For preventing damage being done to any goods.

And such rules and regulations from time to time to alter, amend, and revoke. Provided that such rules or regulations shall not be inconsistent with this Ordinance, and that they shall not come into force until the same shall have been submitted to and confirmed by the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council; and the Governor, with such advice as aforesaid, shall have the power to disallow any rules or regulations after they shall have come into force.

7 The company shall be empowered, with the sanction of the Governor previously obtained, to lay down within any premises occupied by them, and on any of the roads and streets of Colombo, tramways to connect their warehouses with each other, with landing and shipping places, and with the railway terminus.

Tramways.

8 The company shall and may take or receive for every article of goods which shall be brought into or landed or deposited within or delivered or shipped from their premises, such reasonable rates, rent, or charges as the said directors shall from time to time appoint, for and in respect of wharfage, receiving into boats, landing, conveying to the company's warehouses at the wharf, and warehousing, examining, and weighing as required for customs purposes, loading into carts, conveying to and warehousing in the company's warehouses, and after delivery from the company's warehouses; and all such rates, rent, or charges shall be and are hereby vested in the said company to and for their own proper use and behoof for the purposes of this Ordinance. Provided that the rates, rent, or charges to be enforced by the company shall not exceed the maximum rates, rent, or charges set out in schedule A to this Ordinance annexed.

Power to take rates and charges on goods.

9 The directors of the company shall cause all rules and regulations and all rates, rents, and sums chargeable by them as aforesaid to be printed in the Government Gazette, and separate copies thereof to be printed and distributed in Colombo, in the English and native languages, and affixed upon or to some public and conspicuous part of the wharves and premises, and shall renew the same as often as they shall become obliterated or defaced.

Rules and regulations to be published.

10 Any person committing a breach of the said rules shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

Breach of the rules made penal.

11 The company shall, during the time that it shall perform the duties of wharfingers and warehousemen, provide the public with such suitable means and accommodation for the landing and shipping of goods and such Company to provide suitable accommodation and buildings.

suitable buildings and lands for storing and warehousing the same, as the exigencies of trade may require and the capabilities of their premises will admit of.

Collector may require security.

12 It shall be lawful for the Principal Collector of Customs, before any goods shall be landed, deposited, or warehoused on or in any premises of the company, and from time to time thereafter, as to him shall seem necessary, to require the company to give due and sufficient security by bond, with two sufficient sureties, or by two bonds each with one sufficient surety, or such other security as the said collector may approve, for the payment of the full duties of importation on, or for the due entry for exportation of, all such goods as shall at any time be landed, deposited, or warehoused in the premises of the company.

Goods in company's premises subject to customs laws.

13 All goods which shall come into or upon the premises of the company shall be subject to the duties imposed and the regulations and the restrictions prescribed by the customs laws now in force or hereafter to be enacted. And the company shall not part with any goods which shall come into or upon their wharves and premises without an order authorizing their delivery from the Principal Collector of Customs or person duly authorized by him in writing, or the production of any entry countersigned by him.

Rents and charges due the Government at the transfer under their aforesaid lease.

14 All goods warehoused in any of the customs premises at the time of the handing over of such premises to the company, which shall have been delivered to the custody of the company on their paying the warehouse rents and charges due thereon, or engaging to pay the same previous to the delivery of such goods to the owners or consignees thereof, shall be deemed to have been lawfully delivered; and the company shall in such case have power to demand and to enforce payment of the said rents and charges so due, as well as the rent and charges due to them subsequent to such handing over.

Recovery of rates payable on goods.

15 All rates, charges, and rent which shall be payable to the company in respect of any goods shall be paid to the company within the periods and in manner following (that is to say): if the said goods shall be of a perishable or hazardous nature, then within ten days next after any such goods shall have been brought into or upon the premises of the company; and if the said goods shall not be of a perishable or hazardous nature, then at or before three months after any such goods shall have been brought into or upon the premises of the company, or previous to the removal of such respectively from the premises of the company, whichever shall first happen; and in case default be made in payment of the said rates, rent, or charges, or any part thereof (whether such goods be of a perishable or hazardous nature or not), it shall be lawful for the company to retain and sell or cause to be sold all or any part of such goods; and out of the moneys thence arising to pay first the amount of the duties due in respect of such goods, and then to pay the rates, rent, or charges which shall be payable to the said company in respect of such goods, and all charges and expenses of such sale, rendering the overplus (if any) of the moneys arising by such sale, and such of the said goods as shall remain unsold, to the person or persons entitled thereto, upon demand; and in case such goods shall happen to be removed before the rates, rent, or charges payable to the company in respect of the same shall be fully paid, then it shall be lawful for the company to take, distrain, and sell in manner and for the purposes aforesaid any other goods on their premises belonging to the owner or owners or consignee or consignees of the goods so removed as aforesaid. Provided always that it shall and may be lawful for the company in all or any of the several cases aforesaid to recover the amount of the rates, rent, or charges by action at law.

Wharf and Warehouse Company.

16 The officers of customs shall, in the performance of their duties, have power and authority at all times to enter into and remain upon any premises in the possession of the company. Any person who shall oppose any officer in the exercise of such power shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to such punishment by fine or imprisonment, with or without hard labour, as it shall be competent for a police court to award.

Right of entry of customs officers.

17 If at the time when any goods are landed from any ship and placed in the custody of the company, the shipowner gives to the Principal Collector of Customs notice in writing that the goods are to remain subject to a lien for freight or other charges payable to the shipowners to an amount to be mentioned in such notice, the goods so landed shall, while in the custody of the company, continue liable to the same lien for such charges as they were subject to before the landing thereof; and the company receiving such goods shall retain them until the lien is discharged as provided for in section 80 of the Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, intituled "An Ordinance for the general regulation of Customs in the Island of Ceylon," or any Ordinance to be hereafter in that behalf enacted.

Lien for freight reserved.

18 Nothing herein contained shall compel the company to take charge of any goods which it would not be liable to take charge of if this Ordinance had not passed, nor shall it be bound to see to the validity of any lien claimed by any shipowner.

Company not bound to receive all goods or see to the validity of any claim for lien.

19 Whenever goods are placed in the custody of the company, they shall have power, from time to time, at the expense of the owner of the goods, to do all such reasonable acts as, in the judgment of the company, are necessary for the proper custody and preservation of the said goods, and shall have a lien on the said goods for the said rent and expenses.

Company to do acts necessary for proper custody and preservation of goods.

20 Every person who shall bring or send, or cause to be brought or sent to the premises of the company, for shipment or deposit, any aqua fortis, oil of vitriol, or other goods of dangerous quality, shall distinctly mark or state in the English language the nature of such goods on the outside of all packages containing the same, and shall likewise give notice thereof in writing to the chief officer of the company at the time of bringing or sending the said goods to the company's wharf or premises. Any person failing to mark or state as aforesaid or to give such notice shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees; and the company may detain such goods until such fine be paid.

Goods of

Penalty for not removing combustibles when required.

21 If the owner or person having the charge of any tar, pitch, spirituous liquors, turpentine, or any combustible matter whatsoever, shall suffer the same to remain on the quays or wharves of the company or any part of their premises above the space of five hours, after he shall have been required by any officer of the company to take away or remove the same therefrom, then and in every such case every such person so offending shall for every such offence be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees nor less than the sum of ten rupees, for every hour during which any of the articles hereinbefore specified or any other combustible matter shall be or remain in the place or situation aforesaid after the expiration of the said five hours. Provided that the owner or person having charge as aforesaid shall be allowed five hours from the reported landing of the goods within which to pass customs entries.

Combustibles to be guarded during the night.

22 If any tar, pitch, spirituous liquors, turpentine, oil, or other combustible thing shall remain on any part of the wharves or premises occupied by the company after sunset, and the owner or person having the charge of the same shall not provide a sufficient number of persons to guard the same from half-an-hour before sunset to half-an-hour after sunrise, it shall be lawful for the company to provide such persons, and the expense thereof, if not paid by the said owner to the company on demand, shall be recovered by the sale of such portion of the said articles as shall be sufficient to meet such expenses.

Dock warrants.

23 The company may issue warrants in substantially the form set out in the schedule B to this Ordinance annexed to the owner of any goods enumerated therein, which may be in their custody; and such warrants shall be transferable once or oftener by endorsement, and the right and title to the goods enumerated in such warrants shall vest in the possessors thereof without any endorsement save that of the original grantee. Each warrant shall be on a stamp of five cents, and shall be subject in all matters relating to stamp duty to the provisions of "The Stamp Ordinance, 1871," or any other Ordinance to be hereafter in that behalf enacted.

General sufferance of goods.

24 No cargo or goods shall be unladen from any ship on or into the premises of the company until a sufferance shall have been granted by the Principal Collector of Customs for the landing of the same, in manner provided by section 27 of the Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, entitled "An Ordinance for the general regulation of Customs in the Island of Ceylon,"

Wharf and Warehouse Company.

or any Ordinance to be hereafter in that behalf enacted; and no goods shall be landed except at the places appointed and expressed in such sufferance, and only such goods shall be landed as are sanctioned by such sufferance, and all goods so landed shall be taken and deposited in some warehouse appointed therein; and within three clear days from the date of landing, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, the importer shall make a full and complete entry thereof and shall either pay down all duties which shall be due and payable on such goods, or shall duly warehouse the said goods, or, if such goods be free of duties, duly clear the same; and all goods unladen, landed, or removed without such sufferance or contrary to the directions in such sufferance shall be liable to be forfeited.

Goods to be removed or warehoused within three clear days from the date of landing.

25 If the owner or consignee of any goods shall fail to make entry thereof and remove the same within ten clear days, as provided by the foregoing section, it shall be lawful for the company to cause a warehousing entry to be passed for such goods and to remove the same to their warehouse; and the reasonable expenses of such entry, removal, and warehousing shall be reimbursed to the said company by the owner or consignee of the goods so entered as aforesaid, and shall and may be recoverable in the like manner as the rates, rent, or charges due and payable to the company in respect of such goods. Provided that the goods be such as may by law be warehoused, and that no goods entered by the company as aforesaid shall be liable to seizure by reason of any inaccuracy in the passing of any such entry, if it shall appear to the Principal Collector of Customs that such inaccuracy was not intentional or occasioned by wilful or culpable negligence.

Goods landed contrary to or without sufferance forfeited. Company may pass entries when the owners of goods neglect or refuse to pass them.

26 All goods which the Principal Collector of Customs shall pass free of duty under the provisions of section 37 of the said Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, or any Ordinance to be hereafter in that behalf enacted, shall be exempt from warehouse rent if entered and removed within three days from the date of landing, in terms of clause 9 of the said deed of lease of 4th March, 1875.

Goods consigned to public departments not liable to rent if removed within three days.

27 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be held to interfere with the right of the public to employ boats other than those to be provided by the company for the landing and shipping of goods, and for such purposes and other lawful business to have access, subject to the rules and regulations of the company, to or from the landing places. Provided, however, that all works within the premises of the company may, if the company so require it, be performed by the servants of the company at the prescribed rates.

Right of public to land their own goods reserved.

No. 11 of 1876.

An Ordinance to amend the Law regulating the Entail and Settlement of Immovable Property.

(See No. 3 of 1890.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law regulating the entail and settlement of immovable property : It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as “ The Entail and Settlement Ordinance, 1876,” and shall come into operation from the date when the confirmation thereof by Her Majesty shall be proclaimed in the Government Gazette.*

Short title.

2 No prohibition, restriction, or condition against the alienation of any immovable property declared by or contained in any will, deed, or other instrument, which shall be executed after the proclamation of this Ordinance, shall be effectual to prevent or restrict the alienation of such property for a longer period than the lives of persons who are in existence or en ventre sa mère at the time when such will, deed, or instrument is executed and are named, described, or designated in such will, deed, or instrument, and the life of the survivor of such persons.

Prohibition against alienation limited to existing lives.

* Her Majesty's assent proclaimed 15th June, 1877.

Entail and Settlement.

Such prohibition void as to the excess beyond existing lives. Persons in whose favour prohibition is created must be designated.

3 Any such prohibition, restriction, or condition against alienation as aforesaid shall be null and void, so far as it prohibits or restricts alienation for a longer period than that limited in the preceding section. But where the will, deed, or instrument in which any prohibition, restriction, or condition against alienation is contained does not name, describe, or designate the person or persons in whose favour or for whose benefit such prohibition, restriction, or condition is provided, such prohibition, restriction, or condition shall be absolutely null and void.

Entailed property may be leased or sold by order of the court.

4 Whenever any immovable property is now or shall hereafter be held under or subject to any entail, fidei commissum, or settlement, whereby the alienation of such property is prohibited or in any way restricted, it shall be lawful for the district court of the district in which such property is situate, if it shall deem it proper and consistent with a due regard for the interests of all parties entitled under such entail, fidei commissum, or settlement, and subject to the provisions and restrictions hereinafter contained, from time to time to authorize a lease, exchange, or sale of the whole or any part or parts of such property, upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the said court shall deem expedient. Provided that every such lease shall be made to take effect in possession at or within one year next after the making thereof, and shall be for a term not exceeding twenty-one years; and that on every such lease shall be reserved the best rent or reservation in the nature of rent that can be reasonably obtained, to be made payable half-yearly or oftener to the person or persons then lawfully entitled to the same, without taking any fine or foregift or other benefit in the nature of a fine or foregift.

Persons in possession may apply for a lease or sale.

5 Any person entitled to the possession or to the receipt of the rents and profits of any immovable property now or which may hereafter become subject to such entail, fidei commissum, or settlement as aforesaid, or of any share thereof, may apply to the district court by petition in a summary way to exercise the powers conferred by this Ordinance.

Notice of application to parties interested.

6 Before making any order authorizing any such lease, exchange, or sale as aforesaid, the district court shall require such notice, as it shall deem expedient, of the application to be given to all persons interested under the entail, fidei commissum, or settlement, who may be living at the time, and whose place of abode can, after reasonable inquiry, be ascertained. Such notice shall be sufficient if left at the last known place of abode in the island of the person to be affected thereby. Provided that if any person to whom notice has to be given shall be under the disability of minority, idiocy, or lunacy, it shall be sufficient if the notice is given to the guardian or curator of such person. It shall be competent for any person interested under the entail, fidei commissum, or settlement, to appear before the court and show cause against any such lease, exchange, or sale being authorized.

Entail and Settlement.

7 All money received under or by virtue of any sale effected under the authority of this Ordinance shall be applied, as the district court shall from time to time direct, to some one or more of the following purposes; (that is to say,)

Application of sale proceeds of sale of entailed property.

- (1) The discharge or redemption of any charge or incumbrance affecting the property, or affecting any other property subject to the same entail, fidei commissum, or settlement; or
- (2) The purchase of other immovable property to be settled in the same manner as the property in respect of which the money was paid; or
- (3) Investments in the Loan Board or in Government securities, the interest thereof being made payable to the party for the time being otherwise entitled to the rents and profits of the land sold; or
- (4) The payment to any person becoming absolutely entitled.

8 Any property taken in exchange for any property exchanged under the provisions of this Ordinance shall become subject to the same entail, fidei commissum, or settlement, as the property for which it was given in exchange was subject to at the time of such exchange.

Property received in exchange to become affected by the same settlement as that for which it was exchanged.

9 On every lease, exchange, or sale to be effected as hereinbefore mentioned, the court may direct what person or persons shall execute the deed of lease, transfer, or assurance; and the deed executed by such person or persons shall take effect as if all the persons interested or who might become interested in the property under the will or instrument by which the entail, fidei commissum, or settlement was created, had joined in such lease, transfer, or assurance. The court may also direct by whom and in what proportions the cost of such lease, transfer, or assurance, and of the proceedings taken under this Ordinance, shall be paid. Such costs may be recovered in the same way as costs in ordinary civil actions brought in district courts.

Court to direct what persons should execute the lease or transfer.

10 Every order or direction of the district court made under any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be subject to appeal to the Supreme Court, and such appeal shall be subject to and governed by the same rules and procedure as are applicable to appeals from interlocutory orders of district courts.

Orders of district court subject to appeal.

11 Every petition to the district court made under section 5 shall bear a stamp of ten rupees: but no other stamps shall be required for any legal proceedings under this Ordinance.

Stamp duty on petition to court.

12 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be held to apply to any immovable property held or possessed or which may hereafter be held or possessed by, or to any grant, devise, or conveyance to or for the benefit of any corporation, joint stock company, church or temple, or any charitable, religious, or educational institution.

Ordinance not to apply to corporations, &c.

6th December, 1876.

*Tolls. Matrimonial Rights.No. 14 of 1876.*An Ordinance to establish further Tolls.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to establish the tolls herein-after specified : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Certain tolls established.

1 From and after the passing of this Ordinance tolls shall be and the same are hereby established in respect of the under-mentioned ferries and road ; (that is to say,)

At the ferry at Wéwala, between Mámpe and the 10th mile stage on the Galle road, in the Western Province.

At Mahawela, on the road between Golahenwatta and Galewela, in the Central Province.

At the ferry at Ondaatje Madam, on the South Coast road from Batticaloa to Kalmunai, in the Eastern Province.

No. 15 of 1876.

An Ordinance to amend the Law relating to the Matrimonial Rights of Married Persons with regard to Property and the Law of Inheritance.

(See Ordinances No. 2 of 1889 and No. 3 of 1890.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the matrimonial rights of married persons with regard to property and the law of inheritance : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

I.—Preliminary.

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as “The Matrimonial Rights and Inheritance Ordinance, 1876,” and shall come into operation at such time as Her Majesty’s confirmation thereof shall be proclaimed in the Government Gazette of this island.*

Commencement.

Where persons of different race intermarry, laws to which the husband is subject to prevail. Ordinance not otherwise to apply to Kandyans or Mohammedans, or Tamils under the Tésavalámai.

2 Whenever a woman marries, after the proclamation of this Ordinance, a man of different race or nationality from her own, she shall be taken to be of the same race and nationality as her husband for all the purposes of this Ordinance, so long as the marriage subsists and until she marries again. Save as aforesaid, this Ordinance shall not apply to Kandyans or Mohammedans, or to Tamils of the Northern Province who are or may become subject to the Tésavalámai.

* Her Majesty’s assent proclaimed 29th June, 1877.

Matrimonial Rights.

3 In this Ordinance, unless there shall be something repugnant in the subject or context—

Interpretation clause.

The expression “immovable property” includes land, incorporeal tenements, and things attached to the earth or permanently fastened to anything which is attached to the earth, and any interest in land except that of a mortgagee.

The expression “movable property” means property of every description except immovable property.

The expression “matrimonial rights” means the respective rights and powers of married parties in and about the management, control, disposition, and alienation of property belonging to either party, or to which either party may be entitled during marriage.

The word “unmarried” means not having a husband or wife living.

All words expressive of relationship shall apply to a child in the womb at the time in question who is afterwards born alive.

4 The 6th section of Ordinance No. 21 of 1844, intituled “An Ordinance to make better provision for the disposal of Landed Property,” and the 8th section of the Ordinance No. 5 of 1852, intituled “To introduce into this Colony the Law of England in certain cases, and to restrict the operation of the Kandyan Law,” are hereby repealed, so far as the same are inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance.

Repeal of certain sections of former Ordinances.

II.—Matrimonial Rights of Husband and Wife in respect of Property.

5 The respective matrimonial rights of any husband and wife with regard to property or status arising under or by virtue of any marriage solemnized before the proclamation of this Ordinance, and all rights which any other person may have acquired or become entitled to under or by virtue of any such marriage, shall (except where hereinafter otherwise expressly provided) be governed by such law as would have been applicable thereto if this Ordinance had not been passed.

This Ordinance not to affect rights acquired under marriages solemnized before the proclamation of this Ordinance.

6 The respective matrimonial rights of every husband and wife, domiciled or resident in this island, and married after the proclamation of this Ordinance, in, to, or in respect of movable property shall, during the subsistence of such marriage and of such domicile or residence, be governed by the provisions of this Ordinance.

Rights of husband and wife domiciled or resident in Ceylon in respect of movable property to be governed by this Ordinance.

7 The respective matrimonial rights of every husband and wife, married after the proclamation of this Ordinance, in, to, or in respect of any immovable property situate in this island shall, during such marriage, be governed by the provisions of this Ordinance.

Rights of husband and wife in respect of immovable property situate in Ceylon to be governed by this Ordinance.

8 There shall be no community of goods between husband and wife, married after the proclamation of this Ordinance, as a consequence of marriage, either in respect of movable or immovable property.

Community of goods not a consequence of marriage.

Matrimonial Rights.

Immovable property of the wife.

9 Any immovable property to which any woman, married after the proclamation of this Ordinance, may be entitled at the time of her marriage, or may become entitled during her marriage shall, subject and without prejudice to the trusts of any will or settlement affecting the same, belong to the woman for her separate estate, and shall not be liable for the debts or engagements of her husband, unless incurred for or in respect of the cultivation, upkeep, repairs, management, or improvement of such property, or for or in regard to any charges, rates, or taxes imposed by law in respect thereof, and her receipts alone or the receipts of her duly authorized agent shall be a good discharge for the rents, issues, and profits arising from or in respect of such property. Such woman shall, subject and without prejudice to any such trusts as aforesaid, have as full power of disposing of and dealing with such property, by any lawful act inter vivos with the written consent of her husband, but not otherwise, or by last will without such consent, as if she were unmarried.

Wages and earnings of the wife.

10 The wages and earnings of any married woman, whether married before or after the proclamation of this Ordinance, which may be acquired or gained by her after the proclamation of this Ordinance in any employment, occupation, or trade in which she is engaged or which she carries on separately from her husband, and also any money or property so acquired by her through the exercise of any literary, artistic, or scientific skill, shall be deemed and taken to be her separate property, independent of the debts, control, or engagements of her husband, and she shall have as full power of dealing with and disposing of the same or any investment thereof as if she were unmarried, and her receipts alone shall be a good discharge for such wages, earnings, money, and property and the principal and interest of any investments thereof.

Wife's jewels, implements of trade and agriculture, to form part of her separate estate.

11 All jewels and all personal or household ornaments and wearing apparel belonging to a woman, married after the proclamation of this Ordinance, at the time of her marriage, and also all jewels, personal ornaments, and apparel suitable in respect of value to her rank and condition of life, which she may acquire during her marriage, whether by gift from her husband or otherwise, and all tools, implements, and appliances belonging to her during marriage, which may be requisite for the carrying on of any employment or trade in which she may be engaged separately from her husband, and all implements of husbandry, machinery, live and dead stock belonging to her during marriage and bonâ fide kept upon and employed for the cultivation or proper uses of any immovable property belonging to her for her separate estate, shall, subject and without prejudice to the trusts and provisions of any will or valid settlement affecting the same, belong to the woman for her separate estate independent of the debts, control, and engagements of her husband, and she shall have as full power of disposing of and dealing with the same by any lawful act inter vivos with the consent of her husband or by last will without such consent, as if she were unmarried.

12 If in any case, in which the consent of a husband is required by this Ordinance for the valid disposition of or dealing with any property by the wife, the wife shall be deserted by her husband or separated from him by mutual consent, or he shall have lain in prison under the sentence or order of any competent court for a period exceeding two years, or if he shall be a lunatic or idiot, or his place of abode shall be unknown, or if his consent is unreasonably withheld, or the interest of the wife or children of the marriage require that such consent should be dispensed with, it shall be lawful for the wife to apply by petition to the district court of the district in which she resides, or in which the property is situate, for an order authorizing her to dispose of or deal with such property without her husband's consent; and such court may, after summary inquiry into the truth of the petition, make such order, and that subject to such conditions and restrictions, as the justice of the case may require; whereupon such consent shall, if so ordered and subject to the terms and conditions of such order, become no longer necessary for the valid disposition of or dealing with such property by such woman. Every such petition shall require a stamp of ten rupees, but no further stamps shall be required for any legal proceedings under this section. Such order shall be subject to appeal to the Supreme Court in the same manner and subject to the same rules and procedure as interlocutory orders of district courts. Provided, however, that in any case, when a separation a mensa et thoro has been decreed by a competent court, the consent of the husband shall not be necessary to enable the wife, so separated, to deal with or dispose of her property.

When husband's consent may be dispensed with.

13 It shall be lawful for any husband or wife, whether married before or after the proclamation of this Ordinance, notwithstanding the relation of marriage and notwithstanding the existence of any community of goods between them, to make or join each other in making, during the marriage, any voluntary grant, gift, or settlement of any property, whether movable or immovable, to, upon, or in favour of the other; but all property so granted, gifted, or settled, and all acquisitions made by a husband or wife out of or by means of the moneys or property of the other, shall, except as otherwise provided by section 11, be subject to the debts and engagements of each spouse in the same manner and to the same extent as if such grant, gift, settlement, or acquisition had not been made or occurred.

Power of spouses to settle or gift property during marriage.

14 Whenever any question shall arise between any woman, married after the proclamation of this Ordinance, or any person claiming under her and any creditor or alienee of her husband, as to the mode and time of the acquisition of any property claimed by such woman, it shall be incumbent Burden of proof on the wife.

Matrimonial Rights.

upon such woman or person claiming under her to prove in what manner and at what time she became entitled to such property.

Disputes between husband and wife as to wife's estate to be settled summarily by district court.

16 If any question or dispute shall arise between any husband and wife (whether married before or after the proclamation of this Ordinance) relative to any property declared by this Ordinance to be the separate property of the wife, either party may apply by motion in a summary way to the district court of the district in which either party resides; and thereupon the district judge may make such order, direct such inquiry, and award such costs, as he shall think fit; and the district judge may, if either party so require, hear the application in his private room. Any order so made shall be subject to appeal to the Supreme Court, and for the purposes of such appeal shall be regarded as an interlocutory order of the district court. Every such motion shall require a stamp of ten rupees, but no further stamps shall be required for any other legal proceedings under this section.

Wife may effect a policy of insurance.

17 A married woman (whether married before or after the proclamation of this Ordinance) may after the proclamation of this Ordinance effect a policy of insurance upon her own life or the life of her husband for her separate use; and the same and all benefits thereof, if expressed on the face of it to be so effected, shall enure accordingly, and the contract in such policy shall be as valid as if made with an unmarried woman.

Husband may insure his life for the benefit of his family.

18 A policy of insurance, whether effected before or after the proclamation of this Ordinance, by any married man (whether married before or after the proclamation of this Ordinance) on his own life, and expressed upon the face of it to be for the benefit of his wife or of his wife and children or any of them, shall enure and be deemed a trust for the benefit of his wife for her separate use and of his children or any of them, according to the interests so expressed, and shall not, so long as any object of the trust remains, be subject to the control of the husband or his creditors, or form part of his estate. Provided that if it shall be proved that the policy was effected and the premiums paid by the husband with intent to defraud his creditors, they shall be entitled to receive out of the sum secured an amount equal to the premiums so paid.

All other movable property of the wife to vest in the husband.

19 All movable property to which any woman, married after the proclamation of this Ordinance, shall be entitled at the time of her marriage or may become entitled during her marriage, shall, subject and without prejudice to any settlement affecting the same, and except so far as is by this Ordinance otherwise provided, vest absolutely in her husband.

Wife with separate property liable

22 A married woman having separate property adequate for the purpose shall be subject to all such liability for the maintenance of her children as a widow is now by law

Matrimonial Rights.

subject to for the maintenance of her children. Provided that nothing in this Ordinance shall relieve her husband from any liability at present imposed upon him by law to maintain her children.

for the maintenance of her children.

23 Whereas doubts have been entertained whether the sixth section of the Placaat or Edict of the Emperor Charles V., dated the 4th day of October, 1540, relating to marriage settlements, is operative in this island, it is hereby enacted that the said section of the said Placaat has no force or operation in the said island.

Sixth section of Placaat of Charles V. of 1540 declared to have no operation in Ceylon.

III.—Inheritance.

24 The following sections of this Ordinance shall apply to the estates of such persons only as shall die after the proclamation of this Ordinance, and shall be then unmarried or (if married) shall have been married after the proclamation of this Ordinance.

Following sections to whom applicable.

25 Inheritance ab intestato to the immovable property in Ceylon of a person deceased shall be governed and regulated by the following provisions of this Ordinance wherever such person may have or have had his actual or matrimonial domicile. Inheritance ab intestato to the movable property of a person deceased shall be governed and regulated by the law of the country in which he had his domicile at the time of his death. Provided that when any person shall have his domicile in any part of this island, such domicile shall, so far as relates to the inheritance to his movable property, be deemed to be in the Maritime provinces. Provided also that if a person dies leaving movable property in Ceylon, in the absence of proof of his domicile elsewhere, the inheritance to such property shall be governed by the following provisions of this Ordinance.

Inheritance to immovable property in Ceylon to be governed by this Ordinance. Inheritance to movable property to be governed by the law of the domicile.

Proviso.

26 When any person shall die intestate as to any of his or her property, leaving a spouse surviving, the surviving spouse shall inherit one-half of the property of such person.

Surviving spouse inherits one-half.

27 Subject to the right of the surviving spouse in the preceding section mentioned, the right of inheritance is divided in the following order as respects (1) descendants, (2) ascendants, (3) collaterals.

Order of devolution of property.

28 Children, grandchildren, and remoter descendants are preferrent to all others in the estate of the parents; all the children take equally per capita, but the children or remoter issue of a deceased child take per stirpes or by representation.

Preferential right of children.

29 The children and remoter descendants failing, the inheritance of the deceased goes to his father and mother in case they are both alive; but if only one of the parents be alive, the surviving parent takes half, and the brothers and sisters of the deceased of the full blood, and the issue of any deceased brother or sister of the full blood, by representation, and the brothers and sisters of the half blood who are related to the intestate by the side of the deceased parent, and the issue of any such deceased brother or sister of the half blood, by representation, take the other half. In case there is no full or half brother or sister alive at the death of the deceased, the surviving parent inherits the whole, although there may be children or other issue of deceased brothers or sisters.

When descendants fail.

Matrimonial Rights.

In case of parents failing.

30 Father and mother both failing, the property of the intestate goes to his brothers and sisters, whether of the whole or half blood, and their children and other issue by representation.

Division in case of half brothers and sisters.

31 The division however in the case of half brothers and sisters is as follows: The inheritance is divided into two parts: the one-half the full brothers and sisters and the issue of such as are deceased by representation divide with the half brothers and sisters of the father's side and the issue of such as are deceased by representation; and the other half they divide with those of the mother's side and the issue of such as are deceased by representation; but if there are only half brothers and sisters of such issue of one side, the full brothers and sisters and the issue of deceased full brothers and sisters by representation take then in the first place one-half of the property, and divide the other half with the half brothers and sisters and their issue by representation.

When full brothers and their children fail.

32 When full brothers and sisters or their children or remoter issue fail, and there are half brothers' and sisters' children or remoter issue on both sides alive, then one-half of the property goes to the half brothers and sisters or their children and remoter issue by representation on the father's side, and the other half to the half brothers and sisters on the mother's side and their children and remoter issue by representation.

In case of half brothers only on one side.

33 In case all the half brothers and sisters, their children and remoter issue, are related to the intestate on one side only, they take the whole of the inheritance, unless there be a grandfather or grandmother or higher ascendant yet alive, related to the intestate on the other side, in which case such half brothers and sisters, their children and remoter issue by representation take one-half only, and the next ascendants per capita the other half.

Where all who succeed are nearly equal in degree.

34 Except when otherwise expressly provided, if all those who succeed to the inheritance are equally near in degree to the intestate, they take per capita and not per stirpes.

All persons above enumerated
failing.

35 All the persons above enumerated failing, the inheritance goes first to the nearest in the ascending line per capita, although it should happen that on the one side both the grandfather and the grandmother, and on the other side only one of these parents, should be alive. Afterwards to uncles and aunts and the children of deceased uncles and aunts per stirpes. Uncles and aunts failing, then to their children and also great-uncles and aunts with them per capita.

All persons above enumerated
failing, surviving spouse takes.

36 All the persons above enumerated failing, the entire inheritance goes to the surviving spouse, if any, and if none, then to the next heirs of the intestate per capita.

Notaries.

37 Illegitimate children inherit the property of their intestate mother, but not that of their father or that of the relatives of their mother. Where an illegitimate person leaves no surviving spouse or descendants, his or her property will go to the heirs of the mother, so as to exclude the Crown.

Illegitimate children.

38 If any one dies intestate without heirs, his or her estate escheats to the Crown. If, however, any heirs can be found, even beyond the tenth degree, they take the inheritance.

On failure of heirs Crown takes.

39 Children or grandchildren by representation becoming with their brothers and sisters heirs to the deceased parents are bound to bring into hotchpot or collation all that they have received from their deceased parents above the others either on the occasion of their marriage or to advance or establish them in life, unless it can be proved that the deceased parent, either expressly or impliedly, released any property so given from collation.

Collation by children or grandchildren advanced by intestate.

40 In all questions relating to the distribution of the property of an intestate, if the present Ordinance is silent, the rules of the Roman-Dutch law as it prevailed in North Holland are to govern and be followed.

Causa omitti to be governed by law of North Holland.

4th January, 1877.

No. 2 of 1877.

An Ordinance to amend and consolidate the Law relating to Notaries.

(See No. 3 of 1890 and No. 10 of 1890.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to notaries and to make further provision for the proper qualification of notaries and for the more efficient and faithful discharge of the duties appertaining to the office of a notary, and to consolidate the law now in force relative thereto: It is enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 So much of the Ordinance No. 16 of 1852 as is now in force, and the Ordinance No. 16 of 1873 are hereby repealed, save and except so far as relates to any acts which shall have been done, appointments which shall have been made, liabilities which shall have been incurred, and offences which shall have been committed prior to this Ordinance coming into operation. Provided, however, that such repeal shall not affect the right of admission to the office of notary or the qualification for such office of any person who shall before the passing of this Ordinance have been duly articulated as a clerk to an advocate or proctor of the Supreme Court under the 2nd section of the said Ordinance No. 16 of 1873. The right of admission and qualification of such persons aforesaid shall continue to be determined and governed by the said Ordinance No. 16 of 1873.

Repeal of former Ordinances.

Proviso.
Repeal not to affect persons articulated before the passing of this Ordinance.

Notaries.

Mode of application for admission to articles.

2 Every person intending to be an articulated clerk with the view of qualifying himself for the office of notary shall give at least three months' notice of such his intention to the government agent of the province in which he resides, and at the expiration of such notice he shall apply to the Governor for permission to enter into articles. Every such application shall be in the form of a petition to the Governor, in the English language, and in the native language, if any, in which the applicant proposes to practise, and in his handwriting, and shall contain the following particulars :

- (1) The place in which the applicant resides.
- (2) His age.
- (3) The name of the advocate or proctor under whom he intends to serve.
- (4) The district and the language or languages in which he proposes to practise.

And such petition shall be accompanied with any such certificate of character and qualification as the applicant can produce.

Examination of applicant and license for admission to articles.

3 It shall be lawful for the Governor, at his discretion, on receipt of such petition, to refer the same to some person or board to be named by the Governor to inquire into and report upon the character and general attainments of the applicant, and if such applicant shall be reported by such person or board as being qualified and of good character, it shall be lawful for the Governor to allow such applicant to become an articulated clerk, and such leave or license shall be certified in writing under the hand of the Colonial Secretary. And no person shall be an articulated clerk unless he shall have obtained the leave or license of the Governor as herein provided. Provided, however, that the number of articulated clerks to be licensed for and in each district shall be limited and determined by Proclamation to be issued from time to time by the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council.

Transfer of articles.

4 In the event of the advocate or proctor to whom any person shall be articulated under the provisions of this Ordinance dying or discontinuing to practise in the district in which he practised when such articles were entered into, it shall be lawful for such articulated clerk to transfer his articles to some other advocate or proctor, in which case the time during which he shall have served under his original articles shall be reckoned as part of the term of his apprenticeship, notwithstanding such transfer.

