The following documents were laid on the table :—General Statement of Receipts and Disbursements from close of 1890 to September 30, 1891 ; Separate Statement of Receipts and Disbursements in respect of the General Revenue, Police Assessment, and Water-rate Accounts for the same period ; Progress Report of Work done brought up to the same date ; Work done by the Municipal Magistrate, and of Cases instituted by the several Inspectors during the month of September ; also Health Officer's report for September.

3. Read letter dated September 24 from Mr. F. van Langenberg, conveying his thanks to the Chairman and Members for the resolution unanimously adopted, restoring him to office as Councillor.

4. Read letter dated September 8 from Mr. C. Vanderwall, in reply to the Secretary's letter No. 690 of September 7, inquiring whether the Council would be justified in entertaining the proposal made by Mr. B. A. Grebe for the settlement of the Council's claim against him. The letter and connected papers had been circulated, and the several opinions recorded by the Members were also read.

After a short discussion it was resolved, on motion of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. E. Beven : " That this Council are not prepared to accept the offer made by Mr. Grebe, but they agree not to press their claim at present if he undertakes to pay Rs. 500 within twelve months, and will thereafter pay a further sum of Rs. 500 within such time as may be agreed upon," when Mr. van Langenberg dissented, and upon a division being taken the votes recorded were :—

No resolutions were passed thereon.

6. Read petition dated October 5 from several house-owners, complaining that several premises have been sold for default by occupiers in payment of taxes due without notice to the owners, and praying that the Municipal Councils Ordinance may be amended, or a by-law introduced providing for special notice to owners of properties.

The Secretary stated, in reply to a question, that no sale had taken place without notice given as required by law. Section 151, No. 7 of 1887.

Resolved,—That the petitioners be informed that notice of sales of properties has always been given in one of the local papers, and a notice will also be posted up in the Municipal Office on the notice board in the front verandah ; that no other course will be followed unless the Ordinance is amended.

7. The ordinary business having been gone through, the Chairman proceeded, in presence of the Members of the Council, to unveil the portrait of the late Hon. James van Langenberg, presented by Mr. F. H. M. Corbet, and which had been hung up on the south wall as resolved upon.

Sanitary Report for September, 1891.

General Health.—The general health of the town during the month was satisfactory. There were no cases of smallpox, and although cholera prevailed in Matale and on the North road, I am glad to report that, owing to the strict measures adopted by the Civil Medical Department, its introduction into the town of Kandy was prevented. Eight cases of chickenpox were reported (four from Deyannevela on the 7th, one from Asgeriya on the 8th, one from the Old Jail on the 10th, and two from Mahaiyawa on the 29th). All these cases were treated in private houses. The one at the Old Jail was isolated away from the other prisoners.

Vaccination.—The following table will show the number of people vaccinated at the Outdoor Dispensary and the Jails during the month. All the operations were made from calf lymph, and to this may be attributed the success of a large number of operations :—

Calf Vaccination for the Month of September, 1891.

	Primary.				Re-vaccination.				Grand Total Vaccinated.
	Number Vaccinated.	Successful.	Failed.	Absent.	Number Vaccinated.	Successful.	Failed.	Absent.
Outdoor Dispensary ...	785	691	40	54	974	740	151	83	1,759
Jails ...	45	37	5	3	—	—	—	—	45
Total ...	830	728	45	57	974	740	151	83	1,804

Drainage.—The drains are in a satisfactory state. The main drain at Katukelle, formerly reported upon by my predecessor, is now being built.

Slaughter House.—The cattle were daily inspected by me, and, as a rule, found satisfactory.

Market.—(1) The market was daily inspected by me. I had occasion to remark on my visits to this place, that in the mutton stalls it is a common practise to throw the heads of the slaughtered animals on the verandah floor, which gets covered with blood. This is unsightly, and may be prevented by the use of a vessel or a mat sprinkled over with sand. I would suggest that printed notices be stuck up in each stall warning the keepers against this nuisance.

(2) The vegetable side of the market is invariably dirty. The coolies are incessantly, occupied sweeping and removing from the verandahs every conceivable rubbish thrown on the passages by the stall-keepers. Notwithstanding all their efforts, the coolies find it impossible to keep the place clean. The keepers should be compelled to use boxes to store in the rubbish, and I would suggest that the Inspectors or the market-keeper be called upon to institute a few cases, with a view to intimidate this class of offenders.

(3) A butcher was prosecuted and fined Rs. 5 for selling decomposed meat.

A diseased liver was brought to me for medical opinion, and I ordered it to be buried. The butcher was not liable, as he is not supposed to detect disease in meat.

