An Evangelistic Trip

Under the auspices of the J. N. E. S. an Evangelistic Trip was made to the island of Delft on the 28th-30th September, 1940. Revs. R. C. P. Welch, S. T. Aseervatham, G. D. Thomas, and Mr. K. S. Jayasingam joined in the trip. The party left for the island by the Government Boat, "the Silver Spray", on the 28th morning and reached at 12.30 p.m. At 3.30 p.m. on the same day the Annual Thanksgiving of the Church was held. The Thanksgiving Service was conducted by the Rev. S. T. Aseervatham, which was followed by a Fancy Sale.

Another item on the programme of the day was children's exercises. The children of our school there gladdened the hearts of all present by their Koladham, dramatization, songs, etc. led by Mr. J. Ratnasingham Catechist there.

At 7 p.m. we conducted a Gospel preaching with the aid of magic lantern shows. It was largely attended. Sunday the 29th the Divine Service was conducted and the Rev. R. C. P. Welch preached a sermon on the "Vision of God" basing his thoughts on Prov. 29:18, and at the end of the service the Sacrament of the Holy Communion was administered by the Revs. G. D. Thomas and R. C. P. Welch. A special service for children was arranged and Mr. K. S. Jayasingam addressed the children. Another Gospel preaching was conducted at Delft East, illustrated by lantern slides. If such trips are arranged now and then it would surely encourage our workers there.

Wedding

The marriage took place on Wednesday at Holy Rosary Church Slave Island, Colombo, of Mr. Mervyn St. B. Casie Chitty, Proctor, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. O. Casie Chitty of "Greenlands", Mount Lavinia, and Miss Abigail Babapulle, only daughter of the late Dr. C. Bivio Babapulle, and Mrs. Babapulle of "Abigito", Kollupitiya, Colombo.

Birth

Thirakajasingham as Foreman, a man named Suppan Kasiyan of Alway North was indicted with the murder of Kanchan Kumaran on 5th June 1940. The accused was found guilty by 5 to 2. Sentences to death was passed on the accused. The case lasted 4 days.

Obituary

There passed away on Tuesday last Mr. E. V. Nathaniel, Retired Station Master, at his residence in Station Road Jaffna. He retired from the Railway about three years ago, and was ailing for some time. The funeral took place the next day and was largely attended. The Service at the house was conducted by Rev. V. B. Muthuveloe, assisted by Rev. S. C. Daniel and Rev. James S. Mather. Addresses were made by Mr. M. Prasad, Government Agent, Mr. J. V. Chelliah and Rev. Muthuveloe. The interment took place in St. John's Burial Ground, Chundukuli. Many floral wreaths were sent by friends in Colombo and other outstations, and numerous telegrams were received. Mr. Nathaniel was 60 years old, and leaves behind, his wife five sons and two daughters besides numerous relations to whom he was dear.

CEYLON

(Speech by R. S. D. Williams Esq., B. A., Principal, Jaffna Central College at the Alumni Dinner, Jaffna College).

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen, first of all I must thank you for the honour you have conferred upon me by inviting me to share the joys of this fellowship to-night...

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen, may Ceylon never know these things: may the sacrifices of those other nations be sufficient; may the sons and daughters of this land, which we love so much...

But, for a moment, let me turn to lighter vein to a few brief observations on my experiences as a newcomer to Ceylon. Since our arrival in Jaffna last May, Mrs. Williams and I have been overwhelmed by the warmth of welcome afforded us.

THE LATE DR. L. P. LARSEN.

By Rev. James S. Malher one of his students in Bangalore.

All over India and Ceylon there will be hundreds of people of all races and creeds who heard of the death of Dr. L. P. Larsen with a sense of personal loss.

Dr. Larsen was a true Christian, a great model. In him one saw wide scholarship and true piety well combined. He was a saint as well as one of the most educated and most enlightened Westerners who ever set his foot on India's soil.

His books will long be read and studied by successive generations of students, young and old. His book on "Prayer" for instance shows the depth of Dr. Larsen's thinking as well as the heights to which he climbed in his undertaking of true religion.

I have not referred here to his work as the Chief Reviser of the Tamil Bible which speaks for itself and will always be in our hands and keep on ever reminding us of his Biblical Scholarship and devotion to the truth.

His old students and friends were frequently received in his home and entertained. We know how he and Mrs. Larsen were a happy pair, and how jointly and devotedly they served the Kingdom. They rose most magnificently above all colour prejudices and differences, and there was no one who did not feel at home in their company.

GOVERNMENT OF CEYLON WAR PURPOSES FUND

Since the last list was issued on the 19th September the Fund has grown from Rs. 537,269.35 to Rs. 563,058.23, i. e. an addition of Rs. 25,788.88.

The Government Press Sports Club has contributed a further sum of Rs. 2,500 being a final instalment from moneys collected at the Printers' Pic Carnival; generous subscriptions have been given to other War Funds from the same source.

A generous subscription of Rs. 1,500 has been received from the Palamadula Sports Club and the Dutch Burgher Union has contributed Rs. 1,500, Rs. 1,000 of which represents the part proceeds of an evening of Fun and Fare.

The most notable of the subscriptions received from the general public is the sum of Rs. 1,750 received from the Girls' Friendly Society being the proceeds of a Bargain Sale.

War Purposes fund not devoted to Local Defence. There is some reason for believing that an impression has gained currency that the moneys collected for the Ceylon War Purposes Fund are devoted to local defence purposes.

Jaffna Plane Fund: It may be mentioned, however, that in order to assist the Jaffna Plane Fund public officers have been permitted to divert from the War Purposes Fund to that Fund their monthly contributions for six months beginning from the month of July.

Table with financial data: Previously acknowledged: Rs. Cts. From the general public 125,524.75, Social & Sports Clubs 295,903.18, Public Service & Govt. pensioners 113,036.45, Total 537,269.38