Articled clerk forbidden to trade.

5 No articulated clerk shall, during his service under articles or during any part thereof, in any way follow or be engaged in any trade or commercial business whatever.

Advocates and proctors of the Supreme Court

6 All advocates and proctors of the Supreme Court shall be qualified for admission as notaries without any further qualifications as hereinafter required in respect of other persons.

Notaries.

7 No person, other than an advocate or proctor of the Supreme Court, shall be capable of being admitted to practise as a notary unless he possesses the following qualifications :

Qualification for admission as a notary.

- (1) He shall be of good repute.
- (2) He shall be of the full age of twenty-one years.
- (3) He shall have been an articulated clerk, licensed in the manner provided by the 3rd section, of an advocate or proctor of the Supreme Court, and shall have duly served as such for three years. Provided that if the applicant intends to practise in any of the native languages, he shall serve for two years as a licensed articulated clerk of such advocate or proctor and for one subsequent year as a clerk in the office of a notary practising in the language in which the applicant intends to practise.
- (4) He shall be reported duly qualified by the person or board to whom the application shall have been referred by the Governor, as hereinafter provided, both as to the above qualifications and also as to his competency to perform the duties of notary, and as to his knowledge of the language in which he means to practise as such.

Proviso.

Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to grant a warrant empowering a person of good repute and full age, who shall pass such an examination as the Governor with like advice shall prescribe, to practise as a notary in any district where, from the paucity of duly qualified notaries, it is expedient, with a view to the convenience of the inhabitants thereof, to relax the ordinary rules as to the qualifications of a notary.

Proviso as to districts where there is a paucity of notaries.

8 Every person (other than an advocate or proctor of the Supreme Court) who shall intend to apply for admission as a notary, shall three months at least before he shall so apply give notice of such his intention to the district court of the district and the government agent of the province in which he resides and in which he intends to practise, and shall cause notice of his intended application, in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages respectively, to be affixed in some conspicuous part of such court, and to be published three times in the Government Gazette and once at least in some local newspaper, between the dates of notice and of application. Every such application shall be in the form of a petition to the Governor, and shall contain the following particulars :

Mode of application for admission as a notary.

- (1) The place in which the applicant resides, and the district in which he intends to practise ;
- (2) The name of the advocate or proctor and notary (if any) under whom he has served his articles ;
- (3) The language or languages in which he purposes to draw, authenticate, or attest deeds or other instruments ;
- (4) The nature of the security he intends to offer and all particulars connected therewith ;

Notaries.

- (5) Such application shall be accompanied with the certificate of the Colonial Secretary mentioned in the 3rd section, a copy of the local newspaper in which such notice as aforesaid was published, and also a certificate from the advocate or proctor and notary (if any) to whom he has been apprenticed, that he has duly served his articles and that in the opinion of such advocate or proctor and notary (if any) the applicant is a fit and proper person to be appointed a notary.

Reference of application.

9 It shall be lawful for the Governor, on receipt of any such petition, to refer the same to some person or board, to be named by the Governor, to inquire into and report upon the fitness and attainments of the applicant to be appointed a notary, and whether he is duly qualified as required by this Ordinance.

Articled clerk bound to furnish yearly on or before the 30th June particulars as to his articles to Registrar-General.

The registrar shall forward such statement for publication in the Gazette on or before 31st July in each year. Consequence of not furnishing statements.

10 Every articled clerk shall on or before the 30th day of June in each year furnish to the Registrar-General of Lands a statement setting out his name and address, the date of his articles, the advocate or proctor and notary (if any) under whom he serves, and the district and language in which he intends to practise. It shall be the duty of such registrar to forward, on or before the 31st day of July in each year, an abstract of such statements, distinguishing them into provinces and districts, for publication in the Government Gazette. Any such articled clerk failing to furnish such statement shall not be allowed, unless he can explain such failure to the satisfaction of the person or board to whom his application to be admitted to practise as notary shall be referred by the Governor, as hereinbefore provided, to count the year or years in which he shall have so failed, but shall be required to serve another year for every fresh year of failure.

Appointment by warrant.

11 Every appointment for the office of notary shall be by warrant under the hand and seal of the Governor, and shall specify and define the district within which alone the person thereby appointed is to practise, and the language or languages in which he is authorized to draw, authenticate, or attest deeds or other instruments.

Notary shall be bound to reside in district for which he is appointed.

12 Every notary shall be bound to reside and have his office within the district in which he is allowed to practise, and any notary infringing this rule shall be liable to have his warrant withdrawn by the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council.

Notary to make declaration and give security.

13 It shall not be lawful for any person admitted to act as a notary to commence practising as such until he shall have made and signed before the district judge of the district where such person resides, a declaration in the words or to the effect following; that is to say,

I, A. B., do sincerely promise and declare that I will truly and faithfully and to the best of my ability execute the office of a notary in pursuance of and in conformity with the authority given to me by warrant of the Governor bearing date _____ day of _____;

and until he shall have executed before the said judge a bond to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, in such amount as the said judge shall consider reasonable, not exceeding the sum of one thousand rupees, conditioned for the due and faithful discharge of his duties as a notary, which amount shall be secured to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, either by the hypothecation of immovable property or by deposit of movable property, or by the personal undertaking of two or more sufficient sureties in that behalf to the satisfaction of such district judge; and until he shall have filed in the district court of such district an attested copy of his warrant. And if any person shall practise or act as or exercise the office or functions of a notary without having obtained such warrant as aforesaid, or without having made and signed such declaration and given such bond and security as aforesaid, or without having filed an attested copy of his warrant, every such person shall in any such case be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction thereof to any fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, at the discretion of the court, for any period not exceeding three years, or to such fine as well as such imprisonment.

Penalty for practising without warrant, &c.

14 Any person who has or shall hereafter become bound as a surety for the due and faithful discharge by any notary of his duties as such, may upon application in the district court of the district in which such notary resides, be discharged from any further liability as such surety, upon proof to the satisfaction of such court that he has given six weeks' notice to such notary of his intended application. And thereupon the said court shall make an order discharging such surety from any liability in respect of any act of such notary done or committed after the date of such order; and such order shall be endorsed on the bond, by which such surety had become bound, under the hand of the district judge.

Sureties may obtain discharge from future liability.

15 If at any time the security given by any notary shall perish or be lost, or if the sureties who became bound for him shall die or depart from this island, or become insolvent, or be discharged from their obligation as such sureties, the district judge shall call upon such notary forthwith to furnish other sufficient security; and if any notary, after being so required to furnish security, shall, before having complied with such demand, practise or act as a notary, he shall be liable on conviction thereof to the punishment provided in section 13 of this Ordinance.

On loss of security or death, insolvency, discharge, or departure from the island of sureties, notary to furnish other securities.

16 It shall be the duty of every district judge in his own district, on the production to him by any person of any such warrant as aforesaid, authorizing him to act as a notary in such district, and after the person therein named shall have made and signed the declaration and given the security hereinbefore mentioned, without fee or reward to enrol the name of such person and the date of his admission as a notary licensed to act as such in virtue of the said warrant in a roll or book to be provided and kept for that purpose in the district court. And the said declaration and bond, together with an attested copy of such warrant, shall be filed of record in the said court; and a list of all notaries heretofore authorized to act as such within any such district, or who may at any time hereafter be enrolled in such court as aforesaid, and who may be authorized to act within any such district, shall be kept at all times appended in some conspicuous place on the wall of the court-house for general information. And the secretary of such court shall from time to time, as occasion may require, correct the said list by striking therefrom the names of any notaries who have died or been struck off the roll of notaries, or have removed from the said district or ceased to practise as notaries therein. And the secretary shall forward to the Registrar-General of Lands on the thirtieth day of June and the thirty-first day of December in each year a copy of such list corrected up to date, and shall also forward on such days as aforesaid to each of the several commissioners of courts of requests within the district a corrected list of notaries entitled to practise within the jurisdiction of such courts of requests respectively. Each commissioner shall cause the list so received by him to be affixed on some conspicuous place on the wall of his court.

Notary when disqualified for his office.

17 If any person, who now is or hereafter may be authorized to act as a notary, shall be lawfully convicted of any crime or offence which in the opinion of the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, renders him unfit to be entrusted with any responsible office in the district, or of any crime or offence punishable under the provisions of the 29th section of this Ordinance, or if any such person, being an advocate or proctor, shall be duly removed from his office as such, every such person shall become disqualified for the said office of notary, and the warrant granted to him shall thereupon be cancelled. Or if any such person, being an advocate or proctor, be suspended from his office as such, he shall during the period of such suspension be disqualified for discharging the duties of a notary.

In cases of gross misconduct or incapacity
Governor may remove a notary from his office.

18 It shall be the duty of the Registrar-General, and also of the district court or court of requests of the district in which any notary resides, upon proof to the satisfaction of such registrar or such court of gross misconduct in the discharge of the duties of his office by such notary, or that such notary has proved himself to be incapable of discharging them with advantage to the public, or that he has so conducted himself by repeated breaches of any of the rules set out in the 26th section of this Ordinance, or otherwise, that he ought not to be any longer entrusted with the performance of the said duties, to report the same in writing, with the evidence taken by such registrar or court, to the Governor; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to cancel the warrant granted to such notary.

Notaries.

19 Whenever any such warrant has been cancelled or notary suspended, notice thereof shall be given in the Government Gazette, and a certificate that such warrant has been cancelled or notary suspended shall be transmitted by the Colonial Secretary to the district court and court of requests of the district within which such notary shall have been authorized to act, and to the Registrar-General. And it shall be the duty of the judge of the court, in which the name of such notary is enrolled, to cause his name to be immediately struck off the roll of notaries. And a copy of such certificate, with a translation in the Siphalese and Tamil languages subjoined thereto, shall be kept appended in some conspicuous place on the wall of every such district court and court of requests for such period as the court may direct.

Certificate of cancelling of warrant to be transmitted to the local courts.

20 It shall be lawful for the Governor, on the application of the Queen's Advocate, in any case in which any notary shall have been duly committed to take his trial for any crime or offence in the 17th or 29th sections of this Ordinance mentioned, to suspend such person from his office of notary pending his trial for such crime or offence; and in any such case of the suspension of any notary a certificate thereof shall be forthwith transmitted by the Colonial Secretary to the district court and court of requests of the district within which such notary shall have been authorized to act, and to the Registrar-General, and a copy of such certificate, with a translation in the Siphalese and Tamil languages subjoined thereto, shall, so long as such suspension shall be in force, be kept appended in some conspicuous place on the wall of such district court and court of requests. Provided that if such notary shall not be brought to trial within six months after such suspension, the same shall cease to be any longer in force and shall be deemed to be removed.

Notary may be suspended from his office by the Governor in certain cases.

21 If any person shall act as or exercise the office or functions of a notary after having received notice of any such suspension as aforesaid, and before the same shall have been removed, or after he shall have been convicted of any crime or offence disqualifying him for the said office, or after he shall have been removed from the office of advocate or proctor, as hereinbefore mentioned, or after he shall have received notice that the warrant granted to him has been cancelled as aforesaid, he shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to any fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, at the discretion of the court, for any period not exceeding three years, or to such fine as well as such imprisonment.

Penalty on notary practising after notice of suspension, &c.

22 It shall be the duty of every secretary of a district court in his district to grant or issue to every person entitled to practise as a notary in such district, who shall apply for the same, a certificate that such person is a notary and duly authorized to practise as such in such district. And all such certificates shall be applied for and granted on or before the first day of March in every year, and shall be in force for one year and no longer. Provided, however, that if such certificate shall not be applied for within the time limited, and it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the district judge that such default was not due to any negligence on the part of the notary, the district judge shall direct the secretary to issue the required certificate notwithstanding such delay as aforesaid. And such certificate shall be in the form in the schedule to this Ordinance annexed marked A, and shall bear a stamp duty of ten rupees. Provided that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to authorize the issue of any such certificate on unstamped paper in any case in which the circumstances of any district or place appear to him to render such a proceeding necessary or advisable.

24 If any person shall act as a notary without having obtained such certificate as aforesaid, he shall for or in respect of every deed or instrument executed or acknowledged before him as such notary, whilst he shall have been without such certificate, incur and be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

On refusal to grant any certificate application to be made to the district court.

25 In case the said secretary shall decline to issue any such certificate to any notary as aforesaid, the party so applying for the same may apply to the district court, which is hereby authorized to make such order in the matter as shall be just. Provided always that any party aggrieved by any such order may appeal against the same to the Supreme Court. Such appeal shall be regarded as an appeal from an interlocutory order of a district court.

Rules to be observed by
notaries.

26 It is and shall be the duty of every notary strictly to observe and act in conformity with the following rules and regulations; that is to say,

- (1) He shall not divulge the secrets confided to him or of which he becomes possessed in the execution of his office, unless with the express permission of his employer, or when required to do so by law;
- (2) He shall not authenticate or attest any deed or instrument whatever unless the person executing the same be known to him or to at least two of the attesting witnesses to the said deed or instrument;

Notaries.

- (3) He shall not authenticate or attest any deed or instrument whatever in any case in which both the person executing the same and the attesting witnesses thereto are unknown to him ;
- (4) He shall not authenticate or attest any deed or instrument whatever to which two witnesses at least have not subscribed their signatures in letters ;
- (5) He shall not authenticate or attest any deed or instrument whatever unless the person executing the same and the witnesses shall have signed the same in his presence and in the presence of one another ;
- (6) He shall correctly insert in every deed or instrument whatever executed before him the day, month, and year on which and the place where the same is executed, and the names and residences of the attesting witnesses, on the day on which it is so executed ;
- (7) When any deed or instrument whatever shall be acknowledged before him, he shall correctly insert in the attestation thereto the day, month, and year on which and the place where the same is acknowledged, and the names and residences of the attesting witnesses, on the day on which it is so acknowledged ;
- (8) He shall not attest any deed or instrument whatever in any case in which the person executing or acknowledging the same shall be or profess to be unable to read the same, or in which such person shall require him to read over the same, unless and until he shall have read over and explained the same, or caused the same to be explained in the presence and hearing of such person and of the attesting witnesses thereto ;
- (9) He shall not require, permit, or suffer any party to any deed or instrument executed or to be executed before him, or any witness thereto, to sign his name or make his mark to or acknowledge any such deed or instrument or any duplicate or other part thereof or any draft or minute thereof intended to be preserved in his protocol, or to sign his name or make his mark upon any paper or other material intended to be afterward used for any such purpose, until the whole of such deed or instrument shall have been written or engrossed thereon ;
- (10) He shall duly attest every deed or instrument whatever which shall be executed or acknowledged before him, and in such attestation shall state that the said deed or instrument was signed by the party and the witnesses thereto in his presence and in the presence of one another, and shall also in such attestation state whether the person executing or acknowledging the said deed or instrument, or the attesting witnesses thereto (and in the latter case he shall specify which of the said witnesses) were known to him, and whether the same was read over by the person executing the same, or by him, the said notary, to the said person ; and he shall sign and seal every such attestation. He shall state in his attestation the amount of the stamp affixed to the duplicate of such deed or instrument, and shall cancel the stamp thereon as directed by law. And such attestation shall be in the following form of words, or in any other form of words to the same effect, as the case shall happen ; that is to say,

I, A. B., Notary Public, do hereby certify and attest that the foregoing instrument having been read over (and explained) by me, the said notary, to the said D. E. (here insert the name of the person or persons executing such instrument), who is (or are) known to me (if the case be so), in the presence of (insert the names of the witnesses in full, with their residences), the subscribing witnesses hereto, both of whom are known to me (if the case be so), the same was signed (or acknowledged) by the said D. E., and also by the said witnesses, in my presence and in the presence of one another, all being present at the same time, on the _____ day of _____, at _____.

I further certify and attest that Rs. _____, the consideration (or part consideration, as the case may be), was paid in my presence, and that the duplicate of this deed bears a stamp of Rs. _____.

Date of attestation : _____ (Seal.) _____
Notary Public.

Such attestation shall be legibly signed by him in the language in which the deed or instrument is written, and also with his usual signature, if the language or form of that signature be different from that in which such deed or instrument is written ; .

- (11) He shall on or before the fifteenth day of every month deliver or transmit to the registrar of lands of the district in which he resides the duplicate of every deed or other instrument (except wills and codicils) executed or acknowledged before or attested by him during the preceding month, together with a list in duplicate signed by him, of all such deeds or instruments, and shall at the same time forward a copy of such list so signed by him to the Registrar-General of Lands. Provided that where any deed shall be executed or acknowledged by two or more parties residing in different districts and before different notaries, the duplicate of such deed shall be delivered or transmitted by the notary by whom the same was drawn up to the registrar of lands of the district in which he resides ; and it shall not be necessary for the other notary or notaries employed in the execution of such deed to deliver or transmit any duplicate thereof to such registrar. And if the land referred to in any deed or instrument, which by the Ordinance No. 7 of 1840, intituled "To provide more effectually for the prevention of Frauds and Perjuries," is required to be executed before a licensed notary, be situated in any district other than that in which the notary before whom the same is signed, and by whom the same is attested, shall reside, such notary shall on or before the fifteenth day of the month next following that in which the same was executed (besides transmitting the duplicate in manner aforesaid) deliver or transmit to the registrar of the district in which such land shall be situated an attested copy thereof, together with a list in duplicate signed by him of all such deeds or instruments as relate to lands in such last-mentioned district;

- (12) He shall carefully preserve in his protocol a draft, minute, or copy of every deed or instrument executed or acknowledged before him, to which shall be attached his signature and those of the party and witnesses to the original deed or instrument, and he shall keep a register thereof with a convenient index for the purpose of easy reference;
- (13) He shall not attest any deed or instrument which is insufficiently stamped;
- (14) Before attesting any deed affecting any interest in lands, he shall endeavour to ascertain whether any prior deed affecting any interest in such land has been registered. And if any such prior deed has been to his knowledge registered, he shall insert at the head of the deed attested by him the number of the registration volume and the page of the folio in which the registration of such prior deed has been entered;
- (15) He shall number consecutively all the documents attested by him, except last wills, according to the order in which they are executed before him. If he shall change his district, as provided by the 33rd section of this Ordinance, he shall number consecutively the deeds attested by him in the new district, commencing with number "1";
- (16) He shall not attest any deed, will, or other instrument which is written on more than one entire or undivided sheet or piece of paper, parchment, or other material, unless each of the sheets or pieces used has been previously produced before the registrar of lands for the district in which the notary resides, and has been marked or signed or initialled by such registrar in such manner as such registrar shall determine, in order to prevent the sheets being used for any other purpose than the deed, will, or instrument intended to be executed, or unless the parties executing the same and the notary shall sign every sheet or piece in which any part of the instrument is written;

Notaries.

- (17) He shall not attest any deed or instrument written on paper which is not of a reasonably durable description and suitable for the purpose of documents of this kind, nor shall he attest any deed or instrument written on ola ;
- (18) Whenever any money shall be paid in his presence as the consideration or part of the consideration for any instrument, he shall make a note of such payment in his attestation ;
- (19) If he attest any deed executed before him by means of an attorney, he shall preserve a true copy of the power of attorney with his protocol, and shall forward a like copy thereof with the duplicate deed to the registrar of lands ;
- (20) He shall not attest any instrument in any district other than that in which he is authorized to act, nor in any language other than that in which he is authorized to practise ;
- (21) He shall give one month's notice to the district judge of the district in which he is authorized to act, and also to the Registrar-General, of his intention to change his residence or to discontinue his practice, and shall affix a written notice to that effect, signed by him, on the outside door or wall of the district court of every such district ;
- (22) He shall give notice to the district judge with as little delay as possible of the death, departure from the island, or insolvency of any person bound as a surety for the due and faithful discharge by such notary of his office ;
- (23) Whenever he shall change his residence, he shall without delay give notice of such change to the registrar of lands of the district and the government agent of the province in which his new residence is situated ;

Penalty for non-observance of rules.

Proviso.

Notary to use diligence in registering deeds.

And if any notary shall act in violation of or shall disregard or neglect to observe any of the foregoing rules and regulations, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, in addition to any civil liability he may incur thereby. Provided that no instrument shall be deemed to be invalid in consequence of the non-observance by the notary of the foregoing rules and regulations or of any of them, in any matter of form. But nothing in this proviso contained shall give any validity to any instrument which may be invalid by reason of the provisions of any other law not having been complied with.

27 Whenever a notary has received instructions and a sufficient sum to meet the necessary expenses for registering any deed or instrument drawn or attested by him, and shall in such case fail to use due diligence in effecting such registration, he shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, in addition to any civil liability which he may incur by reason of his default.

28 It shall be the duty of every notary to endeavour to ascertain the true and full consideration for the execution of any deed or instrument, and to insert and set forth the same in such deed or instrument. And any notary who shall knowingly and wilfully insert or set forth, or cause to be inserted or set forth, in or upon any such deed or instrument any other than the full and true consideration or money directly or indirectly paid or secured, or agreed to be paid or secured for the same, or the actual value of the same, or shall in any wise aid or assist in the doing thereof, respectively, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees for every such offence, in addition to any civil liability which he may incur thereby.

Notary to try and ascertain true consideration.

29 If any notary shall attest any fraudulent deed or instrument whatsoever knowing the same to be fraudulent, or shall knowingly and wilfully insert in any deed or instrument whatsoever any word, letter, figure, matter, or thing which ought not to have been inserted therein, or shall knowingly and wilfully omit to insert therein any word, letter, figure, matter, or thing which ought to have been inserted therein, with intent to prejudice or defraud any person; or shall attest any deed or instrument whatsoever without the person who executed or acknowledged it and the attesting witnesses thereto having appeared personally before him at the time when it was so executed or acknowledged; or shall knowingly and wilfully make any false statement in the attestation to any deed or instrument executed or acknowledged before him; or shall wilfully, maliciously, or fraudulently mis-state or misrepresent to any party thereto the contents or effect of any deed or instrument whatsoever executed or acknowledged before him; or shall by any other wilful act, either of commission or omission, commit or attempt to commit any fraud in the execution of his office; or shall wilfully, maliciously, or fraudulently deface, mutilate, injure, destroy, or make away with any deed or instrument whatever, or any draft, minute, or copy of any deed or instrument which had been left in his charge or custody, or which he was bound to preserve; every such notary shall in any of such cases be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction thereof to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, at the discretion of the court, for any period not exceeding five years.

Penalty on notary acting fraudulently.

30 The several fees specified in the table to this Ordinance annexed marked B shall and may be lawfully demanded and taken by notaries for the performance of the duties of their office as therein expressed. And a correct table in the English, Singhalese, and Tamil languages of the fees chargeable by notaries shall be at all times appended in some conspicuous place on the wall of every district court and court of requests throughout the island. And if any notary shall without just and reasonable cause refuse or neglect at any proper time, and on being tendered his proper fees, to discharge any of the duties or functions of his office, or shall demand or insist upon receiving a higher fee than he is authorized to demand, he shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees.

On removal or death of notary documents to be delivered to registrar.

31 If any person being removed from or ceasing to act in the office of notary, or, in case of the death of any such notary, if any of his heirs, executors, or administrators, or any other persons, into whose possession the same shall have come, shall wilfully lose or injure or destroy, or shall without just and lawful cause wilfully neglect or refuse to deliver over, as soon as conveniently may be, to the registrar of lands for the district in which such notary was resident, any drafts, minutes, or copies of any deeds or other instruments executed or acknowledged before such notary, or any register, index, deed, instrument, or document whatever, possessed by such notary in right of his said office; every such person shall be guilty of an offence, and shall on conviction thereof be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding twelve calendar months, or to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or to both.

Notary to deliver to the registrar lists of duplicate deeds filed.

32 Whenever the duplicate of any instrument shall be transmitted to the registrar by any notary under the 26th section of this Ordinance, sub-section 11, or whenever any document shall be delivered up to any registrar under the preceding section, such notary or other person transmitting or delivering the same shall tender to the registrar two lists thereof, and the said registrar shall, after ascertaining the correctness thereof, sign the said lists, and return one of them to the said notary or other party, and file the remaining list and securely keep and preserve the same and the documents specified therein with the other records of his office.

Governor may authorize notary to change his district.

33 It shall be lawful for the Governor, upon the application of any notary, by a new warrant, to authorize any notary to change his district and to act as a notary in a district other than that specified in his original warrant, whenever such shall seem expedient to the Governor.

Ordinance when to take effect.

34 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the Thirty-first day of March, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Seventy-seven.

No. 10 of 1890.

Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may revoke the withdrawal or cancellation of a notary's warrant and issue a fresh warrant.

1 (1) In any case in which a notary's warrant shall have been withdrawn or cancelled under the provisions of the principal Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, if to him it shall appear expedient so to do, to make an order revoking such withdrawal or cancellation, and to issue a fresh warrant in place of the one withdrawn or cancelled.

Notaries.

No. 10 OF 1890—contd.

(2) Notice of such order shall be given in the Government Gazette, and a copy thereof shall be transmitted by the Colonial Secretary to the district court and courts of requests of the district within which such notary shall have been authorized to act, and to the Registrar-General.

Notice of revocation.

(3) It shall be the duty of the judge of the court in which the name of a notary shall have been enrolled at the time of the withdrawal or cancellation of his warrant, forthwith, upon the receipt of such notice as aforesaid, and on the production of a fresh warrant, to restore the name of such notary to the roll of notaries.

Notary to be re-enrolled.

2 Every such notary shall, from and after the date on which his name is restored to the roll of notaries as hereinbefore provided, be entitled to execute the office of a notary in conformity with the authority given to him by the fresh warrant of the Governor.

Notary to act on fresh warrant from and after re-enrolment.

3 The judge restoring the name of any notary to the roll of notaries kept in his court shall require fresh security to be provided by such notary under section 13 of the principal Ordinance.

Fresh security shall be taken.

*Registration of Titles to Land.No. 5 of 1877.An Ordinance to amend the Law relating to the Registration of Titles to Land in this Colony.(As amended by No. 4 of 1889.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain respects the law relating to the registration of titles to land in this colony: It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

I.—Preliminary.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as “The Land Registration Ordinance, 1877.”

Short title.

2 The 8th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, and 31st sections of “The Land Registration Ordinance, 1863,” and the 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th sections of the Ordinance No. 3 of 1865, intituled “An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 8 of 1863,” are hereby repealed, save and except so far as the said sections or any of them of the said Ordinance No. 3 of 1865 repeal any part of the said Ordinance No. 8 of 1863.

Repeal of certain sections of Ordinances No. 8 of 1863 and No. 3 of 1865.

3 The word “person” shall include any company or association of persons whether incorporated or not.

Interpretation clause.

The word “registrar” shall mean the Registrar-General of Lands.

4 All the powers, duties, and functions vested in the registrar under this Ordinance may be exercised by any special commissioner appointed by the Governor in that behalf.

Powers of registrar may be exercised by special commissioner.

II.—Investigation and Settlement of Claims.

5 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, on receiving the report of the Surveyor-General mentioned in the 12th section of the said Ordinance No. 8 of 1863, by a Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, to declare the division mentioned in such report to have come within the operation of this Ordinance; and the registrar shall thereupon have authority to enter upon all lands situate within such division, and to investigate all claims thereto, for the purposes of registration under this Ordinance.

After Proclamation in the Gazette registrar authorized to commence investigations.

6 The registrar shall previous to such investigation prepare notices, as near as material in the form A in the schedule hereunto annexed, calling upon all persons having or claiming a right, title, or interest in or to any of the lands situate in the said division, or in such portion thereof as shall be specified in the said notice, or their agents or representatives, to appear before him on a day or days to be named in such notice (not being less than ninety days from the date thereof) and to state their claims thereto. And every such notice shall be published in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages twice at least in the Government Gazette, and in two at least of the local newspapers, and copies thereof shall also be affixed on the walls of the kachchéri and the several courts of the district wherein such division is situated, and in such other localities as may secure the greatest possible publicity thereto; and the said notice shall likewise be advertised by beat of tom-tom once a week at least during the said period of ninety days throughout the aforesaid division. And every suit, action, or civil proceeding pending at the time of the Proclamation aforesaid in any district court or court of requests or village tribunal, upon which no final judgment shall have been given by such court or tribunal, in which the title to or right to the possession or enjoyment of any land or interest therein, situate in such division, which might form the subject of registration under this Ordinance, shall be in dispute, shall abate and be transferred to the registrar to be heard, determined, or disposed of by him in the manner hereinafter provided for in the case of disputed claims. The registrar shall have power to make such order with regard to the payment of the costs of and any damages or other moneys claimed in any suit or action or proceeding so transferred as aforesaid, as the justice of the case may require; and such costs, damages, or moneys shall be recovered by writ of execution against property and person, which the registrar is hereby authorized to issue to the fiscal, who shall duly carry out the same in the same manner as such writs when issued by district courts are carried out. Also every suit of proceeding, which may be pending at the time of the Proclamation aforesaid in any district court or court of requests for the partition or sale of any land situate in such division under the provisions of the Ordinance No. 10 of 1863, intituled "An Ordinance to provide for the partition or sale of Lands held in common," or any other Ordinance to be hereafter in that behalf enacted, shall abate and be transferred to the registrar, who shall be empowered to hear, determine, and dispose thereof in the same manner as the said district court could have done if such suit or proceeding had not been so transferred. Provided, however, that no pending suit for the foreclosure or realization of any mortgage shall abate and be transferred to the registrar under this section.

Mode of publication.

Transfer of pending actions to the registrar.

Partition suits to be referred to registrar.

[§ 30, of 1889]

Registrar shall proceed to the spot and receive claims.

Mode of making claims and procedure thereupon.

7 On the day appointed in such notice the registrar shall proceed to the said division, and shall then, or on such other early day as he shall then and there from time to time publicly appoint, inquire for, receive, and record on the spot all claims made by all persons to or in respect of any and every of the lands situate therein.

8 Every person having or claiming to have any right, title, or interest, in or to any such lands, whether in possession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy, except as monthly tenant, and whether by way of mortgage, hypothec, lien, charge, or otherwise, other than such hypothec, lien, or charge as may arise or be created or have arisen or have been created under or by virtue of any Ordinance already or hereafter to be enacted, and other than by way of prædial servitude, shall personally or by his agent deliver to the registrar, within such time as he shall then appoint, a statement of his claim in writing, signed by such claimant or his agent, and worded as near as may be according to the form B in the schedule hereunto annexed. Provided that it shall be competent for any such claimant or agent as aforesaid, instead of delivering such statement in writing, to appear in person before the registrar, within such time as last aforesaid, and to state verbally the particulars of his claim; and the registrar shall record the same in writing in such form as aforesaid, and the same shall be signed by the claimant or his agent. And all such statements shall be filed and numbered by the registrar in the order in which they shall have been received or recorded as aforesaid.

9 After the statements of claims are filed and numbered in manner provided by the preceding section, the registrar shall appoint a time, as early as conveniently may be, and a place for investigating each claim to which no opposition is made or adverse right asserted, giving notice thereof to the claimant or his agent. The registrar may, if he think fit, from time to time appoint any other place or any other time for the investigation, or may adjourn the investigation from place to place and from time to time.

Registrar must first appoint time and place for investigating undisputed claims.

10 The claimant or his agent shall appear before the registrar at any place and time appointed by him for the investigation of such claims as are mentioned in the preceding section; and the registrar shall then investigate and consider the evidence, whether documentary, oral, or otherwise, adduced by each claimant or his agent in support of the claim to the land or interest therein set out in the claim; and if such evidence of right or title in the claimant to the said land or interest claimed by him is adduced, as according to the laws or customs of this island would in the judgment of the registrar be accepted by a willing purchaser as sufficient evidence of title, the registrar shall record on the statement of claim that the claimant has made out a title of the first class to the land or interest claimed, subject or not (as the case may be) to any other right or interest admitted by such claimant; and if the evidence adduced by the claimant falls short of such evidence as aforesaid, and the registrar is satisfied that the claimant is in the actual and bonâ fide possession or enjoyment of the land or interest therein claimed by him, or that his claim thereto is otherwise reasonable and bonâ fide, the registrar shall record on the said statement of claim that the claimant has made out a title of the second class to the land or interest therein claimed by him, subject or not (as the case may be) to any other right or interest admitted by such claimant.

Investigation of disputed claims.

Reference to arbitration.

11 After the completion by the registrar of the investigation of undisputed claims, he shall proceed to consider the statements of claims in which two or more persons shall have claimed a right, title, or interest in or to the same land adversely to each other. In such cases the registrar shall propose to them the settlement of their disputes by means of a reference to arbitration. And in case they consent thereto they shall name an arbitrator, and if they do not mutually agree to the nomination of an arbitrator each party so claiming adversely to the other or others shall name an arbitrator, with power to the arbitrators, before proceeding with their investigation, to name the registrar himself or any other person as an umpire. And the parties shall thereupon sign a submission in the form C in the schedule hereunto annexed. And the award of such arbitrator or arbitrators or of their said umpire shall, if made and published within fourteen days from the date of the submission, or within such other period as the registrar shall at the time of such submission or thereafter upon cause shown at any time or from time to time by writing appoint, be binding upon the said parties and conclusive as regards the said disputes. And no such award shall be re-opened or set aside, except upon proof to the registrar of fraud, misconduct, or corruption; in which case it shall be competent for the registrar to set aside the award, and for the parties to enter into a new submission, subject to the same conditions as hereinbefore provided in respect of the original submission.

Arbitrators to return award to registrar.

12 As soon as the arbitrator, arbitrators, or umpire shall have made his or their award, it shall be his or their duty to return the same without delay, together with all the proceedings or depositions recorded by him or them, to the registrar, who shall in accordance with the terms of the award record on the respective statements of claims of the claimants, whose claims have in any respect been upheld, the nature and interest of the title to the land or interest claimed, and whether the title thereto is a title of the first class or of the second class. Provided that it shall be lawful for the registrar from time to time to remit the award back to the arbitrators or umpire for amendment in cases where the award has left any material issue undetermined, or is in any respect defective, obscure, or uncertain. The registrar shall also determine the amount of the fees to be paid to such arbitrators and umpire, and by whom the same shall be payable. Such fees shall be recoverable by writ of execution against property and person, which the registrar is hereby authorized to issue to the fiscal, who shall duly carry out the same in the same manner as such writs when issued by district courts are carried out. Provided always that the registrar shall not be entitled to any fee for acting as such umpire.

and determine.

14 At any such investigation, as in the preceding section mentioned, the claimants may appear either personally or by counsel. At the close of the investigation the registrar shall determine and decide upon the respective claims of the parties, and whether the title made out is one of the first class or of the second class, according to the principles set out in the 10th section, and shall make his record on the statement of claims accordingly. The registrar shall also tax the costs of the investigation, and determine by whom the same shall be payable; and such costs shall be recoverable by writ of execution against property and person, which the registrar is hereby authorized to issue to the fiscal, who shall duly carry out the same in the same manner as such writs when issued by district courts are carried out.

Procedure at investigation.