Latrines.—(1) The latrine in connection with the market is daily inspected by me and its cleanliness attended to.

(2) The one in connection with the public tank is fairly well kept. I would recommend that it be white-washed and a barrel of disinfecting powder kept ready for daily use.

(3) The latrine in connection with De Soysa buildings, or the Police Barracks opposite Messrs. d'Esterre's, was on my visit inconceivably dirty. The passages were used and covered with dirt. The practice of using the floor should be at once put a stop to, and I would suggest that printed notices be posted on the wall of every public latrine to warn people against committing this nuisance. The walls here require whitewashing, and disinfecting powder should be freely used.

(4) The Police Court latrine was in a similar condition as the De Soysa one. The passage into this latrine is very narrow, and I would suggest that it be widened. I believe that the people find it difficult to force an entrance into the latrine, and therefore use the passages for calls of nature.

25. Registration of Transfer.—Every instrument of transfer must be left at the office of the Company to be registered, accompanied by such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to prove the title of the transfer, and a fee of rupees one and cents fifty, or such other sum as the Directors shall from time to time determine, must be paid, and thereupon the Directors, subject to the powers vested in them by Articles twenty-three, twenty-four, and twenty-six, shall register the transferee as a Shareholder, and retain the instrument of transfer.

26. The Directors may, by such means as they shall deem expedient, authorise the registration of transferees as Shareholders without the necessity of any meeting of the Directors for that purpose.

27. Directors not bound to inquire as to validity of Transfer.—In no case shall the Directors be bound to inquire into the validity, legal effect, or genuineness of any instrument of transfer produced by a person claiming as transferee of any share in accordance with these Articles; and whether they abstain from so inquiring, or do so inquire and are misled, the transferor shall have no claim whatsoever upon the Company in respect of the share, except for the dividends previously declared in respect thereof, but only, if at all, upon the transferee.

28. Transfer Books when to be closed.—The transfer books may be closed during the fourteen days immediately preceding each Ordinary General Meeting, including the first General Meeting; also, when a dividend is declared for the three next days ensuing the meeting.

30. Registration of Persons entitled to Shares otherwise than by Transfer.—Any guardian of any infant Shareholder, or any committee of a lunatic Shareholder, or any person becoming entitled to shares in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, or liquidation of any Shareholder, or the marriage of any female Shareholder, or in any other way than by transfer, shall, upon securing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this clause or of his title, as the Company think sufficient, be forthwith entitled, subject to the provisions herein contained, to be registered as a Shareholder in respect of such shares, or may, subject to the regulations as to transfers hereinbefore contained, transfer the same to some other person.

31. Failing such Registration Shares may be sold by the Company.—If any person who shall become entitled to be registered in respect of any share under clause 30 shall not, from any cause whatever, within twelve calendar months after the event on the happening of which his title shall accrue, be registered in respect of such share, or if in the case of the death of any Shareholder no person shall within twelve calendar months after such death be registered as a Shareholder in respect of the shares of such deceased Shareholder, the Company may sell such shares, either by public auction or private contract, and give a receipt for the purchase money, and the purchaser shall be entitled to be registered in respect of such share, and shall not be bound to inquire whether the events have happened which entitled the Company to sell the same; and the net proceeds of such sale, after deducting all expenses and all moneys in respect of which the Company is entitled to a lien on the shares so sold, shall be paid to the person entitled thereto.

SHARES (SURRENDER AND FORFEITURE).

32. The Directors may accept surrender of Shares.—The Directors may accept in the name and for the benefit of the Company, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed, a surrender of the shares of Shareholders who may be desirous of retiring from the Company.

33. If call or Instalment be not paid, notice to be given to Shareholder.—If any Shareholder fail to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may, at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such Shareholder, requiring him to pay the same, together with any interest that may have accrued, and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.

Terms of Notice.—The notice shall name a day (not being less than one month from the date of the notice) and a place or places at which such call or instalment, and such interest and expenses as aforesaid, are to be paid. The notice shall also state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

In default of payment Shares to be forfeited.—If the requisition of such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, every or any share or shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of calls or instalments, interest, and expenses due in respect thereof, be declared forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.

Shareholder still liable to pay Money owing at time of Forfeiture.—Any Shareholder whose shares have been so declared forfeited shall, notwithstanding, be liable to pay, and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, instalments, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment, at nine per cent. per annum, and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof if they think fit.

34. Surrendered or forfeited Shares to be Property of Company and may be sold, &c.—Every share surrendered or so declared forfeited shall be deemed to be property of the Company, and may be sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of upon such terms and in such manner as the Board shall think fit.