15 It shall be the duty of the registrar at such investigations as aforesaid to determine and record with as much exactness as practicable the boundaries of every land in respect of which any claim shall be upheld. And if any land shall be held in undivided shares by two or more persons, and the parties whose claims have been upheld shall consent thereto, it shall be lawful for the registrar to make partition of such land between or amongst the parties entitled thereto. And it shall be lawful for him to cause boundaries to be constructed or marked on any such land brought within the operation of this Ordinance, at the expense of the parties interested therein. Any person wilfully destroying, removing, injuring, or defacing any boundary so constructed or marked shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to any such punishment as a police court has power to inflict.

without reasonable or sufficient cause fail to appear, or shall without like cause refuse to be examined on oath or affirmation, or to answer any question which shall be put to him relating to the matter under investigation (which oath or affirmation the registrar, arbitrator, arbitrators, or umpire is and are hereby authorized to administer), or shall (without like cause) refuse or wilfully neglect to produce any such documents as aforesaid, shall for every such refusal or neglect be liable to such fine (not exceeding fifty rupees) as the registrar, arbitrator, arbitrators, or umpire shall think fit by an order under his or their hand or hands to impose. And it shall be lawful for the registrar, arbitrator, arbitrators, or umpire, in every such order, to direct payment of any such fine to be made into the police court of the district in which the said division is situate; and it shall be lawful for the registrar, in the event of any such fine being imposed, to require the offender to enter into such recognizance, with or without sureties, as the registrar shall determine, to appear before such police court, and in default of entering into such recognizance to direct the fiscal to arrest and keep such offender in custody until he can be conveniently brought before such police court; and if payment is not made as therein directed, the said police court shall proceed to enforce the same, as well as payment of all charges relating to the recovery thereof, and to deal with the persons liable in that behalf in such and the same manner as if the fine had been imposed by the said court. Provided always that all evidence taken or tendered before the registrar or any such arbitrator or umpire shall be subject to the same rules of evidence as are applicable to evidence taken in civil proceedings before ordinary courts of justice.

And inflict penalty for disobedience.

Mode of recovering such penalty.

Mode of taking evidence.

Punishment in case of false evidence.

Record to be made up.

18 All evidence and examination of parties taken before the registrar or any arbitrator or umpire shall be taken down by him in writing, and shall, when complete, be read over and explained to the witness giving the same; and the depositions shall thereupon be signed by him, or in the case of his refusal by the registrar, arbitrator, or umpire. And if any such witness shall in his examination knowingly and wilfully state any matter or thing which shall be false, he shall be liable to the pains and penalties attached to the offence of perjury.

19 The record of all evidence, whether oral or documentary, taken by the registrar at the investigation of each claim (whether disputed or undisputed), shall be made up in a separate file, and the finding or decision thereon, and his reasons therefor and all orders of the registrar in relation thereto, shall be duly entered on the said record. And the record so made up shall be open at all reasonable times, upon application in writing being first made to the registrar, to the inspection of any party interested in such claim or his duly authorized counsel or agent, who shall be entitled to copies of such record or any part thereof, to be made at the expense of the party applying for the same.

Registration of Titles to Land.

21 If any claimant or his agent be dissatisfied with any finding, decision, or order of the registrar, whether given or made in respect of a disputed or an undisputed claim, he may within ten days after the pronouncing thereof appeal to the Supreme Court; and the registrar shall without delay forward to the said court the record so made up as aforesaid, and the said court shall make such order, in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance, as the justice of the case may require, and such order, as shall be made by the Supreme Court under this section, the registrar shall duly carry into effect. Provided, however, that no appeal shall lie against any order or decision made in pursuance of any award returned under the provisions of the 11th section, and no appeal shall be entertained unless the appellant shall within ten days of the date of such appeal give security for the probable costs of the investigation and of the appeal, the amount whereof shall be fixed by the registrar. Except as aforesaid, and except so far as relates to stamps, every such appeal shall be dealt with and disposed of in the same manner and subject to the same rules as appeals from interlocutory orders of district courts are dealt with and disposed of.

Appeal to the Supreme Court from finding of the registrar.

III.—Publication of Claims.

22 So soon as the registrar shall have completed his inquiries respecting the lands in any division, he shall prepare a notice calling upon all persons who may assert a right adverse to that of any of the claimants whose claims have been upheld by him, to assert such right within six months from the date thereof; and every such notice shall be as near as may be in the form D in schedule I. hereto annexed.

Registrar shall notice claimants. [§ 27, 4 of 1889]

23 And the registrar shall cause copies of the said notice in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages to be published at least once a month in the Government Gazette and in two of the local newspapers, and to be affixed on the walls of the kachchéri and the several courts of the district in which the said division is situated, and in such other localities whereby the greatest possible publicity thereto may be secured; and shall also cause the said notice to be advertised by beat of tom-tom once a month at least during the said period of six months throughout the said division.

Final notice to all claimants.

24 All the said claims (whether delivered by the claimants to the registrar or by him reduced to writing) shall at all reasonable times within the said period of six months, upon a written application in that behalf, be open to the inspection and perusal of all persons claiming to be interested in the said lands, and of their respective duly authorized agents, with liberty to them to demand and receive copies thereof or extracts therefrom, at their own costs and charges respectively.

Claims to be open to inspection.

refer the same to arbitration, in the same manner and subject to the said provisions hereinbefore set forth in respect of claims made under the 8th section.

IV.—Registration of existing Titles, Interests, and Incumbrances.

After expiration of six months from notice land and titles to be registered.

[See § 26, 4 of 1889]

26 Immediately after the lapse of the period of six months mentioned in the 22nd section the registrar shall proceed to register all the lands situate within the said division by entering in a book (bearing the name of such division or of the village or district wherein it is situate) a copy of the plan thereof, and also a copy of each allotment thereof on a separate page, together with the name of the owner or owners, and of all other persons whose rights and interests, whether in possession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy, and whether by way of lease, mortgage, plantation, or otherwise, shall have been upheld up to date, together with such other particulars and references as may be necessary to secure the proper identification of every such allotment with the land to which it refers, with the claims made thereto and with the certificate to be issued in respect thereof. And every such book and plan shall be kept in duplicate, and one copy thereof shall be preserved in the land register office in Colombo, and the other in the branch office of the province or district in which such village, district, or division is situate.

Books and plans open to inspection.

27 Every such book and plan shall at all reasonable hours, upon a written application in that behalf, be open to the inspection and perusal of all persons claiming to be interested in any of the lands therein registered, and to their duly authorized agents, with liberty to demand and receive copies thereof or extracts therefrom at their own costs and charges.

After the expiration of six months certificates of title to be issued.

[See § 19, 4 of 1889]

28 At the end of the period of six months mentioned in the 22nd section the registrar shall, upon delivery to him of the proper stamp in that behalf, proceed to issue certificates of title, interest, or incumbrance in terms of their respective claims, and stating whether the title is one of the first or of the second class, to each of the persons whose right, title, or interest has not been disputed, or having been disputed shall have been upheld by an award or by the decision of the registrar, or of the Supreme Court in case of an appeal, as hereinbefore provided. Provided, however, that if any proceeding at law or before the registrar in respect of any claim shall be pending at the expiration of the said period of six months, the registrar shall suspend the issuing of the certificate in respect of the right, title, or interest thereby put in issue until the final adjudication thereof, and thereafter and after such further inquiry, as he shall deem necessary, he shall issue in favour of the person or persons whose right, title, or interest shall have been upheld, a certificate of title to such right, title, or interest of such class as shall have been established. Provided also that the registrar may in any other case, where he deems it necessary, suspend the issuing of the certificate; but any person aggrieved by such suspension may appeal therefrom to the Supreme Court; and such appeal shall be entered and dealt with in the same manner and subject to the same rules as appeals under the 21st section. Provided also that the registrar shall in no case issue any certificate of title until he shall have previously registered the land therein referred to in manner provided by the 26th section, as well as the right, title, or interest in respect of which such certificate is about to be issued.

Certificate not to be issued until after registration of land.

29 Every certificate of title shall be either (1) a certificate of ownership; (2) a certificate of interest; or (3) a certificate of incumbrance. Certificates of ownership shall be granted to those persons whose right, as owners in possession (but not necessarily in occupation), to the land or any undivided share thereof (whether subject or not to any lease, mortgage, or other interest) shall have been upheld. Certificates of interest shall be granted to persons whose rights by way of lease, tacit, hypothec, charge, lien, planter's interest, contract, or otherwise (except rights by way of mortgage under a notarial instrument and such rights as would be included in a certificate of ownership), or whose rights in remainder, reversion, or expectancy in or to the land or any undivided share thereof have been upheld. Certificates of incumbrance shall be granted to mortgagees of the land or any undivided share thereof or interest therein under notarial instruments.

Certificates of title:
(1) of ownership;
(2) of interest;
(3) of incumbrance.

30 Certificates of ownership shall be as near as is material in the form G, certificates of interest as near as material in one of the forms H, and certificates of incumbrance as near as material in the form I in the schedule hereunto annexed, and shall be signed by the registrar, and shall contain a correct plan and description of the land therein referred to, with figures and references necessary to identify it on the plan or division in which it is situate, and a correct statement of the right, title, or interest of the party to whom it is issued, and of all parties having a prior preferent or concurrent right or interest therein, together with the dates or particulars thereof, and (if created by deed) the name and residence of the notary, judge, commissioner, or justice who may have attested the same.

Forms of certificate of title.

[See § 32, 4 of 1889]

V.—Effect of Registration.

31 Every certificate of ownership, interest, or incumbrance shall have the effect of absolutely barring all claims to the land therein mentioned, or to any right or interest thereto or therein which shall have arisen or accrued prior to the date of such certificate, and which might have been registered under the provisions of this Ordinance, but which at the date of such certificate had not been so registered, save and except as is excepted by the following section.

Effect of certificate in barring claims.

Registration of Titles to Land.

What claims may be made after certificate.

32 Excepting as is hereinafter excepted, persons having or claiming to have any right, title, or interest in or to any land against the holder of a certificate of the first class shall be entitled to prosecute their claim by action in some court having jurisdiction in the matter within two years from the date of the certificate ; and against the holder of a certificate of the second class within four years from the date of the certificate. Persons absent from the island, whose claims shall not have been preferred by their agents and disposed of under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be entitled to prosecute their claims within four years from the date of the certificate, whether of the first or the second class. Persons under legal disability shall be entitled to prosecute their claims within three years from their disability ceasing ; and the terms hereby fixed for prosecuting claims shall only begin to run against persons claiming estates in remainder or reversion from the time when such persons acquired a right of possession or enjoyment of the land or interest which formed the subject of their claims.

Persons under disability.

Reversioners.

Holder of a subsequent decree may apply to registrar for certificate.

33 If any such action as aforesaid shall have been decided in favour of any party and against the holder of a certificate, it shall be competent for such party or any person claiming under him, upon production of a duly certified copy of the decree in his favour, to apply to the registrar for a certificate, and the registrar shall, subject to such investigation as he shall deem expedient, issue to such party or person claiming under him a certificate of title, interest, or incumbrance, as the case may be, of the first or second class, as the case may require, regard being had to the principle laid down in section 10.

Notice of actions to be given to the registrar.

34 No action in the 32nd section mentioned shall prevent any claims being barred, unless written notice of such action shall have been previously given to the registrar. The registrar shall immediately upon the receipt of such notice record the same and the date of receiving it.

After term for bringing action has expired, certificate of second class may be exchanged for certificate of first class.

35 It shall be lawful for the holder of a certificate of the second class, at any time after the expiration of four years from the date thereof, to apply to the registrar to have it exchanged for a certificate of the first class ; and if the registrar shall have received no notice of any action having been commenced with reference to the land or interest forming the subject of such certificate, within the time within which such action is required to be brought under the 32nd section, or if any such action shall have been brought and decided in favour of the holder of the certificate, the registrar shall give to such holder a certificate of the first class in exchange for his certificate of the second class, and such certificate of the first class shall be taken for all intents and purposes as dated on the same day as the certificate of the second class for which it shall be given in exchange.

the land or interest mentioned in such certificate at any time after three years from the date thereof, and before any notice of action has been given to the registrar as hereinbefore provided by the 34th section, and the alienee, lessee, or mortgagee shall have duly registered such alienation, demise, or incumbrance, all rights and claims in or to such land or interest which shall not have been registered at the time of such alienation, demise, or incumbrance, shall, notwithstanding that any claimant may have been under disability or entitled in remainder or reversion only at the date of such alienation or incumbrance, be deemed to be extinguished and null and void as against the alienee, lessee, or mortgagee for valuable consideration, saving, however, to every claimant the right to proceed against the person to whom the certificate was originally granted to recover the value of such land or interest at the time when the same was so alienated or incumbered, or such greater sum as may, in the opinion of the court before which the claim is prosecuted, be equivalent to the injury which he has sustained by the loss of the land or interest.

valuable consideration protected.

VI.—Miscellaneous.

37 When any notice is required to be given under any of the provisions of this Ordinance, it shall be sufficient (unless otherwise expressly required by this Ordinance) if such notice is served either personally or left at the last known place of abode of the persons to be served therewith.

Notices how given.

38 No lien, charge, mortgage, or hypothec (other than such as may arise or be created under or by virtue of statutory enactment) shall be created or effected so as to be of any legal validity upon or in respect of any immovable property, the title to which shall have been registered under the provisions of this Ordinance, unless the same be created or effected by the order of a competent court, or by a last will, or by a duly executed notarial instrument.

Future tacit hypothecs abolished.

39 Every transfer, assignment, or mortgage effected by any instrument, executed after the passing of this Ordinance, of any vegetable produce of any land to be grown, gathered, or cut after the expiration of one year from the date of such instrument, shall, if the value of the produce thereby expressed to be transferred, assigned, or mortgaged exceed five thousand rupees, be deemed, for the purposes of this Ordinance, and of the said Ordinances No. 8 of 1863 and No. 3 of 1865, to create an interest in land, notwithstanding that by the terms of such instrument an interest in land would not otherwise be created. But except as aforesaid no vegetable produce growing or to be grown on any land shall be deemed to be an interest in land for the purpose of this Ordinance or of the said Ordinances No. 8 of 1863 and No. 3 of 1865.

Growing crops not an interest in land.

40 This Ordinance and the Ordinances No. 8 of 1863 and No. 3 of 1865 shall be read as one Ordinance.

Ordinance to be read as one with former Ordinances.

41 The stamp duties mentioned in the schedule K hereto annexed shall be chargeable in respect of the instruments therein mentioned instead of the corresponding duties mentioned in the schedule to the said Ordinance No. 3 of 1865. No stamp duties shall be required for any proceedings taken under this Ordinance save such as are mentioned in the said schedule K or in the schedule to the said Ordinance No. 3 of 1865, and no certificate of incumbrance to be issued by the registrar shall be liable to or chargeable with stamp duty, if the incumbrance has been previously registered under the provisions of the said Ordinances No. 8 of 1863 and No. 3 of 1865, or either of them.

Penalty on obstructing persons acting under this Ordinance.

42 Any person who shall wilfully resist, obstruct, or hinder, or who shall incite or assist any person to resist, obstruct, or hinder any person acting in pursuance of any duty or power vested in him by this Ordinance, or who shall unlawfully tear, deface, or remove any notice affixed under any of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty on abuse of authority.

43 Any person who shall, under pretence of performing any act under the authority of this Ordinance, use unnecessary violence or give any vexatious annoyance, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

No sequestration or seizure operative unless notice thereof given to registrar.

44 No sequestration by order of court or seizure in execution of any immovable property shall render null and void or invalid any subsequent alienation or incumbrance of such property, unless a notice of such sequestration or seizure shall be given to the registrar of lands for the district in which such property is situate, within seven days of such sequestration or seizure, anything in the 42nd section of "The Fiscals' Ordinance, 1867," to the contrary notwithstanding. It shall be the duty of such registrar to keep a proper record of such notices, which shall be open to the inspection (upon written application in that behalf) of any person interested therein.

Deeds relating to lands omitted from register to be incapable of registration.

45 From and after the expiration of twelve months from the publication of the notice mentioned in the 22nd section, no deed or instrument affecting any land or other immovable property situate in any district brought within the operation of this Ordinance shall be admitted to registration under the said Ordinances No. 8 of 1863 and No. 3 of 1865, or either of them, unless the title to such land shall have been registered under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Deeds relating to registered lands not admissible in evidence unless registered.

46 When the title to any land or interest therein shall have been registered under the provisions of this Ordinance, no deed or instrument, other than a last will, affecting such land or interest shall be admissible as evidence of any right, title, or interest therein in any civil proceeding in any court, unless such deed or instrument shall be duly registered under the provisions of the said Ordinances No. 8 of 1863 and No. 3 of 1865.

Rights of public and Crown reserved.

48 Nothing in this Ordinance shall be held to affect any rights which the public may possess or be entitled to in respect of any immovable property, or the rights of the Crown.

Registration of Titles to Land.

49 The 5th section of this Ordinance shall come into operation upon the date of the passing of this Ordinance; the remainder of this Ordinance shall come into operation in each division at such time as its operation shall be proclaimed under the provisions of the 5th section.

Operation of Ordinance.

No. 4 of 1889.

2 When any division is brought within the operation of the principal Ordinance by a Proclamation issued under section 5 thereof, any action or proceeding at law heretofore instituted, or which may hereafter be instituted, in any district court or court of requests or before any village tribunal, between the date of such Proclamation and the expiration of the period of six months mentioned in section 27 of this Ordinance—

- (a) In respect of any title to, or interest in, land situate within such division (except for the realization of a mortgage), when such title or interest can be made the subject of registration; or
- (b) For the partition or sale, under the provisions of the Ordinance No. 10 of 1863, of any land situate within such division—

No action at law to be brought between date of Proclamation under section 5 of Ordinance No. 5 of 1877 and expiration of notice under section 27 of this Ordinance.

shall abate.

3 The registrar may, when he thinks fit, consolidate the claims of one or more persons made in pursuance of the provisions of the principal Ordinance, and the same shall then form the subject of one and the same investigation, and the record of all evidence, whether oral or documentary, taken by the registrar at such investigation shall be filed with any one of the statements of the claims so consolidated as aforesaid; and the finding or decision on each of such claims, and his reasons therefor, and all orders of the registrar in relation thereto, shall be duly entered on the said record, anything in the principal Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

Power to registrar to consolidate claims.

4 The registrar may, when he thinks fit, in respect of property held in community by a husband and wife, allow the wife to prefer a claim for and on behalf of her husband; and such claim when made may be dealt with in manner provided by the principal Ordinance as if such claim had been made personally by the husband or by his agent.

Claim of married woman on behalf of husband.

5 At any investigation of disputed or undisputed claims the registrar may, if he thinks fit, and he shall, when the other claimants consent thereto, receive and record any claim made by any person to or in respect of any land which has not previously been received or recorded under the provisions of the principal Ordinance. And every such claim so received and recorded as aforesaid shall be dealt with and disposed of in the same manner and subject to the same provisions as set forth in the principal Ordinance in respect of claims made under the 8th section thereof.

Power to registrar to accept claims at the investigation although not previously received or recorded.

6 When the registrar shall have recorded, under section 12 of the principal Ordinance, on the statement of claims whether the title to the land or interest claimed is one of the first class or of the second class, or when the registrar shall have determined and decided upon the respective claims of the parties and recorded on the statement of claims whether the title made out is one of the first class or of the second class under the provisions of section 14 of the principal Ordinance, every claimant whose claim has been upheld, or his agent, may apply to the registrar for a writ of possession as against the unsuccessful claimant or claimants, and the registrar may at his discretion order such writ to issue as near as material in the form A in schedule I. hereto, upon the applicant giving such security as shall be determined by the registrar, and such writ shall be enforced according to the terms thereof by the fiscal, in the same manner as if such writ was issued by a district court.

Proviso.

Provided that in any case in which an appeal is allowed to the Supreme Court under the 21st section of the principal Ordinance, no writ of possession shall issue before the expiry of the time allowed for such appeal, and that in the event of an appeal being taken the registrar may, after the Supreme Court has made order thereon, issue a writ of possession in conformity with such order.

Procedure in event of resistance to execution of writ of possession.

7 If in the execution of a writ of possession issued under section 6 the officer charged with the execution of the writ is resisted or obstructed by any person, or if after the officer has delivered possession the person placed by the officer in possession is hindered by any person in taking complete and effectual possession, the person in whose favour the writ of possession has issued or his agent may at any time, within one month from the time of such resistance or obstruction, complain thereof to the registrar, and the registrar shall appoint a day for the determination of the complaint, and intimate to the person obstructing the writ that he will be heard in opposition to the petitioner if he appears before the registrar for that purpose on the day so appointed.

Punishment of person obstructing execution of writ of possession.

8 On the hearing of the matter of the petition of complaint so made, the registrar, if he is satisfied that the obstruction or resistance complained of was occasioned by one or more of the unsuccessful claimants, or by some persons at his or their instigation, may sentence such unsuccessful claimant or claimants, or the person acting on the instigation of such unsuccessful claimant or claimants, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding thirty days, and direct the person in whose favour the writ of possession issued to be put in possession of the property.

Claims to property seized to be reported by fiscal and investigated by registrar.

9 If in the execution of a writ issued by the registrar any claim is preferred to, or objection offered against, the seizure or sale of any immovable or movable property which may have been seized thereunder as not liable to be sold, the fiscal or deputy fiscal shall, as soon as the same is preferred or offered, as the case may be, report the same to the registrar, and the registrar shall thereupon proceed in a summary manner to investigate such claim or objection, and shall record the evidence, whether oral or documentary, taken at such investigation, in a separate file; and his finding or decision thereon, and his reasons therefor, and his orders in relation thereto, shall be duly entered on the said record. And the record so made up shall be open at all reasonable times, upon application in writing first being made to the registrar, to the inspection of any party interested in such investigation, or his duly authorized counsel or agent, who shall be entitled to copies of such record or any part thereof, to be made at the expense of the party applying for the same.

Registrar may stay sale.

10 If the property to which the claim or objection applies shall have been advertised for sale, the sale may (if it appears to the registrar necessary) be postponed for the purpose of making the investigation mentioned in the preceding section. Provided that no such investigation shall be made if it appears to the registrar that the making of the claim or objection was designedly and unnecessarily delayed with a view to obstruct the ends of justice.

*Registration of Titles to Land.*No. 4 OF 1889—contd.

11 The claimant or objector must on such investigation adduce evidence to show that at the date of the seizure he had some interest in, or was possessed of, the property seized.

Claimant to adduce evidence.

12 If upon the said investigation the registrar is satisfied that for the reason stated in the claim or objection such property was not, when seized, in the possession of the person against whose property the writ was issued, or of some person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of a tenant or other person paying rent to him, or that, being in the possession of the person against whose property the writ issued, at such time it was so in his possession, not on his own account or as his own property, but on account of, or in trust for, some other person, or partly on his own account and partly on account of some other person, the registrar shall pass an order releasing the property wholly, or to such extent as he thinks fit, from seizure.

Discretion of registrar to release the property claimed.

13 If the registrar is satisfied that the property was at the time it was seized in possession of the person against whom the writ issued as his own property, and not on account of any other person, or was in possession of some other person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of a tenant or other person paying rent to him, the registrar shall disallow the claim.

Registrar may disallow the claim.

14 If any party to any petition of complaint or to any investigation into any claim or objection against the execution of a writ be dissatisfied with any finding, decision, order, or sentence of the registrar given in respect of such petition of complaint or such investigation, he may within ten days after the pronouncing thereof appeal to the Supreme Court; and the registrar shall without delay forward to the said court the record so made up as aforesaid, and the said court shall make such order as the justice of the case may require; and such order as shall be made by the Supreme Court under this section the registrar shall duly carry into effect. Every such appeal shall be dealt with and disposed of in the same manner and subject to the same rules as appeals from orders of district courts are dealt with and disposed of.

Appeal to the Supreme Court from finding of the registrar.

Provided, however, that no appeal shall be so forwarded as aforesaid unless the appellant shall, within ten days from the date of such appeal, give security for the costs of the hearing or investigation and of the appeal, the amount whereof shall be fixed by the registrar.

Proviso.

Provided also that no appeal from any sentence of the registrar shall have the effect of staying the execution of such sentence, unless the appellant shall enter into a recognizance with or without sureties, as the registrar shall consider necessary, to appear and abide by the judgment of the Supreme Court upon the appeal.

Proviso.

15 In case a claimant shall die in the interval between the date of his claim being upheld under the principal Ordinance and the date on which the certificate of title shall be issued, the certificate shall be issued in the name of the claimant, and the land shall devolve in like manner as if the certificate had been issued prior to the death of the claimant.

Certificate to issue in name deceased claimant.

16 Every person or persons partitioning any land after the investigation of the claims to it by the registrar has terminated, shall forthwith furnish information respecting such partition to the registrar, and shall deposit with that officer a map of such land. The map shall exhibit distinctly every allotment into which the land has been divided, marked with distinct numbers or symbols, and show the areas, and shall be declared to be accurate by a declaration of a licensed surveyor, in the form B in schedule I. hereto.

Communication of partition to registrar.

*Registration of Titles to Land.*No. 4 OF 1889—*contd.Surveyor.

No person shall be permitted to practise as a surveyor under this Ordinance or the principal Ordinance unless he shall have obtained a license from the Surveyor-General in the form C in schedule I. hereto ; and in every case in which it may be necessary in the opinion of the Surveyor-General to test the competency of an applicant for a license by an examination to be conducted by the Surveyor-General or under his directions, the Surveyor-General shall be entitled to demand and receive a fee of twenty rupees for every such examination. All such fees shall be accounted for and appropriated as the Governor may from time to time direct.

Effect of partition when property is subject to mortgage.

17 If at the time any partition shall be made under the provisions of the principal Ordinance an undivided share only of the land, and not the whole thereof, shall be subject to mortgage, the right of the mortgagee shall be limited to the share in severalty allotted to his mortgagor by and under the same conditions, covenants, and reservations as shall be stipulated in the mortgage bond, so far as the same shall apply to a share in severalty, and the owner of the share in severalty so subject to mortgage shall, without a new deed of mortgage, warrant and make good to the mortgagee the said several part after such partition as he was bound to do before such partition.

Effect of partition when property is subject to lease.

18 If at the time any partition shall be made under the provisions of the principal Ordinance the property shall be held under any lease, the tenant thereof, or of any part thereof, before such partition was made, shall be tenant of such part set out severally to the respective owners thereof, by and under the same conditions, rents, covenants, and reservations as they held by and under, before such partition ; and the owners of the several parts so divided and allotted as aforesaid shall, without any new deed of lease, warrant and make good to the said tenant or tenants the said several parts, severally, after such partition as they were bound to do before such partition.

Surrender of title deed on issue of certificate of ownership.

19 Every person entitled to a certificate of ownership under section 28 of the principal Ordinance shall, before the same is issued to him, deposit with the registrar every deed or instrument affecting the land referred to in the certificate.

Upon issuing a certificate of ownership the registrar shall endorse on every deed or instrument so deposited as aforesaid the nature of the certificate which has been issued in respect of the land described in the said deed or instrument. If any such deed or instrument shall relate to or include any property other than the land included in the certificate, the registrar shall return such deed or instrument to the person who deposited the same, but otherwise he shall retain such deed or instrument in his office ; and no person shall be entitled to the inspection of any deed or instrument so retained, except upon the personal application or written order of the person who deposited the same, or any person or persons claiming through or under him or upon the order of some competent court.

Cancellation of certificate which has been superseded.

20 Upon the recovery of any land or interest therein, by any proceeding at law, from the holder of any certificate of title, the court shall recall and cancel every such certificate of title, and direct the registrar to cancel or correct any entry in the register book relating to such certificate of title ; and the registrar shall give effect to such order and issue an amended certificate of title whenever necessary.

Power of registrar to correct errors.

21 The registrar shall, upon such evidence as shall appear to him sufficient in that behalf, correct errors in any certificate of title or in the register book, or entries made therein respectively, and supply omitted entries. Provided that, in the correction of any such error, he shall not erase or make illegible the original words, and shall affix the date on which such correction was made or entry supplied, and his initials.

Every certificate of title or entry so corrected or supplied shall have the like validity and effect as if such error had not been made or such entry omitted, except as regards any deed or instrument which may have been registered previous to the actual time of correcting the error or supplying the omitted entry.

22 In case it shall appear to the satisfaction of the registrar that any certificate of title has been issued in error, or contains any misdescription of land or of boundaries, or that any entry in any certificate of title has been made in error, or that any certificate of title or entry has been fraudulently or wrongfully obtained, or that any certificate of title is fraudulently or wrongfully retained, he may summon the person to whom such certificate of title has been so issued, or by whom it has been so obtained, or is retained, or any person in whose possession such certificate may be, to deliver up the same for the purpose of being cancelled or corrected, or for the substitution and issue of such certificate of title as the circumstances of the case may require.

Registrar may issue summons for the purpose of cancelling certificate of title.

23 In case such person cannot be served with such summons, or he shall refuse or neglect to comply with such summons, the registrar may apply to the district court having jurisdiction with respect to the land for which the certificate of title issued, to issue a summons for such person to appear before the court and show cause why such certificate of title should not be delivered up to be cancelled or corrected; and if such person, when served with such summons, shall neglect or refuse to attend before such court at the time therein appointed, it shall be lawful for such court to issue a warrant authorizing and directing the person so summoned to be apprehended and brought before the court for examination.

Registrar may apply to court to compel delivery of certificate of title.

24 Upon the appearance before the court of any person summoned or brought up by virtue of a warrant as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the court to examine such person upon oath and to order him to deliver up such certificate of title, and upon refusal or neglect of such person to deliver up the same pursuant to such order, to commit him to jail for any period not exceeding six months, unless such certificate of title shall be sooner delivered up.

Court may order delivery of certificate of title.

In such case, or in case a summons or warrant by the court cannot be served, the court may direct the registrar to cancel or correct any entry in the register book relating to such land, and to substitute and issue such certificate of title and make such entries as the circumstances of the case may require, and the registrar shall give effect to such order.

Court may direct registrar to cancel certificate of title.

25 Every person who has acquired by purchase or otherwise the right, title, or interest in or to any land from a claimant subsequently to such claimant having delivered a statement of his claim or stated such claim to the registrar, and prior to the investigation of such claim by the registrar, shall personally or by his agent notify to the registrar his acquisition, and shall make his claim in writing or shall state verbally the particulars of his claim, and the registrar shall record in writing, and the claimant or his agent shall sign, such particulars in manner provided in the principal Ordinance; and the registrar, when satisfied that the person so notifying his acquisition has become legally entitled to the right, title, or interest of the original claimant to the land, shall proceed to investigate and decide the claim in manner provided by the principal Ordinance as if such person had originally stated his claim under the principal Ordinance.

Power to registrar to substitute name of person acquiring original claimant's interest in lieu of original claimant.

*Registration of Titles to Land.*No. 4 OF 1889—contd.

When lands registered under section 26 of Ordinance No. 5 of 1877, all subsequent alienations and incumbrances to be registered in same book.

Notary to ascertain number of allotments of land and insert same at head of deed.

26 When the registrar has, under the provisions of the 26th section of the principal Ordinance, registered the lands situate in any division in a book bearing the name of such division or of the village or district wherein it is situated, all subsequent alienations or incumbrances affecting any right to or interest in any such lands as, under the said section, shall have been registered in the said book, shall be registered by the registrar or registrars of lands in such book, and not in the books mentioned in the 37th section of the Ordinance No. 8 of 1863.

28 It shall be the duty of every notary, from and after the expiration of the said period of six months, before attesting any deed or instrument affecting any land or any interest in land the title to which has been registered under the provisions of the principal Ordinance—

- (a) To ascertain the number of the allotment of such land in the registered plan, and to insert such number at the head of the deed or instrument attested by him ; and
- (b) To cause to be registered under the provisions of the law in that behalf every such deed or instrument attested by him ; and for that purpose he shall be entitled to demand and receive before attestation from the person at whose instance he prepares such deed or instrument the stamp duty payable for such registration, and to refuse to attest such deed or instrument if such stamp duty shall not have been paid.

If any notary shall neglect or fail to perform the duty imposed on him by this section, he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees. Provided that no deed or instrument shall be held to be invalid in consequence of the non-performance by the notary of the foregoing duty.

Costs.

31 It shall be lawful for the registrar at the hearing of the matter of a petition of complaint under section 8, or at any investigation held under section 9 or 22, to determine by whom the costs of the hearing or investigation shall be payable, and to tax the amount of such costs ; and such costs shall be recoverable in manner provided by section 14 of the principal Ordinance.

Plans may be signed by officer authorized thereto by Surveyor-General.

32 The plan and description of the allotment of land referred to in any certificate issued under section 30 of the principal Ordinance may be signed either by the Surveyor-General or by any officer of his department specially authorized thereto in writing by the Surveyor-General.

Rules.

33 The rules appearing in schedule II. hereto annexed shall regulate the practice and procedure of the registrar in the matters therein provided ; and the Governor in Executive Council may from time to time make such other rules not inconsistent with this or the principal Ordinance as may be necessary—

- (a) For the guidance of the registrar in dealing with and disposing of claims, and in all other matters relating to the investigation of claims and registration of titles and recovery of costs, damages, moneys, and expenses, and to appeals from the registrar not otherwise provided for in this or the principal Ordinance ;
- (b) For regulating the practice and procedure to be observed by fiscals in the execution of writs of execution against property and person and by the registrar in matters arising therefrom ; and
- (c) For every other purpose necessary for effectually carrying out the several provisions of this and of the principal Ordinance.

Registration of Titles to Land.

SCHEDULE II. TO ORDINANCE No. 4 OF 1889.

1. When a day is fixed for the investigation and hearing of a disputed claim, the claimants or their agents shall deliver to the registrar a list of their witnesses and of their documentary evidence, and no witness shall be called nor any document admitted at the investigation other than those appearing in such list, unless the registrar, on cause shown, shall see fit to direct otherwise. Provided that it shall be competent for any such claimant or agent as aforesaid, instead of delivering such list in writing, to appear in person before the registrar and to state verbally the names of the witnesses and to specify the documents intended to be relied on, and the registrar shall record the same in writing, which shall be signed by the claimant or his agent.

2. If any claimant or his agent fails to appear on the day fixed for the investigation of any undisputed claim, and no good and sufficient cause is shown for such absence, it shall be lawful for the registrar to make an order that the claim do abate, or such other order as he may deem fit.

3. If any claimant or his agent fails to appear on the day fixed for the investigation of disputed claims, and no good and sufficient cause is shown for such absence, it shall be lawful for the registrar to proceed with the investigation and to determine and decide upon the respective claims of the parties, or to make such order as he may deem fit.

4. In case of the death of a claimant, it shall be lawful for the registrar, on the application of the legal representative of the deceased, or his agent, to make an order that his name be substituted in the statement of claim in the place of such claimant, and thereupon to proceed with the investigation of the claim.

5. If no application be made to the registrar by any person claiming to be the legal representative of a deceased claimant, the registrar may examine such person or persons as he deems necessary for the purpose of ascertaining the name of the legal representative of the deceased, and thereupon issue a summons to such person to appear on a day to be therein mentioned.

6. If the person so summoned appears in person or by his agent and makes application as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the registrar to substitute his name in the statement of claim in the place of the deceased, and to proceed with the investigation of the claim.

7. If the person so summoned appears in person or by his agent, but does not make application as aforesaid, or neglects to appear and does not account for his absence, and the summons is reported to have been duly served on him, the registrar shall make an order that the claim do abate.

8. In the event of any dispute arising as to who is the legal representative of a deceased claimant, it shall be competent to the registrar to decide, as between the persons before him, who shall be admitted to be such legal representative for the purpose of being substituted in the place of the deceased, and this question shall in such case be dealt with and disposed of by the registrar as an issue preliminary to the investigation of the merits of the claims.

9. When a petition of appeal has been received by the registrar under the principal Ordinance, the appellant shall forthwith give forty-eight hours' notice to the respondent that he will, on a day to be specified in such notice, and within a period of ten days of the date of such appeal, tender security for the costs of the investigation and of the appeal, the amount whereof shall be fixed by the registrar; and on such day the claimants or their agents so noticed shall be heard to show cause, if any, against such security being accepted. And in the event of such security being accepted, the registrar shall forward to the Supreme Court the record made up as provided by the aforesaid section.

10. The security to be required from a party appellant shall be by bond with one or more good and sufficient surety or sureties, or shall be by way of mortgage of immovable property or deposit and hypothecation by bond of a sum of money sufficient to cover the amount fixed by the registrar.

11. If any document produced before the registrar in proof of any claim is written in the Sinhalese or Tamil language, a correct translation thereof shall be furnished by the party producing the same to accompany the original. No such translation shall be read unless the same shall be signed by an interpreter of the Supreme Court, or by a Government or district court sworn translator, or by a sworn translator appointed by the registrar.

12. Every person so appointed by the registrar shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, receive a certificate from the registrar that he is competent to fulfil the duties of a translator, and take an oath before a justice of the peace faithfully to perform the duties of his office.

13. For every folio or fractional part of a folio of 120 words there shall be payable a fee of 12½ cents for every copy or extract of claims or of the record of evidence, and a fee of 33 cents for every translation of any document.

No. 6 of 1877.An Ordinance to amend "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876."

(See No. 3 of 1876.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876:" It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 The 25th, 26th, 27th, and 31st sections of the said "Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876," are hereby severally repealed.

2 In case of any difference of opinion between the judge and assessors, or any of them, upon any question of law, or practice or usage having the force of law, or as to the amount of compensation to be awarded, the opinion of the judge shall prevail, subject to the appeal to the Supreme Court hereinafter provided. Provided, however, that if the two assessors agree together as to the amount of compensation, their opinion as to such amount shall be taken as the decision of the court, subject to appeal as hereinafter provided.

3 If the government agent or any person interested is dissatisfied with any award made by the court under the provisions of this Ordinance or the said "Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876," he may appeal therefrom to the Supreme Court. Every such appeal shall be presented within the Operation of 2nd section of Ordinance No. 3 of 1876 with reference to proceedings already had under Ordinance No. 2 of 1863.

This Ordinance and Ordinance No. 3 of 1876 to be read as one Ordinance.

4 Nothing in the 2nd section of the said "Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876," shall be held or construed to prevent proceedings being taken under the said Ordinance for the acquisition of any land notwithstanding that any proceedings may have been commenced for the acquisition of such land under the said Ordinance No. 2 of 1863.

5 This Ordinance and the said "Land Acquisition Ordinance, 1876," shall be read and construed as if they formed one Ordinance.

5th May, 1877.

No. 8 of 1877.

(As amended by No. 12 of 1877.)

An Ordinance for the raising by Debentures of a sum of Two hundred and Seventy-five thousand Pounds for the construction of a Railway from Kandy to Mátalé.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the construction of a railway from Kandy to Mátalé: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Mátalé Railway Ordinance, 1877."

Power to borrow £275,000 sterling on debentures.

2 It shall be lawful for the Governor to raise by the issue of debentures under this Ordinance any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole two hundred and seventy-five thousand pounds sterling, to be applied exclusively in the construction of a railway from Kandy to Mátalé, and in the purchase of such material, plant, rolling stock, and other things as may be required for or in connection with such work.

Loan to be a charge upon general revenues.

3 The principal moneys and interest secured by the debentures issued under this Ordinance are hereby charged upon and shall be payable out of the general revenues and assets of the Government of Ceylon.

Amount of each debenture and rate of interest.

4 Every debenture issued under this Ordinance shall be for a sum of not less than one hundred pounds sterling, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum.

Issues and signature of debentures.

5 The debentures shall be issued in London on behalf of the Government of Ceylon by the Crown Agents for the Colonies (in this Ordinance referred to as the Crown Agents), and shall be signed by them on that behalf.

Mátalé Railway.

6 Every debenture shall, before being issued, be registered in a register book to be kept for that purpose at the office in London of the Crown Agents.

Registry of debentures.

7 There shall be attached to every debenture coupons for the payment of the interest to become due in each half-year upon the principal secured by the debenture. The coupons shall be sufficient in number to provide for the payment of the interest, either during the whole period for which the debenture has to run, or for such limited period as the Crown Agents, acting on behalf of the Government of Ceylon, may determine.

Interest coupons.

8 The debentures, and the coupons thereto, may be in such form as the Governor, or the Crown Agents acting on his behalf, may direct or approve.

Form of debentures and coupons.

9 Every debenture and coupon, and the right to receive the principal and interest secured or represented thereby, shall be transferable by delivery.

Debentures and coupons transferable by delivery.

10 So long as any of the debentures remain outstanding the Governor shall, in each half-year ending with the day on which the interest on the debentures falls due, appropriate out of the general revenues and assets of this colony a sum equal to one half-year's interest on the whole of the debentures previously issued, including any which may have been redeemed, and remit that sum to the Crown Agents at such time as will enable them to pay thereout the then current half-year's interest on the day when it falls due. After the expiration of five years from the day on which the first of the debentures is issued, and so long thereafter as any of the debentures remain outstanding, the Governor shall, in each half-year ending as aforesaid, appropriate out of the revenues and assets of this colony an additional sum equal to ten shillings sterling per centum on the total nominal amount of all the debentures issued on or before the first day of that half-year, including any which may have been redeemed, and remit the sum to the Crown Agents with the remittance hereinbefore mentioned.

Mode of providing for payment of interest and principal.
[§ 2. 12 of 1877]

11 The Crown Agents shall, subject to the approval of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies for the time being, place and keep the moneys so remitted to them, or so much thereof as may not be required for immediate payments, on deposit at interest in their names with some bank or banks in London or Westminster, and shall hold all such moneys and the accumulations thereon in trust, to apply them, in the first place, in payment of the interest for the current half-year upon the debentures for the time being outstanding, and, in the next place, in the formation of a sinking fund.

Application of moneys remitted to Crown Agents.

12 The interest upon the principal secured by each debenture shall run from the day named in that behalf in the debenture, and shall be paid half-yearly, on the days named in that behalf in the debenture, at the office in London of the Crown Agents.

Payment of interest.

13 The sinking fund shall be applied in the first place in payment of all expenses of, or incidental to, the redemption of debentures, including the charges of the notary public attending at any drawing thereof, and the cost and expenses of all notices required by this Ordinance to be given, and in the next place, and subject to the aforesaid payments, in repayment of the principal moneys for the time being secured by the debentures.

Debentures to be redeemed by purchase or by annual drawings.

14 The debentures shall, at the option of the Crown Agents, subject to the approval of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies for the time being, be redeemed either by purchase in the open market or by annual drawings, and subject to the aforesaid payments, the sum to be applied annually to such redemption shall correspond as nearly as may be to, but not exceed, the amount for the time being standing to the credit of the sinking fund.

Appointment of day for drawing of debentures.

15 So long as any of the debentures remain outstanding and unsatisfied the Crown Agents shall in every year, after the day on which the first of the debentures is issued, unless the whole of the money applicable in that year to the redemption of debentures has been applied in the purchase thereof, appoint a day in that year for the drawing by lot of the debentures to be redeemed.

Notice of time and place appointed for drawing.

16 If a day is appointed for drawing the Crown Agents shall give, by advertisement in the London Times newspaper, not less than fifteen days' previous notice, specifying the day on which, and the hour and place at which, the drawing will take place, and the nominal amount of the debentures to be redeemed at that drawing.

Mode of drawing.

17 On the day and at the hour and place so specified the Crown Agents shall hold a meeting at which the holder of any debenture may, if he think fit, be present, and shall then in the presence of such debenture-holders (if any) as may attend, and of a notary public, draw by lot out of the whole number of debentures for the time being outstanding debentures of the specified nominal amount.

Notice of debentures drawn for redemption.

18 The Crown Agents shall thereupon declare the distinguishing numbers of the debentures drawn for redemption, and shall, as soon as may be, by advertisement in the London Times newspaper, specify those numbers, and appoint a day (not being later as to each debenture than the day on which the then current half-year's interest thereon is payable) on which the principal moneys secured by the debentures so distinguished will be repaid.

Payment of drawn debentures.

19 On the day so appointed the Crown Agents shall, at their office in London, on demand, pay to the holders of the debentures drawn for repayment the principal moneys secured by those debentures, with all interest payable thereon up to that day.

Cesser of interest from day appointed for payment of principal.

20 From and after the day appointed for the repayment of any debenture all interest on the principal moneys secured thereby shall cease and determine, whether payment of the principal have or have not been demanded.

Extradition.

21 Upon the repayment of the principal moneys secured by any debenture, the debenture, with all the coupons thereunto belonging, shall be delivered up to the Crown Agents to be by them cancelled and forwarded to the Government of Ceylon. Any debenture redeemed by purchase shall likewise be so cancelled and forwarded.

Redeemed debentures to be cancelled.

22 No money applied in redemption of a debenture shall be re-borrowed, and no debenture shall be issued in respect of, or in substitution for, any cancelled debenture.

Money repaid not to be re-borrowed.

5th May, 1877.

No. 10 of 1877.

An Ordinance to provide for the more convenient administration in this Colony of "The Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873."

WHEREAS by the Act of the Imperial Parliament known as "The Extradition Act, 1870," it is amongst other things enacted that the said Act when applied by Order in Council shall, unless it is otherwise provided by such Order, extend to every British possession, but with the following among other modifications, namely:—

Preamble.

No warrant of a Secretary of State shall be required, and all powers vested in, or acts authorized or required to be done under the said Act by the police magistrates and the Secretary of State, or either of them, in relation to the surrender of a fugitive criminal, may be done by the Governor of the British possession alone;

and any prison in the British possession may be substituted for a prison in Middlesex:

And whereas by the said Act it is also enacted that—

If by any law or Ordinance made before or after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British possession provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals, who are in or suspected of being in such British possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any foreign state, or by any subsequent Order, either—

Suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Act, or any part thereof, so far as it relates to such foreign state, and so long as such law or Ordinance continues in force there, and no longer;

Or direct that such law or Ordinance, or any part thereof, shall have effect in such British possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the said Act.

Mátalé Railway.

And whereas by another Act of the Imperial Parliament known as "The Extradition Act of 1873," it is enacted that the said Act shall be construed as one with "The Extradition Act, 1870," and that the said two Acts may be cited together as "The Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873 :"

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the more convenient administration within this colony of "The Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873," by conferring on the police magistrates of the said colony the like powers and authorities in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals as are by the said Acts vested in police magistrates and justices of the peace in the United Kingdom :

It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Act may be cited as "The Extradition Ordinance, Ceylon, 1877."

Powers of police magistrates in relation to extradition under the Imperial Acts.

2 All powers vested in and acts authorized or required to be done by a police magistrate or any justice of the peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the United Kingdom under "The Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873," are hereby vested in, and may in the said colony be exercised and done by, any police magistrate, in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals under the said Acts.

Suspending clause.

3 This Ordinance shall not come into operation until Her Majesty shall by Order in Council direct that this Ordinance shall have effect within the colony, as if it were part of "The Extradition Act, 1870," but this Ordinance shall thereafter come into operation as soon as such Order in Council shall have been publicly made known in the colony.*

21st November, 1877.

No. 12 of 1877.

An Ordinance to amend "The Mátalé Railway Ordinance, 1877."

(See No. 8 of 1877.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS by the 10th section of "The Mátalé Railway Ordinance, 1877," provision is made for the appropriation in each half-year out of the revenues and assets of the colony of a sum equal to fifteen shillings sterling per centum on the total nominal amount of all the debentures issued under the said Ordinance on or before a certain day therein mentioned, for the purpose of creating a sinking fund to be applied in manner in the said Ordinance provided : And whereas it is expedient that a sum equal to ten shillings sterling per centum on the total nominal amount of such debentures should be appropriated out of the said

* Order in Council dated February 4, 1878, published in the Gazette of April 12, 1878.

revenues and assets for the purposes aforesaid, instead of a sum equal to fifteen shillings per centum on such amount, as by the said Ordinance provided : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council, as follows :

1 The 10th section of "The Mátalé Railway Ordinance, 1877," is hereby repealed.

Repeal of 10th section of No. 8 of 1877.

2 So long as any of the debentures issued under the said Ordinance remain outstanding, the Governor shall in each half-year ending with the day on which the interest on the debentures falls due appropriate out of the general revenues and assets of this colony a sum equal to one half-year's interest on the whole of the debentures previously issued, including any which may have been redeemed, and remit that sum to the Crown Agents at such time as will enable them to pay thereout the then current half-year's interest on the day when it falls due. After the expiration of five years from the day on which the first of the debentures is issued, and so long thereafter as any of the debentures remain outstanding, the Governor shall, in each half-year ending as aforesaid, appropriate out of the revenues and assets of this colony an additional sum equal to ten shillings sterling per centum on the total nominal amount of all the debentures issued on or before the first day of that half-year, including any which may have been redeemed, and remit the sum to the Crown Agents with the remittance hereinbefore mentioned.

Ten shillings per centum on amount of debentures to be appropriated for sinking fund.

3 This Ordinance and "The Mátalé Railway Ordinance, 1877," shall be read as one Ordinance.

Ordinance to be read as one with No. 8 of 1877.

21st November, 1877.

No. 14 of 1877.

An Ordinance to empower the Trustees of the Sailors' Home in Colombo to raise money for the completion of the building required for the same, and to make provision for the regulation and management in certain respects of the Trusts thereof, and for the sale, mortgage, and lease of the property belonging thereto.

WHEREAS it was some years ago deemed expedient to establish a sailors' home in the city of Colombo, and divers sums of money were voluntarily subscribed by sundry persons towards such object, and the Legislative Council of this island voted the sum of ten thousand rupees towards the same purpose, which said sum was duly paid to the trustees of the said home from the General Treasury : And whereas the Principal Collector of Customs for the time being, the Master Attendant of Colombo for the time being, and Frank Mitchell Mackwood of Colombo, merchant, were, by a resolution of a committee of the subscribers to the said sailors' home, appointed trustees thereof and have since acted in the said trusts : And whereas by a deed bearing date the 28th day of November, 1874, and expressed to be made between Bamberandigey Harmanis Perera of the one part and William Dumaresq Wright, Principal Collector of Customs, James Donnan, Master Attendant of Colombo, and the said Frank Mitchell Mackwood of the other part, the lands and tenements described in the first part of the schedule hereto annexed were granted and transferred to the said William Dumaresq Wright, James Donnan, and Frank Mitchell Mackwood, as trustees of the said sailors' home: And whereas by a deed also bearing date the 28th day of November, 1874, and expressed to be made between Wikiremearloaratchigey Domingo Fernando of the one part and the said William Dumaresq Wright, James Donnan, and Frank Mitchell Mackwood of the other part, the land and tenements described in the second part of the said schedule hereto were granted and transferred unto the said William Dumaresq Wright, James Donnan, and Frank Mitchell Mackwood, as such trustees as aforesaid: And whereas by a deed also bearing date the 28th day of November, 1874, and expressed to be made between Andrew Barthomeusz Nugara of the one part and the said William Dumaresq Wright, James Donnan, and Frank Mitchell Mackwood of the other part, the land and tenements described in the third part of the said schedule hereto were granted and transferred unto the said William Dumaresq Wright, James Donnan, and Frank Mitchell Mackwood, as such trustees as aforesaid: And whereas by a Crown grant dated the 28th day of August, 1876, under the public seal of the island and under the hand of the Right Honourable Sir William Henry Gregory, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, then Governor of the said island, all the title and interest of the Crown to and in the land and tenements described in the fourth part of the said schedule hereto were granted and assigned unto the said William Dumaresq Wright, James Donnan, and Frank Mitchell Mackwood, as such trustees as aforesaid, for the use and purposes of the said sailors' home: And whereas the said trustees have commenced the erection on the said lands and premises, or part thereof, of a building to be used as a sailors' home, but have not sufficient funds to complete the same and to pay off certain liabilities already incurred in respect thereof: And whereas it is expedient to enable the trustees to raise such funds as may be necessary for the completion of the said building and for the payment of such liabilities, and generally to make provision for the regulation and management of the trusts of the said sailors' home and for the sale, mortgage, and lease of the property belonging thereto: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Colombo Sailors' Home Ordinance, 1877."

Appointment of trustees.

2 The persons lawfully discharging the duties of Principal Collector of Customs of this colony and of Master Attendant of the port of Colombo for the time being respectively shall henceforth be ex-officio trustees of the said Colombo Sailors' Home; and it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint from time to time, as he shall think fit, a third trustee to act with the said ex-officio trustees in the execution of the trusts of the said home; and such third trustee from time to time to remove and to appoint another in his place.

Sailors' Home.

3 All the lands, buildings, tenements, and property described in the said schedule hereto and all other property, whether movable or immovable, at present vested in the said William Dumaresq Wright, James Donnan, and Frank Mitchell Mackwood, as trustees of the said home, shall henceforth be deemed for all purposes to be vested in the trustees for the time being of the said sailors' home, to be held upon the trusts and subject to the powers and provisions hereinafter declared.

Property vested in the trustees.

4 The general control and management of the property, subject to the trusts of the said sailors' home, and of the rents, profits, and income thereof, shall be vested in the said trustees for the time being.

Management of home to be vested in trustees.

5 It shall be lawful for the said trustees at any time or from time to time to sell, mortgage, demise, lease, or otherwise dispose of all or any of the property at any time vested in or belonging to them, as such trustees, upon such terms and subject to such conditions as they shall deem expedient, and from and out of the moneys raised or procured by means of any such sale, mortgage, lease, or other disposition to defray all or any of the expenses or liabilities already incurred, or which may hereafter be incurred, for or in respect of the completion of the said home or otherwise in the execution of the trusts thereof, and from and out of such moneys to purchase any other lands or tenements to be held upon the trusts and for the purposes of the said home, or to invest such moneys or any part thereof for the purposes of the said home or in the execution of the trusts thereof in such manner as they shall deem expedient. Provided always that no person, board, corporation, or association of persons, who may advance or pay any money to the said trustees for or in respect or on account of any such sale, mortgage, lease, or other disposition, shall be liable to see to the proper application of such money or accountable for the misapplication thereof.

Power of sale and mortgage.

6 As soon as all the liabilities incurred in respect of the home shall have been defrayed, or sooner, if the said trustees for the time being shall deem it expedient, the said home shall be opened for the admission and entertainment of sailors, and shall be thenceforth managed and governed by the said trustees in accordance with such rules and regulations as the said trustees shall from time to time establish. Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for the said trustees to defer the opening of the said home for such time as they shall deem expedient.

*Registration (Marriages, Births, and Deaths).No. 15 of 1877.

An Ordinance to amend the Ordinances No. 6 of 1847,
No. 13 of 1863, No. 8 of 1865, and No. 18 of 1867.

(See No. 6 of 1847.)

WHEREAS by the 7th section of the Ordinance No. 6 of 1847, intituled "An Ordinance to amend in certain respects the Law of Marriages, and to provide for the better registration of Marriages, Births, and Deaths," it is enacted amongst other things that it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint one Registrar-General of Marriages in this colony and one provincial registrar in each of the provinces thereof, and to establish from time to time, with the advice of the Executive Council, such and so many districts within any such provinces as shall appear expedient, and such districts with the like advice from time to time to alter or abolish, and that it shall be lawful for the said Governor to appoint one or more registrar or registrars to each of such districts, and at any time when he shall think fit to remove any such Registrar-General, provincial registrar, or registrars, and when necessary to appoint some other person in his place or in the place of any Registrar-General, provincial registrar, or registrar, who shall have died or resigned his office: And whereas by the 2nd section of the Ordinance No. 13 of 1863, intituled "An Ordinance to amend in certain respects the Law of Marriages in this Island, and to provide for the due registration thereof," it is enacted that for the purposes of that Ordinance the expression "Registrar-General of Marriages" and "registrar of marriages" shall include any person authorized by the Governor to act as such respectively: And whereas by the Ordinance No. 18 of 1867, intituled "An Ordinance relating to the registration of Births and Deaths," it is enacted amongst other things that for the purposes of that Ordinance the Registrar-General, the provincial registrars, and the district registrars of marriages should also respectively be and act as Registrar-General, provincial and district registrars of births and deaths, and that the division of each province of this island into districts for the registry of marriages should also form the division for the registry of births and deaths as hereinafter provided: And whereas by the said hereinbefore recited Ordinances and by the Ordinance No. 8 of 1865, intituled "An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 13 of 1863," divers powers, duties, and functions are vested in and made exercisable by such Registrar-General, provincial registrars, and registrars as aforesaid: And whereas in pursuance of the power and authority in that behalf in him vested, His Honour the Officer then administering the Government did in the year 1867 appoint divers persons as Registrar-General, provincial registrars, and district registrars respectively of marriages, births, and deaths, and a list of the persons so appointed was duly published for general information in the Government Gazette dated the 29th day of August, 1868: And whereas

Preamble.

Registration (Marriages, Births, and Deaths).

the officer then holding the office of Registrar-General of Lands was duly appointed Registrar-General of Marriages, Births, and Deaths, and the several government agents were duly appointed provincial registrars of marriages, births, and deaths for their respective provinces, and the several assistant government agents were duly appointed registrars for their several districts, respectively, as will more fully appear from the aforesaid list so published for general information as aforesaid : And whereas the aforesaid government agents and assistant government agents were appointed such provincial registrars and district registrars respectively by name, but no provision has been made for the appointment of their successors to be such provincial registrars and district registrars respectively : And whereas since the said 29th day of August, 1868, divers government agents and assistant government agents and office assistants to government agents have acted as provincial registrars and district registrars respectively of marriages, births, and deaths, without having been formally appointed such provincial registrars and district registrars respectively, and doubts have been entertained as to the legal validity of the acts performed by such government agents, assistant government agents, and office assistants to government agents as such provincial and district registrars respectively, and it is expedient to remove all such doubts and for the future to vest in all government agents the powers, duties, and functions of provincial registrars of marriages, births, and deaths, and in all assistant government agents and office assistants to government agents the powers, duties, and functions of district registrars of marriages, births, and deaths : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Marriages, Births, and Deaths Registration Amendment Ordinance, 1877."

Interpretation clause.

2 The terms "government agent," "assistant government agent," and "office assistant" shall respectively include persons lawfully holding acting appointments as such government agent, assistant government agent, or office assistant respectively.

Government agents to be deemed to have been duly appointed provincial registrars of marriages, births, and deaths.

3 Every person who shall have heretofore held or who now holds the office of government agent of any province shall be deemed to have been at the time of his appointment to such office of government agent duly appointed provincial registrar of marriages and provincial registrar of births and deaths for the province of which he was or is such government agent, for all the purposes of the said Ordinances No. 6 of 1847, No. 13 of 1863, No. 8 of 1865, and No. 18 of 1867, and each and every of them to hold the said office of provincial registrar so long as he should hold the said office of government agent ; and all acts, matters, and things heretofore done or performed or purporting to be done or performed, or which may hereafter be done or performed, during his agency by any such government agent as provincial registrar of marriages or as provincial registrar of births and deaths, shall, for all the purposes of the aforesaid Ordinances and each and every of them, be as valid and effectual as if such government agent had, at the time of his appointment as such, been duly appointed such provincial registrar as aforesaid.

4 Every person who shall have heretofore held or who now holds the office of assistant government agent or of office assistant to any government agent shall be deemed to have been at the time of his appointment to such office of assistant government agent or office assistant duly appointed district registrar of marriages and district registrar of births and deaths for the district for or in respect of which he was or is such assistant government agent or office assistant as aforesaid ; and all acts, matters, and things heretofore done or performed, or purporting to be done or performed, or which may hereafter be done or performed during his office of assistant government agent or office assistant by any such assistant government agent or office assistant as district registrar of marriages or district registrar of births and deaths, shall be deemed for all the purposes of the Ordinances mentioned in the preceding section and each and every of them as valid and effectual as if such assistant government agent or office assistant had, at the time of his appointment as such, been duly appointed such district registrar as aforesaid.

Assistant government agents and office assistants deemed to have been appointed district registrars.

5 Provided always that no validity shall be given by the 3rd or 4th section of this Ordinance to any marriage that may have heretofore been declared invalid by a competent court, or where the parties or either of them have or has heretofore contracted a subsequent valid marriage.

Subsequent valid marriages not affected by this Ordinance.

6 Every person who shall hereafter be appointed a government agent shall become at the same time provincial registrar of marriages and provincial registrar of births and deaths for the province of which he shall be appointed such government agent, for all the purposes of the aforesaid Ordinances mentioned in the 3rd section and of each and every of them ; and shall continue to hold such office of provincial registrar during the time that he shall hold such office of government agent.

Future government agents to be provincial registrars.

7 Every person hereafter appointed an assistant government agent or office assistant to a government agent shall become at the same time district registrar of marriages and district registrar of births and deaths for the district of or in respect of which he shall be appointed assistant government agent or office assistant, for all the purposes of the aforesaid Ordinances mentioned in the 3rd section and of each and every of them, and shall continue to hold such office of district registrar during the time that he shall hold such office of assistant government agent or office assistant.

Future assistant agents and office assistants to be district registrars.

*Prisons.No. 16 of 1877.(As amended by No. 24 of 1890.)An Ordinance to amend the Law relating to Prisons.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to prisons in this island, and to provide rules for the regulation of such prisons: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

I.—Preliminary.

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as “The Prisons Ordinance, 1877.”

Operation of Ordinance.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the first day of May, 1878.

Repeal of former Ordinances.

3 The Ordinance No. 18 of 1844, intituled “An Ordinance for the better regulation of Prisons,” the Ordinance No. 2 of 1853, intituled “For the safe custody of Convicts employed upon Public Works,” the Ordinance No. 20 of 1866, intituled “An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 18 of 1844,” the 9th and 10th sub-sections of the 30th section of “The Fiscals’ Ordinance, 1867,” and 70th and 71st sections of the said “Fiscals’ Ordinance, 1867,” and the Ordinance No. 16 of 1869, intituled “An Ordinance to convert the Welikada and Hulftsdorp Prisons into Central Convict Establishments and to vest in the Superintendent thereof certain powers vested in the Fiscal of the Western Province,” are hereby severally repealed.

Interpretation clause.

4 In this Ordinance the following terms shall have the respective meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there is something in the context repugnant thereto:

“Prison” means any jail and includes any prison hospital and any grounds or buildings occupied for the use of the prison;

“Criminal prisoner” means any prisoner charged with or convicted of any crime or offence, or liable under any sentence, judgment, or other proceeding to the performance of hard labour;

“Civil prisoner” means any prisoner confined under any civil process or order of court by which hard labour is not imposed; and any person committed for contempt of court who is not liable to the performance of hard labour.

II.—Establishment and Officers of Prisons.

Establishment of prisons.

5 The prisons situated at the places mentioned in the schedule shall be or continue to be prisons for the reception of prisoners of every description committed or remanded under the authority of any court, justice of the peace, or coroner or deputy coroner, having jurisdiction within any part of the districts or limits set opposite the names of such places respectively in the said schedule.

Prisons.

Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation, at any time or from time to time to close any of the prisons mentioned in the schedule hereto, or to make any alteration in the districts or limits within which any such prisons are appointed, and also to establish any other prison or prisons for this island or for any part thereof, and any such Proclamation to revoke, alter, or amend; and every prison so established shall become subject to the provisions of this Ordinance in the same manner as if such prison had been mentioned in the schedule hereto.

6 Whenever it appears to the Governor that the number of prisoners in any prison is greater than can conveniently or safely be kept therein; or whenever from the outbreak of epidemic disease within any prison or for the performance of labour or for any other reason it is desirable to provide for the temporary shelter or safe custody of any prisoners without the walls of any prison, provision shall be made in such manner as the Governor may from time to time specially or by any general rules to be made in the manner provided in section 76 direct, for the temporary shelter or safe custody without the walls of the prison of so many of the prisoners as cannot be conveniently or safely kept therein. Prisoners for whom such shelter or custody is provided as aforesaid shall be subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and to any rules to be made under section 76 in the same manner in every respect as if they were within a prison.

7 It shall be lawful for the Governor, or the Inspector-General of Prisons, by writing under his hand, to direct the removal of any prisoner from one prison to another; and for the superintendent by writing under his hand to direct the removal of any prisoner from any prison under the charge of such superintendent to any other prison situate within the same province; and such writing shall be sufficient warrant for the jailor of the prison, to which such prisoner shall be so directed to be removed, to receive and detain such prisoner and deal with him according to law.

8 The warrant or sentence of any judge, magistrate, coroner, deputy coroner, or justice of the peace committing any person for any offence cognizable by such judge, magistrate, coroner, deputy coroner, or justice to any prison, wherein such person may be lawfully detained, shall be good and sufficient, whether such prison shall or shall not be within the jurisdiction of such judge, magistrate, coroner, deputy coroner, or justice.

9 There shall be as heretofore an Inspector-General of Prisons appointed by the Governor, and in such Inspector-General shall be vested (subject to the orders of the Governor) the general control and superintendence of all prisons situate in this island. Such Inspector-General shall hold his office during pleasure. It shall also be lawful for the Governor, whenever in his opinion special occasion shall require it, to appoint a Deputy Inspector-General of Prisons and to confer upon such deputy all or any of the powers vested by this Ordinance in the Inspector-General.

Prisons may be closed and new prisons established.

[§ 1, 24 of 1890]

Temporary shelter of prisoners.

Governor or Inspector-General may remove prisoners from one prison to another. Superintendent may remove prisoners from one prison to another in the same province.

Warrants of commitment by judges, &c., when good out of their jurisdiction.

Inspector-General of Prisons.

Deputy.

Prisons.

Officers of prison.

10 For every prison there shall be a superintendent, a medical officer (who may also be the superintendent), a jailor, and such subordinate officers as the Governor shall think necessary. There shall also be a matron in every prison in which females shall be imprisoned. There may also be an assistant medical officer and an assistant jailor for any specified prison where the Governor may think such necessary. There shall be attached to every prison one officer at least who shall be competent to interpret native languages.

Appointment of officers.

11 The superintendent, medical officer, assistant medical officer, jailor, assistant jailor, and matron shall be appointed by the Governor, and shall hold their respective offices during pleasure. The subordinate prison officers shall be appointed by and hold office during the pleasure of the Inspector-General of Prisons.

Past appointments valid.

12 All appointments of any such officers as aforesaid heretofore made shall be deemed to have been made under the provisions of this Ordinance.

III.—Duties of Officers.

Officers to obey
superintendent.

13 All officers of a prison shall obey the directions of the superintendent: the matron and all subordinate officers shall perform such duties as may be directed by the jailor with the sanction of the superintendent: and the duties of the matron and of each subordinate officer shall be inserted in a book to be kept by her or him.

Officers not to sell or let to prisoners.

14 No officer of a prison shall sell or let, nor shall any person in trust for or employed by him sell or let, or derive any benefit from selling or letting, any article to any prisoner.

Officers not to contract with
prisoners.

15 No officer of a prison shall, nor shall any person in trust for or employed by him, have any interest direct or indirect in any contract for the supply of the prison: nor, except so far as is expressly allowed by rules made under section 76, shall he derive any benefit directly or indirectly from the sale of any article on behalf of the prison or belonging to a prisoner.

Superintendent.

Duties of superintendent.

16 Subject to the directions of the Inspector-General of Prisons, the superintendent shall—

- (1) Manage the prison in all matters relating to discipline, labour, expenditure, punishment, and control;
- (2) Correspond on all matters connected with the prison with the Inspector-General;
- (3) Submit to the Inspector-General all prison accounts with proper vouchers for audit;
- (4) Periodically inspect all property of the Government in his charge and report thereon to the Inspector-General;
- (5) Generally obey all rules made under section 76 for the guidance of the superintendent.

Prisons.

Medical Officer.

17 It shall be lawful for the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, to make rules as to each of the following matters :

Power to make rules as to medical officer's duties.

- (1) How often the medical officer shall visit the prison and see each prisoner ;
- (2) The records to be made respecting sick prisoners ;
- (3) Periodical inspection of every part of the prison ;
- (4) Reports on its cleanliness, drainage, warmth, and ventilation ;
- (5) Reports on the provisions, water, clothing, and bedding supplied to the prisoners.

The medical officer shall obey such rules.

Medical officer to obey rules.
To report special cases.

18 Whenever the medical officer has reason to believe that the health of a prisoner is or is likely to be injuriously affected by the discipline, diet, or treatment to which he is subjected, the medical officer shall report the case in writing to the superintendent, together with such recommendations as the medical officer thinks proper.

19 On the death of any prisoner the medical officer shall forthwith record in writing the following particulars, namely :

To make entries as to death of prisoners.

- (1) When the deceased was taken ill ;
- (2) When the medical officer was first informed of the illness ;
- (3) The nature of the disease ;
- (4) When the prisoner died ;
- (5) And (in cases where a post mortem examination is made) an account of the appearances after death ; together with any special remarks that may appear to the medical officer to be required.

20 Where an assistant medical officer is appointed to a prison, he shall be competent to perform any duty required by this Ordinance or by any rule made hereunder to be performed by the medical officer.

Assistant medical officer.

Jailor.

21 The jailor shall reside in the prison or in such convenient place near thereto as the superintendent shall by writing appoint. The jailor shall not without the Inspector-General's sanction be concerned in any other employment.

Residence of jailor.

22 The jailor shall deliver to the medical officer daily a list of such prisoners (if any) as are confined in punishment cells.

To deliver lists of prisoners (if any) in punishment cells.

23 Upon the death of a prisoner the jailor shall give immediate notice thereof to the superintendent and to the nearest coroner or deputy coroner of the district, and also, when practicable, to the nearest relative of the deceased.

To give notice of death of prisoners.

Prisons.

The jailor shall also report to the superintendent from time to time, as they occur, all escapes and recaptures. He shall also report to the superintendent and to the medical officer, without delay, all outbreaks of epidemic disease.

To keep books and accounts.

24 The jailor shall keep or cause to be kept the following records :

- (1) A register of warrants ;
- (2) A book showing when each prisoner is to be released ;
- (3) A punishment book for the entry of the punishments inflicted for prison offences ;
- (4) A visitors' book for the entry of any observations made by visitors to the prison ;
- (5) A record of the money and other articles taken from prisoners ; and all such other records as may be prescribed by rules made under section 76.

Responsible for safe custody of documents.

25 The jailor shall be responsible for the safe custody of the records to be kept by him under the preceding section, and also for the commitments and all other documents committed to his care.

Not to be absent without leave.

26 The jailor shall not be absent from the prison or from his residence, if residing outside the prison, for a night without permission in writing from the superintendent ; but, if absent without leave for a night from unavoidable necessity, he shall at the earliest opportunity report the fact and the cause of it to the superintendent.

Assistant jailor.

27 Where an assistant jailor is appointed to a prison, the superintendent may at his discretion by written order assign any part of the jailor's duties to such assistant jailor ; and in such case the same responsibilities shall attach to such assistant jailor in respect of such duties as attach to the jailor.

Substitute for jailor in case of necessity.

28 Where there is no assistant jailor, or when his services are not available by reason of sickness or other cause, the superintendent shall, when the jailor is absent from the prison or temporarily incapacitated, appoint by writing under his hand some person to act as his substitute during such absence or incapacity, and the substitute so appointed shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the jailor.

Matron.

Residence and duties of matron.

29 The matron shall reside in the prison or in such convenient place near thereto as the superintendent shall by writing appoint ; and she shall not without the superintendent's sanction absent herself from the prison or from her other dwelling-place, nor shall she without such sanction be concerned in any other employment. It shall be her duty constantly to superintend the female prisoners.

Prisons.Subordinate Officers.

30 The officer acting as gate-keeper, or any other officer of the prison and may stop and search any person suspected of bringing spirits or other prohibited articles into the prison, and if any such articles or property be found shall give immediate notice thereof to the jailor. Provided that the persons of females shall be searched by some female officer of the prison.