35. Effect of surrender or Forfeiture.—The surrender or forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in, and also of all claims and demands against, the Company in respect of the share and the proceeds thereof, and all other rights incident to the share, except only such of those rights (if any) as by these presents are expressly saved.

36. Certificate of Surrender or Forfeiture.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors and of the Secretary, that a share has been duly surrendered or forfeited, stating the time when it was surrendered or forfeited, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons who would have been entitled to the share but for such surrender or forfeiture, and such certificate and the receipt of the Company for the price of such share shall constitute a good title to such share; and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to any person who may purchase the same from the Company, and thereupon such purchaser shall be deemed the holder of such share discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture or sale.

Forfeiture may be remitted.—The Directors may in their discretion remit or annul the forfeiture of any share within six months from the date thereof upon the payment of all moneys due to the Company from the late holder or holders of such share or shares, and all expenses incurred in relation to such forfeiture, together with such further sum of money by way of redemption money, for the deficit as they shall think fit, not being less than nine per cent. on the amount of the sums wherein default in payment had been made, but no share, bonâ fide sold or re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of under Article thirty-four hereof, shall be redeemable after sale or disposal.

37. Company's Lien on Shares.—The Company shall have a first charge or paramount lien upon all the shares of any holder or joint-holders for all moneys for the time being due to the Company by such holder, or by all or any of such joint-holders respectively, either in respect of such shares or of other shares held by such holder or joint-holders or otherwise, and whether due from any such holder individually or jointly with others, including all calls resolutions for which shall have been passed by the Directors, although the times appointed for the payment thereof shall not have arrived; and where any share is held by more persons than one, the Company shall be entitled to the said charge or lien in respect of any money due to the Company from any of such person. And the Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares subject to such charge or lien.

38. Lien how made available.—Such charge or lien may be made available by a sale of all or any of the shares subject to it, provided that no such sale shall be made except under a resolution of the Directors, and until notice in writing shall have been given to the indebted Shareholder or his executors or administrators, or the assignee or trustee in his bankruptcy, requiring him or them to pay the amount for the time being due to the Company, and default shall have been made for twenty-eight days from such notice in paying the sum thereby required to be paid. Should the Shareholder over whose share the lien exists be in England or elsewhere abroad, sixty days' notice shall be allowed him.

39. Proceeds how applied.—The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of such debts, liabilities, or engagements, and the residue (if any) paid to such Shareholder or his representatives.

40. Certificate of Sale.—A certificate in writing under the hands of two of the Directors and of the Secretary, that the power of sale given by clause 33 has arisen, and is exercisable by the Company under these presents, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated.

41. Transfer on Sale how executed.—Upon any such sale, two of the Directors may execute a transfer of such share to the purchaser thereof, and such transfer, with the certificate last aforesaid, shall confer on the purchaser a complete title to such shares.

CALLS.

42. Directors may make Calls.—The Directors may from time to time make such calls as they think fit upon the holders of registered shares in respect of moneys unpaid thereon, and not by the conditions of allotment made payable at fixed times, and each Shareholder shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors, provided that two months' notice at least shall be given to the Shareholders of the time and place appointed for payment of each call. If any Shareholder fail to pay any call due from him on the day appointed for payment thereof, he shall be liable to pay interest for the same at the rate of nine per cent. per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment.

Calls time when made.—A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution authorising the call was passed at a Board Meeting of the Directors.

Extension of time for payment of Call.—The Directors shall have power in their absolute discretion to give time to any one or more Shareholder or Shareholders, exclusive of the others, for payment of any call or part thereof on such terms as the Directors may determine. But no Shareholder shall be entitled to any such extension except as a matter of grace or favour.

43. Payments in anticipation of Calls at Interest.—The Directors may at their discretion receive from any Shareholder willing to advance the same, and upon such terms as they think fit, all or any part of the amount of his shares beyond the sum actually called up, and upon the moneys so paid in advance, or upon so much thereof from time to time and at any time thereafter as exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon, and due in respect of the shares on account of which such advances are made, the Board may pay or allow interest at such rate as the Shareholder and the Directors may agree upon, not exceeding, however, six per cent. per annum.

BORROWING POWERS.

44. Power to Borrow.—The Directors may from time to time, at their discretion, borrow any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, and may raise or secure the re-payment of such moneys in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as they think fit, and may issue debentures of the Company charged upon all or any part of the property of the Company (both present and future), including its uncalled capital for the time being.