Powers of gate-keeper.

31 Subordinate officers shall not be absent from the prison without leave from the superintendent or from the jailor, and before absenting themselves they shall leave their keys in the jailor's office.

Subordinate officers not to be absent without leave.

Visitors.

32 It shall be lawful for the Governor, whenever he shall think fit, to appoint one or more fit and proper person or persons to be the visitor or visitors of any prison, and every such visitor to remove and to appoint another or others in his stead. All appointments of visitors heretofore made shall be deemed to have been made under the provisions of this Ordinance. Provided that nothing herein contained shall be taken to abridge or affect the power of any judge of the Supreme Court to visit and examine any prison at any time, how and when he may think fit. Every visitor so appointed shall be at liberty to enter at all times any such prison and to make any inquiries or examination therein as to him shall appear necessary; and every such visitor is hereby required to visit such prison at such periods as the Governor shall direct, unless prevented by illness or other sufficient cause, and shall from time to time make such reports as may be required by the Governor; and any officer of any such prison who shall at any time refuse admittance to any such visitor or to any member of the Legislative Council or to any district judge, police magistrate, or commissioner of a court of requests, having jurisdiction in the district wherein the prison is situated, or to any person authorized by any rule to be made under section 76, to enter the prison, or offer to him any hindrance or obstruction, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to be tried and punished therefor under the provisions of section 69.

Appointment and duties of visitors.

33 Every visitor so appointed as aforesaid shall have power, and he is hereby required, to hear all complaints which shall be made by any prisoner respecting any deficiency of food or of its being of an inferior or improper quality, or respecting any ill-treatment received from any prison officer; and if such complaint shall clearly appear to such visitor to be frivolous or malicious, it shall be lawful for such visitor to order the confinement of the prisoner making such complaint in a punishment cell for forty-eight hours, there to be kept on the sparest possible diet consistent with health. And the jailor shall carry such order into effect. And if any such visitor shall consider any complaint respecting the quantity or quality of food or of any ill-treatment, not being of a serious character, to be substantiated, he shall make report thereof to the Colonial Secretary; but if he shall consider that such ill-treatment is sufficiently serious to require the intervention of a court of justice, he shall immediately make report thereof to the Queen's Advocate or some deputy Queen's advocate.

IV.—Admission, Removal, and Discharge of Prisoners.

Prisoners to be searched on entrance and as often as necessary.

34 When a prisoner is first admitted, and at any time thereafter when considered necessary, he shall be searched, and all weapons and prohibited articles shall be taken from him.

Medical examination of criminal prisoners.

35 Every criminal prisoner shall also, as soon as convenient after admission, be examined by the medical officer, who shall enter in a book to be kept by the jailor a record of the state of the prisoner's health and any observations which the medical officer thinks fit to add.

Effects of criminal prisoners retained.

36 All money or other effects in respect whereof no order of a competent court has been made, and which may be brought into prison by any criminal prisoner or sent to the prison for his use, shall be placed in the custody of the jailor, and disposed of as may be directed by rules to be made under section 76.

Medical examination before removal and discharge of prisoners.

37 All prisoners, previously to being removed to any other prison, shall be examined by the medical officer.

V.—Discipline of Prisoners.

Requisitions of Ordinance as to separation of prisoners.

38 The requisitions of this Ordinance with respect to the separation of prisoners are as follows :

- (1) Males shall be separated from females ;
- (2) Juvenile prisoners, whenever it is practicable, shall be separated from adults ;
- (3) Convicted prisoners, whenever it is practicable, shall be separated from unconvicted ;
- (4) Civil prisoners, whenever it is practicable, shall be separated from criminal prisoners ;
- (5) Prisoners committed for contempt of court or for the non-payment of any fine or penalty or of money due upon any estreated recognizance or for want of securities shall, whenever it is practicable, be separated from other criminal prisoners.

Cells to be furnished with means of communication.

39 No cell shall be used for separate confinement unless it is furnished with the means of enabling the prisoner to communicate at any time with an officer of the prison.

Prisoners under sentence of death.

40 Every prisoner under warrant or order for execution shall, immediately on his arrival in the prison after sentence, be searched by or by order of the jailor, and all articles shall be taken from him, which the jailor deems it dangerous or inexpedient to leave in his possession. Provided that the prisoner, if a female, shall be searched by some female officer of the prison.

41 Every prisoner under such warrant or order, as is mentioned in the preceding section, shall be confined in a cell apart from all other prisoners, and shall be placed by day and by night under the charge of an officer or guard.

To be separately confined and guarded.

42 Due provision shall be made in every prison for the enforcement of hard labour in the cases of such prisoners as may be sentenced thereto.

Sentences of hard labour to be enforced.

43 Female prisoners shall in all cases be attended by female officers.

Female prisoners to be attended by females.

44 No gaming shall be permitted in any prison, and the jailor shall seize and destroy all dice, cards, or other instruments of gaming found in the prison or on the person of any prisoner.

No gaming to be allowed.

45 No money shall be taken by any prison officer by way of garnish, fee, or gratuity from any prisoner or any person on his behalf or account, on his entrance into or discharge from or during his detention in the prison, under any pretence whatsoever.

No fee to be taken from a prisoner.

VI.—Food, Clothing, and Bedding of Prisoners.

46 A civil prisoner shall be permitted to maintain himself and to purchase or receive from private sources at proper hours food, clothing, bedding, or other necessaries, but subject to examination and to such rules as may be approved by the Inspector-General.

Civil prisoner may maintain himself.

47 No part of any food, clothing, bedding, or other necessaries belonging to any civil prisoner shall be sold to any other prisoner; and any civil prisoner transgressing this regulation shall lose the privilege of purchasing food or receiving it from private sources for such time as the superintendent thinks proper.

Civil prisoner not to sell provisions.

48 Every civil prisoner unable to provide himself with sufficient clothing and bedding shall be supplied by the superintendent with such clothing and bedding as may be necessary.

Allowance of clothing and bedding.

VII.—Employment of Prisoners.

50 Civil prisoners may with the superintendent's permission work and follow their respective trades and professions, and, when they find their own implements and are not maintained at the expense of the prison or of the Crown, they shall be allowed to receive the whole of their earnings; but the earnings of such as are furnished with implements or are maintained at the expense of the prison or the Crown shall be subject to a deduction, to be determined by the superintendent, for the use of implements and the cost of maintenance.

Work and earnings of civil prisoners.

Prisons.

Examination by medical officer of labouring prisoners.

51 The medical officer shall from time to time examine the labouring prisoners while they are employed, and shall enter in his journal the name of any prisoner whose health he thinks likely to be injured by a continuance of hard labour, and thereupon such prisoner shall not again be employed at such labour until the medical officer certifies that he is fit for such employment; but if the medical officer certifies that such prisoner may without detriment to his health be employed on some lighter kind of labour, it shall be lawful for the jailor so to employ him.

Employment of prisoners sentenced to simple imprisonment.

52 Provision shall, whenever practicable, be made by the superintendent for the employment (so long as they so desire) of all criminal prisoners not subject to hard labour.

VIII.—Health of Prisoners.

Names of sick prisoners to be reported to jailor. Jailor to report them to the medical officer.

53 The names of prisoners desiring to see the medical officer or appearing out of health in mind or body shall be reported by the officer attending them to the jailor; and the jailor shall without delay call the attention of the medical officer to any prisoner desiring to see him, or who is ill, or whose state of mind or body appears to require attention, and shall carry into effect the medical officer's written recommendations respecting alterations of the discipline or treatment of such prisoner.

Entry of recommendations by medical officer.

54 All recommendations given by the medical officer in relation to any prisoner, with the exception of orders for the supply of medicines or directions relating to such matters as are carried into effect by the medical officer himself or under his superintendence, shall be entered day by day in his journal, which shall have a separate column, wherein entries shall be made by the superintendent, stating in respect of each recommendation the fact of its having been or not having been complied with, accompanied by such observations, if any, as the superintendent thinks fit to make, and the date of the entry.

Infirmaries.

55 In every prison an infirmary or proper place for the reception of sick prisoners shall be provided.

Bathing of prisoners

56 All prisoners shall be furnished with proper means of washing or otherwise cleansing themselves and of having their clothing washed; and provision shall be made for their bathing within the prison, if possible, or otherwise at the nearest convenient place; and during such bathing or washing care shall be taken that different classes and sexes of prisoners be kept separate.

IX.—Visits to and Correspondence of Prisoners.

Visits to prisoners.

57 Due provision shall be made for the admission, at proper times and under proper restrictions, into every prison of persons with whom criminal prisoners before trial and civil prisoners may desire to communicate.

Prisons.

58 The jailor may demand the name and address of any visitor to a prisoner ; and when the jailor has any ground for suspicion, he may search such visitors or cause them to be searched, but the search shall not be in the presence of any prisoner or of another visitor to a prisoner. In case of any such visitor refusing to be searched, the jailor may deny him admission, and the grounds of such proceedings, with the particulars thereof, shall be entered in his journal.

Power of jailor as to visitors.

X.—Offences in relation to Prisons.

59 Whoever, contrary to the regulations of the prison, brings, throws, or attempts by any means whatever to introduce into any prison or any place provided under section 6 for the temporary shelter and safe custody of prisoners, or who supplies or attempts to supply to any prisoner, while in custody outside any prison, any spirituous or fermented liquor or tobacco, betel, opium, bhang, or other intoxicating or poisonous drug, or any money or any other article which may be prohibited by any rule made under section 76, and every officer of a prison who knowingly suffers any such liquor, tobacco, betel, opium, bhang, drug, money, or other article to be brought, thrown, or introduced into or used in any such prison or place or to be supplied to any prisoner, while in custody outside any prison, contrary to such regulations, and whoever aids and abets any person in committing any offence under this section, shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding three months, or to both.

Carrying liquor, tobacco, or drugs into prison.

Suffering liquor, &c., to be sold or used in prison.

59 (1) It shall be lawful for any officer of a prison to arrest any person who commits an offence under the above section, or who abets another in committing such offence, and forthwith to make over the person so arrested to the nearest police officer, or to produce him before the nearest police magistrate, to be dealt with according to law.

Offenders may be arrested without warrant by prison officers. [§ 3, 24 of 1890]

60 Whoever, contrary to the regulations of the prison, conveys or attempts to convey any letter or other writing to any prisoner in custody, whether within or without any prison, or from any such prisoner to any other person, and every officer of a prison who aids and abets any person in committing any offence under this section, shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding three months, or to both.

Carrying letters to prisoners.

Prison officer abetting.

61 The superintendent shall cause to be affixed in a conspicuous place outside the prison or the place provided as aforesaid a notice in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages respectively, setting forth the penalties incurred by persons committing any offence under sections 59 and 60 respectively.

Notice of penalties to be affixed outside prison.

Prisons.

Jurisdiction of criminal courts.

63 The criminal courts of the district in which an escaped prisoner may be recaptured or surrender, as well as the criminal courts of the district in which he escaped, shall, if possessed in other respects of jurisdiction, be competent to try such prisoner for his escape. Provided that nothing in this section contained shall prevent such escape or attempts to escape being tried and dealt with as offences against prison discipline in manner hereinafter provided.

XI.—Prison Offences.

List of prison
offences.

64 The following acts are declared to be offences against prison discipline :

- (1) Wilful disobedience of the regulations of the prison by any prisoner ;
- (2) Assault or use of criminal force by any prisoner ;
- (3) The use of insulting or threatening language or gestures by any prisoner to any officer or prisoner ;
- (4) Indecent or disorderly behaviour by any prisoner ;
- (5) Wilfully disabling himself from labour ;
- (6) Contumaciously refusing to work ;
- (7) Filing or cutting irons or bars ;
- (8) Idleness or negligence at work by any prisoner liable to the performance of hard labour ;
- (9) Wilful mismanagement of work by any prisoner liable to the performance of hard labour ;
- (10) Wilful damage to prison property ;
- (11) Escaping or conspiring to escape, or to assist in escaping or to commit any other of the offences aforesaid.

Superintendent's power to punish prison offenders.
[§ 4, 24 of 1890]

65 The superintendent, or in his absence a visitor, may examine any person touching the offences in the preceding section mentioned, and determine thereupon and punish such offences :

- (1) By confinement in a punishment cell for any time not exceeding fourteen days ;
- (2) By ordering the offender for any time not exceeding three days to close confinement, to be there kept upon a diet reduced to such extent as shall be prescribed by any rule made under the provisions of section 76 ;
- (3) By corporal punishment not exceeding twelve lashes or twenty stripes with a rattan ;
- (4) When the offender is not sentenced to hard labour, by hard labour for any time not exceeding seven days ;
- (5) Or by any two of the above-mentioned punishments.

Prisons.

66 The jailor shall enter in a separate book, called the Punishment Book, a statement of the nature of any offence that has been punished under the preceding section, with the addition of the name of the offender, the date of the offence, and the amount of punishment inflicted. Such statement shall be signed by the superintendent or by the visitor who shall have inflicted such punishment.

Jailor to enter punishments in a book.

[§ 5, 24 of 1890]

67 If any prisoner is guilty of repeated offences against prison discipline, or is charged with any offence against prison discipline which the superintendent, or a visitor in the absence of the superintendent, thinks is not adequately punishable under section 65, the superintendent, or in his absence such visitor, shall cause the offender to be prosecuted before the police court of the division in which the offence was committed, with a view to his committal before a superior court, which shall, upon the conviction of the offender, have power to award such punishment as it may in its ordinary jurisdiction impose; or any two visitors shall have power to inquire upon oath or affirmation into the offence and to punish the offender:

Punishment of prisoners by criminal courts. Or by visitors.

[§ 6, 24 of 1890]

- (1) By confinement in a punishment cell or in irons for any term not exceeding one month; or
- (2) By corporal punishment not exceeding twenty-five lashes or thirty stripes with a rattan; or
- (3) By imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding six months, such term to be in addition to the term for which he is undergoing imprisonment; or

(4) By any two of the afore-mentioned punishments.

[§ 6, 24 of 1890]

Provided always that nothing in this or in the 65th section shall authorize the infliction of corporal punishment or confinement in irons on any female prisoner or any prisoner not liable to the performance of hard labour.

No hard labour or corporal punishment to be inflicted on females or civil prisoners.

68 All corporal punishment within the prison shall be inflicted in the presence of the superintendent or a visitor and the medical officer, subject to the law for the time being in force relating to the infliction of corporal punishment.

Corporal punishment.

69 Every jailor and subordinate officer of a prison ill-treating any prisoner or wilfully violating or neglecting any rule contained in this Ordinance or made under section 76, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable, on conviction before the superintendent, who is hereby authorized to try such offences, to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or on conviction before the police magistrate of the district where such offence shall be committed, to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding three months, or to both. Any such police magistrate shall have power to award the full amount of such penalty. Any fine imposed by the superintendent under this section may be recovered either by reduction from the convicted officer's salary and allowances, or, upon a report of such conviction being made by the superintendent to the police court of the district, may be enforced by such court in the same manner as fines imposed by such court in the exercise of its ordinary jurisdiction. Provided always that the imposition of any fine by the superintendent shall be subject to appeal to the Inspector-General, who is hereby empowered to confirm, reverse, or modify the sentence of the superintendent, as the justice of the case may require. Every such appeal shall be in writing, and shall be lodged with the superintendent within forty-eight hours of the sentence being passed. Provided also that nothing in this section contained shall be taken to deprive any criminal court of jurisdiction to try and punish any person charged with the ill-treatment of any prisoner. Provided also that no person shall, under this section, be punished twice for the same offence.

Penalty on officers ill-treating prisoners or violating rules.

XII.—Miscellaneous.

General provisions as to irons.

70 Except as provided by section 67, and except as hereinafter provided, no prisoner shall hereafter be put in irons save in compliance with the sentence of a competent court.

Prisoners, when travelling, may be put in irons.

71 Prisoners when required to travel from station to station, or being removed from the prison for any other purpose, may be put either in leg-irons or handcuffs as a measure of safety only, and such irons or handcuffs shall be removed on the prisoners arriving at their destination.

Escaped prisoners.

72 Any prisoner who may once have effected his escape from custody, and who has been recaptured, and any prisoner upon whom well-founded suspicion rests of attempting to escape or of conspiring with or aiding others to escape, or who has been guilty of any act of gross insubordination or mutinous conduct, may be put in irons or body-belt by the jailor, who shall at once report the case to the superintendent, who is hereby required to make a full inquiry into the matter and to give such order as shall to him appear necessary, reporting the circumstances without delay to the Inspector-General of Prisons for final decision.

Other cases.

73 In any other case it shall be lawful to put any prisoners in irons or body-belt, when such may appear to the superintendent necessary or expedient from the nature of the work upon which the prisoners are employed, or by reason of the remoteness from sufficient supervision, or from any other sufficient cause; but in all such cases the sanction of the Inspector-General must be obtained, and the names, sentences, and dates of conviction of the prisoners must be submitted to the Inspector-General.

Release from irons.

74 Any prisoner put in irons or body-belt shall not be released therefrom except on the written order of the superintendent, who shall record the same in his order book and report the matter to the Inspector-General of Prisons.

Prisons.

75 A list of all prisoners who are in irons or body-belts shall be kept at each prison, showing the name of each prisoner, date and length of sentence, date when put in irons or body-belt, and authority for his being so put.

List to be kept of prisoners in irons.

76 It shall be lawful for the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time to make general rules for all prisons or special rules for any particular prison or prisons :

Power to make supplementary rules.

- (1) For the government of prisons and for the guidance of prison officers, and for regulating the procedure to be followed in investigations into prison offences under sections 65 and 67 respectively ;
- (2) As to what cells only shall be used for the separate confinement and punishment of prisoners ;
- (3) As to the time during which prisoners not guilty of offences against prison rules may be confined separately ;
- (4) As to communication and correspondence of prisoners with their friends and legal advisers ;
- (5) As to articles to be brought into any prison ;
- (6) As to sales of articles on behalf of prisons or belonging to prisoners ;
- (7) As to the food and clothing of criminal prisoners ;
- (8) For the religious and other instruction of prisoners ;
- (9) For the classification of prisoners ;
- (10) As to the nature of the hard labour to be imposed upon the different classes of prisoners liable to perform hard labour ;
- (11) For the employment and control of convicts within or without prisons, and for the guidance of the officers in charge of such convicts ;
- (12) For remission of sentences ;
- (13) For rewards for good conduct ;
- (14) For the appointment and guidance of visitors of prisons ;
- (15) For regulating the powers vested, under section 72, in the jailor, superintendent, and Inspector-General of Prisons, regarding the use of irons and body-belts.

[§ 7, 24 of 1890]

Provided always that such rules shall not be repugnant to any of the provisions of this Ordinance, and shall be duly published in the Government Gazette.

Copies of such rules, so far as they affect the government of prisons, shall be exhibited in some place to which all persons employed within a prison ordinarily have access.

77 All rules now in force relating to any of the matters contained in this Ordinance shall, so far as such rules are consistent with this Ordinance, remain in force until altered or repealed by the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council.

Present rules.

Prisons.

Certified copy of committal sufficient evidence of lawful custody.

78 A copy of the committal of any prisoner by a competent court, coroner, deputy coroner, or justice of the peace, or a copy of the extract from the calendar relating to any prisoner who may have been convicted by the Supreme Court, shall, if such copy be certified by the superintendent of any prison, be sufficient prima facie evidence for all purposes of the lawful custody of such prisoner. Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for a competent court to require the production of the original committal, where the court shall deem the same necessary.

Order for production of prisoners before courts of record or officers conducting preliminary investigations.

79 Whenever any prisoner is required to appear before any court, coroner, deputy coroner, or justice of the peace to give evidence, or for any other purpose, it shall be lawful for such court, coroner, deputy coroner, or justice in his discretion, if he shall consider the presence of such prisoner necessary for the ends of justice, by a writing under his hand, to direct the superintendent of the prison, where such prisoner shall be imprisoned, to produce such prisoner before such court, coroner, deputy coroner, or justice, and such superintendent shall, in the absence of good and sufficient cause to the contrary, cause such prisoner to be produced in compliance with such order,

No prisoner to be a juror at an inquest.

80 In case any coroner or deputy coroner shall hold an inquest on the body of any prisoner who shall have died while in custody, no prison officer or prisoner or person engaged in any trade or dealing with the prison shall be a juror at such inquest.

Warrants may be addressed to fiscal, who shall give prisoner into charge of jailor.

81* All warrants of commitment (except warrants of commitment for trial) and all warrants of remand or of arrest in civil or criminal process issued by any court, coroner, deputy coroner, or justice of the peace may, as heretofore, be addressed to the fiscal or deputy fiscal, and such fiscal or deputy fiscal shall, with as little delay as possible after taking charge of or arresting the person required by such warrant to be committed, remanded, or arrested, give such person into the charge of the superintendent or jailor of some prison of the district over which such court, coroner, deputy coroner, or justice may have jurisdiction, together with a copy of the warrant certified under the hand of such fiscal or deputy fiscal. It shall thereupon become the duty of such superintendent or jailor to take charge of and keep safely such prisoner, until he shall be delivered from prison in due course of law. And the copy of such warrant, so certified as aforesaid, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence for all purposes of the lawful custody of such prisoner.

Jailor to deliver over to fiscal civil and unconvicted criminal prisoners, when so required.

82 It shall be the duty of the jailor to deliver over to the fiscal or deputy fiscal having jurisdiction in the district in which the prison is situated, or to any person authorized in writing in that behalf by such fiscal or deputy fiscal, any civil and any unconvicted criminal prisoner in charge of such jailor, whenever so required by such fiscal or deputy fiscal or authorized person aforesaid. Provided, however, that no civil prisoner shall be removed or allowed by the fiscal or deputy fiscal to go beyond the walls or other enclosed limit of the prison, in which such prisoner may be confined, unless upon special rule and order of court requiring the attendance of such prisoner, or upon the application of such prisoner to be carried before any such court for the purpose of preferring any complaint or application.

Civil prisoner not to go beyond limit of prison except by order of court.

83 The allowance for the maintenance of civil prisoners, when paid to the fiscal under the provisions of the 68th section of "The Fiscals' Ordinance, 1867," shall be paid by the fiscal to the jailor of the prison wherein such prisoners are confined, for the purpose of such maintenance.

Allowance for maintenance of civil prisoners to be paid over by fiscal to jailor.

84 All warrants of commitment for trial or of remand or deliverance from jail issued by any court, coroner, deputy coroner, or justice of the peace shall be addressed to the superintendent or jailor of the jail to or from which the person named in the warrant is to be committed or delivered, and such superintendent or jailor shall directly carry such warrant into effect according to law.

Warrants of commitment, &c., to be addressed to the superintendent of the jail.

85 There shall be affixed in a conspicuous part of every prison in which civil prisoners are confined a table of rates of prison allowance for civil prisoners, in the English language, together with a translation thereof in the Singhalese and Tamil languages respectively.

Table of rates of allowance for civil prisoners to be affixed in prison.

86 The Inspector-General shall make a yearly return to the Legislative Council of all punishments of any kind whatsoever which may have been inflicted within each prison under the provisions of this Ordinance, and the offences for which such punishments were inflicted.

Return of punishments.

No. 24 of 1890.

8 (1) The Governor may at his discretion appoint to any prison an assistant superintendent, who shall have all such powers, protections, and privileges, and be liable to all such duties and responsibilities, as by law the superintendent of such prison has and is liable to.

Governor may appoint assistant superintendent to a prison.

(2) In the principal Ordinance, as amended by this Ordinance, wherever the term "superintendent" is used with reference to a prison, it shall be taken to include the assistant superintendent, if any, appointed thereto by the Governor under this section.

9 (1) It shall be lawful for the Inspector-General of Prisons, by writing under his hand, to direct the removal of any sick prisoner from prison to any public hospital within the same province, and such writing shall be sufficient warrant for the medical officer of such hospital to receive and detain therein such prisoner, subject to the lawful orders of the said Inspector-General.

Removal of sick prisoners to a public hospital.

(2) Every prisoner so received into such hospital as aforesaid, so long as he shall not be entitled to his discharge from prison in due course of law, shall continue to be subject to the provisions of the principal Ordinance, and to any rules made under section 76 thereof, in the same manner and in every respect as if he were within a prison.

Prisons.

No. 24 of 1890—contd.

(3) The medical officer of such hospital shall in respect of such prisoner have all such powers, and be liable to all such duties, as by law the superintendent of a prison has and is liable to.

Power to the Governor to transfer youthful offenders from a prison to a reformatory or certified industrial school.

10 (1) It shall be lawful for the Governor, by writing under his hand, to order any youthful offender who may be undergoing imprisonment in any prison to be transferred from such prison to any reformatory or certified industrial school, and be there detained for any period which shall be specified in such order, provided that such offender shall not be liable to detention after he shall have attained the age of eighteen years; and a copy of such order certified by the Colonial Secretary or by an assistant colonial secretary for the time being shall be sufficient warrant for the manager of such reformatory or certified industrial school to receive and detain such offender.

(2) The several enactments contained in sections 22 to 29, in sections 32 to 43, and in sections 46 to 50, of "The Youthful Offenders' Ordinance, 1886," shall apply in the case of every offender so transferred as aforesaid, as though he were detained under the provisions of that Ordinance.

9th October, 1878.

No. 4 of 1878.

An Ordinance to amend the Law relating to the possession and sale of Opium and Bhang.

(See No. 9 of 1869 and No. 2 of 1893.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the possession and sale of opium and bhang : It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Opium and Bhang Ordinance, 1878."

Commencement of Ordinance.

2 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1879, in all places in which the Ordinance No. 19 of 1867, intituled "An Ordinance to restrict the use of Opium and Bhang," is at the date of the passing of this Ordinance in force, and shall come into operation in such other places or districts and at such time or times respectively

Opium and Bhang.

as the Governor, acting with the advice of the Executive Council, shall at any time or from time to time, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, appoint. It shall also be lawful for the Governor, with the advice aforesaid, by Proclamation, to declare that this Ordinance shall cease to have any operation in any place or district which may be or become subject thereto; in which case this Ordinance shall accordingly cease to have any operation in such place or district.

3 The said Ordinance No. 19 of 1867 is hereby repealed, except so far as relates to any offences that may have been committed or liabilities incurred in any place previous to this Ordinance coming into operation in such place.

Repeal of Ordinance No. 19 of 1867.

4 For the purposes of this Ordinance the words "opium" and "bhang" shall respectively include any preparation in which opium or bhang forms a component part.

Interpretation clause.

5 It shall not be lawful for any person, other than a wholesale or retail vendor of opium duly licensed as herein-after provided, to possess opium in any quantity beyond one pound in weight, without a license authorizing such possession, to be granted as hereinafter provided.

Possession of opium exceeding one pound in weight, without license, illegal.

6 It shall not be lawful for any person to sell or to offer or expose for sale or to suffer or permit to be sold, either by wholesale or retail, opium or bhang without a license authorizing such sale, to be granted as hereinafter provided.

Sale of opium or bhang, without a license, illegal.

7* In any town where a municipal council is or shall be established, the chairman of such council, and in any other place or district the government agent of the province wherein such place or district is situated, may grant licenses for the possession of opium beyond one pound in weight, or for the sale of opium and bhang.

Chairman of municipal council or government agent may grant licenses.

A license to sell opium and bhang by wholesale will authorize the licensee to possess at one time any quantity of opium. A fee of two hundred and fifty rupees shall be payable for every such license. No such licensee shall sell less than ten pounds in weight of opium or bhang at any one time.

License to sell by wholesale.

A license to sell opium and bhang by retail will authorize the licensee to possess at one time opium in any quantity not exceeding fifty pounds in weight. A fee of one hundred rupees shall be payable for every such license within any part of the island other than Colombo.

To sell by retail.

A license to possess opium will authorize the licensee to possess opium in the quantity mentioned in the license; such quantity to be fixed at the discretion of the officer granting the license. A fee of fifty rupees shall be payable for such a license.

[§ 2, 9 of 1889]
To possess opium.

* This section does not apply to Colombo (No. 9 of 1889) or to a municipal or local board town proclaimed under section 2 of No. 2 of 1893.

Opium and Bhang.

Form and duration of licenses.

The above-mentioned licenses shall be substantially in the form set out in the schedule hereto annexed, with such alterations and additions as the circumstances require, and shall continue in force from the day on which they are respectively granted till the thirty-first day of December then next ensuing, and shall specify the place where and the conditions upon which the same are granted.

Fees to go to municipal fund or local board or General Treasury.

8 The fees payable on licenses granted under this Ordinance by the chairman of a municipal council shall form part of the municipal fund of the town to which such licenses shall apply; those payable on licenses granted under this Ordinance by a government agent shall, if the same apply to a town in which a local board of health and improvement has been established, form part of the fund of such board; and in other cases shall be payable to the Public Treasury.

Conditions may be attached to licenses.

9 The government agent or chairman of a municipal council authorized to grant licenses under this Ordinance may at his discretion refuse to grant any license which may be applied for, or may attach such conditions thereto as he may deem expedient, and may revoke any such license in the event of any of such conditions or any of the provisions of this Ordinance being infringed in respect thereof.

Licenses may be revoked.

Penalty for breaches of Ordinance.

10 Any person who shall possess or sell or offer for sale or suffer or permit to be sold any opium or bhang in breach of or in any way contrary to any of the provisions of this Ordinance or otherwise than in accordance with the license in that behalf granted under this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on the first conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, not exceeding three months, or to both, and on every subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, not exceeding six months, or to both.

Search into places where opium or bhang is sold.

11 It shall be lawful for any police officer or municipal inspector, without a warrant, to enter and inspect any shop or place where opium or bhang is allowed to be sold, or upon a warrant any place in which there shall be reasonable cause for suspicion that opium exceeding one pound in weight is kept or possessed without a license or contrary to the conditions thereof, or that the illicit sale of opium or bhang is being carried on, and to seize any opium or bhang which may be found therein and the vessels holding the same, and to take into custody the persons suspected to be concerned in the sale of such opium or bhang.

Magistrate may order opium, &c., seized to be sold.

It shall be lawful for the court or municipal bench of magistrates having jurisdiction in the place where such seizure shall have taken place, to cause the opium or bhang and the vessel holding the same so seized as aforesaid to be sold; and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid into the municipal fund if the seizure shall have taken place within the municipal limits, and in other cases shall be paid into the General Treasury.

Opium and Bhang.

12 It shall be lawful for the court or municipal bench of magistrates, before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence under this Ordinance, to direct a portion of the fine actually recovered and realized, not exceeding one-half, to be paid to the informer.

Informer's share of fine.

13 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be held to prevent any medical practitioner, chemist, or druggist from selling by retail or possessing opium or bhang bonâ fide for medicinal purposes, the burden of proof whereof shall lie upon the person alleging the same in his defence. Provided, however, that no person shall under this section possess more than five pounds of opium at one time without a license.

Ordinance not to apply to opium sold for bonâ fide medicinal purposes.

14 Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall apply to any opium kept, dispensed, or supplied by or in any Government or military hospital or dispensary or any dispensary established in pursuance of the Ordinance No. 14 of 1872, intituled "An Ordinance to provide for the Medical Wants of the Coffee Districts," or any Ordinance to be hereafter enacted to provide for such medical wants.

Hospitals, &c., exempted.

15 No prosecution shall be entertained for any offence under this Ordinance unless instituted within three months from the date of the commission of the offence.

Tolls. Nānu-oya Railway.

No. 5 of 1878.An Ordinance to establish further Tolls and to discontinue certain Tolls.(See No. 14 of 1867.)*

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to establish the tolls hereinafter specified and to discontinue certain tolls also hereinafter specified: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Establishment of certain tolls.

1 From and after the first day of January, 1879, tolls shall be established on and in respect of the following road:

On the Kadaiveli road, between the ninth and tenth mileposts at or near Verakkali in the Northern Province.

Discontinuance of certain tolls.

2 From and after the first day of January, 1879, the levy of tolls on the road from Nāwalapitiya to Tispané at or near the sixth milepost below the Kotmalé bazaar in the Central Province and of tolls at the ferry at Etanamada on the minor road from Dēsestara Kalutara to Etanamada in the Western Province, shall be discontinued.

4th December, 1878.

No. 9 of 1878.An Ordinance for the raising by Debentures of a sum of One Million Pounds sterling for the construction of a Railway from Nāwalapitiya to Nānu-oya.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the construction of a railway from Nāwalapitiya to Nānu-oya: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Nānu-oya Railway Ordinance, 1878."

Power to borrow £1,000,000 sterling on debentures.

2 It shall be lawful for the Governor to raise by the issue of debentures under this Ordinance any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole one million pounds sterling, to be applied exclusively in the construction of a railway from Nāwalapitiya to Nānu-oya, and in the purchase of such material, plant, rolling stock, and other things as may be required for or in connection with such work.

Loan to be a charge upon general revenues.

3 The principal moneys and interest secured by the debentures issued under this Ordinance are hereby charged upon and shall be payable out of the general revenues and assets of the Government of Ceylon.

Amount of each debenture and rate of interest.

4 Every debenture issued under this Ordinance shall be for a sum of not less than one hundred pounds sterling, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum.

Nánu-oya Railway.

- 5 The debentures shall be issued in London on behalf of the Government of Ceylon by the Crown Agents for the Colonies (in this Ordinance referred to as the Crown Agents), and shall be signed by them on that behalf. Issue and signature of debentures.
- 6 Every debenture shall, before being issued, be registered in a register book to be kept for that purpose at the office in London of the Crown Agents. Registry of debentures.
- 7 There shall be attached to every debenture coupons for the payment of the interest to become due in each half-year upon the principal secured by the debenture. The coupons shall be sufficient in number to provide for the payment of the interest, either during the whole period for which the debenture has to run, or for such limited period as the Crown Agents, acting on behalf of the Government of Ceylon, may determine. Interest coupons.
- 8 The debentures, and the coupons thereto, may be in such form as the Governor, or the Crown Agents acting on his behalf, may direct or approve. Form of debentures and coupons.
- 9 Every debenture and coupon, and the right to receive the principal and interest secured or represented thereby, shall be transferable by delivery. Debentures and coupons transferable by delivery.
- 10 So long as any of the debentures remain outstanding the Governor shall in each half-year ending with the day on which the interest on the debentures falls due appropriate out of the general revenues and assets of this colony a sum equal to one half-year's interest on the whole of the debentures previously issued, including any which may have been redeemed, and remit that sum to the Crown Agents at such time as will enable them to pay thereout the then current half-year's interest on the day when it falls due. After the expiration of five years from the day on which the first of the debentures is issued, and so long thereafter as any of the debentures remain outstanding, the Governor shall, in each half-year ending as aforesaid, appropriate out of the revenues and assets of this colony an additional sum equal to ten shillings sterling per centum on the total nominal amount of all the debentures issued on or before the first day of that half-year, including any which may have been redeemed, and remit that sum to the Crown Agents with the remittance hereinbefore mentioned. Mode of providing for payment of interest and principal.
- 11 The Crown Agents shall, subject to the approval of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies for the time being, place and keep the moneys so remitted to them, or so much thereof as may not be required for immediate payments, on deposit at interest in their names with some bank or banks in London or Westminster, and shall hold all such moneys and the accumulations thereon in trust, to apply them, in the first place, in payment of the interest for the current half-year upon the debentures for the time being outstanding, and, in the next place, in the formation of a sinking fund. Application of moneys remitted to Crown Agents.

Nánu-oya Railway.

Payment of interest.

12 The interest upon the principal secured by each debenture shall run from the day named in that behalf in the debenture, and shall be paid half-yearly, on the days named in that behalf in the debenture, at the office in London of the Crown Agents.

Application of sinking fund.

13 The sinking fund shall be applied in the first place in payment of all expenses of, or incidental to, the redemption of debentures, including the charges of the notary public attending at any drawing thereof, and the costs and expenses of all notices required by this Ordinance to be given, and in the next place, and subject to the aforesaid payments, in repayment of the principal moneys for the time being secured by the debentures.

Debentures to be redeemed by purchase or by annual drawings.

14 The debentures shall, at the option of the Crown Agents, subject to the approval of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies for the time being, be redeemed either by purchase in the open market or by annual drawings, and, subject to the aforesaid payments, the sum to be applied annually to such redemption shall correspond as nearly as may be to, but not exceed, the amount for the time being standing to the credit of the sinking fund.

Appointment of day for drawing of debentures.

15 So long as any of the debentures remain outstanding and unsatisfied, the Crown Agents shall in every year, after the day on which the first of the debentures is issued, unless the whole of the money applicable in that year to the redemption of debentures has been applied in the purchase thereof, appoint a day in that year for the drawing by lot of the debentures to be redeemed.

Notice of time and place appointed for drawing.

16 If a day is appointed for drawing, the Crown Agents shall give, by advertisement in the London Times newspaper, not less than fifteen days' previous notice, specifying the day on which, and the hour and place at which, the drawing will take place, and the nominal amount of the debentures to be redeemed at that drawing.

Mode of drawing.

17 On the day and at the hour and place so specified the Crown Agents shall hold a meeting, at which the holder of any debenture may, if he think fit, be present, and shall then in the presence of such debenture-holders (if any) as may attend, and of a notary public, draw by lot out of the whole number of debentures for the time being outstanding debentures of the specified nominal amount.

Notice of debentures drawn for redemption.

18 The Crown Agents shall thereupon declare the distinguishing numbers of the debentures drawn for redemption, and shall, as soon as may be, by advertisement in the London Times newspaper, specify those numbers and appoint a day (not being later as to each debenture than the day on which the then current half-year's interest thereon is payable) on which the principal moneys secured by the debentures so distinguished will be repaid.

Payment of drawn debentures.

19 On the day so appointed the Crown Agents shall at their office in London, on demand, pay to the holders of the Weights and Measures.

debentures drawn for repayment the principal moneys secured by those debentures, with all interest payable thereon up to that day.

20 From and after the day appointed for the repayment of any debenture, all interest on the principal moneys secured thereby shall cease and determine, whether payment of the principal have or have not been demanded.

Cesser of interest from day appointed for payment of principal.

21 Upon the repayment of the principal moneys secured by any debenture, the debenture with all the coupons thereunto belonging shall be delivered up to the Crown Agents, to be by them cancelled and forwarded to the Government of Ceylon. Any debenture redeemed by purchase shall likewise be so cancelled and forwarded.

Redeemed debentures to be cancelled.

22 No money applied in redemption of a debenture shall be re-borrowed, and no debenture shall be issued in respect of, or in substitution for, any cancelled debenture.

Money repaid not to be re-borrowed.

14th December, 1878.

No. 14 of 1878.An Ordinance to amend "The Weights and Measures Ordinance, 1876."

(See No. 8 of 1876.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend "The Weights and Measures Ordinance, 1876:" It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the same day on which "The Weights and Measures Ordinance, 1876," shall come into operation, as provided by the 16th section of that Ordinance.*

Commencement of Ordinance.

2 This Ordinance and "The Weights and Measures Ordinance, 1876," shall for all purposes be read as one Ordinance.

Ordinance to be read as one with the Ordinance No. 8 of 1876.

3 The copies of the standard weights and measures provided under the 3rd section of "The Weights and Measures Ordinance, 1876," shall for all the purposes of that Ordinance and of this Ordinance be deemed and taken to be true and correct copies of the standards which they purport or are intended to represent.

Copies of standards provided by Government to be deemed true copies.

4 The 10th and 11th sections of "The Weights and Measures Ordinance, 1876," are hereby severally repealed.

Repeal of sections 10 and 11 of Ordinance No. 8 of 1876.

5 In using a measure of capacity, the same shall not be heaped, but either shall be stricken with a round stick or roller, straight and of the same diameter from end to end, or, if the article cannot from its size or shape be conveniently stricken, shall be filled in all parts as nearly to the level of the brim as the size and shape of the article will admit.

Heaped measure prohibited.

* Proclaimed the 1st day of May, 1879.

Tolls.

Examiners to examine weights and measures and seize false ones.

6 The examiners of weights and measures appointed under "The Weights and Measures Ordinance, 1876," may at any time, and shall at least twice in every year (having first been sworn or affirmed duly and faithfully to exercise such office), enter into or upon the store, shop, boutique, house, stall, or standing place of every person buying, selling, dealing in, despatching, carrying, delivering, or receiving by weight or measure any wares or goods within the district or locality for which such examiners are appointed, and then and there shall search for, view, and examine all weights, measures, balances, steelyards, and weighing machines in such premises, and shall seize any weight or measure representing or intended to represent or be used as any of the weights or measures mentioned in the schedule to "The Weights and Measures Ordinance, 1876," and not being according to the standards declared by that Ordinance, or not duly stamped as required by that Ordinance, or any false or unequal balance, steelyard, or weighing machines which may upon such search be found therein, and shall detain the same to be produced before the court at the trial of the offender under the following section.*

In contracts affecting parchment coffee such coffee to be measured by one-bushel measure in absence of express stipulation.

8 Every contract for the sale, purchase, carriage, despatch, or delivery of parchment coffee by the bushel, or for dealing in or doing anything to parchment coffee by the bushel, shall be deemed to be made according to the one-bushel measure and to no larger measure than the one-bushel measure, unless otherwise expressly stipulated in writing.

19th December, 1878.

No. 6 of 1879.

An Ordinance to further amend "The Toll Ordinance, 1867."

(See No. 14 of 1867.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS the fourth section of "The Toll Ordinance, 1867," provides for exemptions from toll in manner therein appearing, and it is deemed expedient to create further exemptions in favour of substances used for checking leaf-disease in the island: It is therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Toll Ordinance, 1867, further Amendment Ordinance, 1879."

Governor may exempt certain substances from toll.

2 It shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to declare an exemption from toll in favour of any substance or substances in use for checking leaf-disease in coffee and other plantations in the island.

* Section 7 is repealed by "The Criminal Procedure Code, 1883."

Colombo Waterworks.

3 After the publication in the Government Gazette of such Proclamation no toll shall be demanded or taken for or in respect of any horse, ox, vehicle, boat, or canoe, when employed or going to be or returning from being employed in carrying or conveying only the substance or substances specified for exemption from toll in such Proclamation, or only such substance or substances, together with any other substance or substances exempted from toll by the Toll Ordinance aforesaid, or by Proclamation under the Ordinance No. 7 of 1875, or by any Proclamation in force under this Ordinance, and the necessary implements used for loading the substances exempted, and in the case of boats the necessary tackle, apparel, and provisions of such boats and the crew thereof.

No toll to be taken in respect of exempted substances.

4 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, by further Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to revoke, alter, or amend such Proclamation as aforesaid.

Governor may revoke Proclamation.

5 This Ordinance and the Ordinance No. 14 of 1867 shall be read and construed as one Ordinance.

To be read with No. 14 of 1867.

25th November, 1879.

No. 7 of 1879.

An Ordinance for the raising by Debentures of a sum of Two hundred and Ninety-one thousand Pounds for the construction of Waterworks for and on behalf of the Municipality of Colombo.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the construction of waterworks for and on behalf of the Municipality of Colombo: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Colombo Waterworks Ordinance, 1879."

Short title.

2 It shall be lawful for the Governor to raise by the issue of debentures under this Ordinance any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole two hundred and ninety-one thousand pounds sterling, to be applied exclusively for the purpose of the construction of waterworks for the town of Colombo, and in the purchase of such material, plant, rolling stock, and other things as may be required for or in connection with such works.

Power to borrow £291,000 sterling on debentures.

3 The principal moneys and interest secured by the debentures issued under this Ordinance are hereby charged upon and shall be payable out of the general revenues and assets of the Government of Ceylon.

Loan to be a charge upon general revenues.

- 4 Every debenture issued under this Ordinance shall be for a sum of not less than one hundred pounds sterling, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum.
- 5 The debentures shall be issued in London on behalf of the Government of Ceylon by the Crown Agents for the Colonies (in this Ordinance referred to as the Crown Agents), and shall be signed by them on that behalf.
- 6 Every debenture shall, before being issued, be registered in a register book to be kept for that purpose at the office in London of the Crown Agents.
- 7 There shall be attached to every debenture coupons for the payment of the interest to become due in each half-year upon the principal secured by the debenture. The coupons shall be sufficient in number to provide for the payment of the interest, either during the whole period for which the debenture has to run, or for such limited period as the Crown Agents, acting on behalf of the Government of Ceylon, may determine.
- 8 The debentures, and the coupons thereto, may be in such form as the Governor, or the Crown Agents acting on his behalf, may direct or approve.
- 9 Every debenture and coupon, and the right to receive the principal and interest secured or represented thereby, shall be transferable by delivery.
- 10 So long as any of the debentures remain outstanding the Governor shall in each half-year ending with the day on which the interest on the debentures falls due appropriate out of the general revenues and assets of this colony a sum equal to one half-year's interest on the whole of the debentures previously issued, including any which may have been redeemed, and remit that sum to the Crown Agents at such time as will enable them to pay thereout the then current half-year's interest on the day when it falls due. After the expiration of five years from the day on which the first of the debentures is issued, and so long thereafter as any of the debentures remain outstanding, the Governor shall, in each half-year ending as aforesaid, appropriate out of the revenues and assets of this colony an additional sum equal to ten shillings sterling per centum on the total nominal amount of all the debentures issued on or before the first day of that half-year, including any which may have been redeemed, and remit that sum to the Crown Agents with the remittance hereinbefore mentioned.
- 11 The Crown Agents shall, subject to the approval of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies for the time being, place and keep the moneys so remitted to them, or so much thereof as may not be required for immediate payments, on deposit at interest in their names with some bank or banks in London or Westminster, and 21 Upon the repayment of the principal moneys secured by any debenture, the debenture with all the coupons thereunto belonging shall be delivered up to the Crown Agents, to be by them cancelled and forwarded to the Government of Ceylon. Any debenture redeemed by purchase shall likewise be so cancelled and forwarded.

Money repaid not to be re-borrowed.

22 No money applied in redemption of a debenture shall be re-borrowed, and no debenture shall be issued in respect of, or in substitution for, any cancelled debenture.

1st December, 1879.

No. 9 of 1879.

An Ordinance to provide for the validity of the registration of certain Marriages, Births, and Deaths made in certain Districts in the Southern Province of this Island.

(See No. 6 of 1847.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS by the Ordinance No. 6 of 1847, intituled "An Ordinance to amend in certain respects the Law of Marriages and to provide for the better registration of Marriages, Births, and Deaths," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to establish from time to time such and so many districts within any of the provinces of the said island as shall appear expedient for the purposes of registration under the said Ordinance; and to appoint one Registrar-General of Marriages in this colony, one provincial registrar in each of the provinces thereof, and one or more registrar or registrars to each of such districts:

And whereas by virtue thereof the Southern Province of the said island of Ceylon was by a Proclamation dated the thirty-first day of January in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Sixty-seven, under the hand of His Excellency Sir Hercules George Robert Robinson, the then Governor of Ceylon, divided into twenty-three districts:

Irregular Registration.

And whereas by the Ordinance No. 18 of 1867, intituled "An Ordinance relating to the registration of Births and Deaths," it is provided that for the purpose of the said Ordinance the Registrar-General, the provincial registrars, and the district registrars of marriages shall also respectively be and act as Registrar-General, provincial and district registrars of births and deaths, and that the division of each province of this island into districts for the registry of marriages shall also form the division for the registry of births and deaths :

And whereas provision is further made by the said Ordinances for the solemnization and registration by district registrars of marriages, births, and deaths occurring within the several districts respectively :

And whereas Francis Ernest Gunaratna, Don Carolis de Alwis Samarasinha Gunawardhana, and Don Alexander de Silva Madanayaka were appointed district registrars of marriages, births, and deaths for the district comprising the town, fort, and four gravets of Galle and Akmimana, in the Southern Province :

And whereas Don David de Silva Abhayawikkrama was appointed district registrar of marriages, births, and deaths for the district of Gangaboda pattu in the aforesaid province :

And whereas Abraham de Silva Wirasekhara was appointed district registrar of marriages, births, and deaths for the Ambalangoda district in the aforesaid province :

And whereas each of them, the said Francis Ernest Gunaratna, Don Carolis de Alwis Samarasinha Gunawardhana, and Don Alexander de Silva Madanayaka, have on divers occasions owing to inadvertence acted as registrars of marriages, births, and deaths which occurred out of their respective jurisdictions, (to wit) in the villages of Mabotuwana, Natewala, Kimbiya, Talgampola, and Udubettawa, in the district of Gangaboda pattu :

And whereas Don David de Silva Abhayawikkrama has on divers occasions owing to inadvertence acted as registrar of marriages, births, and deaths which occurred out of his jurisdiction, (to wit) in Ambana, Pinikahana, Kahaduwa, Polgahavila, and Waturavila, of the Wellaboda pattu, and in Niyagama and Horangalla, of the district of Bentota :

And whereas Abraham de Silva Wirasekhara has on divers occasions through inadvertence acted as registrar of marriages, births, and deaths which occurred out of his jurisdiction, (to wit) in Duwa and Godahena of the district of Wellaboda pattu :

And whereas the said Francis Ernest Gunaratna, Don Carolis de Alwis Samarasinha Gunawardhana, Don Alexander de Silva Madanayaka, Don David de Silva Abhayawikkrama, and Abraham de Silva Wirasekhara did solemnize and register, and act as registrars in and about divers of such marriages, births, and deaths :

Irregular Registration.

And whereas it is expedient to remove all doubts as to the validity and sufficiency for all purposes of such solemnization and registration, notwithstanding such irregularity as aforesaid: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Irregular
declared valid.

1 The solemnization and registration of all marriages and the registration of all births and deaths which shall have occurred up to the date of the passing hereof in the said villages Mabotuwana, Natewala, Kimbiya, Talgampola, Udubettawa, and shall have been registered before the date of the passing hereof, by the said Francis Ernest Gunaratna, Don Carolis de Alwis Samarasinha Gunawardhana, and Don Alexander de Silva Madanayaka, and which shall have occurred up to the date of the passing hereof in the villages Ambana, Pinikahana, Kahaduwa, Polgahavila, Waturavila, of the Wellaboda pattu, and in Horangalla and Niyagama of the Bentota district, and shall have been registered before the date of the passing hereof by the said Don David de Silva Abhayawikkrama, and which shall have occurred up to the date of the passing hereof in the villages Duwa and Godahena in the Wellaboda pattu, and shall have been registered before the passing hereof by the said Abraham de Silva Wirasekhara;—shall be as valid and effectual for all purposes intended by or relating to or connected with the provisions of the aforesaid Ordinances No. 6 of 1847 and No. 18 of 1867, and of the amending Ordinances No. 13 of 1863, entitled “An Ordinance to amend in certain respects the Law of Marriages in this Island, and to provide for the due registration thereof,” and No. 8 of 1865, entitled “An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 13 of 1863,” as if the said Francis Ernest Gunaratna, Don Carolis de Alwis Samarasinha Gunawardhana, Don Alexander de Silva Madanayaka, Don David de Silva Abhayawikkrama, and Abraham de Silva Wirasekhara, had been respectively duly appointed registrars of the districts within which the said villages are situate at the respective dates of such registration and solemnization, and at the time when they so acted.

Certain villages declared parts of certain districts up to passing of this Ordinance.

2 Up to the date of the passing hereof, but not thereafter, the villages of Mabotuwana, Natewala, Kimbiya, Talgampola, and Udubettawa shall be taken to belong to and be part of the district of the town, fort, and four gravets of Galle and Akmimana; and the villages Ambana, Pinikahana, Kahaduwa, Polgahavila, Waturavila, Horangalla, and Niyagama shall be taken to belong to and be part of the district of Gangaboda pattu; and the villages of Duwa and Godahena shall be taken to belong to and be part of the district of Ambalangoda for the purposes of registration, and the district registrars of marriages, births, and deaths of the town, fort, and four gravets of Galle and Akmimana, and of the Gangaboda pattu, and of the Ambalangoda district, respectively, shall have jurisdiction over such villages aforesaid up to the date of the passing hereof, but not thereafter, anything to the contrary notwithstanding.

Tolls.

3 All notices which shall have been given to the aforementioned district registrars of marriages of intended marriages out of their respective jurisdictions, and on which certificates have not been issued in pursuance of the 9th clause of the Ordinance No. 13 of 1863, and after the issue of which three months have not elapsed, shall, at the passing of this Ordinance, be transferred to the district registrars having lawful jurisdiction in that behalf; and such last mentioned registrars shall, on receipt of such notices, and if the said notices be otherwise regular, issue the certificates by the said 9th clause provided; and such certificates shall be as valid and effectual as if the preliminary notices had been given to such last mentioned registrars themselves.

Notices upon which certificates have not been issued transferred to right registrars, who may issue them.

4 Nothing herein contained shall give any validity to the solemnization or registration of any marriage or registration of births and deaths, so irregularly solemnized and registered as aforesaid, except so far as relates to defects thereof caused by the non-appointment of the said registrars, respectively, for the districts, respectively, within which the said villages are situate.

No other defect cured in such registration.

1st December, 1879. ———

No. 10 of 1879.

An Ordinance to establish further Tolls, and to discontinue certain Tolls.

(See No. 14 of 1867.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to establish the tolls herein-after specified, and to discontinue certain tolls also hereinafter specified: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 From and after the first day of January, 1880, tolls shall be established on and in respect of the following roads, viz.:

Establishment of certain tolls.

On the road from Galle to Mátara at Paraduawatta between the turn to Buona Vista Hill and the 7¼ mile (from Colombo) to Mátara.

On the road from Wellampitiya to Dematagoda between the Urugodawatta canal and the North and South Base Line road.

On the Urugodawatta road at a point east of its junction with the Base Line road.

On the road from Wádduwa to Morontuduwa between the 2nd and 3rd mileposts.

On the road from Kotadeniyáwa to Mirigama near the railway level crossing at Mugurugampola.

2 From and after the first day of January, 1880, the levy of tolls hitherto established in respect of the following bridges and roads shall be discontinued, viz.:

*Colonial Seamen.Licensed Boatmen.No. 3 of 1880.*An Ordinance relating to Shipwrecked Colonial Seamen in distress in the United Kingdom.

WHEREAS it is desirable to make provision for the relief of colonial seamen in distress in the United Kingdom : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

The term "colonial seaman" shall mean a seaman who last served in a ship registered in this colony.

If any colonial seaman becomes distressed in the United Kingdom by reason of shipwreck, and shall be relieved and sent home by "The Shipwrecked Mariners' Society," the Governor is hereby authorized, on the requisition of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, to issue a warrant on the Treasurer in the usual manner for the repayment of any fair and reasonable sum of money which may have been advanced for that purpose, and the Treasurer is hereby directed to pay such sum to the person or persons authorized to receive the same.

13th October, 1880. _____

Preamble.Interpretation clause.

Treasurer to pay such reasonable sums expended by Shipwrecked Mariners' Society on relief of colonial seamen in United Kingdom as the Governor by warrant shall order.

No. 6 of 1880.An Ordinance for the regulation and government of Boatmen employed in Licensed Boats.

WHEREAS it is necessary that provision should be made for regulating and governing boatmen to be employed in licensed boats under the provisions of "The Masters Attendant's Ordinance, 1865": It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 This Ordinance shall be construed as one with "The Masters Attendant's Ordinance, 1865," hereinafter referred to as the principal Ordinance, and may be cited as "The Boatmen's Ordinance, 1880."

2 This Ordinance shall extend to the port of Colombo only, but the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may by Proclamation extend it to any other port or ports to which the provisions of the principal Ordinance extend.

3 The term "licensed boat" shall mean any licensed boat when employed in carrying passengers for hire.

4 From and after the first day of January, 1881, every person to be employed as a boatman in, or to serve as one of the crew, or in any capacity on board of any licensed boat, shall be duly licensed for that purpose as hereinafter provided.

Preamble.

To be construed as one with "The Masters Attendant's Ordinance, 1865." Short title.

Ordinance to apply to Colombo, with power to Governor and Executive Council to extend it to other ports.

Interpretation.Boatmen to be licensed.

Licensed Boatmen.

Master attendant to keep register of licensed boatmen ; particulars to be entered therein, and shall issue license to boatmen.

May refuse to issue license.

Licensed boatmen to have badges and to wear them.

Provision for lost badges.

Boatmen to be under control of master attendant.

Master attendant, with approval of the Governor and Executive Council, may make rules for the government of licensed boatmen. Every boatman and tindal to be furnished with a copy of such rules.

Offences.

5 It shall be the duty of the master attendant to register in a book to be kept for that purpose, and to be called "The Register of Licensed Boatmen," in numerical order, the name, description, and such other particulars as may be necessary for identification, of every person applying to be licensed to be employed as a boatman, and he shall thereupon issue to such person a license to be employed as aforesaid, which license shall bear the registered number of the applicant, and shall be in the form in the schedule hereto, and shall be in force for such time as shall be mentioned therein, and the date of such license, together with the period for which it shall be granted, shall be registered in "The Register of Licensed Boatmen." Provided, however, that the master attendant may, for good cause, refuse to issue a license to any person applying therefor, and may from time to time renew any license which may have expired, and such refusal or renewal shall be duly registered in the register.

6 The master attendant shall cause to be delivered to each licensed boatman a badge of uniform pattern, bearing thereon the number of his license, the cost of which shall be paid by the person to whom the same is delivered, and it shall be the duty of every licensed boatman, when acting as such, to wear such badge conspicuously exposed upon his person ; and in case the owner of such badge shall at any time satisfy the master attendant that such badge has been lost or destroyed, it shall be lawful for the master attendant to cause another badge to be delivered to such boatman upon his paying the cost thereof.

7 All boatmen licensed under this Ordinance shall be subject and liable to the orders, directions, and control of the master attendant, who is hereby invested with full power and authority to carry into execution the provisions of this Ordinance.

8 Rules for the government of licensed boatmen under this Ordinance shall from time to time be prepared by the master attendant, which rules, when approved by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and published in the Government Gazette, shall have the effect of law ; and the master attendant shall cause every licensed boatman and the tindal of every licensed boat to be furnished with a copy of such rules in the English, Sinhalese, and Tamil languages.

9 The following shall be offences under this Ordinance :

- (1) Any person who shall employ, or permit to be employed, or to act, or to serve as a boatman, or as one of the crew, or in any capacity on board of a licensed boat, any unlicensed person ;
- (2) Any unlicensed person who shall be employed, or who shall act, or serve as a boatman, or as one of the crew, or in any capacity on board of a licensed boat ;

Licensed Boatmen.

- (3) Any licensed boatman who shall violate any rule to be made under the authority of this or the principal Ordinance ;
- (4) Any licensed boatman who shall act as such, without wearing his proper badge exposed in a conspicuous manner ;
- (5) Any licensed boatman who shall disobey any lawful order given by the master attendant ;
- (6) Any licensed boatman who, while employed as such, shall use violent or abusive language to any passenger, or who shall threaten or molest any passenger, or who shall by any means extort any money from any passenger ;
- (7) Any unlicensed person who shall use or exhibit, with intent to deceive, a boatman's badge, or any false badge, intended to represent, or representing a licensed boatman's badge ;
- (8) Any licensed boatman who shall use or exhibit any badge other than his own ;

and the offender shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding one month.

Penalties.

10 If any licensed boatman shall be convicted of any offence against this Ordinance, the master attendant may, in addition to any penalty which may have been imposed upon the offender, suspend or cancel the license of such boatman, and any boatman whose license shall have been suspended as aforesaid shall, for the purpose of this Ordinance, during the period of such suspension, be deemed an unlicensed person.

Master attendant may suspend or cancel boatman's license.

11 When the license of any boatman shall have expired and shall not have been renewed, or when it has been cancelled or suspended, under the provisions of the previous section, the master attendant shall cause an entry thereof to be made in the register, and the boatman whose license shall have expired and shall not have been renewed, or whose license shall have been cancelled or suspended, shall forthwith deliver up to the master attendant his license and badge, and it shall be the duty of the master attendant to return to the person whose license shall have expired and shall not have been renewed, or whose license shall have been cancelled, the original cost of such badge, and to return to the person whose license has been suspended his license and badge, when his period of suspension has expired ; and any licensed person who shall neglect or refuse to deliver up his license and badge as required by this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding one month.

When boatman's license has been cancelled or suspended, entry thereof to be made in register, and license and badge to be delivered up.

Cost of badge to be returned when license expires.

Penalty on neglecting to deliver up license and badge.

12 Any police court shall have jurisdiction over any offence against this Ordinance.

An Ordinance to provide for taking a Census from time to time.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the taking of a census from time to time, and at convenient times: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Census.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Census Ordinance, 1880."

2 The Ordinance No. 5 of 1868 is hereby repealed.

3 The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may from time to time by Proclamation appoint that a census be taken at such time as shall be notified in such Proclamation.

4 The Governor may appoint an officer to superintend the taking of any census.

5 The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may make such rules as he may deem necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this Ordinance, and may attach penalties for the breach of any rule so made, to be recovered and enforced in the same and the like manner as penalties imposed by this Ordinance. Provided that no greater or higher penalty shall be imposed by such rules than is imposed by this Ordinance, and such rules shall come into operation upon being published in the Gazette.

6 Unless it shall be otherwise directed by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, the government agent of a province shall be commissioner of his province, and the chairman of every municipality and local board shall be commissioner within the limits of such municipality and local board. Every such commissioner shall appoint enumerators, and shall assign a division to each enumerator, and shall distribute to every enumerator in his district the schedules which shall have been issued for that purpose.

7 Schedules shall be prepared for the purpose of being filled up by or on behalf of the several occupiers of dwelling houses as hereinafter provided, with particulars of the name, sex, age, profession or occupation, relation to head of family, nationality, and religion of every person who abode in every house at the time appointed for the taking of the census, and also whether any were able to read or write or both, and whether any were blind, deaf, dumb, or insane. Every enumerator shall, previous to the time appointed for the taking of the census, leave or cause to be left at every dwelling house within his division one or more of the said schedules for the occupier or occupiers thereof or of any part thereof, and upon every schedule shall be plainly expressed that it is to be filled up by the occupier of such dwelling house (or where such dwelling house is let or sub-let in different apartments, and occupied distinctly by different persons or families, by the occupier of each such apartment), and that the enumerator will collect all such schedules within his division within twenty-four hours next following the time appointed for the taking of the census; and every occupier of any dwelling house or of any apartment in any dwelling house, with or for whom any such schedule shall have been left as aforesaid, shall fill up the said schedule to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, so far as relates to all persons dwelling in the house or apartment occupied by him or her, and shall sign his or her name

- (3) The expression "superintendent" shall mean any person in the immediate charge of any estate.
- (4) The expression "labourer" shall include every labourer, whether male or female, and the children of such labourers, and every kankani.

3 The Government shall cause provision to be made for the medical care of labourers employed on estates.

6 The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may, for the purposes of this Ordinance, by Proclamation in the Gazette, group together estates into districts, and may in the same and in the like manner from time to time amend the grouping of any district or districts, or abolish any district, or create a new district or new districts.

7 For every district it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint a medical officer, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the Governor, and shall have the medical charge of the district for which he shall be appointed, and shall be under the direction of the Principal Civil Medical Officer, and shall be liable to be removed from one district to another as the Governor may from time to time deem expedient.

8 The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall appoint a salary for each district medical officer, not exceeding in any case four thousand rupees a year, with an increase of five hundred rupees a year after five years' service, and a further increase of five hundred rupees a year after ten years' service, and the past services of such of the present district medical officers who may be appointed shall count towards increment of salary. The Governor, with the like advice, may assign to each medical officer such an allowance as may be necessary to cover his travelling expenses.

9 For every district for which the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, shall deem it expedient, it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint one or more medical assistants, who shall reside at the hospital of the district or such other place as may be appointed, and shall receive a salary on first appointment not exceeding one thousand rupees, which may be increased to a salary not exceeding one thousand five hundred rupees.

10 For every district there shall be appointed a district hospital, to which may be attached one or more dispensaries.

11 The Governor may appoint the existing Government civil hospitals to be hospitals for any district.

12 The Governor may appoint any district hospital or dispensary established under the authority of the Ordinance No. 14 of 1872 as a district hospital or dispensary under this Ordinance. Provided always that whenever any such hospitals shall be appointed a district hospital or dispensary under this Ordinance, the same shall thereupon vest in and become the property of the Crown for the purposes of this Ordinance.

20 The following duties are hereby imposed on every superintendent of an estate :

Duties imposed on superintendents.

- (a) To maintain the lines on the estate in fair sanitary condition ;
- (b) To inform himself of all cases of sickness on the estate, and to take such steps as he may deem best for the immediate relief of the sick ;
- (c) To send labourers to hospital as required by the 13th clause ;
- (d) To send for the district medical officer in any case of serious illness or accident ;
- (e) To inform the district medical officer within forty-eight hours of every birth or death upon the estate ;
- (f) To keep a register of immigrant labourers employed on the estate, and of all immigrant labourers arriving or departing therefrom, and of all births and deaths upon the estate, in such form as may be prescribed by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council ;
- (g) To supply every female labourer employed upon the estate, and giving birth thereon to a child, with sufficient food and lodging for fourteen days after the birth of such child, and to take care that the female labourer be not required to work on the estate for one month, unless the district medical officer shall report sooner that she is fit to work.

Any superintendent who shall refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties hereby imposed on superintendents shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Medical Wants of Planting Districts.

Duties imposed on kankani.

21 It shall be the duty of every kankani employed upon an estate to give information to the superintendent of every case of sickness in his gang, and any kankani who shall neglect or refuse to give such information to the superintendent shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees.

Governor in Council may make rules.

22 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make regulations for the following purposes, and from time to time to revoke, alter, or amend such regulations :

- (a) For the guidance of the district medical officers and medical assistants in their duties ;
- (b) For the regulation and management of the district hospitals and dispensaries, and the maintenance of order and cleanliness therein, and for the issue at prime cost of medicines to superintendents for the use of labourers ;
- (c) For regulating the private practice of the district medical officers, so that it shall not interfere with their duties under the Ordinance, and for settling the fees to be paid by proprietors, superintendents, or assistant superintendents to the district medical officer for medical attendance ;
- (d) To provide for keeping by the medical officer at each hospital or dispensary under his charge a register of all cases treated therein, whether as in or out-patients ;
- (e) Prescribing and regulating returns to be made in relation to his duties by the medical officer.

The regulations so made shall be published in the Government Gazette, and a printed copy of the regulations made for the management of district hospitals and dispensaries, respectively, shall be hung up for public information in every district hospital or dispensary.

Recovery of money due for subsistence and medical attendance.

23 When any sum of money shall be payable under the 15th or 19th clause of this Ordinance, it shall be the duty of the government agent to give notice in writing to the superintendent of the estate in respect of which the same is payable, requiring the payment thereof within one month after such notice, and in default of such payment it shall be lawful for the government agent or any person authorized by him in writing in that behalf to seize, once or oftener, all the crops, live stock, and implements, or any part thereof found on the estate, liable in respect of such sum, or any other article or thing whatsoever belonging to the proprietor or any of the proprietors of such estate, until the full amount due by such estate shall be recovered. If there be no sufficient crops, live stock, or implements on such estate to realize the amount due, it shall be lawful for the government agent or other person authorized as aforesaid to cause the timber on the said estate to be cut, or the materials of the buildings erected thereon to be removed, and to sell the same. And unless the sum due shall be sooner paid, with the costs and charges incurred in respect of such seizure, it shall be lawful for such government agent or any person as aforesaid to sell the property so seized by public auction at any time after thirty days from the date of seizure; perishable property, however, may be sold within ten days from the date of such seizure. Provided, however, that no seizure shall take place under this clause for any sum of money which shall have been in arrear for a period of one year.

24 Any property so seized as aforesaid may be removed for safe custody, pending the sale thereof, to such place as the person directing the seizure may think fit; and in the case of the seizure of any property which cannot conveniently be removed, it shall be lawful for the person making the seizure to place and keep a person in possession thereof pending such sale.

Removal of property seized or keeping same in charge.

25 The costs and charges of seizure and sale shall also be payable from the proceeds of the property seized, and they shall be as follows :

Costs of seizure and sale.

- (1) For cost of proceeding to the house or land of the party in default in order to seize property,—a charge not exceeding eight per centum on the amount due.
- (2) For removal of the goods seized, in case such removal takes place,—a charge not exceeding eight per centum on the amount due.
- (3) For keeping the same in safe custody in case of such removal,—a charge not exceeding fifty cents per day.
- (4) For keeping a person in possession, if the goods seized are not removed,—a charge not exceeding fifty cents per day.
- (5) For the expenses of sale, where any takes place,—a charge not exceeding two and a half per centum on the net produce of the sale.

26 It shall be lawful for the government agent or person authorized as aforesaid to break open or cause to be broken open in the day time any house or building for the purpose of seizing property in pursuance of this Ordinance, if he shall have affixed to a conspicuous part of such house or building, three clear days previously, a notice of his intention so to do.

Buildings may be broken open.

27 In the event of a sale of property seized, the government agent at whose instance such seizure was made shall, after deducting the amount due by the defaulter, and also the costs and charges payable under clause 25, restore the overplus arising from such sale, if any there be, to the owner of the property sold.

Return of overplus.

28 Whoever shall wilfully obstruct any person in the performance of any duty imposed upon him or in the exercise of any authority vested in or conferred upon him under or by virtue of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three months.

Obstructing persons acting under this Ordinance.

Date of operation.

3 This Ordinance and the principal Ordinance shall together come into operation on the first day of January, 1883.

Special fund to defray cost of medical care of labourers.

4 For the purpose of providing a special fund to defray the cost of the medical care of labourers on estates under this and the principal Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time by Proclamation in the Gazette, to impose a duty, and the same from time to time to increase or reduce, not exceeding ten cents per hundred-weight on coffee, tea, and cocoa, and twenty cents per hundred-weight on cinchona, which duty shall be levied at the customs on the entry for exportation of all coffee, tea, cocoa, and cinchona, and shall be payable to, and shall be collected and received by, the proper officers of the customs department; and the payment thereof shall be enforced under the provisions of the Ordinance No. 17 of 1869, intituled "An Ordinance for the General Regulation of Customs in the Island of Ceylon."

To be called the "Medical Aid Fund."

5 The duty to be collected under the authority of the last preceding clause shall be paid into the Treasury, and shall be carried to the credit of a fund to be called the "Medical Aid Fund," and shall be applied and devoted to defray the expenses incurred under this Ordinance, and to no other purpose whatever. And an account current of such fund shall be made up annually and published in the Gazette for general information.

Governor to appoint superintending medical officers. Salaries of officers so appointed.

6 It shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint superintending medical officers, not exceeding three in number, for the purposes of this Ordinance, and to assign to them salaries commencing at five thousand rupees per annum, and rising by quinquennial increments of five hundred rupees until a maximum salary of eight thousand rupees is reached. Such officers shall receive, when travelling on duty, a daily allowance not exceeding ten rupees, and shall be under the direction of the Principal Civil Medical Officer.

Duties of superintending medical officers.

7 It shall be the duty of each superintending medical officer—
To visit the cooly lines upon every estate in the districts which may be assigned to him by the Governor, at least once in every six months, and upon the occasion of each visit to call the attention of the superintendent to any defect in the sanitary condition of the cooly lines.

To inspect the labourers employed on the estate with a view of ascertaining their state of health and whether they have been duly vaccinated.

To inspect the hospitals and dispensaries within his district, and to inquire into any complaints which may have been made respecting the working of such hospitals or dispensaries.

Superintending officer may enter upon estates and send sick labourers to hospital.

8 The superintending medical officer shall have power to enter upon every estate within the districts assigned to him and visit the cooly lines thereon whenever he shall deem fit, and to send to the hospital of any district any labourer requiring medical treatment. Provided that whenever any hospital shall be appointed a district hospital under the principal Ordinance, or a dispensary under this Ordinance, any residences attached or appertaining thereto shall, if ordered by the Governor to be taken over, vest in and become the property of the Crown for the purposes of this Ordinance.

Existing district hospitals may be made dispensaries.

9 It shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint existing district hospitals or other buildings to be dispensaries, to be placed in charge of medical assistants, and to assign to such medical assistants salaries commencing at one thousand five hundred rupees per annum, and rising by quinquennial increments of two hundred and fifty rupees to two thousand rupees, with such horse or travelling allowance as the Governor may in his discretion assign to such assistants, and it shall also be lawful for the Governor to appoint, if need be, licentiates of the Ceylon Medical College to be district medical officers, medical assistants, or dispensers under this Ordinance.

Salaries of medical assistants.

10 It shall be the duty of each district medical officer to visit the hospital of his district daily, and it shall also be the duty, as far as may be practicable, of each medical assistant, upon being required in writing so to do by the superintendent of any estate in his district, to visit any sick labourer on such estate, and for every such last mentioned visit to an estate the estate shall be liable for the payment into the kachchéri of a fee of two rupees and fifty cents, which fee shall be recoverable in the manner provided in the 23rd section of the principal Ordinance, and shall be carried to the credit of the Medical Aid Fund.

Duties of district medical officers and medical assistants.

29 The Ordinance No. 14 of 1872, intituled "An Ordinance to provide for the Medical Wants of the Coffee Districts," is hereby repealed from and after the commencement of this Ordinance. Provided that this repeal shall not affect—

Repealing clause.

- (a) The past operation of the said Ordinance nor anything duly done or suffered under it ;
- (b) Nor any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under the said Ordinance ;
- (c) Nor any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against the said Ordinance ; nor
- (d) Any legal proceeding or remedy in respect of such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid.

No. 1 of 1881.

An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 1 of 1876, intituled "An Ordinance for the raising by Debentures of a further sum of Four Hundred Thousand Pounds Sterling for the improvement of the Harbour of Colombo."

(See No. 1 of 1876.)

WHEREAS it is desirable to amend in manner hereinafter appearing so much of the 9th clause of the Ordinance No. 1 of 1876 as would apply to the formation of a sinking fund for the repayment of money to be raised on debentures under the said Ordinance after the passing hereof : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Preamble.

Quarantine.

Date of first appropriation for sinking fund on future debentures under Ordinance No. 1 of 1876 assimilated to that prevailing for debentures first issued under Ordinance No. 9 of 1878.

1 The time for the appropriation of ten shillings sterling per centum provided by the said 9th clause for the formation of a sinking fund for the redemption of debentures issued under the authority of the said Ordinance shall, in respect of debentures issued after the passing of this Ordinance, begin after the expiration of five years from the day on which the first of the debentures under Ordinance No. 9 of 1878, intituled "An Ordinance for the raising by Debentures of a sum of One Million Pounds Sterling for the construction of a Railway from Nāwalapitiya to Nānu-oya," was issued.

26th October, 1881.

No. 3 of 1881.

An Ordinance to make provision for the recovery of Expenses incurred in enforcing Quarantine.

Preamble.

WHEREAS under the 10th clause of the Ordinance No. 8 of 1866, intituled "An Ordinance to provide against the spread of Contagious Diseases in this Island," authority is given to the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make such regulations or orders as may seem to be necessary and expedient for the purposes referred to in the said clause :

And whereas by a Regulation No. 6 made by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, under the authority of the said Ordinance, bearing date the eighth of August, 1877, it is provided that "it shall be lawful for the Principal Civil Medical Officer of the port, into which any vessel subject to quarantine shall enter, to allow the passengers to land before the expiration of the quarantine, and to require such passengers to perform their quarantine on shore in such place as such officer shall determine :"

And whereas it is desirable that provision should be made for the recovery of the quarantine expenses which may be incurred in respect of passengers who may be required to perform quarantine on shore, and also whereby such passengers who may have been left in the colony should be sent to the place of their destination at the cost of the vessel from which they may have been required to perform quarantine : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Master, agent, or consignee of ship landing passenger in quarantine to give security for his expenses.

1 Whenever any passenger shall have been landed at any place in the colony for the purpose of performing quarantine, the ship or vessel from which such passenger shall have been landed shall not be entitled to receive a port clearance until sufficient security to the satisfaction of the master attendant shall have been given by the master, agent, or consignee of such ship to the master attendant, for the repayment to the Government of all quarantine expenses which may have been incurred by the Government in respect of such passenger,

Volunteer Corps.

and also of the necessary passage money of such passenger to the place of his original destination, should such passenger not be conveyed thither in the ship or vessel from which he shall have been required to perform quarantine,

26th October, 1881.

No. 8 of 1881.

An Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 3 of 1861, intituled "An Ordinance to authorize the formation of Volunteer Corps in this Colony, and to provide for the good order and discipline thereof."

(See No. 3 of 1861.)

WHEREAS by the 15th and 16th clauses of the Ordinance No. 3 of 1861, intituled "An Ordinance to authorize the formation of Volunteer Corps in this Colony, and to provide for the good order and discipline thereof," reference is made to the Mutiny Act and Articles of War :

Preamble.

And whereas the discipline and regulation of Her Majesty's Forces are now provided for by "The Army Discipline Act, 1879," and by "The Army Act, 1881" :

And whereas "The Army Act, 1881," will come into force in this colony on the twenty-seventh day of February, 1882, on and from which date "The Army Discipline Act, 1879," will be repealed, and it is therefore necessary to amend the said Ordinance No. 3 of 1861 in manner hereinafter appearing : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

1 Wherever mention is made in the said Ordinance of "The Mutiny Act and Articles of War," the same shall be taken and construed to refer to "The Army Discipline Act, 1879," until the said last mentioned Act shall have been repealed, and thenceforward to "The Army Act, 1881."

Courts-martial and military offences of volunteers to be subject to "The Army Discipline Act, 1879," and "The Army Act, 1881," instead of "The Mutiny Act and Articles of War" as heretofore.

14th December, 1881.

No. 9 of 1881.

An Ordinance further to amend the Ordinance No. 3 of 1861, intituled "An Ordinance to authorize the formation of Volunteer Corps in this Colony, and to provide for the good order and discipline thereof."

(See No. 3 of 1861 and No. 17 of 1890.)

WHEREAS by the 5th and 6th clauses of the Ordinance No. 3 of 1861, intituled "An Ordinance to authorize the formation of Volunteer Corps in this Colony, and to provide for the good order and discipline thereof," it is

Preamble.

Volunteer Corps.

provided that rules and regulations of such corps of volunteers shall be made by the persons forming such corps, or the majority thereof, for certain purposes therein mentioned, which rules and regulations, when allowed by the Governor, with the consent of the Executive Council, and published in the Government Gazette, shall be valid and binding upon the persons belonging to the said corps and all other persons affected thereby :

And whereas it is desirable that powers should be given to the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make rules and regulations for the government of volunteer corps now or hereafter to be established under the said Ordinance, and also to repeal the said 5th and 6th clauses of the said Ordinance, and to empower such volunteer corps to make rules and regulations with regard to the matters hereinafter particularly mentioned : Be it enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Repealing clause.

1 The 5th and 6th clauses of the said Ordinance shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

Governor in Council may make regulations for certain objects.

2 The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may from time to time make regulations respecting anything required to be done or provided by the said Ordinance, and also such regulations as may seem fit, not being inconsistent with any of the provisions of the said Ordinance, respecting—

- (a) The appointment and promotion of officers ;
- (b) The assembling and proceedings of courts of inquiry to inquire into and report on any matter connected with the government or discipline of a volunteer corps ;
- (c) For the full execution of the said recited Ordinance No. 3 of 1861, and the general government and discipline of any volunteer force ; and may alter or repeal any such regulations, and may call for such returns as may from time to time seem requisite ; and such regulations or alterations regulating the same, when published in the Gazette, shall have the full force and effect of law.

Officers and volunteers may make rules for certain objects, subject to approval of Governor in Council.

3 The officers and volunteers belonging to a volunteer corps may from time to time make rules for the management of the property, finances, and civil affairs of the corps, and may alter or repeal any such rules, but any such rules shall not have effect unless and until the commanding officer of the corps thinks fit to transmit the same for the approval of the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and such approval is notified to the commanding officer of the corps, to be by him further communicated to the corps, whereupon the rules so approved shall be binding on all persons.*

* Power to enforce rules given by section 1 of No. 17 of 1890.

Tolls.

4 A copy of the rules in print or writing, or partly in print or partly in writing, certified under the hand of the commanding officer as a true copy of the rules, whereof the approval of the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been notified as aforesaid, shall be conclusive evidence of the rules of the corps.

Copies certified by commanding officer conclusive evidence of rules.

5 This Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the date upon which Her Majesty's assent thereto shall have been proclaimed in the Government Gazette of the colony, and not sooner.*

Date of Ordinance coming into operation.

6 Nothing herein contained shall affect any right or prerogative of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors.

Reservation of Her Majesty's prerogative.

14th December, 1881.

Municipalities. (By-laws, Colombo.)

No. 16 of 1881.

An Ordinance to amend "The Municipal Councils' Ordinance, 1865," and for other purposes.

9* The by-laws made by the Municipal Council of Colombo and set forth in the schedule hereto shall, so far as relates to the Municipality of Colombo, be in all respects and for all purposes whatever legal and effectual, and may be enforced in the same and the like manner as if the same had been inserted in the said Ordinance as part thereof. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be held or construed to prevent the making, approval, and publication in respect of the Municipality of Colombo of further substantive by-laws or by-laws in amendment, repeal of, or in addition to, such by-laws, or the by-laws herein contained, in the same and the like manner as is empowered to be done by the provisions of the said Ordinance.

By-laws set out in schedule to be as legal and effectual as if recited in Ordinance.

SCHEDULE A.

BY-LAWS OF THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF COLOMBO.

The Municipal Council of Colombo, under and by virtue of the provisions in "The Municipal Councils' Ordinance, 1865," do hereby enact as follows :

By-laws.

CHAPTER I.

Establishments.

1. The following offices are hereby created :—
 The office of Secretary to the Municipal Council.
 The office of Sanitary Officer.
 The office of Superintendent of Roads.
 The office of Interpreter to the Municipality.

Establishments.

CHAPTER II.

Conduct of Business.

2. The Municipal Council of Colombo shall meet at the Colombo town hall at three o'clock P.M. on the first and every alternate Tuesday in the year, unless the sittings shall have been specially adjourned to or fixed for some other day or hour by a resolution of council at a previous meeting.

Ordinary meetings.

3. Notice in writing of the date, time, and place of every adjourned meeting to be held on any other than the ordinary day of meeting shall be transmitted to each member of the council by the secretary, and delivered to each member or left at his residence twenty-four hours before the time fixed for such adjourned meeting—excepting when such meeting is to be held in pursuance of an adjournment from the preceding day.

Adjourned meetings.

* The remaining portions of this Ordinance were repealed by No. 7 1887.

Municipalities. (By-laws, Colombo.)

Special meetings.

4. Special meetings convened on the requisition of two members in terms of the 29th clause of "The Municipal Councils' Ordinance," shall be intimated to each member by written notice transmitted by the secretary, and delivered to each member or left at his residence forty-eight hours before the time of meeting ; which notice shall state the cause of meeting and the subjects to be then brought before such meeting ; and for this purpose the said cause and subjects shall be stated in the requisition for the meeting. And no matter shall be brought before or discussed at such special meeting which has not been stated in the requisition.

Quorum.

5. Five members of council shall form a quorum, and as soon as five members shall be present after the hour appointed for a meeting of the council, the person entitled to preside will take the chair, and the council will proceed to business. Should a quorum of members not be present at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or at any time during the sitting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the day for the next ordinary meeting.

Seniority of councillors.

6. For all purposes connected with the council, the precedence and seniority of councillors shall be regulated as follows :—After the chairman shall rank the members appointed by Government in the order in which they may have been gazetted ; after whom, the elected members in the order of the priority of their elections, and, in the case of former members re-elected, of the seniority of their continuous membership of council.

Secretary's office.

7. The secretary's office shall be in the place where the meetings of the municipal council are ordinarily held, and shall be open for the transaction of the business daily (except on holidays) from ten till five.

Duties of chairman.

8. The chairman shall preserve order and shall decide on all disputed points of order.

Order of business.

9. The business of the council at its meetings shall be taken in the following order, namely :

- (1) The chairman shall call on the secretary to read the minutes of the previous meeting, which shall thereupon be read and (if need be) corrected, and confirmed.
- (2) Memorials, petitions, complaints, and communications addressed to the council or chairman shall be laid before the council, and orders made thereon.
- (3) Questions, of which previous notice has been given, may be asked.
- (4) Notices of motions may be given, provided that it shall be competent to any member by consent of the chair to give notice of motion at any convenient time during the sittings.
- (5) Reports of officers shall be considered, or referred to committees.
- (6) Motions, of which previous notice has been given, may be made.
- (7) Reports of committees shall be brought up and a day fixed for their consideration, unless the council shall resolve to proceed to their consideration at once. It shall be competent to any member to move that any report be printed and circulated among the members before consideration thereof by the council ; and if such motion be seconded, the question shall be put to the vote.
- (8) Orders of the day, as set down in the order book, shall be proceeded with. Provided that a deviation from this order of business may be allowed by permission of the council.

Municipalities. (By-laws, Colombo.)

10. The council may at any time resolve themselves into a committee of the whole council; and on their resuming, the result of their deliberations shall be dealt with by the council.

CHAPTER III.

Petitions, &c.

- | | |
|--|----------------------------|
| 1. Any member presenting a petition or other communication will be held responsible for its contents being throughout respectful. | Contents of petitions, &c. |
| 2. When a petition or other communication is presented, the purport thereof shall be concisely stated. On the motion of any member, duly seconded, the question shall be put whether the document shall be read. | Presenting petitions, &c. |
| 3. In any case where individual rights or interests may be peculiarly affected by any act, order, or proceeding of council, all parties so affected may be heard, upon petition, before the council when in committee, either in person or by counsel. | Hearing petitioners. |
| 4. When it is intended to examine any witnesses, the petitioner or member of council requiring such witnesses shall deliver to the secretary, two days at least before the day appointed for their examination, a list containing the names, residences, and occupations of such witnesses. | List of witnesses. |
| 5. The secretary shall thereupon, under the sanction of the chairman, issue to each of the witnesses a summons in the form A hereunto annexed, and such summons shall be served by some person appointed in that behalf by the chairman, either by delivery thereof to the witness or by leaving it at his residence, forty-eight hours at least before the time appointed for his attendance. | Summoning witnesses. |
| 6. The evidence of every witness shall be taken down by the secretary and read over to the witness, who may then desire any correction to be made; and in case no such correction shall be made the evidence shall stand as taken down, and not be altered afterwards. | Evidence on petitions. |

CHAPTER IV.

Questions and Motions.

- | | |
|--|----------------------------------|
| 1. Any member desiring to ask a question or make a motion, shall (unless in the course of a discussion, or, in a case of emergency, by leave of the council) give notice of such question or motion, either at some previous sitting of the council or by a note in writing to the secretary, at least two days before the day on which he intends to ask such question or make such motion. | Notices of motions and question. |
| 2. Every member, in giving such notice, shall deliver to the secretary a copy of the proposed question or motion. | Notices how given. |
| 3. In putting any question, no argument or opinion shall be offered, nor any fact stated, except in so far as may be necessary to explain such question. And in answering any such question, a member is not to debate the matter to which the same refers. | Asking and answering question. |
| 4. When a motion has been made and seconded, and the debate thereon concluded, the question thereupon shall be put to the vote by the chairman. | Putting the questions. |
| 5. Any motion, not seconded, may not be further debated, and no entry thereof shall be made in the minutes. | Motion not seconded. |
| 6. A member who has made a motion may withdraw the same by leave of council. | Withdrawing motions. |

Municipalities. (By-laws, Colombo.)

CHAPTER V.

Rules of Debate.

Rules of debate.

1. Every member, while speaking, shall address the chair, and shall stand while so doing.
2. If two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the chairman shall call on the person entitled in his opinion to pre-audience.
3. In discussing any question, no member shall be at liberty to speak more than once, except in explanation or when any matter is under discussion in committee. But a reply shall be allowed to a member who has made a substantive motion, not being an amendment.
4. All imputations of improper motives shall be considered as being highly disorderly, and such conduct shall be minuted in the journals if it shall appear to a majority of the council to be necessary.
5. An adjournment of the discussion of any question may be moved by a member at any time, and, if seconded, shall be forthwith put to the vote.
6. Every motion and amendment shall be reduced into writing and handed to the secretary by the member proposing the same.
7. No amendment shall be proposed upon an amendment which is under discussion ; but so soon as the amendment shall have become a substantive motion, a subsequent amendment may be moved, and, if seconded, discussed.
8. On any question being put, every member present shall be bound to give his vote, beginning with the junior member present, the secretary of the council minuting the vote of each member ; after which the chairman shall declare the number of votes for or against the question.
9. It shall be competent for any member who is in the minority to record the reason of his dissent from the opinion of the majority ; and the same shall be entered by the secretary at the end of his minutes of the day's proceedings.

CHAPTER VI.

Orders and Records of Proceedings.

Order book.

Notice of orders of the day.

Minute book and journal.

Public complaint book.

1. The secretary shall keep an order book, in which shall be entered and numbered in succession the subjects to be brought under discussion at each meeting ; and shall serve on each member, or leave at his residence, one day at least before each sitting, a notice containing the orders of the day, arranged in succession as in the order book.
2. He shall keep a book to be called the minute book, in which shall be minuted during each sitting, in the order in which they occur, the proceedings of the council, and shall keep another book to be called the journal, in which he shall cause all minutes of proceedings, acts, and orders of the council, when confirmed, to be fairly transcribed. And such journal shall form the book required to be kept, and to be signed by the chairman and two members then present, under the 47th clause of "The Municipal Councils' Ordinance."
3. He shall also keep and submit to council at every meeting the complaint book required to be kept by the 49th clause of the said Ordinance ; and shall provide that this book be accessible to the public at his office between the hours of eleven and four on every week day excepting Saturdays and holidays, and excepting also on such days as the council may sit. Every inhabitant of the municipality may have access to this book on furnishing the secretary with his correct name and address.

CHAPTER VII.

Standing Committees.

1. Standing committees shall be appointed, whose duties shall be (1) to consider and report on all matters specially referred to them ; (2) to exercise a general observation of public wants, occurrences, and matters within the scope of the business of each standing committee ; (3) to report from time to time on such matters as they may deem desirable ; (4) to prepare by-laws and make recommendations to the council.

Standing committees ; their duties.

2. Such standing committees shall each consist of at least three members and a chairman selected by the council. The chairman of the council shall always be a member of the standing committee on finance, and of the standing committee on general business. In the absence of the chairman selected by the council, the senior member present shall preside at their deliberations. Three members shall constitute a quorum, and the chairman shall have a casting vote.

Their constitution.

3. Each standing committee shall keep a minute book, in which shall be recorded in order minutes of all its proceedings, including the divisions and respective votes of members ; which minutes shall be authenticated (after confirmation) by the signature of the chairman of the committee presiding during such proceedings. These minute books shall be laid on the table of the council at all their meetings.

Minutes of standing committees.

4. Standing committees shall be appointed, under the following titles, for the transaction of such matters as are implied in these titles respectively, and of such other matters as may be referred to them from time to time by resolution of council, namely :

Names of standing committees.

- (1) Committee on Finance and Collection of Revenue.
- (2) Committee on Public Works.
- (3) Sanitary and Police Committee.
- (4) Law Committee.
- (5) Committee on General Business.

5. Standing committees shall, in all compatible respects, be subject to the following by-laws respecting special and sub-committees.

Proceedings.

CHAPTER VIII.

Special and Sub-Committees.

1. In every resolution of the council or committee of council for the appointment of a special or sub-committee, the quorum thereof shall be named.

Constitution of committees.

2. Upon the appointment of a special or of a sub-committee, they shall (provided the chairman of the council be not a member, or in case of his absence) proceed to elect their own chairman. The chairman shall fix an early day for their first meeting. Every subsequent meeting shall be by adjournment from the next previous meeting, or if there be no such adjournment, then by appointment to be made by the chairman.

Meetings of committees.

3. The committee after having deliberated shall agree to a report, and the same shall be brought up by the chairman or some other member thereto appointed and be read by the secretary, or otherwise dealt with as may then be directed. By leave of the council a committee may from time to time report their opinions or observations, or the minutes of evidence only, or the proceedings.

Proceedings of committees.

4. In the event of any division taking place in a committee, it shall be entered in the minutes, together with the question proposed, the name of the proposer, and the respective votes of the members present, and shall be submitted together with the report of the committee.

Divisions in committees.

Municipalities. (By-laws, Colombo.)

Power of committees respecting witnesses.

5. All standing committees, and all special and sub-committees, shall have the like powers of summoning witnesses as are conferred on the council, subject to the same mode of procedure as therein mentioned.

CHAPTER IX.

Finance.

Accounts.

1. The accounts of the municipality shall be kept on the system of double entry. There shall be a cash book, a ledger, and cheque books for payments and receipts.

Moneys to be deposited in the bank.

2. All moneys of the municipality shall be deposited with the Oriental Bank Corporation in the name of the municipal council; and the pass book made up to date shall be laid on the table at every meeting.

Payment how to be made.

3. All payments shall be by means of cheques on the bankers drawn by the treasurer, and shall be supported by receipts signed by the parties to whom the payments are made.

Returns under section 68 of the Ordinance.

4. The returns to be made by the owners or occupiers of houses, buildings, and lands, under section 68 of "The Municipal Councils' Ordinance," shall be in the form B hereunto annexed.

Schedules under section 78 of the Ordinance.

5. The schedules required to be filled up under section 78 of the said Ordinance shall be in the form C hereunto annexed.

Forms how served.

6. The secretary shall from time to time, whenever directed by the chairman, cause a copy of each of the said forms B and C to be served on every owner, resident, or occupier of all houses, buildings, and lands within the municipality, in the manner provided by section 168 of the Ordinance.

Inspection of houses, &c.

7. On receipt of the said returns and schedules or any of them, the council may appoint two or more persons to test the correctness thereof; and for that purpose, or in case of neglect or delay in forwarding them, to enter and inspect any houses, buildings, lands, stables, and outhouses within the municipality, so as to ascertain the particulars required by the said forms.

Notice of assessment and objections thereto.

8. After the completion of the assessment book mentioned in section 63 of the said Ordinance, the secretary shall issue the notice thereby required, inserting therein the time and proportion in which the council shall have directed the payment to be made; and any person desirous of objecting to the assessment shall be entitled to do so at any time between 10 A.M. and 5 P.M. during the ten days following the service of the notice, after which no objection shall be entertained against the same.

Tax on vehicles, &c., payable on first March.

9. After the completion of the list of taxpayers mentioned in section 78 of the Ordinance No. 17 of 1865, the secretary shall cause a notice, in the form D hereunto annexed, to be served on each of the persons therein mentioned, in the manner provided by section 168 of the Ordinance. And such notice shall contain a list of the vehicles and animals in respect of which the tax is payable, and the amount of the tax; and shall also state the time and proportion in which the council shall have directed the tax to be paid. And any person desirous of objecting to the list shall be entitled to do so at any time between 10 A.M. and 5 P.M. during the ten days following the service of the notice, after which no objection shall be entertained against the same.

Objections how disposed of.

10. All objections to the assessment book or the list of taxpayers shall be made in writing and left with the secretary, and shall be considered at the next ordinary meeting of the council, or at any adjournment thereof: Provided that the party objecting shall be entitled to be heard at such meeting in support of his objection.

Municipalities. (By-laws, Colombo.)

11. If any person, after having filled up and returned the schedule mentioned in section 79 of the said Ordinance, shall acquire, keep, or use any carriage, cart, hackery, horse, pony, mule, bullock, or ass, not mentioned in such schedule, or in addition to those mentioned therein, he shall be bound, within one week of acquiring such vehicle or animal, to send notice thereof to the secretary, with a view to the list of taxpayers being amended accordingly. And any person neglecting to send such notice, or who shall knowingly insert therein any incorrect or false information, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

Special notice required from taxpayers acquiring further vehicles or animals.

12. The secretary shall from time to time, whenever directed by the chairman, cause a copy of the form F to be served on every advocate, proctor, and notary within the municipality, in order to ascertain whether and how many clerks have been articulated under him during the current year or any previous year after the establishment of the municipal council, the date of the articles, and the period of service. Any advocate, proctor, or notary, who shall fail within fifteen days from the service of such form to fill up the same with the information thereby required, or shall wilfully give incorrect information, shall be liable to a fine of ten rupees.

Articled clerks.

13. All accounts shall be examined and audited once every quarter by such person or persons as the council may from time to time appoint.

Audit.

CHAPTER X.

Public Works.

1. All votes of money for public works, whether to be done on contract or by the officers of the municipality, shall be made on estimates previously prepared and laid on the table.

Estimates.

CHAPTER XI.

Duties of Municipal Inspectors.

1. The several officers appointed to be municipal inspectors shall have all the powers and protection in the discharge of their duties which are by "The Nuisances Ordinance, 1862," accorded to officers of the board of health, and shall be subject to, and carry out the orders of, the council throughout the municipality. The further special duties and powers of the said municipal inspectors shall be as follows :

Powers and duties of municipal inspectors.

(1) Daily to inquire and ascertain what public or private premises are so foul, or otherwise in such a state, as to be a nuisance or prejudicial to health ; or ought to be cleansed, purified, ventilated, or disinfected ; or are unprovided with sufficient drains, sewers, gutters, privies, or other means for the collection or removal and carrying off the waste water, filth, and other offensive matter from such premises in such a way as not to be a nuisance or dangerous to health ; what existing privies, cesspools, wells, drains, gutters, ditches, and water-courses are so foul or badly constructed or isolated as to be a nuisance or injurious, or likely to become injurious to health ; and whether any houses or places contain any persons or animals suffering from any reputedly contagious or infectious disease, or any bodies of persons or animals who have died of the same.

To inquire into nuisances and sanitary requirements.

(2) To make inspection of all markets, shops, and places used for the sale of any kind of food or the slaughter of animals, and to examine the articles therein apparently intended to be sold and used as food, and to examine meat, fish, or substance of any kind in or on the way to any market or place of sale as food, or landed from any ship, vessel, or boat for the like purpose ; and in case on such examination

Daily inspection of places for sale of food, and seizure of unwholesome food.

Municipalities. (By-laws, Colombo.)

any such thing shall be found to be putrid, diseased, or otherwise unfit for the food of man, forthwith to convey the same to the police magistrate or bench of magistrates, in order that the same may be dealt with according to law, and to report all seizures under this by-law, and the result of the same, to the officer or other authority thereto appointed by the municipal council.

Inspection of public and open places, &c.

(3) To make daily inspection of streets, lanes, public and open places, and ditches, and of drains, pools, wells, sewers, and common receptacles and privies for the purpose of ascertaining and reporting to the said officer or other authority the state and sanitary requirements of the same, and of making the aforesaid inquiries and of fully ascertaining whether there be any nuisance or things therein prejudicial to health : and for the purpose of doing any other matter or thing which may lawfully be done by the authority of the said municipal council, and for the like purposes to enter into, on, or upon any lands or places whatever, whether enclosed or not, not being within the curtilage of any private dwelling.

Inspection of private premises.

(4) To make like inspection for the like purposes from time to time as occasion may require of houses, buildings, outhouses, privies, wells, drains, gutters, and places being private premises. Provided, however, that if the owner, or occupier, or person in charge thereof shall refuse admission to any such inspector, he shall not enter the same if within the curtilage of any dwelling house, except on the written authority of a municipal councillor ; and thereafter the said municipal inspectors may enter into the same with necessary assistants and workmen, as frequently as they may deem necessary, until any nuisance therein shall have been abated, or any works deemed necessary or directed under authority of the municipal council shall have been completed.

Daily reports.

(5) To make daily written reports of inspections to the officer or other authority thereto appointed by the municipal council.

Reports of offences, nuisances, and matters affecting health.

(6) To report specially, as they may come to their knowledge, all offences against " The Municipal Councils' Ordinance " or by-laws made in pursuance thereof ; or against " The Cemeteries Ordinance, 1862," " The Nuisances Ordinance, 1862," " The Butchers' Ordinance, 14 of 1859," or " The Gunpowder Ordinance of 1862," and all nuisances requiring to be abated, and all matters respecting the state of the public health, or calculated to affect it, which may come to their knowledge, and ought to be brought to the notice of the municipal council.

Service of notices.

(7) To serve, or cause to be served, notices issued by or by direction or authority of the municipal council, either by delivery of the same to the persons to whom they are respectively addressed or by delivering the same or a true copy thereof to some person apparently sixteen years old, either on the premises affected by such notice, or at the dwelling house or place of business of the person to whom it is addressed ; and if no such person be found there, by fixing a copy thereof on some conspicuous part of the premises affected by the notice, and to report forthwith the service of the same, and whether or not the same has been complied with.

Payments to treasurer.

(8) To pay over and account for to the treasurer all sums which may be received by the inspectors, by, or through, or consequent on the execution of their duties.

Abating nuisances and expenses thereof.

(9) To carry into effect the orders of the municipal council as to abating nuisances or for effecting any structural works, demolitions, or alterations ; and to certify to the police court or bench of magistrates the expenses incurred by or on behalf of the board in so doing.

Prosecutions.

(10) To prosecute, on behalf of the municipal council, all offences committed contrary to the aforesaid Ordinances, or any by-laws of the municipal council, and to report the result of all such prosecutions.

Municipalities. (By-laws, Colombo.)

CHAPTER XIII.

Cart and Hackery Licenses.

1. All carts and hackeries kept or used within the municipality shall, besides any other plates that may be required by law, after the first of February in every year, bear a metal plate furnished by the municipal council, on a conspicuous part thereof, which plate shall bear the design of the letter C with figures representing the year and the corresponding number in the register in the body thereof.

Vehicles to bear metal plates.

2. If any cart or hackery kept or used within the municipality be found without the plate in the preceding clause mentioned, or if any plate be used not furnished by the municipality, the owner and person found therewith shall be severally liable to a penalty not exceeding ten rupees.

Penalty for not using such plates.

3. The taxes chargeable on all carts and hackeries kept and used within the limits of the municipality shall, from the first day of January, 1873, be raised to four rupees per annum.

Tax on vehicles raised to four rupees.

4. All carts and hackeries plying without the plate required by rule 1, chap. XIII. of the by-laws shall be liable to be detained by any municipal inspector or police officer until the law shall be complied with, and no such plate shall issue except on payment of the taxes due on such cart or hackery and the animal or animals employed in drawing the same.

Vehicles without plates may be seized.

5. Before issuing a plate for a cart or hackery, it shall be further lawful for the council to require the year and registered number thereof to be painted on the outside of such cart or hackery in a conspicuous part thereof (to be determined by the chairman of the municipal council).

Year and number to be painted on vehicles.

CHAPTER XVI.

Execution of Works.

1. It shall be lawful for any person thereunto authorized in writing by the chairman, at all reasonable times, and with all necessary and proper labourers, carriages, and animals, and other means, to enter upon any land near to any existing or intended thoroughfare, and there severally to do all things necessary for the purposes of making, repairing, or improving any such thoroughfare, or for making, repairing, or improving any bridge, fence, drain, dam, or ditch in any way connected therewith, or for performing anything under the provisions of "The Municipal Councils' Ordinance."

Right to enter upon lands for repairs, &c., of thoroughfares.

2. In the tracing, making, repairing, or improving any existing or intended thoroughfare, or building any bridge, fence, drain, dam, or ditch thereupon, or in any way connected therewith, it shall be lawful for the superintendent of roads to throw upon any lands near thereto such earth, rubbish, or materials as it may be necessary to remove from the place of any such work. Provided that the superintendent of roads shall be bound, within a reasonable time thereafter, to cause such earth, rubbish, or materials to be removed, and restore the ground to its former state.

And throw rubbish upon adjacent lands.

3. It shall be lawful for any person thereunto authorized in writing by the chairman to make any temporary road through the grounds or near to any existing or intended thoroughfare, during the execution of any work in any way connected therewith; provided such road shall not run over any ground whereon any building stands, nor over an enclosed garden or yard.

And make temporary road.

Municipalities. (By-laws, Colombo.)

And cut trees.

4. It shall be lawful for any person thereunto authorized in writing by the chairman to cut and remove and place upon any ground near thereto all trees, bushes, or shrubs, and all leaves or branches or roots of trees that shall grow in or overhang any thoroughfare, or cause any obstruction or harm thereto, and for that purpose to enter upon any land or premises, with such persons, animals, and instruments as may be necessary for the removing of such trees, bushes, shrubs, leaves, branches, or roots.

And put up fences.

5. It shall be lawful for any person thereunto authorized in writing by the chairman to put up or make fences, hedges, ditches, drains, or banks by the side of any thoroughfare whenever to him it shall appear necessary, and the owners or occupiers of land adjoining such fences, hedges, ditches, drains, or banks shall, and they are hereby required to, keep the same in good and substantial repair and order.

And to make and cleanse drains, &c., and to erect bridges, &c.

6. Any person thereunto authorized in writing by the chairman shall have power to make and cleanse all drains or water-courses, and also to make such bridges, as he shall deem necessary, for the preservation, improvement, repair, or construction of any road or canal in and through any lands or grounds lying near to such road or canal or intended road or canal.

And lay stones, &c., on road.

7. The superintendent of roads shall have power to lay any matter or thing whatsoever upon any road, and to allow the same to remain there during the time such road is under repair, and for such time before the repairs are commenced, and after the repairs are completed, as may be necessary for facilitating the making of such repairs, or for preventing damage to such recently repaired road; but he shall take due and reasonable precaution for preventing danger or injury to persons passing along such road.

Vexatious conduct of council's officers.

8. Every person, acting under the authority of these by-laws, who shall under pretence of performing any act under their authority, use any unnecessary violence or give any vexatious annoyance, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

Obstruction of such officers.

9. All persons who shall wilfully resist, obstruct, hinder, or molest, and all persons who shall incite, assist, or procure others to resist, obstruct, hinder, or molest any person acting under the authority of these by-laws in the discharge of any duty, or the performance of any act which they shall be authorized or required to perform by these by-laws, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

CHAPTER XVII.

Encroachments and Obstructions.

Right to demand production of title deeds.

1. Whenever it shall appear to the council that any building, enclosure, or obstruction has been made in any land vested in the council, it shall be lawful for the council, by a notice in writing signed by the secretary, to demand of the person claiming to be the owner or occupier of the premises on which such building, enclosure, or obstruction shall have been made, the production of every deed, document, and instrument upon which such person founds such claim; and if the occupier of such premises, not being himself the alleged owner, shall refuse to give full information respecting the name and residence of such alleged owner, upon being requested so to do by the secretary, or if such alleged owner shall refuse to produce, within ten days after being requested so to do, every deed, document, and instrument upon which he founds his claim to the said premises, and which shall be in his possession, or if any such deed, document, or instrument shall not be in his possession, shall refuse fully to inform the secretary upon application in whose possession they are, or if any person having in his possession any such deed, document, or instrument shall refuse to produce the same within ten days after having been requested so to do in writing by the secretary, every such occupier, alleged owner, and person so refusing shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

2. All persons who shall convey in carts or hackeries any dirt, rubbish, bricks, cabook, granite, chunam, or other materials in so careless or insecure a manner as shall lead to any annoyance, or obstruction of any road, street, or thoroughfare within the municipality, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to any fine not exceeding ten rupees.

Obstruction by carts carrying materials.

3. It shall not be lawful for any person to do any of the following acts :

Prohibitions.

- (1) To remove timber or other substance of more than twenty feet in length in any cart without having one end thereof secured to another or sling cart.
- (2) To carry timber or other substance of more than twenty feet in length without one end being carried by another person.
- (3) To remove iron bars in any cart without duly fastening each end of the said bars so as to prevent the noise they would otherwise make.
- (4) To load firewood, casks, or any other article in carts to any height exceeding six feet above the platform of such cart.

4. Any person infringing any of the above provisions shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten rupees; and it shall be lawful for any municipal or police officer, and they are hereby required to do so, to detain any cart in which any article is being conveyed contrary to such provisions, until the requirements of this by-law are complied with.

Penalty.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Slaughter Houses.

1. No licensed butcher shall slaughter any cattle, sheep, goats, or pigs but at the place appointed by the council or at any public slaughter-house.

Place of slaughter.

2. No licensed butcher shall slaughter any cattle, sheep, goats, or pigs unless he shall have previously exposed the same to public view in some convenient spot appointed by the council, for a period of not less than twenty-four hours, and unless he shall have obtained from the slaughter-house keeper a printed permit in the form authorized by the municipal council. This permit shall be duly filled in by the slaughter-house keeper, and shall be signed by him and by the butcher who brings the animal for slaughter.

Exposure of animals for twenty-four hours.

Permits.

3. A permit for slaughter shall only be valid for seven days after the date of issue.

Permit valid for seven days.

4. After first March, 1878, the permit mentioned above shall not be issued unless the butcher produces a printed certificate in his favour in the form authorized by Government, duly filled in and signed by a Government headman, or unless the person wishing to sell the animal appears with the butcher before the slaughter-house keeper and produces a certificate similar to that mentioned above drawn in his (the seller's) favour.

Certificates of sale.

5. It shall be lawful for the council to seize or cause to be seized all unhealthy and diseased animals exposed for slaughter, and to have the same destroyed or otherwise disposed of as to them may seem fit.

Diseased animals to be destroyed.

Municipalities. (By-laws, Colombo.)

Cattle, &c., slaughtered outside the municipality.

13. It shall not be lawful for any person to sell or expose for sale, within the municipality, the flesh of any cattle, sheep, goats, or swine slaughtered outside the municipality, without the same having been previously inspected and passed as fit for human food, at one or other of the public slaughter-houses, by an officer appointed thereto by the municipal council, and for every such inspection a fee of four cents a pound shall be charged, and a certificate that the meat has been inspected shall be issued.

Meat to be conveyed in screened carts.

14. No person shall remove any meat of any cattle or animal, in any quantity exceeding twenty-eight pounds in weight, from the slaughter-house, or any other place of slaughter, to the market or other place of sale within the municipality, unless the same shall be conveyed in a cart with a suitable roof or covering and screened in at each end, or in some other covered vehicle, so as to protect the said meat effectually from dust and rain, and from public view.

Penalty.

15. Any person convicted of a breach of any of the preceding sections shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

16. It shall not be lawful for any person who is not a licensed butcher to slaughter any sheep or goat or swine without a special license from the council, or contrary to the tenor of such license ; and a fee of twenty-five cents shall be levied for every such license. Any person committing a breach of this by-law shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

17. No person shall remove any meat of any animal slaughtered at a public slaughter-house without a pass certifying to such slaughter signed by the slaughter-house keeper or other officer appointed to issue such passes, and it shall be the duty of the slaughter-house keeper or other duly appointed officer to issue such passes to any licensed butcher applying for the same. Any person committing a breach of this by-law shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten rupees; and it shall be further lawful for any municipal officer authorized by the chairman in writing in that behalf, or any police officer, to demand the production of such passes from any person conveying meat as aforesaid, and on failure of production to seize any meat conveyed without such pass and to remove the same to the town hall to be disposed of as may be directed by the chairman.

Pass required for removal of meat.

CHAPTER XIX.

Public Markets.

1. Before any market shall be opened for public use, the council shall give not less than ten days' notice of the time when the same will be opened, and such notice shall be published in the Government Gazette and in one or more of the local newspapers.

Opening of public markets.

2. It shall be lawful for the council to demand, receive, and have of and from every person exposing or offering for sale or selling any goods or provisions of any kind in any public market, or who shall rent or use any stall or standing place in such market, such sums of money as and for stallages, rents, and fees as shall from time to time be appointed by special order of the council.

Rents and fees.

3. It shall be lawful for the council to demise or let to farm, for any term not exceeding twelve months, all or any of the stallages, rents, and fees from time to time payable in any public market.

Rents may be let for twelve months.

4. After any public market is opened, it shall be lawful for the municipal council, with the sanction of the Governor and Executive Council, to prohibit, by a notice to be published in the Government Gazette and in one or more of the local newspapers, the sale by any person, within a certain area to be defined in such notice, except in his own dwelling place or shop, of any article of food. Any person who shall, after such notice, sell or expose for sale any article of food within the said area, except as aforesaid, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten rupees.

Sale in places, within a certain area, other than markets, forbidden.

5. Every person who shall assault or obstruct any person appointed by the council to superintend any public market, or to collect the stallages, rents, and fees thereof, or to enforce order and cleanliness therein, whilst in the execution of his duty, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten rupees.

Obstruction of authorized agents.

6. Every person who shall behave in a disorderly manner, or shall commit any nuisance in any public market, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten rupees.

Disorderly conduct.

7. The several stallages, rents, or fees payable in respect of any public market shall be paid from time to time on demand to the council or their lessee, or other person authorized by the council or their lessee to receive the same.

Recovery of rents.

8. Every person who shall demand or receive a greater stallage, rent, or fee than that authorized to be levied by the council, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten rupees.

Greater rent than that authorized cannot be recovered

Municipalities. (By-laws, Colombo.)

Recovery by distress.

9. If any person liable to the payment of any stallages, rent, or fee authorized as aforesaid do not pay the same when demanded, the council or their lessee, or any person authorized by the council or their lessee to collect the same, may levy the same by distress of all or any of the articles in the market belonging to the person liable to pay such stallage, rent, or fee.

Disputes to be settled by chairman or two councillors.

10. If any dispute arise concerning any such stallage, rent, or fee, it shall be competent for the chairman, or any two councillors, to determine the same, and make such order thereon as to him or them may seem proper.

List of rents.

11. The council or their lessee shall from time to time cause to be set up conspicuously in every public market a list of the several stallages, rents, and fees from time to time payable in such market.

Sale of meat and fish in places other than public markets forbidden.

12. After any market is opened for public use, any person who shall sell or expose for sale any meat or fish in any place within the municipality, except at the markets therefor provided by the council, without a special license from the council, or contrary to the tenor of such license, shall be guilty of an offence, and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

Fee for special license.

13. It shall be lawful for the council to levy a fee of five rupees for every special license issued as in the preceding by-law.

Public markets not to be occupied without license.

14. No person shall hold or occupy a seat or stall in any of the public markets without a license in the form A hereto annexed, signed by the secretary, or contrary to the tenor of such license, except where the stallages, rents, or fees are authorized to be collected daily, or where such license shall be dispensed with by resolution of the council.

Only meat to be sold

Per mile	0 8

Night fares.

Rates chargeable between 7 P.M. and 6.30 A.M. to be one-fourth more than the above charges.

Property found in carriages.

17. In case of any property being left in any such carriage by any person who may have hired or used the same, the owner or driver of such carriage shall, within six hours after such property shall have been found in such carriage, take the same to, or cause to be taken, in the state in which it was found, to the office of the municipal council, and then deliver the same to the secretary or any person authorized to receive the same on his behalf, to be there deposited for reclamation; and the owner or driver delivering such property, or causing the same to be delivered, shall be entitled to a remuneration of twenty-five cents, payable by the owner of such property (if the same does not consist of jewellery) before the same be allowed to be removed. If, however, the property found consist of jewellery, the owner thereof shall pay to the owner or driver a fee or remuneration of one rupee. If the property so found on any such carriage and deposited in the office of the municipal council shall not be claimed by the true owner thereof within one month of such deposit, the said property shall be sold by public auction, after due notice of such intended sale in one or more of the local papers, and the proceeds of such sale, less expenses incurred in and about the publication of such sale, shall go to the municipal fund.

Municipalities. (By-laws, Colombo.)

CHAPTER XXVII.

Recovery of Taxes.

1. It shall be lawful for the municipal council to demand, take, and receive from every person who shall have made default in the payment of any tax lawfully levied by the council, or from the owner or joint owner of any property lawfully seized for non-payment of such tax, the several charges mentioned in the following table : Costs.

Table of Charges.

- (1) For cost of proceeding to the house or land of the party in default, in order to seize property—a charge not exceeding five cents for every fifty-eight cents of tax due.
- (2) For removal of the goods seized, in case such removal takes place—a charge not exceeding five cents for every fifty cents of tax due.
- (3) For keeping the same in safe custody in case of such detention—a charge not exceeding four cents per day.
- (4) For keeping a person in possession in case of a seizure of immovable property, or if the goods seized are not removed—a charge not exceeding fifty cents per day.
- (5) For the expenses of sale, where any takes place—a charge not exceeding twenty-five cents in every ten rupees on the net produce of the sale.

2. If the amount of the tax imposed under the 55th section of "The Municipal Councils' Ordinance," No. 17 of 1865, be not paid into the office of the treasurer of the municipality within such time as the council shall direct, it shall be lawful for the chairman to issue a warrant, in the form hereunto annexed, to some collector or other officer of the municipality named therein, directing him to levy the same and the costs of recovery by seizure and sale of the property on account of which such tax is due, and of any property of the person to whom the aforesaid property belonged at the time when the said tax upon it accrued and became due. both parties, and such arbitrator may proceed to hear and determine the matters which shall be in dispute, and in such case the award or determination of such single arbitrator shall be final.

9 If, before the matters so referred shall be determined, any arbitrator appointed by either party die, or become incapable, the party by whom such arbitrator was appointed may nominate and appoint in writing some other person to act in his place; and if for the space of seven days after notice in writing from the other party for that purpose he fail to do so, the remaining or other arbitrator may proceed ex parte; and every arbitrator so to be substituted as aforesaid shall have the same powers and authorities as were vested in the former arbitrator at the time of such his death or disability as aforesaid.

In case of death of arbitrator.

10 Where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed, such arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matters referred to them, nominate and appoint, by writing under their hands, an umpire to decide on any such matters on which they shall differ, or which shall be referred to him under the provisions of this Ordinance; and if such umpire shall die or become incapable to act, they shall forthwith after such death or incapacity appoint another umpire in his place, and the decision of every such umpire on the matters so referred to him shall be final.

Election of umpire, and in case of death of umpire.

11 If in either of the cases aforesaid the said arbitrators shall refuse, or shall, for seven days after request to either party to such arbitration, neglect to appoint an umpire, the police magistrate of the district where the matter referred to arbitration occurred, took place, or commenced, shall, on the application of either party to such arbitration, appoint an umpire, and the decision of such umpire on the matters on which the arbitrators shall differ, or which shall be referred to him under this Ordinance, shall be final.

Appointment of umpire on failure to elect.

12 If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed, either of the arbitrators refuse or for seven days neglect to act, the other arbitrator may proceed ex parte, and the decision of such other arbitrator shall be as effectual as if he had been the single arbitrator appointed by both parties.

Arbitrators failing to act.

13 If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed, and where neither of them shall refuse or neglect to act as aforesaid, such arbitrators shall fail to make their award within twenty-one days after the day on which the last of such arbitrators shall have been appointed, or within such extended time (if any) as shall have been appointed for that purpose by both such arbitrators under their hands, the matters referred to them shall be determined by the umpire to be appointed as aforesaid.

Arbitrators failing to make award.

14. The said arbitrators or their umpire may call for the production of any documents in the possession or power of either party which they or he may think necessary for Arbitrators and umpire may call evidence.

diminish, or repeal such dues ; and from the time specified in such order for the commencement of the dues thereby fixed, increased, or diminished, the same shall be leviable throughout Her Majesty's dominions in manner hereinafter mentioned :”

And whereas by the 3rd section of the said Act it is further enacted that “no such dues as aforesaid shall be levied in any colony unless and until the Legislative authority in such colony has, either by address to the Crown or by an Act or Ordinance duly passed, signified its opinion that the same ought to be levied in such colony :”

And whereas it is proposed to erect a lighthouse on Minicoy island, near the coasts of this colony, with the consent of the Legislature thereof, and it is expedient that such consent should be given, and also that the Legislature should, by Ordinance, signify its opinion that such dues as aforesaid ought to be levied in the colony :

And whereas Her Majesty has signified through Her Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies that the dues to be levied by her Order in Council in Ceylon on each vessel will be as follows, viz. :—In respect of the lighthouse on the island of Minicoy at cents two and a half per ton ; in respect of the lighthouse on the Great Basses rocks and the lighthouse on the Little Basses rocks at cents seven and a half per ton :

It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as “The Minicoy Lighthouse and Lighthouse Dues Ordinance, 1882.”

Lighthouse to be erected at Minicoy.

2 The consent of the Legislature is hereby given to the erection of a lighthouse on the island of Minicoy.

Fees for said lighthouse and those at Great and Little Basses to be collected as per schedule.

3 The opinion of the Legislature is hereby signified that the dues so to be fixed by Her Majesty by Order in Council under the authority of the 2nd section of the said recited Act, in respect of the said lighthouse on the island of Minicoy and in respect of the lighthouse on the Great Basses rocks and of the lighthouse on the Little Basses rocks and set forth in the schedule hereunder written, ought to be levied in this colony, and the light dues so set forth in the schedule hereto shall be payable in accordance with the provisions of any Order made by Her Majesty in Council in respect of all ships whatever arriving or touching at any port or place in this colony, except ships belonging to Her Majesty and ships belonging to the Ceylon Government.

SCHEDULE.

Table of Dues.		Per ton.

Local Boards.

2 From and after the passing of this Ordinance the Governor may, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time, by notification published in the Government Gazette, declare that the emigration of the native inhabitants of this island shall be lawful to any place described in such notification, provided that every such notification shall contain also a declaration that the Governor has been duly certified that the Government of the place to which the notification refers has made such laws and other provisions as the Governor in Executive Council shall deem sufficient for the protection of the native inhabitants of Ceylon emigrating to such place.

Power to Governor, with the advice of Executive Council, to declare emigration lawful.

3 From the date of any such notification contracts may be made with any native inhabitant of Ceylon for labour to be performed in any place to which emigration is authorized in the notification, and it shall be lawful to enable or assist any native inhabitant to emigrate to such place; but all contracts and engagements under such notification shall be made and signed before a police magistrate, who is hereby authorized to take such signatures after reading over and explaining to the signatories the contract to be entered into by them.

Contracts with natives for performance of labour in any place to which emigration has been authorized made lawful.

Such contracts to be signed before a police magistrate.

4 It shall not be lawful for any person to make with any native inhabitant of this island any contract for labour to be performed in any place without the limits of this island to which emigration has not been declared lawful in manner aforesaid, and every person who shall make any such contract, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any native inhabitant of this island in emigrating from this island for the purpose of being employed under contract as a labourer, except to a place to which emigration shall have been declared lawful, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every native inhabitant so contracted with, aided, or abetted.

Contracts for performance of labour in any place to which emigration has not been authorized unlawful.

[§ 1, 22 of 1884]

Provided always that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be taken to apply to any native seaman who shall of his own free will contract to navigate any vessel, or who shall embark on board such vessel in pursuance of such contract, or to any person who shall contract to serve as a menial servant only, or who shall embark as such menial servant.

To inspect the hospitals and dispensaries within his district, and to inquire into any complaints which may have been made respecting the working of such hospitals or dispensaries.

Superintending officer may enter upon estates and send sick labourers to hospital.

8 The superintending medical officer shall have power to enter upon every estate within the districts assigned to him and visit the cooly lines thereon whenever he shall deem fit, and to send to the hospital of any district any labourer requiring medical treatment. Provided that whenever any hospital shall be appointed a district hospital under the principal Ordinance, or a dispensary under this Ordinance, any residences attached or appertaining thereto shall, if ordered by the Governor to be taken over, vest in and become the property of the Crown for the purposes of this Ordinance.

Existing district hospitals may be made dispensaries. Salaries of medical assistants.

9 It shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint existing district hospitals or other buildings to be dispensaries, to be placed in charge of medical assistants, and to assign to such medical assistants salaries commencing at one thousand five hundred rupees per annum, and rising by quinquennial increments of two hundred and fifty rupees to two thousand rupees, with such horse or travelling allowance as the Governor may in his discretion assign to such assistants, and it shall also be lawful for the Governor to appoint, if need be, licentiates of the Ceylon Medical College to be district medical officers, medical assistants, or dispensers under this Ordinance.

Duties of district medical officers and medical assistants.

10 It shall be the duty of each district medical officer to visit the hospital of his district daily, and it shall also be the duty, as far as may be practicable, of each medical assistant, upon being required in writing so to do by the superintendent of any estate in his district, to visit any sick labourer on such estate, and for every such last-mentioned visit to an estate the estate shall be liable for the payment into the kachchéri of a fee of two rupees and fifty cents, which fee shall be recoverable in the manner provided in the 23rd section of the principal Ordinance, and shall be carried to the credit of the Medical Aid Fund.

Amendment of section 12 of No. 17 of 1880.

11 The 12th section of the principal Ordinance is hereby amended by adding the words "or dispensary" immediately after the words "district hospital" whenever the words "district hospital" appear.

Repealing clause.

12 Sections 16 and 17 of the principal Ordinance are hereby repealed from and after the commencement of this Ordinance. And from and after the said date the Ordinances specified in the schedule to this Ordinance are hereby repealed: Provided that this repeal shall not affect—

- (a) The past operation of any enactment hereby repealed, nor anything duly done or suffered under any enactment hereby repealed; nor
- (b) Any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under any enactment hereby repealed; nor

Small Tenements.

- (c) Any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment hereby repealed ; nor
- (d) Any legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid.

Provided that if the committee of any district shall leave any such obligation or liability unpaid, it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, on being satisfied that such obligation or liability was duly incurred under the said Ordinance No. 14 of 1872 and is unpaid, to fix and levy an assessment on all estates situated in such district according to the latest assessment roll of such district published in the Government Gazette, to defray the said obligation or liability ; and the assessment so made shall be a charge on the said estates and the proprietors thereof, and be recoverable in manner provided by the said Ordinance.

SCHEDULE.

Ordinances repealed.

1. The Ordinance No. 14 of 1872, intituled "An Ordinance to provide for the Medical Wants of the Coffee Districts."
2. The Ordinance No. 18 of 1881, intituled "An Ordinance to amend the Medical Wants Ordinance, 1880."

5th December, 1882.

No. 11 of 1882.

(Extended by No. 3 of 1887.)

An Ordinance to facilitate the recovery of possession of Tenements after due determination of the Tenancy.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the more speedy and effectual recovery of the possession of tenements unlawfully held over after the determination of the tenancy : Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Preamble.

1 This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as "The Small Tenements Ordinance, 1882."

Short title.

2 In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires—

Definition clause.

The term "tenement" shall mean a house or other building or any part thereof rented, or which may be rented, exclusive of all taxes, rates, and assessments, at a sum not exceeding twenty rupees a month, other than a tenement held, or occupied under a tenure registered under the provisions of "The Service Tenures Ordinance, 1870."

Small Tenements.

The term "town" shall mean the towns of Colombo, Kandy, and Galle, within their respective municipal limits, and such of the towns mentioned in the schedule of "The Local Boards of Health and Improvement Ordinance, 1876," and in Ordinance No. 21 of 1877, the limits of which have been defined by Proclamations issued under those Ordinances, and also such other towns which shall be determined upon by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, and the limits of which, for the purposes of this Ordinance, shall, by Proclamation, be published in the Government Gazette.

Where the tenant or occupier of a tenement refuses to give up possession, after determination of tenancy, the landlord may apply to the court of requests for writ of possession; and if tenant does not appear on rule nisi served upon him, or fails to show cause, the court shall issue writ to give possession to landlord.

3 Whenever the term or interest of the tenant of any tenement situated in any town shall have ended, or shall have been duly determined by legal notice to quit, and such tenant, or (if such tenant do not actually occupy the premises or occupy only a part thereof) any person by whom the same or any part thereof shall be then actually occupied, shall neglect or refuse to quit and deliver up possession of the tenement or of such part thereof respectively, it shall be lawful for the landlord to file in the court of requests of the division in which such tenement is situated an application praying for the recovery of possession, and such application shall be supported by an affidavit of the landlord or his agent, setting forth the holding, the end, or other determination of the tenancy, with the time or manner thereof, and where the title of the applicant shall have accrued since the letting of the premises, the right by which he claims the possession. Thereupon the court shall cause a copy of the application and affidavit aforesaid and a rule nisi to be served on the tenant or occupier to appear on a day certain to be named by the court, not less than three or more than seven clear days after the service of the said rule, and show cause why he should not deliver up possession of the tenement to the said applicant or his agent; and if the tenant or occupier shall not appear at the time appointed, or, appearing, shall not show good and valid cause to the contrary, the rule nisi shall be made absolute with costs, and the court shall forthwith issue (and if need be re-issue) a writ of possession to the fiscal of the district requiring and authorizing him, within a period therein to be named, not less than three or more than seven clear days from the date of the issue or re-issue of such writ, to give possession of the tenement to such landlord or his agent; and such writ shall be sufficient to the said fiscal to enter upon the tenement with such assistants as he shall deem necessary and to give possession accordingly. And the costs incurred in the suing out and execution of such writ shall be recovered from the tenant or occupier. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to protect any person, by whom any such writ shall be sued out, from any action or proceeding which may be brought against him by any such tenant or occupier for or in respect of such entry and taking possession, where such person had not at the time of suing out the same as aforesaid lawful right to the possession of the said tenement.

Small Tenements.

4 The rule nisi aforesaid shall be served by the fiscal, or any officer appointed by him, on the tenant or occupier personally, or by leaving the same with some adult person being in and apparently residing at the place of abode of the person or persons so holding over as aforesaid; provided that if the person or persons so holding over, or any or either of them, cannot be found, and the place of abode of such person or persons shall either not be known or admission thereto cannot be obtained for serving such rule nisi, the posting of the rule nisi on some conspicuous part of the tenement so held over shall be deemed to be good service upon such person or persons respectively, anything in the Ordinance No. 4 of 1867 to the contrary notwithstanding, and the fiscal shall return to the court the mode of the service of the said rule nisi and the circumstances under which such service was made.

Mode of service of rule nisi, and the return thereto.

5 If, in showing cause to the rule nisi aforesaid, the tenant shall, upon affidavit, deny the legal determination of the tenancy, or shall profess to hold the tenement in his own right or under any other person than the applicant, or raise any other valid defence, necessitating, in the opinion of the court, a postponement of the hearing, the court shall immediately settle and record the issue or issues raised, and, having regard to the circumstances of the case, appoint as early a day as possible for the hearing of evidence, and the parties shall take immediate notice of the same. The chief clerk of the said court shall thereupon issue subpoenas to such witnesses as may be required by the parties, commanding their attendance at the time and place specified. No further postponement of the hearing shall be allowed except by consent of parties, or for any reason save the absence of a material witness. And in every affidavit for founding a motion for such postponement, the facts which the said witness knows and is able to prove shall be set forth, as also that he is not kept away by collusion. On the day appointed the court shall hear and determine the issues raised, and give judgment thereon, anything to the contrary in the Ordinance No. 11 of 1868 notwithstanding.

Procedure where tenant raises a valid defence, necessitating postponement of the hearing.

6 In every case in which the person by whom any such writ of possession shall be sued out of the court had not at the time of suing out the same lawful right to the possession of the tenement, the suing out of the writ aforesaid shall be deemed a trespass by him against the tenant or occupier of the tenement, although no entry shall be made by virtue of the writ of possession. And in case any such tenant or occupier will become bound with two sufficient securities in such sum as to the court shall seem reasonable, regard being had to the rent already due and which may become due, and to the probable cost of the action herein mentioned, to sue in a court of competent jurisdiction, within two months from the date of such bond, the person by whom such writ was sued out, and to pay all the costs incidental to such action in case a judgment shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff shall discontinue or not prosecute his action or How execution of writ of possession may be stayed.

Small Tenements.

become nonsuit therein, execution upon the writ shall be stayed until judgment shall have been given in such action; and if, upon the trial of such action of trespass, judgment shall pass for the plaintiff, such judgment shall supersede the said writ.

Appeal to Supreme Court.

8 Any party who shall be dissatisfied with any final judgment, or any order having the effect of a final judgment, may appeal to the Supreme Court against any such judgment or order, and all such appeals shall be filed within five days (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) of the order of judgment complained of, and be governed in all other respects by the same rules as are applicable to appeals from judgments of courts of requests.

Forms to be used.

9 The precedents contained in the schedule of forms hereto annexed shall be followed as near as is material in the procedure enacted by this Ordinance.

Commencement.

10 This Ordinance shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1883.

No. 14 of 1882.An Ordinance to establish further Tolls and to discontinue certain Tolls.

(See No. 14 of 1867.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to establish the tolls hereinafter specified and to discontinue the tolls hereinafter specified: It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:

Preamble.

1 From and after the first day of January, 1883, tolls shall be established on and in respect of the following roads and ferries, viz.:

Establishment of certain tolls.

Western Province.

On the road from Colombo to Keşbēwa, between the 10th and 11th mileposts at or near Bókundara. Such toll to clear and to be cleared by that already established on the aforesaid road and that from Moratuwa to Mámpe at their junction at Mámpe.

On the road from Minuwangoda to Koţadeniyáwa, between the 26th and 27th mileposts.

On the road from Negombo to Giriulla, between the 8th and 9th mileposts.

On the road from Ratnapura to Nambápána, between the 9th and 10th mileposts at Kurugammódara ferry.

Telephones.

On the road from Visidagama to Wéwita, at or near Visidagama. This toll to form one toll with those already established at Bandáragama and Bolgođa. Payment at any one of the three stations to clear the rest.

On the road from Galapáta to Kalutara, at the ferry across the Kalu-gaᅅga at Galapáta. Such toll to clear and to be cleared by that already established at the ferry across the Keᅇu-ęla on the road from Deᅇstara Kalutara to Anguruwátota.

Central Province.

A branch toll station at Gurudeniya, on the road from Talátu-oya to Gurudeniya and within a quarter of a mile of Kershaw's bridge. Payment at either Ampitiya or Gurudeniya shall clear the other.

On the (grant-in-aid) road from Náwalapiᅇiya to Dikoya, between the 40th and 41st mileposts.

Discontinuation of certain tolls.

2 From and after the first day of January, 1883, the levy of tolls hitherto established in respect of the following roads shall be discontinued, viz. :

Western Province.

On the road from Minuwangođa to Koᅇadeniyáwa, between the 25th and 26th mileposts.

On the road from Negombo to Giriulla, between the 4th and 6th mileposts.

On the minor road from Póré to Bópé, at Goᅇagama.

No. 16 of 1882.An Ordinance to authorize and regulate the use of Telephones in this Island.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is desirable to permit the establishment and use of private telephones : It is hereby enacted by the Governor of Ceylon, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :

Short title.

1 This Ordinance may be cited as "The Telephone Ordinance, 1882."

The Governor may grant license to establish telephones.

2 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to grant a license to any company to establish, maintain, and use a line of telephones, or exchange telephones, within any part of this island, which license shall be revocable by the Governor, with the like advice, on the breach of any of the regulations, terms, or conditions in the said license contained.

Telephones.

3 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to establish and fix a royalty upon the establishment, maintenance, or use of every telephone, for which a license is granted under the preceding section. The amount of such royalty shall be fixed by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, at the time of the grant of each license : Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, from time to time as he may think expedient, by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette," to alter, vary, increase, or decrease the amount of any royalty established under the provisions of this Ordinance, so that such royalty shall not exceed five per cent. upon the fees received by any company for the use of the telephones.

Governor may fix royalty.

4 Any company licensed as aforesaid may erect telephones or posts, or construct works upon, over, under, across, or along any street, road, land, building, railway, canal, or other property, and may alter or remove the same : Provided always that the company shall not be deemed to acquire any right other than that of user only in the soil of any street, road, land, building, railway, canal, or other property under, over, or along which they erect any telephone or posts or construct any work : Provided further that every such erection and construction shall be conducted, carried out, maintained, and performed in strict conformity to the conditions under which the license of the company erecting or constructing the same was granted, and in strict compliance with the regulations for the time being in force touching the erection, construction, and maintenance of works, posts, and telephones.

Company may erect telephones.

5 In the exercise of the powers given by the last foregoing section, the company shall do as little damage as may be, and shall make full compensation to all bodies and persons interested for all damage sustained by them, by reason or in consequence of the exercise of such powers : the amount and application of such compensation to be determined by arbitration in the manner hereinafter provided.

Company to make compensation :
amount to be determined by arbitration.

6 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to make, and from time to time to repeal, alter, vary, or amend, such regulations as he shall consider necessary for any of the following purposes :

Governor may make regulations.

- (1) For the giving of notices by the company to any bodies or persons upon whose property the company may enter, or whose property may be affected in the course of constructing or maintaining any work ;
- (2) For the construction of works upon and under streets and roads ;
- (3) For the removal of works affecting streets and roads ;
- (4) For the allowing or restraining the opening or breaking up of streets and roads ;

Telephones.

- (5) For the regulation of works affecting municipal, private, or Crown property ;
- (6) For the removal or alteration of works affecting land or buildings ;
- (7) For determining the obligations and liabilities of the company and of their servants respectively ;
- (8) For the winding up of any company licensed to erect telephones under this Ordinance, and to prevent the sale by any company of any works without the consent of Government ;
- (9) For any other purpose necessary for the proper working of telephones or exchange telephones, and for the protection of public or other property affected thereby.

Governor may purchase telephones so erected.

7 It shall be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, at any time after the erection of a telephone or exchange telephone, to purchase the same from the company on behalf of the Ceylon Government ; and the company shall, upon receiving six months' previous notice in writing from the Colonial Secretary of the intention of the Government to purchase such telephone or work, sell and transfer the same to the Ceylon Government. In the event of the Government and the company being unable to fix the price to be paid for such telephone or work, the same shall be determined by arbitration in the manner hereinafter provided.

Reference to arbitration, and mode of procedure under it.

8 When any question of disputed compensation under this Ordinance, or under the regulations for the time being in force under the provisions of this Ordinance, authorized or required to be settled by arbitration, shall have arisen, then, unless both parties shall concur in the appointment of a single arbitrator, each party, on the request of the other party, shall nominate and appoint an arbitrator, to whom such dispute shall be referred ; and every appointment of an arbitrator shall be made on the part of the company under the hand of their secretary or clerk, and on the part of any other party under the hand of such party or the agent of such party lawfully authorized in that behalf, and such appointment shall be delivered to the arbitrator, and shall be deemed a submission to arbitration on the part of the party by whom the same shall be made ; and after any such appointment shall have been made, neither party shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other, nor shall the death of either party operate as a revocation ; and if for the space of fourteen days after any such dispute shall have arisen, and after a request in writing in which shall be stated the matter so required to be referred to arbitration shall have been served by the one party on the other party to appoint an arbitrator, such last-mentioned party fail to appoint such arbitrator, then upon such failure the party making the request and having himself appointed an arbitrator may appoint such arbitrator to act on behalf of both parties, and such arbitrator may proceed to hear and determine the matters which shall be in dispute, and in such case the award or determination of such single arbitrator shall be final.

9 If, before the matters so referred shall be determined, any arbitrator appointed by either party die, or become incapable, the party by whom such arbitrator was appointed may nominate and appoint in writing some other person to act in his place; and if for the space of seven days after notice in writing from the other party for that purpose he fail to do so, the remaining or other arbitrator may proceed ex parte; and every arbitrator so to be substituted as aforesaid shall have the same powers and authorities as were vested in the former arbitrator at the time of such his death or disability as aforesaid.

In case of death of arbitrator.

10 Where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed, such arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matters referred to them, nominate and appoint, by writing under their hands, an umpire to decide on any such matters on which they shall differ, or which shall be referred to him under the provisions of this Ordinance; and if such umpire shall die or become incapable to act, they shall forthwith after such death or incapacity appoint another umpire in his place, and the decision of every such umpire on the matters so referred to him shall be final.

Election of umpire, and in case of death of umpire.

11 If in either of the cases aforesaid the said arbitrators shall refuse, or shall, for seven days after request to either party to such arbitration, neglect to appoint an umpire, the police magistrate of the district where the matter referred to arbitration occurred, took place, or commenced, shall, on the application of either party to such arbitration, appoint an umpire, and the decision of such umpire on the matters on which the arbitrators shall differ, or which shall be referred to him under this Ordinance, shall be final.

Appointment of umpire on failure to elect.

12 If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed, either of the arbitrators refuse or for seven days neglect to act, the other arbitrator may proceed ex parte, and the decision of such other arbitrator shall be as effectual as if he had been the single arbitrator appointed by both parties.

Arbitrators failing to act.

13 If, where more than one arbitrator shall have been appointed, and where neither of them shall refuse or neglect to act as aforesaid, such arbitrators shall fail to make their award within twenty-one days after the day on which the last of such arbitrators shall have been appointed, or within such extended time (if any) as shall have been appointed for that purpose by both such arbitrators under their hands, the matters referred to them shall be determined by the umpire to be appointed as aforesaid.

Arbitrators failing to make award.

14 The said arbitrators or their umpire may call for the production of any documents in the possession or power of either party which they or he may think necessary for determining the question in dispute, and may examine the parties or their witnesses on oath, and administer the oaths necessary for that purpose.

Arbitrators and umpire may call evidence.

Declaration to be made by them.

15 Before any arbitrator or umpire shall enter into the consideration of any matters referred to him, he shall in the presence of a justice of the peace make and subscribe the following declaration; that is to say,

I, A. B., do solemnly and sincerely declare that I will faithfully and honestly and to the best of my skill and ability hear and determine the matters referred to me under the provisions of the Ordinance.

(Signed) A. B.

Justice of the Peace.

Costs of arbitration.

16 All the costs of any such arbitration and incident thereto to be settled by the arbitrators shall be borne by the company, unless the arbitrators shall award the same or a less sum than shall have been offered by the company, in which case each party shall bear his own costs incident to the arbitration, and the costs of the arbitrators shall be borne by the parties in equal proportions.

Custody and record of award.

17 The arbitrators shall deliver their award in writing to the company, and the said company shall retain the same, and shall forthwith, on demand, at their own expense, furnish a copy thereof to the other party to the arbitration, and shall at all times, on demand, produce the said award, and allow the same to be inspected or examined by such party or any person appointed by him for that purpose.

Submission to arbitration may be made rule of court.

18 The submission to any such arbitration may, on the application of either of the parties, be made a rule of the district court of the district where the matter referred to arbitration occurred, took place, or commenced.

Irregularity or error of form in award.

19 No award made with respect to any question referred to arbitration under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be set aside for irregularity or error in matter of form.
